(Berkeley's fellow beetles back away in fear as a very furious Eli goes up to their leader. Thumbelina also backed away, wondering what Eli is going to do. Berkeley Beetle cowardly backs away as Eli starts closing in on him.)

Eli: (enraged) Listen here, you insolent jerk! You have just made a stupid mistake humiliating Thumbelina in front of me!

(Eli grabs Berkeley's neck tie and pulls him straight forward so he can talk to him eye-to-eye)

Eli: A very big, stupid…

Berkeley Beetle: (very scared with Eli's temper) Now, now, now, now, look, kid, I can explain!

Eli: Mistake! You want to see who's ugly? I'll show you who's ugly! (cracks his fists and prepares to punch Berkeley Beetle)

Berkeley Beetle: (pleadingly) No, no, no, please, kid. Let's not get too hasty now. I-I-I was just kidding about her being ugly. It was just a joke. Really. Honest, it was. Can we just sit down and talk this out with a couple of drinks, please? No, no, no, no, no!

Eli: (growls, blinded by rage) SHUT UP!

BLAM!

Berkley Beetle: (gets punched real hard in the face, getting a black eye in the process) Oww! (Lands on the floor)

(Eli's action gave the beetles a shocking startle. That also startled the The Louds and their friends as well.)

Leni: Oh!

Dana: Oh, my word!

Rita: Goodness gracious!

Becky: Geez Louise!

Luan: What a temper!

Me: WHOA! EXPLOSIVE!

Lady Beetle: Oh my goodness!

Beetle waiter: That kid's got anger issues to work out.

As Eli kicked the beetle.

Eli: The only thing that's ugly around here is the way you treat Thumbelina and your lousy personality! (Takes her hand) Come on, Thumbelina, we're leaving. You don't need to hang out with this jerk and his club of obnoxious lunatics.

Thumbelina: Yeah. But wow you're Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor.

Me: Same here and you are not ugly Thumbelina. You are one of the most beautiful girls we know.

Lori: That's literally right.

Thumbelina: Thanks guys.

Me: You're welcome.

We left.

Though Eli felt bad for letting his friends see him angry and Carol notice.

Carol: Eli?

Eli:Sorry you had to see me like that.

Carol: No worries Eli. But you did great standing up for Thumbelina.

Eli: Really?

Nico: Yeah buddy.

Carol: You sure did.

Eli and Carol hugged.

Barricade: Oh, you think Thumbelina is ugly, huh?! (punches the Beetle)

BLAM! SMASH! BIFF! CRACK! BONK!

Me: YEAH!

Eli: TAKE THAT BEETLE BUTT!

Thumbelina: He sure had it coming.

Ariel: He sure did.

Thumbelina: Wow! Our voices really do sound so much the same.

Ariel: They sure do.

Poromon: Let me join in! But first, I need some beer.

Roxy Rocket: Assuming this place has any.

Nico: Oh boy.

Eli: Not again.

Thumbelina: Does this happen to you all a lot?

Allie Wilde: I would assume so.

Me: Yeah it does Allie. Our Mascots love to get drunk and it's funny and crazy.

Allie Wilde: I see.

Ninetales: That is crazy huh?

Allie Wilde: Boy no kidding. J.D. I'm amazed you taught some of the Pokemon how to talk.

Me: Well Meowth actually taught himself and Nico taught Poliwag how to talk.

The Beetle was badly mangled up and thrashed and humiliated.

Brimstone: Here's some beer, Poromon.

Poromon: Thanks.

He guzzled it down and then…

BARNEY GUMBLE BELCH!

We laughed.

Captain Boomerang: Hey, Poromon. Say something to Mr. Beetle for how he treated Thumbelina.

Poromon: (Slurred Speech) You know who is uglier than you? (Hic) MY MOM!

Muscle Man: (LAUGHS) That's really funny!

Poromon: You know what? You are the worst must (HIC) stupidest beetle ever! You make me want to eat you and vomit all over more beetles!

Nico: WHOA! You tell him!

Mushi: Keep up the drunk talk, Poromon!

Nico: Don't encourage him.

Mushi: Sorry.

Robin Food: It's just so amusing my friend.

Nico: I know.

Black Spider: I hope Poromon eventually vomits over the beetle.

Poromon: (VOMITS ALL OVER THE BEETLE)

Me: EW!

Nico: YEAH!

Laney: That was gross but funny.

Lana: Awesome!

Benson: You got to admit that was funny.

Skips: Yeah it sure was.

Proto Man: I don't think it's possible for me to get drunk.

Nico: I don't thing robots can get drunk can they?

Stormy Weather: I'm no techno whiz but I don't think that's possible.

Laney: Lisa do you know?

Lisa Loud: Negative. Robots can't get alcohol induced deliriousness; street name: Drunk.

Me: We haven't heard you use that kind of terminology in a while Lisa.

Eli: Yeah.

Thumbelina: Lisa is really smart isn't she?

Allie Wilde: She sure is Thumbelina.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lisa is a genius.

Bizarro: Beetle not deserve that for calling Thumbelina ugly!

Me: Not agree Bizarro.

Nico: Me neither.

Pharaoh Man: Show us some more drunk antics, Poromon!

Nico: Pharaoh Man!

Pharaoh Man: What? It's funny.

Poromon then did some crazy drunk dancing while he was singing How Dry I Am. He was hiccuping too. Then he punched the beetle in the crotch and pecked him in his head and then belched in his face. And he even farted in it and we were laughing hysterically.

Madame Masque: This is the longest Poromon has been drunk.

Me: No kidding.

Then we saw Poromon fall asleep.

Nico: He's out cold.

Thumbelina: That was funny though.

Eli: Yeah it sure was.

Me: You should've seen what happened when some of the girls went drunk.

Thumbelina: I will have to take your word for it. I need your help to find the one I want to marry.

Princess Rose: So, some guy wants to marry you?

Thumbelina: Not just a guy. His name is Cornelius and he's a prince. A Fairy Prince.

Me: Wow.

Nuova Shenron: That is amazing and beautiful.

Me: It sure is.

She showed me the ring she was given.

Me: Ooh that's a beautiful ring.

Rarity: A gorgeous ring there darling.

Allie Wilde: It sure is.

Kerbero Gangan: Am I the only one who thinks this guy is suspicious?

Me: Kerberos there's nothing suspicious about Cornelius. He is a prince and the love for Thumbelina that he feels for her is full of purity.

Princess Cadance: It's true and I know pure love when I see it too. His love for her is 100% perfect.

Twilight Sparkle: And I think it's amazing.

Me: Yeah me too. Lets see what it says about this toad.

I looked up the toad and found it. It was GRUNDEL TOAD.

---

Grundel Toad, also simply known as Grundel is the main antagonist of Don Bluth's sixth animated feature film Thumbelina . He is Thumbelina and Prince Cornelius' arch-nemesis.

He was voiced by the late Joe Lynch in his last film role.

Grundel plots to capture and marry Thumbelina and defeat his three other competitors for her affection, those being Berkeley Beetle (whom he pulls the wings off of to make sure he helped find her), Mr. Mole, and the Fairy Prince Cornelius.

In the climax, Grundel fights Cornelius with a torch. Grundel knocks him out and disarms him, but Cornelius grabs his leg and they both fall through the chasm in Mr. Mole's mysterious tunnel.

In the credits, he is seen in the book having survived the fall with a broken leg and married to a female toad.

---

Me: Whoa man! His name is Grundel Toad. So he wants nothing more than to kill Cornelius and the beetle.

Nico: Whoa. We got ourselves a love Pentagon out for Thumbelina.

Eli: Wow no kidding.

Me: But there's only one true love for Thumbelina and that's Cornelius.

Nico: What does it say about Berkeley Beetle?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up Berkeley Beetle's info.

---

Berkeley Beetle, also known as Mr. Beetle, is a supporting antagonist in the 1994 animated Don Bluth film Thumbelina . He becomes the henchman of Grundel Toad. He is a beetle who works with four other beetles and calls himself a "connoisseur of sweet nectars, a designer of rare threads, and a judge of beautiful women".

He was voiced by Gilbert Gottfried, who also played Iago in Disney's Aladdin . His singing voice was provided by Randy Crenshaw.

Berkeley first meets Thumbelina, and recruits her to be in his live stage show for bugs, offering to possibly use his wings to help her return home to her mother if she does so. She performs at his show, disguised as an insect. However, when it becomes clear to the bug audience that she is not really an insect, they laugh at her and heckle her as "Ugly." Berkeley takes their comments to heart and promptly abandons Thumbelina.

He is saying to Grundel Toad about how he doesn't know where Thumbelina is. His wings were taken away by Grundel as a way of bribing him to find and capture the fairy prince Cornelius, who is also trying to find Thumbelina and is also in love with her as she is back to him. He finds Cornelius frozen underwater. When he finds Grundel, he is pleased that the prince is dead. But he still had to find Thumbelina. When he told Grundel about her being forced to marry Mr. Mole, he told Grundel to rescue her but he had to come along, even though he also pointed out that Mr. Mole kills beetles, stuffs them and pins them to his wall.

In the climax, Berkeley tries to catch Thumbelina for Grundel as she leaves the wedding. But when the Fairy Prince arrived - Grundel is enraged that Berkeley failed to kill him, and knocks the Beetle out by humorously bashing his head in and battles Cornelius. In the credits, he is shown to have returned to his normal, pop star life and got his wings back. It was likely that Berkeley Beetle reformed and made amends to Thumbelina and Prince Cornelius.

Me: Whoa! We already know he's a night club owner. But I didn't expect him to be like this.

Eli: He's worse than we thought.

Maria: Well, what about this mole guy?

Thumbelina: I don't know a mole.

Me: She hasn't met him yet.

Suddenly we felt a really strong cold breeze roll in.

Me: Brrr! We better find some place to stay warm. Winter is fast approaching.

May: I don't mind the cold.

Me: I don't either. But some of us do.

We then found a house and it was owned by Ms. Fieldmouse.

We went in and she gave us food and shelter.

Nico: Thanks for the food.

Ms. Fieldmouse: Oh any time dear.

Ms. Fieldmouse told us how she lives in these conditions every year and then we found out that Cornelius was frozen "Dead" in the snow and Thumbelina broke down crying.

Carol: Oh no.

Eli: Wait he's not dead. He wouldn't freeze to death like that. I'm gonna go out and find him. Lola, Pirolilly, Paige, Carmen, you come with me.

Lola: Okay.

Me: Be careful bro. If you see that wretched beetle and toad out there, burn them.

Eli: With pleasure.

Carmen: We got to find him and fast.

They flew out to find him. Over a dead patch of forest they were searching.

Carmen: Something's not right here.

Eli: I feel it.

Pirolilly: Wait what's that?

They saw the Beetle who was badly mangled up thanks to Eli and he had a toad with him and they heard them talking. They were talking about Thumbelina being with us in Ms. Fieldmouse's house and they were gonna go after her with us in there. Inside a block of ice was Cornelius and he was frozen solid. Then the toad and beetle left.

Lola: That's him. We got to thaw him out.

Eli: Come on!

They went to the block of ice and saw Cornelius frozen solid.

Pirolilly: He's frozen solid. He must've fallen into a lake and got frozen.

Eli: Lets thaw him out.

Lola: Lets do it!

They fired blasts of fire and thawed him out instantly!

Carmen: You okay?

Cornelius: I think so. (Sees Eli) Eli? Is that really you?

Eli: It sure is. Its been a while Cornelius.

Cornelius: Wow you are looking good.

Eli: We'll explain later. But we got to get you to Thumbelina. She's in danger. There's a Toad and Beetle after her.

Cornelius: Take me to her fast.

Pirolilly: Lets go.

Eli: Can you fly?

Cornelius: I think so. I'm freezing.

Lola: We'll warm you up along the way.

They flared up their fire auras as they flew and warmed them up.

They came back and Thumbelina was reunited with Cornelius. Eli and the girls told us everything.

Kevin Levin: I knew I hated that beetle for a reason!

N: Same with me.

Cornelius: But thank goodness you guys got me here just in time.

Me: Now we have a more important reason as to why we must protect Thumbelina. That Beetle is nothing but trouble.

Eli: You got that right bro. We're going to turn that toad into frogs legs by the time we're through with him.

Nico: We sure are.

Eli: I'll face the Beetle. Arrietty and Nunnally can help me out with that if you two want.

Arrietty: Count me in Eli.

Nunnally: Anything for my awesome boyfriend.

Laney: Awesome. And the rest of us can take down that rotten frog.

Marinette: I am hungry for frogs legs after today.

Overdrive: I'll need to use a vehicle to get there.

Me: This is the 19th Century, Overdrive. But I think I have something.

I pulled out a Dyna Cap and pressed it and threw it and then…

BBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

A car popped out.

Overdrive: Ooh perfect!

Me: Lets go!

We went to the cathedral and we formed a plan. The plan was to have Thumbelina in a fake marriage and then when Grundel and Berkeley make their entrance we'll strike.

We got the trap wedding underway.

Me: This is it guys. Now we wait.

We saw the wedding and it may have been fake but it was beautiful.

Cornelius: (Singing In Spirit)

Let me be your wings

Let me be your only love

Let me take you

Far beyond the stars

Minister: Mr. Mole, do you take this woman to be your lawful wedded wife?

Cornelius: (Singing)

Let me be your wings

Let me lift you high above

Everything we're dreaming of

Will soon be ours

Mr. Mole: I do.

Cornelius: (Singing)

Anything that you desire

Anything at all

Minister: And, Thumbelina, do you take this mole to be your lawful wedded husband?

Thumbelina: Do not forget me.

Cornelius: Forget-me-nots. I'll never forget you. Never.

Thumbelina: Never, never.

Minister: Speak up.

Thumbelina: Never.

Minister: What?

Thumbelina: Never.

Minister: I beg your pardon?

Thumbelina: I cannot marry Mr. Mole.

Everyone gasped.

Thumbelina: I don't love him.

Mr. Mole: What?

Ms. Fieldmouse: Thumbelina!

Then Grundel Toad and Berkley Beetle busted in!

Thumbelina: You?

Grundel Toad: I marry her!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted above them and a phoenix cry was heard and tentacles formed and grabbed Grundel and Berkley and smashed them down and then we appeared and we were ready to face them.

Cheetah: Insulting Thumbelina wasn't enough, was it?! Now you have to go after her fiancee?!

Fuzzy: I'll turn you into meat for that!

Eli: I'm gonna squish you good Beetle Breath!

Dim: You give us beetles a really bad name!

Flik: Yeah!

Me: And you frog breath are no better!

Grundel Toad: I'm a toad!

Me: Whatever. You're still dead meat!

Technus: Hey, Cyborg. Let's merge into CyTech!

Cyborg: You got it!

They merged and turned into CYTECH!

CyTech: BOOYAH!

Nico: YEAH!

Vexen, Onyx, Po Kong, Turtle, Touch & Go, Beautiful Gorgeous, Toyman, Red X, Loki, and Wolf then appeared.

Me: Vexen, Onyx, Po Kong, Turtle, Touch & Go, Beautiful Gorgeous, Toyman, Red X, Loki, and Wolf.

Wolf: Looks like the action is about to start.

Me: You all arrived just in time.

Vexen: (sees the thawed out Cornelius) I didn't not freeze him just so you know.

William: Relax. We know you didn't.

Onyx: It was because of that mole and beetle.

Me: We already thawed out Cornelius.

Turtle: I hope you guys pummel them!

Me: They won't expect any mercy from us at all.

Po Kong: (to me) We heard you fought a squid the size of me.

Me: Octopus the size of you actually.

Mr. Touch: Why was it after a school bus?

Me: Ravenous appetite fueled by hatred towards humanity.

Nico: Yeah. Brutal but a tasty octopus.

Then 2 figures came out and it was Strikning and Cruel Senturicon!

Me: Strikning and Cruel Senturicon. Both back for round 2.

Cruel Senturicon: Yep. This is gonna be fun.

Strikning: Quick question. Do you guys think we should include the Cyborg Rangers in the Masters of Evil? Just wondering.

Me: That's not a bad idea. They put up one helluva challenge and it'll be awesome to face them.

Eli: Yeah I remember them all too well.

Nico: I agree. They were awesome.

Cruel Senturicon: Maybe I should get a job as a police officer. What do you guys think?

Maria: Well, you do look the part.

Me: Not a bad idea for you. And you do have the power to turn human. Just go talk to Sheila and Tom when we're done here.

?: Don't forget me.

I looked and didn't see anything.

Me: I'm think I'm starting to hear voices.

?: Down here.

I looked and saw a tiny Transformer. It was Minitron!

Nico: Minitron.

Me: Wow you're the smallest Transformer we've ever seen.

Minitron: Yeah it's crazy huh.

Me: It sure is. Who did you decide to face?

Minitron: I decided to face Drill Bit.

Drill Bit (Beast Wars): Awesome! This is gonna be cool.

I then saw a strange small light and it landed in my hand and used my microscopic vision and saw that it was a living subatomic particle.

Me: Wow I didn't know I had microscopic vision with my eyes. But what is a living subatomic particle like you didn't here?

My ultrasonic hearing heard him talk.

Quark: Oh I just joined the Masters of Evil. And I'm not Honia's archenemy. It's gonna be great. By the way I'm Quark.

---

Quark is a sub-atomical villain in the Super Secret Secret Squirrel segment of the 2 Stupid Dogs series.

Biography

He destroys buildings and monuments by taking out the bottom atom making them into dust. He also got Secret Squirrel put into a cell in the asylum by entering through his ear and giving him a hostile suggestion. He then tells Secret Squirrel his plan to destroy Hoover Dam making a flood and then build an amphitheatre out of North America where he will be a singing sensation. After Morocco Mole freed Secret Squirrel by removing the bottom brick from the prison wall, Secret Squirrel shrinks himself to deal with Quark. They chase each other to the shed in a construction site where some workers were having lunch. On their table was a dictionary where Secret Squirrel led Quark to the word that is his name. Secret Squirrel then states that Quark is a "hypothetical" sub-atomic atom meaning that he's an outdated theory. Quark didn't want to believe it and pursue his dream but he couldn't stop the inevitable as he was losing his limbs and eventually blew up in the tiniest nuclear explosion.

Me: Wow you are one of Secret Squirrel's enemies. It's awesome meeting you.

Nico was confused.

Nico: Who are you talking to J.D.?

Me: Look here.

Nico saw Quark.

Nico: What is that?

Me: It's Quark. He's a living subatomic particle and ne is one of Secret Squirrel's enemies.

Nico: Whoa I've heard of him. He was gonna try and turn all of North America into a giant amphitheater.

Me: Yep and he chose Honia as his archenemy.

Nico: Wow. Hornet VS Subatomic Particle.

Honia: Good think I have the ability to shrink like Wasp can.

Me: Cool.

Torch Tiger appeared.

Me: Torch Tiger.

Torch Tiger: Yep. I too have special privileges now.

Me: Sweet.

Pollux and Castor then appeared too!

Shanan: Pollux & Castor! You're now part of the Masters of Evil too?

Pollux: That's right and we are now Cassie's nemeses.

Me: Wow! How interesting.

Cassie: I'm looking forward to this.

?: You guys are here now?

We saw another figure and it was THOMAS! Mordecai, Rigby and Benson's friend.

Mordecai: Oh. Hey, Thomas.

Thomas: Oh, you remember my American name, huh? Do you also remember that friends don't forget each other no matter what?

Rigby: Dude, of course we'd never forget about you.

Thomas: (sarcastically) Yeah, sure. Don 'Thousand was right when he said you guys replaced me with Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: What?

Benson: Don Thousand? Thomas, I don't know what he told you but we'd abandon you.

Thomas didn't listen as he shoved Mordecai and Rigby to the ground.

Me: Thomas what was that for!?

Thomas: I may have lied to you guys about who I really was. But I also helped you guys out on your adventures during my time at the Park. And for what? So you can go out and have fun fighting bad guys while I was on the run from America and Russia?!

Me: Thomas who the hell would tell you that!?

He pulled out a Number Card and it was NUMBER 22: ZOMBIESTEIN!

We gasped.

Eli: Number 22: Zombiestein!

Me: Thomas you got to get rid of that card. It's poisoning your mind with lies.

Thomas: How about I kill you for abandoning me!?

Me: Lets get the battles underway.

Po Kong: (to Nora) I like how Eli and Poromon humiliated that Beetle. Serves him right for calling Thumbelina ugly!

Nora Valkyrie: You got that right! It's absolutely horrible that the Beetle called her that. If he called May that, Nico would be infuriated to the point where he would smash his face in.

Fluttershy: If Spike and Linky saw the Beetle call Rarity that, they would destroy him.

Tree Hugger: Being called that is not cool dudes.

Tornado Bolt: No it sure isn't. If someone called Fluttershy that I would smash their head in.

Star Swirl: No kidding. It's awesome and amazing.

Spyro: It sure is and she loves helping out Rosa with her cooking. She and Rosa are now partners in cooking.

Trixie: That may sound gross but it's part of who she is.

Juniper Montage: Yeah it sure is amazing.

Clover the Clever: But Honia is amazing at what she does.

Link: Oh no, I was hoping I'd never hear that voice ever again. You can come out now, Astor.

A dark figure came out, and it was none other than Astor, the loyal follower of Ganondorf.

Nicole: I should've guessed that the loyal follower of Ganondorf would come out of the shadows.

Astor: And now, I will destroy all of you for ruining my lord's ambitions.

Astor was about to attack, but Da Vinci Dalmatian unholstered her Defender of Camden Town sword from her back, and swiftly slashed off the circlet on his head, causing him severe pain, and returned to us.

Me: Link, what can you tell us about Astor? If he's in league with Ganondorf, then he's got to be bad news to us.

Link: Of course, J.D., and you're right, Astor is in league with Ganondorf.

Link proceeded to tell us about Astor, and we weren't going to like it one bit.

Astor

Astor is the secondary antagonist of Hyrule Warriors: Age of Calamity. He is a mysterious seer in alliance with the Yiga Clan to bring the Calamity to all of Hyrule.

Appearance

Astor has gray skin and purple hair and eyes. He wears a purple cloak with yellow details on the cape and belt. He has a circlet on his head resembling a Malice eye. He uses a Malice-infected crystal orb as his weapon.

Personality

Underneath his calm demeanor, Astor is a sociopathic sadist who believes himself to be superior than all the other forces of Hyrule. Despite his loyalty to Calamity Ganon, Astor only sees him and his Malice as a tool to make the whole world bow down to him as a god. While allied with the Yiga Clan, he sees them more as dimwitted pawns than actual teammates. After ripping out the souls of a group of footsoldiers for him to take control of the Blight Ganons, he taunts the Yiga for finally having some use to him as blood sacrifices.

Biography

Little is known about Astor's origins, other than he grew up in a Hyrule village as a fortune teller. One day, he found a miniature Guardian possessed by the Malice of Calamity Ganon. From the Guardian, Astor learned of the future through a vision it shared, showing Calamity Ganon unleashing the Great Calamity across all of Hyrule. Impressed by the vision foretold to him, Astor allied with the Yiga Clan to ensure the future events came true. His goal was to not only bring Ganon back, but also to dispose of all who pose a threat to Ganon's revival according to the prophecy.

In the Yiga Clan hideout, following the Clan's failed attempt to impersonate Urbosa to seize Zelda, Astor shows Master Kohga and Sooga the future through the Guardian, referring to it as a harbinger, by resonating with it and his magic orb. The image shows Calamity Ganon reforming to spread the Great Calamity. He declares he will not let anything interfere with Ganon's revival. Astor eventually encounters the heroes when they walk through the Lost Woods to reach Deku Forest and seek wisdom from the Great Deku Tree. Astor ambushes them with Malice clones of the Champions called hollows that defeat Link and were very close to killing Zelda. Fortunately, Link resonates with the nearby Master Sword, and uses it to defeat the hollows and Astor, forcing him to retreat.

Back in the Yiga hideout, Astor observes Zelda repairing the Sheikah Towers. He learns that since the Hyruleans found a way to resonate with the towers using the Sheikah Slate, they would be able to discover the Yiga Clan's hideout and warns Kohga. Kohga asks him what they should do to intercept, to which Astor replies that Ganon will guide them. Using his orb and the harbinger to see another glimpse into the future, Astor tells them that the Harbinger contains the essence of Ganon within it, and boasts that by using it, the whole world will bow to him. Sooga warns him that Ganon is simply a force that cannot be controlled, but Astor ignores his advice.

Eventually, the hideout is exposed and the Yiga are forced to retreat. While Master Kohga and Sooga ponder what else to do by a desert cliff, Astor appears behind them. They are angry that he was not there to assist them. Astor replies that it was simply fate they would eventually be discovered. Sooga lifts the seer by the neck, threatening him that the Yiga could no longer oversee his failures. But Astor warns them that making an enemy out of him will also make an enemy of Ganon. He informs them the Yiga Clan must work with him if they seek to accomplish their goal in the name of Ganon.

After mysterious rifts of time created by Terrako from Princess Zelda's sorrow bring out the future Champions to save the Champions from being killed and the Divine Beasts from falling to the control of the Blight Ganons, Astor uses his orb to suck out the souls of many Yiga Clan members to revive the Blights, much to Kohga and Sooga's horror. He explains that becoming blood sacrifices would be the best source for the Calamity, and mocks the two that they can actually be useful for once in their lives and sends out a hollow Link to take care of them.

While Kohga and Sooga were distracted, Astor ambushes Link, Zelda, and Impa as they attempt to retreat to Fort Hateno. He summons the Blights and orders them to finish them off. Link tries to hold the Blights back but was quickly overwhelmed. Before they could kill him, Zelda awakens the Triforce within her hand, weakening the Blights enough to defeat them and retreat, much to Astor's horror.

Knowing they will return, an increasingly desperate Astor takes control over the Malice infected Hyrule Castle in his final plan to take control of all Hyrule. With a final push, Zelda unifies all remaining forces into rallying together to take back the castle, including a redeemed Master Kohga and the Yiga Clan. Astor sends out Harbinger Ganon to destroy them, boasting that stepping his foot in their face was his fate.

Ultimately, both Harbinger Ganon and Astor were defeated. Enraged that they go against his destiny, Astor demands Ganon to devour them all. However, Ganon, fed up with Astor's constant failures, instead consumes him with Malice, absorbing his powers with the Harbinger to grant himself a physical form, an ironic twist to Sooga's warning. By the end, the heroes successfully defeat Ganon and Zelda seals him away.

When Link was finished, we were indeed horrified by Astor's actions, but none more so than Da Vinci Dalmatian, who still had her Defender of Camden Town sword out.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: You are indeed an unforgivable soul, Astor, and I've had enough of your crimes to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Da Vinci Dalmatian's eyes turned neon pink, and she was surrounded by a pink energy aura with orbs of colored paint surrounding her, and as she walked towards Astor, she left pink fire, orbs of colored paint, and pink energy with every step.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: Astor, your dark crimes against Hyrule have indeed proven that your soul is as hideous as you, you are nothing but a sociopathic, power-hungry monster even worse than the one you serve. Now, I shall deliver unto you your punishment, and send your dark soul into Oblivion!

Suddenly, Da Vinci Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of pink energy with paint globs and orbs of colored paint, a pink dragon was flying around the vortex, and inside the pink vortex was a dragon with many colors. Then, as the vortex faded, Da Vinci Dalmatian emerged, but she was changed forever.

Da Vinci Dalmatian was grew up to 5'11" in height, she now had the body of a goddess, she now had a full head of black hair going down to her neck, she has neon pink eyes and she had a pink energy aura with orbs of colored paint, and her black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. Da Vinci Dalmatian had a pink dragon with a drop of paint in its claws emblazoned on her forehead, she also had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered, she had on dragon earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws, Da Vinci's pink neckerchief now has colorful paint spots, and she has on a and she had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Fire Kanji in its claws, and she now has on a sleeveless pink shirt with a phoenix with many colors, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long pink trenchcoat with paint blotches and a dragon on the back. She has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with pink gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large pink gem for the belt buckle on her waist and Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in pink that said, "Da Vinci Dalmatian, Master of Pink Flames and Paint, Sister of 99 Siblings, Daughter of Doug and Delilah Dalmatian, and Artistic Hero of Camden Town."

ダヴィンチダルメシアン、ピンクの炎と絵の具の達人、九十九人の兄弟の姉妹、ダグとデリラダルメシアンの娘、カムデンタウンの芸術的英雄

Da Vinci Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 PINK FIRESTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF ARTISTIC JUSTICE!

We were amazed by Da Vinci Dalmatian's transformation, and Astor was indeed in trouble.

Me: Wow, Da Vinci's transformed.

Nico: You got that right, J.D. (To Da Vinci Dalmatian) Da Vinci, how do you feel?

Da Vinci Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Justice) I feel incredible, Nico, and now, I am going to make sure that this monster pays for all those he's made suffer for his vile actions.

Da Vinci Dalmatian went after Astor, who fired a blast of darkness from his Malice-infected Crystal Orb, but the artistic Dalmatian dodged it, and fired powerful blasts of pink fire, pink energy, and orbs of colorful paint at Astor, which exploded with incredible power. This made Astor truly enraged. He tried again to attack, but Da Vinci Dalmatian destroyed his Malice-infected Crystal Orb, slashed both of his eyes out with her sword, and slashed off Astor's arms, which caused him to scream in so much excruciating pain.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: And now, I shall put an end to this once and for all. ARTIST'S ETERNAL GRACE SLASHSTORM!

Da Vinci Dalmatian charged out, and she unleashed a powerful slashstorm on Astor with some swift and powerful slashes of pink energy as she cut him to shreds. Then, as she holstered her Defender of Camden Town sword on her back, Astor then exploded in a pink inferno, and his dark spirit was Super Hakaied for good. We cheered wildly for Da Vinci Dalmatian, as she powered down and her neon pink eyes changed back to pink. We'd put down another enemy of Link and Zelda, but there's bound to be more on the way.

We went back home and had a great dinner and an awesome time watching TV and then went to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Thumbelina from 1994 is one of my favorite childhood movies and it was a great movie that I loved watching back when I was a kid. It's a darn shame that it was a box office failure all because of those stupid critics. Those dumb blockheads! They ruined a great movie. The first part of the chapter was for the scary movie Octopus 2: River of Fear and that was a freaky one. The second movie was for the awesome 1984 movie The Neverending Story, another one of my favorite childhood movies and that was a great story and an amazing adventure. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. And to the guest reviewer as well for giving me great scenes. Thanks to you too. The next rescue for me is gonna be in one of my favorite childhood video games for SNES called Yoshi's Island and me and the Suicune Gene-Slammer are going to not only see what Mario and Luigi and Bowser were like as babies but also rescue a White Horn Centaur named Sacajawea Oresdottor. Also for the second part for Lincoln's Rescue he will have 15 girls to rescue in the world of Dead Space 3 and that's where we finally destroy the Necromorphs once and for all. The next chapter is gonna be for another Are You Afraid of The Dark chapter and that one is gonna be where we have an awesome beach party the whole chapter and we're going to face Water Demons and send those aquatic monsters back to the fires of hell where they belong. It's gonna be an awesome adventure.

See you all tomorrow.

The Curse of The Water Demons

On an island, me and Amy Bascom the Suicune Gene-Slammer were walking around and it was a beautiful place.

Amy Bascom: Summer might almost be over. But we can still go to the beach and pool later in the year.

Amy concentrated and groaned as she fell to all fours.

Me: Yeah we can always do that and enjoy some nice time at the beach.

Amy turned into Suicune.

Me: YEAH!

The island we were at was very familiar.

Me: Wow! I know this island. This is Yoshi's Island! And we're here to see what Mario, Luigi and Bowser were like as babies.

Amy Suicune: Have you played this game before J.D.?

Me: Many times and it feels like forever. But it brings back so many memories.

The story of Super Mario World 2: Yoshi's Island takes place while Mario and Luigi are in their infancy, referred to as Baby Mario and Baby Luigi respectively. A stork was about to deliver the newborn twins Baby Mario and Baby Luigi to their parents, but is ambushed by Kamek on the way there. While Kamek was successful at capturing Baby Luigi and the stork and imprisons them at Bowser's Castle, Baby Mario plummets into the sea, only to find himself on a Yoshi's back on an island. The Yoshis then discover that Baby Mario also has a map with him, which reveals the location of Bowser's Castle. Kamek has then figured out that he has missed Baby Mario and then has dispatched his Toadies to kidnap Baby Mario. While the Yoshis discuss what to do with Baby Mario, Baby Mario then notifies the Yoshis which direction to go due to a powerful twin link, where the Yoshis then employ a relay system to transport Baby Mario across the island. After overcoming obstacles and fighting bosses that Kamek has enlarged in various forts and castles in the island, the Yoshis finally manage to defeat Kamek and Baby Bowser and rescue Baby Luigi and the stork, allowing the stork to safely deliver the babies to their parents.

Amy Suicune: Wow! That is amazing. We better get to finding Mario and Yoshi.

?: (Norwegian Accent) Maybe we can help too.

We saw a White Horn Centaur as well as 4 Oricorio.

Me: Wow! A White Horn Centaur and 4 Oricorio.

Sacajawea: My name is Sacajawea Oresdotter.

Red Oricorio: I'm Ruby Flores and these are my sisters.

Blue Oricorio: I'm Sapphire.

Yellow Oricorio: I'm Topaz.

Violet Oricorio: And I'm Emerald.

Me: Pleasure to meet you all.

We walked around the island and explored and then we saw Mario and Luigi and Yoshi and what they were like as babies and they were so cute. We helped Mario and Luigi take down Baby Bowser and Kamek did not like that one bit.

Mario and Luigi were being taken to their family. I then put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers then the 4 Flores sisters reverted back and they were naked. Amy reverted back too.

Amy was human again. But naked.

Amy: (covers herself and laughs) Too bad we didn't bring Yoshi with us!

Me: (Laughs) I know.

I gave Amy and the Flore's Sisters all new clothes.

Ruby Flores: But it's good that we got Mario and Luigi back together and sent to their family.

Emerald Flores: And little Bowser was so cute.

Topaz Flores: If Bowser heard us call him that he would never live it down.

We laughed.

Sacajawea: It was adorable though.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

After the rescue on Yoshi's Island, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Yuna Kamihara, Asuka Kazama, Jin Kazama, Lili De Rochefort, and The Anti-Unitology Conglomerate were heading to Tau Volantis in the world of Dead Space 3, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the fifteen girls located there, but we're going to finally destroy the Necromorphs once and for all, and deal with Jacob Arthur Danik, the leader of The Circle, a militant Unitology group, and his cronies.

Jacob Danik is the main antagonist of videogame Dead Space 3 .

He is the leader of a Unitologist terrorist cell calling themselves "The Circle" that aims to bring about the "final evolution" of humanity by making them one with the Necromorphs. He aims to achieve his goals by overthrowing Earth's government and eliminating Isaac Clarke before he can destroy anymore of the Markers.

He is voiced by Simon Templeman, who also played Gabriel Roman in Uncharted: Drake's Fortune .

Dead Space 3

During the genocidal attack on the sector where Isaac Clarke has been hiding from EarthGov, Danik first meets Clarke and Sgt. John Carver as they are attempting to reach Captain Robert Norton's escape ship. He forces them to watch him begin his campaign of releasing the Markers from their government controlled test labs, beginning with the one on the Lunar Colony. Ignoring Isaac's warnings about the Markers' dark intent, Danik reassures him with the Unitologist belief that death is just the beginning and the destruction of the human race is a natural occurrence that Isaac must not be allowed to interfere with. Before Danik can kill them, they escape down a garbage shaft and eventually get off the moon to continue their mission.

Later on, Norton contacts Danik in order to escape Tau Volantis and stop Isaac from leading his team and Norton's girlfriend Ellie to what he presumes is certain death. He reveals to Danik that they are on the "Marker Homeworld" and gives him the coordinates to the planet as long as Danik will kill Clarke and take the rest of them to safety. Danik, however, betrays this promise, and when he reveals his intent to kill all of them, they fight back and are able to escape.

After this, Danik is unable to find Isaac and his team for sometime. Instead of actively searching for them, he finds a radio communications station where he broadcasts Unitologist propaganda aimed at wearing down Isaac and his teams morale, in hopes of making them give up. Danik appears once again after Isaac, Carver, and Ellie have assembled the alien remains at the Rosetta Facility in order to purge its mind of the data necessary for building the Codex key. Clarke unknowingly reveals the true intention of the alien machine to him, stating that the moon above the planet was a massive Necromorph and that the machine was keeping the creature from being able to finish its original Convergence event that it had started millions of years ago. Danik, now convinced that the moon itself is the divine embodiment of the Markers' will, decides that the machine must be activated in order to free it and become whole; however, before his men can kill Isaac and the others, Isaac floods the chamber with lethal gas to, and amidst the confusion, Danik escapes with the Codex and a few of his men, sealing the chamber and presuming Isaac and company have died in the fumes.

As Danik casually makes his way to the machine, his men informs him that Isaac and Carver have survived and are hot on his tail. He quickly begins gathering his remaining troops to slow them down as he descends into the remains of the underground city where the machine resided. By the time he reaches the bottom of the ventilation system, most if not all of his ground forces were dead, and in a aggravated rage demands more drop ships be called in at once, hoping to use the ventilation shafts as entry points to the subterranean city.

As Isaac pursues Danik through the caverns of the underground city, he tries to convince the cult leader of the moon's true nature, which he dismisses as fear of the unknown. Isaac and Carver eventually catch up to him and engage in a brief struggle for the Codex, during which Isaac and Carver fall down a crevice with the key - leaving Danik enraged and sending his remaining men on a manhunt for it. During this time, Isaac and Carver begin to reroute the capabilities of the machine, much to Danik's annoyance.

As Isaac and Carver prepare to reroute the machine, Danik reveals his ace in the hole: Ellie is still alive and in his custody, and if they want her back alive, they must let him turn on the machine. Carver, believing that there are other ways to do the right thing, gives Danik the Codex in order to save Ellie's life, and upon activating the machine, the moon bursts free of its frozen prison, continuing its Convergence Event. As Danik looks upon the monstrosity above them in awe, a massive rock shard violently impales him through the chest, killing him instantly. In the end, Jacob's quest only guaranteed his own self-destruction and not the glorious vision he wanted, just as Issac warned.

Lincoln: Oh man, we're on Tau Volantis in the world of Dead Space 3, and I think I know just what we are going to do here. Not only am I going to rescue the fifteen girls who were sighted here, but we're finally going to destroy the Necromorphs once and for all, and kill Jacob Arthur Danik, the leader of the militant Unitology group, The Circle, and his cronies.

Me: You said it, big guy. Finally, the time has come at last to be rid of The Necromorphs for good.

Nico: And on top of it, Dark Spicer and Fu helped out greatly yesterday by using the Superlasers to destroy a lot of Brethren Moons across the universe, so that way, we won't have any trouble in the future.

Eli: You said it, Nico.

Me: This guy is totally fucked up to the core. He doesn't even realize how big of a danger the Necromorphs and the Brethren Moons pose to the entire universe.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of fifteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the fifteen girls who were sighted here, but they were cornered by an army of Necromorphs fast approaching, along with Jacob Arthur Danik and his cronies, who had their guns out and they were going to kill them.

Lincoln: That religious fanatical freak, he and his cronies have cornered the fifteen girls sighted here and they're going to kill them. I also found a massive army of Necromorphs heading there. Come on, let's go and end this nightmare.

We then rushed on over.

Danik: Brothers and sisters. The age of man is at an end. We have became too many, too little to go around. Corporations that we once trusted with our money have squandered it. The governments that we once trusted with our future have sabotaged it. To their eternal credit we are dying… Fear not, there is a future. As promised by the prophet Michael Altman The Black Marker has a plan, for all of you… It will lift us up from our miserable existence and we will become one; united in body and united in spirit. Our unity will be our salvation. We'll live on, not as man, as God. The Church of Unitology is waiting for you my friends. Throw off the chains of this life and join us as the new one begins. I'm Jacob Arthur Danik, and I am this message.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he slashed and blasted the massive army of Necromorphs into Oblivion for good. Then, we went after that religious fanatic, Jacob Arthur Danik and his cronies, and Lincoln fired an electromagnetic blast, and disarmed them.

Me: You are completely out of your fucking mind Danik! You don't even know how dangerous the Necromorphs, Markers and Brethren Moons are!

Danik: I'm doing what's best for us! The Markers are holy and the Necromorphs and Brethren Moon's are God's children!

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) You deluded blasphemor! What you believe in is nothing but a bunch of lies!

Nicole: The Necromorphs and Markers are not gods! They are monsters that are out to destroy all life in the entire universe! They are like a cancer and turning people insane to spread that cancer!

Lincoln: That's right!

Then, we slashed off all of their arms, and they screamed in pain.

Lincoln: And now, Danik, this is the end for you and every last Unitologist fanatic, The Necromorphs, and The Markers, and an end to this terrifying nightmare. UNITOLOGIST, NECROMORPH AND MARKER GENOCIDE BLAST!

Lincoln fired a massive barrage of neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the cores, and once they hit Jacob Arthur Danik and his cronies, The Necromorphs, and The Markers on Tau Volantis, The Necromorphs and The Markers were obliterated for good, and Jacob Arthur Danik and his cronies were Super Hakaied for good. We cheered wildly for what we've done: we've finally destroyed The Necromorphs once and for all, along with The Markers, and we dealt The Unitologists a really crippling blow with Danik and his cronies getting obliterated.

Lincoln and Nicole went up to the fifteen girls who were located here, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them. The fifteen girls were Momo Adachi from Peach Girl, Urd and Skuld from Oh My Goddess, Sasha and Delores from Stitch!, Josie Rizal, Christie Monteiro, Eliza, Julia Chang, and Miharu Hirano from the Tekken franchise, Miyu Kuroi, Sal, and Princess Pride MegaMan NT Warrior, Shiki and Charlotte from Samurai Showdown.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Momo Adachi, Urd, Skuld, Sasha, Delores, Josie Rizal, Christie Monteiro, Eliza, Julia Chang, Sasha, Delores, Miyu Kuroi, Sal, Princess Pride, Shiki, and Charlotte.

Nicole: From Peach Girl, Oh My Goddess, Stitch!, the Tekken franchise, MegaMan NT Warrior, and Samurai Showdown, awesome!

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Eliza (Tekken): Yes, we're okay.

Then, when Eliza and the fourteen girls who saw who it was destroyed the Necromorphs and wasted Jacob Arthur Danik and his cronies, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Eliza (Tekken): Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made fourteen clones of himself, and they went up to the fourteen girls located here, and Lincoln went up to Eliza, who'd picked her and the other fourteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Eliza (Tekken): (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

When we got back and told everyone what happened, they cheered wildly and loudly, we finally did it, we destroyed The Necromorphs and The Markers once and for all, but there's still the trouble with

The Brethren Moons out there in the universe, but we're taking them down one at a time. It was gonna take a while. But we're going to make sure that the Necromorphs and Markers all die.

After the terrifying rescue on Tau Volantis and another intense workout, we were either watching TV or playing card games. Da Vinci Dalmatian was busy with painting on her easel, for this one, she'd asked The Phantom Thieves of Hearts for this one. She was eventually finished, and we saw the painting, it was amazing.

Me: Wow, nice work, Da Vinci.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: Thank you, J.D.

Yusuke Kitagawa: Most impressive, Da Vinci, you definitely captured every last detail of all of us.

Makoto Niijima: I got to admit, that was pretty impressive.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: Thank you, Makoto.

Ren Amamiya: So, what do you intend to do with it, Da Vinci?

Morgana: Yeah, are you planning on hanging it up on a wall or something?

Da Vinci Dalmatian thought about it for a second. Then, she made up her mind, and gave it to The Phantom Thieves.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: I want to give this to you as a gift to you all for what you did in saving Japan.

Futaba Sakura: Aw, now that was so nice of you, Da Vinci.

Haru Okumura: You definitely have the same artistic skills as Yusuke. Maybe, you two can get together and work on some major art commissions and share your art with everyone in Gotham Royal York.

Lori Loud: (Smiles) That may be a good idea, Haru. If they have some art shows in either Gotham Royal York or Great Lakes City in the future, we'll be sure to enter the artwork that Da Vinci, Yusuke, Lincoln, and Laney create.

This caught Yusuke Kitagawa's attention, along with Da Vinci's.

Yusuke Kitagawa: I'd heard that Lincoln's quite talented in creating comics, and I've seen Laney's skills with painting.

Da Vinci Dalmatian: Me too, I've seen the comics he's created, and they're amazing. And I've seen Laney's talent for painting beautiful and colorful masterpieces, they're amazing.

Laney and Lincoln: (smiles) Aw, thanks, Da Vinci and Yusuke.

Zenkichi Hasegawa: Plus, I've helped out Sheila Castille and Tom Lair in bringing in a wanted serial killer who's committed some murders in the area.

Nico: Wow, that's nice work, Zenkichi.

Zenkichi: Thank you.

Later we were watching TV and then Eddy and Double D came out with an Orangutan in a cage.

Stalker: Eddy. What are you and Double D doing with that orangutan?

Eddy: He's our new friend.

Me: Oh he's a cute fella.

Nico: He sure is. Hello there fella. What's his name?

Edd: Why his name is Bonzo.

Me: Cute name.

Curly: Reminds me of a gorilla we know.

Larry: And his name is Moe.

Curly: Nyak nyak nyak nyak nyak.

BOOF! BONK! HONK!

Moe hit Curly in the stomach, bonked him on the head and honked his nose.

Moe: Gorilla huh?

They left.

Later Eddy and Edd came back with a lot of money.

Maria: Where's Bonzo? You two were having so much fun with him yesterday.

Eddy: Oh, some nice doctor gave us $10,000.00 for Bonzo. So we sold Bonzo to him?

Lisa Simpson: (suspicious) Hang on. What was the name of this doctor?

Eddy: Dr. Cannibalizer.

We gasped in shock!

Me: Oh man! I've heard of him! He's a mad scientist that literally EATS animals.

Fluttershy gasped and then she fainted.

FWOMP!

Nico: Eddy are you literally out of your fucking mind!?

Eli: We got to stop him!

Nico: Agreed! Lets go!

Double D: You sold Bonzo to an orangutan eater?!

Eddy: No, YOU sold Bonzo to an orangutan eater!

Double D: No, you sold him!

Eddy: No, you sold him!

Eli: Excuse me, but I was must discipline-

Sinnertwin interrupted Eli by using his gun to shoot the ceiling.

BANG!

The fight stopped.

Sinnertwin: Hey! Instead of arguing about Bonzo, why don't you two help us save him?!

Me: Yeah!

Nico: Sinnertwin was that really necessary to shoot the ceiling?

Sinnertwin: Sorry.

Eddy: You're right. Lets go!

Nico: We'll follow you.

We followed them to the pier and we found him and then Lincoln fired waves of lightning and electrocuted the man.

Streetwise: You're in a heap of trouble, pal!

CLICK!

Sheila: (handcuffs Cannibalizer) What kind of sick, twisted man eats monkeys?!

Cannibalizer laughs like a really fucked up lunatic.

Nico: Man he is really insane.

I looked at his mind and it showed that his brain was as bad as Crocker's but worse! He was already at 500,000% fucked up!

Me: WHOA! Look at this Nico!

Nico saw the scan and it was awful!

Nico: Geez! He's worse than Crockerfucker.

Laney: No kidding. 500,000%!? How is that possible for him to be at that and not have his head explode?

Sacajawea: Good question. But that is intense.

Allie Wilde: It sure is.

Fluttershy: Oh you are safe now Bonzo and you are an adorable guy.

Bonzo hooted in affection.

Me: It's not safe for him here. Lets send him back home to Borneo.

Eliza Thornberry: I agree. He would like it there better.

We got him sent back to Borneo.

* * *

Later we were getting ready.

Heckyl: Nico, it's your turn to lead us today. Though, I doubt there's actually going to be a mission.

Nico: Actually there is. But we're also going to have some fun. This week is the start of fall so we're going to close out Summer by going to the beach!

We cheered wildly.

Lori: I literally love the beach!

Me: Me too.

Allie Wilde: Its been a long time since I went there.

Nico: It'll be fun. We're gonna do everything there.

We went to the beach and we were on the beach of Lake Huron and it was beautiful.

Toyman, Vexen, Onyx, Po Kong, Turtle, Touch & Go, Beautiful Gorgeous, Red X, Loki, and Wolf then appeared.

Toyman: You guys have fun. Me, Vexen, Onyx, Po Kong, Turtle, Touch & Go, Beautiful Gorgeous, Red X, Loki, and Wolf will patrol the area for any suspicious activity.

Nico: Okay! Lets party!

We got to having fun at the beach and it was a blast.

(TREASURE TROVE COVE THEME FROM BANJO-KAZOOIE PLAYS)

We were having a lot of fun. The mascots were playing in the water.

Skullcruncher: (to the Aquatic mascots) You guys loving the water?

Manaphy: You bet we are!

Tentacool: So awesome!

We were doing it all. We were surfing, building sandcastles, swimming, scuba diving, digging for treasure, treasure hunting both in the water and on land and more.

Rainbow Dash: Hey J.D. look what we found!

I saw that Rainbow Dash found an awesome pirate treasure!

Me: Wow! Awesome find R.D.

She opened the chest and it was FULL OF PRICELESS JEWELS!

Me: WHOA! Look at all the jewels!

Nico: Nice find!

May: Hey Nico can you rub some sunscreen on my back?

Nico: Sure honey.

Nico put some on her and rubbed it.

It was an amazing haul.

Vexen: Roger that.

We were having more fun. But then suddenly…

ROAR! ROAR! ROAR!

A SEAWEED MONSTER CAME OUT OF THE WATER!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! LIKE IT'S A SEAWEED MONSTER!

We did A Pup Named Scooby Doo wild take as he was coming to us.

Laney: BACK OFF YOU LIVING PILE OF KELP!

Laney fired a blast of fire and burned the seaweed off him and then it was revealed to be RED HERRING!

Red Herring was Coolsville's neighborhood bully, and Freddie Jones's prime suspect of any of the town's crimes. Out of the many, many times he was accused, only once did he actually commit the crime, and that was when Fred did not accuse him.

Early life

As an infant, Red once pretended to be a monster on the playground, which Freddie never forgot, and therefore believed every crime and monster scheme would be done by Red.

A Pup Named Scooby-Doo Season one

Shaggy Rogers' bike had been stolen by a ghost, and Freddie thought Red was the culprit, so they searched his hideout, Weirdo Woods. Red pretended to be a swamp monster in order to scare them. Freddie accused him of stealing it when they found a blue bike, however, Shaggy's was red. It was actually Red's bike, but Freddie didn't believe this and thought he painted it so that they wouldn't recognize it. He used a sandblaster on it in an attempt to reveal that he painted it, but he was wrong and the sandblaster ended up damaging the bike. In retaliation, Red got on the bike and ran him over. The gang were forced to pay for the damages to Red's bike.

When Shaggy and Scooby-Doo attended the Coolsville Comic Book Convention, Red disguised himself as the Eyeball Monster to scare them. He then planned to sneak up on a group of kids and make them cry, only to get laughed at when he got hauled off by a security guard. When Shaggy's first edition of Commander Cool (among many others) was stolen by Dr. Croaker, Shaggy and Scooby questioned several people, including Red. In retaliation, Red accused Shaggy, claiming that his interrogations were just a cover-up. Once the real culprit was caught, Red attempted to steal a comic, but it was booby trapped, exploding in a gummy mess, trapping Red.

Season two

When Mr. O'Greazy's restaurant was haunted by a Burger Monster, the gang met Red there, where he informed them that it was his favorite place to eat. He offered Scooby a hot dog, but when he tried to eat it, he took it away and told him to get his own. He accidentally walked into a trash can, causing him to spill his food and get covered in garbage. Despite O'Greazy's being Red's favorite restaurant, Freddie still accused him of being the villain, only for Red to show up and point out how little sense it made to do so. According to Velma, he was wrong for the 647th time that month - a new record.

After the Ghost of Zombo was captured, Freddie was unsure of who the culprit was. Red appeared and reminded him that that was the part where he was supposed to accuse him of being the culprit. He did, and Red put a clown nose on him and squeezed it, informing him that he was wrong yet again.

Season three

He decided to clean and spruce up his aunt's bike, and dressed up as the Boogey Biker to scare the gang away, so they wouldn't ruin his reputation. He was forgiven, and justified Freddie's accusations (and paranoia).

Red challenged Freddie to a wrestling match following the capture of the Ghost of the Hooded Heifer, saying that if Freddie won, Red would take the blame. Freddie lost, prompting Red to refer to him as a "mega-weenie".

Season four

After the gang had captured Nasty-Doo and began speculating on who his true identity was, as always Freddie accused Red Herring of being the were-doo. Among saying that, Red showed up at Doo Manor to congratulate Freddie on the ten-thousandth time he falsely accused Red of being the culprit, and "honored" him with the Golden Wiener plaque, which Freddie was delighted to accept.

Scooby-Doo! Team-Up

Red was one if the culprits behind the giant Scrappy-Doo.

Happy Halloween, Scooby-Doo!

At some point, Red ended up creating his own business selling Halloween-themed accessories. He went with his truck to Elvira's Halloween parade just before the gang tackled the Haunted Scarecrow. His truck was later seen being driven by the Jackal-Lanterns and destroyed afterwards.

Me: Red Herring!?

Fred Jones: RED HERRING!

Nico: I thought you were in jail!

Brawlrus: Didn't you get enough the first time after Duncan, Francis, and the others helped us take you down?!

Red Herring: (Laughs) I just wanted to have some fun if I followed you tunas to the beach.

Me: You haven't changed a bit Red. But what happened to you? You look like you became a younger kid again.

Laney: Yeah it's like you regressed in age.

Red Herring: I don't really know myself. I lost about 10 years on me.

Nico: Wow. That is weird.

Fred Jones: Yeah it sure is. I can't believe you reverted back to the same age you were when I was accusing you of all the things you didn't do.

Me: Boy that sure brings back memories.

Red Herring: It sure does. Wow! I'm used to you guys being my size but never taller than me.

Me: I know. Weird huh?

Mr. Go: Did you find anything, Mr. Touch?

Mr. Touch: No, I didn't, Mr. Go.

Then Vexen saw something moving in the lake.

Vexen: Wait what's that?

They saw something in the lake.

Yagura: (to Red Herring) While you were sneaking up on us, did you happen to see anything in the water?

Red Herring: Hmm. Now that you weinies mention it, I did see something. It looked like a bunch of prisoners in the water.

Nico: Prisoners? Like criminal prisoners?

Red Herring: Yeah that's weird.

Turtle: What do you think's down there?

Vexen: No idea.

But then hands popped out of the water!

Beautiful Gorgeous screamed in fright and then a bunch of men came out and they were people dressed in prison uniforms!

Vexen: What the!?

Breakdown: (to Red Herring) Thanks for telling us this. But if you don't mind, you wanna stick around?

Red Herring: Sure. I'm gonna join the Masters of Evil soon anyway.

Then Vexen and the group came back.

Vexen: Guys we found something!

Nico: What is it?

Vexen: We saw ghosts in the water that looked like prisoners from a prison.

Brittney gasped.

Onyx: But first, have you guys been having fun so far?

Me: We sure are.

Nico: Oh yeah.

Onyx: Awesome. Hey who's the kid?

Nico: Meet Red Herring.

Red Herring: An honor to meet you guys.

Vexen: Same here. So you are the Red Herring we heard about.

Red Herring: That's right.

Vexen: Pleasure to meet you too.

Trent Fernandez: He also told us about what you guys saw.

Vexen: That's right!

Brittney: Those are The Ghosts of Great Lakes Prison.

Shaggy: ZOINKS!? You mean this lake is haunted!?

Scooby Doo: RIKES!?

Nico: You mean that island prison that was shut down over 100 years ago?

Brittney: Yep. That's the very same one.

Vexen: Can you tell us what happened Brittney?

Brittney: I sure can. It was back in 1913. The Great Storm of 1913 came and that provided the perfect opportunity for the biggest prison escape in the history of the United States. The whole island prison is located right in the middle of Lake Huron. As the storm raged, over 500 prisoners escaped. These were the worst ever prisoners that ever lived. They did numerous horrible crimes like murder, robberies, theft and more. They dove right into the lake as the storm raged. But the water was filled with sharks. Before these prisoners died, they put a curse on the island and the area around the prison. On the Harvest Moon, the spirits of the prisoners that died will come from the dead and kill innocent people that are in the area.

We gasped!

Nico: That's terrible.

Eli: Whoa no kidding. I didn't even know that happened.

Po Kong: Good thing it's still daytime.

Brittney: But the Harvest Moon is tonight.

Nico: Looks like our beach trip is gonna be a battle. We better get ready for a major battle.

Laney: Yeah.

I pulled out my spyglass and looked at where the island prison was.

Me: That must be the prison right there.

Nico saw it.

Nico: Yeah that's it. I saw how it looked a while back and it was creepy.

Me: Whoa.

Brittney: There's more to the legend. Legend has it that before all those prisoners were condemned to that prison, all their buried treasure is said to be on the bottom of Lake Huron.

Nicole: Lets see here.

Nicole used her powers and brought a huge treasure chest to us and it was the treasure of the 500 Inmates of Great Lakes Island Prison.

Nico: WHOA! Lets get that treasure back to the estate and get ready for battle.

Me: Right.

Later we went back to the estate and we got ready. But then Shaggy and Scooby were being chicken like they do always.

Shaggy: Like, No way are me and Scoob going! Especially not with Red Herring!

Red Herring: Oh, give it a rest, will you, Rogers?! We're on the same side now!

Shred Naught: (to Shaggy) At least you've got a justifiable reason this time.

Nico: Okay then.

Me: Lets go THIS way.

I grabbed all three of them and we went back to the beach.

Red Herring: Hey put me down!

Me: Sorry Red it's a Force of Habit. Whenever Shaggy and Scooby act like a couple of chickens I force them to go whether they like it or not.

Shaggy and Scooby clucked like a bunch of chickens.

Me: See what I mean?

Red Herring: Yeah I do.

Red X: Hey, Shaggy. If you and Scooby agree to go, you both get Scooby Snacks.

Red Herring: What about me?

Red X: You'll be accepted into the Masters of Evil.

Red Herring: All right!

Shaggy: Like what flavor?

Nico: It's my newest flavor. Tikka Masala Curry.

Shaggy: Oh boy! That sounds delicious!

Nico: Yep.

Nico pulled out a box and gave them 2 snacks and gave them to them and they ate them.

Shaggy and Scooby: MMM! MMM! MMMMMM!

They spun around and turned into rockets and went into the sky and they exploded into a dazzling display of fireworks! Then they landed into Nico's arms.

Shaggy: Like that was a good one!

Scooby Doo: Reah!

Nico: Glad you liked them. Lets go!

We were off to the beach and then we arrived and we were ready for action.

Scrap Shooter: I can't believe those prisoners were that awful, see. There's a special place in Hell for them, see!

Brittney: You'll get no argument from me there Scrap Shooter. But according to the legend, because of their escape, they were cursed and forbidden from entering the afterlife because of the crimes they committed.

Nico: Whoa! Just like what happened to those pirates when we met Archie and his friends.

Brittney: That's right. Except this curse is worse. When we destroy these prisoners, they will be erased from existence forever.

Me: Whoa! So they will be Super Hakaied in a way.

Brittney: That's right dad.

Eli: That's brutal. But thank goodness we'll be rid of these dirtbags.

Arrietty: Yeah they don't deserve to be on Earth anymore.

Vexen: We have to stop to those prisoners before nighttime!

Nico: Vexen this is not the time to be getting Shaggy's Cowardice. We got 2 hours until sunset. The Harvest Moon rises at 7:54 PM.

Laney looked at her watch and it was 5:30 PM.

Laney: 2 Hours and 24 minutes.

Nico: We got plenty of time to get the usual battles done and then we can take down these prisoners.

Eli: Yep.

Man Ray, Tar Pit, Motor Ed, Johnny 13, Titanium Toenail, Bronze Kneecap, Beetle, Absorbing Man, Billy Numerous, and SkullMeramon then appeared.

Nico: Man Ray, Tar Pit, Motor Ed, Johnny 13, Titanium Toenail, Bronze Kneecap, Beetle, Absorbing Man, Billy Numerous, and SkullMeramon.

Man Ray: I hope you guys had fun at the beach.

May: We did. Until we heard about the water demons.

Tar Pit: We heard about them too.

Motor Ed: Those guys are bad news. Seriously!

Me: You have no idea.

William: Don't worry. We'll take care of them.

Me: Yep.

Johnny 13: (to me) We heard you went to Yoshi's Island today.

Me: We sure did and it was cool seeing what Mario, Luigi and

Bowser were like as babies.

Titanium Toenail: Did you bring us back some eggs?

I opened my coat and hundreds of Yoshi eggs fell out.

Me: These good enough for you?

Titanium Toenail: WHOA!

Motor Ed: That's a lot of eggs! Seriously.

Me: It sure is.

?: It sure is a lot of eggs.

2 more figures came out and they were BULLDOZER ORG and HAMMERSTRIKE!

Me: Bulldozer Org! Back for round 2 I see.

Bulldozer Org: You got that right.

Nico: And Hammerstrike. It's good to meet you.

Hammerstrike: Same here. And I'm going to challenge Cybershark.

Cybershark: Wow! I'm honored.

Torch Tiger and Bluto came.

Then we saw 5 more figures come out and they were THE CYBORG RANGERS from episode 7 of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

The Cyborg Rangers were a team of robot replicas of the Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers, they were created to "replace" the real Lightspeed Rangers in the episode "Cyborg Rangers".

When the Lightspeed Rangers reported to the Aquabase after facing a demon named Strikning, General McKnight informed them that the Cyborg Rangers were their replacements. They were stated to be ten times stronger than the original team. The cyborgs fought Strikning and were about to finish him off when he threw a lightning attack that caused the Cyborg Rangers to malfunction and go on a rampage. The original Rangers had to use their blasters to destroy the cyborgs.

Carter: The Cyborg Rangers!

Me: Wow! I remember them all too well! Strikning did say they were gonna join the M.O.E.

Nico: He sure did.

Sacajawea: Looks like me and my group will face them. 5 on 5.

Me: Awesome.

Nico: Lets get it on!

Battle 1: Gali, Rarity, Emerald Shine, Topaz Flare, Sweetie Belle, Kerfuffle, Thunder Terror, Button Mash, Pip-Squeak, Sassy Saddles, Sapphire Shores, Saffron Masala, Vinyl Scratch, Octavia Melody, Jet Set, Upper Crust, Fleur-De-Lis, Fancy Pants, Rose, Lily Valley, Daisy, Coco Pommel, March Gustysnows, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Ocellus the Changeling, Water Skylanders, Geronimo Jr., Liquid Leni, Dino Ichthy, Nokama, Neptune Crusaders, Rico the Robot and Heckyl VS Man Ray

---

Man Ray was first.

Man Ray: (to Gali) You looking forward to killing those prisoners? You must be, considering that you're the Toa of Water.

Gali: You better believe I am looking forward to killing them. After everything they did they had it coming ever since they tried to escape in 1913.

Rarity: Indeed darling. What these prisoners did makes them nothing but heartless animals.

Emerald Shines: Yeah they have no hearts or souls.

Topaz Flare: These guys should have never been born at all!

Sweetie Belle: You got that right! What they did makes all the other prisoners around the world look like amateurs.

Kerfuffle: (Minnesota Accent) Yeah it's not pretty and they are monsters doncha know.

Thunder Terror: Me and my brothers may have done some terrible things in the past but what these monsters did is absolutely terrible.

Button Mash: I'm gonna blow them to pieces like I do with the enemies in my video games.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) I'm really looking forward to this!

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) Ooh me too. They will wish they were never born after today!

Sapphire: I agree there and it's gonna be good to bring some well deserved justice to those monsters.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) I hope they like a good dose of powerful retribution.

Vinyl Scratch did signs for raining down the music of justice onto them.

Octavia Melody: (British Accent) Indeed. Vinyl said that we're going to rain down the music of justice onto those monsters.

Jet Set: (Posh Accent) Indeed we will because hose ruffians did many horrible things.

Upper Crust: (Posh Accent) Yes and it will not be good for them.

Fleur-De-Lis: (Posh Accent) It will be good for the world to be free of those monsters.

Fancy Pants: (Posh Accent) Most agree with you there my dear.

Rose: It's hard to imagine what they did.

Lily Valley: I can't believe what those monsters did!

Daisy: Yeah it's all horrible!

Coco Pommel: Yeah I can't believe they escaped from that prison over 100 years ago in the middle of a terrible storm.

March Gustysnows: (Minnesota Accent) But it's good the storm destroyed them doncha know.

Mistmane: Yeah and in my opinion, Hell is too good for them.

Sable Spirit: It sure is and what they deserve is justice of the highest calibre.

Ocellus: And that's being erased from existence forever.

Gill Grunt: Yeah you got that right!

Geronimo Jr.: I agree there.

Liquid Leni: They totes deserve it.

Dino Ichthy: You said it there. Those prisoners have been asking for this for over 100 years.

Nokama: I agree there.

Varie: Me too.

Man Ray: I do too. I may be a villain and have done some horrible things but I would never kill people. Lets do it!

Dino Ichthy: DINO ICHTHY! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! TRIDENT OF THE TIDES! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of elements, water, ice, jewels and energy and smashed him down.

Gali: ALL RIGHT!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

---

Battle 2: Onua, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Thunderbird Apple, Lightning Fritter, Tender Tap, Frozen Fright, Apple Fritter, Big Mac, Sugar Belle, Granny Smith, Apple Rose, Goldie Delicious, Bright Mac, Pear Butter, Cheerilee, Strawberry Sunrise, Blue Raspberry, Grand Pear, Rockhoof, Cocoa Axe, Steela Oresdotter, Autumn Blaze, Coloratura, Yona the Yak, Earth Skylanders, Albert Heinrich, Dino Tricera, Stone Luna, Whenua, Skullcruncher and Weirdwolf VS Tar Pit

---

Tar Pit was next.

Tar Pit: (to Onua) I've done bad things before I met you guys. But I would never do what those prisoners did!

Onua: I don't blame you. What those prisoners have done makes them some of the lowest of the low and they need to be destroyed forever.

Applejack: No kidding. Those low down dirty sidewinders don't deserve to live another second!

Apple Bloom: Yeah they are monsters of the highest kind and they are pure evil!

Thunderbird Apple: You said it Aunt Apple Bloom. What they did is nothing short of ultimate evil.

Lightning Fritter: Yeah it sure is. What they did back then all those years ago shows that they are nothing but monsters of the highest kind of evil.

Tender Tap: Yeah they would be ranked at Level 24 on the Scale of Evil if that ever existed.

Frozen Fright: Level 24?

Tender Tap: It would mean Devil Evil. Punishment is erased from existence for all eternity.

Frozen Fright: Oh that makes sense. It's fitting and perfect for them.

Apple Fritter: Yeah that definitely makes sense completely. I can't even begin to imagine what kind of pain and suffering they caused when they were alive. I guess escaping during the Great Storm of 1913 was what lead them to be cursed.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Sugar Belle: It's the straw that broke the camels back. Hard to imagine that there was a terrible legend for this.

Cheerilee: I didn't even know that Brittney knows so much about this.

Strawberry Sunrise: Yeah no kidding. But being a Goth has its perks for Brittney and the goths.

Blue Raspberry: I didn't even know that a legend like this even existed.

Grand Pear: Boy me neither. It's amazing that it does. But what those prisoners did makes even the feud with the Apples and The Pears look like a sibling rivalry fight in comparison.

Granny Smith: Yeah it sure was crazy back then.

Apple Rose: It sure was cousin.

Goldie Delicious: Not even the most brutal moments of the Apple Family had history like that.

Bright Mac: Boy you're not kidding. But I'm glad we're going to destroy those prisoners.

Pear Butter: We're gonna do the world a huge favor.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. What those prisoners did is like what the Mighty Helm had to deal with.

Cocoa Axe: (Irish Accent) Just like old times there lad.

Steela Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) It sure is like that.

Autumn Blaze: I can't wait to smash those bad guys skulls in.

Coloratura: Me too! It's gonna be good!

Yona: Yona ready to smash bad men!

Flashwing: Yeah those prisoners have been here for far too long.

Albert Heinrich: They sure have and it's time for them to go.

Dino Tricera: Yeah! They are 108 years overdue with death.

Stone Luna: You said it dudes!

Whenua: I can't wait to smash their faces in.

Tar Pit: I agree with all of you! Lets do it!

Dino Ptera: DINO PTERA! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! PTERA BRISTLED BOOMERANG! DINO KNIGHT READY!

They fired waves of wind, fire, lightning and energy and smashed him down.

Yang: YEAH!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Chazz: An insane monster that's what.

Pinkie Pie: What that man did was absolutely horrifying and insane!

Little Cheese: Yeah no kidding!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) He deserves nothing short of death for his crimes.

Marble Pie: He sure does but thank goodness that Bonzo will be all right.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

The explosions were turning everything around us into a warzone.

?: The Water Demons and Astor aren't the only ones you fools should worry about.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing again, and that means more big trouble was coming.

Nicole: Oh man, I should've known you'd show up here, Rugal Bernstein.

Another figure appeared along with Astor and The Water Demons, it was ruthless arms dealer and drug cartel leader Rugal Bernstein from The King of Fighters.

Me: Rugal Bernstein, he's a ruthless arms dealer and one of the most wanted criminals in Interpol.

Lori Loud: I'm going to guess that fanatical lunatic, Astor, also brought him here.

Nicole: You're right about that, Lori. But, let me tell you guys about Rugal Bernstein.

Nicole proceeded to tell us about Rugal Bernstein, and he's got a really nasty history.

Rugal Bernstein

Rugal Bernstein (ルガール・バーンシュタイン) is a recurring boss in SNK's The King of Fighters fighting game series, and is often considered one of the most difficult bosses in the entire series.

Personality

Rugal is a cruel and powerful man who will kill anyone who stands in his way. He sees absolutely no value in human life, to the point where he proudly displays the metal-encased corpses of worthy opponents he has killed in battle as trophies. He will even go so far as to kill people simply to spite others (such as when he slaughtered Heidern's family simply because he found Heidern to be a disappointment). Unlike most other KOF villains, Rugal has a sadistic sense of humor about what he does. Many of his winquotes are snarky insults toward his opponents, and he often sees the act of taking human life to be more of a pastime.

Much like Igniz, he believes himself to be a human god. Unlike Igniz, however, he hardly takes his "godhood" seriously. It could be said that Rugal possesses the greatest proverbial swagger of all The King of Fighters boss characters. His "godhood" is also a motif for moves like his God Press attack.

Due to his arrogant nature, Rugal has also been shown to be an incredibly sore loser. Refusing to accept defeat at the hands of his enemies, he'll instead trigger the self-destruct mechanism of whatever the base he's in with the intention of taking his opponents down with it, but ends up being the only one caught in the explosion instead. While this first appears in KOF '94, it happens again in KOF '98 and KOF 2002. This trait even carries over to Metal Slug Defense, where upon his defeat, he'll get back up, pull out a detonator and blow himself up.

There is no information regarding his outlook towards his immediate family, but it can be safely assumed he is somewhat distant from it. Rose inherits some of Rugal's nasty attitude, and is just as much of a sore loser as her father, while Adelheid presumably inherits his combat prowess, and unlike his father, has far better sportsmanship.

When Nicole Knudson was finished, we were horrified about Rugal Bernstein's criminal history, but none more so than Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian.

Destiny Dalmatian: (Gasp) You, evil, ruthless

Dallas Dalmatian: Psychotic, heartless

Deja Vu Dalmatian: Cruel, monster from The Netherworld!

Triple D: We've had it up to hear with you to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu were surrounded by pink energy auras and pink flames, but for Destiny, her energy aura had hearts, for Dallas, her energy aura had diamonds, and for Deja Vu, her energy aura had circles. They unholstered their Defenders of Camden Town swords from their backs, and as they walked towards the heartless drug cartel leader, they left behind pink fire, pink energy, hearts, diamonds, and circles with every step.

Destiny Dalmatian: Rugal Bernstein, your crimes against the world are indeed unforgivable.

Dallas Dalmatian: You've heartlessly murdered anyone who got in your way, and you've shown you have an utter disregard for human life.

Deja Vu Dalmatian: And for your heartless crimes against humanity and the world, you will die a very horrible death.

The Diva Dalmatians were suddenly surrounded by three massive vortexes of pink energy and pink fire, but those three vortexes had hearts for Destiny, diamonds for Dallas, and circles for Deja Vu, pink dragons were flying around the vortexes, and hot pink phoenixes were inside the vortex. When the vortexes faded, Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian emerged, but they were changed forever.

Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian grew up to 5'11" in height, they each now had the body of a goddess, they now had a full head of long black hair coming down to the bottom of their necks, they had neon pink eyes and they each had a pink energy aura, and her black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian had a pink dragon with a heart for Destiny, a diamond for Dallas, and a circle for Deja Vu in its claws emblazoned on their foreheads, they also had their Defender of Camden Town swords unholstered, they had on dragon earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws, the collars with the hearts, diamonds, and circles and the heart, diamond, and circle dog tags for the three divas turned into chokers for their necks, they had on necklaces with a dragon pendant with the Fire Kanji in its claws, and they now have on sleeveless pink shirts with a hot pink phoenix, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and long pink trenchcoats with hearts for Destiny, diamonds for Dallas, and circles for Deja Vu and a dragon on the back.

They have on their new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with pink gems on their wrists and their new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large pink gems for the belt buckle on their waists and Eater of Sins revolver holstered on their right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in pink, for Destiny, her kanji said, "Destiny Dalmatian, Deep Intellectual Diva of The Family, Master of Pink Flames, Leader of The Trio, and Loving Daughter of the Family."

運命のダルメシアン、家族の深い知的な歌姫、ピンクの炎のマスター、トリオのリーダー、そして家族の愛する娘

For Dallas, her kanji said, "Dallas Dalmatian, The Gold-Hearted Diva of The Family, Master of Pink Flames, and Loving Daughter of The Family."

ダラスダルメシアン、家族の金の心の歌姫、ピンクの炎のマスター、そして家族の愛する娘

And for Deja Vu, her kanji said, "Deja Vu, Quirky and Funny Diva of The Family, Master of Pink Flames, and Loving Daughter of The Family."

Destiny Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 PINK FIRESTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF COMPASSION!

Dallas Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 PINK FIRESTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF LOVE!

And Deja Vu has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 PINK FIRESTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF HOPE!

We were impressed by the transformations of Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian, and that does mean Rugal Bernstein is now in big trouble.

Me: Whoa, first, Da Vinci's transformed, and now, Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu.

Nico: Four transformations for two greedy, psychotic, sociopathic bastards, oh, this is going to be good. (To Triple D) How do you girls feel?

Destiny Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Compassion) We feel totes incredible, Commander Nico.

Dallas Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Love) And now, if you'll excuse us.

Deja Vu Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Hope) We've got a ruthless drug cartel leader to kill.

Triple D went after Rugal Bernstein, who fired a powerful blast of energy at them, but they dodged the attack, and they attacked him with powerful blasts of pink fire, pink energy, hearts, diamonds, and circles, which exploded with incredible power. Then, Dallas and Deja Vu slashed the ruthless drug cartel leader's arms off, and he screamed in excruciating pain.

Triple D: This is the end for you, Rugal Bernstein. FIRESTORM PHOENIX MEGABLAST!

Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian fired powerful waves of pink fire and pink energy, which took on the form of a beautiful phoenix, and as it hits Rugal Bernstein, it exploded with incredible power, and it Super Hakaied Rugal Bernstein for good.

Destiny, Dallas, and Deja Vu Dalmatian powered down, their swords were holstered, and their eyes changed back, but their new bodies, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. We cheered really wildly for what the Diva Dalmatians did to that heartless drug cartel leader.

Sinnertwin, Stalker, Lisa Simpson and Streetwise used the Earth and Animatron Cyber Planet Keys and they enhaced Sinnertwin's Photon Pistol, Stalker's powers, Lisa Simpson's powers and Streetwise's flame cannon 100-fold.

We saw the island for the prison explode in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: WHOA!

We saw the entirety of the island prison of Lake Huron explode in a massive fireball and then sunk into the lake.

Nico: Wow! That was intense.

Brittney: The curse also says that the ghosts were symbiotically linked to the island prison they were from and if the ghosts are destroyed the prison were destroyed, the whole prison and island will be destroyed too.

Nico: Wow. Good riddance.

Eli: Looks like the ghosts of Great Lakes Prison and the Prison itself are now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

The episode of Are You Afraid of The Dark? The Tale of The Water Demons was a freaky one. Never saw it but it was really freaky from what I saw in the pictures. Freaky. The first part of the chapter was for the awesome SNES Game Yoshi's Island. That's one of my favorite childhood video games and it had an amazing story to it. The second part was for the scary and horrifying game Dead Space 3 and that was the 3rd installment of the Dead Space Saga. WICKED SCARY! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be for a new monster named Kirato the Werebat and she is gonna be in the world of Catscratch. Me and the Venomoth Gene-Slammer are gonna meet her and a Seviper Gene-Slammer from India named Ekantika Venkatanarasimharajuvaripeta. HOOWEE! That's a long one. Also we're going to meet Gordan, Waffles and Mr. Blik and we're going to see their awesome mansion and meet their awesome butler and friends. And for Lincoln's Rescue we're going into the world of the 1984 movie Splash, one of my favorite mermaid movies. The next chapter is also gonna be for the Goosebumps Book Legend of The Lost Legend and that is gonna be an interesting one as we're going to meet the lost Viking Woman from 1,000 years ago named Ivanna and we're gonna help Justin Clarke and his sister Marissa and the wolf creature Luka down in Antarctica bring to justice the nefarious and evil Babysitter Bandit, Lucille Botzcowski from Season 1 Episode 13 of The Simpsons and we're going to take that rotten to the core thief down. It's gonna be awesome and great.

See you all tomorrow

Mysterious Legendary Viking Treasure

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard as the scary spirits of the 4 seasons appeared. Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter appeared and they were monster spirits and then they converged and then me and Kira appeared. On the outskirts of Gotham Royal York we were at an amazing and beautiful mansion.

Me: I didn't know the next rescue would be close to home.

Kira Tsuki: (Japanese Accent) Me neither.

We arrived at a beautiful mansion.

Kira Tsuki: A mansion? Good thing we did the entrance outside.

Kira concentrated and groaned as she grew wings.

Me: It's a really awesome and nice mansion. Whoever lives in it must be worth a fortune.

Kira turned into VENOMOTH!

We went into the mansion and it was a really nice mansion.

Me: Wow. What a nice mansion.

I was holding on to Kira's clothes.

Kira Venomoth: Wow.

Me: Wait a second. This is the mansion of the late Edna Cramdilly. We're in the mansion of Catscratch!

The series revolves around a trio of anthropomorphic feline brothers. After their wealthy owner Edna Cramdilly died, she left her riches to them, along with a menacing, oversized monster truck named Gear and a dignified butler named Hovis. The program commonly chronicles their wealthy lifestyles and action-packed, sometimes paranormal experiences. Other characters include the sweet young neighbor girl, Kimberly, with whom Gordon is obsessed, and the cats' competitive rivals the Chumpy Chump Brothers.

Kira Venomoth: Wow! I haven't seen that show in a long time.

Me: Me neither and that must mean we're here to meet Gordan, Waffles and Mr. Blik.

Kira Venomoth: Yep.

It was a really awesome mansion and we met Hovis the butler and Kimberly.

?: We can help you guys out.

We saw a Werebat and a Seviper.

Me: Whoa a Werebat and a Seviper.

Kirato: I'm Kirato and yes I'm a werebat.

Seviper: (Hindu Accent) My name is Ekantika Venkatanarasimharajuvaripeta.

Me: Whoa that's a long name. Pleasure to meet you both.

Kimberly (Catscratch): It's a pleasure.

Kirato: Same here.

We then met Gordon, Waffles and Mr. Blik.

Gordon: (Scottish Accent) Wow! J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you lad.

Waffles: I love all your adventures and they are great.

Mr. Blik: They sure are. You guys are our heroes.

Me: I'm honored. And it's awesome to meet you guys too. It's amazing how you all are able to live in such an awesome mansion like this.

Waffles: It sure is.

Gordon: Our mansion is nowhere near as nice as yours.

Me: Well we don't brag about our fortune and rub it in peoples faces. It's not right. We may be filthy rich but we don't do that.

Mr. Blink: That's good you don't.

I told Hovis and the cat brothers to cover their eyes and I put on my blind man glasses and Ekantika reverted back and she was naked.

Kira reverted back too.

Kira was human again. But naked.

Kira: (covers herself) How would you 3 like to join the team?

Gordan: Ach we would be honored lass.

Mr. Blik: I love all your adventures and they are awesome!

Waffles: Yeah they are great!

Ekantina: This is amazing that you all live in an amazing house like this.

I gave Kira her clothes and gave Ekantina new clothes and they put them on.

Kirato: This is so awesome.

Me: You guys also love root beer as much as I do.

Mr. Blik: You like root beer too J.D.?

Me: Can't get enough of the stuff. It's my favorite soda.

Mr. Blik: Awesome!

We had the mansion moved to the estate and Kimberly moved to the estate and mansion too.

---

After meeting Gordon, Waffle, and Mr. Blik, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Luan, Lily the Mermaid, Ariel's sisters, and The Power Pack Kids were heading to the world of the 1984 movie Splash, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the nine girls sighted there, but we're also going to help Allen and Madison deal with the cold-hearted scientist, Dr. Robert Kornbluth.

---

In 1964, eight-year-old Allen Bauer and his family are taking a boat tour at Cape Cod. Allen is fascinated by something below the surface and jumps overboard. In the ocean, he encounters a young girl and inexplicably finds himself able to breathe underwater. However, Allen is rescued and pulled back to the surface, and the two are separated. Since no one else saw the girl, Allen comes to believe the encounter was a near-death hallucination.

20 years later in 1984, Allen is now co-owner of a wholesale fruit and vegetable business in New York City with his womanizing brother Freddie. Through the years, Allen's relationships have failed as he subconsciously seeks the connection he felt with the mysterious girl. Depressed after his latest breakup, Allen returns to Cape Cod, where he encounters eccentric scientist Dr. Walter Kornbluth on a diving expedition. When his motorboat malfunctions, Allen falls into the sea and is knocked unconscious; his wallet drops onto the coral below. He wakes up on a beach, in the presence of a beautiful naked woman who is unable to talk. After kissing him, she dives into the sea, where she transforms into a mermaid. While swimming underwater, she is sighted by Kornbluth.

The mermaid finds Allen's wallet, and uses a sunken ship's charts to locate New York. She comes ashore naked at the Statue of Libertyand is arrested for indecent exposure. Using information from Allen's wallet, the police contact him and the mysterious girl is released into his care. She learns how to speak English from watching television, and is eager to explore the city. Unable to say her real name in human language, she selects "Madison" from a Madison Avenue sign. She tells Allen that she will be in New York for "six fun-filled days until the moon is full"; unable to return home if she stays any longer. Despite Madison's occasionally outlandish behavior, she and Allen fall in love. Allen proposes to Madison, but she declines and runs away. After some contemplation, Madison returns to Allen and agrees to marry him, with the added promise of telling him the truth about herself after an upcoming dignitary dinner to welcome the President.

Meanwhile, Kornbluth, realizing that the naked woman at Liberty Island was the mermaid he encountered, pursues the couple, trying to expose her as a mermaid by splashing her with water. His first attempts are unsuccessful, and Kornbluth ends up with multiple injuries. Finally, he infiltrates the dignitary dinner, splashing Madison with a hose and successfully unmasking her identity. Madison is seized by government agents and taken to a secret lab, headed by Kornbluth's cold-hearted rival Dr. Ross for examination. As Madison withers away in captivity, Kornbluth learns that the scientists are planning to dissect her; he regrets his actions, as he just wanted to prove that he wasn't crazy.

Allen is shocked by Madison's secret and rejects her, but when he voices his disillusionment to his brother, Freddie lashes out at him, reminding Allen how happy he was with her. Realizing he still loves Madison, Allen confronts the guilt-ridden Kornbluth, who having been rejected by his colleagues despite his discovery, agrees to help rescue her.

Impersonating Swedish scientists, Allen, Freddie, and Kornbluth enter the lab and smuggle Madison outside. Freddie decides to be arrested in Allen's place, while Kornbluth unsuccessfully tries to stop United States troops from catching the couple. Despite being pursued, Allen and Madison make it to New York Harbor. Madison tells Allen that he can survive underwater as long as he is with her, causing Allen to realize she was the girl he had met underwater as a child. Madison warns him that if he comes to live in the sea, he cannot return to land. She jumps in the water when the troops close in on them. When more troops attempt to arrest Allen, he jumps into the water after her, but starts to drown as he cannot swim. Madison kisses him, gifting him the ability to swim and breathe underwater. Frogmen enter the water to recapture Madison and Allen, but the couple fight them off and escape, happily swimming toward what appears to be an underwater kingdom.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 1984 movie Splash, and I know what we're going to do here in this one, not only am I going to rescue the nine girls sighted here, but we're also going to help Allen and Madison deal with Dr. Kornbluth.

---

Dr. Walter Kornbluth is the main antagonist of Splash . He unsuccessfully tries to prove that Madison is a mermaid. However in the second half of the film, he finally succeeds in doing this. This leads to Madison being taken to a secret lab to be prepped for dissection, which makes Kornbluth regret his actions and help Allen Bauer get Madison out of the lab.

He was portrayed by Eugene Levy.

Me: You said it, big guy. I watched that movie long ago, and I hated that cold-hearted scientist for trying to capture and dissect Madison.

Lily the Mermaid: Capturing and dissecting a mermaid? That does it, that bastard's got to go.

Ariel's sisters also agreed, along with the rest of us, Dr. Kornbluth had to go.

Me: I agree with you. And as guardians of the secret of mermaids they have to have their minds erased of what they found out.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of nine girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the nine girls along with Allen and Madison, but they were been cornered by Dr. Ross and his goons, and he was going to kill them and capture Madison.

Lincoln: That cold-hearted monster, he's cornered the nine girls sighted here, along with Allen and Madison, and he's going to kill them and capture Madison. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over, and as we took care of Dr. Ross' goons, Lincoln, Lily the Mermaid, Ariel's sisters, Luan, and The Power Pack Kids went after Dr. Kornbluth. Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he'd attacked Dr. Kornbluth with incredibly powerful slashes from his massive blade. Luan and the Power Pack Kids fired blasts of light and elemental forces at him as well. Then, Lincoln, Lily the Mermaid, and Ariel's sisters fired powerful blasts of water and neon blue energy at Dr. Kornbluth, which exploded with incredible power, and he was knocked out and he and his goons were tied up.

We checked on Madison and Allen, who were okay, and Lincoln and Nicole went up to the nine girls who were sighted here, and when Lincoln saw them, he recognized them. The nine girls were Filia, Cerebella, Ms. Fortune, and Parasoul from Skullgirls, Black Orchid, Kim Wu, and Maya from Killer Instinct, Tessa and Mai-Ling from Red Earth.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Filia, Cerebella, Ms. Fortune, Parasoul, Black Orchid, Kim Wu, Maya, Tessa, and Mai-Ling.

Nicole: From Skullgirls, Killer Instinct, and Red Earth, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Filia: Yeah, we're okay.

Then, when Filia and the other eight girls saw who it was that saved them from that cold-hearted evil scientist Dr. Ross and his goons, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Filia: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eight clones of himself, and they went up to the eight girls, and Lincoln went up to Filia, who'd picked her and the other fourteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Filia: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We got back home, and Allen and Madison were going to be welcome here in The Estate, and as for Dr. Kornbluth and his goons, they were sentenced to Life in Prison in The Neptune Prison, and were put in separate cells in Solitary Confinement for what he tried to do. We used Neurolizers on them to make sure that the scientists forgot about mermaids.

---

After throwing Dr. Kornbluth in prison for his cold-blooded attempts to capture and dissect Madison, we were heading to The Mushroom Kingdom, and we've got bad news. It appears Fawful and Cackletta have now returned from the dead, and they're causing havoc again.

Lincoln: Looks like we're heading back to The Mushroom Kingdom to take care of trouble yet again.

Me: That's right, but, Nicole, what can you tell us about Fawful and Cackletta?

Nicole: You wouldn't like them, Dad. They've caused a whole mess of trouble for both The Mushroom Kingdom and Bowser.

Nicole proceeded to tell us about Cackletta and Fawful, and we weren't going to like it one bit.

Cackletta

Cackletta (ゲラゲモーナ Geragemōna) is the main antagonist throughout most of Mario & Luigi: Superstar Saga, and the posthumous overarching antagonist of Mario & Luigi: Bowser's Inside Story and Mario & Luigi: Bowser's Inside Story Bowser Jr.'s Journey. Her name is a pun on "Cackle." She is one of the most insane characters in the Mario & Luigi series.

Physical Appearance

Cackletta has three forms that she shifts between. Cackletta's first form shows her to be a green-skinned humanoid wearing a pink-ish robe and purple cape. She has pink "horns" and a blue gem. Unlike most beanishes, Cackletta has large pink eyes with black pupils. Her mouth is also fanged and can open wider than that of a normal person.

Her second form, Bowletta, is similar to Bowser himself, but she retains her first form's facial features and lacks the collar Bowser wears on his neck. Her shell's front face also has two circles rather than ridges.

History

While her past is unknown, it is known that Cackletta lost her mind and became the bean witch she is feared to be today. She hired a henchman named Fawful to help her as she went on with her dastardly plots. At the very start of the game, Cackletta disguises as Lady Lima to steal Peach's voice and then flies to the Beanbean her escape to the Beanbean Kingdom, Mario, Luigi, and Bowser chase her and attempt to stop her plans, at which point, Fawful, her underling, shoots them out of the sky with his Vacuum Helmet.

When the Mario Bros. reach the ruined Castle Town, they immediately go to the castle, where they meet Lady Lima. She tells them to fix the castle's plumbing. When they do, the Beanstar's protective barrier vanishes and "Lady Lima" reveals herself to be Cackletta. When the Mario Bros. reach the room, she forces Queen Bean to attack them and leaves before the fight.

Her next appearance is in Woohoo Hooniversity, where she apparently turned all the scientists who failed to escape into monsters. After Peach's voice fails to awaken the Beanstar (because, as it turns out, the voice that Cackletta had stolen at the start of the game was actually that of Birdo's), the Mario Bros. come in and defeat her. Fawful sucks her spirit up with his headgear and prepares to blast Mario and Luigi. Prince Peasley then knocks Fawful and Cackletta's spirit to Stardust Fields.

There, a battered and beaten Fawful finds Bowser's unconscious body, and allows Cackletta to possess him. She then becomes Bowletta, a rather frightening hybrid of Bowser and Cackletta herself. She then takes control of both Beanbean and Koopa Troops in a final battle against the Mario Brothers. The Mario Brothers then fight the Koopalings and Fawful throughout Bowser's Castle. Then they go for Bowletta, herself. After an initial battle with Bowletta, the Mario Brothers are taken inside of Bowletta as she cheats and nearly kills them. Cackletta's spirit then is confronted by Mario and Luigi for a final fight. After the spirit's defeat, Cackletta is defeated once and for all.

Fawful

Fawful is a minion of Cackletta who debuted in Mario & Luigi: Superstar Saga serving as the secondary antagonist, a supporting character in Mario & Luigi: Partners in Time, and later the central antagonist of Mario & Luigi: Bowser's Inside Story.

Fawful is a rather eccentric and excitable villain, famous in the Mario & Luigi RPG series for his humorous one-liners (which hint at him losing his sanity). His first appearance was in Mario & Luigi: Superstar Saga. Fawful is fought twice in the game, once in the beginning, and once before Bowletta, the final boss. After being beaten by the Mario Brothers and the Prince, he apparently flees into the sewers of Princess Peach's castle. This can be seen in Mario & Luigi: Partners in Time. He can be seen using the baby Mario Brothers, where he sells badges in exchange for beans. Humorously, he does not recognize the babies but gets angry and shouts for no particular reason because of what they are wearing, red and green. His catch phrase is "I HAVE FURY!" and he often uses food to express himself when talking such as "Mustard of Doom." He returns in Mario & Luigi: Bowser's Inside Story as the central antagonist.

History

Mario & Luigi: Superstar Saga

Fawful appears for the first time in Mario & Luigi: Superstar Saga as the self-proclaimed apprentice of Cackletta. Fawful aids Cackletta in her mission to steal Princess Peach's voice. Since Bowser and the Mario brothers joined together to defeat the perpetrator, they board the Koopa Cruiser and fly off to the Beanbean Kingdom. During the flight, a mysterious ball of energy hits Bowser while he is standing on the deck of the Cruiser. Mario and Luigi witness the incident, but they are attacked before they can do anything. Mario and Luigi fended off Fawful, knocking off his vacuum helmet in the battle, and weakening him to the point of forfeiting the fight. However, Fawful substitutes another helmet, and sends the Koopa Cruiser falling from the sky, and eventually crashing it into Stardust Fields.

When the Mario brothers visit the Hoohoo Village, Fawful terrorizes the guards, and if the brothers attempt to exit the village by navigating the mountains to the west of the settlement, Fawful generates a stone to fall off the mountain and block the path of the plumbers.

During Cackletta's conquest of the Beanbean Kingdom castle, Fawful accompanied Cackletta in tricking the Mario brothers into plumbing the castle's sewer system, and feeding the Belly Belch Worm to the then-mutated Queen Bean.

The evil duo then tries to awaken the legendary Beanstar with Princess Peach's stolen voice, but their plan was ruined when they accidentally stole Birdo's voice. The horrid voice of Birdo compelled the Beanstar to break through the floor and appear in front of Mario and Luigi. After defeating Cackletta, who planned on obtaining the Beanstar, Fawful uses his helmet to gain more power to fight the Mario brothers. Before he can battle the plumbers, Prince Peasly attacks the duo and sends them flying towards unknown territory. Fawful and Cackletta landed in Stardust Fields and hijacked Bowser's unconscious body to create "Bowletta."

They reappear in Little Fungitown, after using Cackletta's Koopa Cruiser, and in Joke's End, where Fawful mistakes a fake Beanstar and steals the real Beanstar. Luigi then disguises himself as Princess Peach to win back the Beanstar.

Fawful's final appearance is when he battles the brothers in Bowser's Castle, this time, being much stronger and possessing more abilities. Mario and Luigi defeated him, and he was thrown out of the castle, and assumed dead (although this was later proven wrong in Mario & Luigi: Partners in Time). A supposed apparition of him appears during the final battle as one of Cackletta's attacks.

When Nicole was finished, we were horrified by the histories of both Cackletta and Fawful.

Me: Whoa, those two are really big time threats to The Mushroom Kingdom, they've really got to go.

Ren Amamiya: You're right, J.D. Mario and Luigi told us about how dangerous they were.

Morgana: And on top of that, they dare try to take Princess Peach's voice?! That's truly unforgivable!

Dimitri 1: (British Accent) Right. We need to destroy them here and now.

Dimitri 2: (British Accent) J.D., we've got an idea. You leave Fawful to us.

Dizzy: (British Accent) And you can leave Cackletta to me and Dee-Dee.

Dimitri 3: (British Accent) They're right, plus, it's time for us to transform, as well.

Me: Okay, Dimitris, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee, we'll leave Flawful and Cackletta to you guys.

Ryuji: Heck yeah, give that lunatic Fawful hell, Dimitris.

The Dimitri Trio smiled at Ryuji, they're definitely going to give Fawful hell, and Dizzy and Dee-Dee will make sure that Cackletta pays for her crimes.

We arrived at a dark castle in The Mushroom Kingdom, and we saw our targets, Cackletta and her evil servant, Fawful.

Cackletta: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived, along with the foolish inhabitants of The Mushroom Kingdom.

Me: That's right, you witch, and we're here to end you and Fawful once and for all.

Fawful: How dare you say such a threat to her Majesty, you will pay for this!

Dimitri Trio: WHY DON'T YOU SHUT THE HELL UP, FAWFUL!

The Dimitri Trio fired massive waves of lava at Fawful, and burned him badly, and Dizzy and Dee-Dee fired blasts of fire and water at Cackletta, and burned and drenched her.

Suddenly, The Dimitri Trio's eyes turned neon crimson red and they were surrounded by red energy auras with lava and fire, and Dizzy's eyes turned neon blue and she was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura with blue flames, and Dee-Dee's eyes turned neon blue and she was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura with water. The Dimitri Trio and Dizzy and Dee-Dee unholster their Defenders of Camden Town swords from their backs, and as The Dimitri Trio walked towards Fawful, they left lava, flames, and red energy with every step, and as Dizzy and Dee-Dee walked towards Cackletta, Dizzy left blue flames and blue energy with every step and Dee-Dee left water and blue energy with every step.

Dimitri 1: (British Accent) Fawful, We will never forgive you for helping Cackletta with trying to take over The Mushroom Kingdom.

Dimitri 2: (British Accent) You've caused Mario and Luigi so much grief in the past, along with the rest of The Mushroom Kingdom.

Dimitri 3: (British Accent) And for that, you and Cackletta will both die for your crimes!

Then, The Dimitri Trio were surrounded by massive vortexes of red energy with red-hot lava with lava dragons flying around the vortexes, and red hot phoenixes inside the vortexes. Then, Dizzy was now surrounded by a massive vortex of blue energy with blue flames, a blue dragon flying around the vortex, and a blue phoenix inside the vortex, and Dee-Dee was surrounded by a massive vortex of blue energy with waves of water, a blue dragon flying around the vortex, and a blue phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortexes faded away, The Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee emerged, but they were changed forever.

The Dimitri Trio grew up to 6'9" in height, they now had the bodies of a hunk with large and powerful muscles and eight pack abs, they now had a full head of black hair going down to the bottom of their necks, they have neon crimson red eyes and red energy auras with red-hot lava, their black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. The Dimitri Trio now have red dragons with reflecting lava emblazoned on their foreheads, they had on dragon earrings with the Lava Kanji in its claws, their chains with their number tags turned into chokers and they now have on necklaces with silver dragon pendants with the Lava Kanji in its claws. The Dimitri Trio now have on black tank tops with yellow phoenixes, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and long black trenchcoats with red cuffs on the sleeves and red dragons on the back of the trenchcoats. They now have on their new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on their wrists and Belts of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on their waists and their Eater of Sins revolver holstered on their right hips.

They each have a kanji on the back, for Dimitri 1, it said "Dimitri 1, Leader of The Dimitri Trio, Master of Lava and Fire, Loving Prankster of The Dalmatian Family, and Hero of Camden Town, for Dimitri 2, it said "Dimitri 2, Second-In-Command of The Trio, Master of Lava and Fire, Loving Prankster of The Dalmatian Family, and Hero of Camden Town" and for Dimitri 3, it said, "Dimitri 3, Third-In-Command of The Dimitri Trio, Master of Lava and Fire, Loving Prankster of The Dalmatian Family, and Hero of Camden Town."

Dizzy and Dee-Dee Dalmatian grew up to 5'11" in height, they each now had the body of a goddess, they now had a full head of long black hair coming down to the bottom of their necks, they had neon blue eyes and neon blue energy, but for Dizzy, hers has blue flames, and for Dee-Dee, hers has ocean waves and water drops, and their black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. And Dee-Dee Dalmatian transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 MAELSTROM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF HOPE!

We were amazed by the transformations of The Dimitri Trio and Dizzy and Dee-Dee, and for the two dark villains of The Mushroom Kingdom, that means trouble and judgement day has come.

Me: Whoa, five transformations for two battles, oh, this is going to be awesome.

Nico: You said it, J.D. (To the Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee) How do you guys feel?

Dimitri 1: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Voice of Honor and British Accent) We feel incredible, Nico, and now, we're going to put an end to those two monsters for good.

Nicole: Show no mercy!

The Dimitri Trio went after Fawful, and they fired powerful blasts of lava, fire, and red energy at the servant of Cackletta, and burned him severely, and Dizzy and Dee-Dee fired powerful blasts of fire, ice, and neon blue energy at Cackletta, and burned and drenched her severely. Then, The Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee slashed off the arms of Cackletta and Fawful, and they screamed in such excruciating pain.

Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee: And now, this is the end for the both of you once and for all, Fawful and Cackletta. DIVINE FIRESTORM MAELSTROM BARRAGE!

The Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee fired a massive wave of lava, fire, blue and red energy at the two villains, and once they hit, they exploded with incredible power, and Cackletta and Fawful were Super Hakaied forever. The Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee holstered their swords and powered down, but their new bodies, jewelry, weapons, and clothes were permanent. We cheered wildly for The Dimitri Trio, Dizzy, and Dee-Dee, and thanks to them, Cackletta and Fawful were gone forever, and The Mushroom Kingdom was saved from a really dangerous threat.

Later we were back at the World Tree Estate and we were watching TV, reading books and playing card games.

We saw Alice in deep thought.

Me: Alice are you all right?

Alice Liddell: (British Accent) I'm all right.

Kraven: (Russian Accent) Are you still thinking about what happened to your family, Alice?

Lori: (to Twilight and her friends) Please literally refrain from asking about that. It's very personal to Alice.

Edd: That sounds like something I would say.

Alice Liddell: (British Accent) No you guys they have a right to know about that.

Me: Are you sure you want to tell them Alice?

Alice Liddell: I do. It's something I want to tell.

Me: Okay. Guys I'm afraid what you are about to hear is not good.

Eli: What happened?

Alice: It was long before I met all of you.

Alice then told us her history and most of it was a terrible tragedy.

---

Alice Liddell is the youngest daughter of Arthur Liddell and Mrs. Liddell and the younger sister of Lizzie Liddell who is the sole survivor of a house fire that killed her family, causing her to have immense trauma when she was a child, affecting her reality, as well as her imaginary world, Wonderland, and its citizens.

As Alice struggled with the fragments of her memories, post-traumatic stress disorder, and deteriorating mental health after a ten-year catatonic state in Rutledge Asylum, she returned to Wonderland to save it from the Queen of Hearts, killing the monsters inside her head.

Alice regained enough sanity to leave Rutledge and Pris Witless helped Alice to get a room at the Houndsditch Home for Wayward Youth. Her psychiatrist and head of Houndsditch, Angus Bumby, helped Alice forget her traumatic memories using hypnotherapy. Unfortunately, Alice still suffered from poor mental health and returned to Wonderland to find the true cause of her family's death. After discovering that Bumby was the mastermind behind her family's death who also raped and molested Lizzie, she murdered him to avenge her family. With her reality fused with Wonderland, Cheshire Cat remarked that her memory was safe for the time being.

After leaving Houndsditch, Alice found a job at the London Royal Opera House as a theater worker. She also gained the ability to peer into the minds of others and explore their Otherlands.

Alice was born in England in 1856 where she spent most of her childhood in Oxford in the south of England. She lived a comfortable, happy life with Arthur Liddell, a dean at Oxford University, her mother and Elizabeth Liddell who was too old to be a good playmate to Alice, even though she was loving.

The family owned a cat named Dinah and two of her kittens later on. Alice was an imaginative and creative girl who immersed in her imaginary land called Wonderland. Her daydreams of her imaginary world led Nan Sharpe, a nanny who also taught Alice and her sister French and music, to have conversations with Mrs. Liddell about it. At one point, Nan told Alice that if she spent as much time as practicing the piano instead of daydreaming, she would be the next Sullivan or Gilbert. Mrs. Liddell also had Alice practice the piano frequently.

Being a dean at the Oxford University, Arthur would often invite his undergraduates to tea at the family household. Due to their constant appearances and mannerisms, Lizzie expressed her disgust of them to Alice, saying that "[they were] waiting a word from [their father]" and called them a "bunch of toadies".

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland

Alice sat on a riverbank on a warm summer day, drowsily reading over her sister's shoulder, when she caught sight of a White Rabbit in a waistcoat running by her. The White Rabbit pulled out a pocket watch, exclaimed that he was late, and popped down a rabbit hole. Alice followed the White Rabbit down the hole and came upon a great hallway lined with doors. She found a small door that she opened using a key she discovered on a nearby table. Through the door, she saw a beautiful garden, and Alice began to cry when she realized she cannot fit through the door. She found a bottle marked "DRINK ME" and downed the contents. She shrunk down to the right size to enter the door but cannot enter since she had left the key on the tabletop above her head.

Alice discovered a cake marked "EAT ME" which caused her to grow to an inordinately large height. Still unable to enter the garden, Alice began to cry again, and her giant tears formed a pool at her feet. As she cried, Alice shrunk and fell into the pool of tears. The pool of tears became a sea, and as she trod water she met a Mouse. The Mouse accompanied Alice to shore, where a number of animals gathered on a bank. After a "Caucus Race," Alice scared the animals away with tales of her cat, Dinah, and found herself alone again.

Alice met the White Rabbit again, who mistook her for a servant and sent her off to fetch his things. While in the White Rabbit's house, Alice drank an unmarked bottle of liquid and grew to the size of the room. The White Rabbit returned to his house, fuming at the now-giant Alice, but she swatted him and his servants away with her giant hand. The animals outside tried to get her out of the house by throwing rocks at her, which inexplicably transformed into cakes when they landed in the house.

Alice ate one of the cakes, which caused her to shrink to a small size. She wandered off into the forest, where she met a Caterpillar sitting on a mushroom and smoking a hookah (i.e. a water pipe). The Caterpillar and Alice got into an argument, but before the Caterpillar crawled away in disgust, he told Alice that different parts of the mushroom will make her grow or shrink. Alice tasted a part of the mushroom, and her neck stretched above the trees. A pigeon saw her and attacked, deeming her a serpent hungry for pigeon eggs.

Alice ate another part of the mushroom and shrunk down to a normal height. She wandered until she came across the house of the Duchess. She entered the abode and found the Duchess, who was nursing a squealing baby, as well as a grinning Cheshire Cat, and a Cook who tossed massive amounts of pepper into a cauldron of soup. The Duchess behaved rudely to Alice and then departed to prepare for a croquet game with the Queen. As she left, the Duchess handed Alice the baby, which Alice discovered is a pig. Alice let the pig go and re-entered the forest, where she met the Cheshire Cat again. The Cheshire Cat explained to Alice that everyone in Wonderland was mad, including Alice herself. The Cheshire Cat gave directions to the March Hare's house and faded away to nothing but a floating grin.

Alice traveled to the March Hare's house to find the March Hare, the Mad Hatter, and the Dormouse having tea together. Treated rudely by all three, Alice stood by the tea party, uninvited. She learned that they have wronged Time and were trapped in perpetual tea-time.

After a final discourtesy, Alice left and journeyed through the forest. She found a tree with a door in its side, and traveled through it to find herself back in the great hall. She took the key and used the mushroom to shrink down and entered the garden.

After saving several gardeners from the temper of the Queen of Hearts, Alice joined the Queen in a strange game of croquet. The croquet ground was hilly, the mallets and balls were live flamingos and hedgehogs, and the Queen tore about, frantically calling for the other player's executions. Amidst this madness, Alice bumped into the Cheshire Cat again, who asked her how she was doing. The King of Hearts interrupted their conversation and attempted to bully the Cheshire Cat, who impudently dismissed the King. The King took offense and arranged for the Cheshire Cat's execution, but since the Cheshire Cat was now only a head floating in mid-air, no one can agree on how to behead it.

Alice was playing with a white kitten and a black kitten, the offsprings of Dinah, when she pondered what the world was like on the other side of a mirror's reflection. Climbing up on the fireplace mantel, she poked at the wall-hung mirror behind the fireplace and discovered, to her surprise, that she was able to step through it to an alternative world. In this reflected version of her own house, she found a book with looking-glass poetry, "Jabberwocky," whose reversed printing she can read only by holding it up to the mirror. She also observed that the chess pieces had come to life, though they remain small enough for her to pick up.

Upon leaving the house, she entered a sunny spring garden where the flowers had the power of human speech; they perceived Alice as being a "flower that can move about." Elsewhere in the garden, Alice met the Red Queen, who was now human-sized, and who impressed Alice with her ability to run at breathtaking speeds. This was a reference to the chess rule that queens were able to move any number of vacant squares at once, in any direction, which made them the most "agile" of pieces.

The Red Queen revealed to Alice that the entire countryside was laid out in squares, like a gigantic chessboard, and offered to make Alice a queen if she can move all the way to the eighth rank/row in a chess match, referencing to the chess rule of Promotion. Alice was placed in the second rank as one of the White Queen's pawns, and began her journey across the chessboard by boarding a train that literally jumped over the third row and directly into the fourth rank, thus acting on the rule that pawns can advance two spaces on their first move.

She then met the fat twin brothers Tweedledum and Tweedledee, whom she knew from the famous nursery rhyme. After reciting the long poem "The Walrus and the Carpenter," the Tweedles drew Alice's attention to the Red King - loudly snoring away under a nearby tree - and maliciously provoked her with idle philosophical banter that she existed only as an imaginary figure in the Red King's dreams. Finally, the brothers began acting out their nursery-rhyme by suiting up for battle, only to be frightened away by an enormous crow, as the nursery rhyme about them predicts.

Alice next met the White Queen, who was very absent-minded but boasted of her ability to remember future events before they happened. Alice and the White Queen advanced into the chessboard's fifth rank by crossing over a brook together, but at the very moment of the crossing, the Queen transformed into a talking Sheep in a small shop. Alice soon found herself struggling to handle the oars of a small rowboat, where the Sheep annoyed her with nonsensical shouting about "crabs" and "feathers." Unknown to Alice, these were standard terms in the jargon of rowing. Thus the Queen/Sheep was speaking in a perfectly logical and meaningful way.

After crossing yet another brook into the sixth rank, Alice immediately encountered Humpty Dumpty, who, besides celebrating his unbirthday, provided his own translation of the strange terms in "Jabberwocky." In the process, he introduced Alice to the concept of portmanteau words, before his inevitable fall.

"All the king's horses and all the king's men" came to Humpty Dumpty's assistance, and were accompanied by the White King, along with the Lion and the Unicorn, who again proceeded to act out a nursery rhyme by fighting with each other. In this chapter, the March Hare and Hatter of the first book made a brief re-appearance in the guise of "Anglo-Saxon messengers" called "Haigha" and "Hatta."

Upon leaving the Lion and Unicorn to their fight, Alice reached the seventh rank by crossing another brook into the forested territory of the Red Knight, who was intent on capturing the "white pawn" - who was Alice - until the White Knight came to her rescue. Escorting her through the forest towards the final brook-crossing, the Knight recited a long poem of his own composition called Haddocks' Eyes, and repeatedly fell off his horse. His clumsiness was a reference to the "eccentric" L-shaped movements of chess knights.

Bidding farewell to the White Knight, Alice stepped across the last brook, and was automatically crowned a queen, with the crown materializing abruptly on her head. She soon found herself in the company of both the White and Red Queens, who relentlessly confounded Alice by using word play to thwart her attempts at logical discussion. They then invited one another to a party that will be hosted by the newly crowned Alice - of which Alice herself had no prior knowledge. Alice arrived and sat herself at her own party, which quickly turned to a chaotic uproar. Alice finally grabbed the Red Queen, believing her to be responsible for all the day's nonsense, and began shaking her violently with all her might. By "capturing" the Red Queen, Alice unknowingly put the Red King into checkmate, and was allowed to wake up.

Alice suddenly awoke in her armchair to find herself holding the black kitten, whom she deduced to have been the Red Queen all along, with the white kitten having been the White Queen. The story ended with Alice recalling the speculation of the Tweedle brothers, that everything may had, in fact, been a dream of the Red King, and that Alice might herself be no more than a figment of his imagination. One final poem was inserted by the author as a sort of epilogue which suggested that life itself was but a dream.

The Fire

During a winter night on November 5, 1863, a fire was mysteriously started within the Liddell household. Before the event, Alice witnessed a figure entering the house that night. However, she convinced herself that she saw a centaur instead, and that the sounds coming from her sister's room had been Lizzie talking in her sleep when it really was the one who entered the house raping Lizzie. The figure (or centaur to Alice) locked Lizzie's room with her room key and fled the house. Alice did smell some smoke before she fully awakened but was too busy being immersed in her daydream, something which would later cause her psychological guilt.

With Alice's Adventures in Wonderland book on her lap while she was sleeping, Mad Hatter screamed in alarm when a fire broke out and the White Rabbit screamed that "[they] must save Alice!" Mad Hatter's cries roused Alice from her dream and she became fully awake by the smell of smoke. She quickly ran to her parent's bedroom where she heard their voices from behind the door telling her to escape and save herself.

Although seriously burnt, Alice managed to escape by jumping out of a window with her rabbit doll and cushioning herself on snow, led by her cat Dinah who also survived the fire. But her family were less fortunate, and Alice was forced to witness them incinerated within the fire that destroyed her home. As Alice cried outside her burning house, she saw the figure from earlier disappear in the shadows. Eventually, some people found Alice and escorted her away from the scene.

After Wilton J. Radcliffe identified the bodies at the Oxford Morgue, Lizzie's body was the only one not burnt by the flames. After an investigation, it was concluded that the fire was started due to the clumsiness of Dinah and a still-lit oil lamp in the downstairs library.

Littlemore Infirmary

Alice was sent to Littlemore Infirmary to have her severe burns taken care of. It is implied that Alice's burns were severe first-degree burns, but not second-degree because Alice's dermis was unharmed. Alice was cared for by a surgeon named Dr. Grantham who lost his sanity and it is implied he accidentally killed himself.

The expectation for her recovery process was "not at all encouraging," according to the The Illustrated London News, and that the measurements for her coffin were already taken. At the same time, the rest of her family were "stored in an ice locker in the likelihood that the whole family will be expeditiously interred at the same time."

In early December 1863, a newspaper was published saying that Alice was "accused" of something, but doesn't go into detail. This may have been when Alice was accused of being involved with the house fire.

After a year of treatment, Alice's severe burns eventually became fully healed, however, the incident had left a huge impact on her mentality, and caused her to fall into a catatonic state. Her memories of the mysterious figure in her house were repressed.

Rutledge Asylum

On November 4, 1864, Alice was transferred to Rutledge Asylum in London under the care of Dr. Heironymous Q. Wilson, as it was the best solution to handle her symptoms. She would spend the next ten years under the care of Dr. Wilson, documented in his casebook. At her preliminary examination on November 11, 1864, Alice was presented as deaf, dumb, and blind to stimulation. Despite insensible passivity, preternatural quietness, and evident dementia, a course of treatment was prescribed.

During her time at the asylum, Alice had faced her own guilt and the mistreatment from other patients and the cruel caretakers at Rutledge. At an unknown point in time, one nurse, Pris Witless, overheard Alice blaming herself for the fire that killed all of her family; Witless would later use this "confession" against Alice in the form of blackmail.

Alice was at the mercy of the 19th century Victorian medical community. In the first six months of 1865, Alice was subjected to many remedies, without result, such as having her hair shaved off, cold plaster sessions, blood-letting, leeches, experimental shocking, and massive doses of laudanum. In desperation, restraints included a straitjacket, solitary confinement, sensory deprivation, confiscation of her rabbit doll and cancellation of afternoon tea. All methods failed. In addition, it turns out that the original rabbit doll was somehow lost, presumably during Alice's stay in Littlemore Infirmary or her earlier years at Rutledge, and was given a replacement instead.

In the autumn of 1873, after eight years of fitful sleep, Alice spoke by drawing. Her first picture was of Cheshire Cat. Nurse D- took it upon herself to replace her rabbit doll's missing eye, but when Alice saw the repair job, she began to sob hysterically and began to speak for the first time in cryptic rhyme: "Into the hole again, we hurried along our way into a once-glorious garden now seeped in dark decay." Alice would not stop crying until the new eye was removed, and had returned to her quiet state after its removal. The event allowed Dr. Wilson to discover that Alice could speak. Since then, Alice continued to communicate by her drawings, one of which Wilson believed may have been her nightmarish depiction of Hell.

In November 1873, the Orderlies, who had been mistreating Alice for most of her first year in the asylum, tried ruining the rabbit toy by "feeding" it porridge. This triggered something in Alice and she attacked the orderlies with a spoon, leaving heavy wounds, before turning it onto her own wrists. After her wrists were attended, Alice returned to her normal state again.

In December 1873, Dr. Wilson removed the rabbit from Alice's room, causing her to panic and scream uncontrollably. However, after five months, Nurse D- grew tired of the doctor's fruitless shock treatments and repaired the doll before returning it to Alice. The nurse was repaid with a drawing of the White Rabbit made by Alice.

Throughout 1874, Alice slowly began showing signs of recovery and began speaking more. During Wilson's many interviews with Alice during her catatonia, he was able to record many of her supposedly "insane fairy tales" of Wonderland, while she was actually living them in her mind at the time.

One night in August 1874, the White Rabbit came to her, and led Alice back to Wonderland, which over the years had become corrupted by the deadly dictatorship of the Queen of Hearts. The residents of Wonderland saw Alice as their only chance to get rid of the Queen, due to the stories Rabbit told of a champion, placing into the role of their savior and began her journey to face the Queen.

After meeting the Cheshire Cat again, who became her guide through her quest, Alice followed Rabbit but quickly lost him as he shrunk into a tiny hole and ran off without her. Along her search to find him, the Torch Gnomes of the Village of the Doomed told her that the Fortress of Doors held the secret to becoming smaller, and she should seek the Mayor Elder.

Mayor Elder offered to take Alice to the Fortress of Doors, if she could return with a key to open doors. She managed to retrieve the object, killing several Card Guards in the process, and the two of them traveled to the Fortress. Inside the Skool within the Fortress, Alice and the Mayor retrieved ingredients and made a shrinking elixir. After drinking the elixir about becoming small, Alice jumped into a portal which took her to the Vale of Tears.

Traveling through the valley looking for Rabbit again, Alice came across the Mock Turtle, unshelled and sobbing his eyes out. Although Turtle had not seen Rabbit, he said he would take Alice to the Caterpillar who knew everything, but first she had to retrieve his shell from the Duchess, who had tried to turn Turtle into soup. Downstream, Alice found Bill McGill, who had been kicked out of his own home by the Duchess, who was hiding out from the Queen.

After defeating the now-murderous Duchess in combat, and giving Turtle his shell back, he led her through the underground water tunnels to the Wonderland Woods. Alice finally found Rabbit in this area and the two went together to find Caterpillar. Unfortunately for them, the Mad Hatter was traveling through the woods and stomped on Rabbit, killing him. Blaming herself and her bad luck, Alice broke down into tears briefly but quickly got control of herself again when Cat reminded her of her task.

When she found Caterpillar, he told her that it was her own guilt and insanity that had turned Wonderland into a dark and twisted version of itself, and she was brought back to kill the Queen to save the land and herself. He then created a portal for her, which took her to the Fungiferous Forest. At the forest, Alice killed the Voracious Centipede and took a bite from the Mushroom of Life to return to her normal size.

Traveling on, Alice came across an oracle who told her she had to defeat the Queen's main defense, the Jabberwock with the Jabberwock's Eye Staff. Having already obtained one piece of the staff, Alice set off to the Pale Realm to get another from the White chess pieces. The White King asked Alice for her help to save his queen from the red side and gave her a pawn to help her.

Storming the Red Castle, Alice arrived too late and witnessed the White Queen's beheading. However, after defeating the Red King, Alice used her pawn to revive the White Queen. As the White Queen went to battle the Red pieces, Hatter appeared and knocked Alice out cold.

When Alice came around, she found herself in Hatter's Domain, and she set off to find him. After getting rid of Hatter's goons, Tweedledum and Tweedledee, Hatter arrived and commented on that Alice feared the truth, and returning to Rutledge Asylum, but all of that could be avoided. Although Alice asked for an answer from him, she did not get one and the ground crumbled below her.

Alice quickly got to her feet, and moving further in, she encountered the Dormouse and March Hare, imprisoned and being experimented upon by the insane Hatter. As she could do nothing for them. Alice went deeper into Hatter's lair, and found the Gryphon trapped in one of the cages. After learning from him that Hatter arrived at six o'clock everyday to check his experiments, Alice used this information to change the clocks to read six o'clock, which drew him out to her.

After killing Hatter, and gaining the second piece of the Eye Staff, Alice allied with Gryphon and they flew together to the Land of Fire and Brimstone. Alice found out that the oracle was actually Caterpillar, and he explained that when Alice answered Rabbit's call, she had began to recover from her madness, and only she can save herself and in turn Wonderland. Soon after, she faced the Jabberwock in battle, and although she did not manage to kill him, she did gain one of his eyes to complete the Eye Staff.

With Gryphon and some rebel troops, Alice stormed Queensland and the Queen's castle. During the battle, Alice witnessed Gryphon take on the Jabberwock alone, and be fatally injured in the process. In revenge, Alice killed the Jabberwock herself. Gryphon told Alice that because she defeated the Jabberwock, she already avenged Gryphon's (impending) death and encouraged Alice to fight the Red Queen. His final dying words to Alice were "Do your best, Alice; you can only do your best; you can always do… best." Alice took a moment to mourn his death and continued with her mission, infiltrating the Queen's castle. Just as she was about to finally face the Queen, the Cheshire Cat tried to tell her that she and the Queen were one and the same, but was brutally beheaded by one of the Queen's tentacles before he could finish, causing Alice to be emotionally distressed.

After a long and deadly battle with the Queen, Alice came out as the winner, and Wonderland became a peaceful world once again, with many of her old friends revived from death. In the real world, as part of the aftermath of her victory, Alice's mental state had improved greatly.

In November 1874, Alice was deemed sane enough to be released from Rutledge. Although she was depressed, Alice was committed to the struggle for her sanity. During Alice's release from Rutledge Asylum, a black cat was seen leaving with her. Whether or not the cat was Dinah a decade older, or simply a feral cat Alice befriended in the asylum and chose to adopt, was not revealed.

Alice: Madness Returns

One day, after her session with the doctor was over, Bumby sent Alice to pick up medicine at the pharmacist. On her way, Alice became side-tracked with following a stray cat. Upon entering a dark alley, she experienced a hallucination of several monstrous figures with Jabberwock heads surrounding her, until it was interrupted by Nurse Witless, who had found her wandering around. Alice was not very happy to see the old woman as Witless was using Alice's "confession" to blackmail her in order to get money to buy alcohol. In return, Witless would not report Alice's "confession" to the police. Alice was surprised to hear that Witless might have information about her missing rabbit toy. Witless then brought Alice to her rooftop, where Alice had another hallucination of Witless transforming into the Jabberwock. The fear Alice had from seeing Witless turn into a monster triggered an even greater mental breakdown, and Alice fell into Wonderland again.

Alice landed in the Vale of Tears, and found Wonderland appearing to be much more peaceful than when she was in Rutledge. However, greeted by her old friend Cheshire Cat, he told her that there was a new ruler in Wonderland and Alice's sanity was at risk once again. After traversing through the Vale of Tears and watching it fall apart around her, she entered Hatter's Domain again, and found the Hatter in pieces, after the March Hare and Dormouse turned against him and took over the factory. The Mad Hatter informed Alice about the changes Dormouse and March Hare made to the factory. Alice agreed to reconstruct him in exchange for information about the source of Wonderland's corruption.

After recovering his limbs, Alice and Hatter broke into the main hub of the factory, and Alice witnessed the sight of the Infernal Train leaving the factory and heading into Wonderland, which several Wonderlanders considered the cause of all the corruption. Upon the departure of the Train, Dormouse and the March Hare lifted the Hatter away with a giant hook and confronted Alice in a mechanical robot controlled by the both of them. However, the Hatter freed himself and dropped a teapot upon the battle robot causing it to fall apart and eject Dormouse and March Hare on to the floor in front of Alice. The Mad Hatter's factory began to fall apart around the him, Alice, and the corpses of Dormouse and March Hare.

The Mad Hatter suddenly slipped into a delusional state and began conversing with Dormouse and March Hare, claiming he only wanted another tea party. Alice urged Hatter to give more information about the Infernal Train, but the Hatter quickly turned down Alice's questions and returned to drinking tea with his dead friends. Alice pleaded with the Hatter only for him to be crushed by the debris of the collapsed roof of the factory. Alice scoffed, claiming he deserved to die from not keeping his end of the bargain by helping her and was quickly overwhelmed by a sea of tea and drowned.

Alice woke up in the real world to find two fishermen who pulled her out of the River Thames and onto the docks and planned on raping her, but she told them off. She navigated the docks to find Nan Sharpe, her former nanny, at the Mangled Mermaid, a whorehouse. Inside, she interrupted a possible assault between Nanny and Jack Splatter. Alice ordered Jack to leave Nan Sharpe alone but was knocked unconscious by him, triggering a return trip to up in Tundraful, she met Mock Turtle again, the former stationmaster of the Looking Glass Railway and the current captain of the HMS Gryphon.

They both go underwater to the Deluded Depths, but when Alice questioned Turtle about the Train, he was unable to give her information, as he was too terrified to speak of it after being replaced as stationmaster. Mock Turtle gave Alice a ticket to the Carpenter's show, urging her to use it. Traversing the depths, Alice arrived at the Carpenter's show, and performed several errands for him in exchange information about the train.

However, Carpenter betrayed her and trapped her in a ghost-filled cemetery. Alice managed to make it for the start of the show, where Walrus started eating the Oyster Starlets and other citizens of Barrelbottom. Alice became angry with Carpenter for his actions, but he told her that he was only trying to hide Wonderland from the Infernal Train. As the said train came crashing in, he implied that Alice was partially responsible for the train and that someone was misleading her. His last words of advice to Alice was to seek Caterpillar.

Alice woke up to find that Splatter had set the Mangled Mermaid on fire. Her nanny, unwilling to talk about the fire that killed the Liddell's, escorted Alice to Wilton J. Radcliffe, the Liddell family lawyer so she could ask him questions and collect her rabbit doll, but after Radcliffe voiced his suspicions regarding Alice's role in the fire, she had a psychotic break. Alice arrived in Wonderland in the abandoned house of Radcliffe. She exited the house and into the twisted and corruption Vale of Tears now called the Vale of Doom.

After traversing the disjointed Vale of Doom, Alice came to a small pool with a tiny mountain reaching out from the middle of it. Caterpillar surrounded her in smoke, shrinking her into Oriental Grove, the Caterpillar's domain. While going through the area and dispatching the vicious Wasps, she recovered a repressed memory: she remembered that Dinah was in her room with her on the night of the fire, and the only lit oil lamp in the house was upstairs serving as a hallway night-light, so it could not have been Dinah that started the fire. Upon reaching Caterpillar's temple, Caterpillar led her to the bottom of the temple where he was encased in a cocoon.

Alice was distressed about saving the world, doubting her ability when she cannot save herself. Caterpillar answered that by saving Wonderland meant she would also help herself. He also mentioned that the train was Alice's creation, and that she must seek out the Queen of Hearts, whom Caterpillar described as "someone she once knew and loved." The mountain began to crumble and shake as Caterpillar broke free of his cocoon and flew out of the mountain and into the sky as a butterfly. Alice was exposed to the blinding sunlight which beckoned her back to reality. She saw the fluttering silhouette of a butterfly on a window.

Alice woke up again, this time in gaol, where the police brought her in after she had a hysterical fit in the middle of the leaving gaol, Alice quickly fell into another fit and entered Cardbridge, a land high in the sky of Wonderland consisting of numerous platforms made of playing cards which moved randomly. After leaving Cardbridge, she descended from the sky to the rotting remains of Queensland. Cheshire Cat conversed with Alice about her triumph over the Queen and urged her to proceed forward.

She reached the entrance to the palace to find it blocked by the defeated White King. He informed her that after she left, the Queen took over and imprisoned him there. He also mentioned that destroying him will allow her to move forward. Before Alice killed him, the White King warned her of an "out-sized killer," revealed to be the Executioner, patrolling Queensland and discouraged Alice from fighting him. Soon after, Alice met the "out-sized killer" himself and escaped with her life. Cheshire appeared saying the Executioner did not normally chase after those who escape him but Alice was his only exception. Through her trek through Queensland, the Executioner found Alice and either tried to kill her or send her to different parts of Queensland.

However, while Alice made her way through the Red Queen's courtyard, she was pursued by the Executioner and found a cake labelled "Eat Me." Alice ate a slice and grew to enormous size to stomp on the Executioner, killing him. While looking for the Queen, Alice deduced that her older sister, who was found dead but unburnt, had not been killed by the fire, but had been killed by the real arsonist. However, she still did not know who the arsonist was. When she reached the center of the castle, the Queen angrily chastised Alice for allowing the train to run amok and not seeing what was around her. The Queen wrapped Alice in her tentacles and consumed her, sending her into a nightmare.

After seeing a vision of Dr. Wilson, and Nurse Cratchet, Alice went on a disturbing surreal walk through Rutledge and had been incarcerated there. However, it turned out to just be another nightmarish hallucination mixed with her memories of her time in the asylum. Alice entered the waiting room where Bumby, Nan Sharpe, Nurse Witless, and Mr. Radcliffe rumbled about Alice's resistance to forget from their point of view, declaring that she either conformed and forget or go back to Rutledge forever. Alice soon broke free of the hallucination and found herself in Hyde Park.

She encountered a mortally wounded Insane Child bleeding to death on the ground. She had been bisected, and the lower part of her body was unseen. With her dying breath, she implored Alice to help the other children. Alice stated that she did not think the children were in danger anymore as the Queen of Hearts had been defeated, which symbolized her failure to recognize and act upon the abuse happening to the orphans she lived with at Houndstitch. The little girl then told her that though their enemies come and go, a new evil reigns, worse than the conquered Queen. The child then died, leaving Alice to find a burning premonition of her home. Alice then proceeded into the Dollhouse.

Within the wasteland of abandoned toys, Alice met the Insane Children. Their leader asked for her help and offered a very cryptic explanation for what was going on, saying that "parts" of the children were being taken from them by the mastermind behind the Infernal Train and the Ruin monsters, the Dollmaker. However, the Insane Children were forced into hiding before they could explain further. After traveling through the Dollhouse, Alice came to realize that Bumby was the person in her house on the night of the fire. It was confirmed when she met the Dollmaker, who greatly resembled Bumby, and he essentially bragged about what he did. The Dollmaker captured Alice and made her into a doll. She was able to break free from his hold moments later.

Almost immediately after this confrontation, Alice, in reality, confronted Bumby at Moorgate Station. Alice called Bumby out on his actions, and for exploiting and abusing children and destroying their innocence, memories and identities for his own monetary gain. He bragged about his abuse towards the children placed in his care, making them forget everything and turning them into prostitutes. He casually confirmed her accusations, and admitted he was trying to break down Alice herself into a mindless sex slave too, but she proved too stubborn and too powerful, even in her insanity, to allow herself to forget.

At the same time, in Wonderland, Alice made her way through the Infernal Train, and along the way talked to Hatter, Caterpillar, and the Queen. The Hatter rumbled in delusion about Alice's quest for the truth and mentioned in a very roundabout way that forcing herself to forget was not her solution but the source of her confusion. Next, Alice confronted Caterpillar, who said that because Alice was so consumed by her own pain, she became oblivious of Bumby's motives with the children, and that she perhaps deserves punishment for not realizing this before. She also talked to the Queen, who told her that her sister was not talking in her sleep the night of the fire, making Alice realize that Bumby, who was obsessed with Lizzie, had raped her before starting the fire. The Queen told her to make her survival of the fire mean something or Wonderland and herself would all be doomed. At the end of the Infernal Train, Alice confronted the Dollmaker.

After Alice destroyed the Dollmaker, she finally stood up to Bumby in the real world and threatened to tell the police about his crimes. Bumby was not scared of her words as he knew that no one would believe a poor madwoman over such a respected man like himself, and he implies that he already covered up his tracks by destroying all evidence and traces of his crimes. Bumby simply called her a "psychotic silly bitch" and told her to go away. Alice felt so much animosity and hatred towards Bumby, and was looking at the source of her family's deaths, the one responsible for stealing 10 years of life and putting her in mental hell, and abusing children. Knowing that Bumby would unlikely be convicted and that she may never have another chance to seek revenge, Alice made a choice. As she was about to leave, Alice hesitated and, in her Wonderland dress, turned back and pushed him in front of an oncoming train, killing him.

As she exited the station, Alice walked into Londerland, where Wonderland and London had woven into one existence. Cat told her that she cannot go home as she freed herself from the pain and suffering in reality and psychological worlds she was forced to call her home. While much devastation had fallen onto Wonderland, her memory was safe for now.

When asked about what happened and what this ending means, American McGee clarified that that ending means that Alice is in a better place - not in the asylum and not otherwise in pain, suffering or tortured. It also means that she has come to accept and master both her psychological mental world and the real physical world. However, McGee also clarified this ending means that Alice can't ever "go home" and live her life that way she used to as life moves forward. She has also found the truth and overcome her demons.

When Alice was done we were all shocked, horrified and enraged!

Me: (Eyes glow red) Bumby!

I squeezed my fist tight and blood came seeping through my knuckles.

Alice cried hard and Twilight Sparkle, Alice (Disney), Alicia Berrick and Kate Lloyd comforted her.

Hulk: (angry with tears in his eyes) HULK SMASH BAD MAN FOR THIS!

Laney: I hate him too! What Bumby did was unforgiveable!

Lana: What happened to Alice is awful!

Me: Yeah! But Bumby is dead. He died in 1874. He was dead for 147 years.

Sunset Shimmer: I can't believe that Bumby did all that to Alice and her family! What a heartless monster!

Nico: I know. It's absolutely sick!

Eli: Monster!

Arrietty: What a ruthless beast!

Cole and Sasuke went over to Alice.

Cole: Alice I know exactly how you feel. I too lost my parents to murder.

Sasuke: Same with me Alice. I'm so sorry.

Blot: Didn't you guys kill him during the team's early days?

Laney: As a matter of fact we did.

Laney went over what happened in the events of chapter 373.

When she was done everyone was shocked!

Nico: Right! I wasn't with you all when that happened.

Eli: That was brutal! But at least you guys got justice for Alice.

Me: And Team Loud Phoenix Storm was starting out with its name back then.

Lana: I remember that!

Lola: Yeah that was intense!

Laney: Yep. J.D. let me play the game Alice: Madness Returns because he said it would be perfect for someone studying psychology like me.

Nicole: Wow.

Nico: That's good you wanted to play that game Laney.

Laney: Yep. It gave us a clear view into the mind and psyche of a fractured soul.

Me: Yep.

Luan: You know what I should've said to Bumbly before we killed him?

Groove: No. What is it?

Luan: I should've told Bumbly that he has a train to catch. But it's going to catch him! That's what I should've said. And then, we should've just pushed him into that train.

We laughed.

Me: Not a bad kill phrase Luan. Well said.

Nico: Yeah that was a good joke and a good kill phrase.

Eddy: It sure was.

Me: But there's one thing that Dr. Bumby didn't count on.

Allie Wilde: And what's that?

Me: That the power of the mind has a lot of things no one can even fathom. Also Dr. Dumby didn't know that much. Psychology and the brain has evolved in many ways over the course of 147 years.

Laney: That's right and Psychology was still in its infancy all those years ago.

Allie Wilde: That's right. It sure was. Now it has evolved in many ways over the course of those years.

Me: Yep it sure has.

Snaptrap: BTW, J.D.? It's your turn to lead today.

Me: I know Snaptrap. (Realizes something) That's funny. Your name is Snaptrap and we busted a bad guy named Snaptrap.

Snaptrap: That is very unusual.

Me: Yep. And I have just the mission in mind.

I went over to Nico's Goosebump's books and pulled out a book. It was Legend of The Lost Legend.

Me: Legend of The Lost Legend.

Nico: Ooh! That's a good one.

Me: Yep but we're gonna go down to Antarctica for this one. We're going to McMurdo to meet Justin and Marissa Clarke.

Nico: This is gonna be cool.

Bronze Kneecap, Man Ray, Tar Pit, Motor Ed, Johnny 13, Titanium Toenail, Beetle, Absorbing Man, Billy Numerous, and SkullMeramon then appeared.

Bronze Kneecap: Can me, Man Ray, Tar Pit, Motor Ed, Johnny 13, Titanium Toenail, Beetle, Absorbing Man, Billy Numerous, and SkullMeramon go with you all today?

Me: You all sure can. But you all better bundle up. We're going down to McMurdo Station down in Antarctica.

Billy Numerous: Whoa.

Man Ray: Then we better get our coats and parkas.

Me: Yep.

Beetle saw Alice crying.

Beetle: Uh oh. Did you guys have Alice tell everyone what happened in her past?

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah and it was terrible.

Nico: What Bumby did was unforgivable.

Applejack: If I ever see that evil sidewinder Bumby, I'll rip him apart all the way to Boot Hill!

Nico: Save seconds for me.

Me: Guys calm down. Lets head out everyone.

We got our fur parkas on and got our gear and we were off to the South Pole.

ANTARCTICA

We arrived in the brutally cold landscape of Antarctica. The temperature was -80˚ Fahrenheit and there were 30 mile per hour winds and -110˚ Fahrenheit Wind Chill and there were whiteout conditions. It was BONECHILLING COLD!

Birdbrain: Here we are in Antarctica.

Nico: Has a lot of memories good and bad.

Me: Mostly bad because of everything that Kate went through.

Kate Lloyd: Yeah no kidding.

Me: And there's where we're going to meet Justin and Marissa.

We saw that we were in front of McMurdo Research Station.

Nico: Wow so that's McMurdo.

Eli: I've always wanted to see what it was like.

Laney: Me too. Too bad it gets really cold down here.

Me: I know. Lets get inside. It's cold!

We went into the station and it was warm inside.

Me: Whew. Man it's cold!

Nico: No kidding.

Me: Hello? Anyone here?

We then saw 2 kids come out.

Titanium Toenail: Hey there. Are you two Justin and Marissa?

Justin Clarke: WOW! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Marissa: We love all of your adventures and they are great.

Me: We get that all the time and it's great to meet you all. This is our first time ever down at McMurdo.

Justin Clarke: We are the first kids to be down here too.

Marissa: And it's REALLY cold outside.

Nico: Well Antarctica is one of the coldest places on Earth.

Eli: The temperature is -80˚Fahrenheit outside.

Allie Wilde: That is bonechilling.

Justin Clarke: It sure is. Lets go into the rec room so we can talk.

Me: Sure thing.

We took off our coats and hung them up and then we went into the rec room.

Block Man: Do you guys have any hot chocolate?

Justin Clarke: Plenty.

They gave us cups with hot chocolate.

Me: This will warm us up.

Marissa: We heard about everything that was going on over at Thule Station and Outpost 31.

Kate Lloyd: I can tell.

Me: Kate doesn't like to hear about that guys.

Nico: Yeah it's a really horrible nightmare.

Kate Lloyd: It's all right guys.

Marissa: What happened Ms. Kate?

Kate Lloyd: Well it wasn't pretty. But my demons are conquered.

She told them what happened with the encounter with The Thing over in Thule Station and in Outpost 31. It was a nightmare we never want to go through ever again.

The Thing

The Thing is the titular main antagonist and the alias given to the hostile alien creature featured in the 1938 short story Who Goes There? by the late John W. Campbell, that (compared to the deviated story of the 1951 film The Thing from Another World ) was made into a 1982 live-action film by John Carpenter, followed by a prequel released in 2011.

Initially appearing as a single being, every cell in The Thing's body is autonomous and independent, capable of creating more of said monsters through assimilation, parasitism, and infection. In addition, every spawned monster looks radically different and none of them have a definite shape that can be called a "true form". Ultimately, the Thing's true body and form are a mystery as it most appears as whomever it impersonates.

In the 1951 film, it was played by the late James Arness. In the 1982 film, it was played by the late wolfdog actor Jed and its vocal sound effects were provided by Alan Howarth.

Description and Traits

In nature, the Thing is basically an ambush predator, isolating a potential victim or threat to consume and assume its form. In certain cases, usually when exposed or the person it assimilated is fatally inflicted, the Thing will discard all caution and defend itself by manifesting features that may be of its natural form, including tendrils, claws, and mouths. However, the Thing's most dangerous aspect is its cells, each a functional life form that can become independent from the main body when severed by force or separate to facilitate assimilation and self-preservation. For this reason, it is necessary to destroy the body down to the cellular level, with incineration being an effective method.

Behavior and Intelligence

The Thing has only assimilation and self-preservation in mind, as it will selfishly save itself or even attack other forms of its manifestation/progeny in order to avert attention and suspicion. When The Thing is left alone with a suitable target, it will begin to split open and fire out tendrils, which grab the target and begin to assimilate it. In certain cases after discovery or high chance of discovery, The Thing will sometimes perform "divide and conquer" tactics, as in the case of the assimilated Edward which split up into three separate forms: One on his hand quickly detached and animated itself before engaging and assimilating Jonas, another limb scuttled away soon after detaching for potential assimilation in a safer location, and the main body of the Edvard thing killed Derek and successfully assimilated Adam Finch, resulting in a form of The Thing named Split-Face. This is also performed, albeit much less successfully, by the Norris-Thing. When exposed, Things will react depending on how big they are compared to the threat. Smaller Things will generally attempt to escape and ambush prey when the individual is more vulnerable. However, a larger Thing will usually attack prey head-on and attempt to overwhelm any hostiles instead of escaping, although if it has not completely lost its cover, it will attempt to flee.

The Thing's intelligence depends on the size of their manifestations: Smaller ones are quite stupid, dimwitted, nonsensical, and reckless while the larger ones (especially those that imitate a human) are quite cunning, manipulative, and formidably calculating. For example, Norris's mutated head foolishly let itself seen by MacReady and his friends while scuttering away from them, resulting in its incineration. Because The Thing can acquire the memories and knowledge of those who it previously assimilated, they can use said memories and knowledge for their advantage, though only larger manifestations of The Thing are more capable of doing so: the Thing Beast who had assimilated Sander was capable of taking control of the UFO which brought it to Earth while the assimilated Blair, on the other hand, built a makeshift UFO and was aware of how dynamite works as when ambushing Macready; it disposed of the detonator before revealing itself to confront him. However, this does not always apply to all larger manifestations of Thing Beasts: Rapture-type Thing Beasts (see below) have no intention of hiding themselves from view, as well as not manifesting useful appendages that supposedly give them advantage in battle like legs, and their chosen forms act primarily with little intelligence. A plausible explanation of this is likely that Rapture-type Thing Beasts' own overconfidence against their foes is so great that they believe mobility to evade their foes' attacks is unnecessary due to their formidable but stationary form.

When exposed, The Thing would attack anyone on sight to save itself. This somewhat serves as their psychological weakness due to their aggressive mood blinding them from serious threats that their foes unexpectedly posed on them: The Thing who manifested from assimilated Juliette recklessly attempted to kill Kate and the others as soon as it unveiled its true form which ironically led to its incineration. Should it survive the ordeal from its foes/preys and manage to hide, The Thing would regain its composure in order to use their original intelligence once again: When Split-Face Thing confronted Sam, it hesitated upon noticing his flamethrower.

The Thing's ability to interact with plant-based life-forms is largely unknown. Its only interaction with plant-based life was in the form of wood/clothing fibers. It cannot absorb these as noted by MacReady, which could suggest an inability to absorb plant cells or dead cells. The Things themselves are also remarkable Master Manipulators to a certain degree, not only because they incite paranoia among their foes and victims alike but are also not shown eating or drinking beyond living humans or dogs, and it also leaves the bodies of killed humans or dogs untouched even though there is usable biomass, implies that it understands that potential hosts will react strangely to the presence of someone they know to be deceased. Possible other reasons why it is never seen assimilating fresh corpses are either that it is only able to assimilate living victims or is aware that missing dead bodies would arouse suspicion.

In another feat of reasoning, a Thing destroyed a test that would have lead to its exposure, demonstrating awareness of biology and medical practices that would have exposed it. Interestingly, the second time this same method was proposed as a test, the Thing had seemingly preempted the idea, despite the fact that the Thing that had arrived at the second base was spawned long before the first test was thought of and was in a non-human form. This led to the theory of shared consciousness between Things, especially as the second sabotage was far harder to pull off covertly while sowing seeds of misdirection that exposed its presence.

The depiction of The Thing from these two modern movies is a lot more faithful to the original novella description than the 1951 counterpart.

Its origin is a mystery, the Thing itself crash-landed in a spacecraft within the icy fields of Antarctica 100,000 years ago and was frozen attempting to escape. However, in 1982, the spacecraft and the Thing were found by a team of American and Norwegian explorers/ researchers under Dr. Sander Halvorson from Thules station, who hired Columbia University paleontologist Kate Lloyd to take a sample of the creature's blood as it was brought to the base in a block of ice. But later that evening, the Thing bursts from the ice and kills Lars' Alaskan Malamute, Jed while ingesting Henrik before it was burned alive. However, an autopsy of the scorched alien corpse reveals that its cells are still alive and in the process of assimilating Henrik.

When Kate realizes the Thing already might have had assimilated others, she places the base on quarantine to weed out the Thing based on those who still have metal fillings in their teeth and such, after her initial plan of weeding out the monster through blood sample tests had been sabotaged by The Thing. Due to The Thing's ability to imitate, emulate, mimic and appear exactly like any of the research members, paranoia began to set in. Eventually, the majority of the research team were infected and incinerated before Sander, having been infected, made a run for the spaceship. Kate and Sam Carter, the only two surviving crew members, chased Sanders to the alien UFO where Kate and Carter got separated. Kate eventually managed to pursue and kill the monster and heavily damage the ship beyond any repair. After reuniting with Carter, Kate resolved herself to catch him off guard and incinerated him when she discovered that the earring he previously wore was missing and pointed to the wrong ear when confronted. When Carter was set aflame he emitted an inhuman scream, another evidence that Carter was The Thing. After this, Kate was left all alone, leaving her fate unknown.

Meanwhile, back at the Thules station, Lars' dog (having been infected and lying low until the time was right) made its way to an American Antarctic research station with Lars attempting to kill it before he was shot by Lt. Garry, the station commander. Helicopter pilot R.J. MacReady and Dr. Copper fly to the Norwegian's camp, finding the charred remains of the various Things included the burnt yet preserved corpse that was the station's commander Edvard Wolner after it assimilated Sander's assistant Adam Finch.

After the two-faced corpse was brought to the base, the Americans realize the Thing's presence too late when Lar's dog was placed in a kennel with the station's sled dogs and attempted to assimilate them all. After Childs incinerated the creature, with the team finding the ruins of the spacecraft; the autopsy done by Blair confirmed the Thing's nature as he later proceeded to trap everyone on the base and kill the remaining dogs so no one could leave until the Thing was truly dead before being locked in a tool shed by the others as they devised a way to weed out the Thing by using its autonomous cells to weed out the assimilated. By the time that McReady and the other normal humans remained, they learned that Blair got assimilated and was building a small escape craft. Realizing that the Thing might also intentionally freeze itself to wait for a rescue team in the spring, MacReady resolved to kill it with dynamite around the complex. After the Blair-Thing was killed, with Garry and Nauls killed off prior, MacReady found Childs with both thinking that the other got assimilated before seeing no point in distrusting each other as they would die of frost within hours.

In Video Games

In the 2002 videogame " The Thing ", which serves as a sequel for the 1982 film and set 3 months after the events of the film, it is revealed that The Thing is still alive and waiting for more victims to absorb and kill. This time, there are more numerous manifestations of this alien lifeform at once and worse, everything becomes more complicated as most of them have been captured as a means of being repurposed into bioweapons by Gen Inc. Things went wrong, however, following their escape: Whitley, the mastermind behind the experiment to modify The Thing into bioweapons, has injected himself with Cloud virus, a viral agent based on the Thing's cells with which he plans to infect the whole planet. Fortunately, Blake (the protagonist of the game) foils his plan and destroys him with the help of MacReady, the sole survivor of the 1982 film, before he has a chance to infect the rescue team.

In the videogame, The Thing was regarded more like a viral organism that has the ability to replicate the original biological entity, including their clothing. This is likely due to the fact that in said game, The Thing had further developed its ability which intrigued Gen Inc. enough to begin experimenting on it.

Variants In-Game Scuttlers

A form of Thing that has assimilated and formed from mutilated body parts (often from those whom are already assimilated by the Thing's cells). These autonomous small Things' primary transformation involves manifesting teeth, arachnid-like limbs, and also a pair of strong hind legs that enable them to leap toward the non-assimilated lifeforms. Aside from leaping, they could either attack by biting or spitting digestive fluid as a projectile. They could be crippled easily with a few shots from guns before being finished by a single blast from a flamethrower. They were inspired by a mutated form of Norris's head after he was mutated by the Thing's cells.

Scuttler Pods

A form of Thing that is basically a fleshy, blob-like biomass that is immobile but dangerous due to manifesting Scuttlers as means of defense. Their prime weakness is the inability of moving combined with having no alternate means of defense. They can be destroyed by blasts from flamethrowers and a variety of firearms.

Walkers

Form of Thing that manifests as a humanoid monster with a deformed torso, deformed claw hands, and insectoid legs that were formerly humanoid ones. Their early forms were brutish, muscular monsters with a huge, transparent hole in their torso.

Imitations

Imitations are a form of Thing that was previously introduced in the films. They perfectly assumed their victim's appearance and were able to transform to their mutated form when their potential victims lowered their guard. For the game incarnations, they tend to retain some elements of their hosts' appearance like clothes that are still intact though their limbs are a in mutated state, similar to the mutated Palmer in the 1982 film.

Dog Beasts

Thing beast that is similar to the mutated form of Lar's dog as both formerly had assimilated dogs. Unlike the latter, Dog Beasts still retain their limbs (though said bodyparts also mutated to the point where they could support their weight as well as enable them to run at tremendous speed).

Ruptures

They are a form of huge Thing that takes up an entire room or even be part of the room integrated into the architecture. Typically, they have human forms embedded in them and attack with tentacles, teeth and fluids. They are immobile and confined to the location in which they are met, which made them vulnerable due to the inability of avoiding their enemies' attacks.

Thule Station

Thule Station was a Norwegian Antarctic geological research center which first appears in the 1982 film The Thing . The facility was subsequently featured in the 2011 prequel of the same name, where it serves as the primary setting of the film. It also appears in the 2002 video-game. The station is operated by Norway and is typically manned by a crew of ten men (excluding visiting researchers).

The Thing (2011)

In the winter of 1982, a Norwegian research team discovers a spacecraft and its shape-shifting occupant, which had become buried in the ice for roughly 100,000 years. They take the ice-encased creature back for further studies, whereupon it is accidentally revived, escapes and begins assimilating and killing off the crew. The outpost is eventually destroyed in the ensuing chaos and the two survivors from the camp chase the remaining creature (now imitating an Alaskan Malamute) to a nearby American outpost - U.S. Outpost 31.

The Thing (1982)

Thule Station, at the time of MacReady and Copper's visitation. As seen in The Thing (1982).

Both Norwegians are killed before they could destroy the creature, which is then unwittingly adopted by the crew of the American outpost - leading to a repeat of the Norwegian event. After surmising that the two Norwegians had suffered a mental breakdown, Dr. Copper and helicopter pilot R.J. MacReady travel to the Norwegian camp to offer medical assistance to the remaining eight; only to find it completely destroyed and strewn with debris. Inside, they discover the empty ice-block, research notes, video cassettes and the remains of the crew and creature.

The Thing (video-game)

The fate of the men and the Norwegian outpost were further explored in the 2002 video-game The Thing, where a bio-engineering company known as Gen Inc discovers the Thing's existence and establishes a covert test facility underneath a warehouse at the (greatly expanded) outpost's weather station annex. The U.S. Military's Arctic Marines are dispatched by Colonel R.C. Whitley (who is secretly collaborating with Gen Inc) under the pretence of investigating the situation at the two outposts. Alpha Team are sent into the Norwegian outpost, but are ambushed and attacked by the creatures. Scattered and with few survivors, Alpha team is later rescued by their commanding officer, Captain Blake.

The Thing 2011

In 1982, paleontologist Kate Lloyd (Mary Elizabeth Winstead) is recruited by scientists Dr. Sander Halvorson(Ulrich Thomsen) and his assistant Adam Finch (Eric Christian Olsen) to join a Norwegian scientific team that has stumbled across a crashed extraterrestrial spaceship buried beneath the ice of Antarctica. They discover the frozen corpse of a creature that seems to have briefly survived the crash 100,000 years ago.

After the creature is transported back to base in a block of ice, Dr. Sander orders them to retrieve a tissue sample, against Kate's protests. Later, while the others celebrate, co-pilot Derek (Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje) sees the creature escape from the block of ice. The team splits up into groups to search for the alien. Olav (Jan Gunnar Roise) and Henrik (Jo Adrian Haavind) discover it hiding under one of the buildings. The Thing grabs Henrik and pulls him into its body. The others converge on the scene and set the creature on fire. In the chaotic aftermath, the lone dog of the team is found dead in a bloody heap in its kennel, a massive hole torn in the wire mesh.

During an autopsy, Kate and Adam discover that the cells of the Thing appear to be absorbing and imitating Henrik's cells. Meanwhile, Derek, pilot Sam Carter (Joel Edgerton), Griggs (Paul Braunstein), and Olav prepare to leave the base in the only helicopter to bring back help. Just as they prepare to take off, Kate discovers bloody, discarded metal tooth fillings and large amounts of blood in the showers. She runs outside to flag down the departing helicopter, fearing the Thing may have imitated someone on board. When Carter decides to land, Griggs reveals himself as the thing attacks Olav, causing the helicopter to spin wildly out of control and crash in the mountains, presumably killing all on board.

In the rec room, Kate tells the other scientists her theory on the nature of the creature: It is perfectly capable of imitating any life form and that it may have done so with members of their camp, but cannot imitate inorganic material much as metal, hence why it spit out the tooth fillings. Most of the team members either do not believe her or accuse her of turning them against each other out of paranoia. After everyone else leaves, Juliette (Kim Bubbs) tells Kate that she believes her and that she saw Colin (Jonathan Walker) leave the shower holding a towel. Juliette tells Kate that she knows where they keep the vehicle keys, and that they can take them to prevent anyone else from leaving; however, when the two go to retrieve them, Juliette transforms and attempts to kill Kate. As Kate flees, she runs past Karl (Carsten Bjornlund), who is too slow to act and is killed by the Juliette-Thing. Lars (Jørgen Langhelle) arrives with a flamethrower and burns the Thing as it assimilates Karl.

As they burn the remains outside, Carter and Derek, now revealed to be alive, but half-frozen, stumble into the base. While some of the team believes they are Things and should be burned, Kate convinces the others to simply lock the new arrivals up until a test can be prepared. Adam and Sander are in the lab preparing a potential test, but when both leave for a short while, the lab is engulfed in flames in an apparent sabotage. Tensions rise as accusations by both the Norwegians and the Americans are made, but Kate proposes another, much simpler test to single out those who might be the Thing from those who aren't. She uses a flashlight to inspect the teeth of all the other team members to see who has fillings and who doesn't. This test singles out Adam, Dr. Sander, station commander Edvard (Trond Espen Seim), and Colin. Peder (Stig Henrik Hoff) sends Lars and Jonas (Kristofer Hivju) out to bring back Carter and Derek, but they have tunneled out of the floor of the storage shed and into a neighboring building. When Lars leans in the doorway of the other building, he is suddenly pulled inside. Jonas runs back and pleads with Peder to help him rescue Lars, but Kate orders him to guard the potential Things.

During the argument, Carter and Derek force their way inside, armed with Lars' flamethrower. Edvard pushes Peder to burn both of them, assuming that they have killed Lars. When Peder takes aim, Derek shoots him dead in self-defense with Lars' gun, but also punctures his fuel tank, causing an explosion that knocks Edvard unconscious. While Edvard is being carried back to the rec room, he awakens and transforms into the Thing. He infects Jonas, kills Derek, and assimilates Adam while Sander and Colin flee. After torching Jonas and Derek, Carter and Kate head off to hunt it down. The Thing, which is now in the form of a creature with the faces of both Edvard and Adam, ambushes and attacks Dr. Sander. The monster manages to separate Carter from Kate and traps him in the kitchen. Just as it is about to kill him, Kate arrives and torches the monster.

Kate and Carter see Sander, who was infected by the creature, driving off in one of the Snowcats and give chase in the remaining vehicle. They follow it out to the wreck of its ship, which has been opened up and restarted, slowly preparing to take off. Kate and Carter are separated once again and Kate encounters the Thing. She barely manages to stay out of its reach, and when it finally catches her, she destroys it with a grenade. She and Carter escape and make it back to the Snowcat. As they are preparing to leave, Kate notices that Carter is missing his left ear piercing and determines that he is one of those Things. Carter points to his wrong ear. Kate then burns him, during which he screams like an alien, proving Kate's determination correct. Kate slowly climbs into the remaining Snowcat and stares blankly into the night.

The next morning, a Norwegian helicopter pilot, Matias (Ole Martin Aune Nilsen), arrives at the Norwegian camp and finds the facility burned and deserted, as well as the charred remains of the two-faced Thing. He shouts, looking for any survivors. It is revealed that Colin went into the radio room and committed suicide by slitting his wrists and throat to ensure the thing could never get to him. Lars, now revealed to have survived uninfected hiding in the building where Derek and Carter attacked him, shoots at Matias but recognizes that he is human after ordering him at gunpoint to show him his tooth fillings to prove it. At that moment, the Thing in the form of Lars' deceased dog bolts out of a ruined building and runs away. Lars realizes that it's the Thing and fires at it, then orders Matias to take off in pursuit. While Matias pilots the helicopter, Lars begins shooting at the animal from the helicopter, thus directly leading into the beginning of John Carpenter's The Thing.

In Winter 1982, an American Antarctic research station is alerted by gunfire and explosions. Pursued by a Norwegian helicopter, an Alaskan Malamute makes its way into the camp as the science station's crew looks on in confusion. Through reckless use of a thermite charge, the helicopter is destroyed and its pilot killed in the resulting explosion. The surviving passenger fires at the dog with a rifle, accidentally grazing George Bennings (Peter Maloney), one of the researchers, in the process. As Lars pursues the dog, he is shot and killed by a bewildered Garry (Donald Moffat), the station commander. Not knowing what to make of the incident, the station crew adopts the dog.

Unable to contact the outside world via hand radio, helicopter pilot R.J. MacReady (Kurt Russell) and Dr. Copper (Richard Dysart) risk a flight to the Norwegian camp only to find it destroyed, most of its personnel missing, and a corpse in the radio room with its throat and wrists slashed. Finding evidence that the Norwegians had dug something out of the ice, the pair return to the station with the partially-burned remains of a a humanoid corpse with two faces. An autopsy of the cadaver by Dr. Blair (Wilford Brimley) is inconclusive, save to find that the creature had what appeared to be a normal set of human internal organs.

At Bennings' request, the station's dog-handler, Clark (Richard Masur) kennels the stray with the rest of the station's sled dogs. The dog itself soon transforms into a huge hideous creature and begins to attack the other dogs. The loud barking from the dogs cause Clark to return, finding almost the entire sled team in the process of being assimilated by the creature. MacReady overhears the commotion and pulls a fire alarm, and everyone gathers to the kennel. After MacReady and Garry shoot the creature to no avail, Childs (Keith David) arrives and incinerates it with a flamethrower.

A subsequent autopsy by Blair reveals that the stray dog was an alien capable of absorbing and perfectly imitating other life-forms. Realizing the implications of this, Blair quickly becomes withdrawn and suspicious of the others. A second helicopter expedition discovers an alien spacecraft unearthed by the Norwegian research team, revealing that the creature had awakened after being buried within the ice for thousands of years.

Bennings and Windows (Thomas G. Waites) quarantine the remains of the dog-creature and the Norwegian cadaver in the storage room, while Fuchs (Joel Polis) confers with MacReady in a Snowcat that Blair is becoming unstable and his research indicates the burned creatures are still alive. Moments after Windows left, strands of tentacle-like sinew emerged from the remains of the dog creature and the Norwegian, and proceed to assimilate Bennings. Windows returns to find the creature assimilating Bennings, and alerts MacReady, who activates the fire alarm; the team corners the alien in mid-transformation outside and burn it with fuel. Afterwards, Blair calculates that the creature will assimilate the entire planet within three years upon reaching civilization and suffers a mental breakdown: to prevent the alien from escaping, he disables the helicopters and tractors, kills the remaining dogs, and proceeds to wreck the radio room until the team overpowers him and lock him in the tool shed.

Now isolated, the crew realizes that they might be contaminated and speculate on how to determine who is human. Windows finds that the medical blood supply has been destroyed, eliminating the chance of blood tests that could reveal the infected party; because the perpetrator used Garry's keys to access the blood, the team nearly dissolves into rampant paranoia as to who is guilty. MacReady puts Garry, Copper, and Clark into isolation, and orders Fuchs to continue Blair's work before an encroaching Arctic storm forces them inside tight quarters.

Fuchs, attempting to continue Blair's research, goes missing shortly after a power failure. Fuchs' body is found severely burned, MacReady speculates that Fuchs used a flare to burn himself before the Thing could reach him. MacReady comes under suspicion when a scrap of torn shirt containing his name tag is found at the camp, and he is locked outside in a severe blizzard. Somehow finding his way back to camp without a guide line, MacReady breaks into a storage room and threatens the rest of the crew with dynamite. In the course of the standoff, Norris (Charles Hallahan) appears to a heart attack after he and Cooper unsuccessfully attack MacReady from behind. When Copper attempts to revive him by defibrillation, Norris' body transforms and bites off Copper's forearms, killing him. MacReady then advances towards the Norris-Thing and torches its body, causing its head to sever itself in an attempt to escape, leading MacReady to theorize that every piece of the alien is an individual animal with its own survival instinct. He then burns the head with his flamethrower after Palmer (David Clennon), the backup pilot, spots it attempting to flee.

In an altercation preceding a test proposed by MacReady, Clark, in an act of mutiny, attempts to stab MacReady with a scalpel, only to end up being shot in the head and killed by MacReady in self-defense. The rest of the crew complies with the test; blood samples are drawn from each member of the team, including Clark and Copper's corpses, and jabbed with a hot wire to see whose blood will react defensively. First, Windows, MacReady, Copper and Clark are proved Human. Upon discovering that Clark was uninfected, Childs denounces MacReady as a murderer, but MacReady ignores him. When Palmer is tested, blood flees from the hot wire, revealing that he is an imitation. Exposed, Palmer then transforms and begins mauling Windows. MacReady attempts to burn Palmer, but his flamethrower jams and fails to ignite. After it finishes mauling Windows, MacReady finally gets the flamethrower working and burns the Palmer-Thing, then finishes it off with a stick of dynamite, before burning the infected Windows.

Confirming that MacReady, Childs, Garry, and Nauls (T.K. Carter) are still human, the surviving crew set out to the tool shed in order to administer the test to Blair while Childs keeps watch, only to discover that he has escaped by tunneling his way underground. They follow the path and discover that not only has Blair been assimilated, but he has also been constructing a small flying vehicle of alien design underneath the tool shed to reach and infect the mainland. They return to the surface to witness Childs inexplicably abandoning his post at the main gate, followed by the facility losing power. Realizing that the creature now wants to freeze again so a future rescue team will find it, the remaining crew acknowledge that they will not survive and set about destroying the facility in hopes of killing the creature.

While setting explosives in the underground generator room, Garry is killed by the infected Blair. Nauls follows the sounds of the creature and is never seen again. The only indication of Nauls' fate is sealed by a lone noise MacReady hears from the other underground chamber. Alone, MacReady prepares to detonate the charges when the creature, larger than ever, emerges from below the floor and destroys the detonator. MacReady attacks it with a stick of dynamite, setting off the rest of the charges and destroying Blair and the entire facility.

MacReady wanders the burning ruins to face his fate with a bottle of Scotch and encounters a returning Childs. Childs claims that he thought he saw Blair in the storm, so he went on after him and got lost, but MacReady is unconvinced. With the polar climate closing in around them and without any method to determine whether or not either of them is really human, they acknowledge the futility of their distrust, sharing a drink as the camp burns and the cold returns, awaiting their inevitable deaths.

When she was done they were shocked.

Justin Clarke: Whoa man.

Marissa: Kate that's awful.

Kate Lloyd: It sure was but thanks to J.D. and everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I'm finally free of my demons.

Nico: That abomination was absolutely disgusting.

Me: Yeah. I don't know what the hell those aliens that made it were thinking when they made that abomination. It was made of over 10,000,000 different aliens from all over the universe.

Justin Clarke: Whoa! 10,000,000 Aliens!?

Sunset Shimmer: We were shocked ourselves.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Man Ray: (to Justin and Marissa) So, how has today been for you two?

Justin Clarke: Busy and cold.

Me: It's amazing how you 2 are able to survive down here in these conditions.

Justin Clarke: I know.

Marissa: But we can't stop thinking about Ivanna.

Me: The viking you two befriended in the lost country of Brovania.

Justin Clarke: That's right. How did you know that?

Nico: You would be amazed at how many things we know.

Justin Clarke: We are also looking for our father. He was said to be down here to look for the Rare Blue Sea Lion.

Eli: A blue Sea Lion?

Twilight Sparkle: Wow. Never saw one of those.

Shanan: They are extremely rare.

Laney: Yeah.

Magma Man: We'll help you two. Especially me, considering that the cold doesn't bother me.

Me: Yeah we'll all gladly help you. You two can lead us to Brovania so we can help find your father.

Marissa: We would like that.

Justin came back with a world map and he showed us that Brovania was located near the northeastern edge of Antarctica.

Me: Wow that's far from here. But we know the planet really well.

Nico: We sure do.

Vince: Eli can you sense where he is?

Eli concentrated and used the Force to find him.

Eli: He's on the continent somewhere.

Me: Then we have to find him. Lets get ready and head out everyone.

We were getting ready.

Motor Ed: If any of you dudes want to ride with me, you can. I'm using one of my cars with a heater.

Justin Clarke: Thanks.

Marissa: I'm in.

Me: All right lets roll!

We were off to Brovania.

We later arrived at Brovania and it was an amazing place.

Me: Wow! So this is Brovania.

Sonata Dusk: Is there treasure around this area?

Marissa: A massive treasure that defies all odds.

Nicole: I've heard about this treasure. It's a treasure that's 100,000,000,000,000,000 times more the value of the Loot of A Thousand Worlds here. It's a treasure that many have coveted over the millennia. It's called The Treasure of King Lantia.

Nico: Whoa! That must be one amazing treasure.

Nicole: It sure is. I've been trying to find a treasure like that since I was a little girl. But all my attempts were unsuccessful. Now I have a chance to find it.

Me: Wow!

Johnny 13: Hope you guys don't mind me using my bike to get around.

Me: Not at all Johnny.

Justin Clarke: You guys will love meeting Ivanna. She is a great viking warrior.

Me: I can tell. I'm also descended from vikings myself.

We went to find Ivanna.

Sixshot: Hiccup and his friends are vikings too.

Hiccup: He's right on that.

Justin Clarke: That is so cool!

Marissa: Yeah. Which viking are you descended from J.D.?

Me: Leif Ericsson. The great Scandinavian Viking Explorer.

We then saw Ivanna's cabin and it was a really nice cabin.

We saw Ivanna outside sharpening her sword.

Me: Are you Ivanna?

Ivanna: (Norwegian Accent) That's right. You must be J.D. Knudson, the Great Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Ivanna: It's an honor.

Me: Same here.

Marissa: Glad you're all right Ivanna.

Ivanna: Thank you.

SkullMeramon: You should know that I'm not really cold.

Nico: We know that.

Ivanna: The gods have told me that you were coming. You want to find Justin and Marissa's father.

Me: Yes that's correct.

Nico: Do you know where he might be?

Ivanna: He went to find the treasure.

Me: Oh wow. We got to find him and quick.

Turbo Man: I'll use my speed to search the place and find him.

Me: Okay. Flash, Rainbow Dash, Turbo, you go with him.

Rainbow Dash: You got it.

They used their speed to search for him.

Absorbing Man: If I absorb the snow around here, will my body become ice?

Marinette: Yes it will.

Then Turbo Man and the group came back.

Turbo Man: We found him. He's over in that temple over there.

I pulled out my binoculars.

Me: I see it.

Eli: He's there all right.

Nico: Lets get over there and fast.

We were off to the temple.

Ember McClain: Ivanna, do you have any friends that can help us?

Ivanna: I sure do.

She made a wolf howl and out came Luka!

Me: Luka.

Nico: Whoa.

Billy Numerous: I'll clone us an army in case there's a fight.

Billy made 310 copies of himself.

Me: Good idea Billy. Lets go.

We went into the temple and we were ready for anything.

Me: Wow! Look at this temple.

Cheetah: This temple is huge!

Me: Wow! No kidding.

Nicole: For a treasure as big as what I have heard it has to be huge.

We then saw a golden glow coming from a room and then we went in and we saw THE TREASURE! It was the biggest piles of gold, jewels, coins and jewel encrusted weapons we've EVER SEEN!

Tar Pit: Look at all that treasure!

Me: Unbelievable!

Nicole: At long last! The Treasure of King Lantia! We found it!

Nico: This is incredible!

Laney: Wow!

Livewire: I get the feeling we're not alone here.

Me: I have that feeling too.

I then sensed someone coming.

Me: Someone's coming. Hide.

We hid.

Then a middle-aged woman came in and it was LUCILLE BOTZCOWSKI THE BABYSITTER BANDIT! (Season 1 Episode 13)

---

Lucille Botzcowski, also known as Ms. Botz or The Babysitter Bandit, is the opening antagonist of the animated sitcom series The Simpsons and the main antagonist for The Simpsons Season 1 finale episode "Some Enchanting Evening". She works as a babysitter, only to get into houses of trusting people and rob them.

She was voiced by the late Penny Marshall.

Hired by Homer from the Rubber Baby Buggy Bumper Babysitting Service, she was to babysit the kids while he and Marge stayed at a motel. After her arrival, the children discovered her true identity as a robber on a television show, but were captured and tied up before able to stop her. She then started looting The Simpsons' house, but was eventually thwarted and captured by Bart, Lisa and Maggie. The kids had to call for help from a pay phone, since Lucille had disabled the house phones. Homer and Marge eventually returned home, only to find The Babysitter Bandit hog-tied with her mouth taped shut, staring uncontrollably at The Happy Little Elves videotape. She deceived Homer into freeing her moments before the police arrived. Later, Homer and Marge realized that they made a mistake when the police told them what really happen.

In Bart's Dog Gets an F, a new broadcast mentions that she has escaped from prison. She appears in Hurricane Neddy, pacing back and forth in a cell in Calmwood Mental Hospital due to the Simpsons kids encounter.

---

Nico: Who is that?

Bart: That's Lucille Botzcowski the Babysitter Bandit.

Lisa Simpson: What is she doing here?

Me: I bet she's here to get the treasure all for herself.

Nico: I have that feeling too.

Me: Lets get her!

We went at her.

Lucille: (Laughs evilly) I will be rich more than Team Loud Phoenix

Storm and then I will rule the world!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of the dark elemental forces of nature swirled around and converged and then out came us.

Me: Lucille Botzcowski. I had a feeling someone as greedy as you would show up.

Homer: (to Lucille) If I knew that you were bad news, I would've done to you what I usually do to Bart!

Beetle: Exactly how often do you do that now?

Homer: Well back when I lived in Springfield before it was destroyed it was 20 to 40 times.

Nico: A day?

Homer: A week.

Me: Whoa! Then go get her Homer.

Homer: WHY YOU LITTLE!?

Homer strangled Lucille.

Scorcher, Firepower, Evil Star, Key, Overdriive, El Diablo, Toyman, Villamax, Wolf and Weather Wizard then appeared.

Me: Scorcher, Firepower, Evil Star, Key, Overdriive, El Diablo, Toyman, Villamax, Wolf and Weather Wizard.

Toyman: Looks like we got here just in time.

Scorcher: FYI, my suit made me immune to the cold.

May: Well, I was made immune to it due to my powers.

Firepower: I was made immune thanks to my own suit too.

William: Good to know.

Me: Yep.

Evil Star: But the cold was worth it to get here.

Key: (to the Cats) Good to have you 3 here.

Gordon: It's an honor to be here.

Overdrive: How do you guys like it so far?

Waffles: It's amazing.

Mr. Blik: You bet it is. We love it and J.D. loves root beer as much as we do.

Me: Yep it's true. Can't get enough of the stuff.

?: You sure like root beer huh?

A figure came out and it was STARVARK from episodes 17 and 18 of Ninja Storm!

This monster was sent out with an army of monsters to attack the Power Rangers. He is confronted by Tori, the Blue Ranger - and destroyed by the Storm Megazord width the Ram Hammer and Turtle Mace.

Tori Hansen: Starvark!

Starvark: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent with a massive army of monsters to kill the rangers.

Starvark: That's right. Very awesome memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Starvark: I'm glad I get to have a bigger battle this time. I only had a small one when I first showed up.

Me: I remember that. That was awesome.

Nico: It sure was.

?: (British Accent) Too bad it will be the last one for you.

We gasped when we heard that voice.

Alice Liddell: I was hoping I would never hear that voice again after all these years. You took everything away from me Dr. Angus Bumby!

A figure came out and it was Alice Liddell's murderous Psychologist, the man that killed her family and stole 10 years from her life: DR. ANGUS BUMBY!

Me: Dr. Angus Bumby!

Nico: You heartless monster!

Laney: I had a feeling you would show your ugly face here after all this time!

Dr. Bumby: It was because of that psychotic bitch there.

Me: You are the psycho! I HATE PEOPLE LIKE YOU BUMBY! So many people suffered all because of you! You make me sick!

Eli: You monster!

Dr. Bumby: You underestimate the mind of a brilliant psychologist.

Me: Brilliant Psychologist my fucking ass! What you did is nothing but play mind games, turned innocent children into mind-raped vegetables and even resorted to rape and cold-blooded murder! And you sent Alice who was broken and fractured to an insane asylum against her will for a decade and made her suffer at your hands even more! You told her to forget her memories! You nearly destroyed everything she held dear in her heart. Memories should be treasured and held on to learn from and not forgotten! But you don't give a flying fuck about anyone but yourself! You would rather make enemies and destroy peoples minds all for your own fucking amusement and selfish ambitions!

Nico: That's right! It's people like you that make psychologists everywhere look bad!

Me: That's right! You give psychologists everywhere a REALLY bad name!

Dr. Bumby: You think that but all you are is a psychotic monster that kills for pleasure.

Me: Sticks and stones Bumby.

Alice Liddell: I've had it with you Bumby.

?: Boy it sounds like you guys hate him.

A figure came out and it was PSEUDO!

Nico: Pseudo!

Pseudo: Nice to finally meet you Nico. I'm here to challenge Dinobot.

Dinobot: It will be an honor.

?: (Transylvanian Accent) It's gonna be good to face one of you.

A figure came out and it was BATMAN!? WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON!?

Me: Batman!?

We saw that this version of Batman had fangs!

Me: He's a Vampire!

Batman: That's another version of me.

Me: But he's a Vampire.

Villamax: Hey, like it or hate it, she's going to be there for a very long time.

Me: About 417,231 years.

Gordon: Why don't we celebrate with some root beer?

Wolf: We'd like that.

Poromon: Sure. But can we also real beer as well?

Blik: Nice try, Poromon! For this celebration, it'll only be root beer!

Weather Wizard: That way, you won't get drunk.

Me: Root beer is just as good as regular beer. Except without alcohol.

Poromon: True. Root Beer is just as good.

Me: Yep. Great job everyone. Great job.

?: Justin, Marissa?

We saw Justin and Marissa's father and he was okay.

Justin Clarke: Dad!

Marissa: Daddy!

They went and hugged him.

We were happy he was okay.

We put all of the treasure in a scroll and later went back to McMurdo. We told Dr. Clarke about everything that happened and he was amazed.

Dr. Clarke: Wow! That's incredible.

Me: It sure was. But you now have quite a story to tell everyone when we get back home.

Justin Clarke: We sure do. Thank you all so much for everything guys.

Me: It was our pleasure Justin. You and Marissa did great.

Absorbing Man: They sure did. (To the viewers) This was an awesome treasure hunt and an amazing apprehension of one of Springfield's most dangerous criminals.

Marissa: It sure was. (To the viewers) Always be careful with who you hire as a babysitter. There's no telling what they can do in terms of criminal records and everything.

Me: That's true. Lets go home everyone. Great job.

We went back home and had some dinner and went to sleep. The treasure was given to much of the world and it was used to help a bunch of countries that were poor and all that. Also everyone was amazed that Brovania exists. Just like I had predicted, Lucille Botzcowski was convicted of numerous counts of child abuse, robbery, theft, burglary, false imprisonment, and many other violent offenses. She was sentenced to 417,231 years in prison without parole for her crimes. She was taken to the Uranus Prison for her crimes. The most criminal Lucille Botzcowski the Babysitter Bandit was now behind bars forever. Alice Liddell is now also forever free of the monster and the demons that have destroyed her life.

---

Another awesome adventure complete.

Legend of The Lost Legend was a really good adventure of Goosebumps and I thought it was amazing how there are so many awesome legends out there that are waiting to be discovered. The first part of the chapter was for the awesome Nickelodeon show Catscratch and it was so awesome and cute and funny. It aired from July 9, 2005 - February 10, 2007 and it's a darn shame it was on for only 20 episodes. What a rip! I thought it was cool. The second part was for the awesome 1984 movie Splash. One of my favorite mermaid movies from my childhood. It was so awesome and Tom Hanks and Daryl Hannah did a great job in that movie 37 years ago. It was so awesome. Lucille Botzcowski is from the 13th and final episode of Season 1 of The Simpsons and the episode aired on May 13th, 1990 and I was only 2 and a half years old when that episode came out. But Penny Marshall did a great job as her back then. Now after over 31 years, we finally brought the notorious Lucille Botzcowski to justice to face the long arm of the law. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. And thanks to the guest reviewer for the scenes he gave me. The next rescue for me is gonna be for Cryos the Glacies and she and a Victreebel Gene-Slammer named Joy Taurus will be helping me and the Arceus Gene-Slammer in the world of Legends of Zelda The Windwaker for Wii U and we're going to kill Ganon and make sure he pays for his crimes in full. The rescue for Lincoln will be in the world of Species II and Patrick Ross is gonna be back for revenge on me for killing his children to destroy the entire human race. The next chapter is for an 8 Part Mini-Saga where we go after some of the great Scooby Doo Monsters and bring the villains they were as to justice. The first monster is the Snow Creature from What's New Scooby Doo? and that is gonna be awesome!

See you all tomorrow.

Mystery of The Idaho Snow Creature

Me and Christina Schumacher the Arceus Gene-Slammer were flying over the land of Hyrule and it was beautiful.

Christina Schumacher: (German Accent) Looks like we're in one of the areas of Hyrule.

Christina concentrated and groaned as she began to grow in size.

Me: It sure does look familiar.

Christina turned into ARCEUS!

Me: YEAH!

Christina Arceus: Hop on.

I got on and we flew and I instantly recognized the Hyrule we were in.

Me: WHOA! This is the Hyrule from The Legend of Zelda: The Wind Waker.

While Link is celebrating his coming of age, a gigantic bird drops pirate captain Tetra into Outset Island's forest. Link rescues Tetra from monsters, but the bird carries off Link's sister Aryll. Tetra agrees to help Link find his sister, and they sail to the Forsaken Fortress, where the bird, the Helmaroc King, has been taking girls with long ears. Link finds Aryll and other kidnapped girls, but the Helmaroc King captures him and takes him to a man in black, who orders Link thrown into the sea.

Link is rescued at Windfall Island by a talking boat, the King of Red Lions, who explains that the bird's master is a returned Ganon. To defeat him, Link must find the Hero of Time's power, which requires the three Pearls of the Goddesses. Link finds Din's Pearl on Dragon

Roost Island, home of the avian Rito and the dragon Valoo; Farore's Pearl in Forest Haven, home of the Great Deku Tree and the plant-like Koroks; and Nayru's Pearl with the water spirit Jabun on Outset Island. The King of Red Lions then takes Link to the Tower of the Gods, where he faces trials before descending beneath the ocean to a castle suspended in time. Here Link finds the Hero of Time's weapon, the Master Sword.

Link returns to the Forsaken Fortress. Tetra's crew arrive and rescue the girls, but Ganon easily overpowers Link and Tetra: the Master Sword has lost its power. Ganon recognizes Tetra's Triforce necklace and realizes she is the incarnation of Princess Zelda he is seeking. Link's Rito allies and Valoo save Link and Tetra from Ganon. The King of Red Lions brings the two back to the underwater realm, explaining it is the legendary kingdom of Hyrule, which the goddesses submerged long ago to contain Ganon while the people fled to the mountaintops. The King of Red Lions reveals himself to be Daphnes Nohansen Hyrule, the last King of Hyrule, and Tetra is his heir, Zelda, keeper of the Triforce of Wisdom.

Tetra remains in the castle while Link and the King journey to the two sages who provided the Master Sword's power. They discover Ganon's forces murdered them both, so Link must awaken new sages: the Rito Medli and the Korok Makar. The sages restore the Master Sword, but the King learns that Ganon has abandoned the Forsaken Fortress and fears an attack. They then track down the eight shards of the missing Triforce of Courage, once kept by the Hero of Time, and the gods recognize Link as the Hero of Winds.

Link and the King return to Hyrule to discover that Ganon has captured Tetra. Link follows them to Ganon's tower, defeating Ganon's minions before Ganon overcomes him. Ganon joins Link's and Tetra's Triforce pieces with his own Triforce of Power, forming the complete Triforce, which will grant his wish to rule the world. Before he can act, the King of Hyrule appears and wishes that the Goddesses wash Ganon and Hyrule away. The King then grants Link and Tetra hope for their own future. Link and Tetra battle Ganon with the Master Sword and magical arrows as water pours around them; with the final blow, the Master Sword turns Ganon to stone. Link and Tetra rise to the surface as the King and Hyrule are submerged. After reuniting with their friends the heroes sail off to find a new land.

Christina Arceus: Wunderbar! I love that game.

Me: Me too. We must be here to help Toon Link and Toon Zelda kill Ganon.

We flew off.

We found GANONDORF and we also met a Glacies named Cryos and she had a Victreebel Gene-Slammer named Joy Taurus with her and we punched and blasted Ganondorf all all over and destroyed him and saved all of Hyrule from total destruction.

I told Toon Link to cover his eyes and then I put on my blind man glasses and then I snapped my fingers and then JOy reverted back and she was naked and then Christina reverted back too.

Christina was human again. But naked.

Christina: (covers herself) We have one version of Ganondorf in a Containment Card. Us killing another one won't hurt.

Me: Yeah and Ganon is the ultimate evil of Legends of Zelda.

Joy Taurus: Oh J.D.!

She then grabbed my head and squished my face in between her breasts and it was funny.

Joy Taurus: Thank you so much for turning me back to normal! Lets make love!

Christina: Not here!

I gave Christina and Joy new clothes and they put them on.

Me: Lets not get carried away!

Toon Link: But that was great how you guys helped us.

Toon Zelda: It sure was. Ganon deserved it.

Me: He sure did.

Cryos: What he did to Hyrule over the years was unforgivable.

Then we saw a Gold Triforce appear on Christina's hand and it was the Triforce of Power!

Me: WHOA! You got a Triforce Christina.

Christina: Amazing!

We went back home to the World Tree Estate.

After destroying Ganon for good, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Ed Cowart, Lane Loud, Lori, Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn, Laney, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Lisa, and Lily were heading to the world of the 1998 movie Species II, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the twelve girls located there, but we got word that Patrick Ross is back from the dead, and he's gonna be wanting revenge on me for killing his children to destroy the entire human race.

---

Patrick Ross is the main antagonist in the 1998 film Species II . He was originally an astronaut but while on a mission on Mars he was infected with alien DNA that turned him into a monstrous being.

He was portrayed by Justin Lazard.

Patrick Ross and his three-person space crew arrive to Mars within 6 months. They first collect soil samples (and unknowingly find dormant alien DNA, which infects them by coming on board) and place the flag of the United States of America to symbolize that the human race has crossed the vast ocean of stars from Earth to Mars. A seven-minute time gap occurs at NASA, after which Patrick comes to and tells them there is no problem at all, looking forward to returning home to Earth, unaware that he and his crew have been exposed to the alien DNA contained within the soil samples.

Upon returning to Earth 6 months later, he and his crew are under strict quarantine in which they must not engage in sexual activity for ten days. However, Patrick begins to disregard the advice, as during the night of a fundraiser, he is seen making out with a woman known as the Debutante in a lounge room. When he is called to give a speech, the Debutante invites him to her hotel suite upstairs when he's done. After the fundraiser, he goes up to the hotel suite to find the Debutante accompanied by another woman she says is her sister. Later, he is seen having unprotected sex with the Debutante and then her sister, which results in both women undergoing accelerated pregnancies with his alien hybrid children, killing them in the process.

The next day after he takes his sons conceived through the Debutante and her sister to his family barn to hide them, he tries to consult with his father, unable to remember what happened after the fundraiser, but his father ignores his problems, believing his son will one day be the President of the United States, advising him to keep his priorities straight.

On the night of the final day of the quarantine, he is with his fiancée, Melissa, at his country lodge, and Melissa begins to try and have sex with him, but he doesn't feel up to it. She tells him to relax, that she will do all the work, and the next day, he awakes to find her dead and another hybrid child born. He decides to commit suicide and dresses in his military uniform, takes a shotgun, and blows his head off, just as his friend, Dennis Gamble watches. Seconds later, his head regenerates and the alien side of him takes control, with the drive to mate with as many women as possible and produce as much offspring as possible. His victims and the mothers of his children are mostly prostitutes and strippers, whom he either buries or leaves behind after they give birth to his children, taking the said children back to his family barn.

He later attempts to mate with another woman he finds at a supermarket and discovers that he is being watched through a telepathic link with Eve, who was bombarded with radiation to awaken her dormant alien genes to initiate telepathic contact with Patrick. He releases the woman and makes an attempt to get away, but is apprehended by Press and Dennis, who were looking for him.

Unable to reach Eve when brought to the facility she's kept in, he escapes and heads back to the barn.

Burgess then confronts Senator Ross with irrefutable evidence of Patrick's infection and demands that he'll help bring Patrick in. Afraid that the military will kill Patrick instead, Ross deduces he is at the barn, which is on property listed in Patrick's late mother's maiden name. When Ross apologizes to his son for treating him so coldly and tells him they will seek treatment for Patrick's infection together, Patrick's human side returns and he tearfully embraces his father. Suddenly, the alien side violently reasserts itself, killing Ross. Completely broken to his alien instincts, Patrick helps his hybrid children to cocoon, awaiting their rebirth as adults so that they can mate with humans, hoping to eventually destroy mankind.

Meanwhile, Laura finds out that Dennis had resisted infection from the alien DNA due to his carrying a genetic flaw, and makes plans to infect the alien species with Dennis' DNA, as the species lacks immunity to human genetic diseases. As the team prepares, Eve breaks free from the lab to find Patrick. The team tails her, finds the barn and kills Patrick's brood. Eve and Patrick finally encounter each other, undress and amorously perform a mating ritual in which they quickly transform into their alien forms, but are interrupted by Press, who tries to get Eve to get away from Patrick. Patrick then transforms into an even more monstrous alien form and quickly overpowers Press and Dennis. Then Laura begs Eve for help, appealing to her human side. Eve impales Patrick with her back fins by extending them. But Patrick then turns on her and seemingly kills her. Press then stabs Patrick in the back with a pitchfork coated with Dennis' blood, causing Patrick to die and disintegrate, putting an end to his reign of terror against mankind.

Patrick is later given a funeral to remember the human that he was and not the alien beast that he became after going to Mars.

Lincoln: Uh oh, we're in the world of the 1998 movie, Species II, and I know what we're going to do here. Not only am I going to rescue the twelve girls sighted here, but, we also got word that Patrick Ross has returned from the dead, and he's gonna want revenge for killing his children to destroy the entire human race.

Me: That's right, big guy. We killed Patrick Ross before, we can still do so again.

Nico: I remembered you told me about that adventure, that you guys went down and killed Patrick Ross long ago.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's also how we became members of The Lantern Corps.

We showed Nico, Eli, Ed Cowart, and Lane Loud our Lantern Corps rings.

Ed Cowart: Wow, so not only did you guys become members of the 9 Lantern Corps, but you also took care of Patrick Ross from violently raping and impregnating women with his children to destroy the human race. Awesome.

Me: Yep, but now, after all these years, Patrick Ross has come back wanting revenge. But, we'll soon be rid of him for good.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of twelve girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the twelve girls sighted there, but they were cornered by Patrick Ross, and he was going to attack them and violently impregnate them with his children.

Lincoln: There's the girls, but they've been cornered by Patrick Ross. Come on, let's get over there and kill him once and for all.

We rushed on over, and Lincoln threw a bag of blood belonging to someone with sickle-cell disease at Patrick Ross, and when the contents hits him, the diseased blood burned him badly, as he screamed in pain and backed away. Then, when Patrick Ross saw me here, he was major league pissed off.

Me: Patrick Ross. I should've known you'd return from the dead, you just couldn't stay dead for long, could you?

Patrick Ross: It was because of you that you killed my children and ruined our plan to destroy the entire human race, and now, I will have my revenge on all of you!

Me: Come and get us you motherfucker.

Then, Patrick Ross transformed into his alien form, in a fit of rage.

Me: You are one UGLY MOTHERFUCKER.

Lincoln: You're still just as ugly as ever, Ross. But, this time, we're getting rid of you once and for all.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and covered the blade with sickle-cell diseased blood, and it was glowing neon red. Then, with swift and powerful one-handed swings of his massive blade, Lincoln cuts down Patrick Ross, and he exploded in purple flame, and he was Super Hakaied for good. Finally, we were rid of Patrick Ross for good. We cheered for Lincoln, as he washed his sword with a blast of water, and holstered it on his back. Then, we went up to the twelve girls sighted there, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them.

The twelve girls were Rayne from BloodRayne, Kasumi Tendo from Ranma 1/2, Kaolla Su and Shinobu Maehara from Love Hina, Nodoka Myazaki, Yue Ayase, and Haruna Saotome from Negima, Hoshizora Miyuki, Hino Akane, Kise Yayoi, Midorikawa Nao, and Aoki Reika from Smile Pretty Cure.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Rayne, Kasumi Tendo, Kaolla Su, Shinobu Maehara, Nodoka Myazaki, Yue Ayase, Haruna Saotome, Hoshizora Miyuki, Hino Akane, Kise Yayoi, Midorikawa Nao, and Aoki Reika.

Ed Cowart: From BloodRayne, Ranma 1/2, Love Hina, Negima, and Smile Pretty Cure, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Rayne: Yeah, we're okay, thanks to you for saving us.

Me: That was really clever buddy. Way to go.

Lincoln: Thanks.

Then, when Rayne and the eleven girls saw who it was that saved them from Patrick Ross, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Rayne: (Seductively) Well, well, you must be Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eleven clones of himself, and they went up to the eleven girls, and Lincoln went up to Rayne, who'd picked her and the other fourteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

We cheered wildly at the scene, and we all went home to the Estate. Finally, five years after that day, we were now finally rid of Patrick Ross for good, and there's no way that bastard is coming back for more.

---

After we finally got rid of Patrick Ross, we were heading down to help The Pretty Cure girls take care of their old enemy, Belzei Gertrude, for good. Plus, we also got reports that Link's old enemy, Veran, was there, as well, and now, we're about to get rid of two enemies in one fell swoop, and when Lincoln had rescued the Pretty Cure girls from Patrick Ross, their world has now merged with ours.

Me: So, it looks like we're going to get rid of Belzei Gertrude for good.

Lincoln: That's right, that guy was nothing but trouble in the worst possible way.

Link: And we also got word that Veran, another old enemy of mine, is also here, as well.

Nico: So, we're killing two villains at once, nice.

Dylan Dalmatian: And it's definitely Diesel's turn to transform and take care of him.

Me: That's right, Dylan.

Lincoln: So, what can you girls tell us about Belzei Gertrude? I know you have a nasty history with him.

Aoki Reika: You won't like what we're going to tell you about him, Linky. He's nothing but trouble.

Aoki Reika proceeded to tell us about Belzei Gertrude, and he's got a dark history.

---

Belzei Gertrude

Belzei Gertrude (ベルゼイガートルード Beruzei Gātorūdo?) (Beruzei in the English Dub) is one of the Seeds of Darkness to have been created by the Evil King. He is the leader of the three Seeds, and apparently the strongest. His human alias is Yuuki Genbu (結城 玄武 Yūki Genbu?).

Appearance

As Yuuki Genbu he resembles a small older gentleman with grey hair worn back with none of it in front of his ears and small, dark-colored eyes. He wears a brown suit with a pale yellow shirt and striped tie.

In his true form, his hair stands up and changes to light silver-white to match his eyes. He has pale skin and wears a purple spandex suit with pieces of material wrapping around his arms and hand. He gains purple facial markings reminiscent of claws. When he fuses with Regine and Juna, all his body, including hair, became dark black.

Personality

He is an authoritative leader who always wants to be in charge. He gets rather irritated with Regine and Juna sometimes, but later when it comes to survival he does show concern for his fellow allies. He is also a cunning planner who is too ambitious, as he later trams up with Juna and Regina in an attempt to grab the Prism Stones' power for themselves and overthrow the Evil King.

History

After the first time Cure Black and Cure White defeated the Evil King, he is created by the former to fight against the Cures. He and the other Seeds use Pretty Cure and the mascots to call upon the power to create later in the series, using a pile of destroyed furniture to mimic the hill of light. At the end of the series, they morph into one being and try to overturn the Evil King with the power to create, but fail, being killed in the process.

Then, Link proceeded to tell us about Veran, and we weren't going to like this one bit.

Veran

Veran, also known as the Sorceress of Shadows, is the main antagonist of Legend of Zelda: Oracle of Ages. She is a Demon Fairy who possesses the ability to possess anybody she wishes to. Although she appears to be the ultimate evil, Veran is nothing more than a loyal servant to Twinrova, dedicated to bringing about the Dark Lord Ganon's revival by bringing sorrow to the hearts of everything in Hyrule.

Biography

This history of Veran is organized into the latest "official Zelda timeline", this may change completely in the future as the timeline given is merely meant as an example, and there have been official timelines before it.

Decline Timeline

This is the timeline where Ganondorf killed Link in his final battle with him, leading to the Imprisoning War described in the backstory to A Link to the Past

Sorceress of Shadows

Veran was called out of the Dark Realm by Ganon and acted as one of his minions for many years, after Ganon's defeat she was asked by Twinrova to go to Labrynna and light the Flame of Sorrow. Veran first meets Link while controlling Impa and tricks him into moving a boulder that can only be moved by "One who bears the Triforce". She then tricked him into getting close to Nayru, and then released Impa, so that she could possess Nayru. Quickly assuming control of Nayru's body, Veran immediately traveled back in time, to alter history to her liking.

As Nayru, Veran tricks Queen Ambi into trusting her and warping the purpose of the Black Tower, which was to be used to search for Ambi's lost love, convincing Ambi to order the town to build the Tower to the heavens. Veran also quickly dismissing anyone from the castle who may have brought Queen Ambi to her senses, leaving her grip on Ambi unopposed.

Just before the Black Tower was completed, Link eventually came face-to-face with her, in Ambi's Palace, but Veran tells him that if he were to attack her, only Nayru would bear the damage. Following a short battle, Veran was driven from Nayru, almost immediately into Queen Ambi herself, however. Taking full advantage of her situation, Veran was able to drive Link, Nayru and Ralph, who had burst into the palace at the same time as Link, away, Nayru rescuing them all to the disappointment of Veran. As Link continued to finish his quest, the Black Tower reached completion as the seventh Essence became his.

At this point, Veran had gained the power to control time to an extent, even without Nayru, freezing many in time as she cultivated her new power and restoring the chaos that Naryu's freedom had reversed. However, after Link obtained the eighth essence, another face confronted Veran before he could: Ralph.

Although Ralph knew that, by killing his ancestor Queen Ambi, and thus Veran, he would vanish, he cared only for the people of Labrynna, and so attempted to kill her, ultimately failing. However, due to Veran's 'generosity', Ralph lived on, and Veran moved on to face Link. After Link managed to free Ambi, he was only just able to avoid possession himself. Continuing the battle, Link was eventually able to overcome Veran's final forms. But unfortunately for Link, Veran had already revived Ganondorf.

True Form

Veran's true form is drastically different in appearance to the normal form she takes. Taking on the form of a demonic fairy, Veran is now accompanied by four Dark Links, which act as little more than Arm-Mimics.

Veran's attacks in this form changed little from her other form, her signature energy attack becoming much faster and her only attack besides physical contact. To defeat this form, Link simply had to attack her with his sword whenever she came into range, taking care to dodge her attacks. By repeating this method, Veran appeared to be defeated. As Link, Ralph and Nayru exited the Black Tower, a sudden rumbling had Link push Ralph and Nayru away, as a Wallmaster carried Link back to the top to fight Veran one last time. After defeat Veran vanishes and has not been seen since.

When they were finished, we were horrified about the dark histories of Veran and Belzei Gertrude, they were indeed pure evil to the core.

Me: Whoa, those two are seriously bad news, and they have to go now.

Lincoln: That's right, and to prevent Veran from possessing anyone, I've got just the thing.

Lincoln snapped his fingers, and he stripped The Sorceress of Shadows of her powers, including her ability to possess people. That would give us the advantage against those two.

Diesel Dalmatian caught two scents, and he identified them.

Diesel Dalmatian: (British Accent) Guys, I found Belzei Gertrude and

Veran, they're down there.

Lincoln: Nice one, Diesel. Now, to send our warning shot to them.

Lincoln fired two powerful blasts of neon blue energy at them, and they exploded as soon as they hit their marks. We landed in front of them, and as soon as they saw us, it was on.

Belzei Gertrude: So, the Cures have arrived, along with the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right, Belzei, and we're here for one reason: to kill you and Veran once and for all.

Veran: We'll see about that.

Veran tried to use her powers to possess one of the Cures, but she couldn't and that horrified her.

Lori: (Smirks) Hah, nice try, shadow bitch, but our bro stripped you of your powers, including your ability to possess people.

Lincoln: And now, you're powerless, and soon, you'll be joining Ganon in Oblivion forever.

Veran: Ganon, destroyed?! No, impossible.

Me: Actually, it was possible, and you're looking at his killer. Me.

When Veran found out, she was indeed enraged.

Veran: YOU MURDERER! I WILL KILL YOU AND AVENGE LORD GANON!

Diesel Dalmatian eventually fired a blast of mud and Earth at Veran, hitting her and staining her dress.

Diesel Dalmatian: (British Accent) I've had enough of you to last an eternity, Veran.

Suddenly, Diesel Dalmatian's eyes turned neon yellow, and he was surrounded by a yellow energy aura with globs of mud and Earth, as he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he approached Veran, he left behind mud and Earth with every step.

Diesel Dalmatian: (British Accent) Ganon has already paid the price for all the crimes he's committed against Hyrule, and now, it's your turn, Veran. This time, you will be put down forever.

Then, Diesel Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of yellow energy with globs of mud and Earth around the vortex, a yellow dragon was flying around the vortex, and a yellow phoenix was in the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Diesel Dalmatian emerged, but he was changed forever.

Diesel Dalmatian grew up to 6'9" in height, he now had the body of a hunk with large and powerful muscles and eight pack abs, he now had a full head of black hair going down to his neck, he has neon yellow eyes and a neon yellow energy aura with globs of mud and Earth surrounding him, and his black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. Diesel Dalmatian has a yellow dragon with the Earth Kanji in its claw emblazoned on his forehead, he still had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered from his back, he had on dragon earrings with the Earth Kanji in its claws, Diesel's collar turned into a choker for his neck, he had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Earth Kanji in its claws, he now has on a gray tank top with yellow phoenix, blue pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long gray trenchcoat with a yellow dragon, mud globs, and rocks on the back. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with yellow gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large yellow gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in yellow that said, "Diesel Dalmatian, Resident Yard Digger of The Dalmatian Family, Master of Mud and Earth, Loving Son of Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, and Loving Brother of 98 Siblings."

ディーゼルダルメシアン、ダルメシアンファミリーのレジデントヤードディガー、泥と地球のマスター、デリラとダグダルメシアンの愛する息子、九十八人の兄弟の愛する兄弟

Diesel Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL

500,000,000,000 GEOSTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF HONOR!

We were amazed by Diesel Dalmatian's transformation, and that means Veran was now in big trouble.

Me: Whoa, looks like Dylan was right that Diesel was the next one to transform.

Nico: You said it, and Veran is now in big trouble. (To Diesel Dalmatian) Diesel, how do you feel?

Diesel Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Geostorm Voice of Honor and British Accent) I feel incredible, Nico, and now, I'm going to take care of that witch once and for all.

Lincoln: And we'll take care of Belzei Gertrude. Rip her apart, Diesel, and make sure she takes a permanent dirt nap.

Diesel Dalmatian went after Veran, and he fired powerful blasts of yellow energy, Earth, and globs of mud at Veran, all of which hits her. When she saw her dress was covered in mud, she screamed in horror, as she saw her dress covered in mud. Then, he cuts off her arms, and she screams in so much excruciating pain.

Diesel Dalmatian: And now, to end you once and for all, witch. GEOSTORM MUD BOMB!

Diesel Dalmatian formed a massive ball of yellow energy, with mud and Earth around it, and he also infused it with Super Hakai energy. Then, he throws it, and once it hits Veran, it exploded with such incredible power, and Veran was Super Hakaied for good. Diesel Dalmatian powered down, and his neon yellow eyes turned back to yellow, but his new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were now permanent.

Then, we went after Belzei Gertrude, who fired a blast of dark energy, but we dodged it, and we blasted him with elemental blasts and energy blasts, and they hit him and exploded with incredible power. Then, with his Sword of Taranis, Lincoln slashed off Belzei Gertrude's arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain, and he was now on his last legs.

Lincoln: And now, to get rid of you once and for all. NEGATIVE KARMA BALL!

The gems on Lincoln's Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe glowed red, and they formed a massive ball of Negative Energy, then he condensed it to the size of his body, and infused it with Super Hakai energy. Then, Lincoln fired it, and it exploded with incredible power as soon as it hits Belzei Gertrude, and his spirit was Super Hakaied for good. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did to that bastard. We got rid of both Belzei Gertrude and Veran for good, but the Cures' enemies are still out there, but we'll take them down one at a time.

Later we were watching TV and I was getting everyone together for watching another Robot Chicken Sketch.

Snow White: So what did you want to show us.

Azula: (looks nervously at the Disney Princesses) I really hope you girls don't get offended by this sketch.

Ariel: Why?

Me: Well it's a weird one.

We played it.

---

[Ext.: the Disney Castle]

Snow White: Welcome to the Princess Summit, [cut to inside] where we address the complex political issues facing our kingdoms.

Rapunzel: Hairstyles.

Cinderella: Talking pets.

Tiana: Hairstyles for our talking pets.

Ariel: Crabs. [Everyone looks at her in disgust] I've got crabs.

Snow White: Well, isn't that just, um… and where is our newest princess?

[Merida enters carrying a dead boar dripping with blood]

Merida: (Scottish Accent) Ach! Sorry I'm late. I killed a boar on the way here.

Aurora: [sarcastic] Oh, you're so feminist and empowered. Great.

Merida: [laying boar on the table and gutting it] 'Ey, wee beastie! Have we got to grievances yet? A bunch of wee dwarves are illegally mining me territory.

Snow White: Oh, Merida, you have far bigger problems. Let me tell you about them.

Merida: Not a damn song.

Snow White: [singing] Here's a list of things to drop

Your accent, bow, that tangled mop

Fifteen pounds from off your hips

Those ginger afros 'neath your pits

And no prince will want to mingle

[as Cinderella, Aurora, and Ariel hold up gold records] With a girl with no hit single

Cinderella: And your pet's hair is a disaster.

Merida: That's me mother! She's a bear! The trailer was very misleading! [Holds the knife to Snow White's neck] I came here looking for justice; instead, I found treachery. Prepare yourself for war.

[Leaves, followed by… ]

Mulan: Someone finally said it! See you on the killing field, round-eyes.

Belle: Amen, sister.

Tiana: Stuck-up bitch!

[Rapunzel follows. The remaining princesses look on]

[we transition to the next scene, where Snow White is preparing her army for war against Merida's army]

Snow White: Oh, that Merida! I'll show her. [Out the window] Send in my war counsel. [a cute Disney-esque bird flies up to the windowsill] What shall I do, little one?

Blue bird: [chirping with subtitles] Core that bitch like an apple.

Snow White: Oh my.

Blue bird: Weave a tapestry of their intestines.

Snow White: Okay, okay, I get it, I get it. We need weapons.

Cinderella: I've got a guy.

[The Fairy Godmother appears]

Snow White: Oh, good idea. We'll fight them with magic.

Fairy Godmother: [laying bag of assault weapons on table] Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo, that's twenty grand.

Princesses: Ooh, wow!

Ariel: Do you need thingamabobs? I've got thingamabobs.

Jasmine: Nobody cares about the bitch collection you dredged up from the Atlantic, you fishy bitch. [Ariel runs away crying] Anyone else have cold breasts?

[Ext. Merida's training grounds]

Merida: All right, ladies. Show me what you've got.

[Rapunzel whips the practice dummy with her hair, dismembering, then strangling it]

Rapunzel: I finally found the perfect conditioner-[pops the dummy's head off] blood!

[We see arrows miss a target; these arrows are being shot by Louis]

Louis: Oh, curse these stubby arms.

Merida: You're an alligator. Be an alligator!

[Louis turns to Mushu, who is standing beside him]

Mushu: Oh, wait! Don't… !

[Louis eats Mushu]

Louis: Oh! I'm so sorry!

Mulan: No, no, it was… it was a good kill.

[cut to Snow White's army, ready for their coming battle]

Snow White: Not all of us will live to wish upon a star tonight, but we give our lives for a greater good.

Aurora: [yawning] Oh dear, I think I'm getting sleepy. I might have to sit this one out, guys.

Snow White: Don't you pull that shit now!

Aurora: Just teasing.

[An arrow fired by an offscreen Merida strikes Aurora in the throat, killing her instantly]

Merida: [with her army at the top of a hill] Bring me the scalp and/or weave of Snow White! Charge!

[The armies charge at each other]

Jasmine: I will show you a world of death!

[They meet in the middle, where Ariel, now a mermaid, has brought an atomic bomb]

Ariel: Look, everyone! I brought my thingamabob! My weapons-grade thingamabob!

Cinderella: Oh, you just don't know what words are. That's your thing.

[The bomb starts beeping, indicating its imminent detonation]

Princesses: Aah! Run away! Run away!

[Sebastian pops up from behind the bomb]

Sebastian: [singing] Bend over and grab your ankles!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

[The bomb explodes, completely obscuring the scene with smoke and ash, until it dissipates, revealing that the explosion has eradicated almost everything, leaving nothing but a barren wasteland]

[a wounded Merida trudges by]

Merida: Me mother's a bear.

[Tinkerbell arrives, then shoots her in the head with a gun, winks, and leaves]

---

When it was done we were shocked and more.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: That was crazy.

Youko: Huh. So that's what happens when Disney Princesses go to war with each other.

Nico: That was crazy!

Merida: (Scottish Accent) I would NEVER cause a war like that!

Elsa: Me neither!

Anna: That was nuts!

Reflector: Relax Merida. Even though you have a different background, we know you'd never cause an extreme battle over petty differences.

Me: Yeah it sure was. And the strangest part is that not all of you were included in this one.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Eli: Yeah but thank goodness this didn't happen.

Arrietty: That is a fact.

First Aid: I'd hate to imagine if the Disney Princesses went to war with each other. Or a war between the Disney Villains!

Maria: Actually, a war between the Disney Villains has already been covered on YouTube.

Me: Yeah it sure has. And we were in that war in our universe non-Robot Chicken Style.

Laney: Yeah we sure were.

Allie Wilde: That is what I was hearing. That must've been brutal.

Lana: It sure was.

Nico: Yep.

Teresa: FYI, Nico? It's your turn to lead today. (covers her ears) But first, we'll let Eli let out his anger over Ariel being made fun of like that.

Nico: OH BOY!

Eli: Guys relax. I'm not Angry at Ariel or the princesses. I'm actually relieved that it would never happen like that.

Nico: Oh well thank goodness.

Laney: Yeah.

Eli: Wait here's what I think. Princesses do you want to know what I think about what you said to Ariel? [screams] Arrgh! Regga flebba breeka brecka smullen-ellen Princesses! Yegga hegga mergin Ariel! Dimmy middy war! Rivy flivy diva shiva ARIEL'S THINGAMABOBS! [during Eli's rage, I looked up those words in the dictionary that I had underneath the table and I gasped in shock]

Me: JUMPING HORSESHOES!

Nico: HOLY CRAP! WHAT A COLORFUL VOCABULARY!

Me: Whoa!

Laney: YIKES!

Eli: Whew! Okay I feel better.

Allie Wilde: I didn't know you had such a colorful vocabulary Eli.

Eli: Sorry. Just wanted to blow off some steam.

Weather Wizard, Scorcher, Firepower, Evil Star, Key, Overdriive, El Diablo, Toyman, Villamax, and Wolf heard it.

Wolf: Geez! That is a loud temper.

Weather Wizard: Can me, Scorcher, Firepower, Evil Star, Key, Overdriive, El Diablo, Toyman, Villamax, and Wolf go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. And I have just the mission for us. Let me call in everyone. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville)

We all came and gathered and stood in lines.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! Our mission is located in the mountains of Idaho and Fred needs us over there for a mystery to solve. There has been reports of attacks on Ski Competitors and they have been getting hurt by a mysterious force. We need to get over there.

Nico saw that the Princesses mouths are agape.

Nico: Princesses close your mouths!

Eli closed them.

Nico: I know what Eli said was harsh but he wanted to get that out of his system and for that I apologize. Now back to what I was saying. Now before we leave I have one rule and it's for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do it you will be sent back here for the remainder of the mission. DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: At ease! We leave in 10 minutes so take that time to get ready and take the time you need to get ready. DISMISSED!

We got ready and then we were off to Idaho.

---

NORTHERN IDAHO

---

We were flying over the Rocky Mountains and it was cold.

Karai: (shivers) (Japanese Accent) Great! Another cold mission!

Nico: Well it's Idaho and Ski Season starts in the northern part of the country.

Xion: I like the cold because we get to have fun in the snow.

Laney: I like the cold too.

Me: I can't wait to pelt you with snowballs Commander.

Nico: (Laughs) We'll see about that Colonel.

Allie Wilde: I can't wait to build a snowman with Elsa and Anna.

Lana: Awesome!

Eli: I can't wait too. Elsa, Anna, girls I'm sorry I said that.

Elsa: You had every right to say that Eli.

Anna: Yeah.

El Diablo: Good thing my powers are keeping me warm.

Allie Wilde: That is cool.

Nico: It sure is.

We arrived at the lodge that Mystery Inc. was staying at.

Nico: Here we are guys.

We went into the lodge.

Nico: Wow nice place.

Me: Nice and warm in here.

We took off our coats and it was perfect temperature.

Sydney: Looks like we have a mystery here and from the looks of things it is a good one.

We saw a bunch of competitors hurt by something.

Bai Tza: (to Sydney) You seem more involved in this case then the rest of us for some strange reason.

Sydney: I've always wanted to get into the mystery solving business ever since we participated in all those great mysteries. Also Qin told me so much about them.

Qin: I've been helping Sydney and the Underground City girls get into the flair of solving mysteries.

Nico: Wow. That's completely understandable.

Then we heard Velma sneeze loud.

Me: Whoa that sounded like Velma.

We went into the room Mystery Inc. was in and we saw that Fred had a broken leg and Velma looked sick as a dog.

Me: Oh my God!

Nico: Oh man!

Evil Star: (to Fred) Fred, who did this to you?!

Fred: The Snow Creature.

Me: Oh man.

Varie looked it over.

Varie: You're gonna be fine Fred. It's just a stress fracture. You'll be better in 2 weeks.

Allie Wilde: Wow Varie sure knows what she's doing.

Me: She's a nurse and a doctor. She's a good healer too.

Fred: But it's great you guys are here. We need your help.

Nico: Lets have a look at Velma first.

We looked at her and Varie took her temperature.

Varie: Lets see.

The thermometer said that she had a temperature of 100.9˚Fahrenheit.

Varie: 100.9. Sorry Velma but I'm afraid you have a cold.

Velma: Oh great.

Shego: I don't think the Snow Creature has been used in our battles yet.

William: Come to think of it. Not it hasn't.

Nico: No it hasn't guys. But yeah. I have a feeling I know who's responsible for it.

Sydney: I do too. But first lets find some clues.

Velma: I'm coming with you guys.

Nico: No Velma you stay here and get some rest. Shaggy and Scooby will take care of you.

Shaggy: Like yeah and it's better than going after that Snow Creature.

Nico: Here's a couple of Scooby Snax for you guys. My new Louisiana Cajun Lobster Po Boy Flavor.

Nico gave them the snax and they ate them and then fire exploded out of their ears.

Nico: Oh I forgot to mention that they have the spiciness of those Louisiana Moonscar Island Peppers that you told me about.

Luna fired some water into their mouths and steam came out.

Shaggy: Like that was your best flavor yet Nico!

Nico: (Laughs) Glad you liked them.

Key: We're counting on you two. Make sure Velma and Fred don't go anywhere.

Shaggy and Scooby saluted.

Shaggy: SIR YES SIR!

Nico: Love that military spirit.

Velma: But I have to..

Nico: No Velma. I know how much you want to solve this mystery. But you are too sick to do anything. You and Fred stay here. That's a direct order.

Velma: (Sniffles) Okay.

She went to bed.

Daphne: Guys? Where are the others?

Clayface: There are no others coming, Daph.

Nico: Fred has a broken leg and Velma has a nasty cold. Shaggy and Scooby are gonna make sure they don't come help us.

Eli: Yeah.

Daphne: Well it's best they rest. Thanks guys.

Nico: Anytime Daphne.

Daphne: Allie? Is that you?

Allie Wilde: Its been a while Daphne.

They hugged.

Nico: I didn't know your friends knew Mystery Inc. too J.D.

Me: You didn't ask about that.

Nico: Touche but that is cool.

Me: Yep.

Allie Wilde: It's great to see you again Daphne. I just joined the team last week.

Daphne: I'm glad.

Sydney: What's that?

Sydney went over and she picked up what looked like a piece of glass.

Sydney: I found something.

I looked at it.

Me: Hmm. Looks like a piece of ice.

Lisa ran an analysis.

Ariel: (sarcastically) Maybe I should get one of my thingamabobs to help us. Because apparently, that's all I'm good for, right?

Toyman: (to Daphne) Don't mind Ariel. She's still a little bitter over the Robot Chicken sketch we watched earlier.

Daphne: Let me guess. The Princesses at War sketch?

Me: That's right. How did you know that?

Daphne: I saw that sketch myself and it was not funny at all.

Eli: It was more of an insult to the Princesses.

Arrietty: Yeah it sure was.

Lisa Loud: I have our findings. This ice that Sydney found is made of silicon lucite. It's made of hard plastic.

Me: Hmm. That's unusual.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Riku: Anything else you can find, Sydney?

Sydney: As a matter of fact yes. I'm picking up strong radio signals coming from that shack up there.

Shanan: Quarry has enhanced hearing that can pick up powerful radio signals too weak to be detected.

Nico: Wow! That's amazing. Lets go check out where those signals are coming from.

Overdrive: There's gotta be a vehicle around here for me to use.

Nico: Those snowmobiles might work.

Nico pointed to a snowmobile.

Overdrive: Perfect.

We went up to the shack.

Venom: Well, this is the shack the signals are coming from.

We went inside it and we found a powerful radio device.

Lana: What is that.

Me: It's a radio amplifier.

Daphne: I wonder what that is doing here?

Me: We'll have to look further.

Eli: (Senses something) Guys we got company!

We felt rumbling and then we saw in the distance something coming towards us.

Firepower: I'll keep this thing busy! You guys regroup. I'll meet up with you guys later!

Nico: Okay!

We went and regrouped back at the lodge.

Killer Frost: You guys wanna know something? I really like cold weather in areas like this one.

Velma: Easy for you to say Louise.

Nico: Right now we need to destroy the creature. And I know how we can do it.

Laney: With the old combo, final smash and technique smasheroo.

Nico: Bingo. Something or someone is controlling that creature via a powerful remote control system. And I have a pretty good idea as to how it's being done.

Qin: So do I.

Villamax: (to Firepower) What did you fight out there?

Firepower: I was fighting the snow creature and it was to buy our friends time to make it back to the lodge to form a plan.

Villamax: Very clever.

Nico: And I have an idea.

Shaggy: Don't tell me, you're gonna have me and Scoob be used as Live Bait right?

Nico: Nope. You two are gonna stay back and keep an eye on Fred and Velma like I told you.

Francis: (to Shaggy and Scooby) How are Velma and Fred, by the way? Are they any better?

Shaggy: Like they are still the same but they are doing okay.

Nico: Good job you two.

Me: At least you're not being used for live bait this time.

Nico: Yep. Anyway we'll handle the rest from here. If the snow creature is who we thing it is then he is gonna be in for a worse punishment by the time we're done with him.

Eli: Yep.

Eli then saw Ariel sitting on the bed crying.

Eli: Ariel are you alright?

Ariel: (Crying) I feel so insulted!

Wolf: C'mon, Ariel. That was just a Robot Chicken sketch made for laughs.

May: Wolf's right. Sure, it was funny. But I know none of what we saw earlier was true.

Me: Yeah the Princessses would never do that to you.

Snow White: That's right Ariel.

Cinderella: It's not in our nature to do that. We love our princes and loved our friends and families like you love Eli.

Me: Ariel don't take what happened in that sketch too literal.

Nico: Yeah we are at war with the villains and never with you.

Merida: Aye lass. It's not part of who we are now.

Maria: For the record, we still think Robot Chicken is funny.

Stewie: Yep. Me and Brian even went to that universe one time.

Brian: It's not a cutaway. It's 100% true.

Nico: I heard about that. That is too weird.

Me: Also Ariel you know so much about Atlantica and it was your curiosity of our world that lead you to become part of Eli's life and everything. You love Eli just as much as all the Princesses do and Eli would be there to defend you all from those dirtbags of villains. (To Mal) No offense.

Mal: None taken. But yeah.

Merida: And it wasn't just you that sketch portrayed badly. I was portrayed badly as well for causing that so called war.

Scotsman: (Scottish Accent) Aye. The lass was portrayed as a monster. Worse than Aku.

Me: I don't think anything was as bad as Aku. But yeah that's right.

Laney: What that version of Merida did was terrible.

Lana: Yeah no kidding.

Natilee: If I were there I would make sure that war didn't happen.

Elsa: I'm just glad I wasn't included in that sketch.

Me: Same here. Some of the Princesses weren't involved.

Minnie: I wasn't in it thank goodness.

Kida: Me neither.

Tinkerbell: But I would never use a gun like that.

Nico: I agree.

Eli: Yeah. But the point is Ariel that just because things happened in that world doesn't mean they will happen here.

Laney: That's right.

Maria: A lot of things that happen in Robot Chicken Sketches never happen here.

SpongeBob: Well there was that time we used the Robot Chicken Sketch where I revealed that Krabby Patties were made of crab meat to expose Flip.

Maria: Right I forgot about that.

Me: That was pretty funny and it gave us a sense of deja-vu.

Nico: That's true.

Ariel: Oh you're right guys. Thank you. I'm sorry I took it so literally.

Nico: It's okay. That sketch was insulting. Anyway lets get ready.

Scorcher: If we have trouble fighting this asshole, I'll just use my flames to melt the snow.

Lisa Loud: Good idea.

Nico: Lets get ready guys.

We were ready for the fight with the Snow Creature.

---

In the snow we were getting ready.

Nico: Here we go.

Then the snow rumbled and we saw THE SNOW CREATURE!

Nico: There it is. Lets go!

We went at it.

The Snow Creature was coming at the lodge fast. Then…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive red fire explosion went off above the area and then the spirits of the Red Rangers from 1993 to 2003 swirled around it.

GO GO POWER RANGERS! GO GO POWER RANGERS! GO GO POWER RANGERS! MIGHTY MORPHIN POWER RANGERS!

They converged and we came out.

We were ready and fired waves of energy and fire and smashed it all over.

Then Leonard, King Hiss, Hydro Man, Vypra, Shiv, Electro, Webstor, Bane, Vexen, Firefly, Calamitous and Ebon appeared.

Nico: Leonard, King Hiss, Hydro Man, Vypra, Shiv, Electro, Webstor, Bane, Vexen, Firefly, Calamitous and Ebon.

Ebon: Me and Electro are extras. It's just Leonard, King Hiss, Hydro Man, Vypra, Shiv, Webstor, Bane, Vexen, Firefly and Calamitous.

Me: Ah. That makes sense.

Leonard: So, Fred, Velma, Shaggy, and Scooby are out, huh?

Maria: Actually, only Fred and Velma are out of commission.

Me: Fred got a broken leg and Velma has a nasty cold.

King Hiss: That sucks. I guess Shaggy and Scooby are watching them.

Me: Yep.

Hydro Man: Well, we'll just have to tell them what happened after this mess is solved.

Me: We sure will.

Vypra: (to me) Heard you encountered another version of Ganondorf.

Me: We sure did. It was the one from the Legend of Zelda: The Wind Waker.

Shiv: Did you kill him? Because we already have on version of him in a Containment Card.

Me: We did kill him yes.

Nico: Good riddance. All the versions of Ganondorf are bad.

Laney: They sure are.

Link: But it was cool meeting another version of me.

Scorpex then appeared for round two.

Me: Scorpex. Here for round 2.

Scorpex: Yep it's good to face you guys again.

Nico: Awesome!

Scorpex: Okay. You guys are probably busy. So, I'll just come back another-

May: No. You can stay. Your battle's remaining the same.

Scorpex: Whew! That's a relief.

Me: The Loud Kids are gonna have a special battle that I've set up for them and their battle takes place on the home of the Red Lanterns, The planet Ys'Mault.

Lori: That's gonna be so cool to see!

Leni: It totes will.

Me: I'll take you guys to the battlesite.

Another figure came out and it was HISASHI IGOU, Rei's deceased boyfriend back from the dead!

Takashi: Hisashi! You're back!

Me: Rei isn't he your former boyfriend?

Rei: Yeah that's right.

Hisashi: What's wrong? Not happy to see me? I expected that, considering that you killed me all to have Rei for yourself!

Takashi: That's not true! You became a zombie and I had to kill you! You even said to kill you while you were human!

Hisashi: Just shut your fucking mouth! The only thing I want to hear is your dying screams!

Hisashi fired a gun at Takashi but he avoided the gunfire.

---

Lori: (stops Lincoln from interfering) No, Lincoln. This is Takashi's fight. He has to be the one to finish this!

I then saw purple spots on him and it meant only one thing: HE WAS INFECTED BY THE APAROIDS!

Me: He has been infected by the Aparoids!

Nico: They are telling him lies!

Another figure came out and it was EL JEFE!

Brittney: El Jefe!

El Jefe: (Cuban Accent) Been a long time Brittney.

Brittney: Looks like you joined the Masters of Evil.

El Jefe: Si.

Keiichiro: I take it you are going to face me.

El Jefe: Si senor and it will be fun.

?: Not without me.

Another figure came out and it was RID OVERLOAD!

RID Overload: This is gonna be fun.

Nico: Overload!

Cybertron Snarl: I'll gladly face you.

Then 5 figures came out and it was THE DARK SCORPION BURGLARS!

Me: The Dark Scorpion Burglars!

Nico: You're not part of the Shadow Riders again are you?

Don Zaloog: Not this time. We're now part of the Masters of Evil.

Maenae: Yep and it's awesome.

Nico: Wow! Who did you pick?

Cliff the Trap Remover: We chose Cryos and 4 others.

Chick the Yellow: We sure did.

Gorg: It's gonna be good.

Nico: Awesome!

Me and the Loud Kids teleported to Ys'Mault.

---

PLANET YS'MAULT

---

We were on the home planet of the Red Lantern Corps, Ys'Mault.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to the home of the Red Lantern Corps - Ys'Mault.

Lori: Wow so this is Ys'Mault.

Me: It was all animatronic.

Nico: Whoa!

Eli: (Senses something) Up there!

Sydney saw the man that was controlling the creature and she jumped and pinned him down.

Sydney: Now lets see who this man is.

She pulled off the black ski mask and to our shock it was who we thought it was.

All of us: AVALANCHE ANDERSON!

We tied him up.

Webstor: Avalanche Anderson! We should've known!

Me: He must've escaped from prison somehow.

Shaggy: But we, like, saw him wounded by the creature, didn't we?

Velma: No. We saw him lying in the snow. He told us he was attacked. Avalanche was about to make a miraculous recovery.

Bane: Miraculous? More like sneaky!

Chris Klug: But, Avalanche, why?

Avalanche Anderson: I used to be the best in the world. I wanted that back, and the only thing standing in my way was you! (to the gang) If it weren't for you interloping adolescents-

Velma: -That's "meddling kids"!

Avalanche Anderson: -And that gluttonous mutt, I'd be famous again!

Fred: Oh, you'll be famous, all right - with both the authorities and the National Snowboarding Commission.

Me: And you're going back to prison. This time for life without parole.

Nico: As well as paying billions in restitution.

We cuffed him.

Vexen: All the credit goes to Sydney.

Firefly: Yeah! She was the one who figured you out!

Sydney: (blushes) Stop it, guys! You're making me blush!

Calamitous: Don't worry. That snow creature disguise will be of use to us!

Rarity: Well done Sydney darling.

Eli: You were great.

Nico: Yep.

Sydney: Thanks guys. (To the viewers) Skiing may be fun but it's a dangerous sport. Also don't do what Avalanche Anderson did or you will answer for your crimes.

Nico: You got that right. Great job everyone. But great job to you Sydney. Now lets get Fred and Velma back to the estate to rest up.

Me: Good idea.

Nico: And great job to you and Scooby, Shaggy. You deserve an awesome pizza.

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

We went back to the estate and put Fred in the living room to rest his leg and Velma went to her room to rest. Shaggy and Scooby had a really huge pizza. We also had a great dinner and then went to sleep.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Part 1 done. Part one was for The Snow Creature for What's New Scooby Doo.

The next girl is Levion the Baromitz and she will also have a Vulpix Gene-Slammer named Catherine Romanov XXXI. The next Scooby Doo monster we're going to face is in Fort Knox, Kentucky and that is gonna have The Gold Monster.

See you later. I had to do this chapter today because the site was on the fritz and I couldn't do it.

The Fort Knox Gold Mystery

Me and Elizabeth the Zacian Gene-Slammer were over in the world of Chrono Trigger.

Elizabeth: (British Accent) So this is Lucca's world?

Elizabeth concentrated and groaned as she fell down to all fours.

Me: Wow! It sure is amazing. At least we get to see what the world of Chrono Trigger is like.

Elizabeth turned into ZACIAN!

Me: YEAH!

We walked around and it was an amazing place and a beautiful village and more.

---

In 1000 AD, Crono and Marle watch Lucca and her father demonstrate her new teleporter at the Millennial Fair in the Kingdom of Guardia. When Marle volunteers to be teleported, her pendant interferes with the device and creates a time portal into which she is drawn. After Crono and Lucca separately recreate the portal and find themselves in 600 AD, they find Marle only to see her vanish before their eyes. Lucca realizes that this time period's kingdom has mistaken Marle (who is actually Princess Nadia of Guardia) for Queen Leene, an ancestor of hers who had been kidnapped, thus putting off the recovery effort for her ancestor and creating a grandfather paradox . Crono and Lucca, with the help of Frog, restore history to normal by rescuing Leene. After the three part ways with Frog and return to the present, Crono is arrested on charges of kidnapping Marle and sentenced to death by the current chancellor of Guardia. Lucca and Marle help Crono to flee, haphazardly using another time portal to escape their pursuers. This portal lands them in 2300 AD, where they learn that an advanced civilization has been wiped out by a giant creature known as Lavos that appeared in 1999 AD. The three vow to find a way to prevent the future destruction of their world. After meeting and repairing Robo, Crono and his friends find Gaspar, an old sage at the End of Time, who helps them acquire magical powers and travel through time by way of several pillars of light (the party is able to challenge Lavos at any point after this scene, with completion of the game prior to its final chapter unlocking one of twelve different endings).

The party discover that a powerful mage named Magus summoned Lavos into the world in 600 AD. To stop Magus, Frog requires the legendary sword, Masamune, to open the way to the mage's castle. In search of ore to re-forge the sword, the party travel to prehistoric times and meet Ayla. The subsequent battle with Magus disrupts his spell to summon Lavos, opening a temporal distortion that throws Crono and his friends to prehistory. The party recruit Ayla to battle the Reptites, enemies of prehistoric humans, and witness the true origin of Lavos as the creature arrives from deep space and crashes into the planet before burrowing to its core. Entering a time gate created by Lavos's impact, the party arrive in the ice age of 12,000 BC. There, the magical Kingdom of Zeal seeks to draw upon Lavos's power beneath the earth's crust via a machine housed on the ocean floor. The party are imprisoned by the Queen of Zeal on the orders of its mysterious Prophet, and are ultimately banished, with the time gate leading to 12,000 BC sealed by the Prophet. Seeking a way to return, the party discover a time machine in 2300 AD called the Wings of Time (or Epoch), which can access any time period at will. The party return to 12,000 BC, where Zeal inadvertently awakens Lavos, leading the Prophet to reveal himself as Magus, who tries and fails to kill the creature. Lavos defeats Magus and kills Crono, before the remaining party are transported to the safety of the surface by Schala. Lavos annihilates the Kingdom of Zeal, whose fallen continent causes devastating floods that submerge most of the world's landmass.

Magus confesses to the party that he used to be Prince Janus of Zeal, and that in the original timeline, he and the Gurus of Zeal were scattered across time by Lavos's awakening in 12,000 BC. Stranded as a child in 600 AD, Janus took the title of Magus and gained a cult of followers while plotting to summon and kill Lavos in revenge for the death of his sister, Schala. Magus tried once more after the party's battle in his castle returned him to Zeal, where he disguised himself as the Prophet. At this point, Magus is either killed in a duel with Frog, or spared and convinced to join the party. The ruined Ocean Palace then rises into the air as the Black Omen, Queen Zeal's floating fortress. The group turns to Gaspar for help, and he gives them a "Chrono Trigger", an egg-shaped device that allows the group to replace Crono just before the moment of death with a Dopple Doll (doing so is optional, and the game's ending will change depending on the player's decision). The party then gather power by helping people across time with Gaspar's instructions. Their journeys involve defeating the remnants of the Mystics, stopping Robo's maniacal AI creator, giving Frog closure for Cyrus's death, locating and charging up the mythical Sun Stone, retrieving the legendary Rainbow Shell, unmasking Guardia's Chancellor as a monster, restoring a forest destroyed by a desert monster, and preventing an accident that disabled Lucca's mother. The party then enter the Black Omen and defeat Queen Zeal, after which they battle Lavos. They discover that Lavos is self-directing his evolution via absorbing DNA and energy from every living creature before razing the planet's surface in 1999 AD, so that it could spawn a new generation to destroy other worlds and continue the evolutionary cycle. The party slay Lavos, and celebrate at the final night of the Millennial Fair before returning to their own times.

If Magus joined the party, he departs to search for Schala. If Crono was resurrected before defeating Lavos, his sentence for kidnapping Marle is revoked by her father, King Guardia XXXIII, thanks to testimonies from Marle's ancestors and descendants, whom Crono had helped during his journey. Crono's mother accidentally enters the time gate at the Millennial Fair before it closes, prompting Crono, Marle, and Lucca to set out in the Epoch to find her while fireworks light up the night sky. If Crono was not resurrected, Frog, Robo, and Ayla (along with Magus if he was recruited) chase Gaspar to the Millennial Fair and back again, revealing that Gaspar knows how to resurrect Crono; Marle and Lucca then use the Epoch to travel through time to accomplish this. Alternatively, if the party used the Epoch to break Lavos's outer shell, Marle will help her father hang Nadia's bell at the festival and accidentally get carried away by several balloons. If resurrected, Crono jumps on to help her, but cannot bring them down to earth. Hanging on in each other's arms, the pair travel through the cloudy, moonlit sky.

Chrono Trigger DS added two new scenarios to the game. In the first, Crono and his friends can help a "lost sanctum" of Reptites, who reward powerful items and armor. The second scenario adds ties to Trigger's sequel, Chrono Cross. In a New Game Plus, the group can explore several temporal distortions to combat shadow versions of Crono, Marle, and Lucca, and to fight Dalton, who promises in defeat to raise an army in the town of Porre to destroy the Kingdom of Guardia. The group can then fight the Dream Devourer, a prototypical form of the Time Devourer-a fusion of Schala and Lavos seen in Chrono Cross. A version of Magus pleads with Schala to resist; though she recognizes him as her brother, she refuses to be helped and sends him away. Schala subsequently erases his memories and Magus awakens in a forest, determined to find what he had lost.

Elizabeth Zacian: It's amazing how Crono and his team travelled all over the Space-Time Continuum just to rescue Marle. And then it evolved into a journey to save the world from Lavos the parasitic planet destroyer.

Me: Yeah no kidding. And when I super hakaied Lavos in 65,000,000 B.C. that took up 95% of my power. Now I've completely overcome that problem.

We went to the castle and we heard a trial was going on and we found out that the King was on trial for crimes he didn't commit. Then we met Levion a Barowitz as well as a Vulpix gene-slammer named Catherine Romanov XXXI and she is a direct descendant of Ivan the Terrible and surprisingly she is not like her ancestor at all. We went into the trial and stopped Yakra XIII and prevented him from killing the king. We went to another room and I put on my blind man glasses and I then snapped my fingers and reverted Catherine back and Elizabeth reverted back too.

Elizabeth was human again. But naked.

Elizabeth: (covers herself and laughs) Too bad we didn't bring Luca along!

Catherine Romanov XXXI: (Covers herself) (Russian Accent) That would have been amazing.

We laughed and I gave Elizabeth and Catherine new clothes.

Levion: But this is amazing that Crono and his team fight bad guys like that.

Me: It sure is. That Chancellor had no idea who he was messing around with and he didn't have ANY idea the kind of power we have when we work together.

Levion: Nope. Not even he as Yakra XIII was able to stand a chance against it.

Elizabeth: You said it.

We went back home and it was awesome going to Crono and his friends world.

After our rescue in the world of Chrono Trigger, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Pit, Dark Pit, Lady Palutena, Celica, and Jayden Shiba were heading to the world of Changeman, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the fifteen girls sighted here, but we're also going to face off against the foot soldiers of the Changeman's enemies, this is going to be awesome.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Changeman, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the fifteen girls sighted here, but we're also going to face off against the foot soldiers of the Changeman's enemies.

Me: You said it, big guy, this is going to be awesome.

Nico: So, a rescue in Super Sentai territory, huh? This is going to be really awesome.

Jayden Shiba: That's right, Nico. This is going to be interesting.

Lady Palutena: You said it, but I got the feeling that one of the girls sighted here is someone that we know.

Celica: Same with me, Lady Palutena.

Me: There's only one way to find out.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of fifteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the fifteen girls sighted there, but they were cornered by the foot soldiers of the Changeman's enemies.

Lincoln: Aha, I found the fifteen girls sighted here, along with the foot soldiers of the Changeman. Let's get after them, and blast them away.

Me: You said it, Linc. Let's get them.

?: Mind if we join in?

Suddenly, we saw five figures join in. They were none other than the Changemen, Hiryuu Tsurugi, Shou Hayate, Yuuma Ozora, Sayaka Nagisa, and Mai Tsubasa.

Lincoln: Hiryuu Tsurugi, Shou Hayate, Yuuma Ozora, Sayaka Nagisa, and Mai Tsubasa.

Nico: The Changemen themselves?! Oh, this is so awesome!

Hiryuu Tsurugi: That's right, Nico, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Me: You too, Hiryuu.

We rushed over, The Changemen transformed and Jayden Shiba transformed into his Red Samurai Ranger form, and we unholster our weapons, and went after the foot soldiers of the Changeman's enemies, and we blasted and cut them down, and they exploded in massive explosions. We cheered, and holstered our weapons. Then, we went up to the fifteen girls who were sighted here, and when Lincoln and Nicole saw them, they recognized them. The fifteen girls were Rin Kamishiro, Kuriko Kazetsubaki, Yuna Miyami, Sayumi Morisaki, and Shino Akai from Maburaho, Phosphora from Kid Icarus, Hana, Sakura, Camilla, Elise, Tharja, Lyn, and Mia from Fire Emblem, Sheele and Leone from Akame Ga Kill.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Rin Kamishiro, Kuriko Kazetsubaki, Yuna Miyami, Sayumi Morisaki, Shino Akai, Phosphora, Hana, Sakura, Camilla, Elise, Tharja, Lyn, Mia, Sheele, and Leone.

Nicole: From Maburaho, Kid Icarus, Fire Emblem, and Akame Ga Kill, awesome.

Lady Palutena: Phosphora was among the fifteen girls sighted here? This is interesting.

Celica: Same with Hana, Sakura, Camilla, Elise, Tharja, Lyn, and Mia.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Rin Kamishiro: Yes, we're okay.

Then, when Rin Kamishiro and the other fourteen girls saw who it was that saved them from the foot soldiers of the Changemen's enemies, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Rin Kamishiro: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Hana: Wait, the Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and who's in The Super Smash Brothers?!

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made fourteen clones of himself, and they went up to the eleven girls, and Lincoln went up to Rin Kamishiro, who'd picked her and the other fourteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Rin Kamishiro: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We cheered at the scene and it was an awesome pleasure to meet another Super Sentai team here, and when the time came, we'd bring the rest of the team here, so they can also meet them.

The Futaba Cannon activated, and the TV screens in Camden Town changed and show the black and red swirl with the logo of The Phantom Thieves of Hearts and the phrase Take Your Heart below it.

Ryuji Sakamoto: Okay, folks, listen up.

Haru Okumura: Good afternoon, Camden Town.

Makoto Niijima: Been a while, hasn't it?

Yusuke Kitagawa: Perhaps, you've heard of us from Japan.

Futaba Sakura: We are The Phantom Thieves of Hearts!

Ann Takamaki: And we're back in action with a new heart in our sights. A cruel, sneaky, and deceitful boy who's caused a lot of trouble to the people and the Dalmatian Family in Camden, Hunter De Vil, the great-grandnephew of Cruella De Vil.

Sophia: Your actions have proven that you were just as dangerous as Cruella De Vil, and you need to be stopped once and for all.

Zenkichi Hasegawa: And the same goes for your accomplice, Antasma.

Makoto Niijima: And don't even try to plan an escape.

Then, the screen changes to show Ren Amamiya, who's changed to his Phantom Thief attire as Joker, along with Dylan Dalmatian.

Joker and Dylan Dalmatian: Hope you're ready, Hunter De Vil and Antasma, The Phantom Thieves of Hearts and Team Loud Phoenix Storm are coming for you.

Joker then shows the calling card, and it had Hunter De Vil and Antasma's names on it, and they are in trouble.

We then flew on over to Camden Town, and Dylan's plan was a success, plus we also got to see for ourselves the calling card put into action, and the use of the Futaba Cannon to deliver the calling card to Hunter De Vil and Antasma.

Me: Awesome job with the calling card, Dylan.

Dylan Dalmatian: Thanks, J.D. Plus, this calling card won't work like manifesting a Treasure or Desire, you'll see for yourselves once we find Hunter De Vil and Antasma.

We arrived in Camden Town, and we landed right in front of our targets: Hunter De Vil and Antasma.

Antasma: Team Loud Phoenix Storm?! Why are you all here?!

Ryuji Sakamoto: Oh, don't tell me you forgot.

Just then, Dylan Dalmatian tossed the physical calling card to Hunter De Vil, and he grabbed it. Then, he felt a pain in his head as he grabbed both sides of his head, and then, a wave of darkness came out, and it manifested as the dark side of Hunter De Vil. We got Hunter De Vil to safety, as we knew it was going to be a big battle.

Delgado Dalmatian: I've had it up to hear with this monster to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Delgado Dalmatian's eyes turned neon blue, and he was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura with lightning, as he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he walked towards Antasma, he left neon blue energy and lightning with every step.

Delgado Dalmatian: Antasma, your crimes against The Mushroom Kingdom and the world are indeed unforgivable. And for that, I will put an end to your dark ambitions once and for all!

Suddenly, Delgado Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of neon blue energy with lightning surrounding the vortex with lightning crashing down from the Heavens, a neon yellow dragon flying around the vortex, and a yellow phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Delgado Dalmatian emerged, but he was changed forever.

Delgado Dalmatian grew up to 6'9" in height, he now had the body of a hunk with large and powerful muscles and eight pack abs, he now had a full head of black hair going down to his neck, he has neon blue eyes and a neon blue energy aura with lightning around it, and his black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. Delgado Dalmatian has a neon blue dragon with the Thunder Kanji in its claws emblazoned on his forehead, he still had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered from his back, he had on dragon earrings with the Thunder Kanji in its claws, his black collar with yellow tag turned into a choker for his neck, he had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Thunder Kanji in its claws, he now has on a black tank top with a neon yellow phoenix, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long black trenchcoat with a yellow dragon and lightning bolts on the back. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with yellow gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large yellow gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in neon yellow that said, "Delgado Dalmatian, Master of Speed and Lightning, The Fastest Pup Athlete in Camden, Loving Son of Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, and Loving Brother of 98 Siblings."

スピードと稲妻の達人、カムデンで最速の子犬アスリート、デリラとダグダルメシアンの愛する息子、九十八人の兄弟の愛する兄弟であるデルガドダルメシアン

Delgado Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 ATHLETIC SUPERCELL LIGHTNINGSTORM DALMATIAN ANGEL OF JUSTICE!

We were amazed by Delgado Dalmatian's transformation, and we saw Delgado Dalmatian now had legs, and we knew Lincoln had a hand on this, and he also gave Delgado a lot of physical therapy for this.

Me: Whoa, Delgado's transformed, and that means Antasma's going to get it.

Nico: You said it, J.D. (To Delgado Dalmatian) Delgado, how do you feel?

Delgado Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Electrical Voice of Justice) I feel incredible, Nico, and now, I'm going to take care of this monster for good.

Nico: Show him no mercy!

Dolly Dalmatian: WHIP IT, DELGADO!

When Dolly said that, Delgado Dalmatian went after Antasma, and he fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy and lightning right at Antasma, which hits him and exploded with incredible power. This enraged the dark bat king, and he fired a blast of dark energy at Delgado, which he dodged with such incredible speed, and really got Antasma mad. Then, Delgado Dalmatian slashed off Antasma's arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain.

Delgado Dalmatian: And now, to end this once and for all. ELECTROSTORM KAMEHAMEHA!

Delgado Dalmatian fired a powerful neon blue Kamehameha wave with lightning at Antasma, and it'd exploded with incredible power and Super Hakaied Antasma for good. Delgado Dalmatian powered down, and his neon blue eyes turned back to blue, but his new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were now permanent.

Dark Hunter De Vil was next, and Dylan Dalmatian and The Phantom Thieves of Hearts were ready for the fight.

Dark Hunter De Vil: Once I'm done killing Team Loud Phoenix Storm, you and your family are next, and I will turn you all into a fur coat, as vengeance for Great Aunt Cruella. (LAUGHING INSANELY)

Ann Takamaki: You're insane, Dark Hunter. Killing innocent Dalmatians to turn them into a fur coat, you're definitely no better than Cruella.

Yusuke Kitagawa: Indeed, you've followed the same path of madness as her, and you must be stopped once and for all.

Dylan Dalmatian unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back.

Dylan Dalmatian: At least, now I know what kind of monster you really are, Dark Hunter, someone who can't be forgiven.

Dark Hunter De Vil: What did you just say?!

Suddenly, we saw Dylan's red and black energy aura with stars and red and black nebulae flare up.

(PERSONA 5 OST: Awakening)

Dylan Dalmatian: You're nothing but a monster who followed the same dark path as Cruella De Vil, and all for getting attention. You may have had a dark upbringing, but what you did in trying to capture us and bring us to Cruella, so she can kill us and turn us into a fur coat, that left nothing but a dark hatred towards you and that cruel, heartless she-demon. I'm done running away, all my life, I have done what I was told, but when you and Cruella attacked us, you both crossed that line, and put my family in danger, and for that, I will never forgive you.

Suddenly, we heard a mysterious voice speak to Dylan Dalmatian.

Mysterious Voice: Finally, you are done running away in fear.

Then, Dylan Dalmatian's crimson red eyes changed to yellow, and The Phantom Thieves know what it was, as Dylan Dalmatian clutched his head in pain, and he saw the reflection of a massive gigantic wolf with stars and nebulae reflecting off his black fur.

Mysterious Voice: You have made your choice, and now, we shall proceed with the contract. I am thou, thou art I. The world and the universe is filled with irredeemable monsters.

Dylan Dalmatian then calmed closed his eyes, and the voice finished.

Mysterious Voice: But now, distance yourself from the weak-spirited part of you, and become the wolf that dwells within you!

Dylan Dalmatian: Very well, seal the contract.

Then, as Dylan Dalmatian raised his head, a mask materialized on his face, a silver mask with a black nose with wolf-like teeth. Then, as Dylan Dalmatian gripped the mask, which felt like it was glued to his face, but, with one swift tug, he removed the mask. But, it caused Dylan to scream in pain in the process, and left his face bloodied.

Dylan Dalmatian: (Screaming in Pain) MH'ITHRHA!

Then, Dylan Dalmatian was engulfed in a massive pillar of blue flame. Then, as the bright light clears and the pillar faded, Dylan emerged, but we were in for a surprise.

(PERSONA 5 OST: WILLPOWER)

Dylan Dalmatian's long crimson red trenchcoat had turned black with red cuffs, he has on red leather gloves, and his red vest turned into a silver waistcoat. Behind Dylan Dalmatian was a gigantic and massive wolfdog with stars and nebulae reflecting on its black fur, and around the legs were metal braces with chains broken off.

Ryuji Sakamoto: What the hell? Did he just…?

Morgana: Yeah, he's awakened a Persona.

Futaba Sakura: And I just did a scan of it, it's really powerful.

Zenkichi Hasegawa: Incredible.

Sophia: And now, Dark Hunter De Vil is in trouble.

Dark Hunter De Vil was horrified at the sight of the beast summoned by Dylan Dalmatian, and it meant he's in trouble.

Dylan Dalmatian: Dark Hunter De Vil. Your twisted heart has caused nothing but misery and pain for both my family and for all of Camden, as such, we will take your twisted heart! Let's go, Mh'ithrha!

The Phantom Thieves of Hearts and Dylan Dalmatian piled on and they attacked Dark Hunter De Vil with their weapons, and they even summoned their Personas to attack. Dylan's new Persona fired blasts of red and black nebulae and stars from its mouth, and they hit Dark Hunter, and caused him to become dizzy.

Dylan Dalmatian: It's over!

The Phantom Thieves and Dylan Dalmatian did their All-Out Attack, attacking Dark Hunter De Vil all over the place, then, as Dylan Dalmatian snapped his fingers and The Phantom Thieves did their poses, a massive explosion erupted behind them, and knocked out Dark Hunter, who was chained up and put in a straitjacket, and was thrown in The Saturn Insane Asylum's Arkham Asylum wing, and he was put in Solitary Confinement and was suspended in the air with chains. We cheered wildly and Dylan's new Persona vanished and turned back into his new mask, and his brand-new changes to his clothes were permanent, and we cheered wildly as we went back home. Suddenly, Dylan Dalmatian's Defender of Camden Town sword has changed, the black angel wings crossguard change to two large black wolf heads and the large sphere pommel with surrounding gems had changed to four large black wolf heads.

---

Later we were over in the Moon Prison.

Francis: So this is the first prisoner of the Moon Prison?

Me: You met her before Francis but many of you haven't. Her name is Chris Hargensen and some of you guys remember her as the monster that plagued Carrie White's life.

Carrie White: It's true. And you will not like her at all.

Carrie White went over her history and it was terrible.

---

Christine "Chris" Hargensen is the central antagonist of the Stephen

King novel Carrie and it's film adaptations.

She is a cruel, sadistic popular teenage girl who bullies Carrie White for pleasure. She is also the main perpetrator of the infamous pig's blood prank and ultimately, the prom massacre as she angered Carrie White to the point that she could not handle her own emotions and killed everyone with her telekinesis as a tragic result. She is the archenemy of Carrie White and Sue Snell.

She was played by Nancy Allen in the 1976 original, Emilie de Ravin in the 2002 tv movie and Portia Doubleday in the 2013 remake.

Christine is the leader of a clique of teenage girls, and they torment Carrie because of her being a social outcast. However, while the other girls, especially Sue Snell, eventually begin to feel regretful about abusing Carrie (or at the least wanted to leave her be), Christine and her closest friends become increasingly more fixated on causing harm to her out of a genuine hatred and rage of her, with Chris completely refusing to own up to her actions.

Ultimately, Christine accomplished this with the help of her boyfriend Billy Nolan by playing a cruel prank on Carrie during the school prom, dropping a bucket of pig's blood over her - Christine and most of the others took delight in the scene, while the other characters were horrified. However, Carrie, in a maddened state, could no longer function and went insane, killing many students in an infamous massacre with her telekinetic powers. Christine had to watch in horror, because of the unforeseen consequences of the prank she enjoyed doing to Carrie and which killed her friends inside the gym.

Now obsessed with killing her, avenging her friends, and to finish what she started, Christine was ultimately killed when she tried to run Carrie over with her car, only to have it thrown aside by Carrie's telekinetic power - which then blew the car apart with Christine and Billy Nolan still trapped inside it.

1976 film

Chris appeared in the 1976 film, played by Nancy Allen. She was similar to her novel counterpart: very rebellious, unfazed by authority figures and manipulative. Still, she is portrayed even more dangerous than her novel counterpart because in this movie she is in every way the driving force behind the evil prank. She initiated the shower incident with Carrie, and when she and the other girls in her class were forced to serve a special kind of "detention" with Miss Collins, she refused to cooperate on all fronts and was banned from the prom. Afterward, it was almost second nature in Chris' eyes to blame Carrie for her new troubles and, looking for any way to destroy her and Miss Collins and turned to her boyfriend Billy Nolan who was in this movie more a follower than a leader.

The pair went out driving one night (neither seemed to be enjoying it anyway) and Chris used this as the perfect opportunity to spin her "noodle-headed" beau around her finger once more and get him to do something for her, bribing him with oral sex. Billy was virtually clueless until he heard Chris say, "Billy, I hate Carrie White."

A couple of nights later, Chris, Billy and two of his friends crept into a pig farm with the intent on pulling a "stunt": that stunt turned out to be one of them killing a helpless pig, draining its blood and pouring it into a bucket. But, there was more to and Chris later broke into the Bates High School gym, where the former climbed a ladder up towards the rafters, placed the bucket on one of them and poured the pig´s blood into it. Chris was getting impatient and wanted to go home. Billy told her, that if she kept cool, she would get to pull the rope cord on the bucket when everything was ready. Chris all too happily obliged.

Chris was seen the next day with a friend of Billy's, Freddy talking to the prom committee leader Ernest, Freddy convinced Ernest to allow him to collect the ballots for the prom king and queen, and Ernest agreed. But when he was asked to be at school at 6:30, Freddy did not want any of that, and blurted out that he would arrive at 8:00, Ernest was a bit discouraged but consented nonetheless.

Later, during the prom, Chris and Billy spent most of their time hiding under the stage, looking for Carrie and her date Tommy Ross. The two were also looking around for Freddy and Norma (Chris "right-hand woman") to see if they were collecting the ballots for prom king and queen. They were… until Norma and Freddy retired to the other side of the stage, where Norma kicked the real ballots behind her and pulled another set of "ballots" from Freddy's coat. She gave these to the small king/queen committee, who were counting the polls and then headed over to the stage's stairwell, and gave it a small tap.

Chris and Billy peeked their heads out to acknowledge the "signal."

Chris continued tugging restlessly at the rope all while Carrie and Tommy were heading to the stage to be crowned the prom king and queen. Later, she watched as Sue was dragged from out of the gym by Ms. Collins. As soon as the doors were closed again, Chris pulled the rope tied to the bucket of blood. The applause and cheers were silenced… and soon many of the kids began laughing at what they had seen.

Their "work" done, Billy and Chris quickly and happily found the nearest exit and fled out of it. Of course, they had a window-side view through, which to see the results of the actions: Carrie had suddenly gone into a trance-like state and began destroying the gym and everyone inside (much to Chris's and Billy's shock). The pair then ran off feeling as though their plan had backfired. Chris also saw Miss Collins die and looked horrified (because deep down, she didn't really want that to happen).

Later, Chris and Billy chanced upon Carrie, as she was apparently walking home. Chris was horrified about what happened at prom, and devastated about the death of her best friend Norma, and planned to avenge her.

Chris revved up the car and footed the gas pedal, heading straight towards Carrie. It seemed as though she would finally strike down her "enemy" and have to avenge everyone, but it was Carrie who struck the final blow-with her telekinesis. She took away control of the car from Chris and sent it rolling into a clearing for a few yards. After a while, the vehicle exploded, undoubtedly killing Chris and Billy.

2002 TV film

Chris was portrayed by Emilie de Ravin and was more similar to the "novels" Chris than Nancy Allen's version, showing more characteristics. At one point she attempted to convince Carrie that Sue was the "enemy", thus, making her an evil character.

In this film, Chris is presented as a cruel, wicked and manipulative girl; however, she does have someremorse in herself.

Chris was first introduced in the movie, annoyed because of Carrie missing the ball. She runs up to her after the game saying "You suck.". When Tina notices Carrie having her period, she is told and she throws tampons at her along with the rest of the Ultras.

Earlier, after she was banned from the prom because of testing Ms. Desjarden and saying that she won't take place in detention, her father, the "big-time lawyer" John Hargensen (Michael Kopsa) threatened to have the gym teacher fired and take the school to court if her prom privileges were not restored.

However, Principal Morton did not cave in and countered by saying that he would battle Hargensen's suit on all fronts. He further stated that Chris belonged in either military school or jail for her countless acts of cruelty against the "reject" student population.

Unlike the other versions, however, Chris is shown having a certain tendency of changing her heart, changing from the person she was before to a good-hearted, caring, compassionate person when seeing how happy Carrie was and was reluctant to drench pig's blood over Carrie as she was thinking of redeeming herself for what she did to her. But Billy pressured her to go along with the plot, making Chris uncomfortable, but she still did it which caused Tommy's death on the way.

Billy attempted to run over Carrie during the rampage when they found her in the street and Chris half-heartedly pleads for him to stop (showing some remorse). But he doesn't, and Carrie ends up stopping the car before sending it smashing into a tree, which instantly kills her and Billy.

2013 film

In the 2013 version of the movie, Chris is played by Portia Doubleday. She is the head leader of the Ultras, a clique of popular girls. She recorded Carrie panicking over getting her period via Chris' cell phone. While initially trying to help a hysterical Carrie, telling her the reason why she was bleeding and handing her a tampon, Carrie is too frightened to listen and unintentionally covers Chris's hand with menstrual blood. From there, the situation escalates. The girls, mostly led by Chris, start pelting a crying, cowering Carrie with tampons and sanitary napkins. In a deleted scene, Chris tells Carrie, "Wipe that smile off your face" after seeing her smiling at Tommy which causes her to give Carrie a dirty look.

Later, at Chris's house, Chris, Tina, and Billy upload the shower scene on Youtube. The video goes viral. By the next day, everyone in school has seen it. This is most likely how Miss Desjardin found out about it.

Chris, along with the rest of the girls who tormented Carrie, is forced to attend Ms. Desjardin's boot-camp style detention. However, she quickly loses her temper, telling Ms. Desjardin, "f-you." and stating "I'm not gonna run another god-damn/god damn/goddamn inch because Carrie White had her period and was too stupid to know what it was.". She refuses to stay in detention and looks for support from her friends, convinced that they did nothing wrong. When none of her friends back her up, Chris feels hurt and betrayed. In an unseen scene, Chris tells her dad that she was banned from the prom due to her bad behavior. Chris and Mr. Hargensen speak with Mr. Morton. Mr. Hargensen tells Chris to give him the phone in order to prove that she didn't post the video, but a furious Chris, knowing that the video was indeed on her phone, refuses to comply and storms out.

Later on, Chris and her boyfriend Billy Nolan, along with a group of his friends, go to a farm. Billy tells her to pick a pig that resembles Carrie, stating, "pig's blood for a pig." They soon select and slaughter a pig. Chris slits the pig's throat and is shown with a trickle of blood on her face. As Chris, Billy, and his friends are setting up the bucket, a drop of blood lands on Chris, but she wipes it off with her nail.

On the night of the prom, Chris texts Sue saying, "Your girl looks good. She won't for long" which causes Sue to rush over to the school where she sees Billy pull the rope.

After Billy pulls the rope and blood pours all over Carrie, Chris laughs with excitement and glee. As Billy tries to take her away, Chris yells out, "Freak, freak." As she and Billy run out the door, the bucket falls on Tommy's head which worries her, but Billy pulls her out of the gymnasium. After seeing the massacre from outside the gym, Chris tries to text her father and pleading him to pick her up. Billy notices snaps at her and takes her phone away. They discuss how they're going to escape before attempting to leave. They spot Carrie and Billy attempts to run her over, but when she unleashes her telekinetic powers on the car, Chris' head goes back as Billy goes head-first into the steering wheel which cracks his nose and kills him. A frightened Chris shakes Billy, not knowing what happened. She tries to get out of the car, but Carrie locks her inside. Carrie attempts to hold Chris with the seatbelt, but Chris pulls it off. As Carrie lifts up the car, Chris looks shocked. The two girls share a final cold stare.

As Chris tries to run Carrie over again (uselessly, as she's levitating in the air), Carrie sends the car down the parking lot, which causes Chris to go face-first into the windshield. Chris is shown bleeding with open wounds and glass sticking out of her cheeks.

Chris tries to take her head out of the windshield with her hands, shown struggling. She silently begs Carrie to help her, but Carrie refuses. She dies from her injuries immediately afterward. After Chris dies, Carrie causes the car to explode with her and Billy inside it.

---

When Carrie was finished with her story everyone was shocked and horrified!

Princess Luna was infuriated!

Princess Luna: I will take that monsters head off and throw it into a volcano!

Princess Celestia: Sister calm down. J.D. and everyone threw her in prison and that's more than enough of a punishment for her.

Me: She was responsible for not only Carrie destroying much of Chamberlain, Maine but also making Carrie into a total outcast and humiliating her and that lead to many people in the town being killed.

We went to Chris's cell and saw Chris chained to the wall like always.

Girl Jordan: Hey, Chris. Eat any good pork lately?

Eddy: Dammit, Girl Jordan! Now I'm getting hungry!

Girl Jordan: Sorry.

Applejack then walked up to Chris and punched her in the face!

POW!

She punched her so hard that she knocked some of Chris' teeth out!

Applejack: How did you like that you monster sidewinder!? Must not have felt good did it!?

Me: Applejack calm down. Killing her is not worth our time.

Carrie White: Nice shot though.

Carrie went up to her as Applejack let her go.

Chris: You could at least put Billy in this cell with me!

G1 Tantrum: (Sarcastically) Now, that would make your punishment more pleasant, now would it?

Nico: Well too bad, he's dead and burning in the fires of Hell just like you soon will be.

Carrie's eyes then glowed neon yellow and then religious symbols swirled around her as her hair glowed too.

Carrie White: You have tormented me the entirety of my life and because of you, you killed my boyfriend and you made me kill hundreds of people. You and my mother were the very driving force behind the massacre of Chamberlain. I came here to tell you that I'm not afraid of you anymore. I am now a better person and you will always be the true devil.

Suddenly, Carrie was enveloped in a vortex of light and energy and rainbow fire and it formed into a powerful angel of rainbow energy. When the vortex faded, Carrie emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Carrie had the body of a goddess and she had longer blond hair and she had it in a braided ponytail and she had rainbow glowing highlights in her hair. She had an angel with wings made of rainbow fire and a cross in the angels hands emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had angel earrings on that held the kanji for light. She had a rainbow shirt that had a heart with Sue Snell's picture on it and she had a skirt with rainbows on it and she had rainbow leggings with fire on them and she had black combat boots. She had a sleeveless trench coat with the sky that had sunbeams coming from behind the clouds as well as a rainbow shining through the clouds and her wings are glowing yellow with rainbow feathers. On her coat written in rainbow was the kanji for "Carrietta White - Redeemed Saint and Guidance Counselor of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, A Loving Mother to amazing children and Light at The End of a Dark Chapter."

キャリエッタホワイト-チームラウドフェニックスストームの聖人とガイダンスカウンセラー、素晴らしい子供たちへの愛情深い母親、そして暗い章の終わりの光。

She had a golden yellow aura around her and she had rainbow energy swirling around her too. Carrie had transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 SAINT ANGEL OF RAINBOW LOVE!

We were amazed!

Me: WHOA! Carrie you look amazing!

Nico: WOW!

Eli: Incredible! Carrie you look awesome!

Allie Wilde: No kidding. You look amazing. How do you feel?

Carrie: (Divine Echoing Angelic Voice of Light) I feel amazing Allie. This power is amazing. I may have been through Hell, but my light is now stronger than ever before.

Varie: Wow no kidding!

G1 Hot Spot: You know what? I hope your fellow inmates beat you up in the shower!

Eli: And humiliate you after you've had your period. Then we'll see how you like dealing with the kind of humiliation you did to Carrie.

Nico: Couldn't have said it better myself.

Rainbow Dash: But first is this.

POW!

Rainbow Dash punched her in the face and gave her a nasty black eye! OUCH!

Laney: Nice one Rainbow Dash.

We left the prison and went back home.

---

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Miranda: F.Y.I., J.D.? It's your turn to lead today.

Me: Yes I know and I have just the treat for you all. We're going down to Fort Knox in Kentucky. I'm going to show you all where they keep the United States Gold Reserves.

Nico: WHOA! I've always wanted to see where they store all that gold.

Eli: How much gold is in Fort Knox?

Me: Enough gold to make the entire planet and the entire population filthy rich. We give donations to them every now and then and now the country has more gold than they know what to do with. But Fort Knox is owned by the United States Military and it's the toughest bank in the entire planet.

Arrietty: Wow. Sounds like a tough bank to get into.

Me: It sure is.

Leonard, King Hiss, Hydro Man, Vypra, Shiv, Webstor, Bane, Vexen, Firefly and Calamitous then appeared.

King HIss: Can me, Leonard, Webstor, Shiv, Hydro Man, Vypra, Calamitous, Bane, Firefly, and Vexen go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. Also Mystery Inc. is gonna meet us at Fort Knox.

Vypra: Fort Knox as in Fort Knox, Kentucky?

Hydro Man: Oh wow! That is home to all the United States Gold Reserves.

Me: Yep and Mystery Inc. is gonna meet us there.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) I hope señor Fred and señorita Velma are doing better after what happened in Idaho.

Me: I hope so too Bane.

Laney: Yeah me too. Poor guys.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to Fort Knox, Kentucky.

---

FORT KNOX, KENTUCKY

---

We arrived in Fort Knox.

Astro Man: Here we are.

Me: Yep. Welcome to Fort Knox, Kentucky.

We went up to the gate and we saw a guard and we went up to him.

Me: (Salutes) James Dean Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm Sir! Requesting permission to enter with me and my team and friends to meet Mystery Inc. here sir!

Guard: Granted soldier. Pass please.

I showed him my universal permission pass that was given to me by the President of The United States of America and he scanned it and gave us all clearance to go in.

We went into the base and it was amazing.

Me: Welcome to Fort Knox everyone.

Nico: Wow! This is so amazing!

Shiv: (sighs in relief) For a minute, I thought the 10 of us were going to get arrested!

Me: Don't worry Shiv. They were lead up to date on our adventures and they know that you're our frenemies.

Shiv: That's a relief.

We arrived at the barricks and we went in and saw Fred, Shaggy, Scooby and the girls.

Me: Hey guys!

Shaggy: Like perfect timing guys!

Velma: Glad you guys are here.

Lasher: Glad to see you guys at 100%.

Velma: Thanks to you guys.

Me: Sorry you got sick Velma.

Velma: It's okay J.D.

Varie looked at Fred's leg.

Varie: Your leg is much better.

Fred: It sure is Varie. Got a lot of autographs too.

Me: Awesome.

KRABBBOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: WHOA! Are they doing practice sessions with bombs?

Shaggy: Like I think so.

Firefly: So, what's the Mystery this time?

Fred: There's a monster made of pure gold terrorizing Fort Knox.

Qin: You mean like The Gold Monster?

Me: Wow! That 24K Gold Monster is back.

Nico: Oh this is gonna be interesting.

Eli: It sure is. With security as tight as this in Fort Knox.

Eli then sensed something.

Eli: Uh oh! We got company.

Eli then sprang into action and ran fast and then he pounced onto a man!

Eli: Gotcha bub!

We saw that Eli caught a man that wasn't welcome onto the base. It was TRAVIS KNOX!

Me: Travis Knox. Long time no see.

Travis Knox: You can't capture me! I own this land!

Me: This base belongs to the United States Military bub!

Eli: Yeah!

Snake Man: Wait. Isn't he who Fort Knox is named after?

Me: Yep. He thinks he owns all of Fort Knox because his family is named after that it and it rightfully belongs to him. Also he thinks the gold is rightfully his too.

Nico: Well that's not right. This base belongs to the Military and the United States Armed Forces.

Me: Yep.

General Niedermeyer: Yeah he thinks he is entitled to all the base and all the gold too.

Me: He sure is a looney.

Sheila: I want to know about this Gold Monster running around. I think it's cool.

Hydro Man: (to Sheila) You seem a lot more interested in this mystery for some strange reason.

Sheila: Well as a Police Officer we too are part of the United States Armed Forces in a sense and our job is to protect people. And I'm also wanting to become a detective myself.

Nico: That does make sense.

Eric: That's my awesome fiancé.

Me: Yep.

Sheila: And the best place to start is in the Gold Vault.

Me: I can lead you guys to that. Follow me.

We went to the Gold Vault.

Giganta: Hang on. Isn't the Gold Monster already in the Masters of Evil?

Maria: Yeah. That's right! So why is he causing trouble here?

Vypra: We got reports that there is another Gold Monster here. And that this one is not the one that is not with us.

Nico: So it's some kind of impersonator.

Vypra: Exactly.

Qin: And I have a feeling I know who it is. But we better gather more clues and evidence just to be sure.

Me: Good idea.

Vypra: (calls the Gold Monster) Gold Monster, are you at Fort Knox right now?

Gold Monster: No Vypra. I'm at HQ. Let me guess, there's a monster lookalike like me that's running around Fort Knox.

Vypra: That's right.

Poromon looked at a radar and it showed that the Gold Monster in the Masters of Evil is at the base in Montana and the one in Fort Knox does not have a tracer on him.

Poromon: He's right Vypra. Look.

Poromon showed her.

Vypra: Oh wow. So there IS a false monster.

Ultra Humanite: Sheila, have you found anymore clues?

Sheila: Yes I did. Look here.

We saw a tunnel that went under the wall and into the gold room.

Me: Looks like someone was trying to dig into the gold room.

I used my key card and opened the vault and we went in.

Inside was the largest motherload of gold ever! $932 Centillion worth in gold bars!

Nico: WHOA! Look at all that gold!

Eli: WHOA! There's enough gold to make ANYONE filthy rich!

Arrietty: That's a lot of gold.

Me: It sure is.

Sheila went over and she saw the hole.

Sheila: Hmm.

We saw that there was a dirt trail and it lead to another hole and this time it lead away from the gold.

Me: Looks like someone was trying to break into Fort Knox.

Qin: No it looks like it's breaking out.

Me: Hmm.

Leonard: Someone wanted to break out of Fort Knox without the gold?

Qin: That's weird.

Shaggy: And like this tunnel goes right to the Gold-Ade Factory.

Me: Hmm.

Sheila: That's unusual.

Me: General were there any people here that were supposedly turned into solid gold here?

General Niedermayer: As a matter of fact there were. Follow me.

We went to the Fort Knox Infirmary and we saw a bunch of soldiers turned into Solid 24K Gold!

Me: Whoa man!

Nico: I've heard of the Midas Touch but this is ridiculous.

Lynn: Yeah and I now have that awesome power.

We went over to one of the men and I tapped one and it felt like one of the men was wrapped in some kind of rubber.

Me: Weird. This is not gold.

I peeled off the rubber from the soldiers face and he breathed.

Soldier: (Breathes) Phew! Thanks.

Gabriel: Are you okay?

Soldier: Yeah thanks to J.D.

Me: I think I know what this is. It's a gold varient of a top secret military project called Shut-Down Goo.

Qin: Wow!

Vince: I've heard about that stuff. It's an expandable net that traps anything in it to stop it.

Me: Very ingenius. This would make a great capture tool for the police and the FBI.

Nico: Just what I was thinking.

Eli: It works perfectly.

Lynn: Wow! And that stuff makes it look like the person or object was turned into solid 24K gold.

Lightning: That is amazing.

Me: It sure is.

Sheila: I think I know how the Gold Monster here is doing all this now. But just to be sure we're going to need to capture it.

Qin: And I have a good idea who it might be too.

Calamitous: We should probably go somewhere to make a plan.

Fred: Lets head to the barricks and we can form our plan there.

Me: Okay.

We went to the barricks.

Bright Man: Sheila, while we're coming up with a plan, let's discuss how we're doing your wedding with Eric.

Sheila: Okay then.

Shade Man: (Transylvanian Accent) That's a wonderful idea.

We went to the barricks.

Me: We almost have this mystery solved and we have a couple of suspects in mind.

Laney: I think the Gold Monster has to be Travis Knox. He wants to reclaim his land because he Knox in his family name.

Vypra: That's a good guess Laney. But I think it's that Gold-Ade lady Sue Crose. She was upset about the military base driving away her business.

Me: Those two guesses are pretty logical.

Fred: You're both wrong. The Gold Monster is positive, undeniably got to be Red Herring!

Then a phone rang and it was Fred's cell phone.

Fred answered it.

Fred: Hello?

Red Herring: I'm not the Gold Monster, Jones! Man this is just like old times where you would accuse me of things I didn't do. Nice try you wienie!

He hung up.

Fred: Oh darn.

Qin: Actually, I know who the monster is. Here's my plan.

Webstor: So, Sheila. Who do you want to be your bridesmaids?

Sheila: Lori, Carol, Leni and Rarity.

Bright Man: Good choices.

Lori: We will literally be honored.

Carol: Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle, Lola and Scootaloo can be my flower girls.

Sheila: Awesome.

Me: Hey guys we got our plan.

Qin told us that we'll smash around the Gold Monster with our attacks and techniques and final smashes and before that we'll have the usual battles.

Sheila: Great plan.

Charmcaster: Do you guys mind if we discuss Sheila and Eric's wedding while we wait?

Me: Not at all.

Nico: Go for it.

Me: Also I have an idea on what we can for the wedding.

Eli: What?

Me: We can have the Rainbooms perform and a karaoke concert at the reception.

Nico: Good idea.

Lincoln: And I can do some of my villain jokes.

Eli: Good idea Lincoln.

Vexen: Who will be Eric's best man?

Lincoln: I can be his best man.

Eric: Thanks cous.

Nico: It's gonna be awesome having Eric and Sheila wed.

Konan: Hey, Shaggy. I bet Nico has Gold-Ade Scooby Snax if you and Scooby help us out.

Nico: Yep. Just made them this morning for this mission.

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

Scooby Doo: Reah!

Nico gave them Gold-Ade flavor Scooby Snax and they loved them!

Shaggy and Scooby: MMM! MMM! MMMMM!

They spun around and turned into rockets and they went into the sky and exploded in an amazing fireworks show and it formed into George Washington Crossing the Delaware River.

Then they landed into Nico's arms.

Shaggy: Like we're ready.

Laney: That was a great display.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Me: All right lets go get him!

We went to find him.

The fake Gold Monster was walking around and then…

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the sky and the spirits of the Loud Kids swirled around it and then converged and then we landed in front of it.

Bane: Hola, Gold Monster. Out for a walk? Oh, but that's right. You're NOT Gold Monster!

Me: I hope you're ready for a 24K Gold Pounding!

The fake Gold Monster roared and went at us.

Me: CRYSTAL STYLE: CRYSTAL ARMOR!

I formed a fist and it was enveloped in solid diamond and then…

KRAPOW!

I smashed my fist into the fake Gold Monster's face and sent him crashing into the wall!

Then he roared and got up and he was REALLY mad!

Me: Come get some!

Then the Dark Signers, Roquefort, General Schwarz and Atomic Skull then appeared.

Me: Dark Signers, Roquefort, General Schwarz and Atomic Skull.

Misty Tredwell: Looks like we got here in time.

Roman: So this is a fake version of the Gold Monster we know?

William: That's right.

Carly Atlas: I should've known. That plastic especially wasn't real gold.

Me: Nope it's not.

Devack: I hope you guys give this fake a thrashing!

Me: Oh we will and we will show this Gold Plated Phony a $30,000.00 Diamond Fisted Buttkicking!

Misty Tredwell: (to me) Awesome! We heard you went to Lucca's world this morning. Me: Yep we sure did and it was awesome.

Kalin: Who did you kill there this time?

Me: We killed Yakra XIII. I know Control Freak used that one before but this time we made sure we got rid of him for good.

Nicole: Thank goodness. What he did to the king was absolutely horrible. He was trying to avenge his ancestor from 400 years ago and frame the king of Guardia for a crime he did not even commit.

Me: Yep and he had the real chancellor locked in a chest.

Kalin: Geez!

Benaag then appeared and he was back for round two.

Me: Benaag. Back for round 2.

Benaag: Yep and it's gonna be awesome.

Me: Sweet.

Jack Landors: You gonna use 100 Krybots again?

Benaag: Actually, no. Those Krybots are actually very expensive.

Nico: Boy no kidding.

Me: But I remember you using that many Krybots. That was intense.

Laney: Yeah it sure was.

Lana: But that was awesome!

Another figure came out and it was RID Polar Claw!

Nico: Another Polar Claw!

RID Polar Claw: Yes that's right and it's an honor to meet you Nico.

Nico: Same here.

Polar Claw (BW): Man that's amazing that we have another Polar Claw. My name is Polar Claw too.

RID Polar Claw: That is amazing.

Then a bunch of Life Spell Punks appeared.

Spyro: A bunch of Life Spell Punks.

Levion: And I think I know what they are here for. Me.

Nico: Sweet!

Me: Lets get the battle on and I know just the planet this time for the battles.

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Okaara.

Me: Welcome to the home planet of the Orange Lanterns: Okaara.

Allie Wilde: Wow! So this is the home planet of the Agent Orange.

They fired waves of orange energy and elements and they formed into said Orange Lantern Members.

Lincoln and his harem: What's mine is mine and mine and mine. And mine and mine and mine! Not yours! ORANGE LANTERN FINAL SMASH: FURY OF THE GREED OF OPHIDIAN THE TEMPTER!

They summoned Ophidian the Tempter, the entity of greed to attack and the blasts all hit the Gold Monster and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked him down.

Sheila went up to him.

Sheila: Now lets see who he really is.

Sheila took off the Gold Monster's mask and it was just as we suspected.

Everyone: DRILL SERGEANT PAYNE!?

Greiger: Drill Sergeant Payne was the fake Gold Monster?!

Shaggy: But like, why?

Velma: This Army man wanted to be a business man. By causing explosions every hour, he could drive Sue Krose away. Then all he needed were the secret ingredients, and he'd be the solid gold soft drink king.

Me: That explains it all.

Payne: And I would have done it, too, if it weren't for you meddling civilians… sirs and ma'ams.

Rex Goodwin: Does no one know how to say Meddling Kids anymore?

Velma: He trained the Secret Six to stay up at night and dig that tunnel.

Daphne: That explains the dirt on their paws. But why the ugly gold plasma suit?

Velma: So he could blend into the gold - because with security this tight, the best place to hide was in plain sight.

Me: That's right and trying to escape from a place like Fort Knox is like trying to escape from one of our space prisons 10 fold.

Roquefort: And don't bother explaining that the rubber isn't really gold. We figured that out already.

Eric Loud: All credit goes to my awesome fiancé Sheila for cracking the case.

Me: Awesome job Sheila.

Atomic Skull: (To Payne) I'm tempted to have the real Gold Monster pummel you.

General Schwarz: From one military person to another, you're a disgrace to your rank.

Me: And as leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, you are hereby dishonorably discharged from the United States Army.

Sheila slapped the cuffs on Payne and they took him away and sent him back to prison. We found out that he escaped from the military prison he was in by blending in with the latest shipment of gold we brought in and we never suspected a thing.

Me: Great job everyone. This case is closed.

Nico: Yes it is.

Me: Lets all head to town and get some grub.

Shaggy: Like as long as we get to have Gold-Ade.

Me: Yes you can have some Gold-Ade.

Hydro Man: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure worthy for the title of Golden.

Nico: You got that right Morris.

We went to a good restaurant into town and went back home and went to sleep.

Get ready for a scary one with that and it's time that Lynn Sr. conquers his fear of The Hills Have Eyes. The next part for part 3 is gonna be in The Scooby Snax Factory and we're going to face the Scooby Snax Batter Monster and there will be a surprise twist for the unmasking.

See you all tomorrow and also I'm sorry for how long it took for me to write both chapters from yesterday and today.

Terror of The Scooby Snax Batter Monster

Over the desert of Nevada, Me, Jessica Namika the Zapdos Gene-Slammer and Lynn Sr. were flying. This desert was also home to the Nevada Nuclear Testing Site, which was used during the age of Weapons of Mass Destruction during the Atomic Age.

Jessica Namiko: This place is actually very scary!

Jessica concentrated and groaned as her mouth turned into a beak.

Me: This is the Nevada Nuclear Testing Site and I know this place all too well.

Jessica turned into ZAPDOS!

Me: YEAH!

We flew over the place and it was freakishly scary.

Me: This is the world of the movie The Hills Have Eyes.

A group of scientists, who are testing the radiation levels of the New Mexico desert, are killed by a deformed mutant, Pluto, with a pickaxe.

Retired detective Bob Carter and his wife Ethel are traveling from Cleveland to San Diego through the desert for their wedding anniversary. With them are their German Sheperds, Beauty and Beast, their children, Lynn, Brenda, and Bobby, Lynn's husband, Doug Bukowski, and their baby daughter Catherine. They stop at a gas station where an elderly attendant tells them of a different route through the hills. Not long after taking the supposed short-cut, their tires are punctured by a hidden spike strip. Doug and Bob go look for help, while the rest of the family stays behind. Beauty escapes from the trailer and, when Bobby chases her into the hills, he finds her mutilated corpse. Frightened, he runs and falls off the hill, knocking himself unconscious as a young female mutant Ruby protects him from her brother Goggle. Doug heads towards the interstate and finds a huge crater filled with numerous abandoned cars and other items.

Back at the gas station that night, Bob finds news clippings detailing various disappearances in the area after recent nuclear testings at a mining town by the US government that caused the mutants' deformities. Horrified, he confronts the hysterical attendant who commits suicide inside an outhouse. Bob attempts to flee in an abandoned car but is subdued by the mutant leader Papa Jupiter. After Bobby is found by Brenda, they head back to the trailer until Doug returns, where the former encounters Jupiter and escapes from him. While Bobby confesses his story to the family, Jupiter's sons Pluto and Lizard infiltrate the trailer and Lizard sexually assaults Brenda, who stays with the baby, while using the distraction of immolating Bob to a tree. Bob dies after the family extinguishes the fire. Lynn decides to return to the van where she saw Lizard holding her baby Catherine, horrified by this, she attacks Lizard but gets overpowered in the process. Lizard forces Lynn to breastfeed him until Ethel comes back leading to Lizard shooting both Lynn and Ethel. He then escaped with Jupiter along with Catherine. Doug and Bobby return to discover the carnage while Lynn and Ethel die shortly afterwards. Goggle, who is watching the family from afar, is killed by Beast.

The next morning Doug, along with Beast, set out to rescue Catherine. He comes across an abandoned nuclear testing village through the miner town's cave system and is knocked unconscious by Big Mama. Awakening in an ice box, he escapes and encounters Big Brain who reveals the mutants' origins to him and sends Pluto to attack Doug but the latter manage to gain the upper hand and kills Pluto with his own axe before killing another mutant Cyst. After ordering Lizard to kill Catherine, Big Brain is mauled to death by Beast while Ruby manages to take the baby from Lizard and escapes through the hills. At the trailer, Brenda and Bobby are attacked by Jupiter as the siblings lure him and arrange an explosive trap, which destroys the vehicle along with the mutant.

Doug catches up with Ruby but Lizard attacks them before pursuing

Ruby until Doug manages to defeat him with Cyst's shotgun. Ruby then gives Doug his daughter back. Lizard, still alive, aims the shotgun at Doug but Ruby tackles Lizard off a cliff, sending them both falling to their deaths. Bobby and Brenda find Jupiter wounded from their trap as Brenda finish him off with a pickaxe before the siblings are reunited with Doug, Catherine, and Beast. As the survivors of the Carter family embrace, an unknown mutant watches them through binoculars from the hills.

Lynn Sr.: (SCREAMS IN FRIGHT) THE MUTANTS! THEY'RE GOING TO KILL ME!

Lynn Sr. hugged me in fright.

Me: (Groans) Mr. Lynn that's the reason why we are here! Not only to rescue a girl but to also help you conquer your fear of this movie.

Jessica Zapdos: Yeah Mr. Lynn. You got to get over that fear.

Me: That's right Mr. Lynn. Your fear has to stop. Fear is your greatest enemy. We were able to help get justice for your father. You can conquer your fear by making those monsters in that movie pay for their crimes here. Also you were able to stand up for yourself when those jerks in your restaurant were giving you a hard time and you got them banned for life and sent Scoots to the nuthouse. You can do so again with conquering your fear of the monsters you saw as a kid.

Lynn Sr. then got a look of determination on his face and he knew that living in fear will only tear him apart.

Lynn Sr.: You're right! I am Lynn Loud Sr. and I will not be afraid anymore!

Jessica Zapdos: That's the Spirit Mr. Lynn!

We went to find the mutants and we had an Angel and a Mimikyu help out. We saw THE HILLS FAMILY!

Papa Jupiter is the main antagonist of the 1977 horror film The Hills Have Eyes, and a secondary antagonist in the 2006 remake.

He was portrayed by James Whitworth in the original movie and the late Billy Drago in the remake.

Past

Papa Jupiter was born a monster. He was the son of a hillbilly named Fred, who realized how evil Jupiter was when he killed his sister, and he killed all the animals on his farm. Fred took Jupiter to the hills after his daughter's death and he tried killing Jupiter with an iron, but it failed.

Papa Jupiter got with a prostitute who was insane, and he had children with her, mutant offspring who were insane and cannibalistic. In the remakes, the gang is the result of government atomic testing in the desert.

The Hills Have Eyes

Papa Jupiter is unseen for most of the film, but his presence is enough to scare the most hardened of the mutants in his gang. Papa Jupiter is very intimidating, and he is first seen when Fred asks Ruby, one of the mutants, if Jupiter knows about what she's doing because if he does, he'd kill her.

After Fred tells Bob Carter of the origins of the mutants, Fred is killed by Papa Jupiter. Papa Jupiter then flees into the night and is seen berating his children for failing to kill all the Carters. Papa Jupiter sets his sons to rape Brenda and kill her mother.

This proves his downfall when he is tricked into entering the rigged trailer where Brenda and Bobby have set a bomb, which seemingly kills him. However, Papa Jupiter leaps back out, angry, but is killed by Bobby.

---

We flew in and fired energy blasts and obliterated the Hills Family and we saved the Carter Family as well as the Angel named Loviya and the Mimikyu Gene-Slammer named Lolalai. Lynn Sr. covered his eyes and I put on my blind man glasses and then I snapped my fingers and Lolalai reverted back and she was naked and then Jessica reverted back too.

Jessica was human again. But naked.

Jessica: (covers herself) I hope Mr. Lynn has gotten over his fear now.

Lynn Sr.: Yes I have. Thank you so much guys for helping me out.

I gave Jessica and Lolalai new clothes.

Me: You're welcome Mr. Lynn.

Loviya: Those guys were disgusting.

Me: Nuclear fallout did all that to them.

Lolalai: (Norwegian Accent) Boy that is awful. But at least they are dead.

Me: Yep. Lets get out of here before the radiation gets bad.

We left and went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

After helping Lynn Sr. conquer his fear of The Hills Have Eyes, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Brody, Nicole, and Brittney were heading to the world of the 1987 movie Hellraiser, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the fourteen girls located here, but we're also going to help Kirsty Cotton permanently deal with the evil interdimensional demon Pinhead, The Cenobites, her perverted uncle, Frank Cotton, and Kirsty's murderous stepmother and Frank's lover, Julia.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 1987 movie, Hellraiser, and I know just what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the fourteen girls located here, but we're also going to help Kirsty Cotton deal with Pinhead and his Cenobite minions, along with Kirsty's perverted uncle, Frank, and her murderous stepmother, Julia.

Me: That's right, big guy. Me and my dad watched that movie long ago, and that really terrified us.

Nico: Me too. Clive Barker's movie showed us his own version of someone's personal Hell.

Eli: Which was brought to life by someone opening The Lament Configuration Puzzle Box.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of fourteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the fourteen girls sighted here, along with Kirsty Cotton, but they were cornered by Pinhead and his Cenobite minions, Frank Cotton, and Julia, and they were going to kill them.

Pinhead is the main antagonist of the Hellraiser film series. He is the leader of the Order of the Gash, a sadomasochistic religion whose adherents are the demonic torturers known as the Cenobites who can be summoned along with Pinhead himself via the demonic, mechanical puzzle box known as the Lament Configuration. Aside from the iron pins jabbed in his skull, Pinhead is renowned in the slasher movie genre for being one of the very few villains who is highly intelligent and eloquent. He usually kills his victims by means of tearing them apart with hooked chains, but has also commanded an arsenal of demonic powers and is a master of torture and pain who often prefers to drag his victims into an eternity of suffering rather than outright death. He is based on his novel counterpart.

Pinhead was the overarching antagonist of the 1987 film Hellraiser, its sequel Hellbound: Hellrasier II, and the main antagonist of Hellraiser III: Hell on Earth, and its sequel, Hellraiser IV: Bloodline . He remained a major antagonist in later films.

He was portrayed by Doug Bradley, Stephan Smith Collins, and Paul T. Taylor.

Early life

Pinhead was originally an Englishman, an educated soldier by the name Captain Elliott Spencer, who fought during World War I, serving under the British Expeditionary Force, his last battle having taken place during one of the Battles of Flanders. Barker describes Captain Elliott Spencer as being an old-fashioned British intellectual. After the war had ended, Captain Spencer was left traumatized by the experience and began developing both post traumatic stress disorder and survivor guilt. He subsequently lost all faith in humanity and in God, whom he believed had failed him and everyone else.

Captain Spencer was left nihilistic and disillusioned, wandering the Earth and living a hedonistic life. He committed acts that were considered taboo by most modern society. Sometime during the year 1921, Captain Spencer traveled to British India where he discovered the Lament Configuration and bought it from its current guardian. Solving the box inside his tent, Spencer was immediately impaled by hooked chains. He was dragged into the Labyrinth and then transformed into the Cenobite Pinhead. In the decades that followed he obediently served the dark entity Leviathan as the new leader of the Cenobites, losing all memory of his past life as a human being in the process.

Hellraiser

In Hellraiser, Pinhead makes his first appearance as a shadowy figure immediately torture Frank Cotton in his own attic after the latter had solved the Lament Configuration.

After tearing Frank apart in his own house, Pinhead picks up the puzzle box and uses it to teleport himself, his entourage, Frank's remains and their tools back to the Labyrinth, the attic appearing as if nothing had ever taken place to begin with.

Shortly after their departure, Frank had escaped his captors after his brother Larry's blood fell on the spot where he had died.

The blood had seemingly allowed him to reconstruct his body one layer of organs at a time. In the week that followed Frank had convinced Julia, Larry's cheating wife, into helping him gain more blood so he could obtain full human form. It was during this time that Frank continued fearing the return of the cenobites.

When Larry's daughter, Kristy, had stolen the puzzle box from Frank, she easily solved it and summoned Pinhead alongside his entourage. As the cult prepares to take Kristy away the girl convinces them to exchange her soul for Frank's, to which they seemingly accept, but only and so long as Frank himself confesses to have escaped their world. Pinhead is left somewhat skeptical and threatens to cruelly punish Kristy should she attempt to fool them. In the end, Pinhead does tear Frank apart once again, using hooked chains. Despite their earlier agreement the Cenobites - Chatterer, Butterball, and the Female Cenobite - chase after Kristy anyway, with Pinhead showing great delight in taking her to their home realm. However, Kristy successfully manages to utilize the Lament Configuration and sends the demon cult back to Hell.

Hellbound: Hellraiser II

In this movie, Pinhead's former life as a human is explored, the opening scene revealing Elliott Spencer's transformation into a cenobite.

The movie's main antagonists, the psychotic psychiatrist Dr. Phillip Channard and Julia (who was killed by Frank, captured by the cenobites and later resurrected by Channard, using the blood of one of his patients) trick the mentally disturbed girl, named Tiffany, into solving the Lament Configuration. A portal had been opened with which the Doctor and Julia used to enter Hell. Pinhead saves Tiffany from being killed by the other Cenobites, realizing that Channard had been merely using the girl as a means to solve the puzzle box and enter Hell without the fear of cenobites attacking him. Channard was eventually turned into a Cenobite by Leviathan.

Within the Labyrinth, Pinhead reunites with Kristy and expresses delight in torturing her. He is not, however, in a hurry to do so and allows the girl to freely roam the cenobite home realm. Later on, when Kirsty discovered that Pinhead had once been Elliot Spencer, she reminded him of this by showing him a picture of his past life as an army man. Reluctant at first, the other cenobites also begin remembering their own past lives, showing confusion and fear for the first time. Pinhead and his entourage defended Tiffany and Kristy from the newborn Cenobite Channard, with Pinhead using his hooks in order to restrain him. After killing the other Cenobites, Channard transformed Pinhead back into Elliot Spencer and slit his throat with one of his tentacles, seemingly killing him. Before dying, Spencer had smiled at Kristy as a sign of thanks.

After Tiffany had reshuffled the diamond shaped Lament Configuration back into its rectangular shape Leviathan is somehow forced to release countless souls from Hell and imprisons his servants (Julia included). From this point on Pinhead's light and dark sides were separated; Elliott Spencer became a benevolent spirit, while Pinhead's sadistic soul became trapped inside the Pillar of Souls alongside Julia, what appeared to be The Engineer, the Lament Configuration, several other spirits and The Puzzle Guardian in vagrant form.

Hellraiser III: Hell on Earth

For the first time Pinhead takes on the role of main antagonist in Hellraiser III . He is resurrected when nightclub owner, JP Monroe, was bitten by a rat, his blood having landed on the Pillar of Souls. Pinhead absorbs a girl named Brittany Virtue, then fools Monroe into bringing him more victims to consume, promising the disturbed young club owner a the chance in expressing himself in the most artistic means possible, through torture. Pinhead then persuades Monroe's girlfriend, Terri, in helping him escape from the pillar and even ends up killing Monroe, absorbing enough of his energy to return to full power and escapes his imprisonment. No longer trapped inside the statue, Pinhead killed around 150 people at Monroe's nightclub, The Boiler Room.

Meanwhile, a young TV reporter named Joey Summerskill makes contact with the spirit of Captain Elliott Spencer. Having lost her father to the Vietnam War, Spencer and Joey appear together on a desolated battlefield, a manifestation of their regrets. The Captain tells Joey his origin, how he has come to be a ghost and then tasks the young reporter with retrieving the Lament Configuration and banishing Pinhead back to Hell.

Meeting at the nightclub, Pinhead tried taking the Lament

Configuration from Joey Sommerskill so that he could keep the door to Hell open, but was unable to take it; the box had to be given to him willingly by another person. Pinhead had transformed the corpses of a handful of victims into Cenobites and tried killing the reporter, but she successfully banished all of them back to Hell. Later on, while disguised as her dead father, Pinhead tricked Joey into giving him the box and then attempted to transform the girl into a cenobite. He misses this opportunity as he is confronted by Elliott Spencer, who merged with his evil half. Joey is released and stabs Pinhead with the Lament Configuration (once again in the form of a lozenge) and banishes the cenobite from Earth. Having defeated all the cenobites, Joey then buries the puzzle box in the wet cement of a nearby construction site. When the building is completed it is revealed to have been bizarrely modeled in the image of the Lament Configuration.

Hellraiser IV: Bloodline

Pinhead returned again main antagonist when the demon "princess" Angelique summoned him. They planned to have John Merchant (descendant of the 17th century toymaker Phillip Lemarchand, who built the Lament Configuration) use his new design, the Elysium Configuration, to keep the portal to Hell open so that the cenobites could come and leave at their own will. However, the plan had backfired, causing an enraged Pinhead into killings John Merchant, stabbing him in the threat. Merchant's wife. Bobbi. banishes the cenobite lord, Angelique, Chatter Beast, and the Siamese Cenobite (two twin security guards transformed by Pinhead) to Hell.

In year 2127, John's descendant, Paul Merchant, summoned Pinhead with the Lament Configuration on board the Space Station Minos, which was in fact the Elysium Configuration, a machine built in order to permanently to trap and destroy the cenobites. Pinhead, Chatter Beast, Twin Cenobite, and Angelique (now a modern Cenobite) killed most of the guards, but Paul and the remaining guard, Rimmer, escaped in a shuttle. After tricking Pinhead with a hologram, Paul activated the Elysium Configuration, reflecting rays of light off of mirrors and closing the space station/Configuration into a giant Lemerchand's box. The perpetual light began to decay Pinhead, pinning him to a wall. Before it exploded, the Elysium

Configuration completely destroyed, and or, imprisoned Pinhead and the other Cenobites.

Hellraiser V: Inferno

Pinhead returns to extract psychological torture on a man named Joseph Thorne, who had opened the puzzle box. He does so for the reason being that Thorne is a corrupt detective who was frequently involved in drug use, sleeping with prostitutes, and beating his informant. He puts Thorne under the hallucination of witnessing the Engineer (who represents Thorne's cruelty) murder others and kidnap a child (who represents Thorne's innocence)-making him believe throughout the whole film that he had been solving the Engineer's murder cases, when in reality he had been in Hell since he opened the puzzle box. Pinhead then has Thorne wrapped in hooks, and tells him he will suffer an eternity in Hell for his misdeeds.

Lincoln: Oh man, I found the girls and Kirsty Cotton, but they've been cornered by Pinhead and his Cenobite minions, Frank Cotton, and Julia, and they were going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over, and and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he used McWolf's Dark Style Ninja Art: Chains of Torment, and fired a massive barrage of chains of darkness with heavy hooks at the end, and they'd hooked onto Pinhead, his Cenobite minions, Frank Cotton, and Julia, and another dark chain wrapped around their waists, tying them up.

* * *

Pinhead: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You're about to know a meaning to the word "Pain."

Pinhead: Pain! How dare you use that word?

Me: You don't have any idea what kind of pain we can inflict. We're going to make sure you and your minions all suffer.

Then, Lincoln unleashed a massive storm of slashes from every swing of his massive blade and with one last swing, he cuts down Pinhead, the Cenobites, Frank Cotton, and Julia, and they had exploded in a massive purple flame, and they were Super Hakaied.

We checked on Kirsty Cotton, who broke down crying, as she hugged me, and cried into my chest. I returned the hug and comforted her. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the girls located here, and as soon as Lincoln and Nicole saw them, they recognized them. The fourteen girls were Chiyo Mihama, Ayumu Kasuga A.K.A. Osaka, Tomo Takino, Koyomi Mizuhara, Sakaki, Jagura, Yukari Tanizaki, Kaori, and Minamo Kurosawa from Azumanga Daioh, Tomoko Kuroki and Yu Naruse from Watamote, Laura Haruna, Mindy O'Hara, and Kana Iwata from Hamtaro.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Chiyo Mihama, Ayumu Kasuga A.K.A. Osaka, Tomo Takino, Koyomi Mizuhara, Sakaki, Jagura, Yukari Tanizaki, Kaori, Minamo Kurosawa, Tomoko Kuroki, Yu Naruse, Laura Haruna, Mindy O'Hara, and Kana Iwata.

Nicole: From Azumanga Daioh, Watamote, and Hamtaro. Awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Ayumu Kasuga: Yes, we're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Ayumu Kasuga and the thirteen other girls saw who it was that saved them from both the Cenobites, Frank Cotton, and Julia, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-

Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Ayumu Kasuga: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made thirteen clones of himself, and they went up to the thirteen girls, and Lincoln went up to Ayumu Kasuga, who'd picked her and the other thirteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Ayumu Kasuga: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to the Estate, and Kirsty Cotton moved to Gotham Royal York, and she had went through psychiatric help after everything she went through because of The Cenobites and her two evil relatives. Plus, we found out that when Lincoln Super Hakaied The Cenobites, Frank Cotton, and Julia, it also sealed the portal to Hell for good, and it'd also destroyed the Lament Configuration Puzzle Box for good, a perfect end to a cursed toy that became a key to The Gates of Hell centuries ago.

* * *

After dealing with The Cenobites, Frank Cotton, and Julia, we were then training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds.

Suddenly, a bright light had shined down on the Estate, and we covered our eyes. Then, as the bright lights faded, we uncovered our eyes. Suddenly, we saw nine girls appear in the Estate, which came as a huge surprise. Then, when Lincoln saw them, he immediately recognized them. The nine girls were Kagami Hiiragi, Tsukasa Hiiragi, Miyuki Takara, Konata Izumi, Hiyori Tamura, Patricia Martin, Misao Kusakabe, and Minami Iwasaki from Lucky Star.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Konata Izumi, Kagami Hiiragi, Tsukasa Hiiragi, Miyuki Takara, Hiyori Tamura, Patricia Martin, Misao Kusakabe, and Minami Iwasaki from Lucky Star.

Me: Wait a second, that means…?

Nico: The world of Lucky Star has merged with our world, oh man, that's awesome.

Nicole: I've read the Lucky Star manga, and each of these girls have something in common with Lincoln, such as a love for video or online games, manga, and anime.

The girls got their sight of vision back, and when they saw us, they were surprised.

Kagami Hiiragi: Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Me: Same here, Konata.

Kagami Hiiragi: And we also heard the conversations from both Lincoln and Nicole, it's nice to know two people who have a knowledge of manga and anime.

Lincoln: Thanks, Kagami.

Kagami: And it's awesome how you all saved some of us. we owe you guys.

Then, when the girls saw Lincoln, immediately, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

The girls were stumbling like crazy trying to even talk to him. We giggled at the sight of what's just occurred.

Nico: Whoa, I knew it, any girl who sees Lincoln winds up going crazy.

Me: Well, can you blame him? Lincoln's gone from being the cute 11-year-old boy into an extremely tall and extremely muscular man with handsome features that can cause any girl who hasn't met him to go speechless, combine that with his personality and charisma, and you've got a real ladies man.

Lori Loud: (Giggles) Just like you, J.D. We've seen you more than once charm the ladies.

Nico: She's right, dude. You do got that kind of charm that really attract ladies, and Lincoln's got that very same charm.

Konata Izumi: Um, Lincoln. We know that you already have a lot of future wives and we've just met you, but…?

Then, Lincoln understood what Konata and her friends were asking, and he replied by making eight clones of himself, and they went up to Konata's friends, and he went up to Konata Izumi, who'd picked her and her friends up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We all cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Lincoln: Of course, Konata. And now, you and your friends are now part of my harem.

Konata Izumi: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) Thanks, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Nico: Whoa, he understood what Konata was asking, and he replied with the same gesture as when he met the girls he's rescued.

Me: You got that right.

We were going to like having Konata Izumi and her friends here as new members of the team, and new future wives of Lincoln, and they were also made aware of our upcoming war with Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and they swore to fight alongside us against Mr. Mind and his goons.

Later Aligned Grimlock and Sideswipe were about to head out with a very awesome new goal.

Fubuki: So, let me get this straight. You two want to start a Bounty Hunting Business TV Show?

Aligned Grimlock: We sure do!

Aligned Sideswipe: Now that everyone knows we exist, I figured we can get people to know how awesome we are.

Maria: Not a bad idea.

Strongarm: Like how awesome you are whenever Fixit has to clean the stasis pods while you're slacking off?

Aligned Sideswipe: Laugh at me all you want, Strongarm. But you're going to eat those words when me and Grimlock become famous by tomorrow!

Eli: Excuse me but I must discipline the nanny goats.

Maria: (Aligned Sideswipe and Aligned Grimlock leave) Too late. Sideswipe's already gone.

Eli: Oh boy.

Arrietty: I get the feeling that this won't end well.

Frog (Chrono Trigger) was watching a video of Aligned Sideswipe and Aligned Grimlock's new TV show.

Frog (Chrono Trigger): (British Medieval Accent) This isn't going to end well.

Aligned Sideswipe: (voiceover) Whenever criminals are threatening the lives of innocents, these two Autobots will be there to kick their a!

We see promotional pictures of Aligned Sideswipe punching Goche, Aligned Grimlock pummeling Spydah, and both Autobots punching Airachnid at the same time. We then see the title "Seeing Swipe. Starring Sideswipe"

Aligned Sideswipe: (takes out sword) Here's Swipe in your eye!

Aligned Grimlock: (carrying grenade) I wanna say a catchphrase too! (bites pin off grenade)

Aligned Sideswipe: (panics) Throw it! Throw it, Grimlock! Throw it!

The grenade went off, creating an explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eddy: (sees this as well and laughs) Oh man! Bumblebee, J.D.! You guys gotta see this!

Me and Aligned Bumblebee came in.

Me: What you watching Eddy?

We saw Aligned Sideswipe and Grimlock going after bad guys and they were being silly. They were doing a bounty hunter show.

We were watching the show and it was awesome.

Lana: Oh this is great!

Dirge: It says here that so far, Grimlock and Sideswipe have only busted ordinary bank robbers.

Nico: They sure have been busy.

Eli: They sure have and those are all bank robbers that were still at large.

Me: No kidding. Good job to them both.

Allie Wilde: Yeah no kidding.

Aligned Sideswipe: (voiceover) Me and Grimlock's first major bounty hunting assignment will be us helping Mystery Inc track down a fake Scooby Snax monster. Wish us luck, viewers!

G1 Blades: Wait. They're helping Mystery Inc with another mystery? By themselves?!

Me: Whoa man! We better get over there and help them out! Nico it's your turn to lead today anyway.

Nico: I know and this is gonna be awesome. Not only do I get to show you guys around work some more but we also get to stop another Scooby Snax Batter Monster.

Poromon saw that the Scooby Snax Batter monster that we know was back at the M.O.E. Base in Montana.

Poromon: This is another fake monster like the fake Gold Monster.

Ace: Don't you think we should leave this to Sideswipe and Grimlock? This is their mission, after all.

May: Against ordinary crooks, it would be okay. But against any version of the Scooby Snax monster, they're in over their heads!

Nico: May is right. We got to be ready for anything.

FFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRRRRRTTTTT

Nico: Ugh J.D. did you eat that chili again!?

Me: That wasn't me this time! If it was then I would have blue fire coming out of my butt!

FFFFFAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRTTTTTT!

I farted and then Blue Fire came out of my butt like I said.

Me: See!?

FFFFFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRTTTTTTTTT!

No blue fire came out of my butt.

Nico: It wasn't you this time. Lori was that you!?

Lori: I did not fart Nico! It was my shoe!

Lincoln: Yeah right!

Allie Wilde: Does this happen to you a lot Lincoln?

Lincoln: You have no idea Allie.

The Dark Signers, Roquefort, General Schwarz and Atomic Skull then appeared.

Roman: Can me, Carly, Devack, Rex, Kalin, Greiger, Misty, Roquefort, General Schwarz and Atomic Skull with you all?

Nico: Yes you can. And we're going to the Scooby Snax factory.

Rex: To see your line of work.

Nico: Yep and to solve a mystery.

FFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRTTTTTTTT!

Kalin: Geez! Lori was that you!?

Lori: It was my shoe!

Nico: We're not buying it Lori.

Eli: You really need to lay off those bean chips.

Lori: It was my shoe! See!?

She squeaked the floor boards with her shoes but nothing happened.

Nico: Lets head out to the Scooby Snax Factory.

We were off.

SCOOBY SNAX FACTORY.

We arrived at the Scooby Snax factory and it was amazing. We saw Aligned Sideswipe and Grimlock.

Shadow: Hey, you two. How's your bounty hunting business?

Aligned Sideswipe: It's actually doing just fine.

Aligned Bumblebee: Okay, Sideswipe. You and Grimlock had your fun. But maybe, it's time to admit this might be a bit more than you two can handle on your own.

Aligned Sideswipe: Oh your right boss.

Nico: Besides you did a great job catching those robbers. We've been after those guys for a long time.

Sheila: Yeah we sure have. Great job.

Aligned Sideswipe: Thanks Sheila.

FFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRTTTTTTT!

Aylene C.: OH MAN! Geez Lori!

Lori: It was my shoe!

Penelope Bailey then came.

Penelope Bailey: Well thank goodness you all are here.

Carly Atlas: It's good to see you again, Penelope.

Penelope Bailey: Same to you Carly.

Nico: We heard that there's another Scooby Snax Batter monster running around.

Qin: It's not you again this time is it?

Penelope Bailey: No it's not and it's not spies from another factory this time.

Qin: Weird.

Shocker: This might be one monster we don't know the real identity of.

Nico: Yeah and I've been wanting something like this.

Qin: Me too! This is gonna be so awesome!

Laney: It sure will be awesome.

Rex Goodwin: (to Qin) So, why exactly are you the on interested in the mystery this time?

Qin: Because Nico works here and as one of his childhood buddies, I can't let his place of work be terrorized like this by a fake monster that's also Sissi's archenemy.

Nico: Wow! That is a very strong force of determination and a good reason Qin.

Me: You have an amazing friend buddy.

Nico: Yep I sure do.

Allie Wilde: He sure does. Just like you and me J.D.

Me: (Blushes) Aw it's not problem Allie.

Airi: Let's go ahead and look for clues.

Qin: Lets do it! First lets find Mystery Inc.

We then heard a scream and then we saw Shaggy and Scooby being chased by THE SCOOBY SNAX BATTER MONSTER!

Qin: Looks like we won't have to look far for them! Come on!

We went after the monster and Qin fired a blast of fire at the monster and burned its back and made it crispy and baked.

The monster saw its back baked and Qin ripped a chunk of the creatures back off and ate it.

Qin: (Munching) Mmm! Wow! Nico you weren't kidding when you said that Scooby Snax were tasty.

Nico: Told you they were good Qin.

The monster snarled at Qin and threw batter globs at her and she dodged them all and some of the globs hit Lori in her face.

Lori: EW!

Qin fired fireballs and they hit the monster all over and exploded and it ran.

Shaggy: Like thanks guys.

Kalin: Hey, guys! Glad you could make it!

Fred: Glad we could.

Daphne: Yeah that monster is dangerous.

Qin: Well the good news is it's not Penelope this time. The monster is really someone else. I found this in one of the globs of batter that was thrown at me. It's a HAZMAT suit label and on it are the initials M.T.M.

Nico: Hmm.

Laney: Wonder who that label belongs to.

Sweetie Belle: Who knows. But it looks like we'll find out soon.

Nico: Lets head to where I work. I want to show you all my next flavor I'm working on.

We arrived in Nico's laboratory.

Princess Rose: What IS your next flavor anyway?

Nico: Watermelon Blue Raspberry. I decided to do something fruity.

Me: Ooh that sounds tasty.

Eli: It sure is.

Eli then saw something on the floor.

Eli: What's this?

Eli found a book on the ground and it belonged to Moss T. Meister.

Eli: This is Moss T. Meister's journal.

Nico: What does it say?

Eli: Lets see.

Eli read it and unfortunately it was all in German.

Eli: It's all in German. I can't read it.

Qin: Hmm. Maybe this will have a clue.

Misty: Let's keep that journal just in case.

Qin: Just what I was thinking.

Qin put it in her book bag.

Qin: Luckily I learned German as a second language. It will come in handy for me when I translate it.

Nico: Smart thinking Qin.

Allie Wilde: Wow that's cool.

Then the power went out.

Twilight Sparkle: Uh oh the lights are out.

Eli: We got spies trying to get to the formula. The Force is telling me that we have 4 spies heading to the vault.

Nico: Don't those spies ever take a break!? Lets get them!

We went to the vault.

The spies were trying to get the recipe and they went up to the vault.

Spy 2: We've reached the vault. Preparing to secure secret recipe.

A coconut hit one of the spies and they saw us.

Indigo Zap: If you want to take a tour of the place, you could've just asked!

Lemon Zest: Yeah we would have been more than happy to show you around.

Spy 1: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Run!

Derpy Hooves: You aren't going anywhere!

Derpy fired muffins that were as hard as rocks.

SMASH! BLAM! CLANG! BONK!

They smashed into the spies heads and they were knocked out.

Nico: Nice shooting Derpy.

Nico took off their masks and he recognized them.

Nico: I know these guys! They are employees from the cheese puff factory on the other side of town.

Eli: They obviously wanted to steal the formula for their snacks.

Nico: Yep. Now they are going to prison.

Aligned Sideswipe: More scumbags taken out! Yeah, baby! Look who's seeing Swipe now?

Aligned Grimlock: Look at me saying a catchphrase again! (pauses) Um… baby?

Devack: (shakes his head with a smile) Easy, you two. We all busted them together.

Nico: We sure did. But we're not done here yet.

Laney: Yep.

We went back to the main part of the factory and then we saw the monster trying to overload the batter machines.

Nico: It looks like he's trying to flood the factory! Lets get him!

Crystal Man fires a crystal orb at the monster, knocking it far away.

Crystal Man: That should keep it away long enough for us to come up with a plan.

Nico: Good thinking Crystal Man. Lets regroup and meet with Penelope and her dad.

Me: Roger Commander.

We went to meet with Penelope and her dad.

Atomic Skull: We've got good news and bad news. Good news is that we caught the spies.

Penelope Bailey: That's great!

Nico: They are from a rival factory on the other side of town.

Penelope Bailey: And what's the bad news?

Qin: We know what the monster is trying to do. He's trying to destroy Scooby Snax completely. He's going to try and destroy this entire factory.

Penelope and her dad gasped.

Penelope Bailey: Who would try to do such a thing!?

Me: Well my guess is it has to be Trudy. The former employee and spy that was here the first time we came here before the team was formed.

Velma: That is a good guess. But no it's not her.

Me: She would try and get revenge on the factory for us foiling her.

Nico: That is a good guess.

Velma: That is a good motive. But no it's not her.

Fred: Then it has to be Red Herring!

Red Herring then appeared.

Red Herring: Forget it Jones you dipstick! I didn't do anything!

Me: Red Herring?

I saw that he was working as a janitor.

Me: You work here as a Janitor?

Red Herring: Sure do. It's part of my community service work. Next to my future upcoming usual battles I got to earn some form of money. It"s better than being in jail.

Me: That's true.

Sugarcoat: Maybe we should ask Trudy ourselves.

Nico: I wouldn't count on it Sugarcoat. She's in prison serving 10 years in prison for her crimes.

Sugarcoat: Darn.

Qin: Actually I know who the monster is. And it's someone that has a really rotten temper.

Nico: Hmm. (Gasp) Oh man! Then lets get him guys.

Roquefort: Cheese Ninjas! While we're forming a plan, go search this factory for any sign of the monster.

They agreed and left with amazing speed. We formed our plan and that was to use fire to crisp up the monster and bake it so it couldn't move and the have Shaggy and Scooby eat the crust off and then the crook will be revealed.

Nico: That's a good plan and Qin had the right idea when we saw the monster chasing Shaggy and Scooby.

Laney: She sure did.

Qin: Awesome. All in agreement?

Nico: I agree.

Lana: I do too.

Nico: Lets go with your plan Qin.

Lincoln: Time to put Operation Scooby Snax Monster Bake into action.

Shaggy: Like lets get that monster!

Centaur Man: (to Shaggy and Scooby) I'm surprised you two actually want to help out this time.

Shaggy: Like, we can't afford not to! All of the Scooby Snax are at stake here!

Scooby: Reah! Anyone that doesn't like Scooby Snax is our enemy!

Me: Well said guys!

Crystal: Like yeah!

Amber: We'll make this monster pay.

Me: And besides, Nico comes up with amazing flavors for you guys.

Greiger: Do you two still want to try the new Scooby Snax flavor anyway?

Shaggy: Like yeah!

Scooby Doo: Roh boy!

Nico: Here you go guys.

Nico gave them two Scooby Snax and they ate them.

Shaggy and Scooby: MMM! MMM! MMMM!

They spun around and turned into rockets and went into the sky and they turned into blimps and they said "Try Scooby Snax, you'll love them!"

They came down and were ready.

Shaggy: Okay! We're ready!

Nico: Lets get him!

We went to find the monster. We found him trying to mess with the controls again.

Brawl: There he is!

We rushed at him.

Then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery black explosion went off above the monster and then rainbow flame swirled around it and formed into a moon and then a raven caw was heard and we came out of the explosion!

Qin: FIRE!

Qin and Flame Princess fired streams of fire and they hit the monster and he roared in pain as he was being baked. He saw us and he was mad.

Maxxor: (to the fake Scooby Snax Batter Monster) By the Authority of the Tribal Alliance, we're taking you down by force!

Nico: And eating you for lunch!

Eli: YEAH!

Emma: No one's destroying Scooby Snax on our watch!

They summoned Parallax the Entity of Fear and the blasts all hit the Scooby Snax monster and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked down the monster.

Qin went up to him.

Qin: Now lets see who this Scooby Snax Batter monster REALLY is.

General Schwarz: I should've known. There's only one person who works here and has a rotten temper.

Qin: Yep and that is…

Qin pulled off the mask and it was MOSS T. MEISTER!

Everyone: MOSS T. MEISTER!

Qin: He was infuriated with how his job was going. He also hated Scooby Snax and how well it was doing. He wanted to get rid of Scooby Snax. So he thought the best way to do that was to destroy the Scooby Snax factory Completely.

Nico: But why Meister? Why?

Moss T. Meister: (German Accent) Because you were doing better than me in making Scooby Snax better! I wanted to destroy Scooby Snax to make sure you suffered! Und I would have gotten away with it too if if weren't for you and you Einmischende Kinder!

Qin: He said Meddling Kids in German.

Me: Well now you're looking at spending a long time in prison.

Nico: Yep. But Meister I never was intending to steal your thunder. I learned so much from you and you taught me a lot here.

He was taken away and was sentenced to 25 to 50 years in prison.

Nico: Great job everyone but great job to you Qin. You really came through for this one.

Qin: Thanks Nico. This was so fun.

Nico: It sure was. Lets head to Lynn's Table so we can celebrate and have the usual battles.

Myotismon: Looks like we're in for a good one.

Lord Drakkon: (to Penelope) Sorry that one of your employees went rogue.

Penelope: It's alright. I actually didn't see it coming either.

Me: None of us did.

Myotismon: At least he's getting his just desserts.

Nico: Yep.

William: He sure is.

Electro: No one messes with Scooby Snax.

Me: And gets away with it.

Baron Mordo: (to me) We heard you helped Mr. Lynn conquer one of his fears.

Red X: Which fear was that again?

Me: He was terrified of the movie The Hills Have Eyes.

Red X: That movie about the Atomic Mutants in the Nevada Desert?

Me: Yep.

?: Boy that sure was crazy.

A figure came out and it was BONEY from episode 10 of Mystic Force!

---

When Xander and Vida found the cave for the Fire Heart, they had to choose between two doors, in order to find the Fire Heart. Vida chose correctly with Door #1, however Xander was curious as to what was behind #2 and opened it. This Cave Beast was behind that door. By opening the second door, Xander unleashed this monster. Vida and Xander quickly morphed and battled Boney. Thanks to the Pink Ranger's Magi Staff Tornado Attack, Boney was quickly destroyed

---

Xander: Boney!

Boney: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were the weakest of the monsters that the Mystic Force Rangers faced and you were also the guardian of the Cave for The Fire Heart.

Boney: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Boney: I'm actually glad I get my own battle now. Skullington took up most of the spotlight when I first showed up.

Nico: Yeah that sure sucked.

Me: Yeah it sure did.

?: Boy I bet.

A figure came out and it was RADU BARVON!

Nicole: Radu Barvon!

Radu: Its been a long time Nicole.

Nicole: I was hoping I would never have to hear your voice again after everything you did.

Nico: You know this guy Nicole?

Nicole: Unfortunately yes. He's my ex-boyfriend.

Nicole went over his history.

* * *

Radu Barvon, Baron of Luxor is Ion Fortuna's best friend and tovarisch (meaning "comrade" in Russian). He heads with Ion to give a message to the Cardinal Sforza. Unbeknownst to Ion, Radu is actually a member of the Rosenkreuz Orden, codename " Flamberg ".

Radu travels to Carthago with his tovarisch Ion Fortuna, the secret envoy for Augusta Vradica. Esther Blanchett and Tres Iqus investigate a programmer that was captured earlier. Esther burns her hands on the handle of the cell which he was kept, and Tres opens to the door to find the room ignited in flames. A mysterious cloaked vampire attacks the cyborg, damaging his eyes, and then disappears. At this time, Ion sneaks into the embassy alone speak with Cardinal Caterina Sforza, but frightens her with his sudden appearance. He tightens his grip on her when he became offended after she calls him a "vampire" instead of a "Methuselah." His anger causes the Cardinal to panic, and just at this moment, Tres barges in and shoots Ion, believing he was an assassin. Ion escapes quickly, leaving the baffled Caterina to ponder if he was meant to be the messenger sent from The Empire.

An enraged Ion meets Radu on their way back to their hotel room, Radu informs Ion he became worried Ion took so long and went out to look for him. He treats his wounds and leaves get some aqua vitae (blood pills) for Ion. The Count waits for his friend to return until he hears the door open. To his surprise, it is an equally surprised Vatican nun with a gun aimed at him. Ion quickly jumps from his bed and tackles her, demanding to know why she was here. Frightened for her life, Esther hits Ion's wounded shoulder with her gun, and manages to incapacitate him. Just at that moment, Radu then walks in on the scene and threatens Esther with a knife. Father Nightroadarrives just in time to save Esther, but reprimands her for disobeying his order to leave the vampires alone. He apologizes and explains that before Ion arrived to speak with Lady Caterina, another vampire attacked the embassy. Radu suspects that it is the work of extremists. There is a sudden explosion from a tank, which turns out to be the work of the Inquisition, determined to destroy the vampires. Ion refuses to trust Abel and Esther, but Radu convinces his friend to trust Esther escape to an underground waterway to their motorboat.

While the escape is underway, Ion is slowed down because of his wounded shoulder, which is bleeding again because of Esther's attack. Esther kindly asks if she should inspect the wound, but Ion yells at her that someone as "lowly" as her should not "soil" his skin. Esther loses her temper and yells at him in a rage, calling Ion childish. Ion is surprised by her sudden fury, and allows her take care of his wound. The Department of Inquisition arrives, letting slip that an "informant" told them of the location of Ion and Esther. Just as they plan to take the pair hostage for questioning, Radu appears and burns the Inquisition members. Their rescue is short lived, however: remembering the attack from earlier at the Vatican, Esther makes the connection that Radu was the extremist.

Esther takes out her gun, and questions if her deduction was correct. Ion is appalled by this accusation, and tells Esther to put her gun down. To Ion's horror, Radu confirms the accusation, and that he is working with the Rosenkreuz Orden. This shocks Ion, who could not believe his friend would do such a thing. Radu moves behind Esther and takes control of her gun, so that it would seem like a Vatican nun killed the Earl of Memphis, which would start a war between the Empire and Vatican. Brother Petros appears, and is perplexed to see a vampire threatening another vampire. Petros starts a fight with Radu to avenge his men, and Esther uses this opportunity to escape with Ion, who is attacked by Radu again. Esther, Abel, and Ion board the boat while Radu uses Petros as a stepping stone to follow them. Using his Ifrit powers, Radu ignites the boat but accidentally burns the rope holding the said sail up, causing it to fall onto him and fling him overboard. Ion screams his name as he falls, calling out to him and nearly grasping him. Abel stops the boy from going overboard, as Ion weeps devasted at his friend's betrayal, as he recalls his last words to trust him.

After resting to heal his wounds, Ion's remembers a brief part of his childhood with Radu. Ion is upset that he has awakened and can no longer walk under the sun or go to the beach with Radu. Radu laughs and replies that he will not walk under the sun either, as preparation for his own awakening, even if it is several years from now. Ion is shocked that Radu would do that for him. Radu replies that Ion always says he will be with him forever, and he is just saying the same thing back to him. Unbeknownest to Radu, Ion also remembers events from their childhood at that moment.

Ion wakes to to find Esther wiping his forehead. The nun confirms that she bandaged him, and that the bullet was so close that it could have easily pierced his heart. Ion says that Radu told him the same thing, but had he died, he would not have to live through this betrayal. Esther empathizes with Ion, as she was also betrayed by someone she thought was a friend. The Count says Radu was his only friend, and he had known him since birth. The boy suddenly becomes angry and says that he would have died for his friend if he wanted his life, but blames himself for not knowing Radu wanted him dead in the first place. Esther tries to cheer up the crying boy, holds his hand and tells him that she is by his side, and although the comment is followed by awkwardness and does not make much of an impact, Ion thanks her for her kindness.

Around this time, Radu dreams of a moment of his childhood with Ion. A young Ion calls out Radu, who was reading, to play with him outside. Radu notices Ion had scraped his knee and urges him to be more careful, or he'd be punished by the Duchess of Moldova. Ion quizzically asks why Radu talk to him as a servant, and insists he calls him Ion. The memory ends with Ion calling Radu his "tovarisch." The Baron wakes up and realizes he had been asleep, and the only way he can look Ion in the eye is in his dreams.

appears and Radu affirms that he will follow the Rosenkreuz Orden's goal to start a war between the Vatican and the Empire by making it appear that the Empiral envoy and Vatican Cardinal were killed by a Terran and Methuselah respectively. Dietrich plays on the Baron's guilt and jealousy for Ion, and teases how he must regret joining the Orden. Furious, the Methuselah builds a fire in his palm and threatens Dietrich, but his arm is sliced off by an autojäger. The puppeteer sadistically reveals that his autojägers are methuselah with their frontal lobes removed, reducing them into mindless zombies. Dietrich impales a furious Radu and reminds him that he outranks him in the Orden, and forces him to apologize. The puppeteer gives Radu an ultimatum: kill his best friend, or witness the destruction of the whole city by the hands of The Iblis. With a younger Ion's face in his memories, Radu helplessly agrees. Dietrich leaves, mockingly questioning whether Radu will kill him like he plans to kill Ion. Radu reattaches his arm and sets out, affirming to himself that he is now "nothing but a filthy traitor."

Ion, Esther and Abel escape from the Inquisition after being caught by them again. Esther drives their car erratically, frightening Ion. The Inquisition closes in on them and commands them stop and surrender. Esther takes a sharp turn into a small alley and finally stops. Ion sighs from relief and asks if all the Terrans from outside world drive like this. Esther slows down and slips into her own worries about Abel' injuries. Abel suddenly warns her of the obstacle before them. Brother Petros is there in the middle of the road and attacks them with his Screamer. Esther manages to dodge the attack, but the whole car flips to it's roof. Ion falls unconscious from the hit, while Esther who is caught by Petros. Abel tries to save her, but is quickly defeated due to his injuries sustained earlier from Petros. At that moment, Radu arrives with Goliath, a tank from The Inquisition, claiming he wants Ion's life. Petros is knocked out by a shot from the Goliath, but is still alive. Radu is about to kill Esther, but is stopped when a lightning bolt strikes him. Abel, in his Crusnik form, telepathically draws Ion's blood to him. The tank fires a shot at Abel and rips through his entire right side, but he still stands as his blood and intestines fall onto the floor. The priest's blood begins to consume the chunks of flesh from the floor and then fuse and repair Abel's body. The Krusnik talks though Abel and announce they will eat the terrified Radu. Abel almost kills him but is stopped by the screams of a horrified Esther, clutching Ion in her grasp. Abel tries explain himself, but Esther faints as he wipes a tear from her cheek. Tres Iqus and Iron Maiden arrive to help the trio out, and Abel shields Ion and Esther from the airship's attack with his wings.

After the Ion, Esther and Abel are rescued by the airship, huge sandstorm is seen outside. Abel realizes that it is heading towards northeast, and asks Kate to look for what is in that direction. Kate finds that there is the city of Carthago, where the embassy is and where the Cardinal Caterina Sforza is staying. She also realizes they do not have enough time to evacuate the whole city, to which Tres replies they should only save the Cardinal herself. Petros and Ion are both outraged that Tres did not consider the civilians, and both look away in embarrassment when they realized the two of them agreed on the same thing.

The airship receives a transmission from the Inquisition ship 'Raguel'. Radu shows up on the screen, still alive after the last fight. He is glad to hear that Ion is doing fine, but he tells them he cannot receive any pictures on his airship. Radu informs Ion to give up his life, and in exchange, he would stop the Iblis. Ion is outraged of at what Radu is prepared to do to just for his life. Radu tells them not to bother shooting down his ship, as he is right above the embassy. Ion requests the help of Petros, who is not too keen in helping a vampire. Ion, however, proves his determination by promising that after this all is over, he will allow Petros to kill him. The Knight of Destruction thinks about this and finally accepts, much to the embarrassment of both of them.

Ion, Petros and Tres head down to Carthago to save the civilians, while Abel heads off to stop the to stop Iblis. Ion leaves the two to fight the autojägers and goes and confront Radu. He questions when Radu started hating him, and Radu replies that he has always had. Ion calls him a liar and proclaims he will save him. The two remember a time when they were children as they fight.

The two young Methuselah were in a boat in the ocean when Ion admires the blue light of day, but sadly comments that he will not be able to see the light again after he awakens. Radu informs Ion his mother told him how much the sun hates them is how much they are loved by the moon. It allowed them to live so much longer than the Terrans, meaning they can be around that much longer around the people they cherish. The memory ends with Ion commenting how the sun illuminated Radu's hair, and how Ion believed they would be friends forever.

Back in the current time, Radu questions where they went wrong and why he is remembering all of this. Ion demands to know why Radu would hate him, to which he replies it is because of Ion's noble heritage, favored by the Empress, overshadowing his existence. Ion sees right through this and rebuffs that Radu can fool any other person, but not him. The Count tearfully confesses that if Radu was honest, he would not have saved him from the Inquisition, and it would have been easy for him to kill him during that time. Ion begs his friend to reconsider, pleading with him that he can keep everything a secret, all he wanted was for him to stop The Iblis, and that he did not want to fight anymore. Despite all of this, Radu confesses he cannot turn back as there is no where to turn back to. Ion screams at him, grabs Radu's heart in his hand, and demand him to stop The Iblis. In pain, the Baron admits he cannot stop it, as it was set on motion by someone else.

At that moment they are interrupted by the rising sun. Ion is momentarily captivated by the sunlight as it illuminates Radu's hair the same way it did when they were younger. Alarmed at the revelation that they are exposed, Radu begs for Ion to run. The two start to burn and Radu is shot by Tres and Petros. Petros wraps his coat around Ion to shield the boy from the sun. Distraught at the dying boy, Petros angrily demands Kate to quickly bring the airship closer to them. Petros places Ion down onto the floor and remarks that the truce has ended, now that he has avenged his men, and that he is back to destroying vampires and hunting heretics. He points his screamer at Ion, but does not kill him. Petros turns around and remarks it is a pity that Abel could not stop the Iblis, and that his main priority was to evacuate the civilians of the city. He leaves with a warning that he has saved a comfortable cell for all of them in the Inquisition hall, and one day, he will see every one of them burnt at the stake. Meanwhile, Esther has been able to catch up with Abel. The two of the and stop The Iblis and save the entire city.

As Radu drowns, he has a vision of smiling Ion, and is relieved his friend is may have forgiven him. To his horror, his body is taken by Dietrich von Lohengrin, who sadistically informs him that his agony "will not end with [his] death."

In the preview to "The Night Lords Arc," Radu's body is seen with Dietrich, plugged with cables.

Ion and Hugue de Watteau manage to infiltrate the Methuselah pirate ship to rescue Abel and Esther. The captain is surprised Ion would side with the Terrans, mentioning his own childhood friend - a terran - had sold him out to the Vatican. The boy is briefly reminded of Radu and decapitates the Captain, calling Hugue his comrade. As he dies, the pirate admires the way Ion had worded it, but reminds him not all Methuselah agreed with him. Ion acknowledges this, and is about to collapse from exhaustion while muttering Radu's name, but Hugue manages to catch him.

It is the only place on the ship they haven't searched, because "Ion" has ordered them not to, and by Imperial decree, his order's have the same effect as the words of the Empress.

He orders his navigator and chief sailor to accompany him, when he opens the storeroom, as is protocol. Inside, they find over forty small wooden boxes. Agamemnon notices a bloodstain and removes the floor boards. Below them are the mummified remains of the six missing crew.

Just when he wants to go talk to "Ion," "Abel" appears and wants to stop him. After autojäger jump out of the boxes and kills his men, Agamemnon is attacked and burned to death by "Ion."

Empress of the Night / The Night Lords Arc

The next day, while Astharoshe and Abel are in the Dewan (court), they observe the accusations brought against Ion by Baybars.

Suleyman, Duke of Tigris, defends the count, but Radu appears and confirms the accusations as a witness, much to the shock of Astharoshe and Abel.

Ion and Esther visit the terran side of the Empire. Ion wants to meet Mimal. They get lost on their way, however. At that moment, they run into a young girl named Seth, decides to help them out to find Mimal after they buy some tea from her. When they arrive, Ion lifts Esther onto his arms and jumps into Mimal's office is. To their surprise, Mimal is fatally wounded by an autojäger. Ion disposes of the autojäger and runs over to Mimal, who is confirmed to be still alive by Esther. Mimal apologizes to Ion and states he did not mean to betray him, but he had told the Baron of Luxor about his arrival. Ion is shocked as he had thought Radu was dead. The autojäger, apparently not yet dead yet, attacks the two. Esther jumps to shield Ion from the blow. Ion finally finishes the autojäger, and finds out that Esther had been badly injured. Seth suddenly shows up, asking if they need her help.

Later when Esther wakes up, she finds herself in Seth's apartment with Ion and Seth. Seth brings some tea and food to Esther and asks her how she has been doing. Seth teases Ion by talking about how worried he was to Esther, before reminding him that Methuselah/ Terran marriages are forbidden in the Empire. Seth reveals that she is a medical student, and that Esther is not from the Empire as she had been speaking in Latin and Hungarian in her sleep. Ion tells Esther that Seth is now under the impression that Ion fell in love with Esther and brought her back to his home. Seth assures the two that their Esther's identity as a Terran from the 'outside' is safe with her, if they would promise not to tell anyone that she is really a student. Ion tells Seth to start focusing more on her studies as it is forbidden to work a side job as a student. Seth, not caring much about what Ion has said, asks the boy to go buy some groceries for Esther, or watch as she bandages Esther. Ion finally agrees to go, leaving the two girls alone.

Infuriated that he is doing errands on Seth's orders, Ion makes his way back when when he stops. He tells Abel, Seth's pet squirrel, to go ahead of him, and then he is suddenly attacked by someone. Ion dodges the attack and then retaliates his attacker is much faster than he is. The Count is caught by none other than Radu. Radu reveals his goal is to assassinate the Empress. Ion is shocked that someone would do this to their loving mother who has ruled the New Human Empire for eternity, to which Radu reminds him that if that were true, she is neither Methuselah nor Terran. The Orden is going to renew whole planet after killing Augusta Vradica. Radu notices how Ion was worried for Esther, and he reveals to Ion that her family was killed by vampires. Surprised to learn that she had not told this to him, Ion refuses to believe him. Radu is about to kill him when Astharoshe and Abel, with Seth's squirrel, saves him. Radu escapes into the night while Ion tells to Astharoshe and Abel what Radu is planning.

Everyone returns back to Astharoshe's mansion to plan their next move. Abel is out trying to find Radu while Esther, Ion and Astharoshe talk. Esther realizes that Radu is not allowing Ion to grieve for his grandmother. Both women notice Ion acting strange, and Ion keeps asking if they have found Radu. Esther is sceptical that Radu to appear tonight at his grandmother's funeral, as there were so many nobles present. Ion argues that this is the only chance for Radu, as now he is certain where the Empress will be. Astharoshe's steward shows up, apologizing for being unable to find Radu. Asthe thinks he might be somewhere they haven't searched, and so she decides to go and see Süleyman, who was in charge of arranging the funeral. Astharoshe takes Abel with her and orders Ion and Esther to stay behind, as Esther had not recovered and Ion is a wanted man. Esther tries to stop Ion as he is about to search for Radu, but he confronts her past. He asks her why she would care and why she hasn't told to him about Bishop Vitez. He leaves before Esther can reply.

Ion arrives at The Island of Beloved Children, where all the funeral is being held, to look for Radu. Ion is shocked to see the Baron escorting the Empress. Ion tries to think of something, but Radu provokes him by mouthing that he will kill the Empress. Ion panics and attacks Radu. Baybars tries to intervene, but Ion quickly dodges and charges at Radu. Radu surprises him by stopping him with his own blow, revealing to Ion that he had planned for Ion to look like the culprit behind the Empress' death. Radu is about to kill the boy when his body freezes, the voice of the real Radu come through and tells Ion to quickly escape and to save Empress from imminent death. Radu is soon taken back under control, however, and poised to kill Ion. The blade is suddenly shattered by Esther's bullet, but Baybars knocks her out. Radu resumes his task to Ion, but then he is interrupted by Empress Augusta Vradica herself, who says that she has many things she wants to ask Ion. Radu having no other choice but to allow Ion and Esther to be incarcerated.

While the two are in prison, Ion apologises for getting the them into this mess. He still thinks that Esther must hate him for it being Methuselah. Esther tells to the Earl, however, that she doesn't hate him, he wasn't the one who killed her family. Their discussion is interrupted by Radu, who Ion finally recognises as someone else. Radu íntroduces himself as Dietrich, who Esther knows. Esther is shocked and she warns Ion about his wires, but it is too late. Dietrich cuts a vein from Ion's neck, sending him in the state of uncontrollable hunger. Ion grabs Esther's and is about to drain her dry. For his own amusement, Dietrich throws a silver knife towards Esther for her to use to kill him. He leaves the two of them with a sadistic smile.

Ion and Esther make their way to the meeting hall. Süleyman orders the Yenceri to capture them, but they are stopped by Augusta Vradica, who is alive and survived the explosion. It turns out the Empress used a double: Mirka Fortuna, Ion's grandmother. The Empress reveals it was all just a set up to root out the extremists inside the Empire. The real Empress reveals herself to be Seth, the tea seller Ion and Esther met earlier. Ion is speechless. Süleyman does not take this well and aims with the ring at Seth to kill her, but purpously misses her, and is quickly killed by Astharoshe. Seth asks where Abel is, Esther replies that he went after the Radu, possessed by Dietrich from the Rozenkreuz Orden. Seth realizes that the are in her room and knows what they are after.

Dietrich, in Radu's body, is confronted by Abel. Abel demands that Dietrich leave the console, a it will bring disaster. Dietrich slyly informs "Crusnik 02" that he knew he had used this device in the past, When Dietrich realizes he cannot leave with the reboot file, a fight ensues between the two.

Dietrich provokes Abel to attack him by mentioning he is suppose to be just like the enemy of the world. Furious at the mention of Cain and the reminder of Lilith's brutal murder, Radu's heart, but the possessed baron stands back up. Dietrich explains that he had tuned Radu to the point where he does not only secrete napalm fluid from his palms, but his blood is incendiary as well. Esther and Astharoshe arrive and try to save Abel, but Dietrich easily defeats Astharoshe. Abel attempts to activate his Crusnik power as Dietrich threatens Esther, but collapses due to lack of Methuselah blood in his system.

Radu dies.

Just as Abel, Esther and Astharoshe is about to lose the battle with Dietrich, Seth shows up at the scene. Dietrich quickly realizes that she is the Empress Augusta Vradica and tries to kill her, but Seth transforms into her Krusnikform. Seth uses her highly focused ultrasound energy to turn Radu's body into dust. Seth tells Dietrich that she will let him off the hook this time, but the next time they meet she, would deliver his end. She tells Dietrich to run to the furthest corner of the Earth as she will catch him and punish him for hurting Ion, Süleyman and Radu, her children. Radu is dissolved into salt. Meanwhile, Ion is left behind on his own because of his injured leg. He does senses Radu's death but does not make it to there in time to see his friend for one last time .

Later on, Esther finds Ion is sitting on a ledge while looking at the sea. Relieved that he was not crying, Esther brings him a blanket and the two talk. Esther manages again to cheer up the Earl, who has found new motivation and is planning to become stronger. He says that when that time comes, he will ask her again if she wants to stay with him in the Empire. Esther says that she will be waiting for that then. After she leaves, Ion stands up and holds out a pile of ash, the remains of his friend, Radu. He welcomes Radu home, and scatters his tovarish's ashes into the sky towards the sea, tells him he love him and apologizes. Radu's spirit is seen replying that he loves him as well, and forgives his tovarisch. Ion cries, unable to comprehend why his tovarisch had to die.

Anime

Radu makes his initial appearance in "The Iblis I. Evening Visitors" episode 12 with Ion as an Imperial envoy charged with delivering a letter to Cardinal Sforza. When Ion was shot by Father Tres with a silver bullet, he comforts his comrade and treats Ion's injury, extracting the bullet and then gently licking Ion's wound.

Radu betrays Ion and attempts to arrange Ion's assassination in such a way that the Vatican will be framed for Ion's death. He ultimately fails in his endeavour, and dies after being exposed and burned by sunlight.

Later, under the direction of the Dietrich, Radu's body is resurrected with artificial blood and skin; Dietrich uses the reanimated Radu to allow the Rosenkruez order to assist the Duke of Tigris with the plot to assassinate Empress Augusta Vradica. Radu is sent before the nobles in court where he openly accuses Ion of plotting treason against the Empire. Despite being under Dietrich's control, enough of Radu's spirit remains that he displays reluctance to kill Ion while on the Island of Beloved Children. After the failure of the Duke of Tigris and his conspirators to kill the Empress, Radu is sent by Dietrich to locate a secret weapon buried within the borders of the Empire. Radu successfully acquires critical information on the machine, but is confronted by Abel Nightroad in his crusnik form before he can leave. Radu gains the upper hand in this battle after disabling Nightroad, at which point Seth arrives. Dietrich's attempt to overpower the Empress using Radu fails after Seth activates her Crusnik form, at which point Radu is finally finished off by Seth when she uses her Fire of Sound technique, which causes Radu's body to physically dissolve into salt.

Radu: You and I were made for each other Nicole.

Nicole: In your fucking dreams fuckwad!

?: Now that is not nice.

We then saw another figure come out and it was CAIN KNIGHTLORD!

---

Cain Knightlord is Krusnik 01, also referred as Contra Mundi by Rosenkreuz Orden, is the main antagonist of the series. He is the leader of Rosencreutz Orden and the older twin brother of Abel Nightroad.

Cain is oldest of the four genetically-enhanced test-tube babies, and was made from the same genetic source material as Abel Nightroad. He was once the gentle, beloved leader of the Mars Colonization Project, ranked Colonel, and appeared to be both a model administrator and an exceedingly kind, gentle man. However, like Abel, he harbored a great deal of hatred towards humanity in general for creating him and his siblings to be disposable people for the Red Mars Project. Unlike Abel (Cain's younger twin brother), Cain managed to keep his resentment an almost complete secret, and only those who were closest to him ever received any hints of his hatred.

Decades after the colonists went to Mars, Abel and Lilith Sahl accidentally discovered the Ark, an alien spacecraft with numerous extraterrestrial corpses on board it. A monumentally important scientific find, the ship and it's deceased inhabitants were examined thoroughly, and it was discovered that many of them were possessed life-extending bacillus within their bodies. The colonists came to call these Bacillus Kudlak, and found that they drastically enhanced their own physical capabilities and lifespans. However, another form of bacillus was found on the craft as well, which came to be called bacillus Crusnik by the colonists. These were in fact nanomachines however, could not be integrated into any of the normal colonists without killing them. One day, Cain and a normal colonizer was injured in an accident while at work. The explosion mortally wounded both men, leading Seth Nightlord to inject both of them with the Crusnik nanomachines out of desperation. The process, as she had feared, killed both of them. However, Cain was revived from the dead shortly thereafter. Unbeknownst to everyone else, the Crusnik Bacillus had fused with Cain's mind, but Cain, or Crusnik 01 as he now thought of himself, was apparently able to hide his newly deranged personality from even his siblings.

Back on Earth, the nations of the world had gone to war, resulting in Armageddon. Cain, decided to return to Earth, ostensibly to aid in the reconstruction of Earth. The colonists, now Methuselah, built a duplicate of the Ark and returned to Earth, but conflict broke out between them and the humans due to their vampiric nature. Cain, as well as a newly Crusnik-fused Abel and Seth, joined the war and took the side of the colonizers (or "Returners"). While Abel and Seth wanted to purge the world of all normal humans, Cain, having been fused completely with his nanomachines, wished to eradicate all life on the planet in accordance with the destructive nature of the Krusnik which, unbeknownst to anyone on Earth, had originally been created as a weapon of mass destruction.

Lilith Sahl, who had also fused with the Krusnik nanomachines, took to the side of the humans after witnessing the atrocities committed by the other three Krusnik. She supplied the humans with the technology to combat the Returners, and took command of their military. During one crucial battle, she managed to defeat a Methuselah army led by Cain, Abel and Seth in Paris. Due to Lilith's influence, Abel had begun to question his reasons for fighting, and by the time of the battle at Paris, was decidedly conflicted about his actions. Cain, his affection for his brother perversely twisted by his madness, came to believe that Lilith's actions were causing Abel undue suffering, and decided that she had to be eliminated both for Abel's sake and for the sake of the war effort. In light of this, Cain offered Lilith a truce. He invited her to the Ark to meet with him to discuss terms, but was in fact simply attempting to lure her into a trap. Once she reached the Ark, Cain engaged her with the express intent of killing her. Though only fused at 80% with her nanomachines, Lilith put up enough of a struggle to gravely wound Cain. In the end however, it was not enough, and Cain decapitated her and took her nanomachines. After the deed was done, he then presented her severed head to Abel, believing in his twisted state of mind that killing her would make Abel happy. Instead, his actions enraged Abel, and he and Seth pushed Cain out of an airlock on the Ark. Whether or not there was any kind of struggle in doing so is unknown, but Cain later described the incident as "a big fight he had with his brother a long time ago". Cain plummeted through the atmosphere and was reduced to mere ashes. Over the centuries since the incident, his nanomachines were able to reconstruct his body, but it had been so thoroughly destroyed during his fall that his genetic material had become unstable. As a result, he found himself unable to hold himself together over long periods of time. Even worse however was the fact that his partially regenerated body was not able to handle stress very well, and any meaningful exertion of energy, such as using his Krusnik powers, drastically decreased the amount of time he could hold himself together for. Additionally, even his reformed body did not regenerate completely, and he was left with a large hold in his abdomen that apparently never heals over but also appears not to bother him in any significant way.

Nine hundred years later, Cain would meet Isaak and take control of a terrorist organization known as the Rosenkreuz Orden; a small, insignificant group in Berlin that consisted of enemies of the Vatican. Through Cain and Isaak's charisma and power, the Orden grew into the world's leading terrorist organization, and adopted the motto of " igne natura, renovatur integra " ("through fire, nature is reborn whole"). The stated goal of the Orden is essentially to destroy human civilization in its current form and create a new, superior world from the ashes of the old order. However, Cain's ultimate goal of simply eradicating all life on Earth has not changed, and it is unknown if any of the other members of the Orden know of his omnicidal plans.

Manga The Iblis/ Angel of the Burning Sands Arc

Cain is first seen in Abel Nightroad's flashback while he is under Carthago, during which he remembers Cain warning him that he will soon make an enemy out of the world.

Empress of the Night/ The Night Lords Arc

When Dietrich von Lohengrin mentions Cain to Abel Nightroad, Abel is enraged as he remembers Cain holding Lilith's decapitated head in his hand. At the end of this story arc, Seth Nightlord mentions to Abel that Cain has survived the fall and has regenerated. Stunned at this new revelation, Abel sets out to kill him.

Cain's first appearance outside of flashbacks is brief, as he appears without clothes and holds Dietrich still as Isaak Fernand von Kämpfer almost puts out his cigar into the boy's eye. After Dietrich collapses from fear, Isaak and Cain hold a brief discussion, in which he expresses joy at hearing his brother is doing well.

The Throne of Roses Arc

Soon after the events of the Night Lords arc, Cain journeys to Albion hoping to gain access to the genetics research facility where Abel was created. Unable to find a conventional solution to the problem of keeping his body intact, he hoped to retrieve the genetic blueprint used to create both he and Abel Nightroad and use it to fully reconstitute himself. While randomly wandering through Albion's streets one night, he happened upon Esther Blanchett while she was being harassed by a reporter named Clement. When Cain gently suggests that Clement should leave Esther alone, Clement grabs Cain's wrist and begins threatening him. However, Cain's apparently uncoordinated flailing sets off a chain of small, seemingly unrelated accidentals that result in Clement being chased off by an angry restaurant owner. With Clement gone, Cain exuberantly praises Esther for helping him, though all that happened was that Cain hid behind her for a few moments before Clement was chased off. Though annoyed at Cain's mannerisms, Esther agrees to help him look for his hotel after he provides her with the map that he was presumably using to navigate. However, once she takes possession of it, she discovers that it is actually a map of the world rather than of Albion, and crumples it up in agitation. She then asks him what the name of hotel that he is staying at it, only for Cain to reveal that he has no idea. Infuriated, Esther stalks off with Cain following her, behaving in an embarrassingly cheery manner. After a short while, Esther resorts to shouting at him to leave her be, when she is recognized by Isaak posing as the Albion gentleman Isaak Butler . Having met him on a number of occasions, Esther amicably chats with him for a short time before he reveals that he is looking for someone. That someone turns out to be Cain himself, who excitedly introduces Esther to Isaak as a friend of his. Cain then suggests to Esther that she hitch a ride with he and Isaak to the palace. Though she doesn't want to impose, Isaak insists that she obey Cain's suggestion, informing her that the palace is on the way to the hotel that Cain is staying at. Though not looking forward to Cain's continued company, Esther accepts Cain's offer, and asks him what his name is. Seemingly a bit surprised that he had forgotten to introduce himself, he tells her that his name is simply Cain. Esther is later shown to have arrived back at the palace without incident.

Cain next appears with Mr. Butler when Esther and Pope Alessandro XVIII are buying fish and chips from a city vendor. Complaining loudly about the poor quality of the food, Cain suddenly recognizes Esther and exuberantly greets her, promising to tell her all about how fish and chips should properly be made and eaten. Cain takes Esther's fish and chips from her grasp and throws it away, infuriating Esther, before getting his own and adding an extraordinary amount of salt and vinegar to it. As Esther looks to the fish and chips that Cain had just thrown away, she is stunned to find a cat who had just died after consuming it. Realizing his plan had been foiled, Sweeney Todd tries to shoot Esther, only to be interrupted by an underwater explosion.

When Abel is recuperating from an attack in the underground Ghetto of Albion, he remembers that he had been here in his youth, locked up and shackled. A young Lilith Sahl questions why he would have tried to activate "that thing" in B-VI, and asserts that had he thought his actions might have destroyed Albion, he would not have done what he tried to do. Abel denies this, stating that was precisely why he wanted to activate it. Abel appears to be delighted at the idea of killing everyone there. Lilith tries to reason that those people were also human like them, but to no avail.

A young Cain then reminds Abel that killing a few humans will do nothing, as it will only make them look like "defunct products" and make things worse for them in the future. Abel questions how people like them, who were created to be sent to "the ends of the Earth" could possibly have a future. Cain responds that he himself is very happy to be born into this world with a purpose, and that there is nothing more blissful than that.

Abel struggles to understand how he can live a life dictated by others locate him, to which Cain responds that it is up to Abel to decide how to live his life. Cain elaborates that it doesn't matter where he lives, as long as Abel has a will, he can shape his own future. The flashback ends with Cain questioning Abel what kind of future he hopes for.

Cain later shows when Esther is about to be killed in the underground Methuselah Ghetto by Jack the Ripper and Sweeney Todd. Cain throws his roses at them, injuring one of the assassins. Jack the Ripper throws knives at Cain and Esther, but all of his weapons are mysteriously reflected back at him. After both of them flee, Esther collapses into Cain's arms, insisting they find Abel, who had gone off to stop Vanessa from activating the B-VI. Cain quietly agrees.

Abel is about to kill Isaak when Cain calls out to him. Crying, Cain speaks of how glad he is to see his brother again, and apologizes for leaving him for so long, and promises he would not leave him alone again. The shock of seeing Cain reminds Abel of how he killed Lilith. Enraged, Abel lunges at Cain, but is decapitated in the process. Cain holds Abel's decapitated body fondly while Esther watches, horrified.

The Crown of Thorns Arc

Cain appears in Esther Blanchett's flashback when Esther had fired several rounds into Isaak Fernand von Kämpfer and Cain, but Cain's body remains unscathed. However, his clothes are damaged, which reveals a large hole in his torso body, which he explains it was a burn sustained a long time ago. Disappointed that Isaak could not recover the DNA blueprint, the key to restoring his body, Cain realizes he could just use Abel's body instead. Cain offers to buy food for Esther when they return to the surface, and tries to grab Abel Nightroad's body, but the Krusnik 02's body deflects back with a hold of lightning. Cain and Isaak leaves as his body begins to crumble, but not before warning Esther that things will be difficult from then on, and makes her promise him that she will not cry or give up.

Cain is next seen talking to Isaak while he is in his regeneration chamber. Cain asks him whether he thought Esther would like his present, and while Cain appears hopeful, Isaak seems skeptical that she would like her new status. Isaak questions Abel's status, and Cain confirms he is dead. Isaak appears to be disappointed that Cain and Abel had not been able to talk, to which Cain argues in a carefree and comical manner that he had simply gotten scared when Abel lunged at him. Their new problem, however, was now transporting Abel's body to their location, considering the only two people who can approach the body would be their sister and Cain himself. Disappointed that he cannot leave the regeneration chamber for another twelve hours, Cain begins to worry that the Vatican will move Abel's body back to Rome. Isaak suggests he will to the the city to buy them some time, explaining that he had stumbled upon something interesting the night before, which he can use to bring Abel's body next to Cain's. Just as Isaak is about to leave, Cain asks him to bring him some fish and chips with extra salt and vinegar for breakfast.

Anime

Cain's background is stated in the anime DVD booklets as follows:

He is a Colonel in the Alliance Aerospace Navy, and the General Supervisor of the Mars Colonization Project's Administration; his ID Number is UNASF94-8-RMOC-666-01-ck. The eldest of the Nightroad siblings, who were artificially created as test subjects for the Mars settlement project, and the first "Crusnik". Seems to be unusually gentle and thoughtful person, and a popular director, but deep within his heart lies a profound anger and hatred for the whole of humanity.

In the series, Cain is first shown in Abel Nightroad's flashbacks as Cain is seen holding Lilith Sahl's decapitated head and Cain is also shown in Abel's flashback when they were children.

Later, Cain leads the Rosencreutz Orden on an attack of Albion and the two brothers have their first clash. Cain kills Abel with relative ease while Abel is distracted by Esther Blanchett who stumbled upon them. Realizing Abel had destroyed the control panels of the rocket, he plans to merge himself with Abel's body to get the access codes from Abel's memory. However, Abel is revived with Lilith's nanomachines thanks to Cardinal Caterina Sforza and Hercules

Tres Iqus. This puts Abel at the same power level as Cain and their next clash ends in a draw. Accompanied by Ion Fortuna, Abel has pledged to hunt Cain for eternity, if need be, until he is destroyed.

---

Me: Cain Knightlord!

Cain: Its been a while J.D.

Me: You are now part of the the Masters of Evil?!

Vypra then appeared.

Vypra: It's all right J.D. I had Dark correct the flaws in Cain's nanomachines to make him one of us.

Nico: Whoa that's neat.

Me: Hmm.

I turned on my Data Eyes and I saw that she was right and that the Nanomachines in Cain have all been reconfigured.

Me: Wow! You guys did a good job.

Cain: And I would like to say that I found my archenemy. I am going to be Loviya's archenemy.

Nico: Wow! Angel VS Crusnik. Very awesome setup.

?: I will destroy you all for what you did to Lord Ganondorf!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Link: I was hoping never to hear that voice ever again. You can come out now, Zant.

A figure came out from the shadows, and he was none other than

Zant, the infamous Usurper King and puppet of Ganondorf.

Me: So, another of Ganondorf's minions has arrived at last. Perfect, that saved us the trouble of hunting you down in the future.

Nico: Link, can you tell us about Zant? You know more about him than the rest of us.

Link: Of course, Commander Nico.

Link proceeded to tell us the history of Zant, and we weren't going to like it.

---

Zant

Zant, also known as the Usurper King, is the central antagonist of The Legend of Zelda: Twilight Princess.

He is the self-proclaimed King of Twilight, although Midna claims he is the King of Shadows. He is a scourge and enemy of Twili who usurps the throne of the Twilight Realm from Midna before the events of Twilight Princess. He is an extremely powerful sorcerer, Ganondorf's subordinate in the Light World and Midna's archenemy.

He was voiced by Junji Kitajima in Twilight Princess and Masashi Tamaki in the Hyrule Warriors series.

Biography

This biography of Zant is organized into the latest "official Zelda timeline", this may change completely in the future as the timeline given is merely meant as an example, and there have been official timelines before it.

Child Timeline

This is the timeline where Link was sent back to the past and was able to warn the Royal Family of Ganondorf's treachery, leading to the events of Twilight Princess' backstory.

The Legend of Zelda: Twilight Princess

Zant is a scourge and foe of the Twili race, and is the self-proclaimed ruler of the Twilight which engulfs much of Hyrule during Twilight Princess. He is portrayed as the central antagonist throughout the game and possesses powers beyond Link's comprehension. There are multiple ways of defeating Zant, the first suspected way being the use of the Fused Shadows. When Zant steals these away from Midna and returns her to the World of Light, the only option left to reach and defeat Zant is to find the Mirror of Twilight which will grant access into the Twilight Realm.

Personality

Zant has a great lust for power. This is why he was initially denied the position of king in the Twilight Realm, as well as why he accepted Ganondorf's offer in exchange to return him to the light. During his reign, Zant was for the most part calm, collected and somewhat polite. However, when cornered, he reveals himself to be very immature and psychotic. This is seen when he makes very strange and erratic movements like jumping on the floor and speaking with a strange high voice. A flashback reveals it was his true self from the beginning, such as when he slammed his head against the floor for being denied the throne.

Another aspect of this character is his extreme arrogance, exemplified when he curses Midna instead of just killing her, and later, when he sics Stallord on Link and leaves without waiting to see if the creature is victorious. He harbors a strong hatred for the light-worlders because his ancestors were exiled to the Twilight a long time ago. Ironically, however, much of the reason he managed to usurp royalty and almost take over the light world was because of a light-worlder, which made him somewhat hypocritical, which was confirmed when he called Midna a traitor despite being the one who usurped the throne from Midna. Zant was also delusional, claiming he did all this for the good of his people, believing that he and the Twili have been oppressed and banished from what he considers their kingdom and aspired to take it back. However, the truth is he only did this to satiate his hunger for power and get revenge against the light-worlders for sealing his ancestors in the Twilight since he belied they, or more specifically he, deserved more than that. He also held a grudge toward his own people because they denied him the power to rule. There's also the fact that he forcefully turned many of them, who were otherwise peaceful individuals, into mindless Shadow Beasts to serve him, which further cements that he only truly cares about himself and had little-to-no concern for their wellbeing.

When Link was finished, we were horrified about the dark history of Zant, he was indeed a treacherous power-hungry bastard.

Me: What a power-hungry bastard.

Nico: You said it, Colonel, and what's worse, he tried to mix the light worlds and the dark worlds, that's what I call a serious case of "messing with the balance."

Deepak Dalmatian: What?! Messing with the balance between light and darkness for his own selfish ambitions and also for Ganondorf. That's it, I've had it up to hear with this evil monster to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Deepak Dalmatian's eyes turned neon blue and he was surrounded by an energy aura of Light and Darkness, along with the elemental forces of Fire, Water, Earth, and Wind, he unholstered his Defender of Camden Town sword from his back, and as he walked towards Zant, he left light and dark energy, along with fire, water, earth, and wind with every step.

Deepak Dalmatian: Zant, your attempts to mix the light and dark worlds for your selfish ambitions, along with those of Ganondorf, can never be forgiven. You made a big mistake messing with the eternal balance of light and darkness, and for that, you will die!

Suddenly, Deepak Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of light and dark energy, along with white and black fire around the vortex. There were four dragons circling around the vortex, each representing the forces of Fire, Water, Earth, and Wind, and there was a black phoenix inside of the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Deepak Dalmatian emerged, but he was changed forever.

Deepak Dalmatian grew up to 6'10" in height, he now had the body of a hunk with large and powerful muscles and eight pack abs, he now had a full head of black hair going down to his neck, he has neon blue eyes and a light and dark energy aura with the forces of Fire, Water, Wind, and Earth around the massive Dalmatian, and his black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. The Yin-Yang patterned Dalmatian had a dragon with a yin-yang symbol with the forces of Fire, Water, Wind, and Earth around it in its claws emblazoned on his forehead, he had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered from his back, he had on dragon earrings with the Peace Kanji in its claws, his red and blue Yin-Yang patterned collar turned into a choker for his neck, he had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Peace Kanji in its claws, he now has on a black tank top with a red phoenix, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long black trenchcoat with a red dragon and elemental forces on the back. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on his wrists and Belt of Elemental Bravery with large blue gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in red that said, "Deepak Dalmatian, Master of Light, Darkness, and The Elemental Forces, Loyal Disciple of Guru Miaow, Loving Son of Delilah and Doug Dalmatian, and Loving Brother of 98 Siblings."

ディーパックダルメシアン、光、闇、エレメンタルフォースのマスター、グルミアオの忠実な弟子、デリラとダグダルメシアンの愛する息子、九十八人の兄弟の愛する兄弟

Deepak Dalmatian has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 ELEMENTAL TWILIGHT DALMATIAN ANGEL OF PEACE!

We were amazed by Deepak Dalmatian's transformation, and to someone like Zant, it means major-league big trouble.

Me: Whoa, Deepak has become the next one to transform.

Nico: You said it, Colonel. Deepak has indeed become an Angel of Twilight. (To Deepak Dalmatian) How do you feel, Deepak?

Deepak Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Twilight Voice of Peace) I feel incredible, Commander Nico, and now, I shall administer this usurper's punishment for messing with the balance of light and darkness.

?: Don't start without us.

2 more figures came out and they were CRAZYBOLT & SLICEDICE!

Nico: Crazybolt and Slicedice!

Crazybolt: Nice to finally meet you Nico.

Slicedice: We wanted to meet the Leader of The Decepticons before we have fun with one of you.

Nico: Glad to meet you too.

Jake the Dog: Yeah that was nuts! Especially after how Abel was trying to kill him.

Princess Bubblegum: Boy that is so strange. Abel Nightroad and Cain Knightlord. That is so strange.

Lori: That's literally amazing and so cool.

Rainbow Dash: It's awesome. 2 Amazing Angels in our team.

Over in the city of Haplessville, me and Bhavna Radhakrishnan the Xerneas Gene-Slammer were in front of R.I.P.C.O.T. the home city of The Ripping Friends.

Bhavna Radhakrishnan: (Indian Accent) Too bad the Ripping Friends aren't with us.

Bhavna concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: That's okay. But at least we get to see what their awesome city R.I.P.C.O.T. is like.

She turned into XERNEAS!

Me: Yeah!

We walked around R.I.P.C.O.T. and it was an amazing city.

Me: Wow! The Ripping Friends home base is REALLY amazing!

Me: It means the R eally I mpressive P rototype C ity O f next T uesday.

Bhavna Xerneas: Wow! This is so cool!

We saw that it had amazing technology that looked like it was from the year 6,230 and it was amazing. We also saw that Chunk had amazing collection of awesome comic books.

Bhavna Xerneas: Wow! Look at all of Chunk's comics.

Me: He has more comics than Lincoln or Clyde do. I'm impressed.

We walked around and saw that their laboratories were amazing and the technology being used by the Ripping Friends was amazing.

Me: Wow the technology that the Ripping Friends all use is amazing.

We went to their computers and we saw that they have an amazing number of files on many kinds of Superheroes.

Me: Wow look at all these heroes. Pooperman, Batbutt Bushbaby, The Indescribable Descrambler, The Unfathomable Dr. Mongoose, The Unpronounceable Yolk Smasher, The Southern Fried Finger Licker, wow look at these guys.

Bhavna Xerneas: Funny names.

Me: Yep. Lets beam R.I.P.C.O.T. to the World Tree Estate and then go after one of the Ripping Friends Enemies.

I did so and we went after The Ovulator. Along the way we met a Holstaur or Cow Minotaur named Cira and a Hitmonchan Gene-Slammer named Abby "Buttsmasher" Llores and she is a deadly fighter. The deadliest fighter in boxing. She is known for smashing Deirdre Jackson's pelvis into dust and crippling her for life. We then smashed the Ovulator all over and knocked him out and then I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and abby reverted back and she was naked.

Bhavna reverted back too.

Bhavna was human again. But naked.

Bhanva: (covers herself) Abby, I bet you can kick some serious ass!

Abby Lorres: (Covers herself) You bet I can! I'm not called the Buttsmasher for nothing. I'm called that because I can punch people in their crotches and shatter their butts into bloody pulp.

Me: WHOA! That is brutal.

I gave Bhavna and Abby new clothes and they put them on.

Cira: That is amazing and impressive. But what will we do with the Ovulator here?

Me: I think I have a good idea. Ed will love him as a pet.

We laughed.

We went back home and sure enough, Ed was loving him.

Ed: HUG A CHICKEN, HUG A CHICKEN, HUG A CHICKEN, HUG A CHICKEN!

Ovulator: Let me go you big doofus!

Ed: PET THE CHICKEN! PET THE CHICKEN!

After our rescue in the world of The Ripping Friends, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Azulongmon, and Nunnally were heading to the world of the 2007 movie Battle for Terra, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eighteen girls located here, but we're also going to help Mala, Stewart, and Senn deal with General Hemmer.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 2007 movie Battle for Terra, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the eighteen girls located here, but we're also going to help Mala, Stewart, and Senn deal with General Hemmer.

---

Mala (Evan Rachel Wood) and her friend Senn (Justin Long) are young creatures of an alien race that inhabits Terra, a peaceful, near Earth-like planet that is part of a star system in the Milky Way galaxy, and have a rich semi-advanced culture.

One day a large, mysterious object partially blocks the Terrian sun, piquing the Terrians' interest. However, since the Terrian culture bans the development of new technologies, such as telescopes, without the approval of the ruling council, none of the inhabitants are able to get a closer look at the object in their sky.

Mala, who is inventive and headstrong, goes against the rules of her community and creates a telescope, which she takes out into the dark empty area outside the Terrian city and uses to view the object and witnesses smaller objects coming from the large object. Coming down to the city, the small objects are revealed to be some kind of incoming scout spaceships. The scout spaceships fly through the city, and by the time Mala gets back there they have already begun abducting Terrians (with some willingly offering themselves to the scout spaceships mistaking them as their new "gods").

After Mala's handicapped father, Roven (Dennis Quaid), is abducted she goads a ship into tailing her and lures it into a trap, which causes it to crash. Afterward, she saves the life of the pilot, revealed to be a human, an officer named Lieutenant James "Jim" Stanton (Luke Wilson). After his personal robot assistant named Giddy (David Cross) warns Mala that Jim will die without a supply of oxygen (which the Terrian atmosphere does not contain), she creates an oxygen generator and fills a tent with oxygen so that Jim can breathe, and eventually convinces Giddy to teach her human language. Giddy informs Mala that the mysterious object is a generation ship called The Ark, containing humans from Earth.

Giddy tells Mala that centuries beforehand, both Mars and Venus were terraformed by humans and colonized due to the consumption of natural resources. But 200 years later, the two planets demanded independence from Earth, which the Earth government refused to grant to them due to the high demand of resources from the two colonies. This dispute eventually escalated into a violent interplanetary war that rendered all three planets uninhabitable. The remnants of the human race traveled for several generations in the Ark across space looking for a new home, before they arrived at Terra, and gave it its name. When Jim awakes, he learns from Giddy he has no means of calling for help and a crucial part of the ship was damaged beyond repair in the crash. Mala agrees to make a replacement part, so that she can go with Jim to save Roven. When Mala, Jim, and Giddy return to the crash site, they discover the ship has been moved.

The trio track the ship to a huge secret underground military facility which was built by a previous, warlike generation of the Terrians. The trio realizes that despite the current peaceful nature of the Terrian's city, the elders and wise leader Doron (James Garner) of the council have secretly retained the military technology from the dark days of war (realizing Mala and Jim's species do have things in common). After infiltrating the facility, fixing the ship and flying back to the Ark, Jim orders Mala to stay hidden and goes to be debriefed.

Impatient, Mala ventures off, meanwhile, the commander of the military wing of the Ark, General Hemmer (Brian Cox), takes power over the civilian leaders in a coup, and declares war on Terra, citing the deteriorating condition of the Ark. Then, after Mala finds Roven in a room where the humans are studying the captured Terrians, and when she was about rescue him, human guards are alerted to her presence. Trying to save Mala, Roven sacrifices himself and two guards after breaching the hull. Hemmer tells Jim his goal is to annihilate the Terrians so the humans can turn Terra into the new Earth by dropping a huge machine onto the planet's surface-called the Terraformer-which will create an Earth-like atmosphere. To set the example to Jim's loyalty, Hemmer puts Mala and his younger brother, Stewart (Chris Evans) inside of a chamber with Terrian atmosphere. Hemmer tells Jim if he presses a button, the room will fill with oxygen, and thus he cannot save one without killing the other. Jim saves Stewart, but secretly also saves and helps Mala escape back to Terra with Giddy (who Jim orders to protect Mala at all costs). Hemmer orders Jim to be in the first group of space-fighters designated by Hemmer to defend the Terraformer, while Hemmer will go down to the planet's surface in the Terraformer to personally supervise the terraforming process.

Doron and the Terrian elders give the order to have Terrians use the military technology from their base for the reason that they had kept it all secret, but intact, and Terrian glider-fighters led by Mala (accompanied by Giddy, still acting under Jim's orders to protect her by helping her saving the Terrians), attack the human ships, beginning a huge battle. After the humans drop the Terraformer onto the surface, it begins replacing the native gases with oxygen and nitrogen, which will asphyxiate the aliens.

Finally, as the Terraformer is close to completing its objective, Jim realizes that annihilating the Terrians is morally wrong, and also by seeing an angered Mala and Stewart fighting each other (after Stewart shot down Senn, who's also part of the Terrian resistance) and turns his ship towards the Terraformer and attacks it. As his ship is damaged with anti-aircraft defensive fire, Jim fires his air-to-air missiles at the Terraformer's command module, destroying it, and killing a disappointed, betrayed Hemmer. While Mala, Giddy and Stewart barely escape the resulting explosion, Jim's ship is destroyed in it and he dies peacefully, knowing he did the right thing.

An epilogue shows what happened in Terra some time later. The Terrians and the humans agree to live in peace. With the Terraformer destroyed, the Terrian atmosphere becomes safe once again for the aliens. The Terrians create a sanctuary for the human colonists to live in, with an Earth-like atmosphere. In the human sanctuary, a large statue of Jim is under construction, in honor of his memory and sacrifice, much to Mala, Senn (who had survived Stewart's attack), Giddy and Stewart's comfort.

Me: You said it, big guy, and I saw this movie long ago, it was one of my favorites.

Nico: Me too.

Eli: But, what General Hemmer was doing is wrong, this guy is a disgrace to the military, so we'll be doing the right thing and get rid of him for good. But, I can't help but get the feeling that some of the girls here are those we know.

Nunnally: Same here, Eli.

General Hemmer

General Hemmer is the commanding officer of the Ark and the main antagonist of the 2007 sci-fi film Battle for Terra .

He was voiced by Brian Cox.

Biography

Hemmer, along with everyone else living on the spaceship called the Ark, is looking for a new planet to colonize after a war between the colonies on the planets of Earth, Venus, and Mars lead to the destruction of all three planets. With the ship only having two months left of oxygen, Hemmer is tired of spending his whole life on the Ark and proposes a plan to forcefully colonize a new planet, regardless of what life already exists on the planet.

Hemmer was first seen on the Ark arguing with President Chen and the council about the rising conflicts between the humans and the Terrians of Terra and proposes war on the aliens. When the council place his commotions under vote, Hemmer feels angered and tells Jim and Stewart Stanton he plans to take his own hands into matter should the tension come. Jim tries to reason with his official by saying that the Terrians are not as evil as Hemmer believes them to be.

Meanwhile, Mala, a Terrian that Jim befriended after she saved his life from the planet's poisonous atmosphere, sneaks on-board the Ark in search for her father, Rover, who was one of the many Terrians captured for scientific research. When she is spotted, Rover sacrifices his life to save his daughter and blasts an airlock open, killing him and two human scientists in the process.

Hemmer uses the camera recording of Rover's act to persuade to the council that the Terrians are murderous and plan to destroy their invaders. To make sure the council won't stand in his way, he takes power over the civilian leaders in a coup, and declares war on Terra, citing the deteriorating condition of the Ark.

After becoming the commander of the Ark, Hemmer describes to Jim his plan to place a massive Terraformer onto the surface of Terra and use it to convert the planet's atmosphere into an Earth-like habitat by releasing a massive amount of oxygen. This will result in wiping out the Terrians as oxygen is toxic to them. He then throws Mala and Stewart into a test chamber, showing the differences between the Terrain air and Earth air, despite Jim's pleads to spare their lives. Hemmer offers Jim to push a button that will revert the air to save Mala, at the cost of Stewart asphyxiating. Before Mala suffocates to death, Jim orders his robot partner Giddy to break the glass and rescue Mala.

While Jim and Stewart are recovering from their injuries, Hemmer enters the room and recruits Jim to be in the first group of space-fighters designated to defend the Terraformer from the Terrians, while Hemmer will supervise the terraforming process from inside the Terraformer itself.

A massive battle between the Terrians and the invading humans takes place over the terraforming of Terra from the Terraformer. When it appears the Terrians are about to lose the battle, Jim sees the suffocating Terrians and realizes that annihilating all of the inhabitants is morally wrong (and by seeing Mala and Stewart fighting each other, after the latter take down Mala's friend Senn, who was part of Terrian resistance). He decides to turn his ship towards the Terraformer machine and, with his laser cannons blazing, fires every missile from his ship towards the command module. Everyone in the Terraformer evacuates, but Hemmer watches in horror as he realizes the soldier he trained like a son has betrayed him. The missiles destroy the Terraformer, killing Hemmer. Unfortunately, Jim is killed in the resulting explosion and is honored as a hero by both the humans and Terrians.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of eighteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the eighteen girls sighted here, along with Mala, Senn, and Stewart, but they've already been cornered by General Hemmer and his men, and he was going to kill them for ruining his plans.

Lincoln: Oh man, I've found the eighteen girls, along with Mala, Senn, and Stewart, but they've been cornered by General Hemmer and his men, and they're going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over, and and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he cuts down Hemmer's men, and then, he attacked General Hemmer with powerful blasts of neon blue energy with elemental forces orbiting around the cores, and slashes with his sword. The combined barrage of energy blasts and the powerful one-handed slashes from his massive blade destroyed General Hemmer, and he and his men were Super Hakaied.

We tended to Mala, Senn, and Stewart, who were okay. Then, Lincoln, Eli, Nunnally, and Nicole went up to the eighteen girls who were sighted here, and when Lincoln, Nicole, Eli, and Nunnally saw them, they immediately recognized them. The eighteen girls were Kallen Kozuki, Shirley Fenette, and Kagari Savitri from Code Geass, Candice "Candy" White Ardlay from Candy Candy, Yui Kasuga, Haruna Kisaragi, and Ai Shinozaki from Corrector Yui, Nanoha Takamachi and Fate Testarossa from Magical Girl Lyrical Nanoha, Yu Morisawa from Creamy Mami, The Magic Angel, Galko, Otako, and Ojou from Please Tell Me Galko, Eris and Mai Viole from Battle Spirits, Rinne Inaba, Rui Akana, and Akira Fuka from Gyrozetter.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Kallen Kozuki, Shirley Fenette, Kagari Savitri, Candice "Candy" White Ardlay, Yui Kasuga, Haruna Kisaragi, Ai Shinozaki, Nanoha Takamachi, Fate Testarossa, Yu Morisawa, Galko, Otako, Ohoi, Eris, Mai Viole, Rinne Inaba, Rui Akana, and Akira Fuka.

Nicole: From Code Geass, Candy Candy, Corrector Yui, Magical Girl Lyrical Nanoha, Creamy Mami, The Magic Angel, Please Tell Me Galko, Battle Spirits, and Gyrozette, awesome.

Nunnally: Wait, Kallen, Shirley, and Kagari were here in this world?

Eli: That's incredible. Kallen, Shirley, Kagari it's great to see you again.

Kagari: Same here Eli. It's awesome to see you again.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Kallen Kozuki: Yes, we're okay.

Then, when Kallen Kozuki and the other seventeen girls saw who saved them from General Hemmer and his men, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Kallen Kozuki: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made seventeen clones of himself and they went up to the seventeen girls, and Lincoln went up to Kallen Kozuki, who'd picked her and the other thirteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Kallen Kozuki: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Then, Kallen Kozuki, Shirley Fenette, and Kagari Savitri saw Eli and Nunnally, and they were happy to see them again, and we went back home to the Estate, and relocated Terra and everyone on it into our solar system, and they were going to like it here.

---

After the rescue in the world of Battle for Terra, we were then training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds.

Then, we were heading off to Transbaal, the home planet of Vanilla H, Milfeulle Sakuraba, Ranpha Franboise, Mint Blancmanche, Forte Stollen, and Chitose Karasumaru, and for a reason: we were going to destroy Gern, the main enemy of the Galaxy Angels and the tyrannical leader of the Val-Fasq, and we also got some intel that Nightmare, one of Samus Aran's enemies, was sighted there. Plus, we found out that when Lincoln rescued Vanilla H, Milfeulle Sakuraba, Ranpha Franboise, Mint Blancmanche, Forte Stollen, and Chitose Karasumaru, their world has merged with ours.

Lincoln: So, this is it, we're going to deal with Gern and the Val-Fasq once and for all.

Me: You said it, the Val-Fasq are a major threat to the universe, because throughout their conquests, so many planets and civilizations have fallen victim to their wrath.

Nico: Gern's just like Frieza, we'll make sure that he, his empire, and the entire Val-Fasq empire will be destroyed for good.

Me: You said it, Nico.

Samus Aran: Plus, we also got intel that Nightmare was sighted there. I thought I was rid of him for good.

Dylan Dalmatian: Looks like he's back, and now, the last one to transform is Dorothy.

Me: That's right, Dylan.

We arrived at Transbaal, and we prepared to launch our attack on Gren. First, we needed to take care of The Val-Fasq Fleet, that's where Lincoln came in. He fired blasts of electromagnetic energy, which disabled the ships, and we fired missiles at the ships and destroyed them, but made Gren unaware of the situation. Then, we had to sneak onboard Gren's ship, The Gear Gren, and Lincoln made a cloud of darkness, blocking the soldiers' vision. Then, under the cover of darkness, we attacked every last one of Gren's soldiers and killed them all. Then, we got into the main room of the ship, and right in the room was Gren.

Gren: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived, along with The Galaxy Angels.

Me: That's right, and we're here for one reason: to kill you and destroy your empire once and for all.

Gren: I'm not going down without a fight, and I'm sure you know this old enemy of yours, Samus Aran.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming. Then, Nightmare had come out of the shadows.

Samus Aran: Nightmare, I should've known you'd show up.

Suddenly, Dorothy Dalmatian's eyes turned neon yellow and she was surrounded by a neon yellow energy aura with light animals, she unholstered her Defender of Camden Town sword from her back, and as she approached Nightmare, she left light, yellow energy, and light animals with every step. Then, Dorothy Dalmatian was surrounded by a massive vortex of yellow energy, light animals circling around the vortex, and a white phoenix in the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Dorothy Dalmatian emerged, but she was changed forever.

Dorothy Dalmatian grew up to 5'11" in height, she now had the body of a goddess, she now had a full head of black hair going down to her neck, she has neon yellow eyes and a neon yellow energy aura with light animals and orbs of light surrounding her, and her black angel wings with white tips on the black feathers grew larger. Dorothy Dalmatian had a yellow dragon with the Light Kanji in its claws emblazoned on her forehead, she also had his Defender of Camden Town sword unholstered, she had on dragon earrings with the Light Kanji in its claws, her orange collar with bone collar tag became a choker for her neck, she had on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Light Kanji in its claws, she now has on a sleeveless orange blouse with rainbow-colored phoenix, orange skirt, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long orange sleeveless trenchcoat with light animals and a dragon on the back. She has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with orange gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large orange gem for the belt buckle on her waist and Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the dragon written in pink that said, "Dorothy Dalmatian, Master of Light, Adorable Sister of 98 Siblings, and Youngest Daughter of Doug and Delilah Dalmatian."

ドロシー・ダルメシアン、光の達人、九十八人の兄弟の愛らしい姉妹、そしてダグとデリラ・ダルメシアンの末娘

Dorothy Dalmatian transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 CELESTIAL DALMATIAN ANGEL OF LIGHT AND LOVE!

We were amazed by Dorothy Dalmatian's transformation, and to Nightmare, it means trouble.

Delilah Dalmatian: (Stunned with Awe) Oh, my Dog.

Dylan Dalmatian: Dorothy's now become a beautiful woman.

Nico: She's now all grown up, Dylan, and she's become an Angel of Light.

Dorothy Dalmatian: (Divine Echoing Angelic Voice of Love) That's right, Nico, and before you were about to ask, I feel really incredible. Now, to put an end to Nightmare once and for all.

We were stunned to hear Dorothy Dalmatian talk in complete sentences, but none more so than the rest of her family.

Lincoln: Then, you can leave Gren to us, Dorothy.

Dorothy Dalmatian went after Nightmare, and fired powerful blasts of light, neon yellow energy, and light animals at Nightmare, which exploded with incredible power, and disabled Nightmare's Gravity Manipulator. Then, she cuts Nightmare's cover open, and exposed his ugly mug.

Dorothy Dalmatian: Ugly. Now, to end you for good. DIVINE SWORDS OF LIGHT!

Dorothy Dalmatian fired powerful blades of light at Nightmare, and once they hit his ugly mug, they exploded with incredible power and it Super Hakaied Nightmare for good.

Then, Lincoln transforms into transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he attacked Gren with powerful blasts of neon blue energy with elemental forces orbiting around the cores and powerful one-handed slashes from his massive blade. We piled on and we attacked the tyrant with powerful elemental blasts and energy blasts, along with slashes from our weapons. Lincoln then drove his blade right through Gren's black heart, and he coughed up blood.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) This is the end for you and your evil empire once and for all, Gren. Everyone, together now.

Everyone: VAL-FASQ EMPIRE GENOCIDE BLAST!

We fired powerful energy blasts, which only targets Gren and the evil Val-Fasq, except for Tapio Ca, who's an ally of The Galaxy Angels, and once the energy blasts hit Gren and the evil Val-Fasq, they were destroyed in a second, and all of them were Super Hakaied forever. We cheered wildly, and we ended another threat to the galaxy once and for all, and we went back home to the Estate.

---

Later we got word from the news on TV that a Serial Rapist was on the loose and in just under 36 hours he had raped over 100 women.

Isa: My God. I've heard of serial killers. But serial rapists?!

Me: It's happened many times before Isa. The Golden State Killer and Roy Charles Waller are two big examples.

Sheila: He's right about that.

Woman on TV: It was AWFUL! (CRYING) A man with a big chin came in and drugged me and raped me! He kept saying Giggity EVERY TIME! (CRYING HYSTERICALLY)

Me: Oh shit on my clothes and fuck my ass sideways!

Joy Taurus: Okay!

Nico: Joy!

Joy Taurus: Sorry.

Me: Quagmire is on the loose!

We went to find him and deal with him for good.

In the middle of the city, Quagmire was walking to a bar when suddenly we swooped in and kicked him in the face and then he saw us.

Lola Bunny: Just when I thought you couldn't sink any lower.

Quagmire: Well, I have you guys to thank for it! Thanks to you, this is the only way I'll get sex now!

Me: I always knew you were a fucking pervert Quagmire and I always knew you were a rapist but you are now worse than a FUCKING RAPIST!

Brian: It's always me you've hated back in Quahog! And I was the one who ranted at you back at the prison! Why did you bring others into this?!

Quagmire: Because I wanted to love Cheryl Tiegs! She was my life!

Nico: Oi vey!

Meg: You, Glenn Quagmire, are the worst type of person on this planet. You are nothing but a hypocrite. You accuse Brian of lusting after Lois, when you were the one caught spying on her while she was in the bathroom, and tried to hook up with her when Peter lost his memory. Last time I checked, he was your best friend, too! At least for Brian, it's about love; you just wanna get your rocks off. And yeah, so what if he craps on Peter's lawn? He a dog, you idiot! And who are you to accuse him of being a sponge? We hardly ever see you working, and I wouldn't be surprised if you got into the pilot business just so you could screw every stewardess into the mile-high club! You're a convicted sex offender, pedophile, and necrophiliac; you treat women as if they're nothing more than objects, you hit on anything with a vagina, including me and Connie D'Amico, you destroyed Cleveland's marriage and screwed Loretta's corpse, and let's not forget what you did to Stewie's pacifier… And you have the gall to criticize Brian for dating bimbos?! You keep bitching about how Cheryl Tiegs is the one who got away… yeah, as far away from you as possible! What woman with any real common sense would ever be with you? You think you're some well-read snob, but the reality is you use it as a cover-up so your hypersexuality doesn't seem like a big deal! And by the way, just because you go to some dumbass hoity-toity Book Club every month, it doesn't make you Stephen Hawking! And what right have you to put Brian down for being an atheist? It's a free country! He can believe or not believe in whatever the hell he wants! Who the hell are you to judge Brian, or anyone, for that matter? At least Brian tries to better himself with college and careers, and at least he tried to be there for his son! What about all the women you've knocked up? I don't see you paying child support! But you know what? I could forgive you for all of that, all of it, Quagmire, but for one small thing. You're a tool… a hypocritical, perverted, sexist tool!

We gasped in sheer shock!

Me: He destroyed Cleveland's marriage!?

Nico: Quagmire you are the lowest of the low!

Cleveland: I can't believe you would sink so low Quagmire.

Joe: Yeah especially to Brian.

Quagmire: You two are siding with Brian too?!

Cleveland: You stopped being our friend the minute we found out you made a deal with Quimby!

Joe: We're used to your sexual ways. But harming Brian crosses a line! Especially since you killed him in another timeline!

Drillhorn: How about that? Even your bar buddies have turned against you!

Me: And I'm sure Peter would too!

Nico: Now we're gonna do something that we should have done a long time ago!

Quagmire: And what's that?

Nico: Give you the worst ever castration ever!

Me: Like this! SHARK WATER STYLE NINJA ART: GREAT WHITE CASTRATION!

I fired a wave of water and it formed into a shark and then…

CHOMP!

It bit Quagmire's manhood off and he was bleeding badly.

Me: That's just for starters. Now we're going to make you wish you were never born!

I grabbed him.

Me: Look into my eyes. Your soul is stained by the blood of the innocent. Feel their pain 100 times.

I had him look into my eyes and he screamed as he saw ALL THE VILLAINOUS ACTS HE DID AND HOW THEY WERE TURNED AGAINST HIM! This is what he did:

---

Quagmire has an extremely perverted and provocative nature, is a user of women, a serial rapist, possible pedophile, necrophile, and zoophile. Throughout the series, Quagmire has been shown to be madly in lust with Lois Griffin. However, all of his attempts to get her attention have failed, usually foiled by Peter and/or Brian. Quagmire is also an antagonist and a supporting character in the later seasons due to his deep hatred towards Brian. His hatred towards Brian has lessened and almost every time they interacted together, they remained neutral to each other.

During the series, Quagmire had sex with Cleveland's wife, Loretta Brown. When the truth was eventually revealed, Cleveland wanted revenge on Quagmire. In the end, the two made amends and remained close pals, despite the fact that this led to Cleveland and Loretta's divorce.

In "Blind Ambition", Quagmire was arrested for trying to watch Lois Griffin use the restroom.

In "Jerome is the New Black" Quagmire unintentionally revealed that he had a starving woman tied up in his basement. This is one of the many examples of his horrible character. Strangely, despite all of this, Joe Swanson has done nothing to stop him even though he is a cop.

In "Movin' Out (Brian's Song)", he killed the entire Simpson family after trying to have off-screen sexual intercourse with Marge. This was a deleted scene.

Claims he has "complied with Megan's Law", suggesting he has a record of statutory rape.

Possibly engages in necrophilia. In "I Take Thee Quagmire" he asked Death to leave Joan's body with him "for another 5 minutes", and in a DVD-only scene in "Airport '07", he is shown jumping half-naked out of a coffin. In the The Cleveland Show episode, "Gone With the Wind", he dressed Loretta's corpse as a French maid and then had sex with her before delivering her body to Cleveland, showing he is not above nercophelia.

Although Quagmire normally has a soft side for animals (cats in particular), he harbors a seething hatred of Brian Griffin. Quagmire despises everything about him, but has told Brian that he could forgive him for everything if he wasn't "such a bore."

Quagmire has even physically assaulted Brian for unintentionally sleeping with his sex-changed father. His hatred for Brian is pure hypocrisy, due to the fact that two of the reasons he hates Brian is that he constantly hits on Lois and ignores his son, but the fact is that Quagmire stalks Lois and he has ignored many more children than Brian.

It was eventually revealed that the reason for Quagmire's vicious actions toward women is because of a heartbreak from his one true love - Cheryl Tiegs. Ever since she dumped him, Quagmire has been dating women in an attempt to fill the void she made. Quagmire also noted that famous actor James Woods stole Tiegs from him, causing Quagmire to develop a hatred for Woods. Brian then went on a date with Tiegs in order to spite Quagmire after his education in Quagmire's class caused a woman named Denise to dump him. In retaliation, Quagmire tries to go out on a date with Brian's ex-girlfriend Jillian Wilcox, but this leads to a fight between Quagmire and Brian, prompting both Jillian and Tiegs to dump them, believing that both Quagmire and Brian have no respect for either of them or any other women, later Quagmire nods to Brian to tell him he can get into the car for a passage to home, but after leaving he leaves him alone, but returns to invest him with the car.

Quagmire also has sexual interest in Meg Griffin. The most notable case is in "Meg and Quagmire", where Quagmire attempts to "move in for the kill" now that Meg has reached her 18th birthday. He slowly gains Meg's affection, and then eventually drives her to his cabin in the woods, where he attempted to have sex with her. Peter and Lois managed to stop him in the nick of time.

While on The Bachelorette, Quagmire notably attempted to commit date rape by drugging his date Brooke's drink and attempting to drag her body to another location, only to take off with one of her shoes when he realized their date was being filmed. Later, when Brooke chooses him to progress further during the elimination round, a surprised Glenn makes a confession about the attempted date rape, though he denies it when Brooke asks him to confirm what he said.

In "Hannah Banana", when Chris was trying to prove that the Evil Monkey exists, he set up a camera to see what happened that night. One of the events he captured was both Peter and Quagmire placing his hand in a bowl of water, causing Chris to pee his pants. Quagmire then proceeded to punch Chris in the eye before they left his room.

In "Valentine's Day in Quahog", he kicks a woman out of his house after a night of sex, and she swears he will get what he deserves. Quagmire is then shocked by the woman's hair straightener (which he called her "electric tampon warmer"), which makes everyone see him as a woman. Then he decides to taken advantage of this to manipulate women who have been hurt by men to take solace in him.

In "Brian's a Bad Father", he shoots Peter in the head (after Peter had shot him) so that they can return being friends again.

In "German Guy", when Chris and Peter attempt to use Salsa music to gain attention to the fact that they're being held prisoner, Quagmire who was sleeping awakes annoyed and instead of checking where the noise is coming from he puts his "White Noise Machine" on, which literally plays the screams of terrified women, which calm Quagmire, showing that he takes comfort in sadism.

In "Life of Brian", he is the only person in the funeral who does not mourn Brian's death and instead watches a video on his cellphone.

---

When it was done he was convulsing and really foaming at the mouth! I had used the Ghost Rider's penance stare on Quagmire.

Lori: Brian, we'll literally pummel Quagmire for a few minutes. Then, you can do the rest!

Brian: No. This is my fight. I'm the one he wants!

Lola: We know. But this is to soften Quagmire up for you.

Nosecone: Don't argue with them, Brian. You know how badly Quagmire beat you up before.

Lynn: (to Meg) Wanna get in on this, Meg? You were the one who transformed just now.

Meg: You bet I do!

Me: Show no mercy guys. He's worse than I thought.

I told them everything Quagmire did when I saw what he did with the Penance Stare and everyone was ENRAGED!

Lori: THIS FUCKING DOUCHEBAG!

They roared and Lori, Lynn, Lola and Brian went at Quagmire and pulverized the living shit out of him.

POW SMASH! BAM BIFF CHOMP SMASH ZONK KATOW BAM!

Brian: (to Quagmire) IF I EVER SEE YOU RAPING OTHER WOMEN AGAIN, I'LL BLOW YOUR HEAD OFF AND KILL YOU, YOU GOT THAT?!

Quagmire: (scared) Y-Yes, S-Sir!

Brian: NOW LAY THERE AND DIE, YOU FUCKING PIECE OF CRAP!

Lori: (shocked) Whoa. Brian can literally get really mad when he wants to.

Lola: I didn't think he had it in him.

Lynn: Can you blame him, though? Quagmire has been a jerk to Brian his entire life in Quahog. He's earned the right to get mad at the pervert!

Me: Yep. And I found this on Quagmire.

I pulled out a Number Card and it was NUMBER 82: HEARTLANDRACO!

We gasped.

Eli: Number 82: Heartlandraco! So that's how he escaped from prison.

Sheila and Tom cuffed Quagmire.

Tom Lair: He's looking at the Death Penalty for this.

Me: Make sure Brian is the one that pulls the switch for the Electric Chair.

Sheila: With pleasure. This monster is the enemy of all women everywhere.

Quagmire was sentenced to death in the electric chair for his crimes and he was being executed publicly in a football stadium. It was full of angry women that Quagmire raped and assaulted. They all had protest signs that had all kinds of things being said to Quagmire and they had terrible obscenities that are so graphic that we are not allowed to say them.

Me: I think there's a worse place than Hell for you Quagmire.

Brian: That's right. You deserve much worse than Hell for what you did.

Brian pulled the switch and then…

ZZZZZZZAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

He was electrocuted with over 50 billion volts of electricity and was charred and burned and dead. We had him buried in an unmarked grave at the bottom of the Mariana Trench and his soul was Super Hakaied. His sister Brenda was never gonna love Quagmire again. Glenn Quagmire, the Enemy of All Women Everywhere and the most prolific serial rapist that ever lived is now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

Brian: Can I ask you guys a question?

Maria: Sure, Brian.

Brian: (starts to cry) Why do you guys stick by me? Quagmire was right about one thing. I HAVE made mistakes. Including neglecting my own son!

Maria comforted Brian.

Maria: Because you are a good man Brian.

Meg: Yeah you helped me more times than anyone in my family did.

Me: Don't let anything Quagmire said get to you Brian. I don't care what he says. You are a good man and you have an amazing life and have done so much for everyone. Not just in Quahog but for everyone all over the country and that makes you a good person. Also you have an amazing best friend.

Stewie: Me Bri.

Cleveland: And you got justice for many people that Quagmire abused and hurt.

Joe: That's right Brian. You are a good friend.

Me: That's right Brian.

We later went back to the World Tree Estate.

* * *

Later we were getting ready for a very special event.

Trent: By the way, J.D., it's your turn to lead today.

Me: I know Trent and today is a good reason. We're meeting Mystery Inc. at the Miniature Golf Course. Lori is gonna be participating in the World Miniature Golf Championship.

Nico: Cool!

Eli: Minigolf is fun.

Allie Wilde: It sure was. I love all the fancy hole designs and themes.

Laney: Me too. Minigolf is cool.

Lynn: PBBT! Pass for me.

Lincoln: Oh come on Lynn. Minigolf is fun.

Lana: Besides we need to support Lori for this.

Fu: I agree. Lori loves golf and she practiced a lot of Minigolf before she got into the big leagues.

Lori: It's literally true and I'm excited for this.

Me: Also Shaggy is in this event. I've been supporting Shaggy in this kind of big event since I was in middle school with him.

Nico: Wow that's so cool!

Then Myotismon, Drakkon, Electro, Baron Mordo, Red X, Stinky Butt, Anti-Wanda, Cavalier, Eris and Mammoth appeared.

Myotismon: Can me, Drakkon, Electro, Baron Mordo, Red X, Stinky Butt, Anti-Wanda, Cavalier, Eris and Mammoth go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Nico: This is gonna be fun.

Carly and Misty then appeared and they were dressed in amazing golf clothes too.

Me: I didn't know you two golfed as well.

Misty Tredwell: We like Miniature Golf too.

Carly Atlas: It's really fun.

Me: I have a special course made for Misty, Carly, Jack and me to have some fun while we're there.

Lori Loud: I literally never knew Shaggy was good at golf, J.D. But, then again, he's done gymnastics in the past, and he's also a fast runner.

Me: Since he and Scooby have been chased by criminals dressed as monsters.

Nico: This is going to be so awesome.

Lincoln: You bet, Nico. (To Lori, Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn, Laney, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Lisa, and Lily) Oh, Lori, Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn, Laney, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Lisa, and Lily, I've got something for you guys.

Lincoln snapped his fingers, and we saw weighted bands appear on their biceps and thighs, and in addition, we saw eight large orbiting orbs appear around their legs, and the weighted bands on their biceps and thighs and eight large orbiting orbs around their legs match their favorite colors, Lori: Turquoise, Leni: Sea Foam Green, Luna: Purple, Luan: Yellow, Lynn: Red, Laney: Brown, Lucy: Black, Lana: Periwinkle Blue, Lola: Pink, Lisa: Green, and Lily: Lavender.

When Lori and the other sisters saw it, they were surprised, but they smiled at Lincoln.

Lori: Wow, thanks, Linky, this was quite the gift you gave us.

Lincoln: You're welcome, Lori. Now, you guys have the same security system, in case of any potential threats come, just like me, J.D., Naruto, and Cody (OC).

Me: Alright, guys, let's get going.

Myotismon: This should be interesting to watch.

Nico: You got that right.

Just then, King Kai contacted us before we were about to leave.

King Kai: (Telepathically) J.D., can you hear me?

Me: We hear you, King Kai, what's wrong?

King Kai: (Telepathically) I've got bad news, I tracked down Frieza, and he's at Putt-Putt Paradise.

We gasped in horror at what King Kai told us.

Lynn Loud: So, that tyrant's finally shown up, I was wondering when he'd show his ugly mug. We've already dealt with Gren and his empire, now we've to deal with Frieza.

Lincoln: You said it, Lynn.

We saw Nico's eyes turn red when he heard the news that Frieza has finally shown up.

Lincoln saw it, and he put his hands on Nico's shoulders to calm him down.

Lincoln: Nico, I know you're already mad as soon as you heard the news that Frieza's returned, but…

Nico: (Puts hand on Lincoln's shoulder) (Sighs) I know, Linc. (Smiles) Actually, I knew it was a matter of time before he'd show his ugly mug here. We knew if he'd return, he was going to get banished to The Warp, right?

Lincoln: Yeah. (Smiles) But, I can tell you're thinking of something much worse for him, right? Like Super Hakaing him.

Nico: (Laughs) You know me so well, Linc.

Hunter Drake Michaelson: (German-Hungarian Accent) Nico, if Frieza shows up, let me face him.

This threw us in for a loop when Hunter made that request to Nico.

Nico: Hunter, are you sure?

Hunter Drake Michaelson: (German-Hungarian Accent) Of course, plus, it's also time for me to transform as well. And of course, you and The Saiyans will help out, since you also deserve a little payback.

Nico: (Smiles) Okay, Hunter. You got it.

We headed off for Putt-Putt Paradise, and we were now aware that Frieza has returned, and we were going to be in for a dangerous battle with the tyrant who destroyed Planet Vegeta. We went to the elevator and we walked to Putt Putt Paradise on the other side of town.

---

We arrived and we saw the gang there.

Daphne: Hey, guys.

Demolishor: Hey, Daph. Quick question. Did you guys happen to see the news this morning?

Daphne: We heard what happened on the radio as we were driving up here.

Fred: Yeah what a monster Quagmire was!

Shaggy: Like yeah he sure got what he deserved!

Scrooby: You said it.

Scrappy: You tell him Uncle Scooby!

Me: Yep. Boy just like old times huh Shaggy.

Shaggy: Like yeah you said it.

Red X: (pats Shaggy on the back) Good luck out there, Shaggy.

Shaggy: Like thanks.

Me: This is gonna be awesome.

We saw that the first hole was shaped like a pyramid from Egypt. Shaggy hit the ball and it went through the pyramid and into the whole for a hole in one! Next was a lake and Lori hit it and it bounced on Lily Pads and then a fish hit the ball and it went into a boat hole for a hole in one! Next was a fort and Shaggy hit his ball and it zigzagged and bounced down the path and into the fort for a hole in one as a flag of the USA was hoisted. Next was a pirate ship and Lori hit the ball into a cannon and it fired and bounced off the side and down a sail and into the hole as a pirate flag was hoisted. The next hole was a gold mine and Lori hit the ball and it bounced off a couple of cactuses and into a cart and the cart and it went down a track and dumped the ball into the hole for a hole in one. Next Shaggy hit the ball into a Cymbal Monkey through it's mouth and it screeched for hole in one.

G1 Icepick: I'll keep a lookout in case something bad happens.

Nico: Okay.

We saw that Shaggy was at the Haunted House Hole and Shaggy was REALLY focused to not be scared of it.

Eli: Wow usually Shaggy would be scared to death at the sight of that hole.

Laney: I heard about this from J.D. He is too focused on the tournament to be scared.

Shaggy hit the ball and he got it into the hole and then two ghosts popped out and they laughed malevolently as he got a hole in one.

Me: Way to go Shaggy!

Horsea: Who's winning right now, Maria?

Maria: Lets see.

Maria was keeping track and it showed that Shaggy and Lori were BOTH TIED!

Maria: Lori and Shaggy are both tied for 1st!

Nico: Wow!

Poliwag: What if they both win?

Poromon: That would really be amazing.

Nico: A tie win would be so cool.

Me: Yeah it sure would.

Eli then sensed something.

Eli: Uh oh! Guys look up there!

We saw a dimensional vortex appear right above the course!

Me: A dimensional vortex. We haven't had one of those appear in a while.

We then saw a girl with purple magneta hair in a braided look and she had blue eyes and a brown hooded shirt and she had a book bag with Twilight Sparkle's cutie mark on it and she had blue pants. On her sweater was a cutie mark in the shape of a shooting star with two stars. I went and caught her.

Me: Whoa!

We landed.

Sunny Starscout: Whew! Thanks.

Me: You're welcome.

Sunny Starscout: WOW! You're the famous J.D. Knudson.

Me: Yep.

Sunny Starscout: Sorry I'm Sunny Starscout and I am one of your biggest fans. I am also the biggest fan of Twilight Sparkle.

Manaphy: You caught us at a bad time. We're watching a golf game!

May: Manaphy be nice! Sorry about that.

Sunny Starscout: No worries. But it's awesome to meet the great heroes of Equestria.

Nico: Same here Sunny.

Twilight Sparkle: And I'm truly honored that you look up to me and know so much about friendship.

Sunny Starscout: Your lessons and adventures about friendship have really inspired me a lot Princess Twilight.

Me: You came from the future didn't you?

Sunny Starscout: I sure did. Let me tell you what happened.

She told us what happened.

---

In the earth pony town of Maretime Bay, Argyle Starshine teaches his daughter Sunny Starscout about tales of old Equestria when earth ponies, pegasi, and unicorns lived together, which most other earth ponies believe are fairy tales, and instead have grown up in fear of the other pony races. Sunny hopes that the three races can be friends.

Years later, after her father passes away, Sunny continues to try to change the mind of the other earth ponies, purposely disrupting a showcase of anti-pegasi and unicorn technology by Phyllis Cloverleaf. Hitch, Sunny's childhood friend and sheriff of Maretime Bay, pulls her away and prepares to send her back home when suddenly a unicorn enters town. While most of the earth ponies scatter, Sunny befriends the new unicorn, named Izzy Moonbow, and quickly takes her to her home to hide from Hitch and his deputy Sprout. Sunny learns from Izzy that no unicorns have any magic, and decides to go with Izzy to Zephyr Heights, the home of the pegasi, to see if they can help restore the unicorn's magic and help to reunite the pony tribes. The two dodge Hitch and flee town, and Hitch leaves Sprout in charge while he chases them down. With Hitch gone, Sprout goes on a power-hungry spree, turning the ponies of Maretime Bay into a hostile mob and has his mother's factory construct a giant war machine to prepare for a possible invasion.

As Sunny and Izzy approach Zephyr Heights, they are caught by guards and taken to meet Queen Haven and her two daughters, Pipp Petals and Zipp Storm. When Sunny starts asking about magic, Haven has them thrown in the dungeon. Zipp secretly visits them there and tells them that the pegasi too lack magic to fly, and helps them to escape to show them an abandoned airport that has evidence of when earth ponies and unicorns would travel to Zephyr Heights. Sunny sees a glass window that shows that two crystals - one that is in Queen Haven's crown - may fit together and bring back the magic. The three concoct a plan to steal the crown during a showcase for Pipp that night, but when Hitch also arrives, a series of pratfalls cause the royal family to reveal to the general public their inability to fly as well. Haven is arrested, and Pipp is forced to flee Zephyr Heights with Sunny, Izzy, and Zipp to find the unicorn crystal in Izzy's home of Bridlewood, with Hitch initially trailing along only to make sure Sunny returns home immediately afterward.

In Bridlewood, Izzy helps disguise the group as unicorns before they meet Alphabittle, a tea shop owner that has the unicorn crystal. Sunny challenges Alphabittle to a dance competition and manages to win, but in celebration, loses her disguise. As the group flees with the two crystals, they come across Queen Haven who had escaped herself. Sunny and Izzy try to put the two crystals together, but they fail to do anything. Dejected, Sunny returns the crystals and returns home with Hitch.

At her house, she packs up her childhood toys when she discovers that her lamp contains a third crystal that would line up with the other two. As she races to tell Hitch, they discover that Sprout has turned the entire town to his side and is piloting his war machine. Sunny and Hitch race back to her home as Izzy, Pipp, Zipp, Haven, and Alphabittle arrive. Gathering the other two crystals, Sunny, Izzy, and Pipp try to put them together while Hitch and Zipp hold off Sprout's machine. Though Phyllis steps in and tells Sprout to stop his antics, her warning is too late as the machine wrecks Sunny's home and the means to connect the crystals. As Sunny surveys the damage, she realizes that despite failing, the three ponies tribes have since come together and gotten over their hostilities. With that, the three crystals begin to glow, lift Sunny into the air, and transform her into an alicorn while restoring magic across the land. Sunny and her new friends watch as earth ponies, unicorns, and pegasi work together to clean up Sprout's mess and bring a new era to the land.

---

When she was done we were shocked.

Nico: Oh man! That's bad.

Eli: I don't want everyone in Equestria to forget all about friendship.

Poromon: Don't worry! We promise that future won't happen!

Me: That's right! You and your friends are more than welcome to help us out and be great members of the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Sunny Starscout: Thank you so much J.D. We are all from Maretime Bay.

I looked up where Maretime Bay was on the map of Equestria and it showed that it was not far from Seaward Shoals.

Me: That's not far from Seaward Shoals. Beautiful place.

Laney: It sure looks like it.

Eddy: C'mon, guys! All of Equestria's bad guys have been dealt with. No way the future's gonna be that bad. Right?

Me: That's right we dealt with all of Equestria's enemies. But there are still major threats out there like with what we're about to deal with when we face Mr. Mind.

Sunny Starscout: I will gladly help you all out.

Eli: Thanks Sunny.

Nico: Awesome.

Me: Lets get back to watching the game.

We did so.

Nico: (Telepathically to Lori) Lori, we just got a new addition to the team.

Lori: (Telepathically to Nico) Wow who is it Nico?

Nico told her all about Sunny.

Lori: Wow that's literally amazing.

Tentacool: Just watch, Sunny. Sooner or later, something's going to disrupt this game.

Sunny Starscout: Okay I'm ready for anything.

Me: Love that spirit.

Twilight Sparkle: Same here.

Then we heard loud footfalls.

Jirachi: Do you guys hear something?

Me: I not only hear it. BUT I SEE IT! LOOK!

We saw A GIANT ROBOT CLOWN MONSTER!

Me: It's a Giant Robot Clown!

It laughed goofily with shining monster teeth!

Velma then screamed and she jumped into my arms in fright! She was shaking like a leaf!

Me: OOF!

Stinky Butt: You okay, Velma?

Me: Oh right. You guys don't know about this but she has a terrible fear of clowns.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah it's true.

Nico: Her parents made the stupidest decision ever. They hired the only clown that uses a paper shredder for a prop.

Eli: How stupid is that.

Sunny Starscout: Boy that must've been really stupid.

Eclair: It sure is Sunny.

Shaggy hit a huge bag of popcorn with his club and sent it flying at the clown and then crows came at it and sent it away.

Shaggy: Like that will show you!

May: Looks like the clown's gone for now.

Skullgrin: (to Shaggy) You okay, Shaggy? You sound a lot braver.

Shaggy: I know. For some reason, something's changed inside of me.

Me: I think it's the tournament or all the Scooby Snax that Nico made for you and Scooby.

Nico: Yeah that would be something. I make every flavor with love.

SpongeBob: Just like how I make Krabby Patties.

Lily: Same with me.

Me: That's awesome.

Rice: No clown ruins a golf game for my friends and gets away with it. I'll help in solving this mystery for you all.

Drakkon: (to Rice) Shaggy's not the only one who's stepping up. You seemed to be interested in this mystery all of a sudden.

Rice: I sure am and this robot clown makes all clowns everywhere look like absolute morons! (To Eddy, Luan and Pinkie Pie) No offense.

Luan: None taken.

Eddy: Yeah I agree with you Rice.

Pinkie Pie: What this clown does is not cool!

Eddy: But Rice. Why are you so interested in solving this mystery?

Rice: Because I want to find out why this clown monster wants to destroy the competition and why it seems so interesting in only Shaggy.

Nico: Hmm. That clown does seem to have an interest in Shaggy some how. Like its known him before.

Me: And I remember this Clown Robot all too well.

Qin: I read about it myself. It was piloted by the Mayor of Coolsville because he hated minigolf.

Rainbow Dash: What!? Why would the mayor hate Minigolf? It's awesome!

Nico: It sure is.

Qin: He hated Minigolf because he thought it was disgraceful to his family.

Rice: I heard about that. But also I like minigolf myself.

Nico: Minigolf is fun.

Fangry: We know the drill by now. Let's split up and search for clues.

Nico: Right.

Velma was hanging onto my back and shaking like a leaf.

Me: Oh Velma you'll be alright. We'll smash this clown monster is dust.

Electro: At least we don't have to worry about you forcing Velma to help in this Mystery. She's already hanging on to you.

Me: I know. But I can never bring myself to force Velma to doing stuff like solve a mystery even when she is scared.

Nico: You're a true gentleman J.D.

Me: Yeah. I'm gonna make a clone that will stay with Velma while we stop this clown. The least I can do is help Velma somehow conquer her fear of clowns.

Twilight Sparkle: If you can help me conquer my fear of ladybugs and help many of us conquer our fears then you can help Velma conquer her fear of clowns.

Me: Thanks Twilight. Okay.

I formed a Shadow Clown.

Me: Take Velma to the Arcade to help calm her down and help her out.

Me 2: You got it boss.

The clone of me did so.

We got to searching.

Bomb Burst: Yo, Rice. You find anything yet?

Rice: I sure did. I found a cap.

It was an orange visor cap.

Nico: An Orange Visor cap.

Rice: Hmm.

She also saw initials on it.

Rice: Hmm. M.W.

Shaggy: Like those initials are familiar to me.

Me: Me too.

Baron Mordo: Let's keep looking.

Eli: Okay.

We got to searching.

Meanwhile at the batting cages, my clone and Velma were practicing baseball.

Me 2: I'm sorry you went through all that Velma. Having a clown that uses a paper shredder as a prop must've been really traumatic.

He threw a baseball.

CRACK!

Velma hit the ball.

Velma: Yeah it sure was. I lost a complete encyclopedia set on that day.

Me 2: Geez. But at least you got the whole set back on CD-ROM.

Velma: That's true. But I've been scared of clowns ever since.

Me 2: You didn't show that fear when we took down the Ghost Clown at that circus or any other clown villain before the giant clown robot.

Velma: That's true. But I'm not sure I can do this one again.

Me 2: Come on Velma you did so before. I believe in you and so does boss.

Velma: You're right.

Back with us we were searching.

Slog: Keep your eyes peeled. That clown could be anywhere.

Nico: With a clown that's over 20 feet tall he won't be hard to spot.

Me: There's the course I told you all about for Carly, Misty, Jack and me.

We saw another Miniature Golf Course and it looked like The Nazca Lines in Peru and the Earthbound Immortals.

Nico: Wow! Look at that!

Eli: That is amazing!

The course had replicas of the Nazca Lines as holes and the Earthbound Immortals were the obstacles.

A 3rd clone of my was playing with Misty and we were at the Lizard Nazca Line hole and she hit the ball and it went around Ccarayhua and it went into the hole and the eyes of the Lizard Nazca Line lit up for a hole in one.

Me: I call this course Nazca Wonder.

Nico: Good name.

We went down to it.

Anti-Wanda: I think we can play a nice golf game before searching for clues again.

Rice: Let me demonstrate my golf skills.

Nico: Go for it.

Rice flexed her muscle and made a golf tee on her bicep and then she flicked her finger and hit the golf ball and the ball landed in all 18 holes all at once.

Popeye: 18 Holes In One. (Laughs)

We laughed.

Me: That was a good one.

Ravager: Wait. I see something on the golf course.

It looked like the broken parts of a REALLY tricked out golf club.

Me: I've seen that club before.

Shaggy: Like yeah me too.

Rice: Hmm.

Me: That is one familiar club.

Rice: I think I know who is behind all this.

Cavalier: Perhaps we should regroup with Velma and your clone.

Me: Good idea.

Me 3: Me and Misty are done.

Me: Great.

POOF!

My 3rd clone dispelled.

Me: Lets regroup.

We regrouped.

Shaggy: Guys, even if I do go back to my cowardly self, you guys won't think less of me, will you?

Sheep Man: Of course not, Shaggy. Cowardly or not, you're still our friend.

Me: That's right Shaggy. You will always be our friend.

Carly: That's right!

Allie Wilde: Absolutely.

Velma and my clone came back.

Eric: I take it Velma's still afraid of clowns?

Me 2: We'll find out soon.

POOF!

My clone dispelled.

Me: We may find out in a few seconds! Here it comes!

We saw the giant clown robot coming!

Lady Deathstrike: (Japanese Accent) This is the part where we do an entrance.

Me: Lets do it!

We went at the Robot Clown.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above the clown and pies were thrown at it and they hit the clown and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Then a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of great leaders and the Loud Brothers appeared and swirled around it and then converged and then we came out.

Me: Time for this clown to lose its nose!

Jake: Buddy, we eat clowns for breakfast!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Turbo!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Turbo Rangers!

We went at the Clown Robot and smashed and pulverized it all over.

SMASH! POW! BLAM! KROW! BAM! ZONK! KATOW! THWACK! ZONK! BIFF!

Mammoth: Have a knuckle sandwich! (punches the Clown Robot)

KRABLAM!

He punched the robot's teeth out!

Nico: YEAH!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming, and when we sensed a massive and dangerous power, we knew who it was that showed up.

Me: That massive power, I should've known. You can come out of the shadows now, Frieza.

A figure came out of the shadows, and it was none other than Frieza, the tyrant responsible for the destruction of the Saiyans and Planet Vegeta, along with other atrocious acts.

Frieza: So, you knew that I'd be here. I expected nothing less from the leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Now I can get revenge on you and your friends for all the pain and humiliation that you caused to me! I didn't expect to see Vegeta with you but I guess monkeys do travel in troops.

Vegeta: Ha.

Me: And I thought we were done with you for good Frieza. Last time I remember you were obliterated when Nico killed you just as Namek was about to explode.

Vegeta: You went through the portal to get here. Am I right about that?

Frieza: And how ironic it was that I would go through a portal that would lead me to Earth and it would save me from the humiliation I suffered in Earth's Hell! You can't imagine my suffering there because of you! I spent most of my days strum up like a damn pupating moth trapped over a field of flowers where fairies and enchanted stuffed animals lived! They played acidine songs about smiling and warm fuzzy hugs! Instead of ruling the universe with an iron fist, I was serenaded by teddy bears!

Me: Don't try to pin that on me Frieza! You are the one that caused so much trouble to Nico's race and to many people all over the universe and you are also the one that came to Earth looking for a fight. That's why Trunks took your life on Earth and why Nico killed you on Namek as it was about to explode. It was all your choices!

Frieza: Oh but I had to come here J.D. That's what you are far too thick-headed to understand. You and your deaths are my remedy and required before I move on because I'll never be able to sleep in this universe knowing that I share it with you.

Me: We already took care of The Ginyu Force a year ago when someone opened up that portal and let all of you out.

Frieza: Too bad this'll be your last day in this world.

Me: We'll see about that. We killed you before and we can kill you again. We're going to make sure that you never regain your empire. The Saiyans did nothing to deserve being used as slaves to do your dirty work and enforce your will on the universe. Countless people died all because of you! Now we're getting justice for every single one of the people whose lives you destroyed.

But, when Frieza saw who was with us, his blood ran cold. He saw all the Saiyans that I'd resurrected after the April 12th War for Equestria.

Frieza: No… , That's impossible, I destroyed all of you.

Me: You look like you saw a bunch of ghosts!

King Vegeta: Yes, you did, but we were given a second chance at life and a chance at redemption, for having all of us do your dirty work for so many years. You manipulated us into slaughtering so many civilizations and decimating so many planets, and that's an unforgivable act you committed.

Hunter Drake Michaelson: And for that, you will pay the ultimate price for your treachery.

Suddenly, Hunter Drake Michaelson's eyes turned neon brown and he was surrounded by a red and yellow energy aura with elemental forces, and he unholstered his Bonds of International Friendship sword from his back, and as he approached Frieza, he left red and yellow energy, red and yellow flames, and elemental forces with every step.

Hunter Drake Michaelson: Frieza, the suffering that you have caused to countless innocent souls can never be forgiven, along with the numerous crimes you've committed across the universe. You are nothing but a damned soul, and for that, you will die!

Suddenly, Hunter Drake Michaelson was surrounded by a massive vortex of red and yellow energy with elemental forces around the vortex and The National Eagle, the national animal of Germany, was flying around the vortex, and inside the vortex was a red and yellow phoenix. Then, as the massive vortex faded, Hunter Drake Michaelson emerged, but he was forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Hunter Drake Michaelson was now much taller at 6'11" in height, and he now had abnormally large and powerful muscles and eight-pack abs, his brown hair's gotten longer going down to his neck and it was tied in a ponytail, he had neon brown eyes and a red and yellow energy aura with elemental forces surrounding him. Hunter Drake Michaelson had the National Eagle with the elemental forces in its claws emblazoned on his forehead, and he has large Germany-themed angel wings. The blade of his International Bonds of Friendship had grown longer, reaching 6'5" in length, and the black handle grew longer. He had on Eagle earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws, he had on a necklace with an Eagle with the Fire Kanji in its claws, he now has on a black shirt with a red and yellow phoenix, black pants, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long Germany-themed sleeveless trenchcoat with schnitzel and beer, elemental forces, and on the back was the National Eagle. He has on his new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on his wrists and his Belt of Elemental Bravery with large blue gem for the belt buckle on his waist and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the National Eagle written in red that said, "Hunter Drake Michaelson, Master of The Elemental Forces, International Friend To Many Across The World, Defender of Germany's Honor, Awesome Friend of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Protector of The Innocent and Slayer of The Guilty."

ハンタードレイクマイケルソン、エレメンタルフォースのマスター、世界中の多くの人々の国際的な友人、ドイツの名誉の擁護者、チームラウドフェニックスストームの素晴らしい友人、罪のない者と有罪の殺し屋の保護者

Hunter Drake Michaelson has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 ELEMENTAL FIRESTORM ANGEL OF GERMANY!

We were amazed by Hunter's awesome transformation, and that made Frieza's blood run even more cold. His paranoia of a stronger being has arisen yet again, and it means big trouble for him.

Me: Holy crap!

Nico: You said it, man. Hunter's transformed into his new Super

Angel 750,000,000,000 form, and it'll mean Frieza is now going to get what he deserves. (To Hunter Drake Michaelson) Hunter, how do you feel?

Hunter Drake Michaelson: (Divine Echoing Firestorm of Honor and German-Hungarian Accent) I feel incredible, Nico, and now, I'm going to take care of this vile monster once and for all. Would you care to join in?

Nico transformed into his Super Saiyan 5 form, and unholstered his Pride of The Saiyans sword from his back, and the Saiyans transformed and they also joined in the fight, as well.

Nico: You know it, Hunter.

Hunter snapped his fingers and took the battle to a different planet, that way, Frieza doesn't try any dirty tricks, like killing innocent people. Lincoln made a viewing window, so we can see the fight that was about to unfold.

Hunter Drake Michaelson: Get ready, Frieza. Your time of judgement has finally come!

Nico: ATTACK!

Hunter Drake Michaelson, Nico, and the Saiyans charged out, and they attacked Frieza with incredible ferocity and undeniable vengeance. They were really intent on making Frieza pay not only for killing them and destroying Planet Vegeta, but also, for forcing them to do his dirty work for so many years, and inflicting pain and suffering on every innocent soul, because of being manipulated by Frieza's lies for so long. We saw it for ourselves, and we were really amazed at how much stronger Hunter's now become.

Lori Loud: Hunter's really gotten stronger and he, Nico, and the Saiyans are literally giving Frieza what he deserves.

Lynn Loud: You said it, Lori. Frieza has gotten away with his lies and manipulation for so long, but it's now come back full circle, and now, he's about to pay the ultimate price.

Lincoln: And that price is a one-way trip to Oblivion.

Me: You said it, big guy.

Eli: Frieza destroyed so many people and he will pay for his crimes 100,000,000,000-fold.

Frieza was badly mangled by Hunter, Nico, and the Saiyans, and his rage has finally been let loose.

Frieza: No, I will not lose to any of you monkeys, or to a human like you!

Frieza tried to make an energy ball to destroy the planet, but Hunter reacted with swift action, and he sliced off Frieza's arms, and even worse, Hunter even slashed off Frieza's tail and slashed his eyes, blinding the tyrant, as he screamed in such hellish excruciating pain.

Nico: Alright, Hunter, you got him. Shall we deliver the coupe de grace?

Hunter Drake Michaelson: Of course, Nico.

Then, we saw what Hunter and Nico was preparing: The Spirit Bomb. We also joined in to help Hunter and Nico deliver the final farewell to the tyrant responsible for so much suffering to the universe. The Spirit Bomb was now as big as the sun, but suddenly, we saw something join in: the lost souls of all those who'd fallen victim to Frieza's attacks, and Hunter and Nico infused it with Super Hakai energy.

Hunter Drake Michaelson: Frieza, what I hold before you is the energy of all those who've fallen victim to your cruelty, who have now gathered for this: your day of judgement for all those you've manipulated and destroyed without remorse.

Nico: This is for destroying Planet Vegeta and the Saiyans, you bastard!

With a mighty yell, Hunter and Nico threw the massive Spirit Bomb at Frieza, and since he'd lost his arms and his strength was now almost gone, he was overwhelmed by the Spirit Bomb as it headed off into space, and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Frieza: DAMN YOU TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!

Those were the last words that Frieza said as the explosion completely obliterated him and also Super Hakaied Frieza once and for all. We came back to Earth, and Hunter powered down, and his eyes changed back to their normal brown color, but his new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent, and we all cheered wildly for what was now done: Frieza was silenced forever, and he'll never return to plague anyone ever again.

Nico: Good riddance. Now to finish the clown.

Drillhorn, Isa, Lola Bunny and Nosecone used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and they enhanced Drillhorn's Electromagnetic Nunchaku, Isa's moon powers and claymore, Lola Bunny's powers and Nosecone's X-Ray Laser Pistol 100-fold.

She fired a massive energy fist and smashed the Clown Down!

Me: ALL RIGHT!

Rice: Let's see who this robot really is.

Daphne: It has to be Mayor Smith Snipper.

Me: Nah he wouldn't do the same thing twice. Besides he learned his lesson last time.

Shaggy: Like no way. It has to be Gary Snipper his son.

Velma: Not this time guys.

Rice: It's really…

She opened the clown's mouth and pulled out a blond hair girl and it was MIRANDA WRIGHT!

Mystery Inc.: MIRANDA WRIGHT!

Rice: Yep. She was using the clown to destroy Minigolf and the competition completely.

Shaggy: But like why?

Miranda Wright: Because of you Shaggy I was banned from Minigolf for life for cheating! I wanted to make sure that you would never win! And I would have gotten away with it if it weren't for you meddling adults!

Me: We found her tricked out golf club at the course I made for Misty, Carly, Jack and the Signers and Dark Signers and Rice found her visor. Her initials M.W. are for her name Miranda Wright.

Laney: Yep.

Nico: She needs to go to Juvie.

Me: Yep.

We had her sent to Juvie.

Rice: That was awesome!

Me: Yep. Lets head to Lynn's Table. Great job everyone. Especially you Rice. You did great.

Rice: Thanks J.D.

Me: First we got a tournament to finish.

We were at the final hole and it was in the Shape of Scooby Doo.

Lori and Shaggy hit their balls at the same time and they went up the tongue and into the mouth and it glowed for Hole In One!

Scooby Hole: SCOOBY DOOBY DOO!

Lori and Shaggy HAD BOTH WON THE TOURNAMENT AT THE SAME TIME!

They got two great trophies!

We went to Lynn's Table and ordered our lunch and then Beetle, Cad Bane, Boomerang, Titanium Man, Cheshire, Multple Man, Silver Samurai, Blizzard, Major Disaster and Taskmaster appeared.

Me: We sure did and it was really awesome.

Cheshire: Did you take down any crooks there?

Me: We sure did. We took down The Ovulator. He was trying to make sure that the cows don't give beef and die of old age.

Nico: Yeah that was crazy. But for Ed not at all.

We laughed.

?: That was crazy.

A figure came out and it was BULLOX from episode 11 & 12 of Operation Overdrive!

---

Bullox is four-eyed bull-like Naga creature. He was summoned by Moltor to aid Tyzonn in retrieving the Parchment from the previous episode from the possession of the Overdrive Rangers. Moltor gave Tyzonn and the Lava Lizards to Bullox to find the second stone of Corona Aurora - the Toru Diamond. Bullox arrived to the city and fight the Rangers. He fought with four of them, while Tyzonn fought with Mack. When Bullox saw that the scroll had lost one important piece, he returned to the city and started to destroy everything to make the Rangers appear. After Tyzonn turned against Moltor, Bullox was ordered to destroy him, but he eventually got away with the help of Mack. Thus, Bullox and Moltor were on their trail. When it came to the ambush at the Toru Diamond's location in Indonesia, he engaged Tyzonn in battle where Bullox was winning until Mack joins the fight and does a combo attack on Bullox. As Mack is riding in the Sonic Streaker fighting the Lavadactyls, Bullox was taken down by the Defender Vest and Drill Blaster. Moltor shot a dart at Bullox to make him grow and he went head-to-head with the Super DriveMax Megazord and was winning until Mack arrived in the Sonic Streaker. It took the power of the new DriveMax Ultrazord to destroy Bullox.

---

Tyzonn: Bullox!

Bullox: Been a while Tyzonn.

Me: I remember you! You were Tyzonn's partner and you were sent to retrieve the Parchment to find the second stone of the Corona Aurora - the Toru Diamond.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Bullox: (to Tyzonn) I honestly did like the whole time we worked together, Tyzonn.

Tyzonn: I did too.

Me: That was a great partnership.

Then a figure came out and it was SILVERHOUND!

Nico: Silverhound!

Silverhound: Nice to meet you Nico.

Nico: Same here. Now lets get this battle party started!

Me: Lets do it! And I have just the place to fight.

---

Blizzard was next.

Blizzard: (to Troy) Why didn't Velma show she was afraid of clowns during all the times we faced other evil clowns?

Troy: I think it might have been because she was used to fighting clowns that were normal human sized.

Blizzard: That could be it. But poor Velma.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah she got her fear of clowns because her parents hired a clown that used a paper shredder as a prop.

Sunburn: Which is not very smart on their part.

Noah Carver: But it was good that J.D. made a Shadow Clone to help Velma conquer her fear of clowns.

Nico teleported and opened it and in it was 3 swords.

Nico: These swords look cool.

Bullox: Yep they are the Swords of Gabija, Khione and Gaia.

The Sword of Gabija, it's a sword with a 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blade and a phoenix etched onto it, fire-colored angel wings for the crossguard, large pink gem for the hilt, longer black handle, and a large fire-colored sphere pommel with surrounding fire-colored gems.

---

Part 4 done.

The next rescue for me is gonna be for an Ant Arachne named Lhotwe as well as a Pinsir Gene-Slammer named Vina Vemenichikkov and she will be from Poland. Those two are gonna be in the world of Buck Bumble for N64 and that was a video game I played ages ago. Also me and Dialga Gene-Slammer will go meet them as well as destroy the evil Herd. Lincoln's rescue is gonna be in the world of Kirby's Adventure for NES and that is another great game that I played and have known since I was a little kid. The next case is gonna be in Turkey and we're going to solve the case of The Tar Monster. We're going to be in for a really STICKY time as we solve the mystery of the Tar Monster and recover a treasure that is priceless and was stolen.

See you all tomorrow

Turkish Archaeological Mystery

Over in London, England me and the Dialga Gene-Slammer were flying over the gardens of beautiful buildings and they were amazing.

Carolyn Hope: Where are we now?

Carolyn concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: Looks like we're in London but everything is huge.

Carolyn turned into Dialga!

Me: YEAH!

Carolyn had me hop on and I recognized the place.

Me: I know this place! This is London from the year 2010 and we're in the world of a game I haven't played in forever: Buck Bumble.

---

The year is 2010, and as the result of a previous spill at a chemical factory in London, England, the insects in the surrounding area have mutated. Several different types of these mutated insects gather together becoming the evil "Herd", who are bent on taking over the garden, and eventually the whole world. The game casts the player as a Buck Bumble, a volunteer bumblebee that gets implanted with cyborg technology. He is part of an organization known as "The Resistance", which is trying to stop the evil Herd Army. Buck's missions send him on multiple tasks, such as defending the resistance base, attacking Herd supply lines while traveling through sewers, and eventually fighting the Herd's mantis-like Queen.

---

Carolyn Dialga: Wow! I remember that game all too well. That is amazing that we are here.

Me: I know and we're going to destroy The Herd and everything they are.

Carolyn Dialga: This is gonna be wicked awesome.

We went and took on the evil Herd and along the way we met an Ant Arachne named Lhotwe and a Pinsir Gene-Slammer named Vina Vemenichikkov and she is from Poland. We were blasting and smashing and destroying numerous bugs from the Herd and tearing them apart and we were helping Buck destroying them. When the Queen of the Herd was destroyed we regrouped and Buck went back to his base. I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Vina reverted back and she was naked and Carolyn reverted back too.

Carolyn was human again. But naked.

Carolyn: (covers herself) Vina, are you having trouble regaining your human mind?

Vina: (Covers herself) (Polish Accent) No I'm okay. I'll make it.

Lhotwe: And it's good we destroyed the Herd.

I gave Carolyn and Vina new clothes and they put them on.

Me: Those bugs were monsters. (To Lhotwe) No offense.

Lhotwe: None taken. But that was awesome.

We went back home.

---

After our adventure in the world of Buck Bumble, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Princess Luna, Natilee Knudson, Maria Rockell, Kirby, and Baihumon were heading to the world of Kirby's Adventure, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the seventeen girls here, but we're also going to deal with Nightmare.

Lincoln: Oh wow, we're in the world of Kirby's adventure, and I think I know what we're going to do in this one, not only am I going to rescue the seventeen girls here, but we're also going to deal with that evil wizard, Nightmare.

Me: You said it, big guy, I've played this game ever since I was a kid and it was awesome.

Nico: This is definitely going to be an awesome rescue.

Eli: You said it.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of seventeen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the seventeen girls sighted here, but they've been cornered by Nightmare, and he was going to kill them.

Lincoln: Oh man, I've found the seventeen girls, but they've been cornered by Nightmare, and he's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over to rescue the girls and attack Nightmare.

Nightmare: And now, you will all die! (LAUGHING EVILLY)

But, before Nightmare could try to kill them, he was punched in the face and blasted by Lincoln, and as soon as Nightmare saw us here, he was enraged beyond measure.

Nightmare: How dare you interfere in my plans, Team Loud Phoenix Storm! I will kill you all!

Lincoln: Shut your trap, Nightmare. You've caused a lot of trouble to The Dream World for the last time, and now, we're putting an end to this nightmare once and for all.

Suddenly, we saw Lincoln's neon blue energy aura with elemental forces flare up, his deep sapphire blue eyes changed to aurora colors, his white hair turned neon blue, the blue lightning bolt highlights changed to aurora colors, and the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs changed to aurora colors. Lincoln has transformed into DAYDREAM LINCOLN, and his infinite energy and power levels were still as powerful as ever both in normal form and Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice form.

We were really surprised to see that Lincoln's unlocked a Daydream form, just like me.

Me: Oh, now that's so awesome! Lincoln, you've unlocked your new Daydream form.

Lincoln: That's right, and now, I'm going to put an end to this nightmare once and for all.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and went after Nightmare, and he fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy with elemental forces orbiting around the cores, and he slashed at Nightmare with powerful one-handed swings of his massive blade, and those combined attacks damaged Nightmare really badly. Then, Lincoln fired a blast of red energy, and sucked out Nightmare's powers and magic, and made the dark wizard powerless. Then, Lincoln fired a powerful aurora-colored Kamehameha wave at Nightmare, and Super Hakaied Nightmare for good. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln just did, as he holstered his Sword of Taranis on his back, and changed back.

Lincoln and Nicole walked up to the seventeen girls located here, and when Lincoln saw the girls, he recognized them. The seventeen girls were Kotone Amamita from Brave Beats, Miho Amakata and Gou Matsuoka from Free!, Aotsuki Wakana, Yoshikawa Haruno, Takashima Rei, Fujiwara Takako, Umemoto Sachiko, Natsukawa Yui, and Owada Akiko from Diamond Ace, Sakura Hibiki, Soryuin Akemi, Tachibana Satomi, Uehara Ayaka, and Gina Boyd from How Heavy Are The Dumbbells You Lift, Natsuki Mogi from Initial D, and Saya Otonashi from Blood.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Kotone Amamita, Miho Amakata, Gou Matsuoka, Aotsuki Wakana, Yoshikawa Haruno, Takashima Rei, Fujiwara Takako, Umemoto Sachiko, Natsukawa Yui, Owada Akiko, Sakura Hibiki, Soryuin Akemi, Tachibana Satomi, Uehara Ayaka, Gina Boyd, Natsuki Mogi, and Saya Otonashi.

Nicole: From Brave Beats, Free, Diamond Ace, How Heavy Are The Dumbbells You Lift, Initial D, and Blood, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Sakura Hibiki: Yeah, we're okay, thanks.

Then, when Sakura Hibiki, Soryuin Akemi, Tachibana Satomi, Uehara Ayaka, Gina Boyd, and the other twelve girls saw who it was that saved them from Nightmare, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Sakura Hibiki: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made seventeen clones of himself, and twelve of them went up to the other girls, and Lincoln and five other clones went up to Sakura Hibiki, Soryuin Akemi, Tachibana Satomi, Uehara Ayaka, and Gina Boyd, who'd picked her and the other thirteen girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Sakura Hibiki: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to The Estate, and we put down another wanted criminal of The Dream World for good.

---

After our rescue in the Dream World, we were then training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds.

When Sakura Hibiki, Soryuin Akemi, Tachibana Satomi, Uehara

Ayaka, and Gina Boyd saw Lincoln was really working out intensely and sweating like crazy, they were blushing like mad and were stunned.

Sakura Hibiki: Oh man, those abnormally large and powerful muscles Lincoln has were definitely not just for show.

Soryuin Akemi: You said it, just look at those muscles he has, he could outmuscle any bodybuilder we know.

Gina Boyd: And he's only sixteen years old, but he's got the body of a God and a bodybuilder?! Man, he's both hot and handsome!

Lori: (Smiles) Uh oh, looks like my bro's got them blushing like mad.

Me: He's definitely become much more confident and braver. But, it was thanks to all of us helping him out.

Rita Loud: (Smiles) I remember the day he was born and we brought him home to the girls, and now, he's grown into an amazing young man.

Lynn Sr.: (Smiles) Same here, honey.

We finished our workouts, and we got a shower afterwards. Then, we were heading down to meet Viewtiful Joe and his friends, and it turns out that when Lincoln rescued Sprocket from The Sphere, the world of Viewtiful Joe has merged with our world.

Me: Oh, this is going to be awesome meeting Viewtiful Joe and his friends.

Lincoln: You said it, J.D.

Nicole: And I've heard about Viewtiful Joe, he's the hero of The World of Movies, and he possesses VFX powers that give him abilities that're similar to camera effects.

Nico: Whoa, now that's so awesome, he and his friends are definitely candidates for Team Loud Phoenix Storm after what I've heard about them.

We arrived at a local movie theater, and we met Viewtiful Joe, Silvia, and Captain Blue Junior.

Viewtiful Joe: Oh man, is that Team Loud Phoenix Storm?!

Silvia: My eyes aren't lying, it's them, alright.

Me: That's right, Joe, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Viewtiful Joe: You too, J.D.

Then, when Viewtiful Joe, Captain Blue Jr., and Silvia saw Sprocket, they were stunned to see her.

Viewtiful Joe: Sprocket, is that you?

Sprocket: Yeah, it's me, Joe.

We explained to Joe and Silvia that Sprocket was in the world of the 1998 movie Sphere, and Lincoln saved her, and she's now one of his future wives.

Silvia: Oh wow, that's amazing.

Viewtiful Joe: You said it. (To Lincoln) You take good care of her, Lincoln.

Lincoln: You got it, Joe, and I'm a man of my word.

Me: He's right, Lincoln's got a large golden heart and he loves his future wives just as much as his family and friends, and like he said, he's a man of his word.

Viewtiful Joe: So, we've heard that you guys are going after Team Dark Phoenix Storm soon, right?

Nico: You heard correct, Joe.

Viewtiful Joe: Well, consider us new members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Plus, I'm going to take things a lot seriously, I'm not going to let Mr. Mind nor his goons get away with their plot to destroy you guys and the Earth. No one messes with our heroes and our home and gets away with it.

Nico: (Smiles) Ooh, I like that spirit. Alright, you guys are in.

Viewtiful Joe, Captain Blue Jr., and Silvia cheered, and they became new members of the team, and they're also going to help out in the fight against Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

---

Later we were watching TV and we saw that Brian was going somewhere.

Fire Man: Where are you going, Brian?

Brian: Quagmire was right about one thing. I've kept Dylan out of my life for too long. Time I fixed that.

Lynn: (sighs) Dude, didn't we say not to listen to anything Quagmire says?

Lola: Not that he's gonna be saying anything anymore.

Lori: Actually, as a parent myself, Brian has a point. He really should visit Dylan.

Me: I agree with Lori. Lets go see Dylan. Scans show that he lives in Providence, Rhode Island which is about 15 miles from where Quahog was.

Nico: Thank goodness the capital city isn't like Quahog.

Eli: Yeah thank goodness for that.

Me: Yep. Lets head out.

We were off to Providence, Rhode Island.

---

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

---

We arrived in Providence, Rhode Island the Capital City of Rhode Island.

We got to Tracy Flanigan's house and we saw that it was a total dump.

Me: This is where Tracy and Dylan live?

Brian: Yeah it's not very good huh?

Nico: What a dump.

We went up to the door and Brian knocked on it and we saw Dylan.

Dylan: Dad?

Brian: Hey Dylan.

They hugged.

Suzi (Camp Lakebottom): Are you Dylan?

Dylan: I sure am and it's awesome to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Same here. Brian told us so much about you.

Sunny Starscout: We're amazed how you went from a thug to a gentleman.

Dylan: It's a life I never want to go back to.

Eli: That's good.

Me: The thug life is a nasty life.

Stewie: Hey, Dylan. Remember me?

Dylan: Stewie! Awesome to see you again.

Stewie: Same here. It's great you're doing well.

Lois: Oh Dylan you are doing really well.

Dylan: Thanks Lois. I'm sorry I said all those terrible things to you and Peter. I heard about what happened to you.

Lois: Yeah it was awful.

Me: We have a lot to tell you.

We went inside and we told Dylan about many of our adventures and more.

Maria: You probably heard what happened on the news the other day.

Dylan: Boy I sure did. That was horrible! All those poor people!

Thetis: You're not kidding there.

Allie Wilde: Quagmire is the worst monster ever.

Laney: Yeah no kidding.

Cleveland: Yeah I don't know what we were thinking having a pervert like that with us as our friend.

Joe Swanson: Yeah no kidding. Makes me wonder how many more are like Quagmire.

Lois told Dylan about Peter Griffin her so-called husband and how big of a stupid testicle-chinned idiot he was.

Dylan: I knew Peter was bad news from the start. He honestly rubbed me the wrong way.

G1 Ironbison: What gave it away? His stupidity or the many times he's caused trouble?

Dylan: Both.

Me: It wasn't just that. He was abusing Meg here for a really long time and that's what got our attention.

Nico: I heard about that. I wasn't with you guys when that all went down.

Eli: You were with us for those amazing Humiliations though.

Nico: That's true.

Dylan: Boy I saw those on TV and they were awesome and hilariously funny.

Allie Wilde: They sure were.

Tracy came and we saw that she was a fat slob and smoking bad. We told her everything and more and we also told her about what happened with Peter, Lois, Meg and Quagmire and more. But she told us that she was ugly.

G1 Lightspeed: (to Tracy) You might not seem attractive on the outside. But you're a good person on the inside. That's what matters.

Dylan: I agree mom.

Tracy: I'm glad you think that.

Lily: But perhaps I can help out with that.

Lily spread her wings of water and she enveloped Tracy in a ball of water and then removed her fat, nicotine and poisons and all that from her. Tracy was changed back to her former beautiful self!

Tracy came out and she was beautiful.

Brian: Wow! Tracy you look more beautiful than ever. You look as beautiful as you were when I first met you.

Dylan: You sure do mom.

Tracy: I do?

I formed a mirror and Tracy was beautiful again!

Tracy: Oh wow! I look more beautiful than ever!

Tree Hugger: And I can help you get rid of those habits.

Tracy was glad that Tree Hugger was gonna help her.

Dylan and Tracy were moved into the World Tree Estate.

---

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Vice: BTW, Nico? It's your turn to lead today.

Nico: I know that Vice.

Nicole: And the timing couldn't be perfect. Velma sent us this invitation. Mystery Inc. and us have been invited by my colleague Dr. Brixton. He's an archaeologist that's in Turkey. We're going to see the ancient underground city of Byzantius.

Eli: Ooh that sounds cool!

Nico: I've always wanted to go to Turkey ever since we raced through it in the global super race.

Me: I have a feeling I know what we're going to do there.

Aylene C.: This is gonna be interesting to see.

Jessie K.: Yep. The city of Byzantius has been underground for over 5,000 years and parts of it are still in pristine condition after all these years.

Nico: Whoa! This is gonna be so cool!

Misty Tredwell then appeared.

Misty Tredwell: May I go with you guys?

Me: You sure can Misty. We're going to Turkey to see one of Nicole's fellow colleagues.

Cheshire, Beetle, Cad Bane, Boomerang, Titanium Man, Multple Man, Silver Samurai, Blizzard, Major Disaster and Taskmaster then appeared.

Cheshire: Can me, Beetle, Cad Bane, Boomerang, Titanium Man, Multple Man, Silver Samurai, Blizzard, Major Disaster and Taskmaster go with you guys this time?

Nico: You all sure can. We're gonna go to Turkey to meet Nicole's colleague Dr. Brixton to see an amazing underground city named Byzantius.

Taskmaster: This is gonna be an interesting sight to see.

Laney: It sure is. The last time we were in Turkey was when we raced through it during the Super Race.

Allie Wilde: It sure will be awesome to see Turkey and this underground city.

Nico: It sure will be awesome. Lets head out!

We were off to Turkey.

---

MOUNTAINS OF TURKEY

---

We arrived in the mountains of Turkey.

Aqua Man: (Mega Man) Here we are.

Nico: Yep.

We arrived at a gate.

Kareem: (Arabic Accent) Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to have you all here.

Nicole: Same here. We were invited by Dr. Brixton my colleague.

Nicole showed her papers as proof.

Kareem: Ah very well. Go right ahead. Mystery Inc. is with Dr. Brixton too.

Nicole: Thank you sir.

We went into the site.

Me: Wow look at this place.

We saw tents up and everything.

Fred: Hey guys!

Nico: Thanks for inviting us over Fred.

Fred: No problem Nico.

We went into a tent and we met Dr. Brixton.

Nicole: Hello Preston.

Dr. Brixton: Good to see you Nicole!

They hugged.

Boomerang: (Australian Accent) Good to meet you, Professor.

Dr. Brixton: Same to you. And it's good that you are all here.

Nicole: We can't wait to see the ancient city.

Dr. Brixton: I'm afraid my friends there won't be much to see. We had to stop digging.

Me: Uh oh. Don't tell me. Is it the Tar Monster?

Dr. Brixton: Yes. He somehow returned.

Me: It's not the Tar Monster in the Masters of Evil is it?

Dr. Brixton: I'm not very sure.

Cad Bane: (contacts Tar Monster) Tar Monster, where are you right now?

Tar Monster: (Gurgling Voice) I'm over in Pitch Lake on The Island of Trinidad.

Me: Pitch Lake on Trinidad? We're 7,000 miles from there.

Nico: Hmm. I think Stoner might be back.

Qin: I have that same feeling too.

Georgina: We better make sure that this fake Tar Monster doesn't get its hands on any treasure here. I'll gladly help you solve this mystery.

Dr. Brixton: I greatly appreciate it.

Totally Spies Alice: (to Georgina) Any reason why you're interested in this mystery all of a sudden?

Georgina: Because I'm descended from Turkey in my bloodline and I also am very fascinated in learning all about my heritage ties to my native land. Also I heard about what happened here when Stoner tried to steal the treasure of Byzantius. If it really is Stoner that is back to steal the treasure for himself like he did before then I want to make sure that he doesn't get it.

Nico: Very good reason Georgina.

Dr. Brixton: And you'll get a very good reason too Georgina. Our findings have discovered that in the Inner Sanctum of the city that there is another trove of treasure underneath the spot where Stoner hid the treasure.

Nicole: Wow this one must be worth more than the treasure that was found before.

Dr. Brixton: Yes and this treasure will be one of the biggest finds in history.

Me: We'll gladly help you all find it before Stoner does.

Dr. Brixton: We must find it and fast.

Kareem: Our government agrees with your decision to recover the rest of our ancient treasures without delay professor. I will go with you all to the Inner Sanctum today.

Nicole: We'll need all the help we can get to stop Stoner.

Qin: That's right. This is gonna be awesome.

Nico: First lets get some sleep. It's late at night here in Turkey.

Nicole: Good idea.

Later we got some sleep and then later the following morning we were having breakfast. We had eggs and then we got ready.

Shaggy: No way are me and Scoob going!

Tomahawk Man: (smiles) Now that's the Shaggy we know and love!

Me: Yeah. Welcome back to your cowardly self.

Shaggy: Well now that the Minigolf Tournament is over it's time for me to be a coward again.

Me: Good.

Shaggy: But still no way are me and Scoob going back into that city.

Nico: Not even for my newest flavor Scooby Snax? It's Rocky Road Flavor.

Shaggy: Rocky Road!? Oh boy!

Scooby Doo: Oh boy!

Then Nico gave them new rocky road Scooby Snax and they ate them.

Shaggy and Scooby: MMM! MMM! MMMMMMM!

They spun around and turned into the rockets and went into the sky and formed into a dazzling fireworks show and they landed in Nico's arms.

Shaggy: Like wow! Rocky Road Scooby Snax are awesome!

Boomerang: (Laughs) Oh, I get it, Mate! It's Rocky Road and Tar is associated with road!

We laughed!

Nico: Good joke huh?

Luan: (Laughs) That is a good one.

Nico: Yep. You two ready?

Shaggy: Like yeah we're ready.

Nicole: Great! Lets go.

We went down into a tunnel that went underground and it was dark and creepy.

Me: Wow this tunnel goes on for a long way.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Man it sure is dark down here.

Laney: No kidding.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah.

Ed: This looks like the tunnel from I Was A Cotton Swab In Madame Tongue-Itch's Earwax Museum: The Mini-Series!

Eli: [in a spooky voice from behind a torch flame] "Rainbow Dash! Let me poke your brain!" [He laughs evilly, and Rainbow Dash screamed.]

We laughed.

Nico: That was funny.

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one Eli.

Rainbow Dash: Very funny.

G1 Tantrum: Let's see if we can find any clues.

Nico: Okay.

Qin: But this city is amazing.

Laney: It sure is. Professor how did this amazing city get down here?

Dr. Brixton: Our research indicates there was a giant earthquake that dropped this entire region hundreds of feet. And then the surrounding hills collapsed, burying the city forever.

Lola: Wow this is amazing.

Lana: Yeah no kidding.

Georgina: But lets see what's here.

We got to searching and we saw tar footprints.

Georgina: Tar footprints.

Nico: Looks like the Tar Monster was here.

Eli: Yeah no kidding.

Laney touched the tar and it was still fresh.

Laney: This tar is still fresh. The fake monster was here probably less than 10 minutes ago.

Major Disaster: (to Georgina) Does this city bring back memories of the Underground City that you and the others know?

Georgina: It sure does. Except this city and the one we were in are completely different.

Nico: Yeah that's right.

We searched some more and I found something.

Me: Hey what's this?

I found a piece of paper and it showed a map.

Me: It's a map and there are tar spots on it.

Nico: Hmm.

Nico looked at the map and it showed that the Inner Sanctum had a hidden room and the hidden room had a staircase underneath it.

Nico: Look at this. There's a staircase in the hidden room in the Inner Sanctum.

Eli: We better take a look.

We went into the Inner Sanctum and we saw a statue of the Tar Monster on the floor.

Laney: This must be a statue of the Tar Monster to keep people out of here.

Lana: Yeah. Very well made.

Me: And it opened a door there.

I pointed to the room where the treasure was and we went into it,

Brimstone: Here's the room.

Me: Yep this is where we found the treasures Stoner took the first time.

Georgina: Lets see if there's a button or a switch.

We got to looking and we were tapping and feeling the walls.

Eli: Lets see here.

Eli felt something and then he pressed a button on the floor and then a door opened up and revealed a hidden staircase.

Eli: Bingo!

Georgina: Hey good work Eli!

Nico: Wow a hidden staircase.

Georgina: Lets head down and see where it leads.

Shaggy: Uh uh! No way are me and Scooby going down there.

I then grabbed Shaggy and Scooby.

Me: Oh yes you two chickens are.

Shaggy and Scooby clucked like chickens.

Allie Wilde: Boy these two are total cowards.

Sunny Starscout: They sure sound like it.

Me: Don't ask.

Maria: Wait. Shouldn't we also find the treasure before the Fake Tar Monster does?

Silver Samurai: Maria has a point.

Nico: That's exactly what we're trying to do.

Maria: Oh sorry.

We went down the staircase and we saw that it was dark and we then found a door and on it was a message written in an ancient language.

Nicole: Wow look at this.

Eli: What does it say?

Nicole: Lets see. It's some kind of riddle. And it looks like the door can only be opened if you answer it correctly.

Allie Wilde: Wow this looks interesting.

Nicole: Lets see here. "What is greater than God, more evil than the Devil, rich people need it, poor people have it and if you eat it you'll die?"

Nico: Very cryptic.

Nicole: I know the answer. It's Nothing!

Then there was a rumble and the door opened and there was a bright glow and we saw a room FULL OF PRICELESS JEWELS!

Nico: WHOA!

Laserbeak: Look at all of this treasure!

Georgina: Wow! These jewels are amazing!

Rarity looked at a sapphire that was as big as her hand.

Rarity: These jewels are most amazing!

Lola: So beautiful.

Lana: Wow!

Dr. Brixton: These jewels are magnificent! We never even knew these were here.

Kareem: These jewels will make a great addition to any museum all over the world.

Georgina: They sure will. Lets get them back up to the surface and then we can fight the fake Tar Monster.

Nico: Good idea.

Taskmaster: Wait. Shouldn't we look for more clues to point out the Tar Monster's identity?

Eli: We won't need to. I found this in the room the staircase goes from.

Eli found a Turkish Newspaper.

Me: A Turkish Newspaper.

I looked at it.

Nico: What does it say?

Me: Lets see. (Reads in Turkish) Hükümlü suçlu Stoner, hapisten kaçtı. Dr. Brixton'ın açgözlü eski yardımcı arkeologu, maksimum güvenlikli bir hapishaneden kaçtı ve Bizans'ın eski paha biçilmez hazinelerinin peşinde olduğuna inanılıyor. (Convicted felon Stoner, escaped prison. Greedy former assistant archaeologist of Dr. Brixton escaped from a maximum security prison and is believed to be after the ancient priceless treasures of Byzantium.)

Nicole: "Convicted felon Stoner, escaped prison. Greedy former assistant archaeologist of Dr. Brixton escaped from a maximum security prison and is believed to be after the ancient priceless treasures of Byzantium."

Taskmaster: Okay now we can find the Fake Tar Monster and take him down.

G1 Divebomb: Now, let's go back and analyze that footprint that belongs to the Fake Tar Monster.

Nico: Good idea. First lets put all these jewels in a scroll.

Georgina put all the jewels into a scroll and we went back and analyzed the footprints.

Me: Hmm.

I swiped the tar footprints with my finger and it showed that the footprints were indeed made of pure tar.

Me: These footprints are indeed made of pure tar. Just like the first time.

Laney: Yep.

Beetle: Wasn't there pottery the first time too?

Me: Yes there was. Lots of it. But all the pottery was taken to museums after we got Stoner arrested.

Beetle: That makes sense.

Ruby: Let's get back to the site and make a plan!

Barbossa: Took the words right out of me mouth, lass.

We went back to the surface and into Brixton's tent.

We got to thinking.

Me: We can use the same method we used to trap the Tar Monster the first time?

Nico: Using that air compressor?

Me: Bingo. But I don't think he would fall for the same thing twice.

Lola: We can always burn him. When you light tar on fire it will melt.

Nico: Not a bad idea Lola.

Blizzard: Freezing the Tar Monster can work too.

Nico: Freezing it works too. We already used fire on the Scooby Snax batter monster. So this time we'll use ice.

Lana: Now you're talking.

Rarity: This is gonna be most good.

Nico: Okay. Lets go find the Fake Tar Monster.

We got ready to go find him and take him down.

We found him at a tar pool.

Manterror: There it is. Now's the time for an entrance.

Nico: Follow my lead.

We went at the Tar Monster. Just as it was about to head to the tar pool…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of the Power Rangers from 2004 to 2015 appeared and then they converged and we came out!

Nico: You're under arrest Tar Monster!

The Tar Monster Roared!

Multiple Man: Let's see how you do against 310 more of us!

Multiple Man made 310 clones of himself.

We fired beams of ice and they hit the Fake Tar Monster in his right arm and shattered it into dust.

Nico: Take that you fake!

Deker, Abis Mal, Nergal, Motor Ed, Mojo Jojo, Po Kong, Gizmo, Radioactive Man, Private H.I.V.E., Penguin and Spymaster then appeared.

Nico: Deker, Abis Mal, Nergal, Motor Ed, Mojo Jojo, Po Kong, Gizmo, Radioactive Man, Private H.I.V.E., Penguin and Spymaster.

Deker: So, you guys found another imposter?

William: It's a Fake Tar Monster this time.

Abis Mal: It's giving the Tar Monster we know a bad name. And Tar Pit as well!

May: Oh yeah. That's right. Tar Pit's made out of tar too.

Me: Right I forgot about that.

Nergal: I hope you guys pummel this guy good!

Me: Oh believe me we will. It was Stoner who somehow escaped from prison.

Motor Ed: (to me) We heard you went to the world of Buck Bumble. Seriously.

Me: We sure did. That's a game I haven't played in forever.

Mojo Jojo: Which villain did you take out there?

Me: The evil Herd. It's an ugly story.

Nico: Yeah strange how they were made too.

?: I will destroy you all for killing Count Dooku!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming, and when Eli, Lincoln, me, and The Jedi sensed who it was, it means trouble.

Anakin: I was hoping I'd never hear or see him again. You can come out now, Pong Krell.

A figure came out, and it was none other than Pong Krell, the treacherous Jedi Master who turned against The Republic and The Jedi Order to serve under Count Dooku.

Ahsoka Tano: I should've known you'd show up, traitor.

Me: So, that's Pong Krell, the former Jedi Master who turned traitor to serve under Count Dooku.

Anakin: Yeah, this guy is bad news, J.D. Let me tell you guys about him, but trust me, you're not going to like it.

Me: Isn't he also the general of the Grand Army of the Republic that participated in the Battle of Umbara?

Anakin: That's right.

Anakin proceeded to tell us about the history of Pong Krell, and like he said, we weren't going to like it one bit.

---

Pong Krell

Pong Krell is the main antagonist of the Umbara arc in Season 4 of the TV series Star Wars: The Clone Wars, and arguably the secondary antagonist of the entire fourth season itself.

He is a very stern Besalisk male fallen Jedi Master who served as a Jedi General during the Clone Wars. An unyielding Jedi General, Krell took a no-nonsense approach when it came to commanding a group of clone troopers. Having won many key Republic victories during the war, the Besalisk Jedi Master was recognized as a successful general among Jedi and clones alike but had the highest amount of clone casualties under his belt.

He was voiced by Dave Fennoy, who also voiced Black Manta in Suicide Squad: Hell to Pay.

Biography

Around the second year of the Clone Wars, Krell was present on the Confederate-aligned world Umbara, where he took over the command of the 501st Legion as an interim. Under his command, the troops of the 501st were ordered to take the planet's capital city in a full frontal assault on a highway that led into the city. Often at odds with Clone Captain Rex, Krell did not come to terms with the 501st Captain.

When the clone troopers had to capture an Umbaran airbase before they could proceed into the city, Rex, with many of the troopers under his command, felt uncertain about the order, due to the route Krell wanted the clones to take to reach the airbase. After the capture of the airbase, Krell's battle group learned of a Confederate supply ship in orbit over Umbara. Even though Krell wanted all his troops to take the city, three clone troopers under his command-

Jesse, Hardcase, and Fives- disobeyed the order and boarded separate starfighters to dock with the supply ship. When only Jesse and Fives returned, Krell wanted them to face the Grand Army's court-martial for disobeying orders, although the Besalisk instead decided to organize a firing squad to execute the clones. After Krell ordered Rex and the rest of his men to hunt Umbarans disguised in clone armor, the Jedi Master's betrayal was revealed when Rex's men learned that they were killing Kenobi's clone unit, who equally received the same order from Krell to kill clone-disguised Umbaran troops.

Rex, with Kenobi's troopers, attempted to arrest Krell for his treasonous act, although the Besalisk avoided capture by engaging the clone troopers in combat. After a brutal battle in the jungles of Umbara, trooper Tup knocked Krell unconscious by stunning him, and the fallen Jedi was taken to the airbase's prison. There, Krell revealed that he had foreseen that the Jedi would lose the Clone Wars and that a new order would rise in the place of the destroyed Republic, and wanted to become Count Dooku's apprentice. Trooper Dogma, who was present at the time, took a blaster and shot Krell in the back, killing him instantly. The battle was later won by the Republic.

Personality

In war, Pong Krell is a very obdurate, ruthless, relentless, and intransigent Jedi Master who settled for nothing less than absolute victory on the battlefield. Committed to both the Jedi Order and the Galactic Republic, Krell became a successful general through his unorthodox but efficient strategies. He is supremely equanimous and confident in his command style, and thus he expected complete obedience to the chain-of-command from his subordinates.

During the Battle of Umbara, Pong Krell displayed very low opinion of clone troopers, but he was especially antagonized by Clone Captain 7567 (Rex). He is also extremely irritated by the captain's suggestion to let the troopers rest before completing their objective, as well as their failure to defeat Umbaran soldiers without the assistance of his reinforcements. Krell was also not afraid to use the threat of deadly force to put insubordinate troopers back in their place, as ARC-5555 (Fives) discovered when his outspoken criticism of the general's leadership was silenced with an order at the point of a lightsaber blade.

In terms of military strategy, Krell is keenly aware of Umbara's significance to the Republic's war effort, including the fact that the chances of victory depended primarily on himself and the 501st Legion. Though viewed by some clones as a gruff, pejorative, and uncompromising tactician, the fiercely focused Krell was unshakably determined to achieve the best results in battle so that the outcome would be nothing short of a Republic victory. Consequently, however, this record for success also produced a record for the highest casualties as well, which Krell rationalized as a natural consequence of war. Although he was a highly skilled combatant, Krell did not normally get involved in the fighting unless absolutely necessary. During the Battle of Umbara, he intentionally remained away from most of the fighting in order to covertly assist the Umbarans and the Separatists.

Very far from being an incompetent general as some of the 501st initially perceived him to be due to his seemingly reckless strategies, Pong Krell revealed his true nature when his own clone troopers attempted to arrest him. He detested the clones as "creatures" hatched in the laboratories of Kamino. He also took immense pleasure in killing many clones with ease, as well as the fact that he no longer had to hide behind his Jedi facade. By this time, the tenets of the Jedi Order had become meaningless to Krell. In his eyes, the Jedi were too naïve, credulous, and unsuspecting, and the path to true power was through the Sith. As a result of his new beliefs, Krell reveled in the Dark Side of the Force.

When Anakin was finished, we were horrified at Pong Krell's act of betrayal.

Eli: (Growling Angrily) That bastard, he's nothing but a traitor to the Jedi Order and to the Republic!

Me: You said it, Eli. He's a rogue Jedi.

Anakin: Commander Nico, let me and Ahsoka take care of this traitor. But, we're not going to kill him.

Nico: Okay, Anakin, but what do you have planned for him?

Anakin: We're bringing him before the Jedi Council to face justice, it's best the Council delivers him his punishment than have him killed.

Nico: That's a good idea. Alright, Anakin, you and Ahsoka be careful.

Ahsoka Tano: We will.

?: Boy that is nuts huh?

Casey: Oh no.

A figure came out and it was JELLICA from Jungle Fury!

---

Jellica was the Sea Overlord and the holder of the Jellyfish spirit. She was a staff wielding mistress who could neutralize her opponents' physical attacks, by having them pass right through her, as she could turn into water. She was also Dai Shi's second teacher after Carnisoar.

Jellica was revived by Camille, so Dai Shi could train under her, instead of Carnisoar. However, at first, she forced Camille to be her student and had her attack the Rangers, after she personally defeated the Jungle Pride Megazord, without any trouble. When Camille couldn't follow her orders, she attacked her, with Lily going to her aid, followed by Dai Shi, who defeated Jellica in a brief fight. By then, she revealed that her mentoring of Camille was a test to see if Dai Shi truly desired her power, becoming Dai Shi's new mentor, teaching him to harness his deceit as power. She helped Dai Shi and Carnisoar to try killing the Rangers by reviving the White Shadow Guard. She refered to Camille as "Lizard".

When Grizzaka was revived, Jellica sided with him, probably out of fear. During the events at the Rhino Nexus, Jellica battled Dominic and overwhelmed him with her abilities, until he made a comeback and forced her to retreat. While Grizzaka was fighting Theo, Lily, RJ, and Dominic, Jellica attempted to steal the Crystal Eyes, while Jarrod was preoccupied with his fight with Casey.

After Grizzaka's destruction, Jellica revealed she managed to reclaim the three she and Carnisoar gathered, for Grizzaka, reviving the Phantom Beast Generals to take over Dai Shi's throne out of spite for him. This turns out to be Jellica's downfall, as the Phantom Beast Generals were instead completely loyal to Dai Shi. The three waste no time and kill Jellica.

Jellica was revived by Dai Shi for the final Beast War, but was destroyed again by Master Finn during while battling the Power Rangers and the Pai Zhuq Masters.

---

Casey Rhodes: Jellica!

Jellica: Been a while rangers.

Me: Boy I remember you all too well. You were having Dai Shi train under you and you gave the Jungle Fury Rangers a helluva beatdown and also you tried to usurp the throne from Dai Shi out of spite for him.

Jellica: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

SpongeBob and Patrick: JELLYFISHING!

They pulled out their Jellyfishing nets.

Jellica: I would like to say that Vypra is a better boss then Dai Shi.

Maria: Besides the fact that she's a girl?

Jellica: And she doesn't treat me and the others like garbage. (sees Spongebob and Patrick get out Jellyfishing nets) Oh, put those away, you two. Just because I have the Jellyfish Animal spirit doesn't mean I'm entirely a jellyfish.

SpongeBob: Aww.

Patrick: Darn it!

Lily: I like Jellyfishing as much as SpongeBob and Patrick do but even I respect you Jellica.

Jellica: Thanks Lily.

Lily: You're welcome.

Nico: This is gonna be fun and I know just the place for the battles.

Nico snapped his fingers and we were on the beautiful planet and home of the Blue Lantern Corps, Odym.

---

Odym was the homeworld the Blue Lantern Corps.

Following their banishment from Oa during the Sinestro Corps War, Ganthet and Sayd travelled to the world of Odym, a planet of lush beauty and unrestrained life. The two realized that the Guardians of the Universe would ignore the inevitability of the Blackest Night, but that Hal Jordan, Kyle Rayner, John Stewart, and Guy Gardner would fight to prevent it from coming to pass. Realizing that they could not succeed alone, the two decided to form the Blue Lantern Corps, a force powered by the blue light of hope to assist the Green Lantern Corps. Thus far, Ganthet and Sayd have not sought to colonize the planet, but instead build the Central Power Battery, leave it as a world of unrestrained life and beauty.

Agent Orange

At the height of the conflict on Okaara between the Guardians, the Green Lantern Corps and Larfleeze (New Earth), and his own Orange Lantern Corps the Guardians and Larfleeze came to a truce agreement for the second time in a billion years. Larfleeze agreed to once again contain the Orange Light within the Vega system and in exchange the Guardians told him where he could find the one object that might quench his greed filled thirst, a Blue Ring. While Ganthet and Sayd continued inducting Blue Lanterns into their Corps;

Larfleeze descended upon Odym with his entire orange construct created Corps so that he may possess a Blue Ring of his own.

---

Eli: Oh wow! Look at this planet.

Nico: This is the planet Odym, home of The Blue Lantern Corps.

Me: This is amazing! I've always wondered what the planet Odym was like.

Laney: It's an Eden Garden Planet. So beautiful.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow this is so amazing!

Sunny Starscout: Wow it sure is. This is so cool!

Lana: I think this is so awesome!

We got the usual battles underway.

---

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah they were amazing!

Luster Dawn: One of the most amazing finds in all of history.

Princess Cadance: Worth more than the first find that J.D. and the Mystery Inc. Gang found.

Sunny Starscout: It sure is an amazing find. You should have seen it.

Star Swirl: Loaded with jewels and more.

Spyro: Yeah it sure was.

Crystal Laney: But this was an amazing and really cool find for all of us.

Brittney: It sure was.

Vice: I agree. And really adventurous.

Jaina: It sure was amazing.

Alexstrasza: It sure was cool.

Deker: No kidding. Lets do it!

Weiss: We're gonna give it to the museums of the world. They have a right to learn all about it so they can know it was here.

Rarity: Indeed darling and this treasure was one of the most astounding finds we have seen.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it sure was. Daring Do said that this was as awesome as one of the great finds of her journeys.

Thunder Terror: And we helped get her inspiration for her next book: Daring Do and Team Loud Phoenix Storm in The Quest for The Lost Jewels of Byzantius.

Abis Mal: Wow! Looking forward to that one.

Mistmane: I am too.

Gill Grunt: So will Twilight.

Liquid Leni: This is totes gonna be interesting to read.

Larfleeze: This adventure was really fun.

Kid Cosmic: I agree with you there.

Abis Mal: That sure would be fun and I can't wait to see the book. Lets do it!

They fired waves of jewels, energy, ice and water and smashed him down.

Weiss: YEAH!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

---

Battle 3: Blake, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Tornado Bolt, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Plant Lola, Sinestro Corps, Kameo, Kalus, Totally Spies Timmy and Totally Spies Alice VS Nergal

Nergal was next.

Nergal: (to Blake) What do you think of Brian's son Dylan?

Blake: He's a really nice guy. Hard to imagine he was a total thug from before.

Fluttershy: But thank goodness that Brian was able to help him out and change him.

Tree Hugger: Very far out way for him to change dudes.

Tornado Bolt: He sure is a really awesome guy and Tracy is going through Tree Huggers awesome rehab program to help her get over her addiction to cigarettes and all that.

Mage Meadowbrook: Lily's healing water is amazing and it's awesome how it helps remove all the poisons from anyone. Too bad it doesn't work on cancer.

Stealth Elf: Yeah that's a shame but it's still amazing how Lily's water heals and rejuvenates.

Nergal: It sure is. After this mystery is solved I'll make us all some pizza for you all.

Plant Lola: We would really like that.

Sinestro: I could use a good pizza after today.

Kameo: Me too.

Kalus: Same here sister.

Nergal: I'm glad you think so. Lets do it!

They fired waves of energy, leaves, grass and flowers and smashed him down.

Blake: Take that!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

Battle 4: Yang, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Green Lantern Corps, Turbo the Snail, Knight Man and Tomahawk Man VS Motor Ed

Motor Ed was next.

Motor Ed: (to Yang) It's good that Brian's including Dylan in his life again. You and your mom should especially know that kind of feeling. Seriously.

Yang: Yep we sure do know that feeling.

Rainbow Dash: It's awesome that Brian has Dylan and Tracy. We'll have to find all of Brian's girlfriends and have them included too.

Scootaloo: We can get Brian into the same ordinance as J.D., Lincoln and Clyde.

Magma Gloom: Yeah that's a great idea. And Brian is one of the luckiest guys ever.

Flash Magnus: You said it Magma. He has such beautiful girlfriends.

Whirlwind: You got that right.

Minuette: That would not be a good thing but it's good she isn't.

Twinkleshine: I agree with you there. But thank goodness Misty is not terrified of bugs anymore.

Lemon Hearts: Yeah that was really harsh of Misty's sisters to play that prank on her with a Beedrill.

Jellica: Yep. And you will like what I have in my safe.

Nico teleported and opened it and in it was a bunch of swords.

Nico: Wow look at these swords.

Jellica: Yep they are called the Defenders of Skyworld.

The Defenders of Skyworld, they're swords with the symbol of Skyworld etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blades, white angel wings for the crossguards, large gold gems for the hilts, longer black handles, and large sphere pommels with surrounding blue gems. Once in hand, they'll get a massive power and energy increase.

Nico: Neat!

Nico teleported and gave the swords to Pit and friends.

Pit: Awesome!

Olga: I'll face Jellica and then you guys can come at her.

Nico: Okay.

Olga had lightning strike around her and it showed that she was ready to kick some but with incredibly electrocutions.

Olga: This is gonna be awesome.

THUNDERCLAP!

Jellica: Bring it on.

Jellica and Olga fired waves of lightning and the blasts collided and massive strikes of lightning were striking all over the place. Then there was a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew Jellica back and she fired waves of lightning and they hit Olga and she was absorbing all her lightning like a sponge and then Olga fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit Jellica and electrocuted her!

Olga: Jellica, I am a Sea Wasp Gene-Slammer, the most venomous type of jellyfish in the world and they pack a venomous sting that kills in minutes.

Jellica: Wow that's potent. I heard they are really small and pack that big of a punch.

Olga: Big things do come in small packages. They grow up to 16 inches for their bodies and their tentacles grow up to 6 feet long.

Jellica: That is amazing. Those types of jellyfish must be lethal.

Olga: They are. Sea Wasp venom has no known antidote. That's why the Sea Wasp is the most venomous kind of jellyfish in the world.

Jellica: I can see that. Wow! You have been given an amazing gift.

Olga: It started out as a curse and then got turned into a great power by J.D. and his friends.

Jellica: Wow.

Olga fired a wave of lightning and Jellica redirected the lightning back and Olga did the same and it hit Jellica and smashed her down.

Olga: That was fun! Go get her guys!

Nico: YEAH! Jellica you have failed this world! But she will be back as your archenemy Olga.

Olga: She sure will.

Then an aqua blue light appeared on her right ring finger and then it faded and on her ring finger was a Spirit Ring and the gem had a Jellyfish in it.

Olga: My own Spirit Ring.

Isabel came.

Isabel: The Jellyfish Spirit is perfect for you Olga. The Jellyfish Spirit teaches us that we don't need to resist life and instead should let it guide us naturally. And it shows flow, survival, instinct, movement and simplicity.

Olga: Wow that is amazing.

Then an aqua blue light appeared and it landed in Olga's hands and it faded and it was The Jellyfish Wild Zord Crystal.

Olga: The Jellyfish Wild Zord chose me.

Nico: Wow! That is so awesome!

She had her own Crystal Saber appear in a holster on her left hip.

Nico: Wow!

Battle 13: Anakin and Ahsoka VS Pong Krell

Pong Krell was next.

Ahsoka: I am ready for this.

Anakin: I know you are Snips.

Anakin and Ahsoka activated their Lightsabers and they went after Pong Krell, who unholstered his double-ended Lightsabers, and they clashed ferociously. Despite his training, he was no match for Anakin and Ahsoka, who trained a lot with us and they disarmed his double-ended Lightsabers with a powerful Force blast. Then, they knocked him down, and Eli tied him up with powerful neon energy ropes, so Pong Krell couldn't escape, and he couldn't use his power with the Force.

Anakin: Nice one, Eli.

Pong Krell: Go ahead and kill me, Jedi fools. You deserve it, now that I've been beaten.

Anakin: Nice try, Krell, that'd be too easy. We're going to bring you to the Jedi Council, that way, they can deliver your punishment.

Anakin and Ahsoka defeated Pong Krell, who's now tied up by Eli, and once we've finished with the Tar Monster, we're going to bring the traitor to the Jedi Council to face judgement for his crimes.

* * *

We regrouped and we were facing the Fake Tar Monster.

Nico: Now it's time for this Tar Monster imposter to be stopped.

Gia: Time for us to beat the tar out of you! Literally!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Rail Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the ToQger Rangers!

Me: Lets freeze and burn!

We fired blasts of fire and ice at the Tar Monster.

The fake Tar Monster roared in pain as it was being blasted.

BOOM! BOOOOM! BOOM! BOOOOM! BOOOOM! BOOOOM! BOOOM! BOOOOOMMM!

We blasted the monster all over the place.

Ironbison, Fire Man, Suzi and Lightspeed used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Ironbison's Thunder Burst Attack, Lightspeed's Proton Rifle and Suzi and Fire Man's fire powers 100-fold.

They summoned Adara the Entity of Hope to attack and the basts all hit the fake Tar Monster and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The fake Tar Monster was knocked down and we were ready to unmask him.

Georgina: Time for us to see who the Tar Monster really is and if J.D. is right it has to be Stoner.

She took off the mask of the Tar Monster and sure enough it was indeed Stoner!

Po Kong: Stoner! So we were right!

Georgina: Just like last time.

Me: Yep. My suspicions were spot on.

Gizmo: I get it. The barf brain dressed up as the Tar Monster again to scare off the locals here!

Radioactive Man: That way, he could attempt to get to the treasure here and keep it all for himself.

Me: And like before he used his scuba suit to dive down into the tar and get into the city unnoticed.

Stoner: And I would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids!

Spymaster: Hey, Mystery Inc. are proud to be called meddling kids, thank you very much!

Me: And don't you forget it!

Private H.I.V.E. (to Georgina) You should be very proud of yourself today, soldier.

Georgina: (Salutes) Thanks Private H.I.V.E.

Me: Well now it's back to prison for you Stoner. We found the treasure before you did and we are going to give it to the museums of the world to share with everyone and for everyone to see and learn about.

Laney: That's right!

Nergal: This calls for a great celebration on a great find. Lets go get some pizza.

We cheered.

Stoner was taken away by the Turkish Police and sent back to prison where he belongs and this time he was sentenced to Life in Prison without parole.

Georgina: (To the viewers) This was a great adventure! We now have Stoner back in prison where he belongs and also we have an awesome treasure given to the world.

We went back home and went to have amazing pizza. Georgina deserved all the credit for this one and so did me because my suspicions were spot on. We then went to sleep after we got home.

THE END

---

Part 5 done.

The next rescue for me will be for the movie Killer Mermaid and me, Varie, Nina Fernandez the Gyarados Gene-Slammer and Laney are going into battle against billions of mermaids from The Dark Side of

The Legend and we're going to not only face the mermaid that killed Kelly's friends in the movie but also face the mermaids from the Dark Side of the Legend in the Mediterranean Sea. And we're going to meet another mermaid that we're going to rescue named Narina and she will also have a Milotic Gene-Slammer named Lorelai Montenedro with her and she will be from Italy. Expect a lot of blood and carnage in that rescue. Also for Lincoln's rescue we're going to face Morgana, Ursula's insane sister and we're going to make sure that monster stays dead for good. And also Melody will transform in that one. Get ready for a seagoing adventure and mystery as we go into another awesome mystery. But this one is going to be in Seattle, Washington and we're going to not only eat a lot of fish but also solve the mystery of the Steam Demons. These are gonna be fake demons and not like the one that Vapor Trail knows. Also plug your noses because the chemicals those demons use smell horrible!

See you all tomorrow.

The Steam Demon of Seattle Mystery

Over in the Mediterranean Sea, me, Nina Fernandez the Gyarados Gene-Slammer and Varie were flying over the water and we had a really strong feeling that not only were we going to be in for a really big rescue but also we were gonna be in for a REALLY BRUTAL AND BLOODY Battle.

Nina Fernandez: Have you seen this before, J.D.?

Nina concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: Believe it or not yes we have.

Varie: This is the world of our battle where we were in a brutal and bloody war with hundreds of millions of mermaids from the Dark Side of the Legend.

Nina turned into GYARADOS!

Me: YEAH!

Nina Gyarados: WHOA! You guys went into battle with numerous evil mermaids!? That's incredible!

Me: One of the bloodiest battles we have been in.

Varie: This is gonna be intense.

Me: Lets get this party started.

We went down onto the dock of the sea and we met a good mermaid named Narina and a Milotic Gene-Slammer named Lorelai Montenedro and like what happened in Chapter 354 we blasted and destroyed all the Dark Side Mermaids and killed them all instantly. Because our powers had gotten so much stronger over the years we took them all down without any difficulty. I then later put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Lorelai reverted back and she was naked and Nina reverted back too. Nina was human again.

But naked.

Nina: (covers herself) Good thing those evil mermaids didn't learn any new tricks!

Narina: You're not kidding there. But that has to be the most bloodiest battle I've ever seen.

Lorelei: (Covers herself) You're not kidding there. That was brutal.

Me: It sure was. We've had a battle this bloody before.

I went over what happened during the events of Chapter 354.

* * *

We arrived and saw a fight with a Dark Side Mermaid and a woman named Kelly and a man named Niko. We arrived and I kicked the dark mermaid in the face and blasted her in the chest and killed her instantly.

Me: That did it. (To Kelly) Are you all right?

Kelly: Yeah. Thank you J.D.

Me: No problem.

Another man came over and he was holding the mermaid as if he loved her and he was crying.

Niko: Know the Sirens still have a more fatal weapon than their song. Namely, their silence. And though admittingly as if it never happened it is considerable that someone quite possibly might have escaped from their singing. But from their silence, certainly never.

Me: That's the beauty of the Dark Side of the Legend. They are savage, ruthless, blood-thirsty monsters with an endless thirst for blood and that's why we have to kill all the dark side mermaids before they destroy the world.

Alexis: That's right.

Suddenly singing was heard in the distance and something evil was coming our way.

Niko: Something is wrong.

Me: Something's coming.

Kelly: What is it?

Alexis: More mermaids.

Lincoln: And they're heading this way.

Niko: Her sisters are coming for Vengeance.

Me: It's war. Kill one and thousands will take its place. Mermaid War is Inevitable.

A huge school of mermaids was heading our way and there were thousands of them. Maybe millions.

I pull out my radio.

Me: Everyone converge on our position. Mermaid War has arrived.

Jared: We're on our way dad.

Me: Hurry son.

Kelly: I'm not ready to die.

Niko: Living as a slave like him is a worse fate than death. Maybe we'll all die but at least we'll kill all those monsters! One by one!

Me: And we'll gladly help you. These monsters have plagued the world of mermaids for far too long and they are a menace to everyone.

Cleo: That's right.

Rikki: Lets do it.

Emma: No one ruins the good name of the mermaid on our watch!

Bella: Lets get em!

Everyone arrived and they landed by us ready to fight.

Varie: This is it guys.

Aylene: Yep. Mermaid War. We have to stop these monsters and prevent them from destroying the world.

Me: This is it everyone. WE FIGHT TO THE DEATH!

Laney: We're with you all the way J.D.

Cody: We won't let these monsters destroy our planet.

Zoe: That's right.

Hercules: We're ready.

Me: That's right. TONIGHT, WE DINE IN HELL!

All: (Spartan Grunts)

We powered up.

Me: CHARGE!

Lilly sounded the charge horn and we went on the water and into the water and flew into the air above the water.

(The Battle of the Pelleanor Fields theme from The Lord of The Rings: Return of The King plays)

The mermaids got closer as we charged.

The battle that will decide the fate of the Human Race and Mermaids of good everywhere had begun.

We all clashed with the dark mermaids and the entire Mediterranean Sea was being turned into a savage bloodbath. Blood and guts were splattering everywhere, limbs were being severed and thrown, organs were flying everywhere and heads were coming off. But as the fight progressed more mermaids from the dark side kept on coming by the tens of millions from all over the world. We were blasting and slashed them apart and it was a gruesome and horrific fight of indescriminate fury.

Cleo and Emma were facing some mermaids underwater.

Cleo: We don't know who you are. But you're giving mermaids a very bad name!

Dark Mermaid: Then why don't you cry about it? Perhaps to your parents who are all the way in Australia. OR maybe to those stupid boyfriends of yours?

Oh she did not just go there.

Emma: Oh, you did not just insult our boyfriends!

Cleo and Emma ripped her apart and blasted her.

Massive fiery explosions were blowing some of the mermaids apart and were setting some of the Mediterranean sea on fire. Hundreds of thousands of people were running for their lives in fear of they would be killed because of the battle. Magic, ice, fire, light, crystal, lightning, earth, wind, water and energy blasts were blowing apart some of the mermaids and throwing their limbs and organs everywhere and we were smashing their heads in with hammers and maces. She-Hulk was punching their heads off with her superhuman strength. Nicole was sealing all of their souls into the Book of Vile Darkness with her magic and they all just kept on pouring into it. It was a grizzly and gruesome fight. Suddenly reinforcements arrived. It was Verbina and Aster along with thousands of soldiers from Chrysalis and Thetis arrived with some of her friends and they blasted the Dark Mermaids with ion laser blasters and powerful streams of water.

Me: You all arrived just in time Verbina.

Verbina: Thanks J.D. Glad we could help.

Shanan: We all owe you one.

Thetis: Thanks Shanan.

We fought valiently and killed all the mermaids from the dark side of the legend 3 hours later.

We were panting hard and sweating a lot and our clothes were covered in blood and sweat.

Me: (Pants) That's the last of them. We did it guys. We won!

We all cheered wildly as we had saved the entire planet from total destruction 12 years from now. The Scourge of the Dark Side of the Mermaid had been wiped out for good.

Lily: We won and we saved the world from a horrible future.

Lana: We sure did.

Lola: That was the most action we've ever done.

Lucy: It was so great. And their blood is really tasty.

Lynn: You got to admit though it was a great workout.

Luan: This was an awesome battle. It was a fight of wonders! (Laughs) Get it?

We all laugh.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one Luan.

Eddy: (Laughs) That was awesome. You were amazing my angel of comedy.

Luan: Thanks my King of Comedy.

Lensay: Mama gweat.

Everyone: Aww.

Luna: This was an awesome fight dudes and in the end we won.

Sam: We sure did.

Leni: We totes won and saved the world.

Lori: We sure did Leni. This was literally one of the most incredible battles we've ever experienced.

Vince: It sure was Lori. What did you think of it Carol?

Carol: It was awesome. You were awesome Vincey.

Me: You both were. You were awesome partner.

Vince: Thanks buddy.

Me: You're welcome.

Laney: Now the horrific future that destroyed Lensay's will never happen at all.

Lisa: Affirmative elder sister. It was thanks to our intervention and massacring the mermaids from the Dark Side of The Legend that we were able to prevent this cataclysmic calamity from ever happening.

Me: That's right Lisa. We saved the whole planet from total destruction and we saved the entirety of the human race from extinction.

Varie: And with the Dark Side of the Legend of the Mermaid completely eradicated we can now finally enjoy our peace with the mermaids of good and light.

Tamao: You said it sis. I'm happy they're all gone. Monsters like them deserve to be forever damned.

Moka: I agree. We all put them in their place.

Me: Yep.

Gabrielle: (British Accent) But what about this mess we made on the Mediterranean Sea.

Varie: I have an idea.

Varie whistled and called a huge school of Great White Sharks and they ate the remains of the dark mermaids.

When it was done, the sea was back to its sparkly blue color.

Varie: Good job boys.

Shark 1: (As James Gandolfini) Thanks Varie. To tell you the truth we've been wanting to eat the mermaids from the dark side for a long time.

Varie: Glad I could help.

Shark 2: (Groans) I'm so full I won't be able to eat for a long time.

Shark 3: Me neither. That was so tasty.

Shark 1: All right boys. Lets head home.

They went back home to the ocean.

Me: That was cool Varie. Those sharks sounded alot like famous gangsters on TV.

Varie: Yep.

Aylene: Well guys. Lets head home.

Me: You said it.

---

When I was finished they were shocked.

Narina: Wow! That IS brutal.

Me: And it was a few days before Nico joined the team.

I gave Lorelai and Nina new clothes.

Nina Fernandez: But that was really intense.

Lorelai: It sure was.

We later went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

After getting rid of the mermaids from The Dark Side of The Legend from the movie Killer Mermaid in 2014, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Sakura Haruno, Lily the Mermaid, Ariel, Eric, Melody, Aquata, Andrina, Arista, Attina, Adella, and Alana were heading to Atlantica, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eighteen girls sighted here, but we're going to deal with Ursula's insane sister, Morgana, and we're going to make sure that monster stays dead for good.

Lincoln: Wow, so we're back in Ariel's home, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the eighteen girls sighted here, but we're also going to deal with Ursula's insane sister, Morgana, and we're going to make sure that monster stays dead for good.

Me: You said it, big guy, and from we sensed, Melody is going to transform.

Eli: You said it, bro. I've had it up to hear with that insane sea witch, Morgana.

Nico: We'll make sure she and Ursula are both Super Hakaied for all eternity.

Ariel: That's right.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of eighteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the eighteen girls sighted here, but they were cornered by Morgana, the insane sister of Ursula the Sea Witch, and she was going to kill them.

Lincoln: I found the girls, but that insane sea witch, Morgana, has cornered them. Let's turn that evil witch into fried calamari.

We rushed on over to rescue the eighteen girls and get rid of Morgana the Sea Witch.

Morgana the Sea Witch: And now, you will all die as a sacrifice to my sister! (LAUGHING INSANELY)

But, before Morgana the Sea Witch could try to kill them, she was punched in the face and blasted by Lincoln, and as soon as Morgana the Sea Witch saw us here, she was enraged beyond measure.

Morgana the Sea Witch: (Enraged) You!

Me: That's right, Morgana the Sea Witch, the killers of both you and your sister, Ursula.

Eli: You should've never returned from the dead, you old hag. And now, you will die a horrible death once again, and you'll join your sister in Oblivion.

Morgana the Sea Witch: I WILL KILL YOU ALL FOR KILLING ME AND URSULA! (LAUGHING INSANELY)

Melody: Shut your mouth, you deranged old witch! I've had it up to hear with you to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Melody's eyes turned neon aqua blue and she was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura with mermaid and ocean waves, and as she approached Morgana the Sea Witch, she left blue energy, water, and mermaids with every step.

Melody: Morgana the Sea Witch, you and your sister have tormented me, my parents, my entire family, and all of Atlantica and Earth for the last time. This time, I will put you down like the mad lunatic that you really are, and I will put an end to this nightmare for good.

Suddenly, Melody was surrounded by a massive vortex of neon blue energy with ocean waves around the vortex, mermaids swimming around the vortex, and there was a green phoenix inside the vortex. As soon as the vortex faded, Melody emerged, but she was changed forever.

Melody grew up to 5'11" in height, she now had the body of a goddess, her long black hair tied up in a ponytail had aqua blue highlights, she has neon aqua blue eyes and a neon blue energy aura with mermaid and ocean waves surrounding her, she now had ocean blue angel wings with water dripping from the tips of the ocean blue feathers. Melody has a mermaid with the Water Kanji on its tail now emblazoned on her forehead, she has her new Sword of Poseidon unholstered from her back, but it changed as the massive blade grew to 6'5" in length and it became a little wider and the blue scale-covered handle grew longer, she has on mermaid earrings with the Water Kanji in its tail and she has on a necklace with a mermaid pendant with the Water Kanji in its tail, she now has on a sleeveless white blouse with an aqua blue phoenix, a pink blouse with ocean waves, white pants, and white leather combat boots, and a long pink sleeveless trenchcoat with mermaids and ocean waves, and a mermaid on the back. She has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with pink gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large pink gem for the belt buckle on her waist and Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the mermaid written in ocean blue that said, "Melody, Loving Daughter of Ariel and Eric, Loving Granddaughter of King Triton, Keyblade Master of The Oceans, Child of The Sea and Shore, and Destroyer of The Insane Sea Witch, Morgana."

メロディー、アリエルとエリックの愛する娘、トリトン王の愛する孫娘、海のキーブレードマスター、海と海岸の子供、そしてモルガナの狂気の海の魔女の破壊者

Melody has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 MERMAID OCEAN STORM ANGEL OF BRAVERY!

We were truly amazed by Melody's transformation, she's now become a beautiful young woman, and for the insane sea witch, Morgana, she was in big trouble.

Me: Whoa, Melody's finally transformed.

Nico: You said it.

Eli: Wow way to go Melody!

Ariel: Our daughter's now become a beautiful young woman. (To Melody) Melody, how do you feel?

Melody: (Divine Echoing Oceanic Voice of Bravery) I feel incredible, Mom, and now, it's time to deliver this evil witch her punishment for her crimes against The Sea and The Shore.

Lincoln also transformed into transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he and Melody attacked Morgana the Sea Witch with powerful blasts of neon blue energy, neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the cores, powerful blasts of super lightning, and powerful blasts of water and mermaids made of water, which hits Morgana the Sea Witch, and really scorched her.

Then, Lincoln and Melody slashed off Morgana the Sea Witch's tentacles and arms, and she screamed in excruciating pain, and she was bleeding like mad.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Melody, let's use our combo and end that insane witch once and for all.

Melody: You got it, Lincoln, let's do it.

Lincoln and Melody prepared their attack to finish Morgana the Sea Witch once and for all.

Lincoln and Melody: May you and Ursula never return to plague the sea and the shore ever again, Morgana. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: JUDGEMENT OF ATLANTICA RASENSHURIKEN!

Lincoln and Melody formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of neon blue energy and water, and in the core of Rasenshuriken was images of King Triton and the people of Atlantica swimming around the king. They also infused it with Super Hakai energy, as there was traces of purple around it, and not only was it aimed at Morgana the Sea Witch, but it was also aimed at Ursula the Sea Witch and her slimy eels, Flotsam and Jetsam, who were still suffering psychic torture in The Warp.

Lincoln and Melody threw the massive Rasenshuriken, and once it hits Morgana the Sea Witch, it exploded with incredible power, and it

Super Hakaied Morgana the Sea Witch, along with Ursula the Sea Witch, Flotsam and Jetsam from existence for all eternity. We cheered wildly as Lincoln holstered his blade and powered down, and Melody holstered her blade and powered down and her neon aqua blue eyes changed back to aqua blue, but her new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent.

Lincoln and Nicole went up to the eighteen girls who were sighted here, and when Lincoln saw who the girls were, he recognized them easily. The eighteen girls were Shoko, Katya, Xiaoling, Freya, Erda, Mudan, and Mii from Saint Seiya, Merlin, Deldry, Guila, Jericho, and Veronica Liones from The Seven Deadly Sins Anime, Taiga Aisaka, Ami Kawashima, Minori Kushieda, Sumire Kano, Nanako Kashii, and Maya Kihara from Toradora.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Shoko, Katya, Xiaoling, Freya, Erda, Mudan, Mii, Merlin, Deldry, Guila, Jericho, Veronica Liones, Taiga Aisaka, Ami Kawashima, Minori Kushieda, Sumire Kano, Nanako Kashii, and Maya Kihara.

Nicole: From Saint Seiya, The Seven Deadly Sins Anime, and Toradora, that's awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Shoko: Yes, we're okay, thanks.

Then, when Shoko and the seventeen girls saw who it was that saved them from Morgana the Sea Witch, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Shoko: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made seventeen clones of himself, and eleven of them went up to the eleven girls, and Lincoln and seven other clones went up to Shoko, Katya, Xiaoling, Freya, Erda, Mudan, and Mii, who'd picked them girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Shoko: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec)

You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to The Estate, and when Melody showed King Triton and Queen Athena what'd happened, they cheered. Finally, the terrors of Ursula the Sea Witch and Morgana the Sea Witch have been silenced forever, and the sea and the shore will finally be at peace now that those sea witches are gone forever.

* * *

After we got rid of Morgana the Sea Witch for good, we were then training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds.

Suddenly, there was a bright light that shined down, and we covered our eyes. Then, the bright light faded away, and we saw nine people appear in the Estate. They were sixteen-year-old Tomokazu Mikuri, ten-year-old Mone, Tomokazu's girlfriend, Mizuki Agatsuma, Tomokazu's cousin and guardian, Nanase "Silk" Senjou, Nanase's younger sister, Kuyou Senjou, Junior Detective Neneko and inside of her was the reincarnating spirit Neito, Neneko's cat Koneko, and Tomokazu's friend, Megumi Saitou.

Lincoln: Whoa, it's Tomokazu Mikuri, Mone, Mizuki Agatsuma, Nanase "Silk" Senjou, Kuyou Senjou, Neneko, Koneko, and Megumi Saitou.

Nicole: From Yumeria, awesome, and I know about them, they're heroes who enter the dream world Moera to destroy the Feydooms, a race of aliens who attempt to escape the dream world and take over the Earth.

Lincoln 2: That's right, and the Feydooms are also one of the Dream World's most wanted criminals.

Natilee Knudson: (Scottish Accent) That's right, and I think I know what our mission is.

Then, as soon as Tomokazu and his friends opened their eyes and saw us, they were surprised to see us.

Tomokazu Mikuri: Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right, Tomokazu, and it's a pleasure to meet you and your friends.

Mizuki Agatsuma: You too, J.D., and we've heard about your adventures in the real world, and in The Dream World, as well. Plus, one of your adventures in the Dream World was definitely getting rid of Freddy Krueger.

Nico: That's right, that son of a hundred maniacs was a monster that terrorized both the Dream and Real World, and he made a deal with the Dream Demons, so he could continue his killing spree.

Tomokazu Mikuri: That man was a monster who had to die. We also wanted to ask for help.

Lincoln: Of course, we'll help you guys get rid of The Feydooms for good.

Mone: You knew just what Tomokazu was about to ask. That's awesome.

Lincoln: That's right, and like you guys heard, we're no strangers to troubles in the Dream World.

We entered the Dream World, and we saw Tomokazu Mikuri and his friends transform into their battle suits. Then, we saw something approaching, it was a massive army of Feydooms.

Lincoln: Feydooms, alright, guys, let's put them down for good.

We transformed and unholstered our weapons and went after the army of Feydooms, and blasted and cut a lot of them down. But, we saw more of them coming, and we used Parasitic Giga Energy Drain, and we fired powerful waves of red energy at them, which wrapped around them and sucked out their energy and absorbed it, as our auras had flared up and we were getting stronger and stronger, and it killed them. But, they were still coming, it was like there was no end to them.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) I think it's time that we put an end to this once and for all. FEYDOOM GENOCIDE BLAST!

Lincoln fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy into the air, and once they hit the Feydooms, they were completely obliterated, and they were Super Hakaied for good. We cheered wildly, and we then return home to The Real World, and Tomokazu Mikuri and his friends were now new members of the team, and they've been made aware of Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and they're also going to help us when the time comes to get after them.

Back at the World Tree Estate, Nico, Eli and Lincoln were getting me ready for an amazing date. I was getting ready for an awesome date with Allie.

Nico: You have more than earned this date J.D. I think it's awesome for you that you are taking Allie out on a date for the first time.

Me: I know Nico and I'm not nervous.

Lincoln: You're a pro at this buddy. You'll do great.

Eli: Yeah you have so many awesome fiancé's bro.

Me: I know but Allie is someone that I have known since I was in elementary school and she is also one of the people that has shown tremendous support in me before I formed the team.

Nico: That is amazing support. But you and Allie will do great.

Me: Thanks guys.

I was dressed in a beautiful collared fire shirt and black khakis and dress shoes and I had a magnificent collogne on called Juniper Phoenix and it was a REALLY lavish cologne that Rarity recommended because it was used by disgraced former Wonderbolt Legend, Wind Rider. It was really fragrant and it smelled awesome.

Later I was at the elevator.

Alt. Chrysalis: I hope you don't mind us going with you on your date.

Me: Not at all Chrysalis. It'll be awesome having you all along for support.

Allie came down and she was dressed in a beautiful blue dress and she had blue lipstick on and her hair was in a braided ponytail with a bow and she had beautiful blue shoes. Her dress also had amazing jewels on it.

Me: Wow! Allie you look absolutely radiant and beautiful.

Allie Wilde: I'm really glad you think so. I think I look great.

Rarity: Indeed you do darling. And the dress is of my own design.

Carol: It sure is.

Lincoln: Wow! Awesome job Rarity.

Me: Awesome. I got a great limousine coming. Lets head on down.

We took the elevator down to the surface and we saw a magnificent limousine pull up.

Nico: Wow that is a great limousine.

Me: Yep.

The driver got out and opened it and me and Allie got in.

Nico: We'll meet you at the restaurant.

Me: Okay Nico.

The limousine door closed and we were off to the restaurant.

We arrived at the Platinum Coq Au Vin and we went in and went to our table.

Anna Knudson: Allie, you should be very happy to be in Dad's harem.

Allie Knudson: And she is my namesake after all Anna.

Anna Knudson: That's true.

Allie Wilde: I'm glad girls.

We got to our tables and we sat down and me and Allie got the presidential table.

Allie Wilde: How are you able to afford dinner at this place J.D.?

Me: When you're rich and have an enormous amount of money you can do a lot of things many people can't. But I don't rub it in peoples faces like many people we know do.

Allie Wilde: That's good.

Allie saw the menu and there were lots of REALLY mondo expensive food dishes.

Allie Wilde: Wow look at how expensive this food is.

Me: I know. We were shocked ourselves when we had a dinner here for Jack and Carly's date.

Nico: It's true.

Eli: But it's worth it.

We ordered our meal and waited.

G1 Thrust: Allie, you should know that Lincoln, his sisters, and their genderbent selves gained new transformations before you joined. And on those days, we've recruited a lot of good friends.

Allie Wilde: I heard all about that. That is so amazing.

Me: Lots of many big things have happened to us in all of our adventures. It was one amazing lesson after another for us.

Eli: It sure has been amazing.

We then received our food and it was amazing and very exquisite. I had chicken cabanara with clams and mussels.

Allie had a magnificent salmon and linguini vodka sauce pasta dish.

We had our meals and they were absolutely delicious.

Strafe: I think we should consider the possibility of more heroes out there. Including multiversal counterparts of the Marvel heroes as well as one more universe with Autobots in it.

Nico: Good idea.

Laney: That is true.

Lana: It really will be cool to meet them.

Later after paying for our awesome meal, me and Allie were over at the park enjoying the scenery and it was beautiful.

Fluttershy was talking to the squirrels and birds there and it was cute. Then she heard squirrels chittering scared and then she saw our old enemy ELMYRA DUFF!

---

Elmyra Duff is the secondary antagonist in Tiny Toon Adventures and one of the three main protagonists in Pinky, Elmyra & the Brain.

She was voiced by Cree Summer, who also voiced Cree Lincolnfrom Codename: Kids Next Door.

She is an unintentional villain in the fact her crazed affection for animals leads her to capture them to keep as pets (often against their will), as he has no clue how to look after them and as such often causes them more suffering than good.

Her mentor at Acme Looniversity is Elmer Fudd and she is in many ways a female version of him, though she hunts animals down out of misplaced affection rather than for sport. Elmyra also has manic affection for the other villain in Tiny Toon Adventures known as Montana Max.

Though for some reason when Elmyra became a character in Pinky, Elmyra and the Brain she lost her apparent love for Montana Max (though by this time she had also apparently lost most of her connections with the Tiny Toons crew and was raising Pinky and the Brain as pets).

Although Elmyra is usually a recurring villain, in the "Can't Buy Me Love" segment of "Fox Trot", she is the main protagonist.

---

Fluttershy: Uh oh. That must be Elmyra Duff.

Fluttershy then saw Elmyra's treatment of animals and she got mad and went over to her and grabbed her and used her stare on her and REALLY LAID DOWN THE LAW WITH HER! We were proud of Fluttershy for laying down the law with Elmyra and more.

But then I decided to show Allie a more amazing sight. I spread my wings and had her hold my hand and we flew into the sky and she saw the Earth from 30,000 feet up. It was one of the most amazing and most beautiful views she had ever seen.

Allie Wilde: Oh wow. The view up here is so beautiful.

Me: One of the most beautiful I've ever seen ever since I started flying. And it's also as beautiful as you. I have a song to sing for you.

I then started singing I Could Fall In Love by Selena Quintanilla.

Me: (Singing divinely)

I could lose my heart tonight

If you don't turn and walk away

'Cause the way I feel I might

Lose control and let you stay

'Cause I could take in my arms

And never let go
I could fall in love (in love) with you
I could fall in love (in love) with you (with you baby)
I can only wonder how
Touching you would make me feel
But if I take that chance right now
Tomorrow will you want me still (baby, do you want me?)
So I should keep this to myself
And never let you know
I could fall in love (in love) with you
(I could fall in love with you)
I could fall in love (in love) with you (with you baby)
And I know it's not right
And I guess I should try to do what I should do
But I could fall in love, fall in love with you
I could fall in love with you
Siempre estoy soñando en ti
Besando mis labios, acariciando mi piel
Abrazándome con ansias locas
Imaginando que me amas
Como yo podía amar a ti
So I should keep this to myself

And never let you know

I could fall in love (in love) with you

(I could fall in love with you)

I could fall in love (in love) with you (with you baby)

I could fall in love (fall in love)

I could fall in love (fall in love)

With you (you baby)

I could fall, fall in love (in love) with you (I could fall in love with you)

When I was done singing Allie was amazed that I had such a beautiful voice.

Allie Wilde: Oh J.D. you sang that so beautifully.

Then me and Allie leaned in and kissed under the beauty of the magnificent sunset and Nico was crying in happiness for me.

Nico: (Voice Breaking) That was so beautiful.

May: (Sniffling) What a magnificent romantic date.

Lori: (Sniffling) It literally amazing.

We had a great date.

---

Later the next day we were getting ready for our next mission.

Nico: That was such a magnificent date J.D.

Me: Thanks buddy.

Sandpit: I'm glad you're back from your date. Because it's your turn to lead today.

Me: I noticed and I'm well aware of it being my turn.

Allie Wilde: And I had an amazing and really awesome time.

Me: I'm glad.

Nico: And that song that J.D. sang with him and Allie in the sky was absolutely amazing and divine.

Laney: It sure was. I don't think I've ever seen Nico get all choked up like that.

May: He sure is a softie when it comes to that.

Nico: I know and it was so beautiful.

Eli: I thought it was amazing.

Nunnally: Me too.

Po Kong the Demon Sorcerer of The Mountain, Deker, Abis Mal, Nergal, Motor Ed, Mojo Jojo, Po Kong, Gizmo, Radioactive Man, Private H.I.V.E., and Spymaster then appeared.

Po Kong: Can me, Deker, Abis Mal, Nergal, Motor Ed, Mojo Jojo, Po Kong, Gizmo, Radioactive Man, Private H.I.V.E., and Spymaster go with you guys today?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to Seattle, Washington to meet Mystery Inc. for another fun time. And we're also going to meet them at The Space Needle.

Lynn: Oh sweet! The Space Needle has an amazing view of the city.

Nicole: It sure does and the view of Mount Rainier is amazing.

Lori: I've always literally loved Seattle ever since we were there on our worldwide adventure.

Po Kong: And the fish there is really scrumptious.

Me: Yep. Lets head on out.

We were off to Seattle, Washington.

---

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

---

We arrived in Seattle and it was just as beautiful as ever.

Me: Here we are guys.

Allie Wilde: Seattle is so beautiful.

Nico: It sure is. Just wait till you see the sunsets here.

We then went to the Space Needle and in the restaurant we saw Mystery Inc.

Blackfire: Hey there, guys. Glad you could make it!

Fred: Thanks Blackfire.

Velma: This is amazing being here in Seattle.

Me: It sure is. I always love coming to the Pacific Coast. The ocean and the cities along the Pacific Rim are absolutely amazing.

Nico: They sure are.

Eli: It's so beautiful.

Nunnally: It sure is amazing.

Daphne: And so is the beautiful view of the city and Mount Rainier.

Me: The Space Needle's view is amazing.

Private H.I.V.E.: Permission to ask what the Mystery is this time, J.D.?

Me: Granted soldier.

Velma told us what was going down by reading an article in the Seattle Newspaper.

Velma: And then it disappeared without a trace leaving behind only the mark of his hand burned into the construction beam.

Nico: That is very interesting.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Eli: I wonder if his fingerprints are on file with the fire department.

We laughed at Eli's joke.

Shaggy: (Laughs) Like that was a good one Eli and I said the exact same thing the first time we encountered the demon here.

Me: I remember that Shaggy. That joke was really funny.

Allie Wilde: It sure was funny.

Nico: Yeah it sure was.

Vince: I thought so too.

Fred: It also says that this is the 15th sighting of the Demon in Seattle this week.

Varie: Very unusual.

Dominique: So, where should we look for clues first?

Me: Well the first place we should look at is in the construction site where we first encountered the demon.

Nico: Funny thing is that this is like the same demon that's also Vapor Trail's archenemy.

Vapor Trail: Very coincidental.

Allie Wilde: Is it the same one?

Me: I don't think so. After we busted Sam Crenshaw the first time the demons stopped attacking. So this might be the work of someone else. But just to be safe…

I did a prison check and saw that Sam Crenshaw was still locked up in prison.

Me: Yep Sam Crenshaw is still locked up.

Laney: Where did this demon come from?

Velma: It was from Underground Seattle. When the old city burned down around 1890 they built New Seattle right on top of it.

Me: That still amazes me that the most populated city in Washington State is right on top of a 130-year-old city.

Nico: That is cool.

Maxxine: But I will be glad to help solve this mystery.

Abis Mal: (to Maxxine) I know this might sound like a stupid question. But why are you so interested in the mystery?

Maxxine: Because I've always loved Seattle, Washington and ever since the demon left that nasty burn on Vapor Trail's back, I've been wanting to have a crack at a mystery like this.

Nico: That's a really good reason Maxxine.

Po Kong: It sure is. Man getting burned by a demon like that must've really hurt.

Vapor Trail: Yeah it did.

Vapor Trail showed us the burn scar on her back where the demon hit her and Allie gasped.

Allie Wilde: Geez that is a nasty calling card.

Me: That is her mark of the demon.

Pickle Barrel: Yikes! That must've really hurt.

Barley Barrel: You're not kidding. Yikes.

Lola: We better call the demon in the Masters of Evil just to be sure.

Abis Mal: I got that. (Calls the Steam Demon) Demon are you in Seattle right now?

The Steam Demon was sitting on a beach in Hawaii.

Steam Demon: I'm actually on the beach in Hawaii and all the ladies love me.

Bikini babe 1: You are a handsome demon.

Bikini babe 2: Yeah you are hot.

Steam Demon: Plenty of me to go around ladies.

We laughed.

Notacon: (sweatdrops) Let's not bother the real Steam Demon for a while.

Abis Mal: Noted. Lucky guy is like Xaldin.

We laughed.

Me: Yeah.

Fred: We can get started as soon as we finish lunch.

Nico: I think Blake loves all the fish.

We saw that Blake ate 4 plates of lobsters and salmon and that Yugito Nii ate 3 plates full of trout and tuna.

Eli: Wow that's a lot of fish even for you two.

Blake: What can I say. Me and Yugito love fish.

Naruto: Yeah that's true.

Shaggy: Like everyone eat slow. Please?

Maria: Shaggy's right, Blake. Save some for the rest of us.

Nergal: Tell you what? How about I make us some pizza in addition?

Nico: Good idea Nergal. We can put fish on it too.

Laney: Fish pizza. Good meal.

Blake: Sorry guys. But okay.

Nergal made pizza and we put salmon, crab, tuna and trout on it.

We had a good meal. Then we got to work.

At the construction site where Sam Crenshaw once worked at we got to searching.

Maxxine: Brittney what can you tell us about these demons?

Brittney: Well it's a really interesting legend.

She told us all about the demons and how they came into being.

According to a legend, one day in Seattle, before Washington became an official state in the mid-to-late 1860s, an earthquake happened and a crack formed in the ground, and sulfuric smoke and demons started coming out. They terrorized Seattle for years until a strange man showed up and used an ancient talisman to drive them back into the hole. The townspeople sealed the hole with an iron lid so they couldn't get back out.

Me: Wow that is amazing.

Brittney: That is an amazing legend huh?

Allie Wilde: It sure is. But do you think someone released them somehow?

Me: Hmm. I don't think so. It was all a hoax the first time we heard.

Maxxine: Yeah. But lets get searching.

We got to searching.

Hisashi: Look, Takeshi. About me letting myself get bitten and trying to kill you under the Aparoids' control…

Takeshi: (chuckles) Say no more, Hisashi. There's plenty of blame to go around. On both of us.

Hisashi: I know. And maybe when Nico, the Red Rangers, and their archenemies get done cleaning up the zombie problem on our world, we can get to work making things the way they used to bed.

Sideshow Bob: (British Accent) Let's be honest. I don't think things will EVER be how they used to be on your world.

Maxxine: (smiles) But that doesn't mean they can't be good again here.

Me: That's right. I brought Takeshi and friends here to start a new life anew here so you all would be happy.

Rei: And we have an awesome new boyfriend too. Lincoln.

Hisashi: I heard about that Rei and I'm happy for you both. You take care of her Lincoln. Do what I couldn't have done.

Lincoln: You can count on me Hisashi.

Me: Lincoln is a man of his word Hisashi.

Hisashi: So I have heard.

Daphne: Hey look I found something.

Daphne handed Maxxine an old hotel matchbook.

Maxxine: A hotel matchbook. The Crows Nest. Wow! That's a hotel I stayed at back when I was a little girl. It was before I moved here to start high school.

Me: I remember that hotel. It also serves as the entrance to the underground city under Seattle.

Nico: That's interesting.

Me: Lets go check it out.

Maxxine: I know the manager of the hotel. Lets go.

Me: I always love going to the Seattle Wharf. This is where Seattle gets much of its fish.

Deker: Maybe we should go to that underground city right now.

Maxxine: Good idea and I know just where to find The Crows Nest. It's a hotel on the Seattle Wharf. Follow me guys.

We walked all the way to the Seattle Wharf.

Laney: (To Lisa Simpson) Hey Lisa didn't your so-called mom once go to an amazing island that was once home to a great amusement park and had a great fishing economy?

Lisa Simpson: Yes as a matter of fact she did. It was called Barnacle Bay.

She told us about what happened in Barnacle Bay over in New England on the East Coast. (Season 18 Episode 10)

Barnacle Bay is an island in New England. After seeing old footage of a family trip to Barnacle Bay, Marge begins to feel nostalgic and as a result, Homer takes her there. Although the island of old was a paradise, the island the Simpsons saw was a disgusting dump. The main industries on the island are tourism and fishing for "Yum Yum Fish", but after a stern lecture from Lisa on the dangers of overfishing, the island inhabitants switched over to logging. Lisa was not satisfied because that was even worse than fishing.

The Island has a store selling Caramel, a decaying boardwalk that was repaired and burnt down by Homer on exactly the same day, a Church, and a museum.

When she was done we were amazed and shocked.

Nico: I've heard of Barnacle Bay. That was once a great paradise until the fishing economy there sunk because of the dangers of overfishing.

Eli: That stinks.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: I think it was for the best that it went under because Marge would never be welcome anywhere again after everything she did.

Homer: Yeah you're right.

Eli: I wonder how much fish Seattle gets in every year.

Lisa Loud: According to the statistics of Seattle's economy, Seattle gets 105 million pounds of fish annually.

Me: Whoa that is a lot of fish.

Laney: No kidding. It's amazing that Seattle gets all that fish here.

Nico: Yeah.

We then arrived at the Crows Nest Hotel.

Maxxine: Here we are guys.

Nico: Nice place.

We went in.

Me: Really nice hotel.

We followed Maxxine and we met the Crows Nest manager Sally.

Sally: (Seadog Accent) Ah Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet ya lads. Me name be Sally.

Maxxine: Been a while Sally. I was a little girl when I saw you last.

Sally: Why little Maxxine. Been a lot of moons since ye were here.

Maxxine: Good to see you again Sally. We're solving the mystery of the demons of Seattle. The Demon is back somehow and we think it's in the underground city.

Sally: Aye. Heard it returned somehow. Go down and check it out.

Me: Thank you kindly.

We went down to the basement and went through a door and we arrived in the old underground city of Old Seattle.

The Seattle Underground is a network of underground passageways and basements in the Pioneer Square neighborhood of Seattle, Washington, United States. They were located at ground level when the city was built in the mid-19th century, but fell into disuse after the streets were elevated. In recent decades they have become a tourist attraction, with guided tours taking place around the area.

After the Great Seattle Fire of June 6, 1889, new construction was required to be of masonry, and the town's streets were regraded one to two stories higher. Pioneer Square had originally been built mostly on filled-in tidelands and often flooded. The new street level also kept sewers draining into Elliott Bay from backing up at high tide.

For the regrade, the streets were lined with concrete walls that formed narrow alleyways between the walls and the buildings on both sides of the street, with a wide "alley" where the street was. The naturally steep hillsides were used and, through a series of sluices, material was washed into the wide "alleys", by raising the streets to the desired new level, generally 12 feet (3.7 m) higher than before, in some places nearly 30 feet (9.1 m).

At first, pedestrians climbed ladders to go between street level and the sidewalks in front of the building entrances. Brick archways were constructed next to the road surface, above the submerged sidewalks. Pavement lights (a form of walk-on skylight with small panes of clear glass which later became amethyst-colored) were installed over the gap from the raised street and the building, creating the area now called the Seattle Underground.

The concrete floor of the former meat market was originally at the level of the wooden platform on the left, but sank over time because of decomposing sawdust fill.

When they reconstructed their buildings, merchants and landlords knew that the ground floor would eventually be underground and the next floor up would be the new ground floor, so there is very little decoration on the doors and windows of the original ground floor, but extensive decoration on the new ground floor.

Once the new sidewalks were complete, building owners moved their businesses to the new ground floor, although merchants carried on business in the lowest floors of buildings that survived the fire, and pedestrians continued to use the underground sidewalks lit by the pavement lights (still seen on some streets) embedded in the grade-level sidewalk above.

In 1907, the city condemned the Underground for fear of bubonic plague, two years before the 1909 World Fair in Seattle (Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition). The basements were left to deteriorate or were used as storage. Some became illegal flophouses for the homeless, gambling halls, speakeasies, and opium dens.

Only a small portion of the Seattle Underground has been restored and made safe and accessible to the public on guided tours. In 1965, local citizen Bill Speidel established "Bill Speidel's Underground Tour", which operates to this day.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to Seattle Underground.

Nico: Wow this is amazing. I can't believe there's an old city underneath Seattle.

Me: I know.

Maxxine: Lets get to searching this place.

Me: Okay.

We got to searching. For over 20 minutes we got to searching.

Paragus: You guys see any other clues yet?

Nico: Not yet.

Me: Wow look at this city. It's amazing that it's in great shape after over a century.

Eli: It sure is amazing.

Maxxine: Yeah no kidding. Lets check in this elixir shop.

We went into it.

Me: Wow look at all this.

Maxxine: Yeah no kidding. Cod Liver Oil, Medicines of all kinds in here.

Velma: Look at this. Someone or something has been at these bottles.

Velma picked up a pink bottle.

Maxxine: I think we found another clue.

Eli: Wonder what's in this one.

Eli popped the cork and smelled what was inside and it SMELLED HORRIBLE!

Eli: OH YUCK! That smells awful!

I smelled it and it smelled like rotten eggs!

Me: YUCK! I remember this stuff. Watch,

I dumped some of the pink stuff and it formed pink smoke.

Allie Wilde: Caustic pink smoke. Just like the smoke the demons and the Steam Demon gives off from what I heard.

Vapor Trail: The very same stuff.

It also smelled horrible!

Spymaster: Damn, that stuff smells bad!

Lisa Loud: This is sulfuric nitric acid.

Nico: Ugh! It sure does smell bad.

Allie Wilde: No kidding.

Me: Yeah it sure does smell horrible.

Maxxine: But this is a prominent clue.

Maxxine took a bottle and put it in her bag for safe keeping.

We got out of the elixir shop.

Sunny Tennyson: Please tell me there are no more disgusting clues around!

Eli: I don't think so. But I sense something over here. Follow me.

We followed Eli and went into a museum and it was full of monster statues!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! MONSTERS!

Me: It's okay Shaggy. They're only statues of monsters.

Nico: Wow a horror monster museum.

Brittney: Sounds like my kind of museum.

Lucy Loud: Mine too.

Laney: Wow werewolves, witches, vampires, Frankenstein and even a Statue of The Rambling Ghost?

Gusty the Great: Weird. I didn't expect the Seattle Underground City to have a museum like this.

Maxxine: That is really surprising. But look at this.

We saw a Demon Exhibit and one of the demons is missing.

Fred: Look there's a Demon Exhibit.

Me: But look. One of the demons is missing.

Nico: Weird. I wonder where it went.

Velma: That's what I would like to know.

Me: But this is where Sam Crenshaw got the costume for the demon that he used last time.

Mojo: (to Mystery Inc) Didn't you guys have a museum just like this one?

Fred: We sure do and it's back at the estate.

Me: This is just like what we have back at the estate.

Nico: Yep and it's awesome.

Maxxine: Yeah. Hmm. Lets see if we can find that iron lid.

Me: Okay.

We looked around and then we came across the lid.

Me: Here it is.

Eli: It's locked solid.

Bomb Man: I'll keep a lookout in case there are people that need to be blown up.

Me: I highly doubt they will be here Bomb Man.

Nico: Yeah. Lets see if there are more clues.

Laney: There has to be something here.

Laney then tripped over something and then she saw what she tripped over and it was a chest full of gold coins.

Laney: Whoa this chest is full of gold coins.

Nico: Hmm.

Gizmo: Gold coins? Now, who would leave these out here?

Laney: Lets see.

Laney looked at a coin and they were from Old Seattle back over 150 years ago and they were worth a fortune.

Marah: You know how rich these are going to make us?

Maxxine: This gold is from the city.

Muscle Man: You know who else would be rich from this?

Eli: We know the answer to that.

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed.

Maxxine: Good one! (Sees something) Huh?

Maxxine went over to a trash can and she found an 18K gold class ring with a green emerald in it and it was for the school she went to before she was stuck in the Underground City,

West Seattle High School.

Maxxine: This Ring is for West Seattle High School.

She saw the mascot for The West Seattle Wildcats on it and it also had an eagle on it.

Maxxine: Hmm.

She then saw initials on it.

Maxxine: M.W.S. (GASP) I know who is behind this!

Nico: What did you find Maxxine?

Maxxine: This High School Class Ring is from my old school.

Me: Wow.

I looked at it and it was a beautiful gold class ring.

Me: Someone has really good taste. This is a ring for the Varsity Cheerleading team.

Motor Ed: Now that you mention it, you and your male self never did tell us the schools you both went to in your own worlds. Seriously.

Maxxine: Yeah sorry about that. My school life was perfect. I was a Valedictorian and I graduation with high honors.

Nico: Cool.

Maxxine: I never did got to go to college however unfortunately because I was kidnapped by the Shredder's goons.

Jaime Diana Knudson: It's true.

Max Stennson: Same thing happened to me.

Maxxine: Yep. This ring I found belongs to an old enemy of mine.

May: Is it anyone we've previously taken down?

Maxxine: No this is a former classmate of mine that hated my guts to the core. She was a school bully that was also the captain on the cheerleading squad. Her name was Mariah Sternwell. She was 2 grades back from me and she HATED me because I was prettier, smarter and more skilled than she was.

Jaime Diana Knudson: I remember her. She was a monster and a ruthless psychopath. She came from a very well known rich family in my universe before we merged. Rumors have been flying around that she was about to graduate but then she spent all of her inheritance on drugs.

Nico: Whoa that's terrible. What kind of drugs?

Jaime Diana Knudson: The worse kinds. She even brought some to school and I had her expelled and sent to prison.

Maxxine: It was shortly after Jaime found us and gave us our humanity back.

Jaime: Yep. And I heard rumors that she was sent to live on the streets and that she lost everything including her money and that she was disinherited and disowned and was doing all kinds of crimes to support her drug addiction. She spent $10,000.00 a week to keep it going.

Eli: Her mind is really damaged.

Nico: No kidding.

Me: What kind of drugs was she getting?

Maxxine: Mostly Methamphetimine, Cocaine and Heroin.

Lori: I know this might seem hypocritical coming from me. But you literally need to keep a cool head.

Lynn: Lori's right. We still have the element of surprise.

Lola: Should we be reckless like always? Yes. But we shouldn't let Mariah know that we're on to her. No matter how much you two hate each other.

Maxxine: I know that.

Me: Lets head back up and come up with a plan.

Nico: Okay.

We went back to the Seattle Space Needle.

We came up with a plan of attack to stop her. But we agreed to make sure not to reveal who the culprit was until we stopped the demon. We then went back to Seattle Underground and we found THE FAKE STEAM DEMON!

Blizzard Man: There she is. Now's the time for an entrance.

Me: Lets do it.

The Demon was about to head into a store when suddenly…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above her and a Phoenix Cry was heard and then the emblems of Ruby and her friends all swirled around the blast and they converged and out we cam.

Me: Demon of Seattle you are under arrest.

The demon hissed ferociously and went at me and then it grabbed my arm and it burned me with a caustic had burn and I punched the demon off and then it left a REALLY nasty hand mark on my arm!

Nico: Whoa man!

Eli: That is one nasty burn!

Varie went and healed me.

Radioactive Man: Have a taste of radiation!

He fired an atomic energy blast and it hit the demon and burned it.

Eli: Try Force Lightning!

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and electrocuted the Demon all over.

Laney: And Bramble Vines!

Laney formed a bunch of bramble vines and they wrapped around the Demon and she had them smash the creature all over.

Then Springfield Mafia, Springfield Bullies, Selma & Patty, Wiggum, Cantwell, Cargill, Chalmers, Krusty, Artie Ziff and Skinner appeared.

Krusty: HEY HEY KIDDIES! (Goofy Laughter)

Me: Springfield Mafia, Springfield Bullies, Selma & Patty, Wiggum, Cantwell, Cargill, Chalmers, Krusty, Artie Ziff and Skinner.

Cantwell: Looks like we got here just in time.

Fat Tony: So, you figured out who the Steam Demon is, huh?

William: Of course we did.

Me: Yep.

Maxxine: But we need you guys to keep that a secret until after we defeat it.

Jimbo: Our lips are sealed.

Kearney: Yeah we're not saying anything till then.

Dolph: Yep.

Patty: We won't even say the gender. No matter how hard that might be.

Selma: We sure won't.

Wiggum: (to me) Heard you took down some old evil mermaid enemies of yours.

Me: You heard right Chief.

Cantwell: I can imagine that it was just as bloody as the first time.

Me: Oh yeah. It was REALLY BLOODY!

Varie: Yeah it sure was.

?: Boy no kidding.

A figure came out and it was DYNA BOT! Back for round 2.

Me: Dyna Bot. Back for round 2?

Dyna Bot: Yep I sure am.

Me: Sweet.

Dyna Bot: Did you like the bomb I placed on Hordak?

Nico: We sure did. Any chance you can do that again?

Dyna Bot: Depends on if there's a scumbag that I can do it on.

Me: We'll think of something and I have just the place for us to have our battles on. (Snaps Fingers)

We were now on the home planet of the Indigo Tribe: Nok!

---

Nok was a planet located in the universe that was home to a native species. At some point centuries ago, Natromo lived on the world when it was invaded by alien invaders. These beings built a maze of cells under Nok that were used for future years. In order to fight the invaders, the natives began mining a material from the world's waters. Unknown to them, this substance was actually a distilled form of the Indigo Light of Compassion. As a result, the invaders struck by the native weapons felt compassion and regret over their actions. The tide was only turned by the arrival of Green Lantern Abin Sur who arrived on Nok one day. He aided Natromo and saved the native inhabitants from the alien enslavers. This encounter led to the Ungaran learning of the light of Compassion and together with Natromo they sought to harness this power. The reason for this was due to Sur learning of a prophecy that spoke of a threat that would destroy the Green Lantern Corps in the distant future. These chain of events saw the forging of the Indigo Tribe Central Power Battery to serve as an energy source for Power Ring's that wielded compassion. With the forging of the first Indigo Lantern Power Ring, Abin Sur departed the planet and returned with a criminal prisoner called Iroque. The Indigo Power Ring was placed on her and she was transformed into Indigo-1 and became the basis for the Indigo Tribe who harnessed the power of Compassion in the Emotional Spectrum. From there, Natromo served as custodian of the Indigo Central Power Battery whilst the Indigo Tribe recruited from criminals in the cosmos.

Secrets of The Indigo Tribe

Following the War of The Green Lanterns, the Indigo Tribe believed in the coming prophecy of a threat to emerge from the Guardians of the Universe. At this time, they forcibly abducted Sinestro and incidently took Hal Jordan as well to Nok. They were placed within prison cells built on Nok by alien invaders where the Indigo Tribe began the process of brainwashing Sinestro and turning the Korugarian into a member of their ranks. It was only when Hal Jordan managed to escape into the Forbidden Jungles did he encounter Natromo who learnt the truth regarding the fate of Abin Sur. Seeing the creator of the Indigo Tribe dead, Natromo believed no force could work against the Oans goals. Thus, he destroyed the Central Power Battery which returned the Tribesmen to their previous criminal states. Whilst a freed Sinestro fought the criminals, Jordan convinced Natromo to undo the damage he had done though they lacked the spark of Compassion to accomplish their goal. However, a repentant Iroque shed a tear that demonstrated that she felt regret over her criminal past actions and thus had been redeemed. This was used by Natromo to reforge the Indigo Central Power Battery thus restoring the Indigo Tribe once more.

The Guardians later tracked Sinestro's Power Ring signature and thus discovered the existence of the planet Nok. Whilst floating in orbit, they determined that they would not intervene but rather wait for the rise of their Third Army which was expected to eliminate the Indigo Tribe.

---

Me: This is the home planet of the Indigo Tribe, Nok.

Indigo-1: Good choice for the battles.

Laney: Wow! So this is the planet Nok.

Eli: It's a jungle planet. This is amazing.

Nunnally: It sure is.

Allie Wilde: It sure is amazing here.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming, as we felt the ground rumbling.

Samus Aran: Oh no, I was hoping it wouldn't show up again.

Suddenly, the ground opened up, and we saw what it was that Samus Aran talked about, it was King Worm, or known by its real name, The Charge Beam Beast.

Me: Whoa, so that's The Charge Beam Beast.

Nicole: From Metroid: Zero Mission.

Samus Aran: Yes, but it's also known as King Worm. I fought against it on Brinstar and destroyed it. This worm is very dangerous, it has spikes on its elongated body, which it fires at targets.

Lana Loud: Ugh, I may love eating worms, but this thing is a no go for me.

Toph Bei Fong: Samus, let me get rid of this overgrown worm.

Samus Aran: Okay, Toph, but be careful.

Toph Bei Fong: But, I'm not fighting it alone.

We knew exactly what she meant, whenever a member of Lincoln's harem transforms, he joins in the fight.

Toph Bei Fong: And it's time for me to transform.

Suddenly, we saw Toph's eyes turn neon green and she was surrounded by a neon green energy aura with rock fragments surrounding her, she unholstered her Sword of The Four Elemental Nations from her back, and as she walked to King Worm, she left neon green energy, rock fragments, and lava with every step. Then, Toph Bei Fong was surrounded by a massive vortex of green energy with rock fragments orbiting around the vortex and a yellow phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded away, Toph Bei Fong emerged, but she was changed forever.

Toph Bei Fong grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon green eyes and a neon green energy aura with rock fragments surrounding her, she has a green dragon with the symbol of the Earth Kingdom in its claws emblazoned on her forehead, her black hair now has green highlights and she has black angel wings with green tips on the feathers, the massive, wide, double-edged blade of her Sword of The Four Elemental Nations grew to 6'5" in length and the long black handle grew longer, she has on a sleeveless green blouse with a yellow phoenix, a green skirt with rock fragments, black pants, black leather combat boots, and a long sleeveless green trenchcoat with rock fragments, lava, and the symbol of The Earth Kingdom on the back. Toph Bei Fong has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with green gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large green gem for the belt buckle on her waist and Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the Earth Kingdom symbol written in yellow that said, "Toph Bei Fong, Earthbending Master of Avatar Aang and Member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Master of Earth and Lava."

Toph Bei Fong、アバターアングの地球を曲げるマスター、チームラウドフェニックスストームのメンバー、リンカーンラウドの愛する未来の妻、そして地球と溶岩のマスター

Toph Bei Fong has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 LAVASTORM EARTH ANGEL OF HONOR!

We were amazed by Toph's transformation, and Lincoln was blushing when he saw her transformation.

Me: Whoa, looks like Toph's transformed, and things are about to get really interesting.

Nico: You said it, J.D. This is gonna be good, and judging from the blush on Lincoln's face, he's also impressed by her transformation.

Lincoln: Wow, Toph, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Toph Bei Fong: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Voice of Honor) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, let's teach that overgrown worm a lesson.

Lincoln then transformed into transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and he and Toph Bei Fong went after King Worm, and they fired powerful blasts of neon green energy and neon blue energy with elemental forces orbiting around the cores, along with rocks and superhot magma and lava, which hits King Worm, and severely burned him badly. Then, with their swords in hand, Lincoln and Toph Bei Fong slashed off King Worm's spikes, disarming it of its ammunition.

Toph Bei Fong: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Voice of Honor) That overgrown worm's now defenseless, now's our chance. Let's use our combo and burn him, Lincoln.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get him, Toph.

Toph Bei Fong and Lincoln: LAVA STYLE NINJA ART: LAVASTORM RASENSHURIKEN!

Toph Bei Fong and Lincoln formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of red energy, red hot lava and red hot magma, and in the core was a dragon and a thunderbird flying around the core with miniature orbs of magma. They also infused it with Super Hakai energy, as there was traces of purple around it. Toph Bei Fong and Lincoln threw the red hot Lava Rasenshuriken, and when it hits King Worm, it exploded with incredible power, melting the worm into molten magma, and Super Hakaied its spirit.

We cheered wildly for what Toph Bei Fong and Lincoln just did. They holstered their weapons and powered down, and Toph's eyes changed back, but her new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Toph up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

The girls in Lincoln's harem saw it, and they know just how romantic Lincoln really is, especially when he picks them up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, wrapping them in a hug, and sharing a passionate kiss. They're sure to expect that sort of thing from him in the future, especially on the day they one day get married.

Me: Now we can have the battles unimpeded. Lets go.

We got the battles underway.

Sora T.: It was really cool. It was really the old city of Seattle that was burned down in the 1890s.

Phoenixmon: And Seattle that we know today is right on top of it.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it sure is cool to see.

Kearney: And don't worry. We'll save revealing the Steam Demon's identity for the end. (growls) Still can't believe that its' real identity did all those things though.

Sam S.L.: We are really proud of Maxxine and it's amazing how much she knows all about Seattle.

Rarity: Indeed darling and it is really amazing how much she knows about the place.

Mandee: Yeah we sure did but it's not an alcohol shop. It was more like a medicine shop and it was loaded with chemicals.

Patty: That explains it.

Selma: Yep. Fluttershy we heard that you faced Elmyra Duff earlier.

Fluttershy: I sure did and she was hurting squirrels. I gave her the stare and they took her back to prison.

Tree Hugger: They sure did dudes and what she was doing was not cool.

Tornado Bolt: Yeah Elmyra really is a monster.

Mage Meadowbrook: She has no respect for any animal at all.

Stealth Elf: No she doesn't. She really is known as the Terror of The Animal Kingdom.

Plant Lola: And now we know why she's not allowed to come within 100 feet of animals in pet shops.

Donkey Kong: You got that right.

Diddy Kong: What she did was not cool.

George Jetson: Yeah no kidding there.

Jane: It's not good.

Selma: I never liked Elmyra.

Patty: Me neither.

Selma: Shall we dance?

Mandee: Lets shall.

They fired waves of fire, flowers, energy and grass and smashed them down.

Homer: No these were elixirs that were used a long time ago back during the pioneer days.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah they wouldn't be very good now than they were back then.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) Like I said, Chemistry is not my thing. Even though rocks are made of chemicals.

Marble Pie: It sure is amazing though.

Featherweight: It sure is something that there are all kinds of chemicals in that shop.

---

Part 6 done.

The next rescue is gonna be for a character I made up in my books at home. She is Alison Winters and she is a Plumber Girl that is half human and half Lumarine. They are a race of water aliens from the planet Lumaris and she is gonna be in the world of Richie Rich and me, Shanan and the Jirachi Gene-Slammer are going to take down Van Dough and his cronies and save the Rich Family. Lincoln's rescue is gonna be in the world of the movie Orphan from 2009 and we're going to make sure that we bring Leena Klammer back to justice and make sure that she stays in the nuthouse forever. The next chapter is gonna be for where we go to Daphne's awesome house and we're going to face The Ghost of Chef Pierre Goulash and we're going to make sure that never gets away with all of the stuff from the Blake's.

See you all tomorrow.

The Case of The Mansion Thief

In North Carolina, me, Shanan and Holly the Jirachi Gene-Slammer were at the Rich Estate and it was obvious that we were there to help Richie Rich and his family again.

Me: We're here to help Richie Rich and his family again.

Holly Guðmundsdóttir: (Icelandic Accent) You guys met Richie before, right?

Me: We sure have Holly and that was an awesome adventure. You should see how awesome their estate is.

Shanan: Boy how can I forget. That was great. Richie learned a really big lesson that day too.

Holly Guðmundsdóttir: What's that?

Me: That having all the money in the world can never bring happiness and it can never buy you things like friendship, love and power.

Holly Guðmundsdóttir: That is definitely true.

We then saw the Rich Family being taken to the vault.

---

Richie Rich is the world's richest boy, the son of billionaire businessman and philanthropist Richard Rich. Richie has only his loyal butler Herbert Cadbury as a companion, and lacks any friends his own age. At a dedication to the reopening of United Tool, Richie encounters a group of sandlot kids playing baseball. Unfortunately, before he is able to talk to them, the overly-strict head of security, Ferguson, stops Richie and sharply pulls him away.

Meanwhile, the greedy CFO of Rich Industries Lawrence Van Dough is plotting to steal the Rich financial fortune, believed to be stored in the Rich family vault. Van Dough, with the help of Ferguson, plots to blow up the plane carrying the Rich family to England.

After a failed attempt on Richie's part to make friends with the sandlot kids, Cadbury makes a suggestion to Richie's mother Regina and arranges for Richie to stay home in Chicago for a weekend of fun with the sandlot kids.

During the plane trip to England, the bomb Van Dough ordered planted is discovered by chance among the many presents they mean to deliver to the Queen. Upon realizing what it is, Richard is able to toss it out his window, but the bomb detonates while still near the plane, destroying part of the tail, sending Billion Dollar One into the ocean. Richard and Regina survive the crash and float on a life raft. While initially upset that Richie wasn't on the plane, Van Dough is undeterred and, believing Richie's parents to be dead, assumes leadership of Rich Corporation, and proceeds to cut the many charitable contributions the Rich family were known for. This includes closing the recently reopened United Tool factory, which the parents of the sandlot kids relied upon for their income. This angers Richie, and so with the encouragement and assistance of Cadbury, he proceeds to the company headquarters and, as a living Rich family member, assumes the leadership position.

Van Dough, however, sees this as a minor setback: as Richie is still underage, his ability to run the business is limited by the powers given to him by someone who was able to give it to him - namely, Cadbury. To rectify this, he has Cadbury framed for the Rich family's apparent murder when bomb parts are found in his room, and most of the Rich family's other loyal servants are fired en masse by Van Dough's edict. To ensure he doesn't somehow get released, Van Dough plots to have Cadbury murdered in jail and make it look like a suicide. With Professor Keenbean eavesdropping on their conversation, he manages to sneak Richie out and enact a successful plan to help Cadbury escape from prison just as a hulking hitman arrives to murder Cadbury, Cadbury is able to knock out the hitman. Cadbury and Richie then make their way to Gloria's house, where Diane tends to Cadbury, and Richie uses Gloria's computer to hack into the Dadlink's mainframe at Rich Manor.

During this time, Van Dough finds out about Cadbury's escape and, with Ferguson's help, confronts Keenbean where he states that the lock to the Rich family vault is voice-activated by Richard and Regina. Richard manages to send out a distress code on his repaired Dadlink, but the signal is intercepted by Ferguson, who disconnects Richie's modem from the phone line and then informs Van Dough that Richie's parents are alive.

Van Dough is eventually led to Mount Richmore, a gigantic mountainside-sculpture of the three Rich members' heads where the vault is located. There, he is furious when he sees that the vault holds the Rich family's most precious memories and keepsake treasures - but nothing that is of true monetary value. Desperate to get the money, he attempts to shoot Richard and Regina, only for Richie to appear in the nick of time and interfere and is shot at instead, though the bullets prove harmless thanks to one of Keenbean's inventions. The Rich family manages to get away and the chase leads them down the side of the mountain, where they are under further attack by Ferguson and a rock-blasting laser that had originally been used to sculpt the mountain/vault. After a brief fight, Cadbury finally succeeds in disarming Ferguson and Van Dough is fired.

Days later, Richie plays baseball with his new friends for the United Tool team on the Rich Manor's yard, with Cadbury as team coach. He hits a home run, which is picked up by Van Dough, who is gardening with Ferguson as part of their work release and subsequently tosses the baseball into the fountain. Richard and Regina blissfully state that Richie now really is the richest boy in the world, as he has found the one thing that money can't buy: friends.

---

Me: Lets go.

We followed Van Dough and the Rich Parents and quietly followed them from the shadows.

Holly: Time for some action.

Holly concentrated and groaned as she began to shrink.

She turned into Jirachi and I held on to her clothes for her.

Me: Lets go.

We went down a hall and we saw them at the vault.

Van Dough: All right, now. Open it.

Mr. Rich: Hello, vault.

Me: (In my head) Wow that is one spiffy vault.

Vault: Hiya, boss! Please state the code for voice check.

They sang a song and that was a code.

Vault: Code Accepted.

Me: (In my head) Very ingenius code.

Van Dough: Thank you, Beavis and Butthead.

The vault opened and it was an amazing door and they got in it and it was full of stuff.

Van Dough: This is incredible! This is amazing! This is… This is… This is junk!

Regina Rich: Junk?

Van Dough: Bronze dog bones? What? Accordions? Baby pictures, tricycles, kites? Bowling trophies?

Regina: You remember that, darling?

Mr. Rich: Our first date.

Me: (In my head) Momentos in their vault. Very interesting. And I think it's really cute.

Van Dough: What is all of this crap?

Regina: These are our priceless possessions.

Van Dough: Where are the gold bars… the diamonds, negotiable bearer bonds, (Pulls out gun) the money? Where's the money?!

Mr. Rich: In banks, where else?

Regina: And the stock market, real estate-

Van Dough: No. Is this a joke? This is not right. Are you telling me there is not one single solitary gold bar or emerald… or thousand-dollar bill in this entire mountain?

Mr. Rich: I'm sorry, Laurence, but that's not what we treasure.

Van Dough: Kill them!

BANG!

Van Dough was shot in the chest and blood was pouring from his heart and they looked behind them and I had a gun in my hands and smoke came out of the gun.

Me: Not your lucky day after all huh?

Shanan then snuck up behind a man with a gun and slashed his throat and decapitated him.

Me: You guys all right?

Mr. Rich: Thanks to you J.D. We owe you a second time.

Shanan: We'll call our debt even.

Me: I don't think this is all junk at all. You have lots of amazing momentos here in your vault.

Regina: I'm glad you think so J.D.

Richie Rich: But thanks for saving my family again guys.

Shanan: Anytime Richie.

?: I already took care of Van Dough's men.

We saw a girl with brown hair and she had a Plumber's badge belt and she had a tattoo in the shape of the kanji for water on her arm.

Me: Oh and you are?

Alison Winters: My name is Alison Winters. Pleasure to meet you J.D. and you too Shanan.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too.

I gave Richie and Mr. Rich blind man glasses and Holly reverted back.

Me: It's best not to get Nicole angry.

Mr. Rich: Ah understood.

They put on the glasses.

Holly was human again. But naked.

Holly: (covers herself) Are you alright, Richie?

Richie Rich: I sure am.

I gave Holly her clothes back.

Alison Winters: You have a good shot on you J.D.

Me: Thanks Alison.

Van Dough then got up with every ounce of his strength left and Alison saw him and fired a stream of water from her hands that went down his throat and he got bloated up and then…

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He exploded in a massive explosion of water, blood and guts! He was blown to pieces.

Me: WHOA! How did you do that?

Alison Winters: I'm half Lumarine.

Shanan: The Lumarine of the planet Lumaris. They are water elementals with the power over all the water in the world. Even in the atmosphere.

Richie: That's amazing.

Alison Winters: It sure is.

Me: Do you know Ben Tennyson and his team?

Alison Winters: I sure do. Ben is like a brother to me. He taught me that revenge isn't the answer.

Me: Wow that's amazing. And it's good that he did.

Shanan: I'm glad too. Now I see why you had me come along dad.

Me: Yep. Sorry you had to see Van Dough explode like that.

Mr. Rich: No worries. He had it coming for trying to kill us.

Me: Yep. But that's really smart thinking that you put all your money into the banks before he could get to it.

Richie Rich: It sure is.

Me: Maybe I should do the same thing.

Later we went back home.

---

After taking down both Van Dough and his cronies, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Ino Yamanaka, Sakura Hibiki, Soryuin Akemi, Tachibana Satomi, Uehara Ayaka, and Gina Boyd were heading to the world of the 2009 movie Orphan, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the seventeen girls located there, but we're going to deal with Leena Klammer yet again, who escaped from prison, and returned home to kill Kate Coleman and Max Coleman yet again.

---

Esther Coleman (real name: Leena Klammer ) is the titular main antagonist of the 2009 horror film Orphan and will return as the titular protagonist of its upcoming prequel Orphan: First Kill .

She is presumed to be a 9-year-old Russian girl who now has a foster family named The Colemans (Kate Coleman, John Coleman, Max Coleman, and Daniel Coleman). However, she is actually a 33-year-old Estonian woman and she has a hypopituitary disorder that makes her look much younger than she actually is.

She was portrayed by Isabelle Fuhrman, who also played Clovein The Hunger Games .

Film

According to Dr. Värava from the Saarne Institute, an Estonian mental institution, Esther Coleman is a serial killer who has already murdered at least 7 people that they know of. For this, she was later caught and placed in the Saarne Institute. She was one of the wildest and violent patients, who would always hurt the staff employees. These behaviors eventually resulted in her being put in a straitjacket; she would constantly get out of them due to her fighting and resisting, but developed several scars as a result.

After this, she escaped and used her child-like body to pretend to be a child named Esther, where she forged documents and created a new identity. Because of this, she is never found and is later adopted by the Sullivans, an American family. She tried to seduce her adopted father, but failed. She killed everyone and burned the house down, feigning that it was an accident. Following this, she was sent to a nearby American orphanage, where she did not get along well with the other children.

Despite this, nobody suspected her true identity, as Leena had prosthetic false teeth made and wore makeup to help her look younger than she really was. She makes a good impression on another family.

Orphan

After living with her new adopted family for several weeks, Kate grows suspicious when Esther expresses far more knowledge of sex than would be expected for a child of her age. Esther further antagonizes Kate by cutting flowers planted as a memorial to her stillborn child, casually reveals when other woman flirt with John (given he previously had an affair) and reads intimate details from Kate's diary. She is further alarmed when Sister Abigail, the head of the orphanage, warns her and John about Esther's tendency to be near when things go wrong. Esther overhears this and later kills Sister Abigail by bludgeoning her to death with a hammer. She convinces Max to help her with this and they hide all pieces of evidence in their treehouse.

A few days later at school, she opens Daniel's backpack causing his books to fall out when he's walking up the stairs. Kate gets out of the car to help him but leaves it running. Esther comes back to the car puts the gear selector in Neutral and takes off the parking brake, causing the car to roll down the hill with Max still inside.

Daniel decides to retrieve the hammer which was used to slay Sister Abigail to prove Esther's guilt. However when he reveals his plans to Max, Esther overhears. The next day, Daniel goes to the treehouse and finds it unlocked. He enters the treehouse and searches for the hammer but finds nothing. Esther appears behind him and sets the treehouse ablaze to stop Daniel. She leaves the now-on-fire treehouse and locks Daniel inside, in an attempt to kill him. Daniel climbs out from the treehouse through the window and near burns to death, only ends up falling to the ground, injured and unconscious. Esther near murders him with a brick but Max shoves her out of the way. Daniel is hospitalized cause of the neck injury and abdominal bleeding. Esther Near murders Daniel at the hospital but doctors save him. Kate, Knowing what happened, furiously slaps Esther and knocks her down and is immediately subdued and sedated.

Esther tries to seduce a drunken John, who finally realizes Kate is telling the truth and threatens to send her back to the orphanage. Esther, Mad and hurt, ransacks her room and takes off her clothing/ makeup, unwraps her breasts and removes the ribbons around her neck and wrists. Meanwhile, as Kate is coming out of sedation, she receives a call on her cell phone from the Saarne Institute. Dr. Värava, who works at the Institute, reveals that Esther is actually a 33-year-old woman from Estonia named Leena Klammer. She has hypopituitarism, a disorder that stunted her physical growth and caused dwarfism and as a result, she spent most of her life posing as a little girl. The doctor tells Kate that Leena is dangerous and especially violent.

At home, Leena, hurt from being scolded, murders John now wearing black long sleeves with her hair tied looking aged. Max witnesses her father being stabbed by Leena/Esther and hides in a hamper in her closet. Kate rushes home, only to find John dead. Leena gets a revolver from John's safe, shoots Kate on the arm and hunts Kate down before she goes to search for Max. While firing at Max in their greenhouse, Kate manages to break through from above Leena/Esther and knocks her out.

Leena later follows Kate outside to a frozen pond and lunges at Kate, where they fall and struggle onto the ice as Max watches from a hill above the pond. Max maneuvers herself to grab the gun that was dropped by Kate during the struggle. She fires at Leena/Esther but hits the ice instead, which breaks, causing Kate and Leena/Esther to drop into the water below.

After a brief struggle under the ice, during which Kate is stabbed in the leg and Leena/Esther is elbowed in the face, Kate climbs out partially, followed by Leena/Esther, begging Kate not to let her die, addresses her as "Mommy" while holding a knife behind her back. Kate then furiously responds, "I'm not your fking mommy!" and kicks Leena/Esther in her face, breaking her neck and sending her back into the pond, dead, with blood rushing through the water, while Max and Kate are met by the police moments after as Esther's corpse keeps sinking to her watery grave.

Lincoln: Oh man, we're in the world of the 2009 movie, Orphan, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the seventeen girls located here, but we're going to bring Leena Klammer back to justice and make sure that she stays in the nuthouse forever.

Me: That's right, big guy. From what we heard from the warden in the prison, Leena Klammer killed two of the guards with a shank and made her escape, and there was no sign of her anywhere.

Nico: I remembered that you told me you guys took down Leena Klammer long ago, and I saw the movie Orphan, she is an extremely violent woman, and because of her hypopituitarism, she was stuck as a little girl all her life.

Me: And has been lying about everything all her life to get what she wants.

Sakura Hibiki: From what Linky told us about her, she's incredibly dangerous and needs to be sent back to the nuthouse forever.

Eli: That's right.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of seventeen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the seventeen girls sighted here, along with Kate and Max Coleman, but they were cornered by Leena Klammer, and she was going to kill them.

Lincoln: I found the girls located here, along with Kate and Max Coleman, but that little psychopath's got them cornered, and she's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over to rescue the seventeen girls, Max Coleman, and Kate Coleman, and deal with the psychotic Leena Klammer.

Leena Klammer: DIE!

But, before Leena Klammer could try to kill them, she was punched hard in the face by Lincoln, and that caused her to drop the knife. When she saw us, she screamed even more in pure rage.

Lincoln: I should've known you'd return back here, Leena Klammer. But, your murderous rampage ends here and now.

Lincoln fired powerful blasts of water at Leena Klammer, which drenches her badly, and that sent her screaming in pure rage. Then, he fired a blast of neon blue energy, which transformed into a durable and indestructible straitjacket and was laced with chains. We cheered for Lincoln, who finally put the murderous Leena Klammer down and chained her up like a mad dog.

Me: Try and get out of that straitjacket this time you psychotic bitch!

We checked on Max and Kate Coleman, who were happy to see us again and they were okay, then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the seventeen girls located here, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them. The seventeen girls were Mace Daniels and Alana McKendrick from Fighting Force, Arle Nadja from Puyo Puyo, Hibiki Takane, Kaori Sanada, Akari Ichijou, and Yuki from The Last Blade, Alice Nakata from Garou Densetsu: The Legend of Wild Wolf, Diana, May Lee Jinju, Zarina, and Xiao Lon from King of Fighters, Lynn Baker, Anny Hamilton, and Clara Hananokoji from Power Instinct Matrimelee, Rosa from Kizuna Encounter, and Tia Langray from Breakers.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Mace Daniels, Alana McKendrick, Arle Nadja, Hibiki Takane, Kaori Sanada, Akari Ichijou, Yuki, Alice Nakata, Diana, May Lee Jinju, Zarina, Xiao Lon, Lynn Baker, Anny Hamilton, Clara Hananokoji, Rosa, and Tia Langray.

Nicole: From Fighting Force, The Last Blade, Garou Densetsu: The Legend of Wild Wolf, King of Fighters, Kizuna Encounter, and Breakers, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Mace Daniels: Yeah, we're okay, thanks.

Then, when Mace Daniels and the other sixteen girls saw who it was that saved them all from Leena Klammer, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow

Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Mace Daniels: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made sixteen clones of himself, and they went up to the sixteen girls, and Lincoln went up to Mace Daniels, who'd picked them girls up and they hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Mace Daniels: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to the Estate, and Lincoln had Leena Klammer thrown in a padded cell in Solitary Confinement in The Venus Prison, and she was chained up to a wall with indestructible chains, where she'll remain there for the rest of her life, and she will never be free to kill again.

* * *

After putting a stop to Leena Klammer forever, we were then training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading down to meet the friends of Litchi Faye Ling, Makoto Nanaya, Rachel Alucard, and Noel Vermillion, and we found out that when Lincoln rescued them, their world has merged with ours.

Lincoln: I can't wait to meet your friends, girls.

Litchi Faye Ling: Trust me, Linc, you're going to like them, along with the rest of the team.

Makoto Nanaya: And there's another reason why we're heading down to meet them, we're also going to take down that bastard, Yuki Terumi.

Nicole: I've heard about that guy, he's pure evil. He's a powerful magic user, and he, like us, has the ability to feed on the hatred of others to make himself stronger, but it's to keep him tethered to the physical world.

We gasped in shock after what Nicole told us.

Lincoln: This is going to be a difficult challenge, but too bad for him, we're one step ahead of him.

Lincoln snapped his fingers, and stripped Yuki Terumi of his ability to feed on the hatred of other to make himself stronger, but he'll still be tethered to the physical world. That'll give us the advantage when we face him.

We met with Ragna the Bloodedge, Jin Kisaragi, Jubei, Hakumen, and Valkenhayn R. Hellsing, the friends of Litchi Faye Ling, Makoto Nanaya, Rachel Alucard, and Noel Vermillion, and Litchi told them that they're now future wives of Lincoln Loud, and they know Lincoln's a man of his word, and he'll take care of them. Then, we proceeded to get after Yuki Terumi, since Lincoln stripped him of his ability to feed on the hatred of others.

Yuki Terumi: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived.

Me: That's right, traitor, and now, you will pay for everything that you have done.

Yuki Terumi: We'll see.

But, when he felt that he wasn't getting stronger from anyone's hatred, this angered him to no end.

Yuki Terumi: What? What's going on?! Why can't I get stronger from anyone's hatred.

Lincoln: That was from me, you see, we know about your ability to get stronger by feeding off of the hatred from others. Well, guess what, so do we. But, I stripped that ability from you.

Yuki Terumi fell into an extremely dark rage after what Lincoln told him.

Yuki Terumi: (Enraged Screaming) I HATE YOU ALL, I HATE YOU, I HATE YOU, I HAAATE YOUUUU!

But, that idiot made the big mistake when he spouted out his hatred, and our auras flared up from his hatred.

Lincoln: Alright, everyone, it's Showtime! Let's get that psychotic bastard, and rip him apart!

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and we followed his lead and we transformed and went after Yuki Terumi, who fired a blast of dark energy at us, but we dodged it, and we fired powerful blasts of elemental forces, magic, and neon multi-colored energy at the bastard, which hits him and exploded with incredible power. We also attacked him with our sharp weapons, and our blades really cut him deep, as he was bleeding profusely.

Lincoln formed nine neon blue tails from his back with stingers, and they stung Yuki Terumi right on his chest, arms, back, and legs, paralyzing him. Then, Lincoln began sucking out and absorbing Yuki Terumi's magic and abilities, making them his and ours, as well, and causing Yuki Terumi pain. When the tails retracted, Yuki was now bleeding like mad, and it got worse when Lincoln slashed off Yuki Terumi's arms and slashed his eyes, blinding him permanently.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Girls, let's end this bastard once and for all.

Litchi Faye Ling: You got it, Linky.

Lincoln, Litchi Faye Ling, Makoto Nanaya, Rachel Alucard, and Noel Vermillion: BLAZBLUE LEGACY ELEMENTAL MEGABLAST!

Lincoln, Litchi Faye Ling, Makoto Nanaya, Rachel Alucard, and Noel Vermillion fired powerful blasts of elemental forces and neon multi-colored energy blasts which contained the legacy of the BlazBlue video game franchise, and once they hit Yuki Terumi, it exploded with incredible power, and it Super Hakaied his spirit once and for all. Lincoln powered down and holstered his Sword of Taranis on his back, and we cheered wildly for what they did, and Lincoln made three clones of himself, and they picked up Makoto Nanaya, Rachel Alucard, and Noel Vermillion, and Lincoln picked up Litchi Faye Ling in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and shared a passionate hug and kiss.

We returned home, and Ragna the Bloodedge, Jin Kisaragi, Jubei, Hakumen, and Valkenhayn R. Hellsing were now new members of the team, and they're also going to help against Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

---

Later we were over at the Neptune Prison and we were there to show Allie Wilde around the place and have her see May and Lee Kanker.

Honeybeemon: Well, Allie. You get a first look inside one of our prisons.

Allie Wilde: It's amazing that you guys built prisons all over the Solar System.

Me: I think it's cool too. These prisons are where we house some of the worlds most dangerous criminals.

Nico: And they deserve to spend EVERY second of their miserable lives in prison for everything they did.

Allie Wilde: That's good. It's amazing that we're in a space prison on Neptune.

Me: It sure is. And you get to meet two inmates here at the prison. You're going to meet May and Lee Kanker, Marie's former so-called sisters.

Marie K.L.: Yeah you will not like them though

Allie was ready.

We got to a cell and saw the workers put the block of ice with May and Lee on the floor and Ed fired a blast of fire from his mouth and melted the ice and thawed them out.

May Kanker: Thanks for unthawing us, turtledove!

POW! CRASH!

Ed smashed May into the wall of her cell.

Edzilla: NEVER CALL ED THAT AGAIN!

Cannonbolt: What Ed said.

Maria: Ben, why are you Cannonbolt right now?

Cannonbolt: I'm not taking any chances with Lee and May right now. You know how strong they are!

Maria: Good point.

Allie Wilde: So these two are May and Lee Kanker?

Me: Yep. May is the one with blond hair and buck teeth. Lee is the redhead and (Whispers) She has 3 eyes.

Allie Wilde: Really?

I went over and lifted up Lee's hair and sure enough LEE ACTUALLY DOES HAVE 3 EYES!

Billy: HOLAY FREAKSHOW!

Allie Wilde: Wow. You are not kidding.

Leozack: Do you two have any idea what you prevented?

Lee: Not really.

Leozack: Let me clarify for you. All the kids made peace with the Eds. The Cul De Sac was finally going to be united. But then, you two fucked everything up!

May Kanker: Because we wanted to fuck our boyfriends! It would've been much more preferable than Eddy's brother beating on him!

Lee: But you guys had to ruin everything for us!

Me: You brought all that on yourselves!

Allie Wilde: What did they do?

Me: Here.

I showed her a newspaper on everything that happened in Atlanta on July 14th, 2014 and it was for the Vengeance Express. When Allie read it she was shocked and horrified!

Allie Wilde: Oh man! I heard about this! It was bad.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Nico: A horrible travesty.

Eddy: (to Tyrone) You know what? I pretty much prefer your physical abuse towards me over Marie's sisters raping me, Ed, and Double D.

Tyrone: Don't say that, pipsqueak. What I did wasn't acceptable either.

G1 Scattershot: But compared to what the Kankers did, your crimes were small.

Tyrone: True.

Me: What the Kanker's did was tear the entire city of Atlanta apart and killed hundreds of innocent people.

Lee: All people that are pathetic losers.

POW!

Allie punched Lee in the face and sent her crashing into May. Lee spit out a bunch of teeth.

Eli: Nice one Allie.

Arrietty: Yeah that was awesome.

Allie Wilde: Thanks.

Sarah: All this was me and Jimmy's fault.

Me: What do you mean Sarah?

Jimmy: If we didn't tell the Kankers about the Eds on the run, none of this would've happened to begin with.

Me: Oh you two it wasn't your fault. The Kankers made you tell them. You know how sadistic they were.

Nico: Yeah.

Allie Wilde: Marie your sisters are absolute monsters of pure evil.

Marie K.L.: You're telling me. But they are not my sisters anymore after everything they did.

May Kanker: You are still my sister.

Marie K.L.: You two are dead to me.

Nico: Freeze them back up guys. We're done here.

We went back to Earth and the 2 Kankers were frozen back up.

---

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Long Haul: Nico, just want to remind you that it's your turn to lead today.

Nico: Yep and Daphne just called and she is inviting us all over to her awesome mansion to show us all around.

Me: You will love her mansion guys. It's as big as a massive castle.

Allie Wilde: I remember going to her house a long time ago. It's amazing that her house is that huge.

Eli: I can't wait to see what her house is like.

Lola: You'll love it Eli. It's a really huge house.

Nico: Yep. Her house is amazing. Daphne belongs to the decor of the month club and you'll love her house.

The Springfield Mafia, Springfield Bullies, Selma & Patty, Wiggum, Cantwell, Cargill, Chalmers, Krusty, Artie Ziff and Skinner then appeared.

Wiggum: Can me, Springfield Mafia, Springfield Bullies, Selma & Patty, Cantwell, Cargill, Chalmers, Krusty, Artie Ziff and Skinner go with you guys?

Nico: You sure can chief. And there might be an amazing mystery for us to solve there. Lou and Eddie can come with too.

Lou: It'll be awesome.

Eddie: Lets crack some civilian skulls.

Nico: Lets head out.

We were off to the Blake Estate.

BLAKE ESTATE

We arrived at the Blake Estate and it was amazing.

Nico: Here we are guys.

Eli: Wow look at the size of this house!

Blaster Tron: (scans the mansion) Estimating how big the Blake mansion is.

Laney: Man I forgot how huge the Blake Mansion is.

Blaster Tron: Sensors indicate the Blake Mansion is 502,320 Square Feet.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! That is a massive house.

Sunset Shimmer: No kidding! How in the world has Daphne's family able to afford such an amazing house?

Allie Wilde: You wouldn't believe it. From what I remember the Blake Family made a massive fortune in diamond mines.

Me: Wow! I always wondered about that.

We went into the mansion and it was amazing.

Me: Wow. I forgot how huge Daphne's mansion is.

Daphne: Hey guys! Glad you all could make it.

Allie Wilde: Man it feels like forever since I was in your house Daphne.

Daphne: I know Allie it sure has been a while. Let me show you all around.

Nico: Sure.

Jimbo: We'd be glad for you to show us around, Daphne.

Dolph: (notices something) Um… guys?

We saw that the Corsola and the Murkrow were back!

Me: UH OH!

Kearney: These guys again?!

Poromon and the Murkrow glared at each other. Manaphy and the Corsola glared at each other too. Manaphy then tackled the Corsola out of the mansion while Poromon tackled the Murkrow out of the mansion and into the air.

BAM BAM BIFF CRACK SMASH! BLAMS BIFF ZONK POW KATOW THWACK!

Hisashi: I'm confused. Why are they fighting?

Nico: REALLY UGLY story.

Rei: The Corsola gave Manaphy fake money and Manaphy thought it was real money. The fake money was from the Monopoly games.

The Murkrow is Poromon's archenemy because of a lottery ticket.

Hisashi: Geez.

Me: Yeah and it's like what happened with Peter Griffin and Ernie the Giant Chicken. They fought constantly and brutally. They caused trillions of dollars in property damages and killed innocent people too.

Nico: Yep.

The Corsola and Murkrow were thrown into a conveniently placed hot dog cart.

Lori: (to Nico) Nico, I know you literally want to help Poromon right now. But you need to let him and Manaphy do this by themselves. You can't be there for them all the time.

Nico: Sorry Lori but I'm afraid we can't let that happen. You heard about what Peter and Ernie's fights did to Quahog and the world.

Lori: Oh right.

May: I'll take the Corsola.

May threw a Pokeball and it hit the Corsola and caught it.

Brittney: And I got the Murkrow.

Brittney threw a Pokeball and caught the Murkrow.

Brittney: All right!

We went over to the 2.

Lynn: You two okay?

Manaphy: We're fine. We threw the Corsola and Murkrow into a hot dog stand before they were caught.

Shaggy and Scooby were eating hot dogs.

Shaggy: Like it's really convenient.

Nico: That is funny.

Laney: It sure is.

Jimbo: Okay now we can walk around the mansion.

Daphne: I can't wait for you all to see my room.

Lola: Nico, Lori's right. Eventually, there's going to be a time where you have to let Poromon grow on his own. You can't keep babying him all the time.

Nico: I know.

Poromon: It's all right Lola. I don't mind it. Besides he's my partner and I like it.

Nico: Good.

We arrived at Daphne's room door.

Daphne: Sorry everyone but my room is a little messy.

She opened the door and it was a nice room but it was empty.

Lana: It looks clean to me.

Daphne: (Screams) MY ROOM! ITS BEEN STOLEN! (FAINTS)

Allie caught Daphne.

Strike Man: Well, at least the room's not messy anymore.

Nico: Strike Man this is serious!

Strike Man: Sorry.

Laney used smelling salts on Daphne and she woke up.

Daphne: My room is gone!

Me: Oh man! I think this is the work of the Ghost of Chef Pierre Goulash.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake came in.

Mr. Blake: Puh-lease J.D. there are no such things as ghosts.

Eli: Pleasure to meet you Mr. and Mrs. Blake.

Mrs. Blake: Pleasure to meet you too Eli.

Mr. Blake: And Allie it's great to see you again.

Mrs. Blake: You sure have grown into a great young woman.

Allie Wilde: Thanks Mr. and Mrs. Blake. Great to see you too.

Me: Good to see you again Mr. and Mrs. Blake.

Mr. Blake: You too J.D. Wow. You sure look amazing.

Me: I know. I've changed quite a bit over the last couple of years.

Nico: We all have.

Fat Tony: No such things as ghosts? Have you two been paying attention these last few years?

Legs: Yeah! There are a few ghosts on the Redemption Squad. Like Ember and Amorpho.

Louie: And we even have several ghosts as teammates too. Like Skulker and Technus.

Me: That's right. But me and Allie have known Mr. and Mrs. Blake for a long time and they don't believe in ghosts, monsters or any of that stuff. Even though Daphne believes it. We told them that we have seen many crazy things over the years but they still don't believe it.

Twilight Sparkle: Boy that is being stubborn.

Sunset Shimmer: But who is Pierre Goulash?

Me: He was an old chef that used to work for the Blake's a long time ago.

Mrs. Blake: That's right. Many years ago Daphne's great grandfather hired a chef named Pierre Goulash.

They saw a picture of Chef Pierre Goulash when he was alive.

Sunset Shimmer: He sure looked like an awesome chef.

Nico: Yep. He's from France and he cooks really awesome food.

Mr. Blake: But after they had a terrible argument Daphne's great grandfather fired him.

He showed a picture of Daphne's Great Grandfather and Chef Pierre Goulash yelling their faces off at each other and then to another picture of Daphne's great grandfather kicking Chef Pierre Goulash in his butt out of the Blake Family business.

Mrs. Blake: Chef Goulash swore that he would come back some day and take everything away from the Blake's.

Pacifica: Whoa! That's like what happened with my so-called family and the people they promised.

Nico: Whoa no kidding. Nasty grudge and vendetta.

Allie Wilde: That is scary.

Eli: It sure is.

Quake Woman: Who dressed up as the Chef the first time?

Qin: I can answer that. He was an old security guard named Mr. Gordon. He was in charge of the security here at the Blake Estate and he was using the Ghost of Chef Pierre Goulash to steel all of Daphne's furniture to sell on the black market and make a fortune.

Me: Yep. And that was a very amazing. But after we busted him he got 20 to 40 years in prison. And unfortunately he got beaten to death by fellow inmates.

Laney: Yep.

Eli: Brutal.

Allie Wilde: Good riddance to a bad cop.

Me: Yep.

Allie Wilde: I wasn't around here when that happened as you know.

Daphne Blake: Boy I sure do.

Cantwell: If Mr. Gordon's not the monster, who is?

Nanette: I don't know but if this mystery involves a chef ghost then count me in to solve it.

Mary Knudson: Me too!

Threatpack: (to Nanette) I think I know the answer. But why exactly are you so interested in this mystery all of a sudden?

Nanette: Because I'm a waitress at a restaurant and I'm also a chef too. And I'm learning so much about cooking from Mary.

Mary Knudson: Me and Nanette are great partners.

Me: That's awesome.

Nico: It sure is. Alright lets get this mystery going. And since we're dealing with a mystery that involves cooking and food which Shaggy and Scooby love, we'll start with the obvious place to look for clues and that is the kitchen.

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

Skinner: Let's search for any food out of place.

Nico: Okay.

We went into the kitchen and we saw that it was a massive commercial grade restaurant kitchen.

Laney: Wow this kitchen is a restaurant kitchen.

Daphne: It sure is.

Lana: Wonder if there will be clues in here.

Lana opened a door and it was a pantry. The pantry was MORE than just a pantry. It was a pantry as big as a massive grocery supermarket!

P.A. System: Welcome to the Blake's family pantry. The Chocolate Fudge Ripple Ice Cream is especially good today. Please check isle number 88.

Me: WHOA! This is your pantry Daphne?

Daphne: It sure is.

Nico: This is NOT JUST a pantry. This is a massive grocery store.

We went in.

Nanette: We're gonna have to split up in this huge pantry to cover more ground.

We fanned out and we had radios ready.

G1 Vortex: Maybe I should try that Chocolate Fudge Ripple Ice Cream.

Shaggy: Like count me in. As long as we don't run into that ghost.

We were amazed at how much food was in the pantry.

Nico: Man I can't believe how big your pantry is Daphne.

Daphne: I know. It's amazing huh?

Eli: This is a grocery store pantry. So awesome.

Nanette was over in the fruit and produce section.

Nanette: Boy there's enough fresh produce here to make lots of things. (See's something) Huh?

Nanette found something buried under a pile of apples and it was a magnificent 18K Gold diamond necklace.

Nanette: Wow look at this diamond necklace! (To Daphne through a radio) Daphne I think I found one of your Diamond Necklaces.

Daphne: (On the radio) I'll be right over.

We all regrouped.

I looked at the necklace.

Me: (Whistles) That is a really nice necklace.

Rarity: Indeed it is. A most amazing piece of jewelry.

Chalmers: Well, that's one of your stuff down.

Rarity: Ooh Daphne this necklace is absolutely magnificent.

Allie Wilde: It sure is. Wow.

Daphne: Thanks for finding it Nanette.

Nanette: Anytime.

Lisa Loud: Perhaps I can find the thief's trail.

Lisa pulled out some really spiffy and amazing glasses.

Lisa Loud: These are my new phosphorescent footprint glasses. They will find the thief's footprints without the need for us to use powder.

Me: Very spiffy.

She gave us each a part and a blue light came on and we saw the footprints of the Ghost of Chef Pierre Goulash.

Me: Wow these are really handy.

Nico: Very ingenius Lisa.

Eli: Yeah these will make a great tool for the Police force.

Sheila: They sure will.

Nanette: Lets see here.

We got to following the footprints.

Lynn: By the way, Poromon, I want to give you this trophy. (gives Trophy to Poromon)

Poromon: What's this?

Lynn: It's a trophy that I made for you in case you manage to defeat the Murkrow once and for all.

Golden Queen: I like how the trophy's made of gold.

Poromon: Thanks Lynn!

Me: That's a nice trophy.

We were following the footprints and they lead to a wall.

Nico: Looks like the footprints stop here and then go down (Points down a hall) that way.

Artie Ziff: There must be a secret room in here.

Nanette: Lets see.

Nanette felt around the wall and then she pressed a button and a hidden panel opened and revealed a compartment.

Nico: Wow!

Nanette pulled out a newspaper.

Nanette: It's an old newspaper. What do you make of this Nico?

Nico: Lets see.

Nico read the news paper.

Nico: This newspaper is from 7 years ago before I joined the team.

In big bold letters was "Traitor in Attempted Assassination Escaped from Prison!"

Nico gasped!

Nanette saw the picture on the paper.

Nanette: Oh man! This is the final clue we need to solve the mystery. But first lets see if we can find the Ghost of Chef Pierre Goulash and all of Daphne'S stuff.

We then followed the footprints and we went down some stairs and we wound up in a subway station in Daphne's House? Wow!

Finn: (Jackie Chan) There's even a subway station here?!

Daphne: Yes there is.

Me: Boy this would make a great stop from the World Tree Estate to here.

Nico: Just what I was thinking.

Laney: Boy that is amazing that your mansion has this Daphne.

Allie Wilde: It sure is.

Eli: Hey look there!

We saw all of Daphne's stuff by a train car!

Daphne: It's all my stuff!

Selma: You know this is a trap, right?

Patty: We need to find a way to get that stuff out of here and back to Daphne's room without alerting the ghost.

Me: I have an Idea.

I pulled out a scroll and put all of Daphne's stuff in it.

Nico: Nice job.

Me: Lets go.

We went back to Daphne's room and we put it all back and then we got ready to take down the fake Ghost of Chef Pierre Goulash.

Lemmy Koopa: Nico, do you know who's in this newspaper?

Nico: You'll find out after we unmask the ghost. It's someone from my past that hates my guts to the core.

Nanette: Whoa.

Laney: This is gonna be big.

Nico: Yep.

Maxxine: Nico, we found out about Mariah's identity before we unmasked her. Don't you think we should get the chance to know who this mystery guy is.

Cargill: Maxxine's got a point.

Nico: This is worse than what Mariah did.

Me: Lets respect Nico's choice. Besides, it's fun to wait for the grand unveiling.

Nico: Yep.

Maxxine: Good point.

We went back to the Subway Station and we saw the ghost.

Dusk: Time to do the entrance. I see him right now.

Nico: Lets do it.

We went at the ghost.

Fake Ghost of Pierre Goulash: (French Accent) (Laughs) I'll be rich.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above the ghost and the theme song for The Simpsons played.

THE SIMPSONS!

The spirits of the characters of The Simpsons swirled around the explosion and then converged and then we landed.

Nico: Okay you ghost imposter! You're under arrest!

Eli: We're taking you in bub!

Fake Ghost of Pierre Goulash: SACRE BOO!

Eli: Take this!

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Krusty: I don't know why you want Nico to suffer. But you're not gonna go through with it!

Me: Yeah you buttkicking sack of hot sassafras!

Applejack: You are nothing but an ornery sidewinder!

Nico: Get ready for the most unpleasant buttkicking of your life! (Cracks knuckles)

INSTIGATOR, The Vreedle Brothers, Duff Killigan, Carmen Dillo, El Oso, Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder, Kaos, Dr. Starline, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, The Cheese Monster and Metal Sonic then appeared.

Nico: INSTIGATOR, The Vreedle Brothers, Duff Killigan, Carmen Dillo, El Oso, Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder, Kaos, Dr. Starline, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, The Cheese Monster and Metal Sonic.

Carmen Dillo: This is one amazing mansion.

INSTIGATOR: Did you find out who the culprit is?

May: Only Nico knows.

Maria: And he says we have to wait for the unmasking.

Octagon: Well, he's not wrong.

William: We'll just have to wait until then.

Duff Killigan: (Scottish Accent) I'm sure it'll be worth the wait.

Nico: Oh it will be worth the wait. I want to see your reactions.

Carmen Dillo: Fair enough. (to me) Speaking of rich folk, we heard you visited Richie Rich again?

Me: We sure did.

El Oso: How's he doing?

Me: Great. Van Dough however escaped from prison somehow and he went into the vault for the money and it wasn't what he was hoping for.

Shanan: Yep. And all it got him was a shot in the heart and then an inflation and explosion from Alison here.

Alison Winters: It's true. My name is Alison Winters. Pleasure to meet you all.

Carmen Dillo: Same here.

Ben: Alison is half human and half Lumarine.

Octagon: Wow! The Water Elementals of planet Lumaris. It's awesome to meet one of you.

Alison Winters: Same here.

Carmen Dillo: We have 2 new recruits for you all to meet.

Gloriana

Origin

Meggan is Romanichal (a British Romani), and was born in their camp near Fenborough Station. As a young child, Meggan was thought to be a wolf girl. However, thanks to her mutant shape changing power, she had simply grown fur because she was cold. As rumors escalated amongst the other Romani about the monstrous child in her father William's caravan, Meggan subconsciously began to manifest the attributes they speculated she had, such as fangs and bat wings. Because of this, her parents kept her isolated, and she was allowed to venture out only at night, with only television during the day as a link to the outside world. Because of this sheltered life and lack of education, Meggan was functionally illiterate.

However, the reality warping mutant Mad Jim Jaspers altered Britain. All superpowered beings were locked into camps; the Romani's caravans were raided, and both Meggan and William were taken into custody. Placed in a concentration camp, Meggan was separated from her family. She hoped the famous hero Captain Britain would save her. Jaspers was defeated and reality corrected itself for the most part, but though her memories of her imprisonment were hazy, Meggan was still aware that things had changed.

Meggan stayed in an derelict warehouse where she was befriended by Josie and Micky Scott, two teenagers from a nearby council estate. The full moon would affect Meggan at this time, making the kids think she was some type of werebeast. Running into Captain Britain in this form, she battled him, but during the fight Mickey was accidentally killed by falling debris. Meggan fled the scene in anguish. About a week later, after Micky's funeral, Captain Britain visited the Scott family to apologize for his part in Micky's death. While he was there, Meggan, who had been watching the family from a distance, also struck up the courage to do the same. Taking pity on her, Brian offered Meggan to be his house-guest at Braddock Manor.

When they arrived, Psylocke's friend Alison Double sensed that Meggan was "beautiful and radiant". However, Meggan said she had always been in her monstrous form, and did not realize at the time she could alter it.

However, when dealing with the Warpies, Meggan transformed herself while battling the Cherubim Whirlwind, turning into a tall, blonde woman who matched Brian's idea of beauty. Brian fell for her, and the two adventured around the world while the Manor was filled with Warpies under the care of Betsy.

Meggan began to improve her control of her powers by mimicking animals she saw. In Russia the witch Baba Yaga attacked them, but Meggan used the power of nature and magic to defeat her. Returning to the U.K. after a time-traveling trip to Incan Peru, Brian and Meggan bought a lighthouse, Braddock Lighthouse with Incan gold to settle down in.

When the X-Men were believed to have perished in Dallas, Meggan contacted Shadowcat, and Nightcrawler, and they, along with Brian were drawn into battle against the Technet and the Warwolves (Mojoverse) to save Shadowcat and Nightcrawler's fellow X-Man Rachel Summers. Defeating those threats, the five of them soon formed the team Excalibur, and based themselves in the Lighthouse.

Constantly subconsciously modifying her form and behavior to match the empathic needs of those around her, Meggan still wondered which form was the 'real' Meggan. During the demonic invasion of New York City known as Inferno, Meggan was overcome by the demonic influences around her and altered herself into a demon-like form, calling herself the Goblin Princess. She attacked Brian, angry that he was seeing Courtney Ross on the side, but was disrupted by Shadowcat and the Soulsword.

During this time, Meggan also grew very close to her teammate Nightcrawler, to the point where Brian became jealous and attacked him. The fight between the two caused Meggan to run away with Rachel following her. The two women soon visited old friends, Josie and her family who helped Meggan come to realize that she wanted to locate her missing parents. So Meggan and Rachel went searching for her group Romani in France.

Later Meggan and Brian destroyed the Lighthouse to ensure their freedom from Merlyn (and secretly due to a subliminal suggestion by Roma.)

Sat-Yr-9

The team made Braddock Manor their new headquarters, and threw a housewarming party there. Among the guests was Brian's ex and mistress Courtney Ross, who had actually been murdered and replaced by her other-dimensional counterpart, the fugitive fascist dictator Sat-Yr-9. Sat-Yr-9 had her criminal forces attack the party-goers, and her pawn, Brian's reality-warping brother Jamie Braddock torture the guests, including Meggan, twisting their bodies into grotesque forms. Brian was drugged and controlled by Sat-Yr-9, who used him as her sex slave, but he broke free when she tried to make him kill Meggan. Shaking off the effects of drugs she'd been given, Meggan broke free of Jamie's reality warping, saying that as a shape-changer, the threads of order could not bind her. She beat Jamie senseless, saying it was the only language he would understand, and Betsy neutralized him with her 'psychic knife.' Breaking free from Jamie's control, Meggan discovered her 'true' form - an elfin, blonde, form, taller than the usual form Meggan took. However, Meggan had grown used to her normal form, and kept it as a rule. Sat-Yr-9 and Jamie escaped, however.

After this encounter, Brian became obsessed with stopping Sat-Yr-9, to the point where he ignored everyone else. Nightcrawler drew Brian's attention to his neglected relationship, and Brian took Meggan on a romantic holiday. Brian proposed to Meggan and she accepted. However, Brian soon lost control of his powers. Meggan admitted that she could see the power in Brian and that was part of why she felt for him. Meggan then asked him if he would have ever loved her if she had not assumed her blonde, beautiful form. The two eventually agreed it was more than just looks that they were interested in.

Soon after this, while Brian was trapped in the timestream, Meggan went into a catatonic state. However, she had somehow made contact with Brian, anchoring him to this reality, and knew that her teammate Rachel Summers being a time anomaly meant she could help him somehow. Meggan forced Rachel to help, turning into a feral state. Rachel replaced Brian in the timestream.[ All of this activity pushed Meggan's powers past their limits, and she began to display more power. Moira MacTaggert performed tests after Meggan suddenly manipulated lava. The test showed that she was now able to affect the forces of nature themselves.

Marriage

Meggan began to consider romance with Colossus while Brian was dealing with the temporary loss of his powers, but the feelings were mostly Peter's own which Meggan was mirroring. Upon Brian's return, the two married.[20] They traveled to Otherworld to rule it in Roma's stead. While acting as rulers, they empowered Lionheart as the new Captain Britain.

The Scarlet Witch's altering of Earth-616 reality into the House of M caused a backlash of effects that threatened to destroy other universes. Meggan and Brian helped Roma against the suddenly returning Mad Jim Jaspers while Jamie Braddock destroyed a device of Saturnyne's that would have destroyed all of Earth-616 and the House of M .

Brian and Meggan were given 48 hours by Roma and Saturnyne to try and find the gap in reality before the energies flowed through. Upon arriving, they were briefly altered into being the royalty of Britain along with Psylocke and Rachel Summers, and helped Nocturne escape some of the House's forces. Meggan seemingly sacrificed herself in order to deflect a large amount of the chaotic energy so that the others could seal the gap.

When Brian was later trapped in an illusion created by the demonic entity Plokta, he was confronted with several figures from his past, including Meggan. Believing her to be an illusion, he escaped the illusion with the help of Alistaire Stuart, leaving her trapped in an unknown demonic realm.

She later returned home and was reunited with her husband.

X-Men Disassembled

Meggan was one of the many mutants that opposed the crazed X-Man from remaking the world in his image. When X-Man realized that his vision of the world would never come about with the X-Men around, X-Man made his enemies vanish in an instant, including Meggan.

Age of X-Man

Meggan and the others were transported to another plane of existence by X-Man created in an attempt at a utopia where they and all other mutants would be at peace, altering their memories so they wouldn't resist. Meggan Puceanu was an actress who made feature films at Studio X. She was usually cast as the female lead opposite her co-star, Nightcrawler. She was filming a scene from Mutants on Mars with Kurt and "Scarside" when Kurt botched his lines during the end of the scene.[28]

Meggan was next seen on set of a new movie with Kurt where they fought a horde of mutants led by the villainous Callisto. After finishing the take, Meggan spent some time talking with colleagues during a break when all of a sudden she was confronted by Amara Aquilla who started to flirt with Kurt, which was an annoyance to Meggan since she liked him as well. She was then pulled away by

Irma who told her to change her wardrobe as she was suppose to be in the next scene.

Later on, Meggan appeared on the red carpet for a fan dinner with Kurt by her side. As they were signing autographs, Kurt brought a little girl named Tiffany to the dinner as she had tried to get a ticket for it, but was unlucky with the sweepstakes. Meggan helped with the girl's plight and they all entered the ballroom where she made the rounds talking with their young fans.

Studio X where Meggan confronted Kurt about the possibility of him breaking off their secret affair, though she also told him that it was up to them to decide how they were going to portray themselves. She later ended up in Nightcrawler's bed sleeping as he contemplated all they had to lose for their forbidden relationship.

Meggan was later allowed to return to the real world when X-Man decided to release the mutants he forced to live in his plane of existence.

Dawn of X

After the foundation of the mutant nation of Krakoa, Meggan saw her sister-in-law Betsy off when she decided to move to the island. Soon after, Meggan's husband Brian was corrupted by Morgan Le Fay, leaving Betsy as the new Captain Britain. Though Brian was later freed, the incident left him emotionally scarred, and Betsy continued on as Captain Britain. Later, on behalf of Pete Wisdom, Meggan infiltrated Coven Akkaba, witnessing them perform a human sacrifice and discovering their intent to provoke Jamie Braddock into causing an incident.

After Betsy's dramatic disappearance in the contest between Krakoa and Arakko and the return of the Captain Britain Corps, Meggan joined with the newest incarnation of Excalibur to track down their incarnation of Betsy. Empowered by her faerie heritage and its connection to Otherworld, Meggan played a key role in casting a spell to contact the Corps, enlisting their assistance in finding Betsy.

Me: Chien Na Wei A.K.A. China White!

Nico: And Meggan Puceanu A.K.A. Glorianna!

Glorianna: Pleasure to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

China White: It's gonna be awesome to face one of you and I chose Indigo Zap.

Glorianna: And I picked Alison Winters.

Alison Winters: Wow! I'm honored!

Indigo Zap: This is awesome!

Nico: It sure is. This is amazing.

?: Boy it sure is.

A figure came out and it was STEELETO from episode 14 of Samurai!

---

Steeleto is an Amikori/blade-themed Nighlok. He was younger brother of Robtish and friend of Vulpes. Steeleto serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Room for One More".

Steeleto was one of the Nighloks. He was the younger brother of Robtish and a friend of Vulpes. Steeleto wielded two blades in battle, could move very fast, and was able to attack enemies with stream of ribbons-blades. He also could perform the Steel Blade Scattershot attack. In the fourteenth episode, Steeleto arrived at Master Xandred's junk and told him and Octoroo that he wants revenge on the Rangers for his brother Robtish and friend Vulpes. Then he left. Dayu puts his success under the doubt. Steeleto attacked Panorama City and encountered the Rangers. He was successful and even Jayden didn't manage to reflect all his ribbons-blades. Then he left as he started drying. Steeleto returned, but by the time he resumed his campaign of vengeance, the Samurai Rangershad Antonio on their side. Jayden and Antonio together reflected his ribbons-blades and destroyed the Nighlok with their Barracuda Bite and Blazing Strike. Steeleto returned as a Mega Monster and used his ribbons-blades against the Samurai Megazord. However the Rangers formed the new Octo Spear Megazordand Steeleto was frozen and destroyed by its Samurai Strike.

---

Jayden: Steeleto!

Steeleto: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were out to get revenge on the rangers for killing your brother Robtish and your friend Vulpes.

Steeleto: That's right. Good memory on you J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Steeleto: You think you guys can face my brother Robtish in the future?

Maria: Don't worry. Eventually, we will.

Nico: We go by timeline with America and Japan.

Steeleto: That makes sense.

Me: We already had an encounter with Vulpes a while back.

Naruto: It's true and I got his awesome sword.

Steelato: That's awesome!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Samus Aran: Oh no, I was hoping never to run into him again. You can come out now, Draygon.

A figure came out from the seas, and it was none other than Draygon, one of the four high-ranking members of the Space Pirates led by Ridley.

Me: WHOA MAN! That's Draygon!

Nicole: Yep, he's one of the four high-ranking members of the Space Pirates led by Ridley.

Samus Aran: That's right, Nicole. I once fought against that slimy mutant in the watery wastelands of Maridia. He has a hard exo-skeleton shell, retractable tail with a stinger, and it can use adhesive spit, but his stomach is his weakness, along with electricity.

Me: Yep and I've all about him for years.

Yuna Kamihara: Samus, let me fight against that overgrown mutant.

Samus Aran: Okay, Yuna, but be careful.

Yuna Kamihara: I know, Samus.

Suddenly, we saw Yuna Kamihara's eyes turn neon blue, and she was surrounded by a neon blue energy aura with ocean waves, mermaids, and sea hibiscus, and she'd unholstered her Sword of The Neptune Crusaders from her back, and as she approached Draygon, she left neon blue energy, ocean waves, and sea hibiscus with every step. Then, Yuna Kamihara was surrounded by a massive vortex of neon blue energy with sea hibiscus and mermaids around the vortex and ocean waves, and there was a blue phoenix in the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Yuna Kamihara emerged, but she was changed forever.

Yuna Kamihara grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon blue eyes and a neon blue energy aura with ocean waves, mermaids, and sea hibiscus, she had a mermaid with the Water Kanji on its tail emblazoned on her forehead, her brown hair grew longer reaching the bottom of her neck, and it had ocean blue highlights and she had large brown angel wings with ocean blue tips on the feathers and water dripping from them, the massive double-edged blade of her Sword of The Neptune Crusaders grew up to 6'5" in length, and it grew a little wider, and the long black handle grew a little longer, she now has on a red sleeveless red blouse with yellow phoenix and flowers, red blouse with ocean waves, blue pants, black leather combat boots, and long sleeveless red trenchcoat with sea hibiscus, mermaids, and ocean waves, and a mermaid on the back. Yuna Kamihara has on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the mermaid that said, "Yuna Kamihara, Powerful Honorable Karate Master, Friend of Lilo, Stitch, Dr. Jumba, Pleakley, and Gnatu, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Master of Water and Karate."

神原ゆな、強力な名誉ある空手マスター、リロの友人、スティッチ、ジャンバ博士、プリ ークリー、グナツ、リンカーン・ラウドの愛する未来の妻、そして水と空手のマスター

Yuna Kamihara has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 MAELSTROM MERMAID SEA ANGEL OF HONOR!

We were amazed by Yuna Kamihara's transformation, including Lilo, Stitch, Dr. Jumba, Pleakely, and Gnatu, and when Lincoln saw Yuna's transformation, he was blushing madly.

Lilo: Wow, Yuna's transformed into a beautiful angel of the seas.

Nico: That's just what I was about say, Lilo, and she's definitely going to kick Draygon's ass, but with help from her man.

Lincoln: Wow, Yuna, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Yuna Kamihara: (Divine Echoing Maelstrom Voice of Honor) I feel really incredible, Linky, and now, shall we rip this beast apart?

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird

Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and joined Yuna Kamihara at her side.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Ladies first.

Yuna Kamihara: Such a gentleman.

Yuna Kamihara and Lincoln went after Draygon, who fired a glob of adhesive spit at them, but it was washed away by a blast of powerful water, and they attacked him with powerful blasts of neon blue energy and water from Yuna Kamihara and neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core and super lightning from Lincoln, all of which hits Draygon right in the belly, and really hurt him badly. They also sliced off his tail and stinger, which really caused him even more pain, and they also slashed off his six legs.

Yuna Kamihara: Shall we finish him together, Linky?

Lincoln: Let's end that overgrown bug.

Yuna Kamihara and Lincoln: DIVINE ELECTRIC MAELSTROM KAMEHAMEHA!

Yuna Kamihara and Lincoln fired a powerful Kamehameha wave made of neon blue energy, super lightning, and water at Draygon, and as it hits him in the stomach, it exploded with incredible power, killing Draygon, and Super Hakaied his spirit for good. We cheered for what Lincoln and Yuna did to the Space Pirate, as they holstered their weapons and powered down, but Yuna Kamihara's new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked up Yuna Kamihara up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

Sakura Hibiki: I never get tired of seeing just how romantic Linky can be with us.

Girl Jordan: Me too.

The rest of the girls in Lincoln's harem agreed with them, along with the rest of us, we never get tired of seeing just how romantic Lincoln is with his future wives.

Rita Loud: You know, seeing Lincoln being that romantic with his future wives reminded me of just how romantic Lynn was when we were going out.

Nico: Really, Ms. Rita?

Rita Loud: Oh yeah, Lynn was definitely a romantic man around me when we first met and when we first dated, and it continued on, especially after we got married and had kids.

Lisa Loud: He's definitely got the same genes as both of our parental units, alright. I did an analysis of his blood, and it confirmed he's inherited the Loud Family genes of both of our parental units.

Me: That's incredible, which means we'll be expecting tons of kids from Lincoln and his future wives in the future.

Lynn Sr.: Which means things are really going to get Louder. (Laughs)

Me: (Laughs) You got that right, Mr. Lynn.

Luan: (Laughs) That was a good one dad.

Me: But it is true. Now lets get the battles started. And I know just the place for us to fight.

I snapped my fingers and we were on the home planet of the Star Sapphire Corps, Zamaron!

---

Zamaron was a distant world located in Space Sector 1416 that was home to an unknown "Adam and Eve" who died in embrace. Their death heralded the creation of the Star Sapphire; a mystical gem that tapped into the Emotional Spectrum of Love and forged it into a crystalline form. After their death, the planet remained uninhabited until the wandering Zamaron tribe arrived on the planet after having split with their Oan kin after both genders left their original homeworld of Maltus. The Zamarons were on a search to gather the lights of the Emotional Spectrum, starting with Love and after arriving on the planet they discovered the Star Sapphire which latched onto one of their number. After freeing their sister, they began to experiment on the crystal whilst colonizing the planet and making it their new homeworld which they named Zamaron. In the language of the Zamarons, the name of the planet translated to mean "Land of the Lovely Women" .

War of Light

After coming to the conclusion that the Star Sapphire was uncontrollable, the Zamarons shattered the gem and used it to forge a Star Sapphire Power Battery. This was part of their attempts at forging their own corps to spread love throughout the cosmos under the direction of Queen Aga'po. Following the events of the Sinestro Corps War, the Zamarons had tamed the Predator Entity and taken the bones of Shiera and Khufu as power sources for the newly created Star Sapphire Central Power Battery that was to be used to power the Power Rings of the Star Sapphires. During the outbreak of the War of Light, the Guardians of the Universe learnt of the Zamarons actions and sent a delegation to their homeworld in order to convince them to abandon their actions but this diplomatic initiative failed.

Zamaron would later come under assault from the Sinestro Corps, led by their leader Sinestro himself who intended to free the female members of his corps that had been captured by the Star Sapphries and converted into members of the Zamarons corps. During the skirmish, The Blackest Nightcame to pass and Black Lantern Power Rings arrived on Zamaron which turned Khufu's and Chay-Ara's bodies into members of the Black Lantern Corps. This act led to a rupture in the Star Sapphire Central Power Batteryand led to the release of the Predator Entity thus devastating the planet.

The Brightest Day

After Nekron's defeat, it was seen that Zamaron still remained under the control of the Zamarons who began searching for a power source for the depleted Star Sapphire Central Power Battery. It was only the actions of Carol Ferris that prevented the Predator Entity from being forcibly used as an energy source and instead led to Queen Aga'po sacrificing her life to re-ignite the Central Power Battery. In her place, Carol Ferris was declared as Queen of the Star Sapphires. During this time, a gateway opened to Zamaron from Hawkworld allowing Queen Shrike and her Manhawks to invade the planet.

---

Gramma Stuffum: Even I don't go that far!

Metal Sonic: So you dressed up as the ghost to get revenge on Nico!

Gordon Logan: And I would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids!

Nico: But Gordon one thing I don't know is why? Why did you want to assassinate the President?

Gordon Logan: I'll tell you why. Get my wallet out and you'll see.

Nico reached into his pants and pulled out a wallet and in it was a business card. It had a symbol on it that showed the flag of the USA burning and it had a nuclear explosion that destroyed the White House and it had the name D.T.A.M.A

Gordon Logan: It means D eath T o A ll M enacing A mericans. We are a right-wing terrorist group whose one goal is to destroy America so that the whole nation can rebuild into the bronze age. I've been a member of that group for 10 years. But you ruined everything for us Chan!

Nanette: Thanks Nico.

We went back home and had an awesome dinner and went to sleep. We even built a pneumatic subway system that went all the way to Daphne's house. Gordan Logan was executed by firing squad the next morning and buried in an unmarked grave.

The Electrifyingly Cold Case

Me and Mina Necturn the Rayquaza Gene-Slammer were flying over what looked like the world of Medieval England in the 11th Century.

Mina Necturn: Have we been here before?

Mina concentrated and groaned as her legs merged together.

Me: Yes we have but this is the world of another movie that I know.

Mina turned into RAYQUAZA!

Me: Yeah! Whoa look!

We looked at the moon and we saw a 2-Tailed Comet heading towards it!

Me: We're in the world of the movie Dragonheart: A New Beginning!

---

One year before his death, Sir Bowen visits the cave of his long-dead dragon friend Draco and finds an egg. He entrusts it to the monastery of his friend Brother Gilbert. Aware of a prophecy stating "a dragon's heart could doom mankind when a two-tailed comet blazed across the night sky," the Friars pledge to hide the dragon until the comet passes, with Friar Peter protecting and teaching him for 20 years. The dragon's care soon falls upon a young and grumpy monk named Mansel.

Geoff, an orphaned stable boy who dreams of becoming a knight like Bowen, lives at the monastery doing menial chores. Meanwhile, the king makes a man named Osric his chief adviser. Osric pledges to ensure the Old Code continues but secretly corrupts it while poisoning the king, plotting to take the throne. Two Chinese citizens from the Hebei Province: Master Kwan and his son, enter the kingdom and ask Friar Peter if he knows anything about dragons. According to the stars, a new dragon was born, and the comet arrives in eight days; they want to prevent the prophecy and confirm if the dragon has a pure heart. Geoff tricks Mansel into doing manual labor and finds the hidden dragon, Drake. Geoff is initially afraid but realizes Drake is equally scared, and they become fast friends. Friar Peter dies suddenly the following day, and Drake goes outside for the first time.

Four days before the comet, the two Chinese learn of Drake's existence. Some knights surprise Geoff, and he discovers the Chinese son is Lian, China's empress in disguise. The knights threaten Geoff, forcing Drake to take his first flight to rescue him, revealing himself to the kingdom. Osric names Geoff and Drake as the kingdom's protectors against the Teregoths and takes Geoff under his wing. After testing Drake's purity, Master Kwan begins teaching him to use his dragon abilities, including exhaling ice breath, a rare skill that few dragons master. Lian reveals to Geoff that a rogue dragon, Griffin, betrayed the dragon's honor code and led a rebellion until virtuous dragons captured him and took his heart, placing it in an amulet. Fearing that all dragons were like Griffin, the Chinese emperor Kuo-fan ordered all Eastern dragons killed, so Drake is now the world's last dragon.

On the prophesized day, Kwan and Lian are captured and jailed. Osric takes Geoff and Drake to battle a group of Teregoths at a border house. Osric fakes a fatal blow and asks Drake to give him half his heart, but Geoff realizes the deception and stops Drake. Osric tries holding Geoff hostage but fails. Drake rallies an escape and masters firebreathing to save Geoff. Kwan, Lian, and Mansel escape the castle dungeon, heal the king, and confront Osric, who recognizes Lian and the amulet. Kwan discerns Osric's true identity and orders the amulet burned. Osric recovers and throws a knife at Lian to punish her for her ancestor's sins, but Kwan intervenes and dies.

Geoff and Drake arrive as Osric claims to have exposed the Old Code's true meaning as a way to control the weak. Osric reveals one dragon escaped Bowen's wrath, fled to the East, and sought revenge before the noble dragons stopped him and cursed him to live as a human as punishment. He cuts his chest open with Lian's knife and takes the heart as the comet appears, revealing himself as Griffin and making Lian realize the prophecy was about him. Resuming his dragon form, Griffin asks Drake to join him in humanity's conquest. Recalling how Griffin would've cost him his soul hadn't Geoff intervened, Drake refuses and challenges Griffin. After a short but fierce fight between the dragons, Drake masters ice breath and freezes Griffin to death; Griffin falls and shatters before the comet passes. An ice shard stabs and kills Geoff, so Drake offers part of his heart, reviving Geoff. The Old Code is restored; Lian returns to her royal duties for a time; and Mansel is awarded guardianship of Brother Gilbert's scrolls, finally gaining the desired life of prayer and devotion. Geoff and Drake become brothers, finally getting the family they ever truly wanted.

Mina Rayquaza: Oh man! We're here to help Drake and kill Griffin.

Me: Yep.

Mina Rayquaza: This is gonna be good! Hop on.

I hopped onto Mina and we went for the castle and we saw a man turned into a dragon and it was GRIFFIN!

---

Griffin (also known as Lord Oscric) is the main antagonist of Dragonheart: A New Beginning.

He was both voiced and portrayed by the British-American actor Harry Van Gorkum.

Griffin presumably fled during Bowen's twelve years of dragon-slaying. He plotted a rebellion against mankind, and planned to rule the world. However, none of the other dragons agreed to follow him. After killing many humans, Griffin was captured by the dragon council, and as punishment for his crimes, his heart was removed and he was cursed to live as a man (the form he hates most). Griffin was then exiled and he took a new alias: Lord Oscric of Crossley. Rodrick persuaded the king to elect hih as his adviser and promises to guide the kingdom under the Old Code. Osric, pleasantly surprised to learn that a dragon still exists, offers to a young dragon Drake the opportunity to become the defender of the kingdom, while Geoff, being his inseparable friend, will have the opportunity to become a knight under the leadership of Osric, the two, enthusiastic, accept.

Osric begins to distrust Lian and Kwan, two Chinese travelers, and orders his men to bring them to him. Unfortunately, the men mistakes Mansel, the friend monk of Geoff, and arrests him instead. Osric, infuriated by the failure, kills his most trusted servant Stefan.

Osric finally succeeds to arrest Lian and Kwan, then convinces Geoff and Drake to fight alongside him against the enemies of the kingdom who have besieged a village, then the two fight alongside Osric, who is apparently mortally wounded to save Geoff. Osric asks for Drake to use his powers to save him, giving him half of his dragon heart, but Goeff notes that Osric is not really hurt, in fact it was a staging, then Drake and Geoff went flee and escape from Osric and his men. Osric is actually a evil man, even the king's mental instability was caused by him since he regularly made him take a substance that makes him deliring.

When, at the castle, Oscric recognizes a familiar box. Master Kwan, the elder Chinese, then recognizes Oscric's true identity and orders the amulet burned. Oscric recovers the box and discovers his lost heart. Out of revenge for his ancestor's slaying of the dragons, Oscric throws a knife at Lian, Master Kwan's companion and the princess of China disguised, but Kwan intervenes and dies.

After reclaiming his heart, Griffin resumed his dragon form in front of the King's entire court. He attempted to persuade Drake to join him, but the younger dragon refused, remembering that earlier he was about to give his heart to a falsely wounded Osric and that such an act would have cost him his soul, and challenged Griffin. Griffin quickly gained the upper hand and nearly killed Drake, but Drake wounded him with the blades in the tip of his tail, and Drake's human friend Geoff threw a sword at Griffin. Enraged, Griffin prepared to attack again. However, Drake sent a blast of ice breath at the evil dragon, freezing him solid. The frozen Griffin fell to the ground and shattered into hundreds of pieces. Unfortunately, one of the ice shards hit Geoff in the heart and killed him, but Drake used his heart to revive his friend (which mirrored what Drake's father Draco did to save Einon).

Because of Griffin's crimes, his soul was very likely erased from existence, though it was not confirmed in the movie.

---

We landed and we were ready to face Griffin!

Me: You disgust me Griffin! What you have done is nothing but cold blooded murder! All for some ridiculous prophecy to enslave the world. I won't let you do what you please anymore. You will die just like when I killed Einon.

Everyone was shocked when they heard me say that!

Lian: You're the famous J.D. Knudson, the great leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm that helped the rebels destroy Einon the Ruthless!

Me: That's right and Bowen is a friend a true hero. Now it's time to end this dragon monster for good. The Old Code is a very inspirational and very powerful and motivating force in my team.

Lian: You have an amazing spirit J.D. Go get this monster.

Me: With pleasure.

I then went Super Angel and we went at Griffin and punched and kicked and pulverized him into pulp and then a Cursed Sword Girl and a Zamazenta appeared. The Cursed Sword was Yamiga and the Zamazenta was Dame Bridgette of Windsor and we fired ice blasts and Drake fired a blast of ice and froze Griffin and he fell and shattered into a milion pieces.

We then went into the shadows and I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Bridgette reverted back and she was naked and then Mina reverted back too.

Mina was human again. But naked.

Mina: (covers herself and laughs) Guess me and Dame aren't the only ones here who can shapeshift!

Bridgette: (Covers herself) You can just call me Bridgette.

I gave Mina and Bridgette new clothes and they put them on.

Lian then came.

Lian: Guys it's Geoff!

We went over and we saw that Geoff was dying as he had an icicle shard in his chest and I removed it.

Me: Drake you're the only one that can save him.

Drake: Me? How?

Me: You can give half your heart to help him.

Drake: Okay.

Drake opened his chest and cut it open and then we heard heartbeats and then he merged his heart with Geoff's.

Me: Whoa.

Mina Necturn: That is amazing.

Yamiga the Cursed Sword: So that's how it works.

Geoff was breathing and then fire hit his chest.

Me: Half my heart to make you whole. It's Strength to Purify Your Weakness.

Drake repeated what I said and Geoff was revived and better than ever and he was good unlike Einon.

We had the world of Dragonheart 2 merge with our world and it was awesome.

Lincoln going to rescue the seventeen girls located here, but we're also going to deal with local con man Frankie Canon.

Lincoln: Oh wow, we're in the world of the 1960 movie, North to Alaska, and I think I know what we're going to do here. Not only am I going to rescue the seventeen girls located here, but we're also going to deal with local conman Frankie Canon.

Me: You said it, big guy, this was my dad's all-time favorite movie starring John Wayne, and I was surprised you asked my dad to join in this rescue.

Sumner: Me too, son. But, this is going to be an amazing rescue.

Nico: You said it, Mr. Knudson.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of seventeen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the seventeen girls sighted here, along with George Pratt, his brother Billy, their partner, Sam McCord, and Sam's love, Michelle "Angel" Bonet, but they've been cornered by conman Frankie Canon and the claim jumpers he's hired, and they were going to kill them and take the gold.

Lincoln: I found the girls, along with George Pratt, his brother Billy, their partner, Sam McCord, and Sam's love, Michelle "Angel" Bonet, but they've been cornered by that sidewinder, Frankie Canon and his army of claim jumpers, and they're going to kill them and take the gold. That side-winding, bush-whacking, low-down con-artist. Let's get them.

We rushed on over to help the girls, Sam McCord, Billy and George Pratt, and Angel. Lincoln punched Frankie Canon right in the face and knocked the sidewinder right off his horse, and pummeled him in to the dirt, and then, tied him up with neon blue energy ropes. When the army of claim jumpers saw what happened, they tried to run, but we tied them up, and they were in trouble once we got back to town. We checked on George Platt, Billy Platt, Sam McCord, and Angel, and they were okay. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the seventeen girls located here, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them.

The seventeen girls were Cordelia Starling from Lollipop Chainsaw, Olivia from God Hand, Haruka from Okami, Xing Cai in her Dynasty Warriors 7 appearance wielding her sword and shield, Yue Ying in her Dynasty Warriors 8 appearance wielding her Iron Ge, Bao Sanniang in her Dynasty Warriors 8 appearance wielding her bladed yo-yo, Guan Yinping in her Dynasty Warriors 8 appearance wielding her Double-Headed Flail, Xiahou Ji from Dynasty Warriors 9 wielding her sword and shield, Cai Wenji in her Dynasty Warriors 7 appearance wielding her harp, Zhen Ji in her Dynasty Warriors 8 appearance wielding her Dark Moon Flute weapon from Dynasty Warriors 4, Wang Yi in her Dynasty Warriors 8 appearance wielding her Trishula, Sun Shang Xiang in her Dynasty Warriors 7 appearance wielding her Wind and Fire Wheels, Xiao Qiao in her Dynasty Warriors 7 appearance wielding her double fans, Lian Shi in her Dynasty Warriors 7 appearance wielding her crossbow, Wang Yuanji in her Dynasty Warriors 7 appearance wielding her throwing knives, Zhang Chunhua in her Dynasty Warriors 8 appearance wielding her wire claws, and Xin Xianying from Dynasty Warriors 9 wielding her Ji halberd.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Cordelia Starling, Olivia, Haruka, Xing Cai, Yue Ying, Bao Sanniang, Guan Yinping, Xiahou Ji, Cai Wenji, Zhen Ji, Wang Yi, Sun Shang Xiang, Xiao Qiao, Lian Shi, Wang Yuanji, Zhang Chunhua, and Xin Xianying.

Nicole: From Lollipop Chainsaw, God Hand, and the Dynasty Warriors franchise, that's awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Wang Yi: Yes, we're okay. Thank you for saving us.

Then, when Wang Yi and the other seventeen girls saw who it was that saved them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Zhen Ji: Why, you must be Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's correct, Lady Zhen, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made sixteen clones of himself, and three of them went up to Cordelia Starling, Olivia, and Haruka, and Lincoln and fifteen other clones went up to Xing Cai, Yue Ying, Bao Sanniang, Guan Yinping, Xiahou Ji, Cai Wenji, Zhen Ji, Wang Yi, Sun Shang Xiang, Xiao Qiao, Lian Shi, Wang Yuanji, Zhang Chunhua, and Xin Xianying, who picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

We got back to town, and conman Frank Canon and his claim jumper crew were convicted for their crimes, and got sent to the slammer for life, and we went back home to the Estate.

---

After throwing conman Frankie Canon and his claim jumper goons in the slammer, we were training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading off to deal with Solange Blanchefleur de Lux's old enemy, Distille, and we were going to destroy her for good. We also found out when Lincoln rescued Solange Blanchefleur De Lux from McWolf, her world has merged with ours.

Lincoln: So, we're finally going to put an end to your old enemy, Distille, once and for all, Solange.

Solange Blanchefleur De Lux: That's right, Linc, she's caused us enough trouble to last an eternity. But, if we destroy her for good, won't that mean the Empryean Stone will be destroyed for good?

Lincoln: Not to worry, I've got just the thing.

Lincoln snapped his fingers, and in his hands appeared The Empryean Stone, and he severed Distille's link to The Empryean Stone, that way, we'll be able to kill Distille without destroying The Empryean Stone, which if destroyed, will cause the magic and monsters to vanish forever.

Lincoln: I got The Empryean Stone, and I severed Distille's link to The Empryean Stone, now, we'll be able to kill and destroy Distille forever, without destroying The Empryean Stone.

We met with Solange's friends, female thief Ali Baba, zombie-like Necromancer Lady Zozo, bard/sage Allegro, martial artist Master T Drakkhen, blind samurai "Shooting Star" Tsukikage, business-driven cat Marco Neko, and warrior/nun Sister Helga "Hel" Wilhelmina. Then, we head off to finally deal with Distille once and for all. We arrived at The Tower of Wrenne, and right there in the center was Distille.

Distille: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived.

Lincoln: That's right, and we're here to destroy you once and for all, and before you try to taunt us, why don't I show you something?

Lincoln took out The Empyrean Stone, and when he told Distille he also severed her link to it, she fell into a rage, as he puts it in the vault back in the Estate.

Lincoln: Now, to deal with you once and for all.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and we followed his lead and we transformed and went after Distille, and we'd fired powerful blasts of elemental forces, magic, and neon multi-colored energy at her, which hits her and exploded with incredible power. Then, we attacked her with our Stellar Cometite and Venusite infused sharper and indestructible weapons, and our blades really cut her deep, and she was bleeding badly.

Lincoln and Solange slashed off Distille's arms and horns with their weapons, The Sword of Taranis and The deLuxcaliber, and she was bleeding badly.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Solange, let's end her once and for all.

Solange Blanchefleur de Lux: Let's do it, Lincoln.

Lincoln and Solange Blanchefleur de Lux: JUDGEMENT OF DELUXIA MEGABLAST!

Lincoln and Solange Blanchefleur de Lux fire powerful blasts of light from their massive blades, which hits Distille, and exploded with incredible power, killing her forever, and Super Hakaing her for good. We cheered wildly for what they did, and after holstering their weapons, Lincoln picked Solange up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them. We returned home to the Estate, and Distille's friends also became new members of the team, and were going to also help against Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

* * *

Later we were watching TV and then the Ed's came in and they were frantic.

Kovu: Ed, what did you, Double D, and Eddy break this time?

Eddy: For once, we didn't break anything and Ed is actually telling the truth!

Edd: It's best you all came and see for yourselves.

We went and saw a chair sticking into Kevin's window.

Nico: Whoa how did that get there?

Ed: No idea.

Eddy: We heard this loud crash and then we saw this.

Me: Hmm. Lets see.

I used Clockwork's Time Replay and then it showed that the Ed's were telling the truth. They were minding their own business and then this chair was thrown from out of nowhere and it smashed into Kevin's window!

Me: Holy crud! You would have to be as strong as Godzilla to throw a chair from that far away!

Kevin: [pushing the chair out of the window] "Who broke my window?"

Ed: "Hi, Kevin!" [The chair lands on him.] "Ow. [falls down] Ouch."

Kevin: "EDS! Don't move."

Kevin came down.

Kevin: [belligerent] "Who broke my window?"

Me: For once it wasn't the Ed's Kevin.

Nico: Some force threw that chair from nowhere and we don't know what.

Eddy: I think it might be the Mucky Boys.

Kevin: Baloney! That was just a hoax!

Brittney: Believe it or not he's telling the truth.

Brittney showed us her book and in it was a picture of 3 boys covered in mud.

Kion: The Mucky Boys really are real!?

Eddy: I thought it was something I made up!

Nico: What are the Mucky Boys?

Eddy: They were 3 boys that were dumped off by a tornado! And raised by field mice. In a cave, near the construction site. And they eat their weight in cheese, and they throw comfortable armchairs through the air and smash, into peoples windows."

Nico: Sounds like something out of an urban legend.

Me: Looks like we're going hunting.

Eli: YEAH!

We went back to the estate and got shotguns, 12 gauge shotguns and elephant guns and rifles and we went to the construction site on the other side of town.

Meanwhile we all were searching the construction site. Kevin sticks a stick into a portable cement mixer and bangs the side.

Kevin: "No Muckies here. You find anything, Rolf?"'

Rolf: "Not yet, Kevin." [Sarah trips] "I must have silence!" [he picks up some dirt and listens] "The soil speaks to me. It tells me Rolf! The Mucky Boys are fifty paces towards the sun. Cooking beets!"

Sarah: "Are you sure?"

Rolf: "Foolish youth. The soil knows all."

Kevin: "All right. Follow me!"

Nico: Stay alert everyone.

Nicole: This is gonna be brutal.

We then heard funny noises followed by crocodile growls.

Rolf: [jumping onto Kevin] "We have angered the Mucky Boys!"

Sarah: [jumping on Rolf] "AAH!"

Jimmy: [getting on top] "Help! Help!"

Kevin: [carrying the rest of the group] "When I see Mucky, I'll believe Mucky. Outta my way!" [He throws his friends off and heads left.]

We followed Kevin.

[Jimmy is walking along, scared. He suddenly trips and falls into a gargantuan footprint.]

Rolf: "Look at the size of this footprint. I haven't seen feet this big since my great-grandmother."

Kevin: "Let's follow them." [They continue on.]

[The footprints have lead the kids to the puddle.]

Rolf: "The Mucky Boys are smart. I have lost their trail in this pool of water."

Me: Looks like we're going into this drainpipe.

Kevin: "Let's check this place out!"

Rolf: "It's the Mucky Boy cave." [Various caveman artifacts are everywhere.] "Their hideous scent is everywhere. Do you smell it?"

Sarah: [pinching her nose shut] "Smells like my brother's feet!"

Kevin: [walking past a mural of the Mucky Boys attacking something] "I still haven't seen a Mucky boy."

Sarah: "C'mon, Jimmy, we're falling behind."

Jimmy: "Okay, okay. These shoes are pinching my feet."

Me: Look at these cave paintings.

Eli: It's like what happened thousands of years ago.

Allie Wilde: Yeah.

Kevin: "C'mon Rolf, how much longer?"

Rolf: "My father walked a hundred miles with a mule, two goats, and a shoe on his back."

Sarah: "Big deal."

Carmen: That's amazing Captain Rolf.

Rolf: [from the pipe] "Here, we must climb up here!"

[Rolf comes out a moment later. After exiting, he reaches into the pipe and hauls out the other three. The energy released when they come out causes them to fly onto one end of a filled wheelbarrow. This tips the other end, sending the dirt flying directly onto Rolf.]

We came out too.

Rolf: [shaking some dirt off] "Rolf is too strong for his own good!"

[Suddenly, sounds are heard from behind him. Rolf looks up to see a Mucky Boy that looks like Eddy, holding a wrench and making odd noises.]

Rolf: "Mucky Boys!"

Jimmy: "AAAH!"

Eddy: I KNEW THEY WERE REAL!

Me: HOLY SHIT!

Allie Wilde: WHOA!

Ed Mucky Boy: (POPS OUT OF A PILE OF DIRT) AOOGA!

Flamewar: (to the Mucky Boys) Hello. Us, Team Loud Phoenix Storm. This, Gotham Royal York. Understand?

SMASH!

A Eddy mucky boy smashed Flamewar on her head with a wrench!

Flamewar: OW! WHY YOU LITTLE!?

Me: FIRE!

---

We fired at them but the shots missed!

Kevin: "You guys owe me a window!" [He runs away.]

Rolf: "I must water the beets!" [He exits as well.]

Jimmy: [stranded] "Sarah! Oh, Sarah!" [He hides behind the tipped over wheelbarrow.]

Eddy Mucky Boy: [jumping onto Ed Mucky Boy's back and riding him like a horse] "Ach gahte!"

Ed and Eddy Mucky Boys: "Mucky Mucky Mucky Mucky!"

Eddy Mucky Boy: "Mucky, yah!" [Ed Mucky Boy gores the barrow, tossing it skyward. The Mucky Boys continue their rampage.]

Nico then fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted them all over and knocked them out and then we put them in a cage.

Afterburner: What should we do with them?

Me: Give them to the Masters of Evil. They could always use new members.

Nico: Good idea.

Eli: But they are worthy prey for hunts.

Me: You said it.

We beamed them to M.O.E. Headquarters and then we went back home.

---

Back at the estate we were getting ready for our next mission.

Dreamcatcher: J.D., you know it's your turn to lead today, right?

Me: I sure do Dreamcatcher and Mystery Inc. called again. We're going up to Northern Alaska to help them out. Their van ran out of gas.

Nico: Oh man. We better get up there and quick.

Me: And we better bundle up. The town they are staying in is in blistering cold at -30˚Fahrenheit.

Eli: Brr. That is cold.

Arrietty: It sure is.

Allie Wilde: I like the cold. It's awesome.

El Oso, INSTIGATOR, The Vreedle Brothers, Duff Killigan, Carmen Dillo, Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder, Kaos, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, and Metal Sonic appeared.

El Oso: Can me, INSTIGATOR, The Vreedle Brothers, Duff Killigan, Carmen Dillo, Tchang Zu, Kaos, Leap Frog, Gramma Stuffum, and Metal Sonic go with you amigos today?

Me: You all sure can and we're gonna need our fur parkas. It's gonna be really cold where we're going.

Varie: We're not going to Antarctica this time. We're going up to Northern Alaska.

Kaos: That makes sense.

Gramma Stuffum: (German Accent) Ja und we better stay warm.

Me: Yep. Lets go!

We were off to Northern Alaska.

---

WINTERHAVEN, NORTHERN ALASKA

---

We arrived in Winterhaven in Northern Alaska and it was bonechilling cold.

Me: Here we are guys.

Teen Titans Thunder: Is it me or does the town seem a little… dark?

Me: It's not just you Thunder.

We saw that the whole town was completely dark and deserted.

Eli: Where is everyone?

Nico: I don't know. But this whole place gives me the creeps.

Laney: And look there.

We saw the gas station out of business and the restaurant was out of business too.

Eli: Man the whole town is shut down.

Lana: This is so weird.

Lola: Hey look there.

We saw the Mystery Machine at a hotel.

Me: There's the Mystery Machine. Lets go. We can get them warmed up in there.

We went to the hotel and went in and it was cold. We saw Mystery Inc.

Leap Frog: Hey there, guys!

Velma: Boy are we glad to see you guys.

Me: Man it sure is cold outside huh?

Fred: You're not kidding. Also this town has no gas and no food as well as no power.

Me: We can fix that. And it's a good thing we have those resources in the form of our powers.

Lincoln: I'll provide emergency power with my lightning powers.

Lola: I'll get a fire going with my fire powers.

Laney: And me and the plant users will form food.

Shaggy: Like thanks guys.

Lincoln formed a ball of lightning and hooked up the hotel's power cords to it.

Lola lit the heaters and fireplace up with her fire powers.

Laney and the Plant users formed hamburgers and food plants.

Me: There that's better.

We took off our parkas and coats and warmed up.

Starlight Glimmer: Don't you find it odd that the whole town just happened to lose power?

Fred: We sure do Starlight. But what could have caused this whole town to lose all its power like this?

Qin: I think it's the 10,000 Volt Ghost.

Then the 10,000 Volt Ghost appeared.

10,000 Volt Ghost: (Electrified Voice) Did you call Qin?

Qin: I think we might have stumbled onto another mystery here.

10,000 Volt Ghost: And I think I know what you mean. I remember Winterhaven and I remember Voltner and Dudley knocking out the power and scaring the people here.

Nico: Looks like we got an electrical phony on our hands.

Fred: And another mystery.

Tchang Zu: If there any other houses without power, I can power those up.

Me: Good idea Tchang Zu. We can also have Lincoln reactivate the power at the Electric Power Plant with his powers.

Nico: Good idea.

Kendra: We can make sure this electrical phony never terrorizes this town again.

Laney: Right.

Cynder: (To Kendra) So, is there any reason why you're interested in this mystery?

Kendra: I learned so much about what happened here in Winterhaven when all this happened before with the 10,000 Volt Ghost and I want to have a shot at the mystery.

Nico: That makes sense.

Laney: This is gonna be a good one.

Luan: It's gonna be Electrifying! (Laughs) Get it?

We laughed at Luan's joke.

Me: That was a good one!

Kendra: Okay. Lets get this mystery started. And we're going to start with the Electric Power Plant.

Shaggy: Like okay and we'll go back to the Mystery Machine to wait it out.

Shaggy and Scooby went for the door and then Freddy, Daphne and Velma grabbed them.

Fred: Oh no you don't. We're going with Kendra whether you two chickens like it or not.

Scooby and Shaggy clucked like chickens.

Eli: You two are as yellow as street stripes.

Gramma Stuffum: If you two go with us, I'll give you some Scooby Snax that I made personally.

Shaggy: UH UH! NO WAY!

Scooby Doo: Not. On. Your. Life!

Me: You two are worse than a pair of chickens. But if you guys have a problem with her cooking take it up with (Points to Luster Dawn and Eli) them.

Luster Dawn and Eli pounded their fists into their hands and gave them a look that said that they will make sure that they go whether they want to or not no matter how cowardly or chicken they are.

Maria: How about me and May try out these Scooby Snax that you made? We want to see if you did it right.

Kendra: Guys focus. Lets get to the power plant before things get worse.

Shaggy: Like you can go without us.

Allie then grabbed Shaggy and Scooby.

Allie Wilde: You chickens are coming whether you like it or not.

Shaggy: Like things weren't bad enough with J.D. and now his girlfriend has to be an enforcer too!

Me: I heard that! And besides I'm proud of Allie.

Kendra: Come on guys.

We went to the Power Plant.

We arrived at the power plant and it was deserted.

Me: Hello?

Nico: Anyone here?

We saw that there was no one there.

Me: Wow it's quiet.

Ransik: We should split up and search for clues.

Kendra: Okay. J.D. you take the 2 chickens and check out that way and we'll look over here.

Me: Yes ma'am.

Kendra: And Allie you go with them too.

Allie Wilde: Okay.

We went down to the employee staff room and we looked in the kitchen of all places.

Me: (Sighs) You and your love of food Shaggy.

Shaggy: Like I can't help it. I'm always hungry.

I facepalmed.

Allie Wilde then pat my back.

Octagon: You see anything, Rhomboid?

Rhomboid: Nope. What about you, Octagon?

But then Shaggy and Scooby crashed into the group and everyone saw me firing lightning blasts at A FAKE 10,000 VOLT GHOST!

ZAAAAAAAPPPPP! ZAAAAAAAAPPPPPPPP!

Nico: WHOA! There really is a Fake 10,000 Volt Ghost!

10,000 Volt Ghost: I don't believe it! There is an imposter me!

Eli: Lets see how it likes this!

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and it hit the fake 10,000 Volt Ghost and sent him crashing into the wall as it roared ferociously!

But then something hit my face.

Me: What the?

I saw that it was sunflower seeds.

Me: Sunflower seeds?

Red Lantern Ratchet: Let's go before it gets back on its' feet!

We ran fast!

Me: Lets teleport back to the hotel!

We did so.

Me: That was close.

Nico: Yep but at least we got the power back on for the town.

Me: But we still don't know who that imposter is.

Daphne: Yeah we got to find out.

Kaos: Maybe we can search somewhere else for clues?

Nico: We don't even know where to look.

Twilight Sparkle: How did the 10,000 Volt Ghost scare this entire town the first time?

Qin: I can answer that. Mayor Dudley and Voltner were scaring everyone out of town so that they could buy this whole town dirt cheap.

Eli: Yep. But then they got 40 years in prison for their crimes.

Laney: But thank goodness it's not the same guy.

Lana: Huh? (Sees something) What's this?

Lana found an old newspaper.

Lana: Look at this!

I looked at the newspaper and it showed something rather interesting.

Me: Whoa this might be the reason the fake 10,000 Volt Ghost is haunting the town and recreating the scare. "Local Citizen Strikes it Rich by Unearthing Massive Vein of Diamonds in Winterhaven."

Nico: That's unusual.

Commander Mars: "Local citizen", huh? Maybe we should investigate him.

Me: That's the story title. The name of the man is Travis Dudley. He's Mayor Dudley's son.

Nico: Wow! I wonder if he wants all those diamonds for himself.

Me: Maybe. But there's also something else here. This happened shortly after the discovery. Uh oh! You're not gonna like this! Gordon Gibble escaped from the nuthouse we sent him to!

We gasped!

Nico: That arrogant jerk is on the loose!?

Eli: He must be after the diamonds here.

Me: I wouldn't be surprised.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is Gordon Gibble?

Me: We faced him shortly before the War with The Royal Defenders broke out.

---

Gordon "Gordie" Gertrude Gibble is a rich, spoiled kid who is a BMX legend, who has broken records and the former main antagonist of the show. He is another of Kick's and Brad's nemeses. He has perfect hair, expensive clothes and top of the line equipment. He is always followed by the DiPazzi Twins, who will always do whatever he says without question.

Family and early life

Little is known about Gordie's childhood because he has only appeared in nine episodes. But it is known that his parents love him a lot and spoil him too much.

Father

He refers to his father as "Daddy" and they are close. As seen in "Kart to Kart", his dad lets him buy the Go-Go-Go Kart World and in "A Cousin Kyle Christmas", he buys Gordie all of the puppets in "Stringzeez for Christmas". In "Goodbye, Gully", his father had enough of him antagonizing Kick and after he destroys his own creation, he cuts Gordie off from the fortune until he is responsible and forbids him from picking on the boy.

---

When I was done everyone gasped.

Duff Killigan: (Scottish Accent) So, who's the fake monster? Gibble? Or Travis?

Me: It has to be Gibble. He hates us and Kick because we got him disowned and disinherited from his family and had him cut off from his family's fortune after we brought him down and Meg shot his legs off.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow.

I went over everything that happened in chapter 1154 and it was awesome.

Fluttershy: Goodness.

Rarity: My goodness. I'm glad he got what was coming to him.

Applejack: But I think it might be Travis because he might be wanting to keep the diamonds for himself.

Rainbow Dash: That could be it.

Fred: Well you are all wrong. The fake 10,000 Volt Ghost has got to be none other than Red Herring!

Me: I don't think Red Herring would have the guts to come all the way up here.

Fred: Yeah you're right. It's too cold.

Leslie: Let's go to Travis' place first and look for clues there.

Me: Okay.

We got up and went to Travis Dudley's house and we knocked on his door and he answered.

Travis Dudley: Yes?

Me: Travis Dudley? Sorry to bother you at this hour.

Travis Dudley: No worries Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Do come in.

We did so and we got to asking him some questions and we found out that Travis is not like his so-called greedy father and that he would never keep all those diamonds all for himself. So he gave them all to the town and that there are many more coming and that he doesn't have the suit Voltner used before. So that narrows down our suspect to one person and it's Gibble.

Me: We thank you for your time Mr. Dudley and I'm sorry about all the pain your dad caused to you.

Travis Dudley: It's all right J.D. But go get that imposter ghost.

Me: With pleasure.

We left.

INSTIGATOR: We should search for more clues just in case.

Me: Good idea.

Kendra: I think I know where to look. The Nome Alaska Insane Asylum.

Nico: Good idea. May and I will go there to find out.

Me: Okay.

May and Nico were off to Nome.

Tso Lan: How's Gibble even able to move around? Meg shot his legs off!

Meg Griffin: He must've gotten artificial legs somehow.

Laney: That's right he probably did.

Meanwhile at the asylum, Nico and May were searching Gibble's room and what they found was shocking! All over the wall were pictures of him killing Kick and plans for revenge and even plans on how to escape and all that.

May: Gibble's so lucky we can't kill him because of our code!

Nico: Yeah but sometimes I wish we could kill him. He has completely lost his mind after we defeated him.

May: Yeah he sure has.

May then saw something on the floor and it looked like a newspaper and it was for the diamonds that Travis discovered!

May: Look at this. He's after the diamonds.

Nico: We got our motive. Lets go.

They went back to us.

Carmen Dillo: Hey, Stuffum. How about I try those Scooby Snax you made?

Gramma Stuffum: Sure.

She gave one to him and it was delicious.

Carmen Dillo: Wow they ARE good!

Nico and May came back and told us what they found out and then we got ready to face the monster. We went to the streets and we found the fake 10,000 volt ghost.

Illia: There's the monster now. Entrance time.

Me: Lets get him guys.

We went at the monster.

Just as the fake ghost was about to head into the power plant…

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above the area and a phoenix cry was heard as rainbows hit the Fake 10,000 Volt Ghost and exploded all over.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Then the symbols of our cutie marks swirled around the explosion and converged and we came out.

Me: Okay you so-called ghost! You're under arrest and you can take off that fake disguise Gordon Gibble!

The Fake 10,000 Voit Ghost then revealed himself and it was indeed GORDON GIBBLE!

Gordon Gibble: You are smarter than you think J.D.

Metal Sonic: Leave the rest of the town out of this, Gibble. It's us you want!

Kick Buttowski: Mostly me! I was the one who got you disowned from your family! No one else!

Gibble: I DON'T CARE! I WILL KILL YOU ALL AND EVERYONE ON THIS PLANET IF IT'S THE LAST THING I DO! I HATE YOU ALL SO MUCH!

Maria: Before we fight, I want to know how sunflower seeds fit into your little plan.

Gibble: Because I was hungry and in a town like this with no power it was the only thing I could eat.

Nico: Now we're going to smash your ugly face in and it will REALLY HURT! Just like when Meg shot your legs off!

Me: Yeah!

Then Brain Freezer, Man Boy, Diabolico, Riddler, Zexion, Heat Wave, Demyx, Vulture, Dai Gui the Demon Sorcerer of Earth and Dr. Viktor appeared.

Me: Brain Freezer, Man Boy, Diabolico, Riddler, Zexion, Heat Wave, Demyx, Vulture, Dai Gui and Dr. Viktor.

Man Boy: Looks like we got here just in time.

Brain Freezer: Don't you guys usually unmask the monster after the battles?

William: Well, we all know who it was so there was no point in delaying it any longer.

Man Boy: Well, as long you take him to jail, I'm not complaining.

Me: Good.

Maria: Oh, we will. After all, no matter how much we want to kill him, our code won't allow it.

Diabolico: Maybe we should put him in Brad Buttowski's cell.

May: Good idea. After all, Brad hates Kick too.

Me: He sure does.

Riddler: (to me) Riddle me this, J.D. Did you really go to the Dragonheart world today?

Zexion: If you did, who did you visit there?

Me: It's a really awesome adventure. We got to meet Drake and Geoff and kill the evil Griffin, he's a dragon of the worst kind.

?: Boy I can tell.

A figure came out and it was PSYCHOTICK from episode 9 of Megaforce!

---

After Hisser is defeated by the untimely arrival of Robo Knight, Psychotick is summoned by Vrak to aid him in ensnaring Robo Knight in order to reprogram him to serve Warstar as a means of ensuring he no longer interferes on the plans of Admiral Malkor. He lures Robo Knight in by attacking an amusement park and succeeds in capturing him with his Tick Attack . While Robo Knight's energy is getting drained, Vrak send Psychotick to distract the Rangers by draining electricity around town. He fails in doing so but succeeds in pounding the Rangers into submission after teaming up with Vrak in battle. Unfortunately for him, this triggers Robo Knight and he is freed from his confinement and Psychotick is destroyed by Robo Knight's Vulcan Cannon after taking the shot for Vrak. Vrak uses the Zombats to revive him but he is destroyed again by the Gosei Grand Megazord. Though Malkor chastises Vrak for the failure, he also commends his idea and says that he needs to solve this problem on his own.

---

Troy: Psychotick!

Psychotick: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Vrak to ensnare Robo-Knight to reprogram him to serve the Warstar.

Psychotick: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Psychotick: Relax, Rangers. This is the real me. I'm not one of Distractor's illusions.

Troy Burrows: Good and we can make sure the real you gets taken down.

Nico: Yep. That'll be a good makeup fight.

Me: And I know just the place to fight on.

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Ryut, Home planet of the Black Lantern Corps.

---

Origin

Millions of years ago, the world of Ryut found in Space Sector 0666 was home to Atrocitus and his demon-like species. However, at some point approximately 3 billion years ago, the android creations of the Guardians of the Universe known as the Manhunters suffered from some form of glitch in their programming and embarked on a campaign of extermination of the inhabitants within that region of space. This led to the infamous Massacre of Sector 666 leaving only a few survivors of the disaster. After the events of the Sinestro Corps War, the corpse of the Anti-Monitor was thrown into space and crashed onto the surface of Ryut. Weakened, the mighty being was transformed into the Black Lantern Central Power Battery by the will of Nekron in order to serve in the coming prophecy known as the The Blackest Night.

The Blackest Night

Just before the Blackest Night, Black Hand was transported to the Black Lantern Central Power Battery here. During the Blackest Night, thousands upon thousands of Black Lantern Rings spewed from the planet, off to engulf the Universe. Just afterwards, Scar brought the remaining members of the Guardians of the Universe to Ryut, and imprisoned them in the black ooze the Black Lantern Corps. As the Blackest Night raged throughout the cosmos, the Black Lantern Central Power Battery was energized to 100% and was teleported to Earth. Later, the leaders of the various Corps were tracking down the source of the Black Lanterns and arrived at Ryut. Though most were unaware of their location, it was Atrocitus of the Red Lanterns who knew as he explained it used to be his homeworld and that they were innocent of the crimes made against them. The leaders of the Lantern Corps later left Ryut in order to track down the Black Lantern Central Power Battery.

The Brightest Day

Following the defeat of Nekron, Ryut served as the hidden headquarters of the reborn renegade Maltusian known as Krona. Noting that he had written the prophecy of the Brightest Day, he prepared his plans in capturing the various Entities of the Emotional Spectrum starting with the Parallax Entity along with the Ion Entity. In addition, at some point, he relocated the Book of The Black to Ryut where it resided and Sinestro Corpswomen Lyssa Drak became its new keeper. After Krona captured all the Entities, the New Guardians tracked him to Ryut where Atrocitus became outraged that the fallen Guardian had been using his former home as a base of operations. They later witnessed a dark chapter within the Book of The Black after which they were attacked by Lyssa Drak where all the New Guardians were trapped within the construct except for Hal Jordan. Before he could do anything further to help his allies, Green Lanterns sent by Salaak arrived to arrest him but they became overcome with fear as Krona had infected the Green Lantern Central Power Battery with the Yellow Impurity thus allowing him to take control over the entire Corps.

---

Nico: Whoa! This must be Ryut, the homeworld of The Black Lantern Corps.

Me: Wow. This whole planet is dead.

Maggie: I always wondered what the home planet of the Black Lantern Corps was like.

Laney: It sure is a scary place.

Eli: Yeah.

We got the battles underway.

Tornado Bolt: Yeah it sure was funny too. I thought it was fun going hunting for Mucky Boys.

Stealth Elf: It sure was fun.

Ariel: Especially how we used shotguns, elephant guns and everything.

Eli: Yeah that was so cool hunting.

Melody: As long as it was for people like The Mucky Boys.

Zick: That was fun going hunting.

Scootaloo: You got that right. He had it coming for a long time.

Barley Barrel: Yeah he sure was! It's hard to imagine he became like that.

Whirlwind: You're not kidding. And this was shortly before the War with The Royal Defenders broke out.

Rapunzel: That was crazy.

Eli: I wasn't with everyone when all that happened but man that war must've been crazy.

Sam Hall: No kidding.

Laura Chapman: That was a really crazy war from what we heard.

---

Riddler was next.

Riddler: (to Tecna) Riddle me this: was it confusing to have 2 suspects with a clear motive?

Tecna: (British Accent) Not at all but all these mysteries we've been having were most enjoyable.

Pinkie Pie: They sure were and they were amazing!

Featherweight: Yeah they were!

Sprocket: I love good mysteries myself and they are amazing.

Tuddrussel: They sure are as long as I get to kick some butt!

Larry 3000: They are most enjoyable.

Otto Osworth: Yeah they are fun.

Riddler: I'm glad you enjoy them. (To Donna) Aren't you Donna Keppel who endured that massacre?

Donna Keppel: I sure am. Thank goodness I never have to go through that again.

Roxy: I know it was shocking. No pun intended.

Applejack: Yeah no kidding. They should keep generators as emergencies.

Apple Bloom: I agree and it's good that Lincoln was able to use his lightning powers to help out.

Flashwing: It sure was genius.

Lucky: It sure was and thank goodness that Lincoln came through for the town and got it all up and running again.

Garu: Yeah it sure was.

Stinger: I think it's cool that Lincoln came through.

Naga: (Monotonously) It sure is good he came through.

Champ: YEAH! He kicked some butt.

Takato: It sure is good he came through for everyone.

Henry Wong: Really well planned.

Rika: It sure is.

?: I will make sure that none of you will leave here alive!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Kirby: Oh no, I was hoping I'd never that voice ever again. You can come out now, Sectonia.

Suddenly, a figure came out of the shadows, and it was none other than Queen Sectonia, an enemy of Kirby's.

Nicole: I should've known you'd show up, Sectonia.

Lincoln: She's been nothing but a danger to Floria and Popstar with her scheme to conquer those two planets and rule over them. She's a tyrant who needs to be stopped.

Jessica Shannon: And sent into Oblivion for good. I've had it up to hear with that queen bee to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Jessica Shannon's eyes turned neon blue and she was surrounded by a yellow energy aura with wasps and yellow fire, and as she approached Queen Sectonia, she'd left behind yellow energy, yellow fire, and wasps.

Jessica Shannon: Sectonia, your crimes against Floria and Popstar are indeed unforgivable, and for that, consider yourself dethroned and your life shall be ended for good!

Suddenly, Jessica Shannon was surrounded by a massive vortex of yellow energy and yellow fire with wasps flying around the vortex, and there was a red phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Jessica Shannon emerged, but she was changed forever.

Jessica Shannon grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had neon blue eyes and a neon yellow energy aura with yellow fire and wasps, she now had a wasp with the Fire Kanji emblazoned on her forehead, her long red hair now had yellow highlights, and she had large red angel wings with yellow tips on the feathers, she now had her own Sword of The Avengers with the symbol of Wasp etched on it and the massive blade grew to 6'5" in length, and it also grew a little wider, and the long black handle grew a little longer, she now has on a sleeveless pink blouse with a red phoenix, pink blouse with wasps, black pants, black leather combat boots, and a long sleeveless red trenchcoat with wasps and yellow fire, and a wasp on the back. Jessica Shannon now had on her new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with red gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a kanji below the wasp that said, "Jessica Shannon, Disk War Avenger, Master of Fire and Wasps, Video Game Extraordinaire, and Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud."

ジェシカシャノン、ディスクウォーアベンジャー、火とハチのマスター、ビデオゲームの並外れた存在、そしてリンカーンラウドの愛する未来の妻

Jessica Shannon has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 YELLOW FIRESTORM WASP ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were amazed by Jessica Shannon's transformation, and when Lincoln saw her transformation, he was blushing.

Me: Whoa, Jessica's transformed, and that means that queen bee's going to get dethroned for good.

Nico: You said it, Colonel. Wasp VS. Queen Bee, this is going to be good. (To Jessica Shannon) How do you feel, Shannon?

Jessica Shannon: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Love) I feel incredible, Commander Nico, and now, it's time to dethrone this queen bee for good. (To Lincoln) Lincoln, are you ready?

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and he transforms into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and joined Jessica Shannon at her side.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get her.

Jessica Shannon and Lincoln went after Queen Sectonia, who fired a blast of magic at them, which they dodged, and they'd attacked her with a powerful barrage of neon yellow energy blasts, wasps, and yellow fire from Jessica Shannon, and a powerful barrage of and neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning from Lincoln, which hit

Sectonia, and exploded with incredible power, and hurt her bad. Then, Lincoln used his Parasitic Giga Energy Drain, and he fired a powerful blast of red energy, which hits Queen Estonia, and sucked out her powers, abilities, and magic, and made them his own, the same with the rest of us, and they also slashed off her wings, and she crashed onto the ground.

Jessica Shannon: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Love) Shall we dethrone this queen bee once and for all, Lincoln?

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's do it, Jessica.

Jessica Shannon and Lincoln: DIVINE FIRESTORM WASP SWARM BARRAGE!

Jessica Shannon and Lincoln fired a massive barrage of yellow fire, wasps, neon yellow energy, neon blue energy, and fire at Queen Sectonia, which hits her and explodes with incredible power, killing her and Super Hakaing Queen Sectonia for good. We cheered for what they did, as they holstered their weapons and powered down, but Jessica Shannon's new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were now permanent. Then, Lincoln picked up Jessica Shannon up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he'd wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

The new members of Lincoln's harem also saw it for themselves, and they never get tired of seeing just how romantic Lincoln is with his future wives, the same with the rest of us.

We went and pulverized and smashed Gibble all over the place.

POW BIFF SMASH BLAME THOTH BAM!

We pulverized him into pulp and more.

Flamewar, Kovu, Kion and Afterburner used the Earth and Disney Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Flamewar's weapons and speed, Kovu and Kion's powers and Afterburner's sonic blaster 100-fold.

They summoned Nekron, the Entity of Death to attack and the blasts all hit Gibble and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked him down and we slapped the cuffs on Gibble and he was rearrested. We were back on Earth.

Me: It's back to prison for you.

Gibble: I would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids!

Heat Wave: Hey, you're a kid too!

Welcome to The Night Shift

This episode is a Parody of the SpongeBob episode Graveyard Shift.

In the world of Dungeons & Dragons, in the world of Eberron, Me and Hayley Schmidt the Galar Moltres Gene-Slammer were flying over the land. Our mission is not only to rescue a girl but also to destroy an evil version of The Book of Vile Darkness.

Hayley Schmidt: Is this Book of Vile Darkness the same one Nicole has?

Hayley concentrated and groaned as her mouth turned into a beak.

Me: I'm afraid not Hayley.

She turned into GALAR MOLTRES!

Me: YEAH! I think this is the one that has more darker meaning.

I went over what happened in the 3rd Dungeons and Dragons movie and it was a really terrifying movie but it had an amazing story.

---

Nhagruul the Foul was an evil sorcerer who spread despair throughout his mortal life. As he neared his end, he sold his soul to the demon lords of the Abyss. His skin was turned into pages, his bones into a cover, his blood became ink for the pages, and the Book of Vile Darkness was born. Anyone who looked into the Book became evil. The kingdom of Karkoth was consumed by evil until a group of holy warriors called the Knights of the New Sun arose and saved the people using amulets given to them by the God of Light, Pelor. Using the amulets, they channeled the God's power and light overcame the darkness. Such power could be wielded, owing to the purity of their hearts. The ink was destroyed by the Knights but the pages and the covers could not be recovered as the followers of Nhagruul had them hidden. As people began to forget that Nhagruul even existed, the power of the Knights dimmed.

2000 years later, a new Paladin named Grayson is recruited into the Knight order, but like all Knights through the centuries, the power of the amulet is not granted to him by the God Pelor. However, while speaking to his father about this failure, all the Knights are killed and his father is abducted. Grayson is able to follow the barbarians who killed the Knights into town, and equips himself with the help of one of the locals sympathetic to Pelor. Against his will, he becomes part of an evil crew looking for the horn that will lead them to the cover of the Book. The crew comprises Akordia, a Shadar-kai sorceress; Seith, a human assassin; Vimak, a Goliath barbarian; and Bezz, a human Vermin Lord.

The horn is guarded by a wyvern that is slain by Grayson, saving Akordia, who falls in love with him. The group returns to the town attacked by the wyvern, where they are hailed as heroes. As Grayson and Akordia spend the night together, Seith takes all of the treasure given to the town, previously held by the wyvern. The town's mayor discovers this, and blocks the group from leaving; Grayson manages to compromise with him by letting the town keep half the treasure, but Bezz kills the mayor, resulting in the town being wiped out. At night, after the group makes camp, Grayson poisons Vimak with a vial he purchased, then places his body and the treasure in a bag of holding and throws it into the nearby lake. Seith then takes Grayson hostage, as he has nothing to trade for the horn to Akordia, but is killed by Bezz.

The horn leads the remaining three to encounter an undead child called a Slaymate, where they are forced to let it feed on their negative energy in order to prove themselves free of decency and thus worthy of obtaining the Book's cover; the Slaymate hungrily feeds from the morally bankrupt Bezz; Grayson's unlawful deeds are enough to pacify the creature; but when Akordia's turn comes, her burgeoning feelings for Grayson poison the creature and she fails the test. The Slaymate summons a Helmed Horror to kill them before disappearing. Bezz is stabbed through the chest as it appears, with Akordia and Grayson fighting the Helmed Horror.

Disposing of the construct, the two finally retrieve the cover of the Book.

Akordia makes contact with the evil Lord Shathrax, who has the pages of the Book within his stronghold in the Shadowfell and plans to extract the ink from the pain of the purest Knight: Grayson's father. Grayson is able to rescue his father, but soon discovers the stronghold is a collection of floating islands. Despite his father's pleas, Grayson refuses to kill his father and reminds him that they must be the last beacon of hope, being granted the power of Pelor momentarily, before being disabled by Bezz, who reveals he is in league with Shathrax and intends to use Grayson's pain to complete the book. With Akordia's help, Grayson manages to stop Shathrax and his followers before he can complete the book by using Pelor's power to annihilate them. Akordia and Grayson, despite their relationship, part ways at the end because of their different natures, with Bezz escaping as a cloud of insects.

---

Hayley Galar Moltres: Oh man! We have to stop him and fast!

Me: I know. This version of the Book of Vile Darkness is a true artifact of doom. The one that Nicole has is a prison artifact.

Hayley Galar Moltres: Wow. We got to stop Shathrax.

Me: Lets go.

We flew on and we smashed into the castle of the Cult of Nhagruul on a collection of floating islands and blasted the cultists down and we had an Inari named Yukomo and a Regieleki Gene-Slammer named Galina Tsiolkovsky helping us and I smashed the machines they were using to make liquid pain. I then put on my blind mand glasses and snapped my fingers and then Galina reverted back and she was naked. Akordia gave me an Amulet of Pelor and Haley reverted back.

Hayley was human again. But naked.

Hayley: (covers herself) Maybe we should start using the Book of Vile Darkness again.

Me: That's a good idea.

Galina: (Covers herself) (Russian Accent) But thank goodness we destroyed the evil of Nhagruul the Foul forever.

Yukomo: Yeah no kidding. I'm a huge fan of Dungeons & Dragons myself and that was intense.

Me: It sure was.

I gave Galina and Hayley new clothes.

I then fired a massive blast of light from the amulet of Pelor that was given to me and obliterated the remnants of the evil Book of Vile Darkness and destroyed it forever and obliterated all traces of the evil of Nhagruul the Foul forever.

Galina: Wow that was amazing.

Akordia: (British Accent) I was a fool for joining Shathrax.

Me: But at least he and his followers are gone forever. You do have a chance to redeem yourself Akordia.

Akordia: I will consider it but for now I must go on a journey of guidance to decide that.

Me: I understand. But there will always be a place for you on the team.

She smiled at me and teleported.

Hayley: That was amazing how Akordia turned the tables on Shathrax.

Me: But at least he and his followers along with Nhagruul the Foul will never terrorize Eberron or the kingdoms of Karkoth ever again they are now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

We went over to Grayson and freed him.

Me: Are you okay?

Grayson: I am now thanks to all of you. I'm so sorry I caused all this.

Me: It's not your fault Grayson. You did what you thought was right in your heart. Nhagruul and his followers may be gone but there will always be more dangerous evils out there. The Knights of The New Sun will always be needed.

Grayson: That's true. Thank you J.D. Thank you to all of you.

Hayley Schmidt: It was our pleasure.

We went back home to Earth.

* * *

After dealing with Shathrax once and for all, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Lightning Dust were heading to the world of the 2018 movie Mortal Engines, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the nineteen girls located here, but we're also going to help Hester Shaw and The Anti-Traction League deal with Magnus Chrome, the Lord Mayor of London and the obsessed archeologist and power-hungry Head of the Guild of Historians, Thaddeus Valentine.

* * *

Set more than a thousand years following a cataclysmic conflict known as the Sixty Minute War, the remnants of humanity regroup and form mobile cities, called "Traction Cities". Under a philosophy known as "Municipal Darwinism", larger "predator" cities hunt and absorb smaller settlements in the "Great Hunting Ground", which includes Great Britain and Continental Europe. In opposition, settlements of the "Anti-Traction League" have developed an alternative civilization consisting of "static settlements" (traditional, non-mobile cities) in Asia led by Shan Guo (formerly China), protected by the "Shield Wall". Relics of 21st-century technology such as toasters, computers, and smartphones are valued by historians as "Old-Tech."

The city of London captures a small Bavarian mining town called Salzhaken, absorbing its population and resources, under orders of Lord Mayor Magnus Crome. Tom Natsworthy, an apprentice historian, arrives at London's "Gut" to collect Salzhaken's Old-Tech for London's Museum. Hester Shaw, a masked twenty-something woman among the Salzhakens, attempts to assassinate Thaddeus Valentine, Head of the Guild of Historians, but Tom intervenes, pursuing Hester to a chute. Hester escapes, but not before telling him that Valentine murdered her mother and scarred her face. When Tom informs Valentine of this, he pushes Tom down the chute.

Tom and Hester are forced to work together to traverse the Hunting Ground, surviving Southies, Scavs on a night hunt, and finding refuge in a vehicle called Scuttlebug, but the owners lock them in a cell, intending to sell them as slaves. Hester confides that Valentine killed her archaeologist mother Pandora after stealing a piece of Old-Tech she found in a dig in the Dead Continent of the Americas, while young Hester escaped with a necklace her mother gave her. Meanwhile, Valentine frees Shrike, a reanimated cyborg known as a "Stalker", from the offshore walking prison Sharkmoor, to find and kill Hester. At the slave market of Rustwater in the Outlands, Tom and Hester are rescued by Anti-Traction League agent Anna Fang. During the chaos, they are pursued by Shrike, whom Hester reveals she knows. Hester explains that Shrike had found and raised her after escaping Valentine, and Hester promised to let him turn her into a Stalker like himself, but she left after discovering that London had entered the Great Hunting Ground, giving her a chance to kill Valentine. In London, Valentine's good-natured daughter Katherine grows estranged from her father, especially after Apprentice Engineer Bevis Pod informs her that Valentine pushed Tom down the chute, and they learn Valentine's energy project in the re-purposed St Paul's Cathedral is more than it seems.

Hester and Tom travel on Anna's airship, the Jenny Haniver, to the airborne city Airhaven, meeting other Anti-Traction League members. After questioning Hester, Tom realizes Pandora discovered a computer core for MEDUSA, a quantum energy-based superweapon used by the belligerents during the Sixty Minute War to instantly destroy entire cities, albeit shattering the Earth's crust into a thousand pieces that have rearranged the former continents. The Guild of Engineers has stolen the remaining components from Tom's museum workshop and built a MEDUSA under Valentine's orders. Shrike catches up with them, resulting in a fierce skirmish that critically wounds him and destroys Airhaven. Realizing that Hester is in love with Tom, he spares Tom and frees her of her promise before perishing. As Hester, Tom, and Anna travel to the Shield Wall of Batmunkh Gompa with the surviving Anti-Tractionists, Valentine kills Crome in a coup and musters support from Londoners by vowing to destroy the Shield Wall with MEDUSA and lead them to a new Hunting Ground in Asia. Anna convinces Shan Guo Governor Kwan to launch the Anti-Tractionist airship fleet against London, but MEDUSA destroys the fleet and blasts a hole through the Shield Wall. After coming upon a stone carving of Medusa, Hester discovers that her mother's necklace hides a "crash drive", a kill switch for MEDUSA. Hester, Tom, Anna, and the remaining Anti-Tractionists lead a raid against London, braving the city's anti-aircraft guns.

Hester and Anna infiltrate St Paul's, and though Valentine mortally wounds Anna during a sword duel, Hester destroys MEDUSA with the crash drive. In a last-ditch attempt to destroy the Shield Wall, the now insane Valentine has his henchmen kill the city's control crew and put the city on full throttle on a collision course with the Wall. With Katherine's help, Tom uses the Jenny Haniver to destroy London's engine. Hester catches and fights Valentine aboard his airship, where he reveals that he is her father. Tom rescues Hester and shoots down Valentine's ship, which is crushed by London's slowing tracks, killing Valentine. With London stopped, Hester laughs victoriously while lying down. The surviving Londoners, now led by Katherine, make peace with the Anti-Tractionists of Shan Guo. As Governor Kwan welcomes the Londoners, Tom and Hester embrace each other and leave in the Jenny Haniver together to see the world.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 2018 movie Mortal Engines, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the nineteen girls located here, but we're also going to help Hester Shaw and The Anti-Traction League deal with Magnus Chrome, the Lord Mayor of London and the obsessed archeologist and power-hungry Head of the Guild of Historians, Thaddeus

Valentine.

---

Thaddeus Valentine is the main antagonist of the 2001 young-adult science fiction fantasy novel Mortal Engines by Philip Reeve, and its 2018 film adaptation of the same name.

He is the Head of the Guild of Historians who is also Katherine Valentine's father and Tom Natsworthy's former mentor, serving as the latter's father figure, as well as Hester Shaw's arch-nemesis before later being revealed to be her biological father. Appearing on both adaptations of the story as an obsessed leader who aspired to rule everything all over, Thaddeus sought to find a very important book in his quest to completely rule London and all of the world altogether; this involves trying to kill Hester, who takes it upon herself to eliminate Valentine at all costs.

He was portrayed by Hugo Weaving, who also played Agent Smith in The Matrix, Megatron in the Transformers series, David Melrose in Patrick Melrose, V in Vendetta, and Red Skullin the Marvel Cinematic Universe.

In the past, Thaddeus Valentine was the lover of an archaeologist who loves to travel across the world, Pandora. He was also the father of Pandora's daughter, who was also the film's main protagonist known as Hester Shaw. Initially portrayed as a caring family man, he reveals his true nature once Pandora found an ancient technology that was found in a Dead Continent of America - which resulted in him murdering her; when Hester saw Thaddeus's atrocities, he ended up scarring her face before she eventually escaped from his wrath and would later get herself a necklace that her mother relinquished to her.

In the first parts of the film, he was introduced at first observing the mobile city of London devouring a small mining town known as Salzhaken (Salthook in the novel). Once said city is devoured, Thaddeus seemingly welcoming the citizens of Salzhaken and promises that they will be given a good hospitality. Not only that, he also seemingly has a cordial relationship with the apprentice of Guild of Historians, Tom Nasworthy, and his daughter, Katherine

Valentine.

However, one of the Salzhaken citizens, the aforementioned Hester Shaw, has the intent to murder Thaddeus, but once she tries stabbing him in the chest (which injures him, but he survives), Tom catches her, and she runs away from the scene and escaped using the chute. Before she escapes, she told Tom that Valentine murdered her mother and scarred her face. Confused, Tom gives the information to Valentine, and while initially Valentine accepts the information, he proceeds to push Tom down the chute.

Later, in the final battle, Thaddeus Valentine destroyed the ATL airfleet. He was then challenged by Anna Fang. They fought fiercely in one-on-one combat, which ends with Thaddeus Valentine mortally stabbing Anna Fang with his knife. In that moment, however, Hester Shaw managed to shut down the M.E.D.U.S.A. Machine much to Valentine's shock. He could only watch in horror to see that Hester Shaw has shut it down, before Anna Fang urges her to flee; as Hester Shaw does flee, Anna Fang dies after tauntingly telling Valentine that his plans for world domination are over - shortly before she herself falls to her death.

Valentine's death.

Back in London, Thaddeus Valentine was confronted by Kathrine - who had just discovered the truth about her father's evil nature. She disowns him before leaving to help the others, whilst Thaddeus decides to leave her behind and escape. However, he was finally confronted by Hester Shaw moments later. By then, Hester Shaw was now prepared to kill Thaddeus Valentine and avenge her mother's death in the final battle. Dismissing her intent, Thaddeus reveals to Hester that he is her father before they engage in one-on-one combat. Thaddeus Valentine initially has the upper hand and prepares to kill Hester Shaw, but she ultimately defeats him by slashing his face in the same manner as he did to her.

Thaddeus Valentine subsequently dares Hester Shaw to kill him so they can both "die together". However, in that moment, Hester Shaw decides not to go through with it and instead taunts her father by declaring that "she is gonna live" whereas he will not. Thereupon Tom appears in his ship, and helps Hester Shaw escape in it before her father can attack again. Tom then shoots out Thaddeus' ship, which ends up crashing onto the ground and kills all of Thaddeus' remaining men. Thaddeus Valentine himself survives, albeit critically injured, and is about to escape when he sees London's tracks slowing towards him and his broken ship. Thaddeus Valentine could only watch in horror as London's slowing tracks run over his ship with him still inside it, thus crushing Thaddeus Valentine to death. Because of this, Thaddeus Valentine's reign of terror was over at last.

Magnus Chrome

Magnus Crome is the Lord Mayor of London and the Head of the Guild of Engineers. He appeared as the main antagonist in Mortal Engines . In the film adaptation he was portrayed by Patrick Malahide.

Early life

Magnus Crome was born on London in 936 TE. He was raised by the Guild of Engineers in the Deep Gut nurseries, during which he read about the dwindling amount of prey and that traction cities were doomed. Deciding to make it his life's work to keep tractionism alive, Crome acquired his guildmark and climbed the ranks of the Guild until becoming the Chief Engineer. During his time as Chief Engineer he strengthened the Engineer's power through increasing the number of seats it held in the city council. Crome was also a firm believer in Municipal Darwinism - once claiming to be descended from Dr. Gideon Crumb.

Before Mortal Engines

In the aftermath of the Big Tilt of London of 997 TE, Lord Mayor Waverley Egg was ousted from his position due to the ensuing scandal and gave rise to Crome's election - though some believed that Crome had caused the Big Tilt himself to attain more power. Crome enforced fierce anti-waste and recycling laws to help keep London moving.

Differently from past Lord Mayors, Crome did not have his guildmark removed, not even wearing the typical red robes required of a Lord

Mayor - preferring to wear the Engineer's white rubber coat. Many objected to Crome still being the Chief Engineer whilst acting as Lord Mayor, though they themselves admitted Crome was an exceptional leader.

Crome was a firm supporter of Thaddeus Valentine, whom he made into the Head Historian after the archaeologist discovered the super-weapon MEDUSA; the Engineers began work implementing the weapon into St. Paul's Cathedral. Realising that this weapon would give London an advantage in the waning years of tractionism, Crome, under the guise of looking for more prey east, ordered his city to move over the Land Bridge and into the Great Hunting Ground. The Lord Mayor intended to use MEDUSA to destroy the Shield Wall of Batmunkh Gompa, allowing passage into Shan Guo and the innumerable resources there.

A year and a half before the events of Mortal Engines, the Stalker Shrike boarded London and was captured by the Guild of Engineers. Crome had Dr. Evadne Twix, the head of K Division, study Shrike in order to make Stalkers as foot-soldiers for London. Shrike warned Crome that Hester Shaw, the daughter of archaeologist Pandora Shaw (and Valentine's former lover who originally discovered MEDUSA), would be coming to London to assassinate Valentine in revenge for her parents' murder. In return for studying Shrike's components, Crome would allow Shrike to bring Hester's body to the Engineers and turn her into a Stalker companion for him.

Mortal Engines

Giving the order to chase a small mining town called Salthook after crossing the Land Bridge, Crome presumably witnessed the town being eaten. He later visited Valentine after an incident with Hester. Crome sends Valentine to scout ahead in his airship the 13th Floor Elevator, to see what lies between London and the Shield Wall. Valentine wants to try and find Hester, but Crome tells him that he is sending an "agent" to track her down.

Crome then returns to the Engineerium, the Guild of Engineers' headquarters, and meets with Twix. The pair then visit the imprisoned Shrike, and Crome informs him of Hester's boarding of London. Shrike demands to go after her, and Crome agrees, supplying him with a Godshawk 90 airship.

Me: You got that right, big guy. When I saw the movie, I can't believe what'd happened to the world because of The Sixty Minute War, the global cataclysmic conflict more than a thousand years ago.

Nico: This is indeed another result of war.

Lincoln: And like Cai Wenji said, war only breeds sadness. But, it's our job to protect not only Earth, but the entire universe from evil, and heal those whose hearts and souls have been broken by chaos, tragedy, sorrow, and turmoil.

Me: No kidding.

Lightning Dust: Yeah. But it's so amazing how the people of this Apocalyptic World were able to turn the major cities of the world into mobile fortresses of land, air and sea.

Me: That is amazing. The technology they used and built for that is amazinf

Eli: It sure is. What year does Mortal Engines take place?

Me: Well it said about 5,000 to 10,000 years into the future so sometime right around 7,000 to 12,000 A.D.

Nico: That's a long time from 2021.

Nicole: You're not kidding there. It was so cool.

Eli: Yeah. But what caused the Sixty Minute War?

Me: Lets see.

I looked that up.

---

The Sixty Minute War was a catastrophic, apocalyptic war that took place thousands of years before the events of the Mortal Engines Quartet and the Fever Crumb Series.

The War

The Hundred Year War was a cataclysmic conflict which is deliberately left vague, but was evidently fought between the American Empire and Greater China. It is likely that the Middle East was involved, as this region has been reduced to a flooded maze of atomic craters.

The name suggests that the war took only an hour to begin and end, presumably due to the unprecedented amounts of devastating weaponry deployed. The war ended millennia of human civilisational development, and caused near-total global destruction, depopulation, realignment of the continents, massive geological upheaval, and destruction of several large landmasses, and the downfall of the human species. However, it is likely (though unconfirmed) that there was a cold war leading up to this event and that the "sixty minutes" only refers to the actual exchange of WMDs.

Aftermath

The scientific and technical knowledge of most of humanity's advanced technology was lost during the conflict, and the world collapsed into a post apocalyptic state with the level of technology still not recovered to pre-war status centuries or millennia later.

Following the war came a period of immense geological upheaval, as earthquakes, tsunamis, glaciers and volcanic activity swept across the world; the isthmus linking North and South America was destroyed by weaponised meteors, volcanoes sprouted up in Europe and new oceans and mountain ranges were formed. It is uncertain whether this was a coincidence or unintended side-effect due to the immense energies released during the war, or if it was intentionally caused by some of the weapons employed.

North America was reduced to a radioactive wasteland, along with much of eastern China. The surviving Chinese fled into the Himalayas and formed a new civilization that would later become Shan Guo, leading nation of the Anti-Traction League. Africa escaped much of the devastation and parts of the continent became the center of another new civilisation though it was weakened by the Traction Cities centuries later.

This destruction led to the so called "Black Centuries", an era presumably similar to the historical Dark Ages. During this period, barbaric nomad tribes wandered Europe. After this period (at least 10,000 years[citation needed] later), Nicholas Quirke transformed London into the first of the Traction Cities and this led to the rise of Municipal Darwinism and the Traction Era.

Weapons

Particle compressing weapons, quantum energy weapons, biological weapons and conventional nuclear weapons, some deployed upon orbital platforms, were utilized to great extent. More esoteric weapons may also have been used or at least developed; the American Empire is mentioned in passing to have possessed weaponry capable of somehow drawing power from parallel universes, though this is an in-universe rumour from a world many years after the War itself destroyed civilization so it might not be accurate. Whatever was actually employed has survived in legend as being powerful enough to have "made the gods quake in fear" and was capable of projecting at the very least megaton-level firepower given that the few weapons actually seen in action in the books regularly destroy entire cities with single shots.

Several items featured in the series are deadly relics of the conflict, including a directed-energy weapon called MEDUSA (Military Energy Department, United States of America) which is later mounted upon the Traction City of London. This weapon (and the computer that controls it) was recovered by a group of explorers from an ancient military base on the American continent. MEDUSA is a key element of the plot in Mortal Engines.

Another featured weapon was the device known as ODIN (Orbital Defence Initiative), another ancient American weapon consisting of a particle cannon mounted on a satellite in Earth's orbit. ODIN is a key element of the plot in Infernal Devices and A Darkling Plain, as several major organizations (particularly the Green Storm) attempt to gain control of the device to destroy their enemies. Other Ancient orbital weapons mentioned in passing are the Diamond Bat, Jinju 14, and the Nine Sisters, although these take no part in the plot and are not described beyond their name. It is implied that they are likely to have fallen out of orbit or to have ceased functioning during the long millennia between the Sixty Minute War and the rise of the Traction Cities.

---

When I was done we were shocked!

Nico: WHOA! That MEDUSA weapon is as powerful as the superlaser!

Eli: Incredible! It's amazing how they can utilize such powerful weaponry.

Me: And it was nuclear war that caused the world to become an Apocalyptic Wasteland.

Suddenly, Lincoln had heard the sound of someone who's calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the seventeen girls sighted here, along with Hester Shaw and The Anti-Traction League, but they've been cornered by Magnus Chrome and Thaddeus Valentine, who's now gone insane, and they're going to kill them.

Lincoln: Guys, I found the seventeen girls, along with Hester Shaw, her allies, and the Anti-Traction League, but they've been cornered by Magnus Chrome and Thaddeus Valentine, who's now gone insane, and they're going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over to help the girls, Hester Shaw, her allies, and The Anti-Traction League. Lincoln punched Magnus Chrome and Thaddeus Valentine in the face, and he transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and he fired powerful neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning at them, which exploded with incredible power, killing them and Super Hakaing them. We cheered for what Lincoln did, as he holstered his massive blade on his back and powered down.

We checked on Hester Shaw, her allies, and the Anti-Traction League, they were okay and unharmed. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the nineteen girls located here, and when Lincoln saw them, he immediately recognized them. The nineteen girls were Chacha, Koshosho, Lady Hayakawa, Naotora II, Ginchiyo Tachibana, Ina, Okuni, Oichi, Nene, Gracia, Kai, Mitsuki, and Sena from the Samurai Warriors franchise, Lin, Airi, Danne, Kisana, Lyra, and Mamiya from Fist of The North Star.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Chacha, Koshosho, Lady Hayakawa, Naotora II, Ginchiyo Tachibana, Ina, Okuni, Oichi, Nene, Gracia, Kai, Mitsuki, Sena, Lin, Airi, Danne, Kisana, Lyra, and Mamiya.

Nicole: From the Samurai Warriors franchise and Fist of The North Star, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Oichi: Yes, we're okay, thanks to you saving us.

Then, when Oichi and the other eighteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Magnus Chrome and the insane Thaddeus Valentine, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Mitsuki: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, Mitsuki, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eighteen clones of himself, and he and the eighteen clones went up to Chacha, Koshosho, Lady Hayakawa, Naotora Li, Ginchiyo Tachibana, Ina, Okuni, Oichi, Nene, Gracia, Kai, Mitsuki, Sena, Lin, Airi, Danne, Kisana, Lyra, and Mamiya, and picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Mamiya: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went home to the Estate, but before that happened, Katherine Valentine heard about what just happened to her father, but she had no more love for her now dead father, and she became the new leader of the surviving Londoners, and she made peace with the Anti-Traction League, and at long last, they'll finally begin to rebuild and start anew in our world, since their world was destroyed by the Sixty Minute War. We also decided to use the Mortal Engine cities for future use in major missions like Zombie Apocalypse scenarios and more.

---

After putting down Thaddeus Valentine and Magnus Chrome, we were training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading off to meet Fuu's (Samurai Champloo) friends, and we found out that when Lincoln rescued Fuu from McWolf, her world's merged with ours.

Lincoln: I can't wait to meet your friends, Fuu. I'm sure they were worried about you when you were kidnapped by McWolf.

Fuu: You're going to love meeting them, Lincoln, and when they hear the news that I'm one of your future wives, I can't wait to see the expression on Mugen's face, but Jin will remain stoic, however, he will be glad on the inside about the news.

Me: And we'll also be sure to explain to them about McWolf's actions.

Nico: Yeah, we don't want him beaten to a pulp before he has his first usual battle with Nessa, RD Lori, and Tom and Jerry.

May: He's trained intensely under Vypra and the Masters of Evil, and he's not only got that massive zanbato on his back, but he also has powers of darkness and his trademark Chains of Torment, along with his quick means of escape.

Me: Right.

We arrived and met Fuu's friends, Jin and Mugen, and we explained everything that happened to her, and that she's now a future wife of Lincoln.

Mugen: At least, we know she's okay and she's now one of Lincoln's future wives. (To Lincoln) You take good care of her, Lincoln.

Lincoln: I will, you have my word.

Me: He's right, Lincoln's a man of his word, and he never breaks it.

Lincoln also took care of Umanosuke, Toube, and Denkibou by unholstering his Sword of Taranis from his back, and with three swift and powerful one-handed swings from his massive blade, he cuts them down, and they exploded in purple flames, and their spirits were Super Hakaied forever. Mugen and Jin joined the team, and they were also told about our upcoming war with Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and they were going to help us out.

(TREASURE TROVE COVE THEME FROM BANJO-KAZOOIE PLAYS)

Later we were at the beach for some fun.

Manaphy: We've enjoyed this day at the beach.

Nico: It's a perfect way to close out the month as well as soak up some rays.

May: Nico can you rub some sunscreen on my back?

Nico: You bet my lady.

Nico did so.

I was surfing on the lake with Stacy and Otto and his friends.

Me: COWABUNGA!

Stacy Bolton: RADICAL DUDES!

Reggie: AWESOME!

We were surfing on amazing waves.

Eli, Ariel, Nunnally, Melody and Rapunzel were swimming in the lake and looking for treasure.

Lola and Lana were building sandcastle and Arrietty, The Littles and Thumbelina were pretending to be knights on the castle.

Poliwag: I found some treasure!

Poliwag came back with a solid gold goblet and it had beautiful jewels in it.

Nicole: Wow! That is an amazing Goblet.

Poliwag: Thanks.

Sunset Shimmer was playing a pirate video game on her phone as she was walking along the beach.

[pirate-themed video game music]

Then she kicked a bottle.

Sunset Shimmer: Huh? What the…? Check this out! I found an actual real-life message in a bottle!

Nicole: Ooh! I love messages in bottles like that.

Pinkie Pie: Ooh! Is it a love letter? A secret recipe? Or, wait. Someone's trapped on a deserted island? We have to save them!

Nicole: If it were someone trapped like that I would get a message on my arm device.

Sunset Shimmer: It's a treasure map.

Nicole: Cool! And you know how much I love treasure maps.

Twilight Sparkle: It looks just like this beach.

Pinkie Pie: Amazing! Let's go!

Nicole: Onward to adventure!

They went to find the treasure and we had to get past some crabs and hot sand and more.

They then saw a chest.

Sunset Shimmer: Look! There it is! I wonder if it's filled with loot!

Poromon: Maybe I can use my beak to open this treasure chest.

Nicole: I don't see a lock on it.

[chest opens]

Sunset opened it and in it was another treasure map.

Pinkie Pie: The treasure is a treasure map!

Sunset Shimmer: [reading] "Follow the trail to the top of the MFBO and look for the X at the end of the…" [gasps] It's a code! If only we had a… decoder ring!

Twilight Sparkle: Well, that's convenient.

Nicole: That is an easy find.

Sunset Shimmer: "Follow the S-H… SHELLS to the… PIER and look for the X at the end of the R-A-I… RAINBOW!"

Nicole: Follow the shells to the pier and look for the X at the end of the Rainbow.

Pinkie Pie: Look! There's a trail of shells!

Sunset Shimmer, Pinkie Pie, Twilight Sparkle: [laugh]

They went to the pier.

Twilight Sparkle: This is the pier. Now where's the-

Pinkie Pie: Rainbow!

Nicole: There it is.

[truck drives away]

Twilight Sparkle: "X Marks the Sushi"?

Nicole: Ooh.

Sunset Shimmer: Excuse me, do you know anything about a treasure map?

"Carrot Bun": [pirate accent] Aargh! Congr-argh-tulations! Ye mateys followed ye map to find the bounty of X Sushi!

Sunset Shimmer: Yes! What's our treasure?

"Carrot Bun": Twenty p-argh-cent off any hand roll, plus all-ye-can-eat wasabi! Aargh!

Twilight Sparkle: That's it?

Nicole: That's a great deal.

Poromon: I love sushi.

Pinkie Pie: The treasure is a sushi truck! That's amazing!

Nicole: Awesome and I am hungry.

Twilight Sparkle: Mmm… Mmmm… I like it.

Nicole: Really good sushi.

Pinkie was in pain from too much spice.

Pinkie Pie: Ah… ah… tho thpithy! [breathes fire]

She breathed out green fire and dipped her face in the fountain on the pier.

[splash]

Pinkie Pie: [sighs]

Sunset Shimmer and Twilight Sparkle: [laugh]

Nicole: That was fun! Lets share all this with everyone.

Horsea: What do we do with all of this?

Nicole: We're going to share the sushi treasure with everyone.

Sunset Shimmer: Good idea.

They got to sharing the treasure with all of us and it was fun.

Later at Lynn's Table.

French Narrator: (French Accent) Ah! Lynn's Table. Gotham Royal York's premier daytime restaurant. Where it will be closing time right about…

Lori: Now! 8pm! So you guys at home! I've got a very romantic snuggle and love session tonight with my Bobby Boo-Boo Bear! 💖 😊

Me: You and Bobby were made for each other completely Lori.

Rusty came and knocked on the door.

Lori: What?

Rusty: Are you guys open?

Lori: Read the sign, genius. 😒

Rusty: I'll have a Lynnsagna along with chili cheese fries & a soda.

Me: Hey Rusty.

Rusty: Oh hey guys! Mind if I join you all for some late night snacks? I have the money.

Lynn Sr.: (offscreen) Money?! 😱

(Lynn Sr. appears, slamming Lori into a wall)

Lynn Sr.: You mean if we stayed open, you'd eat in and pay us?

Rusty - Sure! I was gonna order to go but I saw all you guys and decided to eat with you all.

Me: Fine with us Rusty. Come on in.

Rusty did so and we got his food for him.

Lynn Sr.: Meh, that works too. (to Lori Guess what, honey? Welcome to the night shift! From now on, Lynn's Table will be open 24 Hours a day!

Lori: What?!

(The customers come barreling into the restaurant, running over Lori, then Lincoln & Clyde appears)

Clyde: Wow, really?! Now we'll never have to stop working!

Robo Blaze: Open 24 hours? Are you sure that's a good idea?

Lynn Sr.: If it's a good way to get in some extra money I'm not complaining. Besides Lincoln and Clyde seem to like it.

Nico: It'll be cool to see what a restaurant is like in the night and into the early morning hours.

Me: It sure will.

Lori: Dad, I think this literally goes against Labor Laws.

Mr. Krabs: Lori's right. That was one of the reasons I got arrested the first time.

Lynn Sr.: Really?

Mr. Krabs: Aye lad. It's true.

Me: He's right. But lets give it 1 day to see how it turns out.

Nico: I agree. And even though it's my turn to lead, lets give it one day to see how it turns out.

Me: Agreed.

Lynn Sr.: See you in the morning everyone! I can't stay here all night, I got a date with your mother tonight! Haha! (leaves the restaurant)

Lori: But Dad… !

Lincoln - Come on, Lori! It's gonna be fun! We'll have a chance to practice what we've learned from watching Dad and his friends at work!

Clyde: And if we do a really good job, he might pay us extra! Now then, are you ready to rock, Lori my love?!

Lori: No.

Clyde: Good! Because we got customers!

Unknown to Lynn Sr., Lincoln and Lori had created two shadow clones to do the shifts, and they also alerted us about it, and we came here to Lynn's Table.

Me: I can't believe that your dad wanted you guys to work 24 hours a day at the restaurant.

Nico: That's not good. Remember what happened last time?

Lincoln: Yeah, and it was the fault of Flip's brother, Flop, and let's not forget Ophelia Shroud who tried to use this to her evil advantage to get Dad's recipe book and the secret of Lisa's inventions, so she'll take over the world. Which reminds me, I think it's time we put Ophelia Shroud out of business for good.

Lincoln snapped his fingers and made Ophelia Shroud appear, and she was bound with the Chains of Torment fired by McWolf, who was called here by Lincoln. Then, Lincoln sprouted a tail with a large suction cup proboscis, and once it attached right onto Ophelia's head, he began sucking out all of the information from Ophelia's brain. After a few hours, Lincoln sucked out and absorbed all of the vital information from Ophelia's head, and his tail detached itself from her head.

We also found out that after Ophelia's restaurant, The Pasta Bowl, was closed down after the entire Grease Buffoons incident, we found out that she bribed the health inspector and got it open again, and that caused Lincoln to report it to the police. Once the information was delivered, Sheila Castille and Tom Lair arrested Ophelia Shroud, and when they saw all of Ophelia's plans and Lincoln explains the details, Ophelia Shroud's time was up.

She was convicted for the same crimes that would've put Plankton to shame, and she was sentenced to The Neptune Cryoprison for all eternity, she was immediately frozen and was put in a door-less cell in Solitary Confinement, and The Pasta Bowl was demolished forever. Ophelia Shroud was condemned to a fate worse than death in her imprisonment, she would be hated forever and once she dies, she'll be forgotten.

Lori: Nice work, bro. But, what brought on your choice?

Lincoln: I remembered what Lisa explained to Nico about Ophelia Shroud, and if this obsession about getting Dad's recipe book, along with getting the secret of Lisa's inventions for world domination had continued on, she would be completely deranged and so out of control, she'd be an bigger danger to Gotham Royal York than Plankton.

Lily: I see, and you're right, Linc. Plankton was a nightmare to Bikini Bottom, and now, he's nothing more than a forgotten memory.

McWolf: And after what Electro told me what happened, let's just say that I'm glad he gave that mad genius that shock therapy treatment. I just wish I had a picture of it.

Nico: Actually, McWolf, I got just what you were asking for. Get ready to laugh your heads off.

Nico got out the picture and when he showed it to McWolf, he laughed hysterically, and when the rest of us saw it, we also laughed our pants off.

Lori: (Laughing Hysterically) Oh man, that was literally hilarious. Nice job getting that photo, Nico. I can't stop laughing, that was so hilarious.

Lily: (Laughing Hysterically) Just imagine if everyone in Gotham Royal York saw it, they'll laugh their heads off.

We ceased laughing.

Lincoln: Okay, that aside, when this is over, we're going to have a talk with Dad about this.

Lori: You're right, bro. Dad can't do any of those sorts of things, or he'll turn into Mr. Krabs before he changed his ways.

Lily: And that's something that we don't want.

Nico: Amen, Lily.

Me: Amen to that.

(Lincoln & Clyde runs into the kitchen while Lori stands behind the cash register)

(Lincoln & Clyde chopping lettuces)

Clyde: Hey Lori! We're chopping lettuce! At night!

(Lincoln & Clyde scrubbing down the bathroom)

Lincoln: Look at us swapping the bathroom! At night!

(Clyde accidentally touches the hot stove with his hand)

Clyde: AAH! I burned my hand! At night. (hand sizzles)

OUCH!

Lincoln: I'll go get the first aid kit.

(45 minutes later…)

Shiv: Can we at least eat the food from here?

Nico: Absolute Shiv.

Me: You are always hungry huh?

Shiv: I got a big appetite.

Lincoln and Clyde: 🎵 Night night night night! Night night night night! Night night night night! DA DA DA DA DA DA! NIGHT!🎵

Lori: Will you two please?! (hands Lincoln a bag of garbage) Here! Give me a moment's peace and take out the trash.

Lincoln: All right!

Lincoln and Clyde: Taking out the trash! Taking out the trash! At N-

(Lincoln & Clyde stops at the door and sees the dumpster outside across the street in the dark)

Lincoln: (nervous) You mean out there?

Lori: That's where the dumpster is, yes.

Clyde: (nervous) I don't know, Lori… It looks awfully dark out there.

Lori: Aw, what's the matter, Clyde? I thought you and Lincoln liked the night shift.

Me: Lori now is not the time for your mischief.

Lori: Sorry.

Syd Chang: Besides, you can do it Clyde.

Earth: Same here Linky.

Clyde: You're right! (to Lincoln) Let's do this for Lynn's Table!

Lincoln: Yeah! For Lynn's Table! And for our girls!

Lincoln & Clyde frantically runs outside with the trash bag towards the dumpster and back to the restaurant while screaming, then after they return, Clyde breathes in & out of a paper bag while Lincoln catches his breath.

Clyde: (Snaps fingers) Piece of cake.

Me: At least they got that done.

Lori: So you're not afraid? 😏

(Lincoln & Clyde heading towards the kitchen)

Lincoln: Us? Afraid? 😅

Clyde: No way! 😅

Me: Why would they be Lori?

Lori: Well I am afraid. Especially after the… (gulps) Well… You know. 😥

(Lincoln & Clyde stops and turns towards Lori)

Lincoln: What? What do we know?

Lori: You don't remember? It was literally all over the news!

Me: What news?

Eli: Yeah tell us.

Clyde: Tell us! Tell us!

Lori: No no no. I probably shouldn't. It would literally ruin your night shift… 😰😏

Lincoln and Clyde: (excited) What happened?! What happened?! What happened?!

Lori: You mean you both have never heard the story about the…

Uh… Hash Slinging Slasher?

Lincoln: Wait… The sash bringing hasher?

Lori: The Hash Slinging Slasher!

Lincoln: The bash singing…?

Clyde: The trash bringing…?

Lincoln: The flash ringing…?

Clyde: Dinging…?

Lincoln: Pinging…?

Clyde: Singing…? Uh…

Lori:… Yes. The Hash Slinging Slasher. But, most people would call him the Hash- (gasps) Because that's all they got time to say before he… Gets them!

Lincoln and Clyde: (gasps) Tell us the story! 😱

Lori: Years ago, at this very restaurant before it was even called Lynn's Table, The Hash Slinging Slasher used to be a part time worker just like you two. Except he was clumsier!

Lincoln and Clyde: (GULPS)

Lori: And then one night, when he was cutting the patty, something bad happens.

Lincoln: He forgot the secret sauce?

Lori: No.

Clyde: He didn't wash his hands?

Lori: No.

Lincoln: He used irregular portions?

Lori: No! He chopped off his own hand by mistake!

Me: YIKES!

Nico: That must've really hurt!

Clyde: His own hand?! Was he able to save it and reattach it?!

Lori: The injury was so severe that he was unable to save it! So it never was reattached

Lincoln and Clyde: OH NO! 😰😭

Lori: He then replaced his own hand with a rusty spatula. And then… He got hit by a bus! Then, at his funeral, they literally fired him! So now, every… What day is it?

Lincoln: Tuesday.

Lori: Tuesday night, the ghost of The Hash Slinging Slasher will come to this restaurant to wreak his horrible vengeance.

Me: So he's a Supernatural Disgruntled and Vengeful Employee.

Lori: Exactly.

Clyde: (gasps) But tonight's Tuesday night!

Lori: Then he might show up…

Eli: (GULPS)

Clyde: I'm scared to ask, but how will we know?

Lori: There are three signs that signals The Hash Slinging Slasher's arrival. First, the lights will flicker on and off! And then…

Rusty: Lori, Can I have some ketchup pleaee?

Lori: Oh, here you go Rusty. (hands Rusty a pack of ketchup) Secondly, the phone will ring… And there will be nobody there! And lastly… The Hash Slinging Slasher will arrive on the ghost of the same bus that literally ran him over!

Lincoln and Clyde: (biting their nails, scared)

Lori: And then, he exits the bus, without looking both ways… Because he's already DEAD!

Lincoln and Clyde (munching on popcorn, scared)

Lori: Finally, The Hash Slinging Slasher uses the spatula for a hand to open the door! (imitates the sound of an opening door) And then, he slowly… Approaches… The counter!

Lincoln and Clyde - 😰 (gulps)

Applejack and Rarity were hugging and shivering in fright. Same with Ino and Sakura.

Lori: And you know what he did next?

Lincoln: What?

Lori: Do you really want to know?

Clyde: What?!

Lori: You really really want to know?

Lincoln and Clyde: What?! What?! What did he do?!

Lori: He kills you! (pokes Lincoln & Clyde from behind)

Lincoln and Clyde: (screams)

Me: (SCREAMS)

Nico: (SCREAMS)

Eli: (SCREAMS)

Shaggy: (SCREAMS)

Scooby: RIKES!

Lori: laughs hysterically 😂

Lincoln: (stops screaming and starts laughing) Oh you sure got me good, Lori! Great story! 😂

Lori: Thanks Lincoln! I try! 😂

Me: (Pants in relief) That was a good ghost story Lori!

(Lincoln & Lori stops laughing after a while. However, Clyde is still screaming)

Lori: Uh, Clyde?

Clyde: (screaming)

Lincoln - Hey, Clyde?

Clyde: (still screaming)

Lori: Clyde, I was just…

Clyde: (still screaming)

Lincoln: Clyde, Lori was just…

Clyde: (still screaming)

Lori: Clyde! I was just kidding!

Clyde: (stops screaming) What?!

Lori: It's okay! Everything that I just said wasn't true!

Clyde: It's not?!

Lori: Of course not, silly! Who would have a spatula for a hand anyways?

Clyde: Oh. Phew! That's a relief! I'll have to admit, that story sure scared the daylights out of me! Thanks for telling it to us, Lori!

Lori: (chuckles You're welcome, Clyde. Glad you guys enjoyed it! 😉

Clyde: Come on, Lincoln! Let's get back to work!

Lincoln: You got it, buddy!

Me: That was a great story Lori.

(Lincoln, Clyde & Lori continued to work the night shift from that point on. Transitions to 3am. Clyde is resting on Lori's lap as she is reading her book. Suddenly, Lori hears dripping noises. She doesn't know where the sound was coming from. It turns out it was Lincoln cleaning the ceiling with a sponge and he was using the suction parts of toilet plungers for his feet.)

Lincoln: Isn't it great, Lori?

Lori: AAH!

Lincoln: There's never time to clean the ceilings & walls during the daytime hours!

Lynn: (bored) I'd rather be fighting Mr. Mind's gang than doing this. I mean, who wants to eat from here at 3 in the morning?

Lori: (moan) Open for 24 hours a day… What a joke! Who would want Dad's food at 3 in the morning?!

(At the World Tree Estate)

Leni's Alarm Clock goes off.

Leni: (wakes up) Yay! 3 AM! (munches on Lynnsagna)

Ed: Can I have some Leni?

Leni: Sure Ed.

He shared with her.

Sonata Dusk: I love eating this late at night.

She was eating some tacos.

Patrick: Oh boy 3 AM!

He ate a Krabby Patty.

(Back to Lynn's Dinner Table)

Lola: Seriously, if Mr. Mind's gang wants to attack us, they can do so right now so this won't be boring!

Me: Lola don't encourage them.

Lori: Just look at this place! It's literally a ghost town in here!

Me: It's 3:00 in the morning Lori. What did you expect? Besides everyone is asleep but us.

(The lights start flickering on & off)

Me: Uh oh.

Lori: Very funny, Lincoln.

Lincoln: What? (Flies down from the ceiling)

Lori: And the lights will flicker on and off. Just like from the story.

(Lori then looks at the light switch next to her & Clyde, and sees that it's not moving as the lights continues to flicker on and off)

Me: Lincoln's not even doing anything.

Lincoln: Hey Lori, how are you doing that without touching the switch?

Lori: I'm not doing it! It must be the faulty wiring! This place literally isn't built to run 24 hours a day!

Me: This place did have bad wiring when Mr. Lynn bought it.

Laney: (Tired) Yeah it sure did.

Electro: Lori, that story was real, wasn't it?

Lori: No it wasn't.

(Phone starts ringing)

Clyde: AAH! (bumps his head on the counter) Ouch!

Lori: Sorry, Clyde. (rubs Clyde's head as she answers the phone) Lynn's Table. Hello? Hello?

(No answer…)

Me: Must've gotten the wrong number.

Eli: Who in the world would call this late at night?

Lincoln: Nice try, Lori.

Lori: Nice try what?

Lincoln: "The phone will ring, and there will be nobody there! (laughs) You sure know how to crack me up!

Me: Probably just a dumb prank caller. No offense to Bart and Luan.

Lori: Lincoln, guys I'm not doing this! (hangs up the phone Okay, calm down, Lori… What was it? First, it was the lights…

(Lights flicker on and off)

Lori: And then the phone…

(Phone ringing)

Lori: And the walls ooze green slime! Oh wait, that always happens.

Me: We got to find that problem and fix it.

Lori: But what was the third thing?

(The bus then arrives in front of the restaurant)

Eli: Why is there a bus here this late at night?

Clyde: (yawns) That was a good power nap. Oh wow! I didn't know the buses ran this late!

Lori: They don't…

Me: I've got a bad feeling about this.

Lincoln - Well, they're dropping someone off.

(The bus then leaves and reveals a scary shadow figure with evil glowing red eyes representing The Hash Slinging Slasher who then raises a spatula for a hand)

Lori:
AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHH
THE SASH BRINGING… ! THE TRASH PINGING… THE DASH…
S-SINGING… !

Lincoln and Clyde - The Hash Slinging Slasher! (starts crying) 😭

Lori: Oh finally you guys understand! We're literally doomed!

Clyde: (crying) No… That's not it…

Lincoln: (crying) We're just so touched that you would go through the trouble of dressing up as a ghostly employee and showing up just to entertain us.

Clyde: (crying) You must really love us! 😭

Lori: (frightened) Lincoln, Clyde, there are three problems with what you just said. One, Clyde, I don't love you. Two, I'm already married. And three, Lincoln, how can that be me if I'm literally standing right here?!

(The shadow figure taps on the glass door)

Lincoln and Clyde: (screaming)

Lori, Lincoln and Clyde: THE HASH SLINGING SLASHER!

We got ready and stood in position.

(The shadow figure opens the door with a spatula and approaches the counter as Lori, Clyde & Lincoln begs and pleads for it to get away from them)

Dark just turned into Crystal Freak.

Crystal Freak: (about to shoot diamond shards) You back off or I'll stab you with diamond shards!

Me: YEAH! YOU COME ANYWHERE NEAR US AND WE'LL SEND YOU BACK TO HELL!

Nico and Eli had guns and lightsabers ready!

Lori: (scared & crying) Clyde… No matter what I've said… I always sort of liked you! And Lincoln… You're literally the best brother anyone can ever ask for! You all are literally the most amazing friends ever.

Clyde: (scared & crying) Th-th-thanks, Lori… !

Lincoln: (scared & crying) Lori, I used your curling iron to unclog the toilet!

Lori: Wait, what?!

Applejack: Lets get this sidewinder!

(The shadow figure approaches towards the light revealing that it's Chaz holding a spatula in his hand. Lori, Lincoln & Clyde stops screaming and we all stood down)

Me: Chaz?

Chaz: Hey guys.

Eli: What are you doing here this late at night?

Chaz: I wanted to come by and see if I can get a job application I brought my own spatula! I called earlier, but I hung up because I was nervous…

Me: Well that's all right. But Chaz you really scared us.

Chaz: Sorry guys.

Lori: Wait a second! If that was you on the phone and on the bus, then who was flickering the lights?

(The lights start flickering again. We all looked at who was doing it. It was Lucy in the corner playing with the light switch)

All - Lucy Loud! 😊

Lucy Loud: Sorry guys.

Maria: Lincoln, did you really use Lori's curling iron to unclog the toilet?

Lincoln: Yeah I'm sorry but I was just so scared that I just had to get that out.

Lori: Oh that's all right Lincoln. But that curling iron was broken anyway.

Lincoln: Good.

Me: That's a relief. But we need to tell Mr. Lynn that this is not all right. Being open 24/7 is not good.

Lincoln: You're right J.D.

Laney: Especially after what happened with Lincoln and Lori when they were forced to work for 43 days straight.

Electro: I remember that. That was nuts.

Applejack: Right you told me all about that and that must've been awful.

Me: You have no idea Applejack.

Firefly: (to Chaz) Dude, do you know that we were very close to killing you?

Chaz: Let me guess, Lori told Lincoln and Clyde the Hash-Slinging Slasher story.

Me: Yeah how did you know that?

Chaz: I was told that same story myself and another one of my friends was mistooken for it.

Me: Very coincidental.

Nico: Yeah that sure was.

May: So, Chaz. How've you been doing these days?

Chaz: Doing really well May. Me and Leni's Liquid self are perfect for each other.

Me: I always knew you two had something special.

Then we saw the sun rising.

Me: Morning already. Wow.

Nico: Time sure flew huh?

I looked at my watch and it was 6:57 AM.

Me: Wow time really flew fast. Mr. Lynn will be here in 1 hour so we'll talk to him.

Eli: First lets get you girls and guys some coffee.

Nico: Good idea and then after breakfast when he gets here we can talk to him.

Laney: Good idea.

Snake: Dude, I could use some coffee myself.

Nico: Well I'm making plenty for us.

Nico made us a lot of coffee.

We had a good breakfast and then we heard Lynn Loud Sr. humming Drunken Sailor.

Lynn Sr. came in and he saw us and we were looking at him with disappointed looks and some of us even had bags in our eyes.

Lynn Sr.: Morning guys.

Me: Morning Mr. Lynn. Sorry you have to see us all crabby and everything. Uh no pun intended Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: No worries lad.

Me: We need to have a little talk.

Lynn Sr: So, how was the night shift?

Nico: Never. Again!

Me: Nico calm down. It was tiring. And as you saw Nico is cranky and tired. But that's another thing we need to talk to you about.

Lincoln: Dad, I don't know if I told you about this but remember how you hired Flip's brother Flop when you were gone for a month and a half on that food convention trip?

Lynn Sr.: Yeah I sure do son. Why?

Lincoln: Well Flop made us work non-stop for 43 days without any breaks and we were so tired.

Lincoln and Lori went over what happened during that time and it was horrible.

After that little scare at the restaurant, we got back home, and as soon as Lincoln told his mom about what Lynn Sr. did, she wasn't happy. We gathered at the parents' bedroom, and we were there to talk to him about his little 24-hours-a-day stunt at the restaurant.

Rita: Lynn, Lincoln told me about what you did. I thought you weren't going to keep the restaurant open for 24 hours. Don't you remember what happened last time?

Lynn Sr.: (Sighs) You're right, I forgot about what happened last time, It was because of Flop, Flip's brother, that he drove Lincoln and Lori right up to the point of restlessness, because of my constant competitive nature with that evil little monster, Ophelia Shroud, who's now the most hated person in Gotham Royal York after Lincoln exposed her for the evil mad genius that she is.

Me: And I think I know why you did that: you got bit by the fame bug, and you listened to the advice of a customer who doesn't care if it's closing time.

Lynn Sr.: I can't believe that this happened, can you guys forgive me?

We saw that Lynn Sr. was now regretting his mistake, and we went up to him and we hugged him in a big embrace.

Lincoln: Dad, don't beat yourself up over it. But, next time, don't take the advice of those who want the restaurant to remain open 24 hours a day.

Lynn Sr.: You're right, champ. Next time, I'm not taking the advice of those who want the restaurant to remain open 24 hours a day, it's way too dangerous for the health of my own kids. (Smiles) But, I got to admit, that plan you and Lori had to create the clones was genius. You sure got your old man good.

Lincoln: (Smiles) Thanks, Dad.

Lori: (Smiles) And I literally have to agree with Dad, Linky. Your planning has been getting better and more improved. You've proved more than once why you're called "The Man with A Plan".

Lincoln gently picked Lori up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he hugged her, and she returned the hug by wrapping her arms around his neck. He also made clones of himself, and they did the same thing with Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn, Lena, Lee, Lyra, Liberty, Laney, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Lisa, Lily, Lynn Sr., Rita, Eli, me, Nico, and another clone gently picked his sleeping baby bro, Leo, up, and kissed him on the head, and laid him to sleep in his crib, and disappeared.

Lori: (Thinking to herself) So, this is what the girls in his harem felt when he meets them. I admit, he gives some pretty good hugs. But, around the girls in his harem, he follows that up with a passionate kiss, which the girls also return with equal intense passion.

But, Lori wasn't the only one who thought that, her other siblings and parents had the same thought, and after the hug, they gently put them down, and the clones disappeared.

Lynn Sr.: And I won't do the same things that got Mr. Krabs sent to prison. (To Mr. Krabs) No offense, Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: That's alright, lad. But, I'm glad you learned your lesson.

Squidward: He's right, you don't want to turn into a cheapskate, right?

Lynn Sr.: No way is that ever going to happen. I'm not only a manager of a successful restaurant, but I'm also a father of my eighteen kids, and I'm not going to let success turn me into a cheapskate and I'm not going to get bit by the fame bug.

Me: Good for you.

We then got some sleep.

THE END.

Another awesome fanfic done.

Graveyard shift is one of my favorite episodes of SpongeBob Squarepants and it was so funny how SpongeBob and Squidward were at the Krusty Krab during the shift. But it was scary hearing about the Hash-Slinging Slasher which was awesome. The episode aired on September 6th, 2002 and it was so funny. The first part of the chapter was for the movie Dungeons & Dragons 3: The Book of Vile Darkness and that was the scariest version of the series. The second part was for the 2018 movie and book series Mortal Engines and that was a really awesome series. Never saw the movie and book but it looked amazing and cool. Those moving cities are so cool! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be in the world of Flushed Away and me and the Regice Gene-Slammer are going to meet a Gremlin named Rem and she will have a Dugtrio Gene-Slammer named Lola Kirschkov from Poland. Lincoln's rescue will be in the world of the 1957 movie

The Deadly Mantis and that is gonna be interesting to see. I hope you are ready for something crazy because we're going to be facing a terrible disease. But this disease comes from another planet and we're going to meet the aliens that Courage and Muriel helped out in the episode of Courage The Cowardly Dog called Courageous Cure and we're going to help these aliens get cured from a disease that is causing them to beat themselves up uncontrollably.

See you all tomorrow.

Courageous Cure

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM

A massive fiery explosion appeared In a sewer system and the spirits of W.I.T.C.H. and the Winx Club were spiraling around it and then a phoenix cry was heard as the spirits converged and then me and Sheila Jones the Regice Gene-Slammer were in a really great land.

Sheila Jones: (grossed out) (Australian Accent) Oh, this is gross! Don't tell me we're in some kind of toilet!

In spite of her disgust, Sheila concentrated and groaned as she began to feel cold.

Me: BRR! I'll have to get used to you emitting powerful cold every time you change Sheila. But I hate to say it but I'm afraid we're in the sewers.

She turned into Regice!

Me: YEAH!

Sheila Regice: This is more something of Lana's department mate.

Me: I know but I know this scenario. We're in the world of Flushed Away!

Roddy St. James is an upper class pet rat who makes his home in a posh Kensington flat. While his owners are gone on holiday, a common sewer rat named Sid comes spewing out of the sink and decides to stay, especially as England are playing against Germany in the World Cup Final. Roddy schemes to get rid of Sid by luring him into the toilet, but the latter is not fooled. Instead, Sid pushes Roddy in and flushes him away into the sewers.

Roddy finds himself in Ratropolis, a city made out of various bits of junk that resembles London, and meets Rita Malone, an enterprising scavenger rat who works the drains in her faithful boat, the Jammy Dodger. Rita is irritated by Roddy initially but ends up taking him along. Her archenemy the Toad sends his rat henchmen, Spike and Whitey, after her for stealing back her father's prized ruby. The Toad loathes all rodents, and plans to have Roddy and Rita frozen with liquid nitrogen. The pair escape and Rita takes a unique electrical cable that is required to control the sewer's floodgates.

Roddy discovers that the ruby is a fake and breaks it in front of Rita. Furious, Rita tries to fight Roddy, but eventually calms down and explains that she is only angry because her father (quite literally) broke every bone in his body trying to obtain it just for her only for her to find out about its worthlessness. Roddy offers Rita a real ruby if she takes him back to Kensington, to which she agrees, and the pair first stop to visit her family before setting off. During Roddy's stay, he overhears a conversation that causes him to think that Rita is selling him to the Toad, so he reneges on the deal and steals the Jammy Dodger. When Rita catches up to him, she is able to clear up the misunderstanding. The pair evade pursuit from Spike, Whitey, and their accomplices, and incensed at his minions' repeated failures, the Toad sends for his French cousin, known as Le Frog. It is revealed that the Toad was Prince Charles' favorite childhood pet until he was abruptly replaced by a pet rat and subsequently flushed down a toilet, resulting in his hatred of rodents. Le Frog and his subordinates intercept Roddy and Rita to retrieve the cable, but the duo manages to escape out of the sewer and back to Roddy's home, though the Jammy Dodger is destroyed.

Roddy pays Rita the promised ruby and an emerald then shows her around his house. She at first believes he has family in the home, but notices his cage and realizes he is a pet. Rita tries to persuade Roddy to come with her, but he is too proud to admit that he is lonely. She departs, but is soon captured by the Toad. Talking to Sid about half-time, Roddy pieces together the Toad's plan: to open the gates during halftime of the World Cup, when all the humans will most likely be using their toilets. As a result, a great wave of sewage will form and flood Ratropolis, allowing the Toad to use the depopulated city as a home for his tadpole children. Roddy entrusts

Sid with his home and cushy position, and has Sid flush him back down the sewers. He frees Rita, and together they defeat the Toad and his henchmen and freeze the wave of sewage with his liquid nitrogen. Roddy later joins Rita as a first mate of the Jammy Dodger II. As they set off in the new boat, Le Frog and his hench-frogs are seen hitchhiking back to France. In a mid-credits scene, Roddy's original owner Tabitha brings a new pet cat to surprise him, much to Sid's horror, who was enjoying the luxuries in Roddy's place.

---

Sheila Regice: That's one of my favorite movies! We must be here to defeat The Toad.

Me: I have that same feeling too. This is gonna be awesome!

Sheila Regice: It sure is.

The Toad is the main antagonist of DreamWorks' thirteenth full-length animated feature film Flushed Away, which is also Aardman's third feature film. He is the leader and boss of his henchrats, Spike and Whitey, and his younger cousin Le Frog, and Roddy and Rita's archenemy.

Prior to his hatred for rodents, the Toad had a fun life with his owner Prince Charles, until he was flushed away down the sewers, like Roddy, by a palace servant after Charles got a pet rat.

He was voiced by Ian McKellen, who also played Magneto in the X-Men movie series (which also starred Hugh Jackman), Horatio P. Huntington in Animal Crackers, Kurt Dussander in Apt Pupil, and Sir Leigh Teabing in The Da Vinci Code .

Past

Of all of the pets in the Buckingham Palace, Young Prince Charles fancied the Toad the best and became attached to him. They would frolic day-after-sunny-day, sharing the relationship between boy and toad.

However, when Charles got a new pet rat for his birthday, he and the Toad were separated.

One day, at a play, as Charles was playing with the rat, one of the guards found the Toad backstage and cruelly flushed him down the toilet (which the Toad calls a "whirlpool of despair").

Since then, the Toad despises all rodents. The Toad's deep hatred for rats motivates his evil plan for the sewer which will wash away the rats in a Great Flood and repopulate the sewer with an army of his tadpole offspring.

Flushed Away

The Toad serves as the boss of the following henchrats: Spike, Whitey, Thimblenose Ted, Fat Barry, and the Ladykiller. He owned a ruby, which was stolen from him by a rat named Rita Malone. The Toad sent Spike and Whitey to retrieve it.

Spike and Whitey capture Rita and another rat named Roddy St. James and bring them to The Toad. After Roddy explains that he needs to return to Kensington. The Toad called Roddy "A Man of Quality" then provides him his royal collection. Roddy found it to be "amusing", in which the Toad thought he would find it as "diverging, not amusing." Roddy then accidentally destroys his collection, which makes the Toad blow a gasket, ordering Spike and Whitey to freeze him. The Toad then reacts angrily when Spike and Whitey were frozen instead and when Rita insulted him and unplugged the master cable.

The Toad gave up on getting the ruby so he could get the cable and ordered his cousin Le Frog to do it after Spike and Whitey failed to do so. Le Frog gets the cable back, and it was revealed that The Toad needed the cable so he could use it to open the floodgates during halftime of the England vs. Germany football game and use the wave from all the flushing toilets to flush all of Ratropolis away.

Roddy returned to the sewers and stopped The Toad by making him get stuck on the pipe with liquid nitrogen in it and get his tongue caught in the gears so the pipe would break, releasing the liquid nitrogen on the wave and freezing it so Ratropolis would be saved.

After this, The Toad got stuck in the gears with Le Frog, and was most likely freed and taken into custody. However, Le Frog somehow escaped as it was shown towards the end of the film.

* * *

We flew to find the Toad and we met a Gremlin named Rem and we also met a Dugtrio Gene-Slammer named Lola Kirschkov. We fired energy and element blasts and blew the Toad to pieces. I then put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Lola reverted back and she was naked. Sheila reverted back too.

Sheila was human again. But naked.

Sheila Jones: (covers herself) Looks like we're having frog legs for lunch!

Lola Kirschkov: (Covers herself) (Laughs) That's true.

I gave Sheila and Lola new clothes and they put them on.

Rem: That sure was awesome though.

Me: It sure was.

We then went home.

After putting down the Toad and his amphibian minions, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, and Ariel were heading to the world of the 1957 movie The Deadly Mantis, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the nine girls located here, but we're also going to destroy the giant mantis.

* * *

In the South Seas, a volcano explodes, eventually causing North Pole icebergs to shift. Below the melting polar ice caps, a 200-foot-long praying mantis, trapped in the ice for millions of years, begins to stir. Soon after, the military personnel at Red Eagle One, a military station in northern Canada that monitors information gathered from the Distant Early Warning Line, realize that the men at one of their outposts are not responding to calls. Commanding officer Col. Joe Parkman (Craig Stevens) flies there to investigate, and finds the post destroyed, its men gone, and giant slashes left in the snow outside.

When a radar blip is sighted, Joe sends his pilots out to investigate, but their intended target disappears. Soon an Air Force plane is attacked by the deadly mantis. He searches the wreckage, and this time, in addition to the huge slashes, finds a five-foot-long pointed object in the snow. He takes it to General Mark Ford (Donald Randolph) at the Continental Air Defense (CONAD) in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Ford gathers top scientists, including Professor Anton Gunther (Florenz Ames ), to examine the object, but when they cannot identify it, Gunther recommends calling in Dr. Nedrick Jackson (William Hopper), a paleontologist at the Museum of Natural History.

When Ned gets the call from Ford, he is helping museum magazine editor Marge Blaine (Alix Talton) plan her next issue, and dodges her questions as she begs him for a big scoop. Later, after examining the object, Ned recognizes it as a torn-off spur from an insect's leg, and soon guesses, from evidence that the creature ate human flesh, that it must be a gigantic praying mantis. Meanwhile, in the Arctic, the people of an Inuit village spot the mantis in the sky, and although they hurry to their boats to escape, it swoops down and kills several men.

Ned is sent to Red Eagle One to investigate further, and upon leaving, discovers that Marge has managed to get permission to accompany him as his photographer. They reach the base, where all the men, including Joe, are smitten by Marge.

That night, Marge and Joe join Ned in his office and discuss the creature, not realizing that it is drawing close to the office window. Marge suddenly catches sight of it and screams, and the bug attacks the building. Although the full unit opens fire on the mantis with automatic rifles and a flame-thrower, it is unscathed and moves away only after aircraft encircle it.

Hours later, the base remains on red alert, but they finally hear that the bug has attacked a boat off the Canadian coast, which means, Ned calculates, that it is flying at a speed of 200 miles an hour. Ford calls a press conference to announce the bug's existence, and asks the Ground Observer Corps to track its whereabouts.

Over the next few days, Ned, Marge and Joe track the bug's progress with the help of military and civilian observers. Late one night, Joe drives Marge home, stopping briefly to ask for, and receive, a kiss. They are distracted by a report of a nearby train wreck, and although they assume it to be an ordinary accident, soon after, a woman leaving a bus sees the mantis, and all emergency personnel are put on alert. The mantis is then sighted in Washington, D.C., atop the Washington Monument.

Joe is one of the pilots who attempt to drive the mantis toward the sea, but a dense fog throws him off course, and he flies directly into it. As the wounded mantis drops to the ground and crawls into the Manhattan Tunnel, Joe safely parachutes to the ground.

Ford leads a team that seals off the tunnel, filling it with smoke to provide cover for Joe and his special unit of men, who enter the tunnel armed with rifles and three chemical bombs. They creep past wrecked cars until suddenly the bug appears in the fog only a few yards ahead of them. They shoot at it, but it lumbers on, forcing them backward. The mantis seems immune to the ammunition and the first chemical bombs until, only feet from the tunnel entrance, Joe throws a bomb in its face, and it collapses, dead.

Later, Ford, Ned, Joe and Marge enter the tunnel to examine the bug. Marge photographs its face while the men walk around its side, but Joe suddenly sees the mantis' arm move, and runs to protect Marge. Although Ned explains that the bug's movement was merely an autonomic reflex, Joe takes the opportunity to pull Marge into an embrace.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 1957 movie The Deadly Mantis, and I think I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the nine girls located here, but we're also going to destroy the giant mantis.

Me: That's right, big guy. I saw this movie long ago with my dad, and that was one bizarre monster movie.

Nico: And that giant mantis was frozen inside a block of ice until the volcano erupted, and freed it from its icy prison, causing havoc in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Eli: That thing's going to get chopped down to size.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of nine girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the nine girls sighted here, but they were about to be stomped on by The Giant Praying Mantis.

Lincoln: I found the girls, but they've been cornered by that giant mantis, and it's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over, and Lincoln unholstered his massive Sword of Taranis from his wide muscular back, and he'd transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he fired a massive barrage of neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the core, elemental forces, and super lightning from his hands and massive neon blue angel wings, and very powerful, one-handed slashes from his massive blade, which hits The Giant Mantis, cutting it to shreds and exploding with incredible power, killing it for good. He holstered his blade on his back, and powered down.

Everyone in Colorado Springs was okay, and the martial law had ended. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went to the nine girls sighted here, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them. The nine girls were Saki Tsuzura, Kamui Tokinomiya, Maori Kasuga, Petra Johanna Lagerkvist, and Catherine Kyoubashi from Arcana Heart, Kirino Kousaka and Ruri Gokou from Oreimo, Selvaria Bles from Valkyria Chronicles, and Jacqueline McMadd from Ultimate Muscle.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Saki Tsuzura, Kamui Tokinomiya, Maori

Kasuga, Petra Johanna Lagerkvist, Catherine Kyoubashi, Kirino Kousaka, Ruri Gokou, Selvaria Bles, and Jacqueline McMadd.

Nicole: From Arcana Heart, Oreimo, Valkyria Chronicles, and Ultimate Muscle, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Saki Tsuzura: Yes, we're okay. Thanks for saving us from that giant bug.

Then, when Saki Tsuzura and the other eight girls saw who it was that saved them from The Giant Mantis, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Saki Tsuzura: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eight clones of himself, and he and the eight clones went up to Saki Tsuzura, Kamui Tokinomiya, Maori Kasuga, Petra Johanna Lagerkvist, Catherine Kyoubashi, Kirino Kousaka, Ruri Gokou, Selvaria Bles, and Jacqueline McMadd, and picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Saki Tsuzura: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to the Estate, and the rest of the team saw what Lincoln did to The Giant Mantis, and when Kid Muscle saw that Jacqueline McMadd was among the group of girls that Lincoln rescued from The Giant Mantis, he was happy to see her, and he knew Lincoln gave him his word to look after her and keep her safe.

---

After destroying the Giant Mantis, we were training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading out to help Kei and Yuri deal with Kaia, the leader of the space pirate group, Devil's Syndicate. We also found out that Kei and Yuri's world has merged with our world after Lincoln rescued the girls in the world of Lake Placid.

Lincoln: So, we're going to deal with that space pirate leader, Kaia, right, Kei?

Kei: That's right, Linky. Although we have a lot of enemies to deal with, Kaia has been causing a lot of trouble by trying to go after the mineral prism. He also has romantic interests in me, but I'd never have feelings for one of the most wanted criminals in the galaxy.

Me: You said it.

Nico: The Devil's Syndicate group is nowhere as bad as The Space Pirates led by Ridley, sure they're the most wanted criminals in the galaxy, that's a common thread, but Ridley's also a murderer and a monster.

Eli: That's right, Nico, and he's the same monster that killed Samus' parents, and that's what led to Samus and Ridley being mortal enemies.

We then planned our attack with Lincoln forming a cloud of darkness, and we ambushed and killed a lot of Kaia's men who were onboard. Then, we got into the main part of the ship, and waiting for us is Kaia.

Kaia: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has finally arrived.

Me: That's right, Kaia, and we're here to bring you to justice for good.

Lincoln: J.D., let me, Kei, and Yuri deal with him.

Me: He's all yours, Linc. You and the girls pummel him into the dirt.

Lincoln: You got it, J.D.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, Kei got out her blasters, and Yuri got out her energy whips, and the three of them went after Kaia, and they attacked him with powerful blasts of neon blue energy with orbiting elemental forces around the blue core, laser blasts, and energy lashes from the whips, and they knocked down Kaia, and he was tied up in neon blue energy ropes created by Lincoln.

Kaia: Wait, you're not planning on killing me?

Lincoln: You've constantly tried to go after the mineral prism, but Kei and Yuri have constantly foiled you numerous times. But, killing you, you're not worth killing, so we're going to send you straight to prison for life. Like I said, you're going to be brought to justice, but not killed.

Kaia: Wait, before you beam me to prison, just let me say this to you: take care of Kei and Yuri, Lincoln Loud.

Lincoln: I will, Kaia. You have my word.

After making that promise, Lincoln had beamed Kaia to the Uranus Prison, where he was put into a doorless cell, where he'll remain there for life for his crimes of space piracy in the past. But, Kaia had a smile on his face, he knows that Lincoln will take care of Kei and Yuri, and he knows that Lincoln is a man of his word, and he'll honor his word.

* * *

Later we were at the mall on a shopping spree and for once there were no terrorists to ruin it.

Me: What a great day for a shopping spree at the mall.

Nico: You said it and no terrorists to ruin it.

Laney: That's right.

Our stomachs then growled.

Nico: Time for lunch.

We went to the food court and we saw 4 girls that were clutching their heads.

Me: Uh oh.

We went over.

Poison Ivy: Hey, are you girls okay?

Sheena Nathan: I don't mean to be rude. But could you please leave us alone?

Lori: Um… maybe we should literally do what she says.

Sheena Nathan: Wait a minute. You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Victoria Flemmington: It's an honor to meet you all.

Varie: Pleasure to meet you too.

Sakura Haruno: Lori, why are you so nervous?

Lori: (nervously) Sakura, when someone tells you to leave him or her alone, it means they have anger problems. Take it from me, Lola, and Lynn!

Sakura Haruno: Oh. Yeah.

Nadine Venice: You have to help us. We can control ourselves.

Ruby Nathan: When we got our powers its been really tough controlling them.

Me: We can help you out.

Sheena Nathan: We would like that. Sorry I'm Sheena Nathan.

Victoria Flemmington: I'm Victoria Flemmington.

Nadine Venice: I'm Nadine Venice.

Ruby Nathan: And I'm Sheena's sister Ruby.

Me: Pleasure to meet you 4.

Acid Storm: C'mon! I'm sure your powers aren't that bad.

Sheena then punched Acid Storm in the face with incredible force and sent him smashing into the wall!

CRASH!

Me: WHOA!

Sheena Nathan: Does that answer your question?

Acid Storm: (Stupidly) Mommy please read me the story about Megatron dressed as a bunny.

Nico: Okay we stand corrected.

Eli: Their bodies are having problems adjusting to their powers.

Maria: Wait. You girls are She Hulks?!

Sheena: We sure are.

She-Hulk: Awesome having more She-Hulk's.

Red-She-Hulk: It sure is.

Victoria Flemmington: Same here to meet fellow She-Hulk's too.

Nico: How did you get your powers to become She-Hulks?

Sheena: It's not a pretty sight.

They told us their stories.

Sheena is a radiation chemist and during a test of an atomic bomb in the ocean she got exposed to tremendous levels of radiation and made her into a blue She-Hulk. It was Castle Bravo from 1954 and it mutated her and gave her immortality and eternal youth.

Victoria was given a blood transfusion of Bruce's blood after being in a car accident and it gave her Purple She-Hulk powers.

Nadine is a stripper that was exposed to nuclear radiation from a nuclear power plant accident in Three Mile Island and it mutated her and turned her into Yellow She-Hulk and she has immortality and eternal youth too.

Ruby got her Orange She-Hulk form in a chemical factory accident and it mutated her too and turned her into Orange She-Hulk.

Hulk: Hulk remember helping Victoria.

Me: Whoa! And Castle Bravo happened back 67 years ago.

Allie Wilde: That is amazing.

Eli: Yeah it sure is.

May: (to Nadine) You're not a stripper anymore, are you?

Nadine: Nah. I'm retired.

Then she walked up to me and rubbed her chest against my chest. Rubbing her ample breasts against my chest.

Nadine: (Seductively) But you can always have me as your stripper big boy.

Me: (Blushes atomic red) That's really thoughtful but not in front of Nicole.

Nicole: Watch yourself missy!

G1 Chase: Don't worry. We'll help you girls control your power.

Sheena Nathan: Thank you so much.

Eli: Lets get to work.

We got to work and helped them out with intense training.

It took a while but it worked well for them. The girls can now change at will and control their powers fully now.

Later we were getting ready for another awesome mission.

Octopunch: By the way, J.D., it's your turn to lead today.

Me: Yep and our next mission just came to us.

I stepped to the side and everyone saw 2 aliens and they were half human-like creatures and they had 6 arms for legs. Courage then screamed and he turned inside out!

Muriel: Courage you should really put on your clothes.

Shanan: Whoa you're Rokumbanites.

Captain Lazzo: That is right and it's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I'm Captain Lazzo and this is Jay my Science Officer. We apologize for coming on such short notice. But we need your help.

Me: Of course.

Then Brain Freezer, Man Boy, Diabolico, Riddler, Zexion, Dr. Viktor, Demyx, Heat Wave, Dai Gui the Demon Sorcerer of Earth and Vulture appeared.

Riddler: Riddle me this: can me Brain Freezer, Man Boy, Diabolico, Zexion, Dr. Viktor, Demyx, Heat Wave, Dai Gui, and Vulture go with you all?

Me: You all sure can. Captain Lazzo and Jay here need out help. Can you show us what the problem is?

Captain Lazzo: Follow us.

We went to their ship which was parked right on top of the estate and we went into a room and in a padded cell was another one of their kind but he was orange and he looked like he was beaten to within an inch of his life.

Nico: Good gravy! What the Hell happened to him!?

Jay: This is a disease that he has. Watch as the disease takes hold.

One of his arms lifted and then…

POW!

It punched him in his face and he had green blood dripping from his mouth.

Eli: Ooh! That must've hurt!

Twilight Sparkle: Oh man!

Jay: Poor fella. Nothing he can do to stop it.

SLAP! POINK!

He was slapped across his face and poked in his eye and then punched all over.

Me: It's a disease that causes you to beat yourself up uncontrollably.

Allie Wilde: Oh man. That is one terrible disease.

G1 Venom: How long has this been going on?

Captain Lazzo: A long time I'm afraid. This disease has claimed too many of us back home. Our race is beating itself out of existence.

Varie: That's horrible!

Me: Slapstick Phage.

Phage: Are you talking about me?

Me: No Phage that's the name of the disease that they have. I made it up to fit what this disease does.

Phage: Ah. That makes sense. Good name for it.

Captain Lazzo: That's why we came to Earth. To ask for your help to prevent our race from becoming extinct.

Eustace: Who cares!?

Muriel: Oh you poor things.

Me: I will gladly volunteer to help you out.

Later we got to work.

Heat Wave: Your ship's still going to be flying during all this, right?

Me: Yes it is.

Nico: Great.

We had the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix flying underneath the Rokumbanites ship.

We were in the experiment room.

Nico: Okay we're ready.

Me, Muriel and Eustace were ready for the experiment.

Francesca: Be careful guys.

Me: We'll be fine Francesca.

Captain Lazzo: Begin DNA Transfusion.

Jay: Right.

He pressed a button and plungers with tubes on them came down and popped onto us.

Courage: AAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHH!

Jay slid a green device and green liquid came into down the tubes and was injected into us.

Me: Okay that was unusual.

Nico: Whoa what is that stuff?

Our skin turned green.

Spinister: I don't know about this.

Captain Lazzo: I'm sure my science officer can calm your fears by telling you exactly what is happening. Jay?

Jay: Right.

He went over to us.

Jay: You are being infused with our DNA. So that you can become hybrid beings and develop antibodies to the disease that you just saw that is destroying us. We will then extract the antibodies from you and create a serum that will cure us.

Nico: That seems very simple.

Allie Wilde: I hope it works.

Francesca: That sounds very complex.

Demyx: Is anyone else getting a bad feeling or is it just me?

Bai Tza: It's not just you Demyx. But lets hope this works.

Muriel: I only wanted to be a good neighbor.

Eustace: Next time let the neighbors get extinct and get me my breakfast!

Lana: Eustace now is not the time for your anger!

Jay: The DNA should be taking effect.

Me, Muriel and Eustace were in excruciating pain!

Muriel then sprouted 4 dinosaur tails and spines. The tails grew from her hips and the spines grew from her back. I sprouted 6 tails that looked like Punk Shock's tails and they were surging with lightning. Eustace grew 5 eyes on stalks from the middle of his forehead and his tongue turned snake-like and then I grew 7 eyes on stalks from the middle of my forehead too and then my tongue turned into Toad's tongue!

Nico: JUMPING SHITPILES!

Eli: WHOA! WHAT A CHANGE!

Jay: We have to wait for them to accept our DNA and stabilize.

Muriel grew tree branches from her ears and her neck turned into a spring and then Eustace grew a cows head from his stomach and it mooed.

Varie: Okay THAT is weird.

Dai Gui: No kidding!

Captain Lazzo: Hmm. What happens next?

Muriel screamed and then she grew 6 arms from her hips and so did Eustace and then me.

Me: WHOA! That was painful and rough! Wow! I could do many things at once with this many arms.

Bitstream: This is getting very freaky!

Me: You're telling me Bitstream.

Punk Shock: But that is cool how you have 6 more tails like mine J.D.

Me: It sure is. But these 6 tails are perfect for doing many things all at once.

Jay: Now we administer the disease and then hope for antibodies to form.

Captain Lazzo: How will we know if they form antibodies?

Jay: If they form antibodies, the disease would not affect them. If they don't start beating themselves up, we're saved.

Me: It's worth the risk. All right. Give us your best shot.

Jay pressed a button and then an orange liquid was injected into us and we turned orange.

Nico: Here we go. Get ready guys.

Vulture: Why can't J.D. just cure this disease with his powers?

Varie: Because this disease is not from Earth and we never tried our powers on extraterrestrial diseases like this.

Vulture: That makes sense.

Jay: Now we'll see how they are reacting.

We waited as elevator music was playing. Then 5 seconds later…

POW BIFF BOP BAM POW!

We were being pulverized all over!

Jay: I knew I should have been a telemarketer.

Nico: Help them!

Ren Krawler: Okay, things are really getting out of control here!

Linehalt: You're telling me!

POW! BIFF BOP SMACK THOTH! ZOINK POW BIFF KRACK!

The disease was pulverizing me, Muriel and Eustace into mush and the punches knocked the suction injectors off!

Jay: Look out! Disease juice!

It sprayed Lazzo and Jay!

Nico: Come on guys!

POW BIFF POW WHAP!

Nico and Eli grabbed my extra arms and Varie and Francesca grabbed Muriel's arms and Kalolo and Lori held Eustace's extra arms.

Allie Wilde and Brittney held Lazzo's arms and Ed and Leni held Jay's arms.

Nico: (Groans) Man these arms are strong!

Eli: It's like holding back a rampaging bull!

Varie: (Groans) You're not kidding!

Dai Gui: I'll help you guys restrain J.D.!

Nico: Thanks Dai Gui!

Bai Tza: Hurry Brother!

Dai Gui encased my extra arms in rock mounds.

Nico: That will help. Do the same for Eustace, Muriel, Jay and Lazzo!

Dai Gui: Right!

He did so.

Then Top, Gearhead, Abra Kadabra, Trapster, Ragdoll, Swordsman, Grizzly, Batroc, Shade and The Spot appeared.

Spot: Whoa some action.

Trapster and the rest saw us thrashed all over.

Trapster: GOOD GRIEF!

Ragdoll: WHAT THE HELL HAPPENED TO YOU GUYS!?

Grizzly: Did someone beat you guys up!?

Nico: Actually it was a disease that did this to themselves!

Me: Top, Gearhead, Abra Kadabra, Trapster, Ragdoll, Swordsman, Grizzly, Batroc, Shade and The Spot.

Shade: Are you guys okay?

Me: We will be when this disease is cured.

Ragdoll: What disease is this?

Me: It's a disease that causes you to beat yourself uncontrollably. Beats the living shit out of you. These two aliens over there called upon us to help them look for a cure to save their race from extinction.

Batroc: Oh man!

Sid Arkale: The 10 of you might want to wait patiently.

Rubanoid: This is going to take a while.

Grizzly: Let us help you all out.

Nico: Okay.

Brain Freezer just froze me, Eustace, Muriel, Jay and Lazzo.

Brain Freezer: There. Problem solved!

Me: (Shivering) Except it's too cold!

Nico: Going a little overboard on that.

Brain Freezer: Sorry.

Needlenose: You guys should wait for us in the gym while we solve this mess!

Grizzly: Good idea. We'll meet you there.

They teleported to the gym.

Muriel: Guys it's no use! Save yourself Courage!

Courage: I'm not leaving you!

SPLAT!

An injector hit Courage and he drank some of the disease!

He spit it out.

Courage: YUCK!

Nico: Courage that was the disease!

Courage: OH NO!

He waited for something to happen but surprisingly, nothing did.

Zexion: Shouldn't something be happening to Courage right now?

Eli: I think he's immune!

Captain Lazzo: Jay look! The 4-legged one is immune! Can we get the serum from him?

Jay: First we have to Hybridize him.

Me: Bai Tza get Courage ready.

Bai Tza: Right!

She went over to the machine.

Jay: The big slidy thing.

She pushed the green bar and the injectors poured out the green liquid.

Bai Tza: Courage drink that.

Courage: (Uneasy) Okay!

He did so.

SPLAT! GULP GULP GULP GULP GULP GULP GULP!

Courage: YUCK!

STOMACH GRUMBLE!

Courage then turned into a corn and then…

POP POP POPOPOPOPOPPOPOPOPOPOPOPOPOPPOPOPOPOPOPOPOP!

He was popping like mad!

Then his nose grew longer and then it grew white grass and his ears turned into butterfly wings and then his body turned into a watermelon and then he grew 6 arms!

Nico: WHOA!

Jay: There! You're ready to produce serum!

Eli: Use the sprinkler system up there Courage!

He went to a pipe and pulled it out and stuck the pipe into his watermelon body and then he squeezed himself and then juice flowed out of the sprinklers just as our arms broke free and started beating us up some more!

POW POW POW BIFF BIFF BIFF BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM!

The serum however worked and we stopped beating ourselves up and we breathed a sigh of relief.

Me: (Sighs)

Muriel fell to the floor relieved.

Nico: Whoa that was brutal!

Me: (In pain) Ow.

Billy Gilbert: Courage, how does that taste?

Cycloid: Does it taste like lemonade?

Courage tasted it and it was watermelon juice.

Courage: It's watermelon juice!

Nico: Wow. That was the serum all along.

Eli: Who would've thought.

Me: That was painful. Ouch.

Man Boy: Is it me or is the disease starting to take its own form?

Nico: What do you mean?

We saw the disease juice form into ANANSI!

Me: It formed into Anansi!

Miraculous: Uh oh!

Me: Oh boy!

Flywheels: Anansi's the spider, right?

Alya: Yes and she's also my older sister.

Nico: Uh oh.

Eli: Lets destroy this parasite!

Noah: Time to get rid of this virus!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! SCIENCE PLATOON!

Nico: J.D. you stay with Varie so she can heal you up. We'll handle this.

Me: Okay.

Everyone went and pulverized the fake Anansi all over the place.

POW! BLAM! SMASH! BIFF! THOTH! WHAP! BAM! ZOINK!

Gilda: Have some of this!

She kicked and pulverized the fake Anansi all over.

Ben: Try this! Omnitrix Fusion mode!

Omnitrix: Fusion Mode Activated.

Ben chose Heatblast and Ghostfreak and formed into an Ectonurite and Pyronite Hybrid!

Ben: HEATFREAK!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! Ben that is amazing!

Heatfreak: Thanks.

Shanan: Half Ectonurite and Half Pyronite. So awesome!

He fired a blast of dark energy fire and blasted the Anansi fake down.

Nico: Awesome!

Stocking Anarchy: WHITE LANTERN LIGHT STYLE: DEADMAN!

They fired beams of white energy and elements and they formed into said members of the White Lantern Corps.

Lincoln and his harem: AT END OF NIGHT, AT BREAK OF DAY, ALL FEAR OF DEATH SHALL FADE AWAY. LIFE LONG LOST SHALL SHOW ITS MIGHT, NOW RETURNED WHITE LANTERN'S LIGHT! WHITE LANTERN FINAL SMASH: SHINING LIFE SMASH!

They summoned the Entity of Life to attack and the blasts all hit the fake Anansi and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The fake Anansi was completely obliterated in an instant.

Dr. Viktor: Ok. I think that destroyed her for good!

Nico: Yes it did.

Me: It sure did. Ouch.

We had Watermelon Courage give a jug full of juice to Jay and Captain Lazzo.

Jay: There. That should be enough serum to cure everyone Captain Lazzo.

Me: Who would have thought that watermelon juice would be the antidote.

Eli: Yeah no kidding.

Lazzo tried some and he liked it.

Captain Lazzo: Ahh and it's tasty too.

Me: Very refreshing.

Nico: But man you took one helluva beating J.D. Sorry this happened to you.

Laney: Yeah no kidding.

Jay pulled out a DNA Vacuum and used it on Muriel and Courage and sucked out the DNA that turned them into hybrids and reverted them back.

Jay: Right.

Muriel and Courage reverted back.

I now have the ability to sprout my extra arms and tails and eyes at will. Later we went back to the Estate and went to the gym and got ready for the usual battles.

Top: You guys okay now?

William: Yep. We're fine.

Me: Other than being beaten to a pulp we're okay.

Gearhead: Good. That disease really was brutal.

Abra Kadabra: But thank God it's gone now!

Trapster: (to me) Heard you killed a toad villain today.

Me: Yep.

Batroc: I hope you made him into frog legs! I always like those!

Me: Oh we did and we have plenty for everyone.

Batroc: Great.

?: Boy you guys took a bashing.

A figure came out and it was MOONROID TSUKKI from the Japanese Version of Super Megaforce and from episode 20 of Gokaiger!

---

A gold colored moonrock-based giant produced after Basco's summoned warriors were defeated by the Gokaigers in his attempt to get the Gingamens' greater power failed. It has a rock hard body and uses moon-based attacks. Destroyed by Shinken GokaiOh and GoZyuJin.

---

Orion: You're Moonroid Tsukki of the Japanese version of us.

Moonroid Tsukki: That's right.

Eli: And I remember you! You were sent to stop the Gokaiger's from getting the Gingamen's greater power.

Moonroid Tsukki: That's right Eli. You have an amazing memory just like J.D.

Eli: Thanks.

Maria: It's a real shame that you didn't make the cut for the American Show.

Moonroid Tsukki: I know, right? I had a lot of promise too!

Me: What a ripoff. But yeah.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming, as we felt the ground rumbling.

Samus Aran: Oh no. I was hoping I wouldn't run into it again.

Then, something burst out of the ground, and we saw what it was: it was Flaahgra, another enemy of Samus Aran.

---

Flaahgra is an enormous mutated plant-like creature in Metroid Prime and is the main boss of the Chozo Ruins.

Flaahgra was likely once an ordinary plant, perhaps even a sacred one, as it had the honor of being the Chozo's centerpiece flower in their city's Sunchamber on Tallon IV. However, the destructive Phazon mutated it beyond all recognition, resulting in this monstrous beast.

Flaahgra extended its vile roots to all corners of the Chozo Ruins, and began to secrete a poison which tainted the watersof the Ruins. The water was so toxic and corrosive that it dealt damage to Samus on contact, though it was completely cleansed the instant Flaahgra was defeated.

Battle

Flaahgra begins the battle with one solar panel active. If Samus can disable it with Missiles or Charge Beam shots, she can switch off the Mirror Arrays that give Flaahgra the sunlight from FS-176 that it needs to stay active and functional. The creature can use its scythe-like limbs to flip over the arrays that Samus has disabled to restore power to them if she is too slow to shut off all of them. When all solar arrays are shut off, Flaahgra will collapse and its four spiked Tentacles retract into the large flower's base, allowing Samus to enter Morph Ball-sized tunnels previously occupied by the Tentacles. Once she reaches a Morph Ball Slot located on the outer edge of the creature's base, she can Bomb it, causing damage not only to Flaahgra's central nervous system, but also igniting the flower with the surge of electrical energy. After the blow has been dealt, the upper body of the Flaahgra will writhe, wilt and retreat into the main flower. Seconds later, however, the solar panel(s) powering it will reactivate, plus an additional one (starting with one, with a maximum of all four panels being lit at a time), causing the Flaahgra to emerge a few seconds later, larger and angrier than ever.

In terms of physical offense, Flaahgra can slash with its enormous scythe-like appendages, performing a brutal swipe or two each time it decides to do so. If Samus takes too long to reach the Bomb Slot inside one of the four tunnels, not only will she be pushed back out by one of the Tentacles, but Flaahgra will awaken (due to the reactivated solar panels) and furiously perform an almost 360-degree slash across the floor of the entire room. Each of Flaahgra's four Tentacles are covered with thorns and will flail at Samus if she gets near them.

Its long range offense consists of spitting out small and large energy spheres. While the small ones are quickly spat out in different waves, the large energy sphere requires a moment to charge before being launched, though the process can be stopped if Samus shoots a Missile or Charge Beam shot at the creature's head. Flaahgra can also spray a substance that spawns a temporary wall of corrosive plants along the floor from the central pond to the nearest wall of the room. This wall occasionally proves impossible to jump over, hindering Samus' progress if she was on her way to a Mirror Array.

Lastly, the central pond surrounding the boss is extremely toxic and acts as a defense in a fashion similar to a moat protecting a castle. It is from here that all the polluted water is distributed throughout most of the Chozo Ruins.

Due to its exposure to the sun's concentrated energy, the outer shell of Flaahgra has become resilient enough to withstand harm from most weaponry, thus no matter how many shots are fired directly to the head and body, it will only be temporarily stunned, and can only be truly harmed by bombing its central nervous system. However, stunning its main body proves to be useful, as it not only allows Samus to disable the Mirror Arrays without being attacked, but also prevents Flaahgra from reactivating said Mirrors. After all four trenches have been bombed, the herbaceous monstrosity dies, and the Chozo Ruins' water supply returns to its normal, unpolluted state.

Me: Whoa, that's Flaahgra.

Nicole: Yeah, another enemy of Samus during her adventures across the galaxy.

Samus Aran: Yes, I fought against Flaahgra in the Sunchamber in the Chozo Ruins. The sunlight has made its outer shell resilient to some attacks, but its major weakness are its roots.

Perfuma: Samus, let me fight this monster.

Samus Aran: Okay, Perfuma.

Suddenly, Perfuma's eyes turned neon pink and she was then surrounded by a pink energy aura with flower petals, she unholstered her Defender of Etheria sword from her back, and as she approached Flaahgra, she left behind pink energy, plants, and flower petals with every step. Then, Perfuma was surrounded by a massive vortex of pink energy with flower petals flying around the vortex with plants around the vortex, and a light green phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Perfuma emerged, but she was changed forever.

Perfuma grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she has neon pink eyes and a pink energy aura with plants and flower petals surrounding her, she has a fairy with the Flower Kanji in its hands emblazoned on her forehead, her long blonde hair has pink highlights, and she has large pink angel wings with beautiful roses and rose petals falling from the tips of the feathers, the massive, wide, double-edge blade of her Defender of Etheria sword grew to 6'5" in length, and the long black handle grew longer, she has on a pink sleeveless blouse with a green phoenix, pink skirt with flower petals, and pink leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long green sleeveless trenchcoat with rose petals and the symbol of Etheria on the back. Perfuma now had on her brand-new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with pink gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large pink gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a pink kanji below the symbol of Etheria and it said, "Perfuma, Princess of Plumeria, Defender of Etheria and Eternia, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Master of Plants and Flowers."

プルメリアの王女、エテリアとエターニアの擁護者、リンカーン・ラウドの愛する未来の妻、植物と花の達人、ペルフマ

Perfuma has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 FLOWERSTORM FAIRY ANGEL OF PEACE!

We were stunned and amazed by Perfuma's transformation, and when Lincoln saw what happened to her, he was blushing like mad.

Me: Wow, Perfuma has now transformed.

Nico: You said it, J.D.. Perfuma looks like an Angel of Nature.

Lincoln: Wow, Perfuma. You look beautiful, how do you feel?

Perfuma: (Divine Echoing Floral Voice of Peace) I feel incredible, Lincoln. Now, to take care of this mutant plant. (To Lincoln) Would you like to join in?

Lincoln: You already know my answer.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and he transforms into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and joined Perfuma.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get that overgrown weed.

Perfuma and Lincoln went after Flaahgra, who fired toxic blasts at them, but they dodged them, and they attacked the mutant plant with powerful blasts of plants, rose petals, and neon pink energy from Perfuma, and neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning from Lincoln, which hit Flaahgra's roots, and caused it to screech in pain. Then, Lincoln and Perfuma slashed off Flaahgra's tentacles and scythe-like appendages and they severed its roots, causing it to screech even more in pain.

Perfuma: Shall we put an end to that mutated plant once and for all, Lincoln?

Lincoln: Let's do it, Perfuma.

Perfuma and Lincoln: DIVINE FLORALSTORM MEGABLAST!

Perfuma and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of neon pink and neon blue energy with pink rose and blue rose petals dancing around them, and as they hit Flaahgra, they exploded with incredible power, and the blasts Super Hakaied Flaahgra for good. We cheered for what Perfuma and Lincoln did, as they'd holstered their weapons and powered down, but Perfuma's new clothes, weapons, jewelry, and body were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Perfuma up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he'd wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

Nico: I still never get tired of seeing how romantic Lincoln can be around his future wives.

Me: Me too, Commander, and we also better be ready for when he proposes to his future wives. It's going to be one huge and epic wedding.

Nico: Same with yours when you propose to your future wives in the future.

Me: Yep.

Then a figure came out and it was SABERHORN!

Nico: Saberhorn!

Saberhorn: Nice to finally meet you Nico.

Me: I have just the archenemy for you.

Vector Prime: And that is me.

We got the battles underway.

Once in hand, they'll get a massive power and energy increase, and they'll merge with the current swords that I've given them.

Once Leo gets his new Defender of The Loud Family's Legacy, he will also undergo a very powerful transformation. He'll become a handsome young man like Lincoln, and he'll grow to 7'0" in height, like Lincoln, and like Lincoln, he'll have massive and powerful upper and lower body muscles and eight-pack abs, longer brown hair going down to his neck with emerald green highlights on his bangs, emerald green eyes, and he'll get his new Bracelets of the Champions of The Universe with green gems on his wrists, a green fairy with the Fire Kanji in its hands emblazoned onto his forehead, fairy earrings with the Fire Kanji, and a necklace with a fairy with the Fire Kanji in its hands across his bare chest. He'll also get the same wardrobe as Lincoln, but his version of He Man 2002's loincloth will be emerald green and he'll have long green trenchcoat flaps held up by his brand-new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large green gem for the belt buckle on his waist, he'll have green weighted bands on his massive biceps and thighs, blue pants with green flames, black leather ankle-high combat boots, and massive green angel wings with light green tips on the large green feathers.

The Destroyers of Team Dark Phoenix Storm, they're an extremely massive collection of swords with the anti-Team Dark Phoenix Storm symbol etched onto the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blades, phoenix wings for the crossguards and large fire gems for the hilts, longer black handles, and large red sphere pommels with fire gems surrounding them. Once in hand, not only will all of us gain a massive power and energy increase and those swords will merge with the current swords that were given to you all through the treasure battles, but they will also have a nasty surprise for all of Team Dark Phoenix Storm in the future.

Nico teleported and gave us all the swords and they were awesome!

Courage: You and me both!

Swordsman: I guess there are some diseases we can't cure by snapping our fingers.

Grizzly: But at least we can cure said diseases by other means.

Nico: We sure did.

We went to Lynn's Table and had a great dinner and then we came back and went to bed.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Courageous Cure of Courage the Cowardly Dog was so awesome and funny! But it was one of the most freaky episodes I've ever seen. It aired on November 8th, 2002 and it was crazy. But it was brutal how those aliens had to deal with a disease that causes you to beat yourself up like that. Ouch. The first part was for the movie Flushed Away and that was a crazy movie from what I heard. The second part was for the 1957 movie The Deadly Mantis and that was a freaky movie from what I saw in the trailer for it. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be in the world of Hocus Pocus from 1993 and me, Brittney, Shannon and the Umbreon Gene-Slammer are gonna head over to the 17th Century to face Shannon's ancestors and stop them from killing Emily and cursing Thackery Binks. The rescue for Lincoln is gonna be in the Amazing World of Gumball and he will have Gumball, Darwin, Nicole, Carrie, Penny, Carmen and some of their friends moved to Gotham Royal York. The next chapter tomorrow is gonna be for the awesome crossover movie Straight Outta Nowhere: Scooby Doo Meets Courage The Cowardly Dog and we're going to Nowhere to help Mystery Inc. destroy giant cicadas and learn all about the terrors that were in Nowhere.

See you all tomorrow.

Courage's Greatest Mystery

IN MEMORY OF LIONEL WILSON AND THEA WHITE

---

Over the lands of Colonial America in the year 1693, me, Brittney, Shannon and Lucilla Emerson the Umbreon Gene-Slammer were flying over the lands. We were there to destroy the evil Sanderson Sisters. But these are what the Sanderson Sisters were like before they were recruited into the Masters of Evil.

Lucilla Emerson: Aren't Shannon's ancestors already in the Masters of Evil?

Lucilla concentrated and groans as her skin turned dark.

Me: Yes they are Lucilla but this is the 17th Century. We came here to stop the Sanderson's from killing Thackery Binx's sister Emily and cursing him with eternal life as a cat.

Lucilla turned into UMBREON!

Me: Yeah!

I held on to her clothes and we arrived at the house of The Sanderson Sisters in the world of Hocus Pocus.

---

On October 31, 1693, in Salem, Massachusetts, Thackery Binx witnesses his little sister, Emily, being whisked away to the woods by the Sanderson sisters, three witches named Winifred, Sarah, and Mary. At their cottage, the witches cast a spell on Emily to absorb her youth and regain their own, killing her in the process. Thackery confronts the witches, but is transformed into a black cat cursed to live forever with his guilt for not saving Emily. Suddenly, the townsfolk, led by Thackery's friend, Elijah, and Binx's father, arrest the sisters and sentence them to be hanged for the murder of Thackery and Emily. Before their execution, Winifred casts a spell that will resurrect the sisters during a full moon on All Hallows' Eve when any virgin lights the Black Flame Candle. Thackery decides to guard the cottage to ensure no one summons the witches.

Three centuries later, on October 31, 1993, Max Dennison is feeling unsettled from his family's sudden move from Los Angeles, California, to Salem. On Halloween, Max takes his younger sister Dani out trick-or-treating, where they meet Max's new crush Allison. In an effort to impress Allison, Max invites her to show him the Sanderson house to convince him the witches were real.

Inside the Sanderson cottage, now a former museum, Max lights the Black Flame Candle and inadvertently resurrects the witches due to his virginity. The witches attempt to suck the soul of Dani, but Max comes to her rescue. Escaping, Max steals Winifred's spellbook (grimoire) on advice from Thackery, who now goes by his last name of Binx. He takes the group to an old cemetery (as witches can't step foot on hallowed ground) where he shows them the graves of his sister and Billy Butcherson, who was once Winifred's lover. But when she caught him making out with Sarah, she poisoned him and sewed his mouth shut so that he couldn't tell her secrets even in death. The witches eventually catch up with them and Winifred raises Billy Butcherson as a zombie to chase them on foot.

The witches try to acclimate to the 20th century, but are horrified when they discover Halloween has become a festival of disguises. They pursue the children across town using Mary's enhanced sense of smell. Winifred also reveals that the spell that brought them back only works on Halloween and unless they can suck the life out of one child, they'll turn to dust when the sun rises. Max, Dani, and Allison find their parents at the City Hall Halloween party, where Winifred enchants the partygoers to dance until they die. At Jacob Bailey High School, the children trap the witches in a kiln to burn them alive. While the children are celebrating, the witches' curse revives them again.

Not realizing the witches have survived, Max and Allison open the spellbook intending to reverse the spell on Binx. The open spellbook reveals the location of the group, and the witches track them down, kidnap Dani and Binx, and recover the spellbook. Sarah uses her siren-like song to entice Salem's children, luring them to the Sanderson cottage. Max and Allison rescue Dani and Binx by tricking the witches into believing that sunrise was an hour early. Thinking that they are done for, the witches panic and pass out, allowing Max, Dani, Allison, and Binx to escape.

Back at the cemetery, the group is ambushed by Billy who then takes Max's knife, cuts open his stitched up mouth, and insults Winifred, therefore joining Max, Allison, Dani and Binx against the witches. The witches attack, and Winifred attempts to use the last vial of potion to suck the soul from Dani. Binx leaps on Winifred and knocks the potion out of her hand. Max drinks the potion, forcing the witches to take him instead of Dani. The sun starts to rise just as Winifred is about to finish draining Max's life force; in the ensuing struggle, Allison, Dani, and Billy fend off Mary and Sarah, and Max and Winifred fall onto the hallowed ground in the cemetery, causing Winifred to turn into stone. As the sun finishes rising above the horizon, Mary and Sarah are disintegrated into dust along with Winifred's stone body.

With the witches gone, Max, Dani, and Allison say goodbye to Billy, as he returns to his grave. Binx finally dies, freeing his soul. Appearing as a spirit, Binx thanks the group for their help and bids farewell to them as he is reunited with the spirit of Emily.

The exhausted partygoers, including Max and Dani's parents, oblivious to their enchantment, are freed when the spell is broken. Meanwhile, at the Sanderson's cottage, Ice and Jay, who previously tormented Max and Dani, remain imprisoned in cages and sing "Row, Row, Row Your Boat" to pass the time. Winnie's spell book is seen opening its eye, revealing it is still alive and the witches could possibly return again.

---

We were ready for anything.

Brittney: They don't know just how powerful the forces of darkness can be.

Shannon: But my ancestors here in this timelime will not steal peoples souls to look young ever again.

Lucilla Umbreon: And we'll make sure of it.

We went up to the cottage and looked in the window and we saw the Sanderson Sisters giving potion to Emily Binx and then she was emitting a mist around her. But she wasn't the only one there. There were 3 girls tied up and there was a small girl in a jar.

Winifred: The Potion Works!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

A massive fiery explosion went off and a phoenix cry was heard and we came in.

Shannon: Ancestors stop!

Winifred: Well who might you be young one?

Shannon: I am Shannon Deluth Sanderson Loud, and I am your descendant from 328 years into the future.

Mary Sanderson: That can't be right.

Sarah Sanderson: How can you be related to us?

Shannon: Behold the mark.

Shannon showed her mark and it was Half of the Celtic Tree of Life and Half of The Star of Satan.

Winifred: You're a white and black witch.

Shannon: A Twilight Hybrid if you will. But I am your descendent.

Winifred: So you are. It's an honor to have family here.

Shannon: It sure is.

She fired dark lightning and encircled the 3 witches in a ring of green fire and we freed the girls.

Brittney: Hold on Emily. You'll be free from their control.

Brittney chanted a powerful incantation and freed her from their control.

Emily Binx: What? What happened? Where am I?

Brittney: It's a long story.

We met Leviathan, Jörmungandr and Bahamut and Syrup.

---

Leviathan (レヴィアタン, Reviatan ) Voiced by: Saori Hayami (Japanese); Caitlynn French (English) Leviathan is a water mage from the land of Aquafall who makes friends with Bahamut and Jörmungandr while searching for her older brother. She lives in a humble cottage by herself and can transform into a water-affinity dragon girl.

Bahamut (バハムート, Bahamūto ) Voiced by: Eri Kitamura (Japanese); Hilary Haag (English) Bahamut is a fire mage and daughter of the city's leader. She lives in a huge mansion, along with her father and personal maids. She can transform into a fire-affinity dragon girl.

Jörmungandr (ヨルムンガンド, Yorumungando ) Voiced by: Ayana Taketatsu (Japanese); Brittney Karbowski (English) Jörmungandr doesn't have any elemental magic abilities, but is by far the physically strongest girl of the trio, capable of lifting huge boulders by herself - likely through strength boosting magic and can transform into an earth-affinity dragon girl brandishing a huge axe. She was adopted along with her 3 younger sisters by a team of miners and they call each one of them their fathers.

Syrup (シロップ, Shiroppu ) Voiced by: Kana Hanazawa (Japanese); Monica Rial (English) Syrup is a fairy who befriends the girls and usually tries to recruit them into the "Aquafall Defense Squad", that she intends to establish to fight back the Toripu. Despite being small, she has quite an appetite, capable of eating several times her own weight in one meal and is very honest, to the point of bluntness that usually gets her into trouble.

---

Shannon then sensed people coming.

Shannon: Uh oh. We got the people of Salem coming.

Brittney: Lets get Emily out of here.

Emily ran and went to join the people and we all went and hid in the forest and I put on my blind man glasses and Lucilla reverted back.

Lucilla was human again. But naked.

Lucilla: (covers herself) Good thing Shannon's ancestors in the Masters of Evil are still alive.

Shannon: That's true.

Leviathan: You're not kidding and that was something.

Jörmungandr: It sure was but thanks for helping us J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

I gave Lucilla her clothes.

Leviathan: That was close though.

Brittney: But that was a close one. We saved Emily and you all just in time.

We then went back home.

---

After stopping the evil versions of Shannon's ancestors, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Spongebob were heading to the town of Elmore, the home of The Amazing World of Gumball, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eighteen girls located here, but Lincoln's going to have Gumball Watterson, Darwin Watterson, their mother, Nicole Watterson, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends moved to Gotham Royal York.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in Elmore, and I know what I'm going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the eighteen girls located here, but I'm going to have Gumball Watterson, Darwin Watterson, their mother, Nicole Watterson, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends moved to Gotham Royal York.

Me: That's right, big guy. It's time Gumball, Darwin, Nicole, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends to have a fresh start in Gotham Royal York. This whole town minus Penny, Carmen, Carrie and a few hate Gumball and the Watterson's.

Nico: I remembered that you told me that you met Richard Watterson when you went to Elmore, J.D.

Me: That's right, Nico and let me tell you, he is dumber than a sackful of rusty nails.

Spongebob: Elmore sure is quite a colorful town.

Me: It sure is. And it's very amazing.

Eli: That's right, but there's usually a few villains who seek to cause trouble.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eighteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw the eighteen girls, along with Gumball Watterson, Darwin Watterson, Nicole Watterson, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends, but they've been cornered by Rob A.K.A. Dr. Wrecker and Miss Simian, who's now gone insane, and they're going to kill them.

Ms. Simian

Lucinda Janice "Lucy" Simian is the secondary antagonist of the animated series The Amazing World of Gumball and the main antagonist of Seasons 1-3. She is Gumball's sadistic teacher, who has been teaching second grade for 300 millennia.

She utterly despises Gumball and does whatever she can to foil his plans. Principal Brown is hopelessly in love with her, and she returns the feeling, as shown in the episode The Mystery, where she says "My poor, sweet Nigel!", and in The Party where they're seen crashing a party and kissing in the end of the episode. She was also portrayed as the main antagonist in the former episode. She is also the main antagonist in The Ape, she is the principal antagonist turned female protagonist/anti-heroine of the Season 5 episode The Grades.

She is Gumball and Darwin's former archenemy after Rob takes the role as the main antagonist.

She was voiced by Lewis MacLeod in Season 1 (who also voiced her boyfriend, Principal Nigel Brown), and later by Hugo Harold-Harrison in Season 2 (who also voiced Tobias Wilson).

In the episode "The Ape", she is shown to have many awards, except the "Favorite Teacher Award", because nobody likes her. She pretends to make friends with Gumball and the Watterson family and cozies up with them in order to win the award. It was shown that Nicole bears a hatred for Miss Simian because she kept calling her a "loser" all her life. She is soon convinced that Miss Simian has changed, but later finds out that she was faking her friendship. This ensues in a wild car chase which ends in Miss Simian falling off a bridge. Despite being seriously injured, she gets the award, saying it was worth it.

In the episode "The Apology", after finding out that her skirt was up, she blamed the boys for thinking it was funny and went out of her way to prove they were bad.

Miss Simian is determined not to apologize, and she conspires to prove that Gumball and Darwin are bad kids. First, Gumball gives her his report card, and Miss Simian takes them to Principal Brown's office on suspicion of forged signature. Richard is called in to sign the suspension card, and to their surprise, his signature exactly matches the one on the report card.

Next, Miss Simian plants a $100 bill at the library for the boys to find, therby trying to prove they are thieves. Of course, Gumball and Darwin are overjoyed upon the discovery of money. However they both agree that the $100 bill is corrupting them, so they throw it away.

Later, Gumball and Darwin are having their lunch when they start discussing about a rumored upcoming fight, and who's going to be in said fight. It turns out they are the ones involved in the fight. The classmates egg them on, but ultimately Gumball and Darwin resolve peacefully. Miss Simian, the one who staged the fight, is devastated.

After a brief, one-sided conversation with the skeletal remains of her father at the museum, Miss Simian makes one final attempt. She enters the boys' restroom to spray graffiti in order to frame Gumball and Darwin. It backfires on her, as she has got spray paint all over herself. Principal Brown is fed up with her attempts, and warns to stop or else he will fire her. Truth be told, he's sad that it may mean the end of their relationship if Miss Simian is really this kind of person.

Gumball and Darwin see Miss Simian and Principal Brown's plight, and they plan to commit a bad deed and get themselves caught in order to preserve the faculty staff's relationship. They retrieve the spray paint can from the restroom, when they get caught by Miss Simian. She goes into a bout of primal ape rage, and chases them through the hallway. They manage to delay her by unintentionally slamming a locker door into her face. They proceed outside, where Gumball begins spraying paint onto Principal Brown's car and Darwin unsuccessfully throws rocks at his office's window. They get into an argument about Darwin's poor throwing skills when they are caught by Miss Simian. At last, she realizes she finally can take them to the principal's office, only to be surprised upon learning Gumball's intent. She quickly excuses the boys to clean up the car, and as the boys leave, she whispers an apology to them. As she goes back to cleaning, Principal Brown peeks out of his car, and asks her for an explanation on why his car has been defaced.

In " The Joy ", Miss Simian attempts to stop the students from smiling and made them depressed and sad, but she is thwarted by Gumball and Darwin infecting her with joy.

In " The Lie ", she, in a parody of The Grinch, attempts to stop Gumball's made-up holiday called Sluzzle Tag, but in the end she redeems herself when Darwin gave her a Sluzzle Tag gift.

In " The Countdown ", she threatens to expel Gumball and Darwin from school if they're late, and while Gumball and Darwin race to school with an on-screen timer, they find Miss Simian in her car and chases them, eager to expel them, but fortunately Gumball (who broke the fourth wall) crashed onto the screen, stopping the on-screen timer and froze time.

Rob A.K.A. Dr. Wrecker

Rob, formerly known as Dr. Wrecker, is the main antagonist of the animated show The Amazing World of Gumball . He was initially a minor character in first and second seasons, but as of the final episodes of third season, he becomes the main antagonist of the show until the sixth and final season.

Rob was thrown in the Void for being a mistake of the world, but he managed to escape and found a role as a cruel, sadistic and cunning villain and the arch-nemesis of Gumball Watterson. For his new part to play, he wreaked havoc on Elmore and the Wattersons. Eventually, he discovered that the universe was going to be erased, tried his best to save everyone, only to amount to failure and total destruction.

He was voiced by Charles Phillipp. His Dr. Wrecker voice was voiced by David Warner, who also played The Evil Genius in Time Bandits, Ed Dillinger Sr., the Master Control and Sark in Tron, Morpheus in Fallout, Ra's al Ghul in the DC Animated Universe, Archmage in Gargoyles and Jon Irenicus in Baldur's Gate II: Shadows of Amn .

Pre-Villainous Appearances

Rob first had a cameo in Rachel's party with other Elmore Junior High students in "The Date". He made another appearance in "The Party", where he attends a party hosted by Tobias' older sister, Rachel. He is later one of the Elmore students to watch the fight between Gumball and Tina Rex in "The Fight". Rob later appeared in "The Pony", where he tries to say hi to Gumball and Darwin, but gets angry when Gumball didn't know his name, and even blocks Gumball and Darwin's path, and gets kicked down a manhole by Darwin; he also denies them the DVD they were after. Rob is later in a crowd of angry Elmore civilians trying to attack the Wattersons before reality is fixed in "The Finale". Rob then appears in "The Void"'as one of Elmore's mistakes sent to the Void.

Villainous Appearances

Later in the year, in "The Nobody", a mysterious guest steals all of The Watterson's possessions including Nicole's money, Richard's toothbrush, and Anais's Daisy the Donkey doll. The three members of the family blame Gumball and Darwin for stealing those possessions without proof whatsoever and they almost punished them by making them stay in their room while they are away until they confess. The duo then tries to find the mysterious house guest after he passes by them. This leads them to the basement, where they find all of the stolen possessions that the mysterious stranger has stolen. They later chase him throughout Elmore and prevent his escape by throwing condiments at a car, Tina, and a truck driver. This causes the stranger to surrender.

Gumball and Darwin then ask the stranger about why was he in their house. He told them he has no place to live and is nobody. He also tells them that he doesn't have a mom or any siblings. They try to say which the stranger can be but to no avail. They then tell the stranger that he can be a bad guy and be their mortal enemy. They also tell him that he can be the worst mistake ever made. This triggers the stranger's memory and he is revealed to be Rob. Rob then flashbacks that he was trying to get Gumball and Darwin's attention in the Void, but they ignored him to find Molly. As the group left on Mr. Small's van, Janice, Rob clung on to the back of the van as it drove back to Elmore. After the group drove off, Rob escaped from the Void and ended up disfigured in the process. He then vows revenge on Gumball and Darwin for leaving him, claiming that he will take away everything that they ever loved.

Rob's next appearance in "The Nemesis" involves him repeatedly failing (around 563 times, according to a statement made by him) to exact revenge on Gumball and Darwin. The duo decides to help him become a better nemesis by altering his voice, making him an outfit, and giving him a name change. Rob comes to call himself Dr. Wrecker and coins a new catchphrase: "You just got wrecked". Later in the episode, his plot to flood the town backfires when he is unable to escape via bus, so he consults Gumball and Darwin to help him. As all hope seems lost, they realize Elmore doesn't have a dam and Dr. Wrecker just destroyed part of a vending machine. In order to cheer him up, Gumball and Darwin walk into one of Rob's traps set up earlier. The cyclops then walks off in evil laughter as the two beg him to help.

Later on, Rob made two cameo appearances in "The Uploads" and "The Love".

Rob's next appearance in "The Bus" where he is revealed to be the one in charge of the adults' plan to teach the kids to not skip school. His reason for doing this was not to teach the kids, but rather to get money and exact his revenge on the Watterson duo. Later in the episode, he and Gumball have a fight at an airport over two briefcases which were also used as their weapons, one containing the money and the other holding a bomb. Rob is about to crush Gumball with the briefcase, but as the police arrive, he blames Gumball saying that is the cause of everything and ran away. But lucky for Gumball and Richard, they had a briefcase containing the money, and unfortunately for Rob, he had the wrong briefcase (which contained the bomb), which then explodes from a distance, sending Rob flying back to the airport and landed on top of a police car, defeated. Rob is then arrested for his crimes at the end of the episode.

Despite this, Rob returned in "The Disaster", presumably having escaped from prison and visited the Awesome Store and purchased a remote that can control the universe. When the man from the Magic Van wanted the money he owed to Rob, he killed him by erasing him with the remote. While the Watterson family were finding a parking spot, Rob paused the scene and reminded Gumball that he will destroy everything he loved, and turned on all of the car lights and ignitions, crashing the family's own car in a piled-up wreck, which Gumball is blamed for causing despite him pleading innocence, due to him messing with the window even after Nicole ordered him to stop.

While at the Elmore Mall, Rob made Gumball lose his half-brother Darwin by putting up "evil magic subtitles" as insults, making Gumball yell and run to his family about what had happened, and Nicole calms him down. Then Rob made Richard and Nicole break up and go their separate ways by deactivating their parental filters, and he made Gumball break up with his girlfriend Penny and accidentally pushed her to her death and suddenly paused the scene, with everyone frozen in time (except Gumball and Rob). Gumball confronts Rob and wants his revenge on him for messing up his day.

Rob explained that he wanted to be the sidekick of Gumball, not a villain. Rob opens up a portal to the Void with the remote and tries to push Gumball inside, but Gumball immediately attacks him, fighting for the remote. After the fight, Rob pushes Gumball to the portal to the Void and tries to eject Gumball in, but the batteries were dead, so Rob tossed the remote in the Void, forcing Gumball to fall in the Void and get the remote in order to save his loved ones. He successfully hit the rewind button, sending Gumball right back to the beginning of the episode, and a "To be continued…" message appeared, ending the episode.

Rob appeared again in "The Rerun", where Gumball must stop him from destroying his life. When Rob first turns on the insult subtitles to spite and upset Darwin, Gumball rearranges the letters, eventually spelling "Rob is messing with you". Darwin accidentally swallows the letters and then chokes out the words "Where is he". Rob then tries to eject Darwin, but Gumball pushes him out of the way. Rob then tries to once again to break up Nicole and Richard but Gumball jumps on top of him and accidentally presses the rewind button that starts turning Richard and Nicole into babies.

Then Anais died from being erased from existence, and Darwin died from being a normal fish, enraging Gumball who tries to attack Rob, but Rob pushes the same button that fast forwards Gumball into pushing Penny off the railing once again. Then they both fight again for the remote but this time Gumball seems to get the upper hand and ejects Rob into the Void with the remote, defeating his nemesis. Gumball then realizes that he is acting as the bad guy and tries to save Rob before he (Gumball) disappears, (since his parents turned into babies, not allowing him and his siblings to existing any longer).

Right after Gumball catches up to him, Rob grabs the remote and almost kills Gumball, but he refuses and hits the rewind button. Rob then states that Gumball is hard to hate since he came all that way to save him, but Rob realizes the only way to fix everything is to go back in time to break the remote, with Gumball stating he "looks forward to being Rob's enemy in the future". Rob then goes back in time, turning Nicole and Richard back into adults and Anais and Darwin were brought back to life, and destroys the remote, and continues to have his villainous ways, but ends with a groan when the magic van man states the price again, followed by the Wattersons singing happily in the car on their way home.

Rob appeared again in "The Ex" where it is revealed he found himself a new archenemy which is Banana Joe. Gumball refuses to accept Banana Joe's new archenemy to Rob, despite Penny's advice and sabotaged Rob's new "enemy-ship" to Banana Joe. Rob flies into a rage and lashes out at Gumball at the climax of the episode after he foils his plans making Gumball his nemesis once again.

He returned in "The Spinoffs", where he replaced Gumball in that episode, and held Timmy hostage in order to hijack the show.

Rob reappeared in "The Future", where he kidnapped Banana Joe's mom, Banana Barbara to use the power of her paintings. One week later, Banana Joe asks Gumball and Darwin for his help finding his mother after she went missing. Meanwhile, at an abandoned warehouse, Rob orders Barbara to use her painting power, but when she refuses, Rob strangles her, threatening to kill her if she didn't use her prediction powers. Barbara then caves in and uses her painting power. While Gumball, Darwin, and Banana Joe were finding his mom, strange things are appearing from Barbera's magic paintings. She eventually created a portal for the boys to go through to save her, and the three boys confront Rob in a showdown. Rob uses Barbara's paintings to attack Gumball. With the help of Gumball and Darwin, Banana Joe used white paint on Rob's painting picture to erase Rob from existence, killing him. Banana Barbers repainted Rob on a picture of him trapped in the Void, stating that there is no future, ending in a cliffhanger.

In "The Revolt", Rob makes a cameo where he is in an Elmore Stream-It video, showing that Banana Barbara was successful in bringing him back and that he apparently escaped from the Void once more. How he escaped is unknown.

In the series finale, "The Inquisition", Rob appears posing as the school superintendant, Evil, to stamp out the cartoonish conduct in Elmore Junior High. This involves having the kids act and transform into humans, examples being when he gave Alan a body, erased Teri's face and made William open a door without using his powers. He manages to transform almost all the kids into humans, save for Gumball and Darwin, who manage to turn all the kids back to their normal forms by reminding them of their habits. After getting confronted, Rob tries to explain his actions, but Tina knocks him out. After that, it is revealed that Rob tried to transform everyone into humans in order to prevent them from being sucked into the void, the place where all the world's mistakes are taken. However, a hole opens up, and he states with horror that "it's started". The void sucks him in and starts destroying Elmore, signifying the end of Gumball and ending the show on a horribly bleak note. The last shot of the show being Rob in the same pose he was in Banana Barbara's painting in "The Future".'

It is unknown if Rob is still alive or not.

Lincoln: Oh man, guys, I found the eighteen girls, along with Gumball Watterson, Darwin Watterson, Nicole Watterson, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends, but they've been cornered by Rob A.K.A. Dr. Wrecker and Miss Simian, who's now gone insane, and they're going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over to rescue the eighteen girls, Gumball Watterson, Darwin Watterson, Nicole Watterson, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends, and Lincoln punched Dr.

Wrecker in the face, while we were taking care of Ms. Simian.

Gumball Watterson: Oh man, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, they're here.

Darwin Watterson: I thought we were almost done for.

Nicole: Rob's gone too far for trying to kill you, and the same goes for that two-faced baboon.

Me: They sure have.

Lincoln cuts Dr. Wrecker down with his newly improved Sword of Taranis, and he exploded in a purple flame, and he was Super Hakaied for good, and we'd tied up Ms. Simian in a straitjacket and chains. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did, as he holstered his massive sword on his back. We checked on Gumball and the others, and they were okay. Then, Lincoln and Nicole Knudson went up to the eighteen girls who were sighted here, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he recognized them.

The eighteen girls were Victorique De Blois and Avril Bradley from GoSick, Tomari Seto, Misaki Tokura, Rekka Tatsunagi, Mirei Minae, and Asaka Narumi from Cardfight Vanguard, Maki Aikawa, Yuu Takigawa, Michiru Kawamoto, and Mina Nakanotani from Air Master, Kizakura Kukuri and Suiren from Battle Spirits, Flora Skybloom, Haruka Gracia, and Miyuki Ayukawa from Basquash, Carole Stanley and Tuesday Simmons from Carole and Tuesday.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Victorique De Blois, Avril Bradley, Tomari Seto, Misaki Tokura, Rekka Tatsunagi, Mirei Minae, Asaka Narumi, Maki Aikawa, Yuu Takigawa, Michiru Kawamoto, Mina Nakanotani, Kizakura Kukuri, Suiren, Flora Skybloom, Haruka Gracia, Miyuki Ayukawa, Carole Stanley, and Tuesday Simmons.

Nicole: From GoSick, Cardfight Vanguard, Air Master, Basquash, and Carole and Tuesday.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Victorique De Blois: Yes, we're okay.

Then, when Victorique De Blois and the other seventeen girls saw who it was that saved them from Rob A.K.A Dr. Wrecker and the evil, spiteful, and now insane Ms. Simian, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a large lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Victorique De Blois: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made seventeen clones of himself, and he and the clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Victorique De Blois: (Seductively and puts her right hand on Lincoln's right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

The girls were gently put down, and Lincoln went up to Gumball, Darwin, Nicole, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends.

Lincoln: Gumball, we know about your bad history here in Elmore, caused by bullies, bad neighbors, and of course, an enemy who's tried to kill you and your family, and a rude teacher who's not only hated you and your family, but everyone here.

Nicole Watterson: I had a feeling J.D. told you about this, Lincoln. So, what did you have planned?

Lincoln: Mrs. Watterson, tell everyone here to pack their bags, you're coming to Gotham Royal York to get a fresh start.

When Gumball Watterson, Darwin Watterson, their mother, Nicole Watterson, Carrie, Penny, Carmen, and some of their friends, they cheered wildly, and they packed their bags. We then moved them to Gotham Royal York, and as soon as we got back home, Lincoln threw Ms. Simian in the Saturn Insane Asylum's Arkham Asylum wing, where she was then chained to a wall inside of a doorless padded cell, where she'll spend the remaining days of her life there.

---

After cutting down Dr. Wrecker and throwing Ms. Simian in The Saturn Insane Asylum, we were training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading right down to Romania to finally destroy the main enemy of the Castlevania franchise once and for all, Dracula. We found out that when Lincoln rescued Maria Renard and Sypha Belnades, the world of Castlevania had merged with Earth.

Lincoln: So, this is it. We're going to destroy the main enemy of the Castlevania franchise, Dracula, once and for all.

---

Count Vlad Tepes Dracula, formerly known as Mathias Cronqvist, is the main antagonist of the Castlevania video game franchise.

He is a former Holy Knight who renounced God following the Death of his wife and became the diabolical King of the Night, the personification of Chaos, source of all Evil. He is the father of Alucard. He is based on Bram Stoker's character, in turn based on the infamous Vlad III Dracula of Wallachia. His tragic Start of Darkness was inspired by the 1992 film Bram Stoker's Dracula by Francis Ford Coppola.

1094: Lament of Innocence

Dracula's origin is explained in the game Lament of Innocence, set in 1094. He was once Mathias Cronqvist (a possible reference to Matthias Corvinus of Hungary), the best friend of Baron Leon Belmont.

Together they formed an undefeatable company, Mathias being a tactical genius and Leon a peerless warrior. However, Mathias eventually lost his wife Elisabetha and became bedridden with grief.

After one year, he revealed to Leon that his betrothed Sara Trantoul has been abducted by Walter Bernhard, Vampire Lord of the Forest of Eternal Night. prompting Leon to storm his castle to her rescue.

But as kills Walter, it is revealed that Mathias was behind the whole quest. Blaming God for the loss of his wife, he gained the Crimson Stone: a highly powerful alchemic artefact that absorbs the soul of slain vampires, and became a vampire himself.

Mathias manipulated Walter into kidnapping Sarah and Leon into killing him, for him to take his soul and powers with the Crimson Stone, and steal from him the Ebony Stone that controls Darkness which is part of his plan as revenge against God.

He expected that Leon, sharing the pain of losing his beloved, would side with him. However, a disgusted Leon swore that the Belmont family would hunt him and the Night. Disappointed, Mathias turned into a bat and flew away, ordering Death to deal with him.

Aftermath

During the following centuries, Mathias renamed himself Count Vlad Tepes Dracula and built his Castle, the Castlevania, in Transylvania. Not much is known about what he did in those times. He had yet to turn fully evil though, for around 1430, he married with a woman named Lisa Fahrenheit (possible reincarnation of Elisabetha).

They had a son, Adrian Fahrenheit Tepes, and lived in peace. Alas, Lisa's medicine was branded as "witchcraft" and she was burned at the stake before her son's helpless watch. Enraged beyond belief, Dracula declared war against mankind, becoming irredeemably evil. He later became the King of the Night, monarch of all Evil.

Despite emulating his father early in life, Alucard eventually chose to follow his mother's steps instead. He changed his name to "Alucard" ("Dracula" spelled backwards), marking his opposition to his father.

1476: Dracula's Curse

Dracula has been waging war against mankind, taking over many countries, wiping out the holy soldiers sent by the Church, and slaughtering the Transylvanian population, which is decreasing at an alarming rate. However, Trevor Belmont is leading an attack against him, defeating the legions he sends against him, and eventually storming the Castlevania itself.

During his quest, Trevor sets free the sorceress Sypha Belnades, who was turned into stone, as well as the pirate Grant DaNasty, whom Dracula turned into a monster under his control when he tried to avenge his family, and allies with Alucard. The four of them confront Dracula and manage to destroy him.

Dracula is considerably hard to defeat. He traps the heroes between two pillars of energy and conjures a third where they stand, then teleports next to them, making his attacks hard to avoid.

He later turns into a multi-faced monster, floating and spilling acidic blood. The heroes must strike each face until it rots into a skull, but he spills more blood with each wound.

His final (and hardest) form is an immense demon looking like an Oriental idol. He fires beams that deal crippling damage, while two platforms break from the ground and circle around him. The protagonist must jump on the platforms to strike his head while minding the pits left open.

1479: Curse of Darkness

Before dying, Dracula cast a curse upon the entire Transylvania, withering the land and corrupting its inhabitants. He wanted the curse to eliminate his enemies and lay waste on the world, enabling him to take it over when he would return. Hector, a Devil Forgemaster who deserted Dracula's ranks before Trevor's attack, claims back the powers he discarded to track down his fellow Devil Forgemaster Isaac, who had his wife killed.

It turns out that they were both manipulated by Death, who planned to resurrect Dracula through one of them. Hector beats Death and confronts Dracula, who is reborn from Isaac's corpse. After defeating the King of the Night, Hector manages to dispel his curse.

Dracula is pretty hard to defeat. He teleports or turns into a swarm of bats, and he can bite Hector to heal himself, launch a wave of icicles or a blazing beam that track down Hector or conjure a powerful fire whirlwind, among others.

Dracula alternates between hammering blows leaving a poisonous trail behind, and flying away for a devastating attack: among which a giant, long-lasting ray, a tremendous shockwave, and a barrage of projectiles.

Dracula can only be harmed at close range, but Hector will need a powerful Familiar by his side to assist him.

1576: Castlevania the Adventure

Dracula reappears and resumes his reign of terror but Christopher Belmont, Trevor's descendant, rises against him.

The non-canon comics Castlevania: the Belmont Legacy expands his story, albeit with an even worse Dracula. The Count is brought back by the Bartley Clan (probably related to Elizabeth Bartley) and abducts Christopher's beloved Illyana, before turning Christopher's allies into vampires. After his destruction, Dracula's spirit enter Illyana's womb to possess her first-born child.

Dracula poses little to no threat in this game, if not for Christopher's very slow movements and the two spike chasms in the room. He teleports and hurls four fireballs around him in an X or + pattern. Dracula's second form is that of a giant bat who spawns three smaller ones downwards.

Castlevania: the Adventure ReBirth

Dracula is much more difficult to defeat in this remake. He fights in the usual way, by teleporting and shooting three fireballs that can be tricky to dodge. Christopher must jump to strike him.

Dracula later turns into a bat-like variation of his most common demon form, which can prove pretty challenging. He tries to trap Christopher into a corner and attacks by breathing fire and by jumping to crush Christopher while releasing four green rays on the sides.

Dracula's last and hardest form, not fought in Easy Mode, is a gigantic devil-like head who conjures lightning bolts and fiery blasts through chains of pentagrams across the entire screen, forcing Christopher to find a safe spot. Christopher must strike his jaw until it breaks. Then things get even more dangerous.

Dracula overwhelms Christopher with attacks from all directions; including homing lightning spheres, blue bubbles and rolling eyeballs that must be destroyed, a circle of lightning bolts and a chain of pentagram releasing fiery blasts. Christopher must use the rising platforms to strike Dracula's eyes, but he is increasingly resilient to damage and his attacks make him hard to reach.

1591: Belmont's Revenge

Foreseeing his defeat, Dracula turned into mist and feigned death. He was too weakened to assume a physical form, but still alive. He waited for the coming of age of Christopher's son Soleil to make him disappear and corrupt him. He creates four Elemental Castles as obstacles, and prepares to make Soleiyu his new vessel. Christopher is forced to storm each castle to weaken the Count's control over his son, before battling him.

Soleil is a highly difficult boss. He jumps, strikes with his whip, and launches three flying, homing swords that charge one after another. Christopher must avoid contact, which is easier said than done since Soleiyu his very fast, very powerful and moves unpredictably.

After freeing his son, Christopher must defeat Dracula, who has regained his physical form and engages a nightmarishly hard battle. He teleports and fires a cluster of rotating energy balls that are very hard to dodge. Christopher must always be out of Dracula's reach and away from the spike chasms. It is highly advised to learn Dracula's moving pattern before trying to defeat him and to attack at long range.

1691: Castlevania (and its remakes)

The first game of the franchise, which was remade several times due to the popularity of its hero Simon Belmont; it sets the classical scenario, with the hero storming the Castlevania to end Dracula's reign of terror. In Haunted Castle, Dracula starts the conflict, by abducting Simon's betrothed the day of their wedding.

Castlevania

This game sets the Count's fighting style: He teleports (twice ahead of Simon's position and then where Simon is standing), casts "Hellfire" (his signature triple fireball) and Simon must jump to strike his head.

Dracula later assumes what would become his most common demon form, who is highly dangerous. He jumps, breathes fireballs downwards, and Simon must avoid getting trapped into the corners. The holy water is used to slow him down.

Vampire Killer

Dracula is a very hard boss, who fights the same way. Simon cannot jump over his fireballs, forcing him to get away and go between as they spread.

When defeated, Dracula possesses the huge painting in his likeness on the wall, and the battle becomes much harder. Simon must dodge the Count's waves of bats then climb the platforms on the sides of the room to jump and strike the jewel on the Count's forehead, as many times as needed.

Haunted Castle

Fitting the entire game, the battle against Dracula is nightmarishly hard. He hovers in the air and throws daggers, before transforming into a swarm of bats to fly away to the other corner of the room. Striking him before he flies away is very difficult, yet nothing compared to the Count's second form: a giant head who breathes an endless onslaught of bats.

The only way to win is to have enough energy left and strike like a maniac, to try and kill the Count before getting overwhelmed.

Super Castlevania IV

Dracula is a very tough enemy. He teleports and attacks with energy balls which split into four, flying energy balls which provides Simon a healing chicken when struck, and flaming faces that track down Simon.

When Dracula's face becomes that of a skeleton, the battle gets highly dangerous. He attacks by conjuring four bolts of purple lighting, which deal crippling damage and make him harder to reach.

Castlevania Chronicles

This game itself is adapted from the home computer game Dracula X68000 . (In this game, Dracula looks like a tall vampire in a suit, while in Chronicles he sports robes.) He teleports and casts "Hellfire" following Simon's position.

When defeated, he transforms into a demon similar to the one in Castlevania, who jumps and tries to corner Simon, strikes him with his claws, jumps high sending poisonous rays under him, and breathes streams of fire.

1698: Simon's Quest

Once again, Dracula cast a curse upon the land when defeated, cursing Simon as well this time. The curse eats away the life-force of both Simon and Transylvania and threatens the Belmont line, the only one who can face him.

Dracula had his followers guard his remains in haunted mansions to prevent the curse from being lifted. Simon must collect the remains and burn them to summon Dracula's spirit, then battle the Vampire Wraith to the death.

Without golden daggers (which kill him in one blow) or holy water (which holds him in place), the battle proves very difficult. Dracula hovers in the air leaving little space for Simon to move, and fires scythe-like projectiles which deal crippling damage and are pretty hard to dodge. Simon must distinguish the real Dracula from his afterimages.

1748: Harmony of Dissonance

A warrior named Maxim Kischine gathers the remnants of Dracula's body to destroy them, hoping to prove his worth and to relieve his friend Juste Belmont of his fate as a Vampire Killer. However, he gets corrupted by Dracula's spirit and partially resurrects the Castlevania, making a reflection of the Castle appear in a spiritual realm.

Dracula's spirit attempts to take full control of his host, by drinking the blood of Maxim's and Juste's childhood friend Lydie Erlanger whom he abducted. Fortunately, Maxim is able to escape his control and he hides Lydie away before warning Juste, who steps into action.

Juste fights his way throughout both casts to gather the Count's remains, and fights the possessed Maxim, who bit Lydie. If Juste wears his and Maxim's bracelets, Maxim forces Dracula's wraith out of his body, who manifests through his remains. If not, Maxim dies, along with Lydie in the worst ending. Dracula Wraith attempts to drain Juste's blood to become whole, only to get destroyed.

Maxim is highly powerful and dangerous. He is very fast and swift and attacks with sword strikes, high kicks and shuriken throw. He can also duplicate himself to overwhelm Juste (only the real one is vulnerable).

Dracula Wraith is easy to defeat. He teleports slowly and he casts "Hellfire" or six "Dark Inferno" orbs at different heights.

His second form is a conglomerate of his remains which attacks with his clawed tentacle and a huge beam from his eye. If Juste gets behind Dracula, the Count will not be able to reach him.

1792: Rondo of Blood (and its remakes)

Dracula, who was once again given flesh by Shaft, spends some time laying low and learning about Richter Belmont, before launching a preventive attack on his hometown, but fortunately, the young man was training away.

Dracula then abducts four village maiden, including Richter's girlfriend Annette, whom he plans to turn into a vampire, and the mage girl Maria. Richter eventually saves Maria who fights by his side. They defeat Dracula, who deems their effort futile and knows that he is bound to return.

Defeating Dracula is quite easy. The Count teleports and casts "Hellfire" or his second signature attack "Dark Inferno": two pulsating spheres of dark energy. (Duck then jump.) Dracula then turns into the most famous depiction of his recurring demon form. He jumps, breathes three giant fireballs in succession, and hurls a devastating ring of energy that must be ducked under.

Dracula X

In this remake, if Richter fails to save the three captive girls, Annette falls victim to Dracula's curse and is fought as a boss.

Despite having a different vampire and demon forms, the Count fights in the same way. However, the battle is much harder since it takes place on many pillars of different height, greatly hindering Richter's movements and punishing mistakes with instant death. It is better to be at one corner of the Throne Room when he transforms and to stand on a lower pillar to pass under him.

The Dracula X Chronicles

Like in Dracula X, if Richter and Maria fail to save the captives, Dracula's curse turns Annette into a vampire and she is fought as a boss. If that happens, Shaft will barge in after Dracula's second form is defeated and take the Count to safety, leading to the bad ending.

Dracula fights like in the two other games, but after defeating his Demon form, he grows six wings and the battle gets considerably harder.

Dracula flies, teleports and uses very dangerous attacks which he can combine: among which a wave of bats, a transformation into a wolf, many huge fireballs, several space-ripping slashes that can kill in one blow, and "Blood Hydro Storm": a long-lasting rain of acidic blood that can only be dodged by standing below him. After a while, he conjures floating orbs to distract the hero and turns into a swarm of bats for a deadly dive.

1797: Symphony of the Night

Shaft, who survived his battles against Richter and Maria, brainwashes the Belmont, and uses him as a puppet-king of the Castlevania. He then creates a Reverse Castle, where he attempts to bring back Dracula once again.

Since no Belmont can handle the threat, Alucard awakes from his three-hundred-year slumber. With Maria's help, Alucard can see through Shaft's deceit to free Richter, and storms the Reverse Castle, killing Shaft and confronting his father. Dracula tries to talk his son back into his side, but Alucard refuses.

When defeated Dracula asks what were Lisa's last words and, upon hearing that she wished him not to harm mankind, expresses genuine regret for his actions.

Dracula does not exactly transform for the final battle but turns his cloak into a conglomerate of monsters to fight for him.

He attacks in a defined order; swiping his giant claws, summoning a fallen boss and healing himself with its blood, flying to the background to launch a gigantic energy ball, and sending a wave of triangle-shaped energy blasts. Dracula's attacks deal huge damage but he is not that hard to defeat.

Early 1800s: Order of Ecclesia

In the early 19th century, the Belmont clan mysteriously vanished. Orders of mages assembled to fill the void and prepared to face Dracula when the time would come. Barlowe, founder of the powerful Order of Ecclesia, was entrusted with Dracula's remains, sealed to prevent his return.

However, Barlowe (who might have been corrupted by Dracula's leaking energy) wanted to bring him back. He harnessed his Dark Power into the "Dominus" Glyph, hiding its origins and presenting it as a way to destroy the Count for good.

Barlowe's disciple Shanoa eventually sees through his deceit and fights him. Alas, he sacrifices himself to break the seal. Shanoa challenges the Count but cannot destroy him without "Dominus", surviving its use thanks to the sacrifice of her brother figure Albus.

Dracula poses a considerable challenge. He teleports and attacks with "Hellfire" (a barrage of fireballs), "Dark Inferno" (four dark spheres) and "Fatal Ray" (green beams falling from above).

When damaged enough, the battle becomes much harder. He starts chasing Shanoa to kick her or grab her to drain her life and uses dangerous attacks including waves of shadow bats on either side, hordes of Hellhounds that must be destroyed, and "Destruction Ray" (purple beams falling in succession).

When the battle is over, Shanoa must combine the three "Dominus" Glyphs, and use them before Dracula obliterates her with his mightiest attack: "Demonic Megiddo", a tremendous explosion of dark energy.

1917: Castlevania Bloodlines

The events of Bram Stoker's novel were adapted to fit the Castlevania universe, making Quincy Morris, the man who killed Dracula in 1897, a relative of the Belmonts. The witch Drolta Tzuentes later resurrects Elizabeth Bartley, who in turn brings back Dracula.

The Count leaves the Castlevania for her niece's castle in England, spreading his evil influence throughout Europe, but Quincy's son John Morris and Eric Lecarde track him down and defeat him.

Dracula is not a big threat. He attacks with several types of fireballs, but is very easy to track when he teleports.

He first transforms into a challenging, flying, wizard-like vampire, who fires energy balls on both sides and conjures doubles of himself blasting energy pillars. The heroes must get under the real one, who does not attack. (Many fans believe that this form is the witch Drolta Tzuentes sent as a distraction, due to it looking like her artwork.)

Dracula's last form is a huge and dangerous demon who jumps to crush the heroes. He changes his color and his attack when wounded: pink (exploding projectiles), red (fire breath), and grey (waves of bones). The best way to deal with him safely is to keep away from him and attack at long-range.

1944: Portrait of Ruin

The Vampire Lord Brauner uses the souls of the victims of World War II to resurrect the Castlevania and takes it over with his bewitched paintings. Brauner prevents Dracula's return and plans to overthrow him but he is defeated by Jonathan Morris and Charlotte and Dracula return.

Dracula fights alongside Death in a very difficult battle. Dracula teleports and casts "Hellfire" and "Dark Inferno" in waves, while Death strikes from above. They can combine their powers to launch devastating attacks, including a wave of scythes turning into a barrage of "Dark Inferno" spheres, a transformation into a swarm of bats, and Dracula turning Death into a giant scythe and striking the ground to unleash "Demonic Megiddo". Striking one foe harms both.

Dracula later takes the willing Death's soul to transform into a formidable demon. He flies around and lands punches, but can be harmed after. When he traps his enemies between his wings, they must each strike one repeatedly to repel them. He also attacks with Death's scythe and a rain of fireballs.

1999: The Demon Castle Wars

As predicted by Nostradamus, the last battle between Dracula and the Belmonts took place in the last year of the millennium. Julius Belmont led a coalition of the world's armies helped by the Church and Alucard. They defeated Dracula and his forces after an apocalyptic conflict, and a Japanese priest sealed the Castlevania in the darkness of a solar eclipse. Dracula was destroyed once and for all, but several men born this day inherited some of his powers, and he would eventually reincarnate…

2035: Aria of Sorrow

Dracula was reincarnated as a young man named Soma Cruz, who wields his power of Dominance. While Soma is his own character, he must struggle to avoid his dark legacy. During a solar eclipse, he and his friend Mina Hakuba are dragged within the Castlevania, which seeks a new lord and sensed Soma's connection with Dracula.

After learning the truth, Soma defeats Graham Jones and unwillingly absorbs most of the Castlevania's powers. To avoid becoming the new King of the Night, he ventures into the Chaotic Realm and confronts Chaos: the core of all Evil which was previously personified as Dracula, and seeks a new physical existence.

2036: Dawn of Sorrow

One year after defeating Chaos, Soma is involved in Celia Fortner's plan to awake the new King of the Night. In the bad ending, Soma suffers the same fate as Mathias Cronqvist when Celia pretends to kill Mina and takes Dracula's throne (swiftly killing Celia whom he dislikes). This triggers the "Julius Mode", in which Julius Belmont and Soma's friends fight against Soma, now the King of the Night.

As the Dark Lord, Soma fights like Dracula did in a very difficult battle. He is assisted by a Gaibon Familiar who cannot be harmed. Soma teleports and uses "Giga Twister" the final form of the Great Axe Armour's Bullet-type soul: a giant axe rotating several times around him.

When defeated, he turns into the blue demon from Rondo and Symphony, this time a formidable foe. He uses Aguni's, Larva's, and Abaddon's Bullet souls: a flaming wave along the ground, many larvae when he jumps, and a swarm of locusts. Worse, he synchronizes his attacks with that of his invincible Harpy Familiar.

Me: That's right, Linc.

Nicole: I've played through the Castlevania series, and there's no doubt about it that Dracula from this franchise is the most evil antagonist in the franchise. Long ago, he was once known as Mathias Cronqvist, a knight from the year 1094 A.D. When he was out on The Crusades, word got back to him that his wife, Elisabetha, had died from illness, and that caused his fall into madness, and when he'd acquired The Crimson Stone, one of the two treasures of the vampires, and made Walter Bernhard's soul his, and it gave him immense immeasurable powers, but it also turned him into a vampire, since it also bears the curse of the vampires.

Me: All of this was due to losing his wife from so long ago. But, it also got worse when his other wife, Lisa, was burned alive at the stake for Heresy, and that set him off the edge, and that caused his dark hatred of mankind.

Lady Palutena: But, we'll finally bring an end to him once and for all, and not only are we going to destroy him, but we'll also destroy his castle for good, and destroy The Crimson Stone.

We arrived at Dracula's Castle, which has risen in Transylvania, Romania, and it was a demonic and dark castle from the depths of Hell. We were joined by Simon Belmont and Richter Belmont, along with Alucard (Castlevania), and we headed into the throne room, and sitting right in the throne was the man who caused over a thousand years of pain and suffering due to his dark hatred for mankind, Mathias Cronqvist, or known by his new name, Dracula.

Dracula (Castlevania): (Transylvanian Accent) So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has finally arrived. Welcome to my castle.

Me: That's correct, Dracula, and we've come here for one reason: to get rid of you once and for all.

Dracula (Hotel Transylvania): (Transylvanian Accent) J.D.'s right, you may bear the same name as myself, but what you have done to the humans causing them over a thousand years of pain and suffering, cannot be forgotten.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) You've cheated death for the last time, Mathias Cronqvist, and now, you will pay the price for your crimes!

Dracula (Castlevania): We'll see about that.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he unholstered his massive Sword of Taranis from his wider muscular back, and we'd soon followed suit and transformed, and Dracula tossed his glass of wine as it shattered, and he teleported in front of us, and he fired blasts of fire at us, but Lincoln and all of us absorbed them, and it made us stronger than ever. We then fired powerful blasts of holy fire and holy water at Dracula, which caused him to scream in excruciating pain.

Then, Lincoln thrusted his massive blade at Dracula, and the blade hits The Crimson Stone, causing it to shatter. By shattering The Crimson Stone, this had caused Dracula's immense immeasurable dark powers to fade away for good.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) He's finally been weakened. Now, let's get out of the castle. I've got just the attack to destroy both Dracula and his demonic castle for good.

We got outside of the castle, leaving Dracula on the floor of his throne room. Then, Lincoln flew up into the air, and he formed a massive ball of holy light, and he throws it at the castle, and once it hits the castle, it exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion destroyed the castle, and it Super Hakaied Dracula for good. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln just did, and he holstered his blade and powered down.

Me: Nice job, Linc.

Nico: Yeah, you did it, man. You destroyed the main enemy of The Belmont Clan for good, and you'd ended his thousand-year reign of terror and destruction for good.

Lincoln: Thanks, Nico.

Lincoln shared a kiss with Sypha Belnades and Maria Renard, and we went back home. We finally put an end to Dracula, the main enemy of the Castlevania franchise, and destroyed his castle for good, and ended his thousand-year hatred of mankind for good.

---

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was at the top of Mount Everest, and we went to the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Zone-Tan.

Lincoln: Wow, that's Zone-Tan, the mascot of Zone Archives!

Lincoln went up to Zone-Tan and freed her.

Zone-Tan: I could've gotten out of there myself, but thanks for the assist.

Then, when Zone-Tan saw who freed her, she had a large blush on her face and her face lit up like a red christmas light when she saw the 7'0" tall, adorable, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes.

Zone-Tan: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Zone-Tan.

Lincoln picked her up with his large muscular arms and kissed her

Zone-Tan: Same here, cutie.

Then, McWolf came out.

Nicole: I've got 2 questions for you, McWolf. How did you manage to build your castle here without dying and how did you capture Zone-Tan?

McWolf: I have a bag of holding, and I had to stuff her and that tentacle monster Lemmy into a bag and then put them in a cage. And since you have the Kyurangers with you, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. INDAVERS!

Then, an army of Indavers appeared from the darkness.

Lucky: Indavers, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Amity: Count me in, as well.

The Zyuohger Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Amity walked up to the army of Indavers.

SEIZA CHANGE!

Kyurangers and Lincoln: STAR CHANGE!

Shou Ronpo: Dragon Ascent!

In a flash of light all thirteen of them transformed and Lincoin transformed into his new Kyuranger form, but his Kyuranger uniform and helmet is white with a black ram visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Lucky: Super Star! Shishi Red!

Stinger: Poison Star! Sasori Orange!

Garo: Beast Star! Ookami Blue!

Balance: Trick Star! Tenbin Gold!

Champ: Ring Star! Oushi Black!

Naga Ray: Silent Star! Hebitsukai Silver!

Hammie: Shinobi Star! Chamaeleon Green!

Raptor 283: Speed Star! Washi Pink!

Spada: Food Mei-Star! Kaijiki Yellow!

Shou Ronpo: Dragon Ma-Star! Ryu Commander!

Kotoro: Big Star! Koguma Skyblue!

Tsurugi: Space Bu-Star! Honou Soldier!

Lincoln: Bravery Star! Ramu White!

Kyurangers and Lincoln: The ultimate saviors! Uchu Sentai Kyuranger!

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as a Kyuranger!

Lucky: LUCKY! A white Kyuranger is awesome!

Me: And representing the Constellation of Aries the Ram. So awesome!

Nico: YEAH!

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Kyurangers, Lincoln, and Amity went after the Indavers, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed and bashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Amity and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate.

---

Later we were over in the forests of Montana and we were there to find Lily the Witch. She is a great magician from what we heard from Ash.

Ash: You guys will like Lily. She is an awesome magician.

Me: I have a feeling she will be an awesome magician.

Shannon: I always love good magic.

We saw a stage and we saw Lily putting on an awesome show. We saw her turn a girl into a Beautifly!

Me: WHOA!

May: Wow that was amazing!

She then changed her back and everyone cheered wildly for her.

Lily the Witch: Thank you all, thank you! You've been a really delightful audiance.

When the show was done we went to meet her.

Cozy Glow: It's nice to meet you, Lily.

Lily the Witch: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Ash it's great to see you again.

Ash: Same to you Lily.

Misty: How have you been?

Lily the Witch: Really good Misty and Brock you're looking good too.

Brock: Thanks Lily. It's great to see you again.

Lucy (Pokemon): It's a pleasure to meet you Lily. I'm Lucy, one of the members of the Hoenn Region Battle Frontier.

Lily the Witch: Pleasure to meet you and you and Brock must be dating?

Lucy (Pokemon): We sure are.

Brock: Yep and it's great.

Me: That was a great show you did Lily.

Lily the Witch: Glad you liked it.

Ash: We sure did. And I loved how you turned me into a Pikachu.

Loud House Stella: Wait. You actually turned into a Pikachu?!

Ash: I sure did and it was so cool!

Pikachu: Pika!

Me: I didn't know you have the power to turn people into Pokemon.

Lily the Witch: It sure is neat.

Allie Wilde: That is so cool.

Me: It sure is. We saw you turn that girl into a Beautifly and that was amazing. Also many of us have the power to turn into Pokemon.

Carolyn Hope: Yep. But we got that kind of power through the splicing and slamming of scientists from the major Villain Pokemon Teams.

Laney: It's true.

Lily the Witch: Wow that is amazing!

Lily's Murkrow: Krow,

Me: Want to see?

Lily the Witch: Sure.

I turned into Rapidash and she was amazed!

Me: Ta-da!

Nico: Right I forgot you can do that J.D.

Allie Wilde: Wow! And Rapidash is one of my favorite Pokemon.

Eli: That's right! I forgot you could do that.

Arrietty: That's so cool.

Applejack: It sure is amazing.

Poromon: You must be Lily's Murkrow.

Lily's Murkrow: (glares at him) Don't talk to me. You have a very bad reputation in the Murkrow community.

Cybertron Sideways: Oh, c'mon! Poromon only got to have 3 fights!

Me: Wow! Meowth is not the only one that can talk in our language.

Lily's Murkrow: Yeah I was taught how to talk too.

Me: That's neat.

Lily the Witch: Yes it sure is.

Freeway: (to Lily's Murkrow) Look, to be fair, your fellow Murkrow was the one who started that fight.

Me: It's true.

I reverted back.

Nico: It's a really weird story. And it was all over a lottery ticket which turned out to be real.

Lily's Murkrow: Really?

Nico: Yep.

Lily Murkrow: Geez.

Me: Yeah.

Trixie: It's amazing to meet a fellow magician. I'm Trixie Lulamoon but you can call me The Great and Powerful Trixie!

Lily the Witch: Pleasure to meet you.

We later went back home.

---

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Buzzerbeak squawked, reminding Nico that it's his turn to lead.

Nico: Yes I know it's my turn to lead Buzzerbeak. And I have just the mission for all of us. We're gonna go to Nowhere, Kansas. Scans are picking up an incredibly high level of supernatural energy there.

Eli: Whoa something big must be going on there.

Laney: And the last time we were there was when me, Lana, Lincoln and Bai Tza were there to take down some of their major villains.

Nico: I remember that.

Eli: That must've been an amazing adventure.

Me: It sure was.

Spot, Top, Gearhead, Abra Kadabra, Ragdoll, Swordsman, Grizzly, Shade, Batroc, and Trapster then appeared.

Spot: Can me, Top, Gearhead, Abra Kadabra, Ragdoll, Swordsman, Grizzly, Shade, Batroc, and Trapster go with you guys? I can even open a portal that leads to our next stop.

Nico: You all sure can. We're going to Nowhere. Time to get everyone together. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville.)

Everyone gathered and stood in lines.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! We're going to Nowhere, Kansas for a big mystery. Scans have picked up a massive spike in Supernatural Energy and our mission is to find out what is causing it. Before we leave, I have one rule and it's for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't follow that rule, you will be sent back here to the estate for the remainder of the mission. DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: At ease everyone. We leave in 10 minutes so take that time to get what you need for this mission. That'll be all! DISMISSED!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires commander.

Allie Wilde: This is gonna be so awesome.

We were off to Nowhere, Kansas.

---

NOWHERE, KANSAS

---

We arrived in Nowhere, Kansas.

Nico: Here we are guys.

Aria Blaze: Nowhere is a fitting name for this place.

Sonata Dusk: I hope they have good tacos here.

Nico: I'm sure they do. Many of you guys haven't been here before like we have but man it sure looks like things have gotten better around here since we destroyed Dr. Zalost and the major enemies here.

Twilight Sparkle: I heard about that from Bai Tza. Those must've been dangerous enemies.

Bai Tza: You have no idea Twilight. They were dangerous as all get out.

Francesca: And it was after those adventures that I was inducted into the team.

Lana: I remember that. That was so awesome.

Nico: Yep. Lets go find the Bagge Farmhouse.

We went to find it.

We arrived at the Bagge Farm.

Nico knocked on the door.

KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK!

Eustace answered.

Eustace: We don't need any! Oh, it's you guys. Well, come on in, I guess.

Shade: Is that any way to treat teammates, Eustace?

Bai Tza: He's always like that. You just have to get used to it.

We went in.

Muriel: Oh it's great to see you all here.

Lana: Same here Muriel.

Courage: Lana!

Lana and Courage hugged.

Lana: Good to see you Courage.

Francesca: It's good to be back home in Nowhere. I was getting a little homesick.

Muriel: Oh I know Francesca. How are you feeling J.D. after what happened?

Me: Much better Muriel thank you for asking.

Muriel: You're welcome. I just finished making a big batch of my Scottish Dream Cookies with extra buttery goodness.

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

She came back with a huge tray of cookies and we had some and they were delicious.

Me: Mmm!

Nico: Oh wow you make amazing cookies Muriel.

Eustace was watching TV and he saw the news report from when Quagmire was raping people in Gotham Royal York.

Eustace: (sees a news report) Stupid Quagmire trying to rape people and hitting dogs. Was he trying to imitate me or something?

Broccoli Guy: I know, right? Even you probably won't sexually assault Muriel like he did.

Eustace: We already covered that in one of those battles.

Nico: Yeah we sure did.

Laney: Quagmire is now nothing more than a forgotten memory.

Eustace: Thank goodness.

Kalolo: At least we will never see that ugly-chinned face ever again. He is an absolute monster to all women everywhere.

Jiraiya: Yes he sure was. Even I wouldn't go that far. I may be a super-pervert but even I have honor.

Nico: That's good. But Nicole is still watching you sensei.

Top: Okay, we're gonna get straight to the point. Did any of you guys notice anything out of the ordinary happen lately?

Courage: Not really. Thanks to you guys, all of my enemies are either dead or in the Masters of Evil.

Nico: Hmm. Well our scanners have picked up a huge spike in Supernatural Energy here. But it's not showing anywhere in Nowhere.

Allie Wilde: That's unusual.

Me: Very unusual. Commander do you have any idea what it might be?

Nico: In all honesty I don't have any idea.

Chill Bill: We should still keep our eyes peeled. You may never know what might happen.

Nico: Agreed. We need to be ready for anything.

Eli: Maybe I can use the Force to find our where this energy is coming from.

Nico: Good idea Eli. But wherever this energy is coming from we had better find it soon.

Courage: No way are me, Shaggy, and Scooby going!

Shaggy: Like yeah, no way!

Grizzly: Okay, J.D. This is the part where you force these 3 chickens to help and- (sees something in Muriel's hands) Muriel, what are those you're holding?

Muriel: Why these are my new Courage Snax.

Nico: Are those like Scooby Snax?

Muriel: (Whispers in his ear) These are from the store and I use these to get Courage going.

Nico: Oh. And here Shaggy, Scooby you can have my latest flavor of Scooby Snax, Peppermint Hot Cocoa.

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

Nico gave them some of his Scooby Snax and they loved them and were tasty!

Shaggy: Wow! Those are like perfect for winter.

Alister: Courage, I'm glad you, Shaggy, and Scooby are going to help out. But I have a question.

Courage: What is it?

Alister: Are there any cicadas in Nowhere?

Courage: I don't think so.

Nico: How can there be Cicadas? There aren't very many plants or trees around here.

Alister: Because they just popped up out of the ground!

We saw numerous giant cicadas appear!

Razor: Whoa! At least they aren't Ci-Kat-A's!

Velma: Those are HUGE CICADAS!

Gearhead: Muriel, are there any vehicles around here I can use?!

Muriel: Just Eustace's truck!

Nico: Here Gearhead!

Nico pulled out a scroll and unsealed a TOS-1 Russian Rocket Launcher Tank.

Gearhead: Ooh! A TOS-1 Rocket Launcher Tank. Good choice.

Nico: Thanks. Lets squish some bugs!

Babs Seed: Let's use our entrance to take most of them out early!

Me: Smart idea Babs. Lets do it!

We rushed at the cicadas and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted numerous Cicadas all over and obliterated them and then a phoenix cry was heard and the spirits of all the Marvel Heroes appeared and swirled around the explosion and then fired elemental blasts and obliterated many of the Cicadas. The spirits converged and we came out.

We went at the Cicadas and squished and pulverized and smashed and burned and blasted them all over.

Swordsman: Let's cut these guys up!

Eli: (Ignites Lightsaber) You read my mind!

They went and slashed numerous cicadas all over.

Pumbaa: Timon it's time for a bug feast!

Timon: You don't need to tell me twice Pumbaa! Lets eat!

They charged and ate the Cicadas all over the place and they were chomping and eating them all over.

After 45 minutes we destroyed the Cicadas.

Tayuya: Okay. I think most of them are destroyed for now. Those fucking roaches were gross!

Nico: You're telling me Tayuya but Timon, Pumbaa and Lana seemed to like them.

Lana: BBBBBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUURRRRRRRRRRPPPPPPPPPP

Timon: Whoa nice one Lana.

Lana: Thanks. Man I am stuffed.

Pumbaa: Me too! I ate like a pig.

Lana: Pumbaa you are a pig.

Pumbaa: Oh. Right.

Batroc: Isn't this the part where we look for clues?

Velma: Yes it is.

Eli: And the first place is to find out where the spike in Supernatural Energy is coming from.

Nico: Go for it Lieutenant.

Eli concentrated.

Larry Koopa: Did you find anything, Eli?

Eli was in deep meditation.

Nico: Larry give him time.

Eustace: Stupid dog! (Pulls out ugly mask) OOOGA BOOGA BOOGA!

Courage, Shaggy and Scooby: AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHH!

Eustace laughed at them.

BONK!

Francesca and Muriel bonked him on his head with rolling pins.

Eustace: OW! What did I do!?

We laughed at Eustace.

Me: (Laughs) That always cracks me up!

Allie Wilde: (Laughs) That is funny.

Eli then woke up from his concentration.

Eli: I found it. The energy source is underground. It's coming from what looks like a sphere covered in diamonds.

Nico: Weird.

Ragdoll: We should take care of any cicadas we encounter along the way.

Nico: Right but first we need to find out what this sphere is.

Courage: I know what to do. Follow me.

We went to the attic and went onto the computer and we found out something REALLY FASCINATING! The Supernatural Energy Spike is actually from a meteor that is buried hundreds of feet below the surface. Nowhere is actually in the middle of a huge crater that was made millions of years ago and it was one of the contributing factors that lead to the extinction of the dinosaurs. The meteor is made of unstable Dark Matter and it has incredibly powerful psychic energies that have the abilities of mind control, reality warping and more.

Me: Whoa! This meteor is powerful!

Hunter: (German Accent) Mein Gott! That is one powerful meteor.

Leviathan: I didn't know a meteor like that was here.

Nico: No kidding and it also says that this meteor is the source of all of the supernatural activity that is here in Nowhere.

Barath Beyond: You mean to say that everything Courage went through is because of this meteor?!

Nico: I guess so. And this meteor was here since the Chicxulub Impact over 66 million years ago.

Laney: That's amazing! I had no idea this meteor was what had Nowhere's creepiest events and most evil villains spawn from.

Lana: Yeah that is crazy!

Timon: So that's where most of those mooks came from.

Me: How weird is that?

Bai Tza: I never even knew about this. That is amazing.

Nico: Yeah. But I don't think ANYBODY knew about it. Bizarre.

Eli: It sure is. How freaky.

Me: That is amazing. I had no idea that this meteor was right here underneath Nowhere and has been the source of many of the creepy things that happen here.

Trapster: We should destroy this meteor.

Nicole: No we can't!

Trapster: Why not?

Nicole: Because this meteor is dangerously unstable. If we destroy it, it could destroy the entire planet. Who knows what else it would do.

Nico: Then we'll put it in our vault for safe keeping. There's no telling who else would want to use this meteor for their own gains. We're not just gonna get the job done by sitting here. Lets get digging.

We went downstairs.

Nelson: (to Courage) How do you feel now that you know about the truth of everything you went through.

Courage: Amazing. I didn't know everything I went through was because of this meteor.

Laney: It's shocking that this meteor is the source of all of Nowhere's paranormal, supernatural and evil activities.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Nico: That is really shocking.

Abra Kadabra: I'm sure everything you went through wasn't entirely because of this meteor. Remember the vet who seperated you from your parents?

Nico: Right! I remember that! Many criminals here in Nowhere weren't made here from it. It was all because of people's greed and ignorance and more.

Courage: Right that's true.

Nico: Anyway we're wasting time here. Lets get to digging and get that meteor.

Maria: (to Courage) Courage, that meteor didn't cause everything in Nowhere. Because it didn't cause your bravery.

Courage: No that was all from my heart.

Me: That's right Courage. You conquered many challenges from the goodness of your heart.

Courage: That's true.

Nico: Yep. Lets go.

We got to work. Nico pulled out a Dyna Cap and pressed a button and threw it and then…

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

It popped open and out came a Driller Machine!

Nico: Lets get digging!

We got into the machine and we dug down into the Earth and went to where the Meteor was at.

We were at 6,235 feet down.

May: Any minute now, the main villain is going to show up.

Nico: We're here.

The driller came out through a wall and then we stopped and got out and we saw the meteor being used as one of those disco spin balls and it was emitting a powerful energy that was causing Courage and Scooby to go crazy.

Velma: That must be the energy we picked up.

Eli: It has to be! It's what I sensed.

Nico: Lets get that meteor.

But then A MASSIVE ARMY OF CICADAS AND THE QUEEN CICADA APPEARED!

Me: We're gonna need a lot of pesticides!

Nico: Yep.

Tri-Klops, Evil-Lyn, Trap Jaw, Beast Man, Merman, Evilseed, Whiplash, Count Marzo, Hydrax, Xigbar, Killer Croc, Gator Ghoul, Marluxia, Bonz, Bluto, Torch Tiger and Old Ironface then appeared.

Nico: Wow lots of you this time. Tri-Klops, Evil-Lyn, Trap Jaw, Beast Man, Merman, Evilseed, Whiplash, Count Marzo, Hydrax, Xigbar, Killer Croc, Gator Ghoul, Marluxia, Bonz, Bluto, Torch Tiger and Old Ironface.

Tri-Klops: It's actually me, Evil-Lyn, Trap Jaw, Beast Man, Merman, Evilseed, Hydrax, Killer Croc, Gator Ghoul and Marluxia who have their turn today.

Me: That's fair.

Tri Klops: You guys have been busy.

William: We sure have.

Evil Lyn: That's a very big meteor. Not gonna lie.

Maria: I know, right?

Me: It's as big as a disco mirror ball and it acts like one too.

Trap Jaw: I hope you guys are able to keep it in the Estate.

Me: We will.

Beast Man: (to me) We heard you took down another version of the Sanderson Sisters.

Me: Yep we sure did.

Merman: Good thing the real ones are still alive.

Me: Yep.

Leviathan: It's awesome to meet you all. I'm Leviathan.

Bahamut: I'm Bahamut.

Jörmungandr: I'm Jörmungandr.

Syrup: I'm Syrup.

Tri-Klops: Pleasure to meet you 4.

Me: These are the girls I rescued.

Leviathan: J.D. is a really brave guy. Same with all of his friends and family.

Tri-Klops: He sure is. We have 2 new recruits for you all to meet. J.D. I believe you know this one.

A figure came out and it was SHIP ORG!

Me: Ship Org!

Ship Org: (Seadog Accent) Been many moons J.D.

Me: I still owe you for cutting off my arm!

Allie Wilde: He cut off your arm!?

Me: Yeah and it was painful. But I regenerated it.

Nico: Who did you pick for your archenemy?

Ship Org: Sorry about that lad. But I chose Leviathan as me archenemy.

Me: Interesting. But you're lucky I have the power to regenerate my limbs.

Tri-Klops: Good. Also Francesca you might know this one.

Another figure came out and it was the Almost-200 Year Old Pullution Riddled freak, CONWAY THE CONTAMINATIONIST!

Conway is the main antagonist of the Courage the Cowardly Dog episode "Conway the Contaminationist".

In his only episode, Conway flies by the Bagge house spreading papers saying "Live Longer Live Better" before eventually crashing into their windmill. After that, he is helped insided where he asks for sludge. Once Courage delivers a jar full, Conway drinks the whole jar and tells them there is something in the air.

He then convinces Muriel to turn her vacuum on in reverse causing the air to be polluted suffocating the family while Conway happily breathes in the polluted air and convinces Eustace and Muriel to live like him on the promise that they will live longer and won't have to worry about cleaning equipment. The pollution gets so bad that the government quarantines the house.

Realizing that the pollution is slowly killing Eustace and Muriel, Courage gets a giant vacuum to suck up all of the filth and Conway. With the house completely cleaned up, Eustace and Muriel recover while Conway demands to be let out before growing to like his imprisonment due to how filthy it is. Courage then sends the balloon Conway is trapped in floating away.

---

Francesca: Conway the Contaminationist!

Lana: I liked this guy!

Conway: It's good to see you again my dears.

Me: So you are Conway the Contaminationist.

Nico: I can't believe you managed to live so long is such an incredibly filthy environment.

Laney: He managed to live for over 193 years in just filth and grime.

Everyone: WOW!

Lincoln: That still is amazing to me.

Me: That's unbelievable!

Bai Tza: It sure is something.

Conway: It sure is and I chose Asuna Yuuki as my archenemy.

Asuna: Swordswoman VS Embodiment of Filth. Interesting matchup.

Conway: It sure is.

Lincoln: Go get him Asuna.

Dumbeltron then appeared.

Me: Dumbeltron. Back again for another round.

Dumbeltron: Yep.

Maria: Aren't you already in the usual battles?

Dumbeltron: Of course I am. But I'm just testing out this second safe.

We saw that he had another safe attached to his left hip.

Nico: Cool!

Ben 10,000: This is gonna be awesome.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Lets get the battles started!

We got them underway.

---

Battle 1: Zick, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Pickle & Barley Barrel, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Season 1 Digidestined, Record of Lodoss War, Buzzerbeak and Krankenstein VS Tri-Klops

---

Tri-Klops was first.

Tri-Klops: (to Zick) Hard to believe that meteor is what caused all of Courage's adventures in the first place.

Zick: I know. What a huge discovery. It's so cool how it has all those amazing powers.

Rainbow Dash: It sure is awesome. But a meteor as powerful as that is too dangerous to be in our hands or the wrong hands.

Scootaloo: You got that right. It's amazing that it was responsible for everything that happened to Courage.

Pickle Barrel: It sure is. Wow!

Barley Barrel: Yeah that is so cool!

Whirlwind: And it's a meteor that played a contributing factor in the extinction of the dinosaurs. Talk about coincidental.

Air Lincoln: Yeah we had no idea that America's heartland was made by a meteor impact.

Tri-Klops: That is really freaky. I didn't know that either.

Parn: Yeah that was something.

Tai: None of us did.

Matt: Yeah no kidding.

Izzy: It sure is prodigious when you think about it.

Mimi: You're not kidding.

Tri-Klops: You're not kidding there. Lets do it!

They fired waves of wind, energy and elements and lightning and smashed him down!

Zick: ALL RIGHT!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

---

Battle 2: Optimus Prime, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Magic Skylanders, Crystal Laney, Season 2 Digidestined, Fairy Tail Guild, Aria Blaze, and Juniper Montage VS Evil-Lyn

---

Evil-Lyn was next.

Evil-Lyn: (To Optimus) I think we can agree that the meteor is too powerful to be used by anyone.

Optimus Prime: Yes a meteor like that is far too powerful for humans or even us or any villain.

Twilight Sparkle: All those psychic powers in that meteor are too powerful even for us.

Luster Dawn: But we had no idea that it was the source of everything that happened here in Nowhere.

Spyro: None of us did. Everyone was completely oblivious to its presence.

Crystal Laney: That is so freaky.

Davis: Yeah you're not kidding.

Yolei: This meteor has amazing powers like the Cicean Meteor that was in the Hidden Star Village.

Cody H.: Yeah it sure was.

Lucy H.: This meteor is really something.

Juvia: Boy it sure is. We had no idea it was the cause of many of Courage's adventures.

Cana: That is really something.

Aria Blaze: Its power is incredible.

Juniper Montage: Yeah it sure is.

Evil-Lyn: Yeah. Lets do it!

Optimus Prime: AUTOBOTS TRANSFORM AND ROLL OUT!

They fired waves of magic, energy and elements and smashed her down.

Optimus Prime: A victory for Cybertron!

Twilight Sparkle: That was amazing!

Battle 3: Sydney Burlington, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Undead Skylanders, Lightning Lisa, Season 3 Digidestined, Box Trolls, Bone Chompy and Broccoli Guy VS Trap Jaw

Trap Jaw was next.

Trap Jaw: (to Sydney) Didn't expect to find out that Ash was a Pikachu once. And his clothes were left intact. Do you wish the same thing could be applied for your clothes too?

Sydney: Boy I sure do and that is really something!

Starlight Glimmer: I had no idea that Lily had this kind of power. It's really cool.

Cozy Glow: Boy it sure is.

Hex: I think it's really cool myself and she is a magician.

Lightning Lisa: She and Starlight Glimmer would make great assistant magicians to Trixie.

Takato: I think so too and all 3 of you would make great magicians.

Jeri Katou: I think so too.

Rika: That is awesome and I love magic.

Eggs: I do too.

Trap Jaw: I'm glad. Lets do it!

They fired waves of magic, energy, elements and bones and smashed him down.

Sydney Burlington: YEAH BABY!

Starlight Glimmer: That was amazing!

Battle 4: Nanette Allbright, Fluttershy, Tornado Bolt, Life Skylanders, Plant Lola, Digimon Frontier Digidestined, Abel, Esther, Seth, Chill Bill and Chompy VS Beast Man

Beast Man was next.

Nicole: Uh oh, I think I know who that voice belongs to. You can come out now, Mack.

A figure came out, and it was Mack, an enemy of Mario's from Super Mario RPG: Legend of The Seven Stars.

Princess Peach: I should've known he'd show up here.

Frosta: I think it's time I taught this walking pyromaniac knife a lesson.

Suddenly, Frosta's eyes turned neon marine blue and she was surrounded by a marine blue energy with ice crystals and snow flakes, and as she unholstered her Defender of Etheria sword from her back and approached Mack, she left marine blue energy, ice crystals, and snow flakes with every step.

Then, Frosta was surrounded by a massive vortex of marine blue energy with ice crystals and snow flakes and a ice blue phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Frosta emerged, but she was changed forever.

Frosta grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she has neon marine blue eyes and a a marine blue energy with ice crystals and snow flakes surrounding her, she had a deer with the Ice Kanji in its antlers emblazoned on her forehead, and she had large marine blue angel wings with ice crystals and snow flakes falling from the marine blue feathers, she has on deer earrings with the Ice Kanji in its antlers, and a necklace with a deer with the Ice Kanji in its antlers, the massive, wide, double-edge blade of her Defender of Etheria sword grew to 6'5" in length, and the long black handle grew longer, she has on a sleeveless blue blouse with an ice blue phoenix, blue skirt with ice crystals, and ice blue leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long ice blue sleeveless trenchcoat with snow flakes and ice crystals and the symbol of Etheria on the back. Frosta now had on her brand-new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with marine blue gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large marine blue gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was an ice blue kanji below the symbol of Etheria and it said, "Frosta, Princess of The Kingdom of Snows, Defender of Etheria and Eternia, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Master of Ice, Snow, and Cold."

フロスタ、雪の王国の王女、エテリアとエターニアの擁護者、リンカーン・ラウドの愛する未来の妻、そして氷、雪、そして寒さのマスター

Frosta has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 SUBZERO DEER SNOW ANGEL OF LOVE!

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get that hothead.

Lincoln and Frosta went after Mack, who fired blasts of fire at them, but they absorbed it, and it made them stronger, and they attacked him with powerful blasts of ice, snow, and marine blue energy from Frosta, and neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning from Lincoln, which hit Mack, and explode with incredible power. Lincoln grabbed

Mack on the head, and absorbed his fire powers, and he, along with the rest of us, made them our own.

Frosta: Shall we end him once and for all, Lincoln?

Lincoln: Let's do it, Frosta.

Frosta and Lincoln: DIVINE SNOWSTORM MEGABLAST!

Frosta and Lincoln fired a massive blast of neon blue and marine blue energy with ice crystals and snow flakes surrounding them, and once they hit Mack, they exploded with incredible power, and he was Super Hakaied forever. We cheered for what Frosta and Lincoln did, as they'd holstered their weapons and powered down, but Frosta's new clothes, weapons, jewelry, and body were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Perfuma up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he'd wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

Courage: I never thought it would be you two that were behind this!

Nico: Especially after you were destroyed the last time.

Francesca: Yeah! We killed you both!

Katz: We would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids!

Le Quack: I suppose this is the part where you kill us?

Evil Seed: No. We have a better idea.

Hydrax: And thanks for the Number Cards!

Eli: Numbers 8 and 46.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Yep. And now you two are going back to jail.

Spot: I'll beam them there.

He did so by opening one of his portals and he had them put in a cell in the Masters of Evil Prison.

General: Thanks for catching those guys.

Francesca: You're welcome General.

General: Maybe we can use this meteor to take out big threats like the dead Grandfather and Xehanort.

Killer Croc: As tempting as that is, we can't do that.

Lieutenant: Why not? This meteor can even take out Mr. Mind and his gang in one shot.

Gator Ghoul: First of all, we're not going to kill all of Mr. Mind's gang. Just half of them.

Marluxia: And as much as we'd like to kill Mr. Mind easily, we prefer to do it in ways that won't destroy the planet.

Me: Yeah as tempting as it is to use this meteor as a weapon, it's far too dangerous to be used because of its power.

Nico: Colonel is right. This meteor will be put in our vault for safe keeping.

General: Oh all right.

Nico: Great job today everyone. Lets go home.

Courage: (To the viewers) Boy this was an awesome mystery and adventure. I hope you liked it and all that.

Me: I know I did.

We went back home and we put the Dark Matter Meteor in our vault for safe keeping. But then to our shock and surprise, All of Nowhere, Kansas instantly grew a massive forest and flowers and trees and it was huge! We were amazed!

Another awesome fanfic done.

Straight Outta Nowhere: Scooby Doo Meets Courage The Cowardly Dog is an awesome and funny movie! I loved it and it came out on September 14th, 2021 and it was so awesome! Great crossover movie. Also this chapter was made to honor the late actor and actress who voiced Eustace and Muriel: Lionel Wilson who played Eustace and Thea White who played Muriel. They were so awesome voicing them.

R.I.P. Lionel Wilson: March 22, 1924 - April 30, 2003

R.I.P. Thea White: April 15, 1940 - July 30, 2021

STUPID DOG! OOOGA BOOGA BOOGA!

AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHH!

BONK!

OW! WHAT DID I DO!?

The first part of the chapter is for the 1993 movie Hocus Pocus and it is gonna be awesome having the girls of Leviathan: The Last Defense with us. I forgot to tell you all which girls are gonna appear last chapter so I decided to go with Leviathan: The Last Defense as the next choice. Sorry about that. The 2nd part is for The Amazing World of Gumball and I know some of you like that show. It's not my kind of show but I wanted to get it out of the way for Lincoln's Rescue. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all game me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be for Mighty Magiswords and me, The Leafeon Gene-Slammer and Vambre are going to meet a girl named Mika and she is the girl with the blond hair and she makes numerous cameo appearances in Mighty Magiswords. AND you're gonna think I'm crazy but Morbidia and Gatteau are gonna come back to try and kill us again to get revenge. The next rescue for Lincoln is gonna be in the world of Ed Edd N Eddy and we're going to have Lincoln beat the living crap out of Jimmy in that world for the infamous If It Smells Like An Ed Episode and rescue a bunch of girls from the Kankers. The next chapter is for the Goosebumps book You Can't Scare Me and we're going to meet Eddie and Courtney and take down The Mud Monsters of Greene Forest and surprisingly they will be in the forest right next door to Slaughter Swamp where the base of The Legion Of Doom used to be. We're going to face awful monsters made of mude and destroy them.

See you all tomorrow.

Battle in The Mud

In the land of Lyvsheria over in the Kingdom of Rhyboflavin, me and Taylor Emerson were walking around the bazaar.

Me: So the next rescue is in Rhyboflavin.

Taylor Emerson: Have you been here before?

Taylor concentrated and groaned as her skin turned green.

Me: But you haven't Taylor. This is the Kingdom of Lyvsheria and it's the home land of Prohyas, Vambre and Princess Zange and their friends.

Taylor turned into LEAFEON!

Me: YEAH!

Taylor Leafeon: This is so cool! I didn't know there was so much to do here.

Me: Yep there's a lot to do. Lana was here the first time and we all came back and took down many of their enemies.

?: And you will pay for killing us both!

Me: Oh crap! I thought we were done with you both!

We turned and saw MORBIDIA AND GATEAUX!

5-minute shorts

She and Gateaux first appeared in the short "Too Many Warriors" hired by Docky Boardman to stop Mister Sucker Punch from terrorizing the Dockman Pier. They see the Warriors for Hire and begin to make fun of them. Both groups soon realize that they were both hired by different people to do the same job. Princess Zange and Docky decided that who ever defeats the squid first will earn the reward. Witch Way attempt to use dark magic against the squid by bringing plush carnival prizes to life, but it doesn't work as planned, since Mr. Sucker Punch is much larger than the stuffed animals. After this, Prohyas tries to use the Ground Pound Magisword, but accidentally drops it behind him, cracking the pier and sending the ferris wheel rolling into the ocean. Witch Way claim that they would already have the job done if the Warriors hadn't shown up, and try to destroy them for intruding on their job. Vambre uses the Laser Pointer Magisword to distract Gateaux, causing Sucker Punch to sock them into the ocean. At the end of the short, Morbidia swears revenge on Warriors for Hire, as she and Gateaux are attacked by the evil stuffed animals they created.

TV-series

She and Gateaux first appeared in "The Mystery of Loch Mess" where they are envious of the Warriors for getting a job from Princess Zange. The two plan to follow the Warriors and steal their job so they can gain the glory and take the reward. The two were trapped and captured by Queen Porcina and, as well as the Warriors, almost fed to the Loch Mess Monster. After the Warriors set the delivery folk free, Witch Way took this as an opportunity to take credit and give the folk a boat to escape.

In the episode "Cleanliness Is Next to Grupliness", Morbidia is furious that Warriors for Hire made the cover of Mercenaries Monthly before Witch Way, and is seen burning a large stack of copies. While she is ranting to Gateaux, Grup flies by, and the two are hit by his horrible stench. Morbidia compares the smell to a hairball that Gateaux coughed up two weeks ago. Gateaux takes offense, claiming it to be an offensive cat stereotype. Before he can finish saying this, he is cut off by Morbidia, who points out the source of the offensive odor. She tells Gateaux that they can use this against the warriors, also inquiring why Gateaux doesn't have a tail. They are later shown revealing that they ratted the Warriors out to Princess Zange, threatening Grup's residence in the headquarters. At the end of the episode, as punishment, the Warriors sent Grup's old and smelly molted skin to their headquarters.

In the episode "Felonious Prose", Morbidia and Gateaux overhear Vambre mention that she would lose a whole day to a new Veronica Victorious book, and hatch a plan to write a fake novel (much to Gateaux's delight, as he is eager to write his first fanfiction) and leave it at the doorstep of Warriors for Hire HQ for Vambre to find. Although Gateaux came up with the idea, Morbidia is quick to take the credit. This plan only somewhat works. While Vambre does remain completely distracted, it's because she hates the book and has to read over it again and again to figure out how a book this awful could have ever been released. This is still going on during their current job finding Buford's lost contact lens on the Lyvsheria sign, leaving Vambre almost entirely useless as her and Prohyas attempt to climb their way out of a pit of small letter-shaped creatures. Witch way soon show up to take the job for themselves. When Gateaux repeats one of Prohyas's words, Morbidia scolds him, saying that he is only supposed to repeat her words. Morbidia and Gateaux attempt to make their flashy (although delayed) introduction, but soon find out upon being climbed and pushed downwards that the letter creatures like shiny things. When Gateaux attempts to respond to Vambre's many criticisms of the book and justify the "author's" choices, Morbidia scolds him once more, this time for "too much independent thought". Upon learning from Noville that the book is a fake, Vambre unleashes her anger on Morbidia and Gateaux, and resolves to leave them in the pit to find their own way out.

In the episode "Gotta Get Grup to Get Down", Morbidia and Gateaux enter in the competition to become Rhyboflaven's official royal entertainer, and show up just in time to mock the Warriors for Hire, instead calling them Snore-iors for Hire. Afterwards, they take to the stage with their usual loud flashy introduction, this time with a persuasive flair. During this, Morbidia blows a kiss to the audience, leaving several members charmed by her. Much to the Warriors' dismay, Morbidia proclaims that they will be pulling a rabbit from a hat. Instead of using any real magic, they poorly cover the hat with a cloud of smoke as Hoppus is (visibly) lifted through a platform in the floor. This somehow manages to impress the audience. Later, when Grup takes the stage to perform, they begin to point and laugh at his performance. However, after Prohyas begins singing along with his revisions, Morbidia and Gateaux begin to worry that Grup may stand a chance after all. Morbidia shouts at Gateaux to do something, causing him to release a violent horde of squirrels onto the stage. This backfires, and manages to add to the performance. When Grup is declared the winner, Morbidia lets out an exclamation of disbelief. Helmut appears to deliver his signature line ("Dorks!"), causing Morbidia to turn him into a frog.

In the episode, "Dungeons and Dayjobs", Morbidia and Gateaux enter Slugburger only to find that the Warriors are working there. Morbidia begins to make fun of them and their current situation. After this, she finally decides to order some food. She begins to order a Junior Slugburger, but changes her mind halfway and decides instead on a Double Mega Slug Deluxe. Upon inquiring about the types of cheeses, she is upset that they don't have swiss. While Vambre is making the order, Morbidia continues to complicate it by adding things as its being made. After Vambre finishes what eventually becomes 2 Double Mega Slug Deluxe burgers with 24 added things, Morbidia claims that her and Gateaux have changed their minds, and just want a glass of water. When Prohyas starts getting visibly angry with them, Morbidia claims that the customer is always right. After Prohyas threatens the duo with Dolphin Magisword, Witchy Simone steps in and takes care of Witch Way instead.

In Little Sword of Horrors, Morbidia and Gateaux are seen advertising outside their house, when Prohyas walks by with Carnivorous Plant Magisword. The magisword leans down and eats a spider off the ground. Morbidia is in shock that her spider roommate Natasha, who she's totally had this whole time, has just been eaten. When she and Gateaux try to attack the sword with their magic, it spits it right back at them. The magic swaps their species, turning Morbidia into a cat and Gateaux into a human.

In Witchy Simone Ruins Everything, Morbidia replaces Gauteaux with Witchy Simone, but later reveals she had planned to betray her from the very beginning.

Taylor Leafeon: Whoa who are they?

Me: That's Morbidia and Gateaux. They were rivals of Prohyas and Vambre and they HATED each others guts ever since they were in Warrior School.

Taylor Leafeon: That is an intense rivalry.

Morbidia: The warriors ruined everything for us and we should have been prestidigitizing a better tomorrow!

Gateaux: Better.

Me: Better tomorrow my butt! You don't even know about one thing happens when you use dark magic.

Morbidia: And what's that?

Me: That use of dark magic comes with a terrible price.

?: That's right you clods!

A girl with blond hair came and surprisingly it was a girl that we have seen many times in the bazaar and on the docks and all over Lyvsheria.

Me: Wow you're the Broccoli Jeweler girl.

Mika: My name is Mika and it's a pleasure to meet you J.D. and you too Taylor.

Taylor Leafeon: Same here.

Mika: Pleasure too.

Morbidia: Then we'll have to destroy you too for stepping in!

Gateaux: Destroy!

Me: Bring it on ugly! (Holds hand out) SUPER HAKAI!

I had them Super Hakaied forever and destroyed them for good!

Me: Your rivalry was getting really old.

We then went to the forest and I put on my blind man glasses and Taylor reverted back.

Taylor was human again. But naked.

Taylor: (covers herself) Mika, before we bring you to the Estate, I'm gonna have to ask about any special talents you have.

Mika: Actually I do. But first…

She gave Taylor new clothes.

Taylor Emerson: Oh thanks.

She put them on.

Taylor Emerson: Wow I look good in your outfit Mika.

Mika: Thanks and I also use Magiswords like Vambre and Prohyas too. They are cool. Check it out.

Announcer: DRAGON FIRE FURY MAGISWORD!

It was a sword that had the head of a dragon!

Me: COOL! You are perfect for the team.

Mika: Thanks.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

After Super Hakaing Morbidia and Gatteaux, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Nora Valkyrie, Ruby, Weiss, Blake, and Yang were heading to Peach Creek in the infamous episode If It Smells Like An Ed, and not only is Lincoln going to beat the living crap out of Evil Jimmy and show the kids what he did, but he's also going rescue the eighteen girls located here and the Eds from The Kanker Sisters.

Lincoln: Oh man, we're in Peach Creek, specifically the infamous episode If It Smells Like An Ed, and I know what I'm going to do here, not only am I going to beat the living crap out of Evil Jimmy and show the kids what he did, but I'm also going rescue the eighteen girls and the Eds from The Kanker Sisters.

Me: That's right, big guy. I did this adventure last time, and now, it's your turn.

Nico: (Snickers) I can't wait to see what you're going to do to Evil Jimmy and The Kankers, big guy.

Lincoln: (Smiles) Trust me, Nico, what I'm going to do to them is going to be a thousand times worse than what J.D. did to Evil Jimmy and The Kankers long ago.

Me: This is gonna be good.

Nora Valkyrie: And we're going to smash their faces in.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eighteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the eighteen girls, along with the counterparts of Ed, Double D, and Eddy, but they've been surrounded by the counterparts of the kids of The Cul-De-Sac outside of the cabin and the Kanker Sisters inside the cabin.

Lincoln: I found the girls and the Eds, but they've been cut off by the counterparts of the kids of The Cul-De-Sac outside the cabin and The Kanker Sisters inside the cabin. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over, and Lincoln got the eighteen girls and the Eds away from the Kankers, and he tied them up with neon blue energy straitjackets and he stripped them of their strength, and we made it our own. But, he wasn't done, he got to the kids and showed them who was responsible for the missing paintbrush, wiping off Plank's mouth and stuffing it into Double D's shorts, piercing the Paper Mache heart with a hockey stick and writing Eddy's name on it, placing a painted bootprint on the cinderblock and on Plank's back, tied up Jonny 2x4 and glued Jujubes on him, giving Rolf Jujubes to mislead the Eds, and making a deal with The Kanker

Sisters by making a viewing mirror.

The kids saw who it was that did this: it was none other than Evil Jimmy, and when they saw it, they were shocked beyond belief by this act of betrayal, but none more so than Sarah, she saw his true colors and she was betrayed by her own best friend all just because Eddy gave him a wedgie.

Evil Jimmy: Yes, it was me, and I'd do it again.

Lincoln: You did all this, just because you wanted revenge for something as insignificant as a wedgie. But, to make it even worse, you made a deal with worst bullies in all of the Cul-De-Sac, The Kanker Sisters to get back at The Eds. You know of what the Kankers were capable of, but you were blinded by revenge, and I'll never forgive you for this.

Lincoln grabbed the tied-up Kankers, and threw them at Evil Jimmy, and they crashed into each other and landed on the dirt. Then, Lincoln took out a can of spinach and ate the spinach.

GULP! BAM! BOING!

Then, he flexed his abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, and in his massive biceps was the image of The Death Star exploding and on his chest was a small toy boat that turned into a massive and fully loaded and fully armed battleship and it fired its cannons.

BOOM BOOM BOOMBOOMBOOMBOOMBOOMBOOMBOOMBOOMBOOM!

He went after them and he beats the living crap out of them.

BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM! TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING TING! BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM BLAM! BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP BAP!

Lincoln smashed and pulverized them all in a brutal fight cloud!

When he was done, Evil Jimmy and the Kankers looked like they were badly mangled by a very large group of crazed superheroes.

The kids apologized to the Eds, and they became friends with them, and they cut their ties with Evil Jimmy. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the eighteen girls located there, and Lincoln recognized them as soon as he saw them. They were Sylia Stingray, Priscilla Asagiri, Nene Romanova, Linna Yamazaki, and Reika Chang from Bubblegum Crisis, Milly Thompson and Meryl Stryfe from Trigun, Isabela from Dragon Age, Haruko Haruhara from FLCL, Himeka Tatsugami, Anri Sonohana, Aoi Asahina, Akane Owari, Chisa Yukizome, Kanon Nakajima, Toko Fukawa, Yui Samidare, and Tenko Chabashira from Danganronpa.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Sylia Stingray, Priscilla Asagiri, Nene Romanova, Linna Yamazaki, Reika Chang, Milly Thompson, Meryl Stryfe, Isabela, Haruko Haruhara, Himeka Tatsugami, Anri Sonohana, Aoi Asahina, Akane Owari, Chisa Yukizome, Kanon Nakajima, Toko Fukawa, Yui Samidare, and Tenko Chabashira.

Nicole: From Bubblegum Crisis, Trigun, Dragon Age, FLCL, and Danganronpa, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Sylia Stingray: Yeah, we're okay, thanks for saving us.

Then, when Sylia Stingray and the other seventeen girls saw who it was that saved them from The Kanker Sisters and the vengeance-crazed Evil Jimmy, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Sylia Stingray: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made seventeen clones of himself, and he and the clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Sylia Stingray: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did, and he merged the counterparts of the kids and The Eds with the ones in our world, except for Evil Jimmy and The Kanker Sisters, who've been tied to a tree by their underwear, and subjected to the same punishment as Eddy got in Brother, Can You Spare An Ed?

* * *

After putting Evil Jimmy in his place, we were training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were going to meet Scarlet's friends, and deal with Dr. Gel and the entire Gogol Empire once and for all. We found out that when Lincoln rescued Scarlet, her world merged with Earth.

Lincoln: I can't wait to meet your friends, Scarlet.

Scarlet: And we're also going to deal with Dr. Gel and the Gogol Empire once and for all.

Lincoln 2: I should've guessed that the last of the Gorilleans has joined the Gogol Empire. Despite his brutish appearance, he's also incredibly smart. But, we can't let him get away with this. I'd dealt with them long ago in battle, and I've killed many of their soldiers long ago.

J.D. 2: He's right, I've seen just how strong Lincoln's become when he joined the Ebonwu Squadron, and all that constant training was really paying off, along with learning about the different species in the universe.

Me: That's awesome.

We met with Dandy, Honey, and Prince, and when they found out that Scarlet is now a future wife of Lincoln, they cheered, and they know Lincoln will take care of her, and he's a man of his word. Then, we got to work, Lincoln formed a cloud of darkness and it clouded the visions of Dr. Gel's soldiers and mercenaries. Then, we'd used our Parasitic Giga Energy Drain technique, and fired powerful blasts of red energy, which wrapped around them and sucked out their energy and we absorbed it, causing our auras to flare up and it made us stronger, and killed the mercenaries. Then, we got to the main room, and waiting for us was Dr. Gel.

Dr. Gel: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived.

Me: That's right, and we're here to take you and the Gogol Empire down.

Dr. Gel: We'll see about that.

Dr. Gel went after us, but Lincoln punched him right in the face, and he'd transformed into Daydream Lincoln and unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider muscular back, and he clashed with Dr. Gel, as sparks went flying. Then, Lincoln destroyed his cane, and slashed him in the chest, and he blasted him with neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the core, elemental blasts, and super lightning from his hands, massive blade, and the eight massive orbs orbiting around his legs.

The Mane 9, the rest of Lincoln's future wives, Lincoln's sisters, parents, and friends all saw Lincoln's Daydream form, and they were amazed.

Lori: Wow, so that's Lincoln's Daydream form? That's so awesome!

Luna Loud: You said it, dude. Lincoln never ceases to amaze us, he's been learning more and getting a lot stronger.

Princess Celestia: (Giggles) And based on the looks and blushes on Twilight and her friends' faces, it appears they're also impressed by Lincoln's Daydream form.

We saw the Mane 9's blushing faces and looks of amazed awe when they saw their man's Daydream form.

Then, Lincoln slashed off Dr. Gel's arms, and he was bleeding profusely, as he screamed in agonizing pain from the attack.

Lincoln: And now, this is the end of you and the Gogol Empire. GOGOL EMPIRE GENOCIDE BLAST!

Lincoln fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy, which hits Dr. Gel, his right-hand partner, Bea, and Admiral Perry, and obliterated them forever, and Super Hakaied their spirits. We cheered wildly, as Lincoln holstered his massive blade on his wider muscular back, but before he could change back to normal, The Mane 9 and the rest of his future wives rushed up to him, and they kissed him wildly on his face and body, leaving lipstick marks all over his face and upper body.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Whoa is right, J.D. Man, that Lincoln's been marked by the kisses of his future wives, and that's a warning: anyone tries to hurt him, they're going to have to deal with numerous future wives, who's going to kick their asses and make them beg for mercy.

Lori: Was Dad like this when you guys were together, Mom?

Rita Loud: Oh yeah, sweetie.

We went back home to the Estate, and Scarlet's friends were now part of the team, and they're also made aware about our upcoming battle with Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and they're also going to help in the battle to come.

* * *

After destroying Dr. Gel and his minions, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, the Zyouhger Rangers and Ryuko Matoi were heading to Alpine University.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Urban Legend: Final Cut, and I know what I'm going to do here, I'm going to save the students and stop the killer.

Me: That's right, big guy. It's time that scumbag gets sent to the Raft.

Ryuko Matoi: Alpine U sure is quite a colorful place.

Eli: That's right, but I think someone is causing trouble.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of a girl calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw Amy Mayfield, Trevor Stark and Reese, but she's been cornered by Professor Solomon.

Lincoln: Oh man, guys, I found Amy Mayfied, Trevor Stark and Reese, but they've been cornered by Professor Solomon, and he's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over to Amy, Trevor and Reese, and Lincoln punched Professor Solomon in the stomach and sent stumbling backwards.

Amy Mayfield: Oh man, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, they're here.

Reese: I thought we were done for.

Nicole: Solomon's gone too far trying to kill you, that overgrown brat's gonna get his just desserts.

Professor Solomon: You'll never take me alive! Moebas, get rid of them!

Then, an army of Moebas appeared from the movie sets.

Yamato: Moebas, I should've known you'd summon them, Solomon. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Ryuko Matoi: Count me in, as well.

The Zyuohger Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Ryuko walked up to the army of Moebas.

Zyuohger Power Rangers and Lincoln: WILD INSTINCT! AWAKEN!

AAHHHAAHHHAHAH!

In a flash of light all seven of them transformed and Lincoin transformed into his new Zyuohger Power Ranger form, but his Zyouhger Power Ranger uniform and helmet is black with a white snake visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Yamato: Monarch of the Skies, Zyuoh Eagle!

Sela: Monarch of the Wild Seas, Zyuoh Shark!

Leo: Monarch of the Savanna, Zyuoh Lion!

Tusk: Monarch of the Deep Forest, Zyuoh Elephant!

Amu: Monarch of the Snow Fields, Zyuoh Tiger!

Misao Mondou: Monarch of The World, Zyuoh The World!

Bud: Monarch of The Blue Skies, Zyuoh Bird!

Lincoln: Monarch of the Dark Caverns, Zyuoh Snake!

Zyuohger Rangers and Lincoln: Doubutsu Sentai Zyuohger!

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as a Zyuohger Power Ranger.

Nico: That is so cool!

Yamato: Yeah, a black Zyuohger Power Ranger is awesome!

Professor Solomon: A costume change won't save you. Get them!

The Zyuohger Rangers, Lincoln, and Ryuko Matoi went after the Moebas, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed and bashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln cuts

Professor Solomon down with his newly improved Sword of Taranis, and he exploded in a purple flame, and he was sent crashing into a coffin, and we tied up him in a straitjacket and chains. We cheered wildly for what Lincoln did, as he holstered his massive sword on his back. We checked on Amy Mayfield and the others, and they were okay.

Then Amy Mayfield, Trevor Stark and Reese moved to Gotham Royal York for a fresh start on their lives, and as soon as we got back home, Lincoln threw Professor Solomon in the Raft, where he was then thrown into a padded cell, where he shall spend the remaining days of his life.

After dealing with Professor Solomon, we were then training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds.

Suddenly, a bright light had shined down on the Estate, and we covered our eyes. Then, as the bright lights faded, we uncovered our eyes. Suddenly, we saw nine teenage demons appear in the Estate, which came as a huge surprise. Then, when the Demon Sorcerers saw them, they immediately recognized them. The nine demons were Pyra, Luna, Sona, Gust, Terra, Volteer, Liquidelle, Avalanche, and Pin Yin, Demon Sorcerer of Wood. Their children and neice

Shendu: Pyra?

Tso Lan: Luna?

Xiao Fung: Gust?

Tchang Zu: Volteer?

Po Kong: Avalanche?

Hsi Wu: Sona?

Dai Gui: Terra?

Bai Tza: Liquidelle?

Me Wait a second, who's that?

Uncle: That is Pin Yin, Demon Sorcerer of Wood, highly dangerous and the neice of the Demon Sorcerers.

The teenage demons got their sight of vision back and when they saw us, they were surprised.

Liquidelle: Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Me: Same here, Liquidelle.

Gust: And we also heard about your adventures, and I have to admit, you have quite the repertoire

Lincoln: Thanks, Gust.

Then, when Luna saw Lincoln, immediately, her face lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7"0 tall, adorable, white-haired hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles with eight-pack abs and deep sapphire blue eyes.

Luna was stumbling like crazy trying to even talk to him. We giggled at the sight of what's just occurred.

Nico: Whoa, I knew it, any girl who sees Lincoln winds up going crazy.

Me: Well, can you blame him? Lincoln's gone from being the cute 11-year-old boy into an extremely tall and extremely muscular man with handsome features that can cause any girl who hasn't met him to go speechless, combine that with his personality and charisma, and you've got a real ladies man.

Lori Loud: (Giggles) Just like you, J.D. We've seen you more than once charm the ladies.

Nico: She's right, dude. You do got that kind of charm that really attracts the ladies, and Lincoln's got that very same charm.

Luna (JCA OC): Um, Lincoln. I know that you already have a lot of future wives and I just met you, but…?

Then, Lincoln understood what Luna was asking, and he replied by picking her and hugged her in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed her on the lips, which she returned with equally intense passion, as she wrapped her arms around his neck. We all cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sister to their future husband's harem. But no one was more happier then Tso Lan, who was tearing up after finally getting to see that his daughter finally find her special someone and he knew Lincoln would look after her and keep her safe.

Lincoln: Of course, Luna. And now, you are now part of my harem.

Luna (JCA OC): Thanks cutie.

Nico: Whoa, he understood what Luna was asking, and he replied with the same gesture as when he met the girls he's rescued.

Me: You got that right.

We were going to like having the children of the Demon Sorcerers here as new members of the team, and Luna as a new future wife of Lincoln, and they were also made aware of our upcoming war with Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and they swore to fight alongside us against Mr. Mind and his goons.

---

Later at Dexter's house, Dexter was taking us to his lab.

Panda King: (Chinese Accent) Hello, Dexter. Do you need any help here in your lab?

Dexter: I most certainly do. I'm going to head to the abandoned part of the lab.

Me: Whoa your lab must really be big.

Dexter: It is.

Dexter pulled a book on his bookcase and it opened up and we went in and we saw that Dexter's lab was massive!

Me: WHOA! Dexter your lab is incredible!

Nico: It's amazing. I didn't know you had such a huge laboratory.

Dexter: It's quite a sight isn't it.

Eli: It sure is. Wow.

Allie Wilde: This is amazing.

Dexter: Follow me.

We followed Dexter as we flew and the lab looked like it went on forever.

Dexter: I apologize if this lab goes on forever. Before I met you guys, I did not have other hobbies.

ElDradimon: Don't worry about it. No one's that perfect.

Lori: Before we met J.D., Lisa used to be just like you.

Lisa Loud: Indeed I did firstborn eldest sister. My studies were far too important for anything else.

Me: That's understandable.

We flew on until we came across an old and abandoned part of the laboratory.

Me: WHOA!

We saw a lot of machines that were run down and old.

Nico: Wow!

Eli: Man it looks like no one has been in this part of the lab for years.

Varie: Yeah no kidding.

Allie Wilde: It's amazing that you built all this Dexter.

Dexter: It sure is.

Me: There is still some stuff that's salvageable here. Lets take a look around and see what we can find.

We walked around the old part of the lab and we saw lots of stuff and then Varue came across something.

Varie: What's this?

Varie found an old invention and it was Dexter's first invention that he made when he was a baby. It was a button with a bell and a light bulb.

Varie: Wow look at this invention.

Varie showed it to us.

Me: Wow look at that.

Dexter: That was my first invention that I made back when I was an infant.

Me: Wow it's very well made.

Lisa Loud: Very well made Dexter.

Lisa pressed the red button and the bell rang and the lightbulb turned on.

Me: Wow that was cool.

Eli: Very well created. Dexter you should keep that. It's your first ever invention. It should be put in a special place.

Dexter: Good idea.

We then heard something and we saw a bunch of robots.

Slugslinger: Are you Dexter's old robots?

Robot 1: (Robotic Voice) That is correct. We are Dexter's Early Creations.

Robot 2: (Robotic Voice) Dexter invented us one…

Robot 3: (Robotic Voice) by one.

Robot 4: (Robotic Voice) We were all his greatest work.

All: BUT HE ABANDONED US! AND NOW HE SHALL PAY FOR HIS NEGLECT!

Me: Now hold on! Dexter is a great guy and he is also an awesome genius. Also he's just a kid like many of us!

Nico: That's right. Many of us are kids.

Eli: Yeah!

Rollbar: Plus, Dexter's been very busy with responsibilities.

Robot 1: What responsibilities?

Lynn: Like saving the world from jerks like Thanos and Xehanort.

Me: And making incredible discoveries for the benefits of humanity. You know how scientists are. They are very busy all the time. So many things to discover and many secrets of nature to unlock.

Lola: You should be grateful to him! Now, what do you say to Dexter for saving the world many times?

The robots knew we were right.

Robot 1: Oh you're right. Dexter we are sorry we tried to attack you the first time.

Dexter: I'm sorry I abandoned you all.

Robot 3: We accept your apology.

Me: Awesome. Lets get you guys cleaned up and restored.

Robot 4: Good idea. And we can help you all salvage this part of the lab.

Eli: Thank you.

We fixed up the old part of the lab and made it as good as new at a breakneck speed and more and made it fully operational and more and we got the robots fixed up and upgraded and more.

We then went back to the World Tree Estate.

---

Later we were watching TV.

Wildrider: J.D., you know it's your turn to lead, right?

Me: It sure is.

We saw puppet versions of Eustace and Muriel and Courage was on the Puppet Muriel's lap. Francesca was the operator. The puppet Eustace was in his chair reading a paper and Puppet Muriel was rocking in her chair with Courage on her lap.

Muriel: (Through Francesca) Nice day today isn't it Eustace?

Eustace: (Through Francesca) Long as it don't rain.

Francesca had the puppet Muriel rock in her chair.

Eustace: (Through Francesca) Stupid Dog! (Pulls mask out) OOOGA BOOGA BOOGA!

Courage: AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHH!

Eustace laughed at him.

BONK!

Puppet Muriel hit Puppet Eustace on the head!

We laughed hysterically.

Eustace: (Through Francesca) OW! WHAT DID I DO!?

Me: Wow! Hey that's really good Francesca.

Francesca: Thanks. I've been practicing for a while.

Tri-Klops, Merman, Evilseed, Evil-Lyn, Trap Jaw, Beast Man, Hydrax, Killer Croc, Gator Ghoul and Marluxia saw the whole thing.

Marluxia: That was really good.

Gator Ghoul: It sure was.

Me: And I have just the mission.

I went over to Nico's Goosebumps books and picked out a book. It was You Can't Scare Me.

Nico: That's a good one. You Can't Scare Me.

Hydrax: That is gonna be good.

Trap Jaw: (sees the monsters on the cover) Lana, I think you're going to have a lot of fun with this next one.

Lana: You bet I will and I love the mud!

Nico: Figured you would go for that one J.D. You know how much Lana loves the mud.

Lincoln: That's my little sister for you.

Eli: Oh yeah and this is gonna be good.

Me: Yep.

Evilseed: And can we come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. And believe it or not, Greene Forest is right next door to Slaughter Swamp.

Killer Croc: Wow right next door to the old Legion Of Doom HQ.

Me: Yep.

Eli: Wow this is gonna be interesting.

Marluxia: It sure will be. By the way where are Eustace and Muriel?

Francesca: They went out to the grocery store. They should be back…

Then Eustace and Muriel came in.

Francesca: Oh they are back now.

Muriel: Oh. Getting ready for another mission?

Me: We sure are.

Eustace: What is it this time?

Me: We're going after Mud Monsters from the Goosebumps Book, You Can't Scare Me.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to New Jersey.

TRENTON, NEW JERSEY

We arrived in a suburb of Trenton, New Jersey.

Drag Strip: Let's go and find the heroes who fought the mud monsters before.

Nico: They are Eddie and friend Courtney. King Believe it or not Courtney is a really fearless girl.

Me: That's what I read.

We arrived at the Eddie's house and we saw Eddie and Courtney playing together and they were having fun.

Me: Wow they sure are having fun.

Eddie and Courtney saw us.

Courtney King (Goosebumps): Oh wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Eddie: It's so awesome to meet you all!

Me: Same here to you two.

Tri-Klops: So, how are you two doing today?

Eddie: We're doing awesome. We're soon gonna get ready to head into the forest to take on more of the mud monsters.

Me: That's a coincidence. We came here to do the same thing too.

Rarity: Indeed and we're going to make those revolting repulsive piles of filth pay for their crimes!

Courtney (Goosebumps): I can't wait to make those monsters pay.

Me: I know. Also Courtney we heard you aren't scared of anything.

Courtney (Goosebumps): You heard right.

Me: I bet you're not scared of this. Kate I'm sorry you got to see this.

Kate Lloyd: I know what you're gonna do J.D. Okay.

Me: Thanks.

I then turned into a fusion of all the monsters from the 1982 and 2011 movies and 2002 Video Game of THE THING!

Courtney (Goosebumps): WHOA THAT IS SO AWESOME!

Eddie screamed in fright and peed his pants in fright!

I changed back.

Me: Sorry about that.

Scrapper: You might not be scared of anything. Eddie? Not so much.

Me: I have a feeling I gave him nightmares.

Courtney King (Goosebumps): But how did you do that J.D.?

Me: I have shapeshifting powers. I can transform into anything and anyone.

Laney: It's true.

Me: I used those powers to scare the living crap out of 2 local thugs 5 years ago.

Nico: Yeah it was awesome.

Courtney (Goosebumps): That is so cool!

Eddie: Speak for yourself! That was scary!

Allie Wilde: We've seen scarier things too.

Me: Yep. We saw Zombies, Monsters, Witches, Werewolves, Demons, Ghosts, Many awesome and terrifying things that go bump in the night.

Shannon: Yep and my ancestors are also witches.

Courtney King: Oh wow!

Me: Lets head out to the Greene Forest.

Courtney King: YEAH! Lets do it!

Tri-Klops: How will we know when these mud monsters are approaching?

Eddie: They make really loud gurgling sounds.

Me: That's easy. Also from what I remember, mud melts when it comes into contact with water and hardens when exposed to extreme heat.

Nico: So we'll need a lot of fire and water.

Me: Yep.

Sunset Shimmer: This is gonna be a big battle of mud.

Lola: Yeah it sure will be.

Cybertron Ransack: Will we have to wait long for them?

Eddie: No they know when food is near and they smell fear.

Me: Then we'll be ready for them.

Eli: Yep. This is gonna be one amazing battle.

We were off to Greene Forest.

We arrived there and we sat down and waited.

Merman: You two want some snacks while waiting?

Eddie: Sure.

Courtney (Goosebumps): Okay.

He gave them fishsticks.

I was in a tree watching the mud for anything unusual and I even had my 7 extra eyes on stalks watching. Surprisingly I found out that each eye has its own form of vision on the Electromagnetic Wavelength and they are as follows:

1: Radio Waves

2: Microwaves

3: Infrared

4: Rainbow Light

5: Ultraviolet Light

6: X-Rays

7: Gamma Rays.

Me: Having all these extra eyes is very handy.

Nico: What can you see with those eyes J.D.?

Me: All the forms of light on the electromagnetic spectrum. One for each eye.

Astrotrain: Are those similar to Tri-Klops' eyes?

Me: In a way. But remember how I got these eyes?

Nico: This was a crazy side effect transformation of being infused with that DNA to turn him into a Rokumbanite Hybrid.

Astrotrain: Oh right! Yeah that was nuts!

Eli: Yeah it sure was.

May: What's taking them so long?!

Gator Ghoul: Maybe they're onto us May. (Chuckles)

I then saw something through one of my eyes and in the Infrared Eye, I saw a mound rise up out of the mud!

Me: There!

I pointed to the northeast and we saw 6 mud mounds and they formed into THE MUD MONSTERS!

Nico: It's the Mud Monsters!

Fred Jones: The Mud Men are real!?

Me: They sure are.

Tarantulas: Let's do our entrance to start things off!

Me: Lets do it!

We went at them.

The Mud Monsters roared and then…

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above them and Skeletor's maniacal laugh was heard and the spirits of Skeletor's forces swirled around the explosion and converged and then we came out!

We were ready to face THE MUD MONSTERS!

Me: Time to turn you guys back into solid rock!

Evilseed: Let me see if I can use the plant life here to my advantage.

Evilseed commanded the plants all over and they smashed the Mud Monsters into pulp. But they reformed.

Me: At least you can do that Evilseed.

Nico: Lets see if Fire will work on these freaks.

Nico fired a blast of fire and it hit a Mud Monster and hardened him in an instant.

Ben: Wow! Just like Camille's so-called parents.

Nico: Yep.

Laney fired a blast of energy and it hit the hardened mud monster and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eli: Take that!

Wave Man: Maria, let's use water on these guys!

Maria: You read my mind!

Maria and Wave Man fired waves of water and they hit some of the Mud Monsters and melted them into nothing.

Maria: All right!

But then suddenly I felt an unbelievably strong power!

Me: WHOA! What in the world is emitting an enormous power like that!?

Nico: I don't know but wow!

Suddenly a massive flash of rainbow light appeared and then we saw that the power was coming from a Sailor Soldier. But this was no ordinary Sailor Soldier. This was the most powerful Sailor Soldier in the entire universe: SAILOR COSMOS! She looked like a white hair version of Sailor Moon and she had grey eyes.

Me: WHOA! Sailor Cosmos!

Sailor Cosmos: (Divine Cosmic Voice) That is right J.D. I am Sailor Cosmos and I am honored to meet you all. I felt that you are the one that destroyed Sailor Chaos and saved Sailor Galaxia from herself.

Me: That's right.

Beast Man: You really picked a Hell of a time to show up. We're kinda in the middle of something here.

Sailor Cosmos: I will be glad to help you all out.

She saw the Mud Monsters coming.

Sailor Cosmos: Cosmic Galaxy Fury!

She fired a massive wave of energy from her staff and it completely obliterated many of the Mud Monsters like they were nothing!

Me: WHOA!

Eli: What power!

Nico: Incredible!

Allie Wilde: That was awesome!

Me: She is definitely not called the Most Powerful Sailor Soldier in the Entire Universe for nothing. Wow!

Beast Man: I guess it was REALLY good timing.

We saw Lana playing in one of the mud monsters!? What the what!?

Blackarachnia: Lana, are you really playing in the Mud Monsters right now?!

Lana was playing in the Mud Monsters!? WHAT THE HELL!?

Lana: Aw it's not so bad! Besides it's fun!

Nico: Lana we're in a battle here!

Lana: Aw man!

She came back.

More and more and more and more Mud Monsters then started appearing all over the place! THERE WERE THOUSANDS OF THEM!

Killer Croc: Let's see if they taste good! (bites a Mud Monster's hand off)

But the mud tasted like pure dirt and he spit it out.

Killer Croc: BLECH! Nope it's not.

I fired a wave of fire and hardened many Mud Monsters and they were solid rock.

Nico and Eli then fired waves of fire and lightning and destroyed them and turned many of the Mud Monsters into dust.

Allie Wilde then fired massive blasts of fire at the Mud Monsters and hardened them.

Allie Wilde: This is crazy!

But then Allie felt a massive and incredible pain in her back!

Me: Allie what's wrong!?

Allie Wilde: My back hurts!

Suddenly her shirt bulged and then ripped and out came fire angel wings!

Me: OH WOW!

Ratbat: I knew it was only a matter of time before you got wings!

Allie Wilde: Wings?

She saw that she had wings!

Allie Wilde: My own wings!

Nico: WOW!

Me: Allie you look even more awesome with wings now.

Leviathan: She sure does. She looks great.

Hydrax: These Mud Monsters are screwed now!

Me: They sure are!

Allie Wilde: Time for me to fly!

Allie then flew into the air like a bird and she fired a massive shower of fireballs from above and they hit the Mud Monsters all over and incinerated them into nothing!

Sailor Cosmos: Wow! That was amazing!

Nico: It sure was!

Triggerhappy: I wonder if they go splat when we destroy them?

Scrappy: Lets find out! DADADADA DA DA! PUPPY POWER!

Scrappy went and picked a Mud Monster up and threw him into the air and then it crashed into the ground with a massive SPLAT!

WHAT A MESS!

We splattered them all over.

Then the mud monsters globs moved.

Evil Lyn: What are they doing?

The remaining Mud Monster started moving together.

Nico: I've got a bad feeling about this.

Me: I do too.

The Mud Monsters started merging together and then in one loud roar the mud monsters formed into a massive 100 foot tall MUDZILLA!

Me: It's MUDZILLA!

Lana: AWESOME!

Then Zzzax, Bronze Kneecap, Iron Lung, Duskmon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Arbormon, Mercurymon, The U-Foes, Wrecking Crew, Ship Org, Bluto, Torch Tiger and Nasty Doo then appeared.

Me: Zzzax, Bronze Kneecap, Iron Lung, Duskmon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Arbormon, Mercurymon, The U-Foes, Wrecking Crew, Ship Org, Bluto, Torch Tiger and Nasty Doo.

Zzzax: Looks like you guys were playing in the mud.

William: You could say that.

Me: And we are filthy!

Bronze Kneecap: At least there's only 1 Mud Monster to kill now.

Maria: But it's huge!

Me: It's 100 feet tall!

Iron Lung: I'm sure you guys will find a way to kill it.

Me: Fire and Water and Energy are the 3 things that can do so.

Duskmon: (to me) We heard you ran into Morbidia and Gateaux.

Me: Yeah we sure did.

Grumblemon: Please tell me they're dead again!

Me: Yep they sure are and this time they are going to stay dead.

Ranamon: (Valley Girl Accent) Good. Wow! Is that Sailor Cosmos!?

Me: It sure is.

Sailor Cosmos: It's an honor to meet you all.

Mercurymon: Same here.

Stingrage then appeared.

Me: Stingrage. Back for another round?

Stingrage: Yep.

Gandrayda: Awesome this is gonna be great.

Me: It sure will.

Stingrage: (to Francesca) I heard about that puppet show you did. It was really funny!

Francesca: I've learned a lot of good impressions ever since the Great Fusilli came to our house.

Me: That is very cool.

Nico: It sure was and it was really funny,

Eli: Yeah it was!

Me: Yeah! Lets do it!

We got the battles underway.

They laughed.

Jeri Katou: She's not scared of anything. She just laughed and cheered at J.D.'s transformation of The Thing and it was amazing.

Princess Luna: Her fearlessness is most impressive.

Juniper Montage: That's good we aren't or we would smell horrible for weeks.

Clover the Clever: Yeah and that would not be good.

Hex: When you are an Undead Skylander like myself you get used to the smell of rotten corpses and all that so we're pretty much used to it.

Marble Pie: It sure was amazing that there was so much of the lab that was just sitting there untouched.

Featherweight: Yeah no kidding and it was also where we found Dexter's first ever invention.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) Dexter made that invention back when he was a baby and it also reactivated the robots he made long ago.

Sprocket: It sure did and you should have seen how much of the lab was left untouched for so long.

Nasty Doo.

---

Nasty Doo was up for his first battle with Crash Bandicoot.

Nasty Doo: (To Crash Bandicoot) So, this is our first usual battle, huh, Crash?

Crash Bandicoot: Yeah, that's right. Plus, I've got a surprise up my sleeve.

Spyro: And I can't wait to see it.

Crash Bandicoot's green energy aura with elemental forces flared up, as he transformed into Super Angel 100,000,000,000 Elemental Bandicoot of Bravery. Then, the massive vortex of green energy formed around him and with the symbols of the 10 Elements of the Skylanders, and when it faded, Crash Bandicoot transformed into his newly ascended SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 ELEMENTAL BANDICOOT ANGEL OF BRAVERY, and there's been some new changes. The massive, wide, double-edged crimson blade of his Sword of The Skylanders grew up to 6'5" in length, the long black handle grew longer, and the green angel wings crossguard changed to two silver wolf heads with rainbow gems for eyes and the pommel changed into four large silver wolf heads with rainbow gems in their mouths, and he now has on silver dragon earrings with the Element Kanji in its claws, to go with The Amulet of The Elements on his neck. He still remained at 6'10" in height, but his huge muscles had gotten larger and more powerful, and he still had eight-pack abs, his brand-new outfit from when he had transformed into Super Angel 100,000,000,000 Elemental Bandicoot of Bravery changed, his long black trenchcoat now had the 10 Elements of The Skylanders on the right sleeve, his white shirt with the green phoenix changed to a white tank top with rainbow-colored phoenix, his dark blue pants with the 10 Elements of The Skylanders remained the same, and he still had on his black leather ankle-length combat boots.

We all saw it, and we were definitely in for quite the big surprise Crash Bandicoot had for all of us.

Nasty Doo: Whoa, what the? You've now ascended?!

Crash Bandicoot: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Bravery) Yeah, thanks to all that training and the intense constant workouts, I have ascended and I've transformed into Super Angel 750,000,000,000 Elemental Bandicoot Angel of Bravery, and my Sword of The Skylanders has changed, as you can see, along with my outfit and my physical appearance has also improved even more.

Nasty Doo: Yeah, you look even more incredible, and for your team, you recruited Marik Ishtar and his sister, Ishizu Ishtar.

Crash Bandicoot: Right, and for the theme of this battle, I asked The 10 Elemental Princesses of The Skylanders to participate. In fact, J.D. and Lincoln came up with this one.

Twilight Sparkle: He's right, I represent Magic.

Sunset Shimmer: I represent Fire.

Rarity: I represent Water.

Rainbow Dash: I represent Air.

Fluttershy: And like Crash Bandicoot, I represent Life.

Pinkie Pie: I represent Tech.

Princess Celestia: I represent Light.

Princess Luna: I represent Dark.

Starlight Glimmer: And I represent the Undead.

Nasty Doo: Nice one. Alright, let's do this!

Crash Bandicoot: Bring it on!

Crash Bandicoot and his group fired elemental blasts and energy blasts at Nasty Doo, and they knock him down.

Crash Bandicoot powered down, but the brand-new improvements to his new body were permanent.

Crash Bandicoot: Awesome!

---

We regrouped and we were facing MUDZILLA!

Me: This mud freak is getting hardened and smashed!

Gia: I'm really going to need a shower after this.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Animal Kingdom Platoon!

AAHHHAAHHHAHAH!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Zyuohger Rangers!

Me: I think I'll join in too! WILD INSTINCT AWAKEN!

AAHHHAAHHHAHAH!

I turned into my Ocean Blue Zyuohger Form!

Me: MONARCH OF THE MOONLIT FORESTS! ZYUOH WOLF!

A wolf howl was heard in the background!

Me: UNLEASH THE BEAST!

I fired a sonic howl blast and it hit the huge Mud Monster and smashed it down.

We fired waves of fire and burned and hardened it all over.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming, as we felt the ground rumbling.

Samus Aran: I should've known it would be here.

We saw something emerge from the ground, and it was another one of Samus Aran's enemies from long ago, Thardus, the enormous rock monster created by The Space Pirates.

Me: Whoa, that's Thardus.

Nicole: That's right, the rock monster that was created by the Space Pirates using Phazon.

Samus Aran: That's right, Nicole. Thardus was created long ago by The Space Pirates, as part of their experiment to create sentient creatures out of Phazon, but it was quarantined in a cavern on Tallon IV in the Phendrana Drifts.

Julie Makimoto: Samus, let me face off against this monster.

Samus Aran: Okay, Julie, but be careful.

Suddenly, Julie's blue eyes turned neon blue, and she was surrounded by an orange energy aura with rock fragments and lava, and she unholstered her Elemental Savior of Vestroia, Earth, and Gundalia sword from her back, and as she approached Thardus, she left behind earth fragments, orange energy, and lava with every step. Then, she was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy with lava and rock fragments flying around the vortex, and there was a brown phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Julie Makimoto emerged, but she was changed forever.

Julie Makimoto grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she has neon blue eyes and an orange energy aura with rock fragments and lava surrounding her, she had an Earth Dragon with the Subterra symbol in its claw emblazoned on her forehead, she has large white angel wings with rock fragments and lava coming down from the white feather tips, she has on dragon earrings with the Earth Kanji in its claws and a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Earth Kanji in its claws, the massive, wide, double-edge blade of her Elemental Savior of Vestroia, Earth, and Gundalia sword grew to 6'5" in length, and the long black handle grew longer, she has on a sleeveless pink blouse with a yellow phoenix, pink skirt with rock fragments and lava, and pink leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long sleeveless pink trenchcoat with rock fragments and lava and the Subterra symbol on the back. Julie Makimoto now had on her brand-new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with pink gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large pink gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a yellow kanji below the Subterra symbol that said, "Julie Makimoto, Subterra Bakugan Battle Brawler, Savior of the Earth, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, Amazing Partner of Hammer Gorem, and Master of Earth and Lava."

ジュリィ・マキモト、サブテラ爆丸バトルブローラー、地球の救世主、リンカーン・ラウドの愛する未来の妻、ハンマー・ゴレムの素晴らしいパートナー、そして地球と溶岩のマスター

Julie Makimoto has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 SUBTERRA VOLCANIC EARTH ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were amazed by Julie Makimoto's transformation, and when Lincoln saw what happened to her, he was blushing like mad.

Dan Kuso: Whoa, Julie's transformed.

Runo: You said it. Julie's now become a true Angel of the Earth.

Nico: My words exactly, Runo.

Hammer Gorem: Same here, Nico.

Lincoln: Wow, Julie, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Julie Makimoto: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Subterra Voice of Love) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to take care of this overgrown pile of rocks. (To Lincoln) Would you like to join in?

Lincoln: You already know my answer.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and he transforms into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and joined Julie Makimoto.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get that overgrown pile of rocks.

Lincoln and Julie Makimoto went after Thardus, who fired rocks at them, but they dodged them, and and they attacked him with powerful blasts of rocks, lava, and orange energy from Julie Makimoto, and and neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning from Lincoln, which hit Thardus, and exploded with incredible power, and they also hit him in his weak spot.

Julie Makimoto: Shall we bury that monster once and for all, Lincoln?

Lincoln: Let's get him, Julie.

Julie Makimoto and Lincoln: SUBTERRA VOLCANIC LAVA BLAST!

Julie Makimoto and Lincoln fired powerful blasts of orange and neon blue energy with rocks and lava surrounding the blasts at Thardus, and once they hit, they exploded with incredible power, killing it, and Super Hakaing Thardus for good. We cheered for what Julie Makimoto and Lincoln did, as they'd holstered their weapons and powered down, but Julie's new body, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Julie Makimoto up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he'd wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

Ben: Try this one!

He then used Ghostfreak and Cannonbolt.

Ben: CANNONFREAK!

Shanan: Wow! Half Ectonurite and Half Arburian Pelorota! Very interesting combination.

Cannonfreak: Yeah it sure is.

He rolled and turned into a dark comet and smashed the Mud Monster down.

Slugslinger, Panda King, Rollbar and ElDradimon used the Earth and Digital World Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Slugslinger's Machine Gun, Panda King's fireworks and Flame Fu, Rollbar's agility and ElDradimon's powers 100-fold.

Slugslinger and Panda King: FLAMING MACHINE GUN BARRAGE!

Rollbar and ElDradimon: SPEEDING GOLDEN ROAD!

Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Water Skylanders and Liquid Leni: LIQUID JEWEL BLAST!

They fired waves of fire, energy and lightning and jewels and water.

Another awesome fanfiction done.

You Can't Scare Me was a freaky one. The Mud Monsters were wicked scary. Awesome! The first part was for Mighty Magiswords. The second part was for the infamous Ed Edd N Eddy episode If It Smells Like An Ed and that was funny and stupid. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, XP4Universe, Omegahatchiyak12, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be in the world of Star Trek 1 and me, Varie, Nicole, The Lunala Gene-Slammer and Eli are going to see the largest starship in the Star Trek Universe, V-Ger and we're going to help it as well as meet a Dorome or Earth Elemental named Terraia and she will also have 3 Pokemon Gene-Slammers. She'll have a Tornadus, Thundurus and Landorus Gene-slammer from Cuba named Leona, Maria and Josephine Santiego. The 2nd rescue for Lincoln will be for Star Trek X: Nemesis and we're gonna not only rescue girls but also kill Shinzon and his Reman Men and prevent him from firing the Thalaron Matrix at the Enterprise. Also the next chapter as I'm sure you guessed from the addition of Star Trek X is going to be for Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan and we're going to engage in an epic and awesome space battle with the evil and ruthless Khan Noonien Singh and we're going to make that superhuman monster pay for his crimes in full! And this time we're not going to let Spock make the ultimate sacrifice.

See you all tomorrow.

IN MEMORY OF LEONARD NIMOY

SPACE, THE FINAL FRONTIER. THESE ARE THE VOYAGES OF THE STARSHIP ENTERPRISE. ITS FIVE YEAR MISSION: TO SEEK OUT AND EXPLORE STRANGE NEW WORLDS. TO SEEK OUT NEW LIFE AND CIVILIZATIONS. TO BOLDLY GO WHERE NO MAN HAS GONE BEFORE!

Me, Nicole, Eli and Joanna the Lunala Gene-Slammer were flying through space.

Joanna Libinsky: Why do I get the feeling that this will be a Star Trek themed day?

Joanna concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: I love Star Trek Joanna. It's so awesome how they go to many different planets all over the galaxy and help people in need.

Joanna turned into Lunala!

Me: Yeah!

Nicole: I do too dad. It's so cool. Whoa look at that!

We saw a massive and enormous energy cloud!

Me: WHOA! Look at the size of that energy cloud!

Joanna Libinsky: What is that energy cloud?

Eli: Oh man! This is the energy cloud of V'Ger!

V'Ger is the main antagonist in Star Trek: The Motion Picture.

Biography

V'Ger was one of, if not the most powerful alien entity ever encountered by the Federation. The entity itself was the size of the island of Maui on Earth, while it generated a cloud measuring in at a staggering 82 AUs or 7,000,000,000+ Miles, making it large enough to envelope the entire solar system.

V'Ger was first identified in deep Klingon space, hidden in a massive cloud of energy, moving through the stars towards its final destination: Earth.

The cloud easily destroyed three of the Klingons' new K't'inga-class warships and the Federation monitoring station en route. Later on in the film, the newly refitted starship Enterprise intercepts the energy cloud. After getting the cloud to break off its attack on the Enterprise, Admiral Kirk orders the vessel to penetrate the cloud and discovers the massive vessel residing within. They then reach the front of the vessel and V'Ger then suddenly attacks the Enterprise. A probe appears on the bridge, attacks Spock and abducts the navigator, Ilia. V'Ger then uses its powerful tractor beam to move the Enterprise into its interior. Ilia suddenly reappears on the ship, now replaced by a robotic doppelganger, a probe sent by "V'Ger" to study the crew. Later, Spock takes an unauthorized spacewalk into V'Ger's core. He then minds melds with a massive model of Ilia in the center. Overloaded by information, Spock is knocked out. Later, after being rescued by Kirk, Spock reveals that V'Ger itself, is a living machine.

At the heart of the massive ship, V'Ger is revealed to be Voyager 6, a 20th-century Earth space probe believed lost. The damaged probe was found by an alien race of living machines that interpreted its programming as instructions to learn all that can be learned, and return that information to its creator. The machines upgraded the probe to fulfill its mission, and on its journey the probe gathered so much knowledge that it achieved consciousness.

Spock realizes that V'Ger lacks the ability to give itself a focus other than its original mission; having learned what it could on its journey home, it finds its existence empty and without purpose. Before transmitting all its information, V'Ger insists that the Creator come in person to finish the sequence. Realizing that the machine wants to merge with its creator, Decker offers himself to V'Ger, as he merges with the Ilia probe and V'Ger, creating a new form of life that disappeared from the physical realm.

A few weeks later, Spock had mental contact with Voyager while working to defuse a crisis on the Fabrini world ship Yonada. Afterwards Spock reported to Kirk that the part of Voyager that had been Decker seemed to be happy in his new life.

Me: Whoa man! That's the largest ship ever made by the late Gene Roddenberry.

Nicole: That was one of my favorite ships in the series.

Joanna: Cool!

Me: Yep. Lets head in.

We went into the Energy Cloud and we saw that it was an amazing and incredibly vast cloud that stretched on for millions of miles and it was big enough to envelope the entire Solar System.

Me: Wow. This cloud's power is incredible.

Nicole: It sure is.

We then came into the center of the cloud and we saw the ginormous ship V'GER!

We gasped in shock at the sheer size of it!

Nicole: WHOA!

Eli: Look how huge V'Ger is.

Me: It's incredible. At 98 Kilometers in length. It's nowhere near as big as our ship.

Nicole: Unbelievable. It's power is amazing.

We flew on and we saw how big V'Ger was and it was a REALLY MASSIVE SHIP! It was incredible! The ship was 321,522 feet long! UNBELIEVABLE! We were absolutely floored at how massive and long it was.

Me: WOW!

Nicole: Incredible! This ship is amazing!

Eli: It's incredible at how massive V'Ger is.

Me: What's even more amazing is how massive the energy cloud it makes is. It's over 7,000,000,000 miles wide.

Nicole: That's amazing! V'Ger is over 321,000 feet long and it emits an energy cloud that's that massive!? Inconceivable!

Joanna Lunala: That is amazing!

We arrived at the brain of V'Ger and it was an ancient relic that we haven't seen for over 40 years: The Voyager Satellite.

Me: It's the Voyager Satellite.

Nicole: Ancient dust! This satellite was launched back in 1977.

Eli: V'Ger. Voyager. Whoa! They are both one in the same.

Me: Yep.

We then met the embodiment of V'Ger and she was incredibly advanced. It's incredible how much information she knows about the universe and everything. In the movie of Star Trek 1, it was over 300 years since Voyager was launched and it's amazing how much Voyager has seen and learned over that entire period and it evolved into a sentient machine. I convinced V'Ger to help share what it knows with everyone on Earth and more to help us understand all of the vast secrets of the universe and she graciously accepted. We then also met a Dorome, an Earth Elemental made of earth and mud named Terraria and we also met a Tornadus, Thundurus and Landorus Gene-Slammer. The Santiego Sisters: Leona, Maria and Josephine Santiego. I put on my blind man glasses and Eli covered his eyes and I snapped my fingers and the 3 girls reverted back and they were naked and Joanna reverted back.

Joanna was human again. But naked.

Joanna: (covers herself) Trust me. You'll be seeing more of Star Trek later today.

Me: I know and I'm really excited for this.

Nicole: I am too dad. But it was so awesome seeing V'Ger. That's one of my favorite Star Trek Movies of all time.

Leona Santiego: (Covers herself) But movie was really cool.

Maria Santiego: (Covers herself) Boy it sure was.

Josephine Santiego: (Covers herself) It's amazing that V'Ger is the largest ship made in Star Trek. It was about as big as the moon.

Nicole: Actually it was 1 twentieth the size of the moon.

I gave the three girls and Joanna new clothes and they put them on.

Dorome: But at least we helped V'Ger get the info she needed.

Me: Voyager 6. That was a satellite launched long ago.

Nicole: Yep.

V'Ger landed on Earth and it shared so much info on everything it learned and more.

Shinzon

Praetor Shinzon is the main antagonist of the 2002 science fiction film Star Trek: Nemesis, the final film of the Star Trek TNG film series.

He is a clone of Captain Jean-Luc Picard, created by the Romulans for the initial purpose of replacing Picard with a Romulan operative. He later became the leader of the Remans, staging a successful coup against the Romulan Senate and plotting the annihilation of Earth in the name of Reman freedom.

He was portrayed by Tom Hardy, who also played Charles Bronson in Bronson, Bane in The Dark Knight Rises, John Fitzgerald in The Revenant and Venom in Sonny's Spider-Man Universe. He has the distinction of being the final antagonist of The Next Generation Era (which had started with Q in the Star Trek: The Next Generation premiere episode, "Encounter at Farpoint") before the franchise was rebooted in 2009.

Engineered sometime during the mid 24th century by the Romulans, Shinzon was a clone intended to conduct covert espionage within the United Federation of Planets. Shinzon was created from DNA that a Romulan spy was able to recover from Picard while the latter was attending the wedding of Jack Crusher and Beverly Howard. Shinzon he was meant to replace Picard. As part of this plot, his design incorporated temporal RNA sequencing, which vastly accelerated his maturation rate. Like his progenitor, Shinzon, as a child, was diagnosed with Shalaft's Syndrome, which made him hypersensitive to any kind of sound. He suffered until a Romulan physician could be found who was capable of treating rare human illnesses.

Not long after Shinzon was created, a new government came to power within the Romulan Star Empire and the Romulan Senate abandoned its plan, believing it to be too provocative an act if discovered. With no use for such a clone, the Empire exiled Shinzon from Romulus, sending him to work as a slave in the dilithium mines on Remus. Reviled by the Romulans working there, Shinzon became the target of abuse. In his time in the mines, he was severely beaten, having his nose and jaw broken by brutal Romulan guards. One Reman named Vkruk, however, took pity on Shinzon, teaching him strength and compassion; this man would become Shinzon's Viceroy in the conflict to follow.

In 2374, the Romulans declared war on the Dominion, joining the Federation and the Klingons in the Dominion War that lasted until 2375. Enlisting the aid of the slaves on Remus, the Romulan military drafted Shinzon, who quickly distinguished himself in battle and ascended the ranks. Like his Starfleet counterpart, Shinzon became regarded as a great tactician, leading twelve successful engagements against the Jem'Hadar.

Following the end of the Dominion War, Shinzon had both military experience and a capable army at his disposal. Forming an alliance with several Romulan officials, including Senator Tal'aura and Commanders Suran and Donatra, Shinzon vowed to free his Reman "brothers." Setting into motion a plan to overthrow the Romulan government, he and his henchmen constructed a massive warbird, the Scimitar . Operating out of a secret base, Shinzon and his people also developed a weapon that utilized deadly thalaron radiation. Deploying a small thalaron projector in the Romulan Senate, Shinzon was able to kill all the Senate members.

Shinzon's days, however, were numbered. Abandoned by his Romulan creators, Shinzon's temporal RNA aging program was never activated, and it began slowly breaking down his cellular structure. The only way for him to avoid death was to make a complete blood transfusion from the only genetically-compatible donor: Picard. Towards this end, Shinzon concocted an elaborate plot to lure the USS Enterprise -E (and, by extension, Picard) to Romulus. He planted the pieces of a Soong-type android, B-4, on Kolarus III, where he knew that the Enterprise -E would find it. As a result, the Enterprise -E was the closest starship available when Shinzon offered to open peace negotiations between the Federation and the Romulans, and Picard sailed directly into the trap.

Upon meeting Picard, Shinzon delayed his plans, having acquired an intense interest in his originator's history as well as the history of the Picard family. He also became smitten with Counselor Deanna Troi, who was the first human woman (albeit, only half-human) he had ever seen. During his first meeting with Picard and his crew, Shinzon remained hidden in the shadows (he and his Reman "brothers" were not comfortable in the light) and informed Picard of his intentions to negotiate peace with the Federation. After correctly guessing what Picard thought of such a negotiation, Shinzon revealed himself, shocking Picard who now realized he was facing a younger version of himself. Shinzon then cut his own hand with his knife and gave the knife to Lieutenant Commander Data to have Dr. Beverly Crusher examine his blood. Afterward, he invited Picard to dinner in the Romulan Senate, insisting that they had "much to discuss."

During dinner, Shinzon explained to Picard how and why he was created and his upbringing in the mines of Remus. He then asked with great curiosity about the history of the Picard family. Despite their obvious similarities, however, Picard was reluctant to forge a friendship with Shinzon and an alliance with his Romulan government until the Praetor had earned his trust. When Picard left, Shinzon was informed by Vkruk that they were wasting time and reminded the young clone of their mission.

Afterward, Shinzon and Vkruk returned to the Scimitar . Instead of proceeding with their mission, however, Shinzon had Vkruk form a telepathic link between Shinzon's mind and that of Counselor Troi's so that he could make love with her; this telepathic form of rape was a violation and traumatic experience for Troi, but would ultimately assist in Shinzon's downfall.

When further delay was unacceptable because of the accelerating deterioration of his condition, Shinzon ordered B-4 to be beamed aboard the Scimitar to download the data that the android had acquired from the Enterprise -E's computer. Afterward, Shinzon kidnapped Picard by transporting him from the Enterprise -E's sickbay to the Scimitar's brig. As soon as Shinzon left the brig, Picard managed to escape from the Scimitar with the help of Data, who had taken B-4's place, and left the Romulan system aboard the Enterprise -E at maximum warp. During the subsequent trip, Data assured Picard that Shinzon would not have been him even if the two had lived the same lives, because Picard had always aspired to better himself and his understanding of the universe around him, while Shinzon sought nothing but death and destruction for those who had "oppressed" him.

Desperate, Shinzon ordered the Scimitar to pursue the Enterprise -E, and launched an attack in the Bassen Rift, a region where subspace communications were unavailable. In the battle that ensued, Picard continued to elude capture with the assistance of Romulan reinforcements led by Donatra, who had betrayed Shinzon after realizing that Shinzon was planning mass genocide. She subsequently aided Picard in the Battle of the Bassen Rift until her ship, the IRW Valdore, was heavily damaged by a disruptor blast from the Scimitar .

For some time, the battle was in Shinzon's favor, due mostly to his ship's ability to fire while cloaked. Things changed, however, when Troi re-opened the telepathic link that was made between herself and Vkruk, allowing the Enterprise -E to pinpoint the Scimitar' s exact location. With its cloak disabled, the Scimitar began taking damage, but Shinzon was not through yet. After the Enterprise -E's shields took extensive damage, Shinzon ordered Vkruk to lead a boarding party aboard the Enterprise -E to retrieve Picard; unfortunately, the boarding party was pinned down and Vkruk himself was killed by Commander later Captain William Riker in a maintenance shaft.

In whole, however, the battle was not going well for the Enterprise -E. Shinzon had nearly crippled the Federation starship and had even destroyed a section of its bridge, sending at least one Starfleet officer hurtling to his death. Overconfident, Shinzon had the Scimitar turn to face the battle-damaged Enterprise -E, but Picard turned the tables by ramming the Enterprise -E into the Scimitar . With both ships heavily damaged, Shinzon ordered his Reman officer to activate the thalaron weapon and to fire at the Enterprise -E. He then ordered the officer to take the Scimitar into Federation space and complete their mission once every living thing aboard the Enterprise -E was dead.

To stop the thalaron weapon from firing, Picard beamed himself over to the Scimitar . On the Scimitar' s bridge, Picard managed to kill all Reman crewmembers with his phaser rifle. As Shinzon's condition worsened, he engaged Picard in a ferocious hand-to-hand battle which moved from the bridge itself to the thalaron radiation generator room. In the end, Shinzon was killed when Picard used a piece of wreckage to impale Shinzon as the clone lunged in for the kill. With his plans collapsing around him, the dying Shinzon used the last of his strength to pull himself down the makeshift spear and grab the captain by the throat so he could utter his last words: "Our destiny is complete."

As Picard stood in shock, realizing that he, his ship, and the Federation were doomed by the weapon, Data arrived and transported the captain back to the Enterprise -E. Data then fired his phaser at the thalaron generator, destroying himself and the Scimitar, and effectively concluding Shinzon's plan for galactic conquest.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 2002 movie Star Trek X: Nemesis, and I think I know what I'm going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the nineteen girls located here, but we're also going to kill Shinzon and his Reman Men and prevent him from firing the Thalaron Matrix at the Enterprise.

Me: That's right, big guy. Shinzon is a monster who wants to destroy all life on Earth, and he must be destroyed right here and right now.

Eli: That's right, J.D.

Nico: But, what also shocked me was that Shinzon was really an imperfect clone of Picard. But, this also points out a flaw in the cloning process, as well.

Me: Yep it sure does. But the Romulans were REALLY playing with fire. They should never tamper with the laws of Mother Nature.

Yang: Or it'll spell disasterous consequences for many things.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of nineteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the nineteen girls, but they've been cornered by Shinzon and his Reman Men, and they're going to kill them and fire the Thalaron Matrix at the Enterprise.

Lincoln: Guys, I found the nineteen girls, but Shinzon and his Reman Men have cornered them, and they're going to kill them and Shinzon is going to fire the Thalaron Matrix at the Enterprise. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over, and Lincoln punched Shinzon in the face and tossed him right at his Reman Men. Then, Lincoln unholstered his massive Sword of Taranis from his wider muscular back, and with some powerful one-handed swings from his massive blade, Lincoln cuts down Shinzon and his Reman Men, and they exploded in purple flames, and they were Super Hakaied for good.

I picked up Shinzon's daggers and they were good quality and really good craftsmanship and decided to have Eli use them.

We cheered for Lincoln, as he holstered his massive sword on his wider muscular back. Lincoln and Nicole went up to the nineteen girls located there, and when Lincoln saw who they were, he immediately recognized them.

The nineteen girls were Miaka Yuki, Yui Hongo, Takiko Okuda, Suzuno Osugi, Madoka Ootori, and Misaki Himuro from Fushigi Yuugi, Asuka Sugo, Rena Yuki, and Sera Gallagher from Future GPX Cyber Formula, Reimu Hakurei and Marisa Kirisame from Touhou, Relena Peacecraft from Gundam Wing, Machi Komacine from Hunter X Hunter, Raimon Natsumi and Kudou Fuyuka from Inazuma Eleven, Chiara Ferina, Ally Connolly, and Hannah Weber from Element Hunters, and Riko Aida from Kuroko no Basuke.

Lincoln: Oh wow, Miaka Yuki, Yui Hongo, Takiko Okuda, Suzuno Osugi, Madoka Ootori, Misaki Himuro, Asuka Sugo, Rena Yuki, Sera Gallagher, Reimu Hakurei, Marisa Kirisame, Relena Peacecraft, Machi Komacine, Raimon Natsumi, Kudou Fuyuka, Chiara Ferina, Ally Connolly, Hannah Weber, and Riko Aida.

Nicole: From Fushigi Yuugi, Future GPX Cyber Formula, Gundam Wing, Hunter X Hunter, Inazuma Eleven, Element Hunters, and Kuroko no Basuke, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Miaka Yuki: Yes, we're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Miaka Yuki and the other eighteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Shinzon and his Reman Men, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Miaka Yuki: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eighteen clones of himself, and he and the eighteen clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Miaka Yuki: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We cheered wildly, and we got off Shinzon's ship. I decided to have us build our own Scimitar Ship that we can use for our own purpose and I scanned it and made blueprints for it and Lincoln fired a neon blue energy blast at it, and destroyed Shinzon's ship, along with the Thalaron Matrix laser, and we told the crew onboard the Enterprise what happened, and they were grateful that we put an end to Shinzon and his Reman Men for good. Then, we returned to the Estate. We had the Enterprise of Picard taken back to Earth for repairs after sustaining incredible damage.

---

After killing Shinzon and his Reman Men, we were watching TV and playing card games. When suddenly from out of nowhere was a massive and extremely windy black tornado as dark as night and then most of us got a massively splitting headache! It hurt so bad that it felt like our heads were being crushed by a pile-driver, Suddenly I was inside my subconscious and everything in my head was ice cold! WHAT WAS GOING ON?!

Me: Whoa! Why is everything in my head ice cold!?

J.D. 4: It might have something to do with that massive tornado of darkness.

?: That is because of a bridge our worlds is being made.

We then saw Anubis, Egyptian god of death! Except he was wearing clothes like a modern gangster, complete with an ankh choker.

Me: WHOA! You're another Anubis!

Anubis 2: That's right. It's a very strange and complicated story.

J.D. 3: We would like to hear it.

Anubis 2: Okay. Well I am actually an alien.

Me, J.D. 2, J.D. 3 and J.D. 4: An alien!?

Me: Wow!

Anubis 2. A Heliopolian actually. I have lived for over 750,000 years.

Me and J.D. 4: Wow!

Me: 750,000 years!? That's incredible! I've lived for 150,000 years.

J.D. 2: I've lived for over 20,000,000,000 years.

J.D. 3: I've lived for over 75,000 years.

J.D. 4: I've lived for about 20 years.

Anubis: That's quite incredible. But I should tell you how it happened. You see, before I founded the OmniVerse Defense Force, I have always been the kind of person who never made a permanent alliance. I would serve a side until that side no longer benefitted me, then I change alliances. Such as when Set took the throne of Heliopolis after Osiris perished on the battlefield against the villainous sphinx, Omit the Riddleless. I aligned with Set because he had the upper hand in the situation. My courage and knack for negotiating was admired by Set, and I was appointed as Set's head general. But I told Set that I would never make any promises, but he should expect full loyalty, because I knew he wished to carry on his brother's legacy. I kept to my word when Omit and his legions sought to take the kingdom. I knew that the enemy had the upper hand, but stuck with my people. My bloodthirst, skills and powers left a deep wound in Omit's soldiers until they finally retreated, with Omit vowing that he won't rest until he takes the omniverse. Due to my courage, I was rewarded the highest medal, the Ankh of Honor for my loyalty and my courage. Due to that, I realised that my loyalty shouldn't be to either the highest bidder, or the one more likely to win, it should be to those with hope for a bright future, no matter how much blood should be shed. So I founded the OVDF to ensure that Omit and his minions or any villain seeking to disturb order will be defeated and handled accordingly. And we Heliopolians live for eternities at a time. So I went to Earth when Queen Cleopatra died and traveled Earth, seeing countless wonders.

Me: Whoa!

J.D. 2: That's amazing!

Anubis 2: That's right. I have witnessed it all over the course of 75,000 years. Every event all over the history of the Earth I have seen firsthand. Every war, every battle and every event over the course of history and every event that occurred even before the biblical times.

Me: That's amazing! But how did you cope with the pain of loneliness that immortality carries? Usually when you're immortal all you have is an eternal life of loneliness and helplessness.

Anubis 2: That's true. But I kept everyone and everything I know very close to my heart in spirit.

Me: Wow.

J.D. 2: Amazing.

Me: It sure is. I have so much to learn from you.

Anubis 2: I am more than willing to share. But now that I am here, I have a huge task for you.

Me: What is it?

Anubis 2: This may sound hard to believe but I ask that you work with the X Squad, the black ops division of the OVDF, led by a 16-year old half-wyvern boy named Garrett "Drako" Shoefstall. You will love him, he is the son of Professor Martin Shoefstall, one of the leading scientists in cryptizoology. But I warn you, he may be kinda psychotic though kind and goofy at times, somewhere between being extroverted and introverted, he happens to have autism but is sociable, although he won't show it often. He loves comedy and jokes around a lot, even if some jokes are dark. But if villains deserve to die, You better believe that he will make their deaths slow, painful and frightening. An example of him killing a villain was when he killed his universe's Prime Minister Honest by feeding him to killer rabbits.

Me: Really?

Anubis 2: That's right. Garrett was granted powers when he was 10 years old. He was exploring a cave when I heard a noise. He went further into the cave and discovered a strange crystal that came from outer space that held the spirits of Sun Wukong, Zhu Wuneng, Sha Wujing, Slenderman, a dragon prince named Incursio, twin rabbit woo foo knights named Curse and Bless, a demonic gangster named Shin and a ogre gladiator named Ohara. It was of unknown origins. He came closer, trying to grab it and give it to his half-sister, Lillian, then the crystal glowed and a surge of energy shot out of it and struck him. That's when he got his powers. The crystal fused with him and the spirits reside in him now..

Me: Oh man! That's awesome!

J.D. 2: No kidding.

Anubis 2: I know. I saw that. It was amazing. I found Garrett, became his mentor and made him captain of the X Squad. But there's something you should know. Garrett is the descendant of Sephiroth.

Me, J.D. 2: SEPHIROTH!?

Me: The One Winged Angel of Jenova that killed countless innocent people!?

Anubis 2: That's him. Garrett is not ashamed of his ancestry. In fact, he will joke that being related to him is the reason why he is psychotic and prone to violence. So you will have to pay heed when he jokes about being Sephiroth's descendant.

Me: You can count on us. But Sephiroth in our universe is dead.

Anubis 2: I saw that. But also Garrett has 5 awesome and amazing girlfriends. His universe's Lark Cyclonis of Cyclonia, Sapphire Ink of Canterlot City, Viridi, Goddess of Nature, his universe's Princess Morbucks of Townsville and his universe's Mine of Empire City. And he has a surrogate sister named Opaline Trudeau, she has lightning and weather powers.

J.D. 2: Sounds like he's a real ladies man.

Anubis 2: He is. Garrett is a true hero as well. You'll see why. Also he has many amazing skills and abilities because his universe's Chill Penguin was the one who taught him everything he knows and then some. He's a Zord Pilot and he has the Joker mark on the back of his right hand. I have this.

Anubis 2 showed me his mark and it was the Ace the Spades.

Me: The Ace the Spades.

Anubis 2: That's right. He's got quite the set of skills.

He told us that he has dragon flight, lightning breath and the powers of all cryptids. And he also happens to be interested in tech-related stuff and the like, I also am good at video games, watching YouTube, puzzles, reading and horror movies.

J.D. 2: Wow! You taught him really well.

J.D. 4: That's so awesome!

Me: I'll say. You're a really good teacher like me. I better get back and tell everyone.

Anubis 2: Okay. And thank you.

I got back to the real world and it was intense.

Me: Whoa!

Lori: What a rush!

Leni: That was totes intense.

?: What happened and was the culprit Pinhead? If so, then may I use the Lament Configuration Box to stuff him back into hell?

We then saw a boy with messy blue hair and blue eyes and an average build with blue dragon wings, blue dragon horns and a blue dragon tail, he was the same size as Zuko and Azula, he has a blue jacket with a dragon on the back, a blue t shirt, red pants and black slippers. It was Garrett "Drako" Shoefstall. And with him were his universe's Zap, Julie Hinikawa, his universe's Neo Politan, Muty of Brijes, a space pirate named Cronus, Tomura Shigaraki, Himiko Toga, Dabi, Spinner, Twice, Mustard, Magne, Mr. Compress, Cell of his universe, Cyclonis of his universe, Sapphire Ink, Viridi, his universe's Princess Morbucks, Celestia Ludenberg, Snorky, Namue aka his universe's King Shark, His universe's Jinx, his universe's Lila Rossi aka Volpina, his universe's Zoe Aves, Robert the Tire, Megumin, Bonnie the Bunny, a water dragon with a mechanical claw named Claw Jr, a bat unicorn named Black Hole, a vampire girl named Slasha, a parasaurolophus/industrial pounder hybrid named Poundy, Dakota Koder, a black and white gangster named Axel Romano, his universe's Darth Vader, his universe's Mine, his universe's Zone-Tan, Purple Shep, His universe's Ridley, Zoé Lee aka Vesperia, his universe's Konata Izumi, his universe's Kagami Hiiragi, his universe's Tsukasa Hiiragi, his universe's Miyuki Takara, Prince Lotor, his universe's Amity Blight, B-Negative, Rabbid Luigi, a cartoon wolf named Wolfy and Rattlesnake Jake.

Garrett: So you're J.D.?

Me: Yes.

Garrett: Wanna hug? I don't bite.

We hugged.

Nico: J.D., how do you know this kid?

Me: Oh that's right. We have a lot of explaining to do.

Garrett: Yep, and we better do it quick because there's a certain Homelander I wish to clobber today.

We did so and everyone had ice packs on their heads.

When it was done everyone was shocked!

Nico: WHOA! That's amazing! That explains what that massive tornado of darkness was.

Lincoln: So now we are living with an alternate universe alien version of Anubis. That's amazing!

Rita: It sure is.

Lily: No kidding.

?: Delmo.

A Noibat with a chipped ear crawled into the room. He had white pajama pants on and he went over to Lily.

Lily: (Gasp) Oh aren't you adorable.

Lily picked him up.

Eli: Oh that's Noi. He's my starter pokemon and basically acts as my baby brother.

Lily: I've always wanted another baby brother.

Lincoln: Me too!

Opaline then appeared and with her the room had a lightning storm appear in it.

Nico: Wow.

Opaline: Hello everyone. My name is Opaline Trudeau and it's an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Pleasure to meet you too. My name is Nico. Nico Chan.

Zap (Garrett's universe): Pleasure to meet you Nico.

I then saw a scar on Garrett's arm.

Me: Whoa how did you get that scar Garrett?

Anubis 2 appeared as a ghostly figure.

Anubis 2: That's part of what Garrett went through J.D. The X Squad were sent to the world of Wakfu and Garrett got sliced in the arm defending Yugo from the psychotic Eliatrope, Qilby.

Most of us gasped.

Me: Whoa! Garrett is a true hero.

Varie: Amazing! He is a very brave kid. Just like Eli.

Garrett: Yeah, it takes guts to take the hit. Especially if the one hitting you is a elderly nihilistic lunatic who destroyed the Eliatrope homeworld because he was fed up with their idleness and wanted to travel.

Me: I should tell you everything about Garrett.

I went over everthing about Garrett and everyone was shocked and full of surprise!

Lori: WHOA! That is literally amazing!

Sam S.L.: So he defended someone he didn't know from a lunatic? That's rockin dude.

Carol: It sure is.

Nico: And Garrett is just as gifted as you J.D.

Me: He sure is.

Garrett: Yeah. But what is this group you're all part of?

Me: We are called Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we're the most powerful force in the entire universe.

I went over the entirety of our adventures and what we have done and so much more.

The X Squad: WHOA!

Julie Hinikawa: That's incredible!

Muty: You guys have done it all over the years.

Me: We've seen it all too. Some adventures were awesome and some were very challenging.

Yang: They sure were.

Devon Daniels: Oh yeah.

Cell (Garrett's universe): It's gonna be mayhem being with us though, so please pray that your brain cells will be shielded from the mayhem.

Suddenly, Garrett's watch beeped.

Me: Oh it's time to visit Homelander in The Raft in my universe.

Eli: Who is Homelander?

Claw Jr: You would hate this dude Eli. He is essentially Superman gone bad. He presented himself as an All-American good guy, but is actually a corrupt superhero made in a nazi experiment to take over Earth by blackmailing and even assassinating politicians who don't play ball with them and replacing all the essential figures with their toadies. They also smuggled Compound V to terrorist groups in a bid to convince the US armed forces to adopt Supes through false flag operations and we declared war on him and Vought International a couple years ago and we defeated them. You know Lex Luthor right?

Eli: How can I not know about him? He's Superman's archenemy.

Black Hole: Well, Homelander is like Lex times 12.

Eli: Whoa!

Garrett went over everything they did and it was not pretty.

We gasped in horror.

Eli. That's insane! Why would they do all that!?

Lila Rossi (Garrett's universe): Because the Nazis still wanted to rule Earth and live Hitler's fantasy.

Slasha: Yeah and here's the intel on what they were doing.

Slasha gave him a file on the intel she gave us and Eli read it and more. He was shocked!

Eli: He was the one who planned the whole "smuggle Compound V to terrorist groups in a bid to convince the US armed forces to adopt Supes through false flag operations" thing!? THAT'S INSANE!

Poundy: That's one of the reasons why we went into war against him little dude. To show the world that he has lost his humanity and wasn't respecting the number 1 rule of heroics: With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility.

Eli: Big rule.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und it has been a very important rule for us.

Me: Lets introduce you to the people you haven't met.

They did so.

Garrett: Wow! It's awesome to meet you all. How come some of the villains are also in the team?

Nico: Some of them have been rehabilitated and are now part of the teams Redemption Squad. We have a lot of awesome teams with us.

Ridley (Garrett's universe): Quite a bit from what I'm seeing.

Me: Lets head to the Raft of Garrett's universe.

We were off to the Raft.

We arrived at The Raft, S.H.I.E.L.D's own Alcatraz in Garrett's universe.

Eli: So Homelander is now cooling his feet in The Raft?

Garrett: Yep. We locked him up in here after we defeated him.

Axel Romano: He deserves to spend every second of his miserable life in here for what he did.

Eli: Good

Jinx (Garrett's universe): Here we are. The cell of Homelander.

We arrived at his cell and opened it and went in and Homelander saw us.

Homelander: Well look who it is.

Eli: So you are Homelander.

Homelander: That's right kid, and you are?

Me: James Dean Knudson. Just here to see you.

Sunset Shimmer and the Equestria Girls were pissed at Homelander.

Sunset Shimmer: Tell me. Was the friendship you had with your fellow superheroes real?

Homelander: Of course it was! Hell, Black Noir could be considered to be part of my family!

Twilight Sparkle. Then why did you plan the whole "smuggle Compound V to terrorist groups in a bid to convince the US armed forces to adopt Supes through false flag operations" thing?!

Homelander: I'm the Homelander. And I can do whatever the hell I want! And Vought was going broke because of Muty revealing that I left the people on Transoceanic Flight 37 to die to save my reputation, so they forced my hand! What was I supposed to do, Just let me and my company fall into obscurity?! I'll do whatever it takes to leave a legacy!

Shadowcat: Is that what you think a hero does?!

Garrett: Also Team Loud Phoenix Storm were not with us when we declared war on you.

Opaline Trudeau: YOU MONSTER!

Opal then jumped him and she was beating up Homelander savagely. Her eyes turned grey with rage.

Opaline: (starts to cry) You'll never hurt anyone again! DO YOU HEAR ME?! NEVER! (sobs)

Swindle: Guys, we need to stop her before she kills him! (disgusted) I can't believe I just said that.

Garrett: No, let her vent, besides, her mother died because of him.

30 minutes later, Opal was done beating up Homelander and he was bruised badly.

Garrett: Hey Opal, Are you done?

Opal: Yeah, needed to let out some rage.

Eli: Boy, she went through a nightmare.

Garrett: Her mother died because she was one of the people Homelander left on Transoceanic Flight 37, which crashed into the Twin Towers, so she has a right to be mad.

We left the prison.

After The Arrival of The X Squad, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, the LupinRangers and Sam Sharp were heading to the world of Urban Legends.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Urban Legend, and I know what I'm going to do here, I'm going to save the students and stop the killer.

Me: That's right, big guy.

Sam S.L.: Well, let's get to it. I feel like I know who's the killer.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of a girl calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw Sasha, but she was cornered by Brenda Bates, who was about to kill her.

Lincoln: Oh man, guys, I found Sasha, but she's been cornered by Brenda Bates, and she's going to kill her. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over to Sasha, and Lincoln punched Brenda Bates in the stomach and she was sent stumbling backwards.

Sasha: Oh man, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, you're here. Thanks for saving me.

Nicole: What happened to Brenda's boyfriend was wrong, but she's gone too far trying to kill you, she needs to be stopped.

Brenda Bates: I'm not letting you get in my way! Pordermen, get them!

Then, an army of Pordermen appeared from around the campus.

Kairi Yano: Porderman, I should've known you'd summon them, Bates. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Sam S.L.: Count me in, as well.

The LupinRangers, Lincoln, and Sam walked up to the army of Pordermen.

LupinRangers and Lincoln: KAITOU CHANGE!

They transformed and Lincoin transformed into his new LupinRanger form, but his LupinRanger uniform and helmet is green with a white visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Kairi Yano: (Snaps Fingers) LUPIN RED!

Touma: (Snaps Fingers) LUPIN BLUE!

Umiko: (Snaps Fingers) LUPIN YELLOW!

Lincoln: (Snaps Fingers) LUPIN GREEN

LupinRangers and Lincoln: PHANTOM THIEVES OF JUSTICE! LUPINRANGERS!

KRABOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Kairi Yano: Here's an advanced notice: We're taking your treasure.

Brenda Bates: Jokes on you, I don't have any on me.

Kairi Yano: Sorry force of habit.

Brenda Bates: Grrr! Pordermen, Take them down!

The LupinRangers, Lincoln, and Sam went after the Pordermen, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed and bashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln cuts Brenda Bates down with his Sword of Taranis, and she exploded in a purple flame, and was sent crashing into a coffin.

Kairi Yano: We bid you a final adieu.

Brenda got up and out of the coffin, and then she fainted.

Me: Got to admire her spirit.

Lincoln: Yeah.

She got up and Zzzax, Bronze Kneecap, Iron Lung, Duskmon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Arbormon, Mercurymon, The U-Foes and Wrecking Crew congratulated her.

Iron Lung: (to Brenda Bates) Welcome to the Masters of Evil.

Brenda Bates: I am honored.

Me: Whew! That was hectic.

Brenda Bates: And I have chosen Satsuki Kiryuin as my archenemy,

Sam S.L.: It would be her honor.

Me: Scissor Blade vs Urban Legend Psychopath. I like it.

Garrett: Me too. So cool.

Lila Rossi (Garrett's Universe): Yeah.

---

Later we got ready to show Allie the Bikini Bottom Horror comic.

Rhino: Fair warning. What you're about to see might freak you out.

Allie Wilde: I'm ready guys.

Me: Okay.

I pulled out the Bikini Bottom Horror Comic Book and Allie saw it and recognized it.

Allie Wilde: Oh wow! I know this comic. I've read it and it was really interesting.

She got to reading it and it was about how Patrick lost his mind and went on a murderous rampage and killed anyone in his way and he even killed SpongeBob. But the story goes deeper than that as SpongeBob and friends learn that because of Mr. Krabs' greed, he cut off Patrick's arm and used the regeneration to his advantage and took a newly grown sea star and used it to make krabby patties. The people of Bikini Bottom were completely oblivious to what they were eating and then Patrick went on his vengeance spree and killed anyone that got in his way all because of Mr. Krabs greed and money lust. SpongeBob, Squidward and everyone banded together against the evil Patrick who went as THE TORTURED ONE!

---

Patrick Star, or more specifically, his clone the Tortured One, is the main antagonist of the SpongeBob fan webcomic The Bikini Bottom Horror.

He is a more competent yet murderous version of his cartoon counterpart, being able to become a monstrous beast that can grab people and dissolve them into fluids that he then dines on. He is also able to clone into multiple Patricks due to his ability to regenerate his body from severed limbs and vice versa.

The story starts with SpongeBob asking Patrick if he wants to go jellyfishing with him, only for Patrick to ask him if he knows how starfish feed. He then proceeds to eat SpongeBob as he explains, apologizing to SpongeBob after he injects him with enzymes and seemingly kills him. Sandy, after learning this, leaps out to avenge him by slicing Patrick in half. However, this just results in the two halves regenerating to become two Patricks, both of which attempt to eat her.

Sandy manages to make it to the Krusty Krab, where she explains to Mr. Krabs that SpongeBob has been eaten by Patrick and that they need to board up the restaurant before they are too. However, a Patrick sticks a large tendril into the building, smashing a hole through the boards, and grabs Sandy with it, dragging her through the hole. Then the Patrick prepares to kill Krabs, who shifts into his giant crab form to try to kill him. After tearing the Patrick's head off, though, the sea star tells him about how he knows about Krabs cutting off one of his arms and using it to generate a clone, which he tormented for years as he used it to make Krabby Patty meat.

As the Patrick finishes his backstory, a group of Patricks grab Krabs's legs and tear them off. Later, Sandy and Squidward enter the Krusty Krab and see Mr. Krabs overturned, with his legs and claws lying around him in pools of blood. He explains how a Patrick forced him to eat a raw Krabby Patty before a small starfish bursts out of his chest, killing him once and for all. A lone Patrick emerges ande Squidward tries to put him to sleep with a song. This Patrick covers his ears and rips them off before turning into his monster form, breaking Squidward's clarinet and knocking him down onto the floor.

This Patrick then turns back into his normal form, now scarred by the bullets fired at him by Sandy and the spaces where his ears used to be. A group of Patricks then surround the two, preparing to kill them both. However, Squidward turns into his monster/Kraken form, killing all of the clones around them. Sandy then decides to shoot the one that killed Krabs, only for Plankton to appear and tell her not to shoot, explaining that she'll want to see where the clone is going. They follow it underneath the Krusty Krab, where a machine hangs from the ceiling.

Plankton explains that the machine is what the tortured clone was hooked up to, injecting it with growth hormones and allowing Krabs to take pieces of the clone's body and turn them into patty meat. Sandy is so disgusted by the revelation that she winds up puking in her suit. Plankton then shows her something even more disturbing: a cult of Patrick clones. The small Patrick clone tugs on a Patrick's robe and says that he has returned. The Patrick responds by telling him that he is too small and unready to rejoin with the Tortured One, and that he must feed some more before returning again. Then a much larger Patrick enters the area, saying that he is ready to rejoin and that the souls that he once fed would now be fed to him.

The other cultists shout "Rejoice" as he leaps into and falls toward the bottom of the pit. Then a Patrick throws Sandy over the edge of the balcony she's standing on, revealing that Plankton had tricked her into going there so that he would be spared by them. After he leaves, a Patrick absorbs her gun and then holds her above the pit, where she sees a large, outer-space-like vortex, which opens up and reveals SpongeBob's face, who tells her to join him and become a part of something beautiful. Beneath the vortex, it is shown that there is actually a large pool of acid, which some grinning Patricks are being dissolved by.

She seemingly considers joining him before wriggling out of the Patrick's grasp and tossing him into the pit, causing him to dissolve in the acid at the bottom. The other cultists are grabbed by dozens of clawed hands that suddenly break through out of the ground, tearing them apart as they happily watch Sandy get grabbed by the hands, which attempt to tear her apart as well. However, she manages to get free by unzipping her suit and escaping with just her helmet. However, more hands grow from the walls of the tunnel she runs through as a crack forms and begins growing in the earth above. When Squidward flies up to get an aerial view of the crack, he sees that there are actually five of them, all forming the shape of a star. At the center of the cracks is the Krusty Krab, which is destroyed as a huge starfish arm breaks through the ground and lands on Larry.

Larry is then torn apart and killed by the tiny appendages of the colossal starfish, which then eats him and stands up above the wreckage of the Krusty Krab, revealing itself to be the tortured clone that Krabs had been using as his source for Krabby Patty meat for years, now also combined with many Patricks. It uses another arm to break through the roof of a building where some survivors hide out, eating Bubble Bass and a few other unfortunate fish. It then attempts to eat a mother and her child, but Squidward grabs the arm with a rope and yanks it out before it's able to grab them, saying to it that its fight is with him.

They engage in a battle, with Squidward tossing the Tortured One down onto the ocean floor, ordering it to stay down. It responds by lifting itself up and causing Squidward to fly into his house, destroying it in the process. In response, Squidward lifts up SpongeBob's pineapple and tosses it straight into the mouth of the Tortured One, causing it to bleed and begin choking as Squidward flies up to finish it off. Meanwhile, a Patrick that had learned about the secret formula's true amount of secrecy and became heartbroken over the realization, finds Gary, who nuzzles against the clone's leg. The clone responds with a promise to redeem himself for his wrongdoing and make things right.

Squidward tries to shove the pineapple further down the Tortured One's throat, only for the pineapple to break into multiple pieces and cause Squidward to nearly be pushed into the TO's stomach. When Squidward looks into it, he sees what look like the ghosts of Larry and SpongeBob that try to convince him to give up and let go. The latter also holds a clarinet that he tells Squidward to play so he can let go and join them. As he holds it out, both the ghosts suddenly begin disintegrating and melting away. Suddenly, Squidward sees the vision of a large audience of rotting and disintegrating sea-dwellers eaten by the monster, including Bubble Bass and Squilliam Fancyson, all telling him to let go and play them a final song to bring him peace. Before Squidward can make a decision, though, Sandy shows up to break him out of his trance and hit the Tortured One with a rocket launcher.

Plankton and Karen then show up in a giant mech, the former wishing to redeem himself for what he did to Sandy. He cuts off one of the Tortured One's limbs and burns its wound to keep the limb from regenerating. However, the small Patrick appears behind him to grab him with its stomach and eat him, killing him after his head explodes. Sandy kills the clone, but the Tortured One's limb begins to grow into a new monster and Karen, without Plankton, is unable to go over to burn it completely. So Sandy and Squidward push her over and allow her to self-destruct atop the limb. It attempts to grab hold of Squidward before Karen blows up, but Sandy shoots off the tentacle that it grabs onto and they quickly fly away before they get caught in the explosion.

Chapter 16 reveals that a Patrick had gone over to Squidward's house to attempt to consume him, but it was foiled after Squidward stuck his clarinet into one of its eyes. Outside, he saw the destruction that the Patricks were causing, including the clothes and the dissolved body of SpongeBob, which Squidward lamented over and which triggered his apology for not being a better friend. After the flashback, the Patricks attempt to kill Squidward by eating their way to his brain, but stop when Good Patrick shows up and berates the Tortured One for his supposed ignorance, explaining how nobody besides Mr. Krabs knew that Krabby Patties were made out of starfish meat, which causes Squidward to jaw-drop in shock and horror. Good Patrick then asks the Tortured One why everyone should be punished for something they never knew about, to which it responds by saying that they never asked and tries to kill the good Patrick by smashing it.

Squidward finally blasts off the Patricks attached to him with ink and prepares to take down the Tortured One once and for all, only to see SpongeBob holding on to the arm that attempted to squish Good Patrick. After SpongeBob reveals that he was able to come back to life because of his ability to regenerate via a single cell, he fuses with all of the cells covering all the Patricks and becomes Porifera. After devouring all of the Patricks (except for Good Patrick), he prepares to go to battle with the Tortured One, explaining how what it did was far more monstrous than what was done to it before finally delivering the first punch, officially starting the battle between the two. They both manage to tear pieces of each other apart. As a result, the Tortured One releases its stomach in an attempt to consume him, causing Porifera's skin to melt as he comes into contact with it.

After Barnacle Boy sacrifices himself to make Mt. Bikini Bottom erupt, Sandy (now Mermaid Squirrel) and Squidward attempt to push the Tortured One into the resulting crack in the earth. Sandy tries to save SpongeBob, but Squidward says that it's too late, with most of his skin having been melted off of his body. Inside of the Tortured One's mindscape, SpongeBob (not appearing as Porifera) sees the TO, being hoisted by a machine similar to the one in the Krusty Krab. He explains to SpongeBob his plans to consume everything in the ocean indiscriminately, not caring whether or not anyone he eats had anything to do with his torment. He then grabs SpongeBob with multiple hooks and stretches him out, intending to torment and eventually kill SpongeBob.

However, Gary, finding his way into the mindscape, slithers up his body and bites him, while in the real world, his stomach to pops open. When Squidward realizes he can save SpongeBob/Porifera, he goes up to him and manages to snap him out of his trance. Porifera, now mostly a large skeleton, lifts up the Tortured One and throws it into the magma-filled crevice, finally killing it once and for all. Porifera nearly goes down with it as the ground where he stands collapses, but Patrick, Sandy, and Squidward manage to grab a small chunk of him before he falls in, which turns into SpongeBob in his normal form and hugs the group.

When Allie was done reading it she wasn't scared of it at all. In fact she was smart enough to know that it all never happened in our universe and never will.

Me: So what do you think Allie?

Allie Wilde: It was a scary comic. But after seeing what happened when you faced all those Patrick's in the war with Grandfather and after watching SpongeBob for as long as I can remember, I know it will never happen to us.

Me: Thank goodness it didn't. Patrick is not like that thank goodness.

Nico: Yeah that's good.

Yin: That was the most scariest thing I've ever read.

Po: We gave you guys fair warning.

Eli: I thought it was really scary myself.

Nico: Yeah it sure was. Also seeing that comic reminded me of everything that happened with Starro.

Me: Now that you mention it. Yeah there are a bunch of similarities with Patrick in that universe as The Tortured One and Starro. Both hated everyone and both were used in greed and both were tortured for a long time and wanted to get revenge.

Eli: Yeah no kidding.

Lila Rossi (Garrett's Universe): Yep.

Patrick: (walks into the room) Hey, guys. What's going-

Juni grabbed Patrick and slammed him against the wall.

Patrick: Allie and the others saw the comic, didn't they?

Weirdwolf: They sure did.

Juni: How do we know you're the real Patrick and not a vengeful starfish plotting our demise?!

Lori: Juni, calm down! Patrick would never do what the Tortured One did

Astro Boy: I'm surprised you, Lynn, and Lola aren't freaking out about this.

Lynn: Well, we were scared. But we also knew that Patrick isn't capable of killing so many people, unlike the Tortured One.

Lola: Plus, the three of us told everyone on the day we met Coop that Nico didn't make a grave mistake because of his paranoia.

Lori: That's right. I remember that. Juni, Patrick is not the Tortured One

Me: Lori is right. Juni, Patrick would never resort to killing like that.

Mr. Krabs: J.D. is right lad. I may have been a greedy cheapskate in the past but there is one thing that I would never do and that is cannibalism.

Laney: That's right and if you don't believe us we can take you all down to the Krusty Krab and show you all that Mr. Krabs does have any of those machines there or anything like that.

Our stomachs then growled.

Nico: We could all use a little snack anyway.

We went to the Krusty Krab and got some food to go.

Lucky: Not even Jark Matter would make something as monstrous as that.

Searchlight: Trust me. None of us are going to forget how scary it is anytime soon!

Me: You got that right. But Jark Matter wants to destroy all life in the entire universe compared to what the Tortured One would have done.

Nico: And Starro is just the same.

Allie Wilde: Boy that's awful. But thank goodness you all were able to stop them.

Lola: Yeah thank goodness for that.

Sailor Cosmos: That is a good thing.

Nico: It sure is.

Armada Starscream: Nico, I hope you realize that it's your turn to lead today.

Nico: Yes I do Starscream. And I have just the mission for us all. We're going to meet up with Captain Kirk and the crew of the Enterprise and we're going to kill their most ruthless and most dangerous enemy ever.

Me: Let me guess…

Me and Nico: KHAN NOONIEN SINGH!

(THUNDERCLAP!)

Khan was portrayed by the late Ricardo Montalbán who also portrayed Vincent Ludwig in The Naked Gun: From The Files Of Police Squad!, Señor Senior, Senior in Kim Possible, and Mr. Roarke on Fantasy Island .

Early History

Hailing from Northern India, Khan was genetically engineered to be the perfect human (or "Augment") in the late 20th century Earth. However, to the scientists that created the Augments failed to realize that this would breed arrogance and hubris since they would believe that their superior powers makes them superior to all of humanity and that it was their right to subjugate them. Khan himself became absolute ruler of a quarter of the world from Asia to Iraq between 1992 to 1996 and went to war with the United Nations in what became known as the Eugenics Wars. Though his bid for world domination failed, most of the Augements were dead but Khan and 94 of his followers managed to escape to space in the Botany Bay DY-100 starship and put themselves into cryogenic sleep where they remained for two hundred years.

By the mid 22nd century, Khan's escape on the Botany Bay with close to 100 of his followers was widely believed to have been mythical. Arik Soong doubted that the ship had even existed.

Space Seed

In the year 2267, the Botany Bay was discovered drifting in space by the USS Enterprise . Initially believed to be a dormant threat, Captain Kirk put the ship on lockdown until they found the cryosleep pods. Khan was revived by the ship's historian, Marla McGivers, who wished to learn from him about the distant past. Initially confused, Khan asks where he is and Kirk tells him that he has slept for 200 years before having a medical team to the Enterprise's medical bay. Once there, even Doctor McCoy was amazed at his physical health since most people who slept for that long were anorexic wrecks by this point. As it turns out, 72 of his 84 followers survived the two centuries with 12 pods failing with Kirk still being amazed that Khan and his followers are still alive two hundred and eighty one years later. Shortly after Khan properly wakes up, which follows shortly after Kirk confronts McGiver for her lying about her feelings for Khan, he heard McCoy working in a backroom. He takes a medical knife from a wall mount and confronts McCoy after pretending to be asleep as McCoy checks on him. Khan pulls out his concealed knife and holds him at knife-point at which point he fully realizes that he is in the future (apparently thinking Kirk telling him that he was in the future occurred in his cryodream).

When McCoy decides to be coy and point out that he is in bed threatening to cut his doctor's throat, Khan is enraged but McCoy calls his bluff and points out the most effective way to kill him would be to cut the carotid artery behind his left ear. Apparently realizing that McCoy really isn't an enemy, Khan relents and admits that he is impressed with McCoy's bravery and finally learns where he is. Learning this, Khan asks for Kirk since he is the ship's superior officer and McCoy obliges with Kirk soon arriving and introducing himself though Khan dodges questions about his identity for obvious reasons. Khan asks for their destination (Starbase-12 in the Omega star system) and the status of his entourage (most still alive) although this still visibly upsets Khan due to being very close with them. He tells Kirk to revive them to which he is told when they reach Starbase 12 which Khan is visibly displeased by but finally introduces himself (albeit just as Khan). Once Kirk questions when he left off, only knowing it was in the 1990's, Khan feigns weariness and calls off the meeting for medical reasons. Though Kirk insists due to there not needing to be much explanation, Doctor McCoy cuts him off when he asks about why he went out on an expedition and tells him to wait until later. Before he is left alone however, he requests some reading material about the Enterprise to stave off his boredom. As it turns out, said reading material is a video about it although Khan's suspiciously snakeish thank you raises some suspicions.

Even without Khan's help, Spock deduces that Khan might be an Augment from the Eugenics Wars. Meanwhile, Marla McGivers meets Khan although he already knows of her thanks to McCoy. Immediately smitten, he starts flirting with her before inviting her to sit down even as he questions her on her hairstyle and remodels it to be more "flattering." Even as she tries to remain professional, having come to document the history of his crew for archiving, she becomes increasingly attracted to Khan and eventually falls in love with him. Later that night?, Khan (now in a yellow jumpsuit) finds Marla in her quarters and admires her artwork especially his admiration of Genghis Khan and Napoleon. He does get a shock though when he finds a painting of him much younger and cryptically warns her of the danger he poses before they kiss. Shortly after that, Khan sits down with the command crew of the Enterprise where he is once again confronted for his evading of questions and lack of mention in the history books. Spock confronts Khan for the actions of the Augments and Khan reveals how delusional he really is; stating he was trying to bring people together to prevent wars. After exchanging a look with Kirk, he tries to backtrack and say it was just other aspirations until Spock basically said to his face that he was a tyrant. Kirk confronts Khan for his militaristic terminology but decides to drop the matter since it would be improper in a get together to talk about topics so dark. Unfortunately for Khan, once he drops an off-hand comment about about social occasions being passive aggressive "wars" and that Kirk shouldn't be mincing his words, Kirk confronts him and says that it's very convenient that he left around the same time ninety Augments disappeared from the face of the Earth. Unfortunately for Khan, his follow-up statement about offering the world order gives away his real nature although this just impresses him more.

After departing the dinner for reasons of fatigue, he stands around outside only to be found by McGyvers who apologizes to him for the confrontation but he shrugs it off since he is an enigma to them. After a bit more flirting, Khan tells her to stick around or go away but she decides to stay although he demands a firmer response than "can I stay?" which he gets. Taking her hand in his, Khan then reveals his real objective which is to commandeer the Enterprise . Although McGyner worries about people being hurt, Khan tells her to go away then so she accepts which pleases Khan greatly. Unfortunately for Khan, shortly afterwards, the Enterprise command crew discover Khan's true identity and have him arrested for crimes against humanity where Kirk quickly confronts him in his quarters. Khan initially feigns ignorance until Kirk reveals that he knows who he is which impresses Khan who then reveals his truly pompous and bigoted nature by insulting humans for being inferior and not "evolving" in 200 years. Kirk leaves but first angers Khan by saying he didn't answer his questions well. Unfortunately, once Kirk leaves, Khan uses his brute strength to pull the LOCKED door open and send the Red Shirt guarding the door flying. Khan wants to take the Enterprise and use it to create a colony for himself and whoever would follow him. The request for reading material was so that he can learn how to operate the Enterprise's controls. As he does so, McGyver takes control of the transporter room from the engineer guarding it with Khan then snapping his neck and taking his phaser. Presently, Khan wakes up the entirety of his crew and they take control of security command just as Kirk discovers his escape. Cutting off all doors and life support, Khan offers to negotiate with Kirk even as Spock fails to pump knockout gas into the air vents due to the computers being disabled. Even as Ohura fails to reach Starbase-12 and the air supply runs thin, Kirk refuses to surrender so Khan just sits and waits for them all to pass out before delivering a speech about obsolescence to the hostage McCoy, Ohura, Scotty and a Gold Shirt. He soon thinks McCoy is the communications officer and threatens Ohura when McCoy of course doesn't know how to work a viewing screen.

When that fails, Khan realizes his mistake of killing the bridge crew as all he has done is create martyrs though he decides to blackmail them by saying "join me or the bridge crew die." Khan reveals his master plan which is to take control of the Enterprise and establish a colony for him and his followers. Unfortunately for Khan, he loses the connection to the bridge and decides to send Spock to his death in the decontamination chamber next only to lose contact with the guard. What Khan doesn't realize is that McGyver has turned turncoat on him now and has freed Kirk with the two of them knocking out Spock's escort. When knockout gas floods into the room he is hauled up in, Khan flees as his crew are knocked out and makes his way to engineering. Upon hearing over comms that Kirk is coming, he ambushes and takes Kirk's phaser and bends it into a horseshoe. Khan reveals via a blinking light that he plans on overloading the ship and killing everyone and himself on board. When Khan tries to stop it, they begin a slugfest which Khan easily wins due to his brute strength but Kirk uses a baton inside a console to beat Khan unconscious and they stop the overload. Later, with Khan's men in jail, the command crew of the Enterprise hold a makeshift trial in a courtroom to determine his fate. It is eventually decided that Khan and his followers just wanted peace so everyone agrees that Khan and his followers should go into exile on the paradisaical and uninhabited planet Ceti Alpha V.

Following 15 Years

As it turns out, Khan seemed to reciprocate McGivers' feelings as he went on to marry her within half a year of "Space Seed." Six months after Khan's exile however, the nearby Ceti Alpha VI exploded, resulting in Ceti Alpha V's orbit being shifted drastically which turned the planet into a desert wasteland. The Augments were forced to haul up in the Botnay Bay but were exposed to the native Centi Eels who secrete a substance that cause madness and eventually a very painful death. This was the fate which befell twenty of his followers, including (presumably) McGivers. This enraged Khan, who blamed Kirk for her death and swore one day to get revenge.

Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan

Fourteen years and six months after the desertification, making the year 2272, the starship USS Reliant arrived at Ceti Alpha V looking for a lifeless planet on which to test the Genesis Device. Said device was a bomb that one could drop on a planet to create life from nothing but dropping it on an already inhabited planet would result on the new life erasing the pre-existing life. The Reliant's commander, Captain Terrell, warped down with First Officer Pavel Checkov and ended up finding the sandlocked Boptany Bay. They didn't initially realize it until Checkov pulled away a curtain to reveal a shelf with "BOTANY BAY" carved into it it so rushed out to be warped out only to be ambushed and captured by Khan and his men who were off searching for good. Restrained in the Botany Bay, Khan (having worn a helmet up to this point to shield himself from the sandstorm outside) unmasks and Checkov recognizes him as Khan as well as Khan in return recognizing him.

It is at this point Terrell, after Khan mentions his grudge with Kirk, reveals that Captain Kirk has since become Admiral Kirk due to his intergalactic escapades in the intervening years much to Khan's chagrin. Khan expounds upon his past with Admiral Kirk whilst being surprised that Chekov never revealed his past only to scream at him when he commented that he was left on a paradise. Shortly after however, he realizes that they stumbled upon him by accident so he takes advantage of this by brainwashing them with native slugs. Using them, although it was done off-screen, Khan presumably has them all warped onto the USS Reliant at which point he takes control of it and sends all of the Reliant's crew bar Chekov and Terrell down to Centi Alpha V. Hearing of the Genesis Device from his brainwashed duo, he decides to take it for himself so has Chekov inform the space station Regula 1 that they've found the planet empty and are coming which Khan oversees. What Khan doesn't foresee is that Carol Markus, creator of Genesis, also informs Kirk of how strange this all is and he arrives to investigate.

On his way to Regula 1, one of Khan's followers named Joachim (who is his helmsman and right-hand man) stands up to Khan to question He decides to use the Genesis Device in his plan of vengeance against Kirk, who had since been promoted to Rear Admiral. He attacks egula I, kills everyone that he finds, but is unable to find the Genesis Device or Karol Markus as both have beamed down under the surface of the moon below Regula 1. He then confronts Kirk, having recognized his ship from their last encounter, plays it cool as he approaches Enterprise before delivering one of his most famous lines about being "one big happy fleet." Though suspicious of their lack of communications, a bridge member sends a message about engine issues though Spock registers that their fuel emissions are normal.

Unfortunately, by this point, the Reliant is so close that missing is impossible and Khan annihilates the Enterprise and kills much of it's crew with one salvo. Deciding to make himself known, Khan confronts Kirk via view-screen and reveals his mission of vengeance at which point Kirk asks to spare the crew managed to hack into the Reliant's computer and shut down its shields using codes designed to prevent a starship from being used against the Federation. Unable to raise their ships, the Reliant is then devastated by the Enterprise's phasers at which point Khan demands revenge. Joachim has to grab a hold of him and remind him that the Enterprise is crippled so isn't going anywhere but another attack is suicidal without their shields. Listening to his right hand man, Khan withdraws behind the moon.

Khan is not seen again for another fifteen minutes when Kirk tells Spock (acting captain of the Enterprise) to flee signal jamming range to alert Star Fleet should they be unable to return. Chekov and Terrell turn on Kirk shortly thereafter and Khan hacks their communicator to reveal his control over them and orders the two to kill Kirk but Terrell kills himself and Chekov's mind bug is obliterated. Grabbing his communicator, Kirk rips into Khan (to the latter's disgust) and calls him a shitsucker and that he is always trying and failing to kill Kirk. However, a very smug Khan reveals his goal to trap Kirk underground forever on the moon that Regula I was orbiting. This prompts Kirk to scream "KHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAANNNNNNN!" at the top of his lungs into his transmitter but Khan just signs off and prepares to leave with Genesis. Unfortunately for Khan, Kirk was bluffing in his call to Spock and is later safely beamed back aboard the Enterprise after a heart to heart with his son and away team.

Upon reentering the Enterprise, Kirk decides to take away Khan's superior maneuverability by entering the Mutara Nebula which renders all tracking materials useless. Khan is initially hesitant but Kirk contacts him directly and mocks his self proclaimed "superior intellect." Annoyed, Khan orders full throttle but Joachim speaks up against him this time since this would take away their advantage and points out that he has Genesis and can blackmail the Federation for whatever he wishes.

In response, Khan grabs Joachim by the chin, screams in his face, damns him to Hell, throws him across the Reliant's bridge, and initiates full impulse power himself. Unfortunately for Khan, Joachim proves to be right in his prediction when Kirk's experience fighting blind allows him to sneak up behind the Reliant undetected and devastate it. Khan survives the initial hit but everyone else on the ship is killed, including Joachim. Even after his right hand man spoke up against him, Khan still cradles Joachim as he died and swears revenge but the Enterprise lands a devastating torpedo hit to the bridge shortly thereafter. Though fatally wounded, and with his face half melted off, Khan activates the Genesis Device in a last-ditch attempt to kill Kirk before collapsing flat on his back and dying. The Genesis effect then destroyed his body, killed any last members of his crew, and destroyed the Reliant.

Legacy

Despite Khan's last ditch attempt, Kirk and the Enterprise got away safely although Spock had to sacrifice his life to save his crew-mates by sorting out the power cells and getting a massive dose of radiation. The activation of the Genesis Device led to the creation of the Genesis Planet where Spock's torpedo landed and led to the events of Star Trek III: The Search for Spock.

In the years following Khan's 2284 attack on the Enterprise Starfleet adapted the attack into a simulated mission given to command school students. That mission involved the escape of a former Starfleet officer named Jacob McNeil from prison who hijacked a Miranda -class ship and used it to attack the students who had been sent to investigate a loss of communication between Starfleet and the ship.

By the twenty-fourth century, Khan's actions had left a lasting impression on how genetic engineering in the Federation is conducted. On Earth (and later in the United Federation of Planets, as whole), genetic engineering for any reason other than correcting serious birth defect was illegal. Any genetically enhanced person was barred from serving in Starfleet or practicing medicine. This was enforced around a century later when Julian Bashir, Chief Medical Officer of Deep Space 9, was discovered to be an Augment like Khan. However, his career was saved, when father Richard confessed to having the enhancements done in exchange for his son being able to stay in Starfleet. Richard was sentenced to two years a Federation penal colony in New Zealand. Julian suggested to Rear Admiral Bennett the sentence was harsh, but the admiral disagreed, elaborating in the following quote where he states that, whilst he emerged as a good person, there's always a very bad egg like Khan

In an alternate reality, Kirk and the Enterprise crew encountered a version of Khan indigenous to that universe. During a battle with that Khan, Spock contacted Spock Prime (the Spock encountered by this iteration of Khan) about the original Khan and was told of Spock's death whilst escaping the Genesis Device. This allowed Kelvin Timeline Spock to eventually save Kirk (who died from irradiation like Spock Prime) and even Khan who was imprisoned in stasis pods indefinitely.

Eli: WHOA! I've heard of Khan. He is a deadly superhuman.

Me: Yep and he's one of my dad's favorite villains from Star Trek. And he is a monster completely hellbent on revenge for being exiled to the planet Ceti Alpha V and he will stop at nothing to kill Kirk.

Nico: Yep and we're going to make sure he never gets that chance.

Allie Wilde: This is gonna be so awesome.

The U-Foe's, Zzzax, Bronze Kneecap, Iron Lung, Wrecking Crew, Mercurymon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Duskmon and Arbormon then appeared.

Vector: Today is turning out to be a Star Trek themed day.

Vapor: You said it.

Ironclad: First, the rescues. And now, this.

X-Ray: (to us) Anyway, can me, Vapor, Ironclad, Vector, Zzzax, Bronze Kneecap, Iron Lung, Wrecking Crew, Mercurymon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Duskmon and Arbormon go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. Better get everyone together. (Pulls out Bugle and plays Reville)

Everyone all gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS! LISTEN UP! Today as you all have seen and heard has been one that's all about Star Trek. First we saw the massive ship V'Ger and then we stopped Shinzon from killing all life on Earth as well as destroy Captain Picard. But this one is gonna be different. We're going after Captain Kirk's most dangerous enemy ever and that is Khan Noonien Singh.

Vector: AWESOME! Khan is one of my favorite villains.

Nico: I can tell and I have a feeling that you and your father watched Star Trek 2 long ago as well like Colonel J.D. and his dad too Vector. I'm glad you know about him as well. Well as you have probably figured it out we're going after Khan and we're going to kill him and all of the Augments. Khan is completely hellbent on killing Kirk for banishing him to a deserted planet. Well that is our mission. We're going to kill Khan and obliterated the Augments. Before we leave I have 1 rule for all you new people. Everyone does their job. No one quits. You don't follow that rule and you will be sent back here to the Estate for the remainder of the mission! DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone and Garrett's Team: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks!

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (Spartan Grunt)

Nico: At ease everyone! All right we leave in 1 hour and it will give us plenty of time to prepare the ship for takeoff. Take that time to do what you need and all that. That'll be all! DISMISSED!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires Nico.

We got the ship ready and we were off.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Nico: Team Loud Phoenix Storm's Log, Stardate 3119.6: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to the planet Regula I and our mission is to help Admiral James T. Kirk kill his most dangerous enemy yet: Khan Noonien Singh, an old enemy of his from his previous journeys in the Enterprise. Our mission is to help Captain Kirk and the crew of the Enterprise kill Khan once and for all.

Rumble: Looks like it's back to the Star Trek Universe.

Nico. Yep. This is the 3rd time in one day. Wow.

Garrett: You guys go on so many awesome adventures.

Lila Rossi (Garrett's Universe): This is so cool.

Nico: It sure is.

Lisa Loud: Commander Nico, sensors show a moon with 2 ships.

Nico: On screen.

On the view screen we saw two Federation ships on both sides of a moon of Regula I that we were at located 7,232 light-years away from Earth.

Nico: The one below the moon is the Enterprise.

Eli: And that one above the moon must be the Reliant. From what I remember, Khan and his Augments highjacked that ship.

Nico: Good eye Lieutenant. Lynn, Hailing frequencies.

Lynn: Aye sir.

Nico: Bring us underneath the Enterprise and engage cloaking. I don't want Khan to spot us too soon.

Lincoln: Aye sir.

Lynn: Channel open Commander.

Nico: This is the starship U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix, Commander Nicholas Chan, 2nd in Command of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Admiral Kirk came on.

Admiral Kirk: This is the Starship Enterprise. Good to see you again Nico.

Nico: Same to you Admiral Kirk. You're looking good.

Admiral Kirk: Still got some fight left in me. But I thought J.D. was leading.

Nico: We have a new leadership system now. It's a long story. We heard you're having some problems with Khan. We came to help you kill him.

Admiral Kirk: Thank you Nico. We'll make arrangements to come aboard so we can talk.

Nico: Affirmative.

The ship went invisible and we had the Enterprise came aboard and we went to the air lock and went on board the Enterprise. We were greeted by Commander Chekov.

Nico: Permission to come aboard sir.

Chekov: (Russian Accent) Granted Nico. Good to see you all again.

Nico: Same to you commander Chekov.

Iron Lung: This is a really nice ship.

Admiral Kirk: I appreciate the complement. Thank you all for coming to help us out.

Nico: It's our pleasure Admiral.

Spock: It is agreeable that you came just in the nick of time J.D.

Me: I'm glad we did Spock.

Spock: Your leadership system is very much like how me and Captain Kirk run things both on the Enterprise.

Me: It is very similar.

Rico the Robot: Scanning systems of ship.

He scanned the systems of the ship and they were incredible.

Rico the Robot: Systems are 100% Operational and magnificently well made.

Nico: Wow.

Grumblemon: So, how's your day been so far?

Admiral Kirk: Not very good.

Nico: Let me guess, Khan stole the Genesis Device, Highjacked the Reliant and is now completely hellbent on getting revenge on you and all of the Federation and will stop at nothing until he kills you.

Admiral Kirk: That's right.

Nico: We're not going to let that monster get away with all of his crimes.

Mindwipe: You think mind control will work on him?

Nico: From what I remember, Khan and his cronies are all one track minded.

Eli: That's right. We can use their one-track mindedness to our advantage.

Admiral Kirk: But they are superpowered.

Me: That never stopped us before Admiral. Besides our power is that of a god.

Nico: He's right on that. Our power is so intense that no one can match it.

Eli: It's true.

Spock: We appreciate you all helping us with this.

Wrecker: Anything to help out heroes like you.

Nico: You are an amazing inspiration to many people on Earth, Spock.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) And the way you talk is very much like how I talk.

Spock: That is very logical. But if there's an opportunity for me to sacrifice myself for the greater good, I will gladly take said opportunity.

Thunderball: Hey, man. We're not gonna let you do that.

Piledriver: Not when there are other options.

Bulldozer: We do admire your selflessness, though.

Me: That's right Spock. In our eyes you are a very true hero and you have done so much not just for the universe but for everyone on board the Enterprise too.

Laney: That's right. You will always be Captain Kirk's friend always and forever in heart and in spirit.

We formed the Vulcan Salute .

Me: Live Long and Prosper.

Spock formed the Vulcan Salute too.

Apeface: Now, what's say we find out where Khan's ship is?

Nico: We just saw it when we came flying in. It's right above us.

Apeface: Oh right.

Nico: This is gonna be brutal guys.

Zzzax: Are there any ships accompanying Khan's?

Nico: Nope. We saw that it was just the Reliant.

Eli: So he's a sitting duck.

Laney: When he sees how big our ship is, he won't know what hit him.

Nico: Here's my plan.

Our plan was to have the Enterprise float right above our ship and we're going to ambush the Reliant by dropping out of cloak and bombard it with lasers and blasts from our starships.

Clown Man: Can we do an entrance when we face Khan in person?

Nico: Sure but only after J.D. has his fun with Khan. I want to see the look on his face when he sees that we're more powerful than him in EVERY way possible.

Eli: Oh this is gonna be good.

Allie Wilde: It sure will be good. Khan is gonna rue the day he messed with Kirk, the Federation and us.

Kirk: Yes he will. All right lets get ready.

Lincoln: Operation Exterminate The Augments is a go!

Nico: Lets do it everyone.

Kirk went to the bridge and so did Nico.

Sulu: Admiral on the bridge.

Admiral Kirk: Battlestations.

The alarms sounded.

Nico: Battlestations everyone.

The alarms sounded and we were ready and The Enterprise flew out and Khan saw it.

Khan: There she is. There she is. Ahh. Not so wounded as we were lead to believe. So much the better.

The Reliant then persued the Enterprise.

Laney: Reliant closing in.

Nico: Excellent.

Bronze Kneecap: Let's fire when ready!

Nico: Almost.

The Reliant fired a torpedo and it missed.

Nico: NOW!

The ship dropped out of cloak and fired lasers at the Reliant and blasted it all over the place and neutralized its shields.

Nico: Take that! Lynn hailing frequencies.

Lynn: Aye sir.

Woman Augment: We're being hailed sir.

Khan: On screen.

Nico came on.

Nico: Hello Khan. I'm Nicholas Chan, 2nd in Command of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we came out here to kill you and make sure you never get to Kirk. You caused so much pain over the years Khan and we're going to make sure you never hurt anyone else ever again.

Khan: I would like to see you try!

Nico: But I'm not the one that will fight you soon. My best friend will.

The screen turned off.

Khan: Prepare for full scale battle!

Nico: To the starships everyone! Battlestations!

The alarms sounded and we went to our ships.

Skullcruncher: I can't wait to eat these jerks!

Me: This is gonna be good!

Our ships went out and we were ready.

Me: All wings report in.

Me: Here we go.

Nico: Accelterate to attack speed.

We flew at the Reliant.

Nico: This is it boys.

Ranamon: Let's kick some ass!

Me: Yeah!

Luke Skywalker: This is Red 5 I'm going in!

He fired lasers at the Reliant and they hit the ship all over and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

The Reliant then fired lasers but they all missed.

Biggs: LUKE PULL UP!

Luke did so.

Biggs: Are you all right?

Luke Skywalker: I got a little cooked by I'm okay.

Nico: We have to destroy the Torpedo Bay.

Eli: I'm on it.

Laney: I'm going in. Cover me Lana.

Lana: I'm right with you Laney.

They fired lasers at the Torpedo bay of the Reliant and blew it apart.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Lincoln and his Harem: STAR TREK HERO FINAL SMASH: ENTERPRISE LASER BLAST!

They fired lasers to attack Khan!

Me and my Harem: STAR TREK PLANET FINAL SMASH: STAR TREK PLANET CRUSH!

We made Star Trek planets out of elemental energies in which we used to crush Khan!

Me, Lincoln and our Harems: ULTIMATE STAR TREK FINAL SMASH: STAR SHIP ARMADA!

We summoned starships throughout the entire Star Trek Franchise which fired a massive barrage of lasers at Khan.

The blasts all hit the Reliant and smashed and blasted it all over.

I then flew at Khan as he was blasting at me with lasers and torpedoes and all his shots were missing.

Gyro Man: What are you waiting for, J.D.? Now's your chance!

Me: Right! Take this Khan!

I fired waves of Proton Torpedoes and they hit the bridge and blasted it apart!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Bullseye!

Laney: YEAH!

Nico: Great Shot J.D. that was one in a million!

Obi-Wan: Remember. The Force will be with you. Always.

Me: Yep. Now it's just us and Khan.

We went back to the ship and in a training yard, I went into the middle of the arena and I opened a portal and it opened into the destroyed bridge of the Reliant and Khan saw it and went at it and then went through it and I was facing KHAN NOONIEN SINGH!

Me: Khan Noonien Singh. So we meet at last for the first and final time.

Khan: So you are the friend of Nico that he was talking about.

Me: Yes that's right.

Khan: You will die along with Kirk.

Me: Oh I don't think so. It's you that will die. I'm going to make sure that you die right here and right now.

Khan: Do you honestly think a normal human being can beat me? I am a superior and mighty being and the next giant step of evolution.

Me: We'll see about that. Now it's time for you to see the ultimate power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

I then transformed and went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Saiyan-Harmony Infinity! My power was stronger than ever!

Khan: (GROWLS)

Duskmon: The minute J.D. gives the green light, we're heading in there!

Nico: Yep. It's time Khan learns what the true power of a god can do.

I was facing Khan and it was gonna be a brutal fight.

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice) This is the ultimate Pinnacle of my power and now it's going to be used to destroy you.

Khan then roared and went at me and I went at him.

(FORSAKEN BY WITHIN TEMPTATION PLAYS)

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the face and smashed him down and he got up and went at me and I dodged all his punches all over the place with incredible speed and I then kicked him in the face and kneed him in the face. He then went at me and I dodged him and fired an energy blast and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He jumped out of the smoke and his back was severely burned in the explosion and he punched and kicked at me some more and I dodged all his attacks and then I kicked him in the face. I sent him crashing into the wall and he got up and went at me some more and we punched and kicked at each other with incredible speed, fury and strength and massive thunderous shockwaves were shaking much of the room apart and then a massive explosion shook the room with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The fight was so intense that it was shaking much of the universe.

KRABOOOM! KRABOOOM KRABBOOOOMM KRABBBOOOOMM KRABOOOMM KRABOOOMM KRABOOOMM!

Massive fiery explosions were blasting the floor of the ship all over!

I then teleported and fired a massive energy blast and it hit Khan and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: WHOA!

Eli: What power!

Khan got up from the rubble. He was really on his last legs.

Me: Join the party guys!

Cut Man: I hope you don't mind. But we let ourselves in.

They rushed in.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above the battle and the Elements of Nature and Metals appeared and swirled around and smashed Khan down all over and then we all appeared and kicked him around all over.

We all were punching and blasting him all over the place.

Mercurymon: Dark Reflection!

Khan punched Mercurymon's mirror but the punch got reflected back and smashed him in his face!

Khan was sent flying.

Troy: Let's kick things up a notch!

Megaforce Rangers: LETS POWER UP! SUPER MEGA MODE!

They turned into the Super Megaforce Rangers!

They blasted Khan all over the place.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming, as we felt the ground rumbling.

Link: Uh oh, I was hoping I'd never have to face it again.

Suddenly, we saw something come charging here and we saw what it was. It was Goht, another one of Link's enemies from long ago.

Nicole: Goht, I should've known he'd show up here.

Me: Link, can you tell us about Goht? You also seem to have a history with him.

Link: Of course, J.D.

Link proceeded to tell us about the history of Goht.

Goht

Goht (仮面機械獣ゴート Kamen Kikaijū Gōto?, Masked Machine Beast: Goht) is the boss of Snowhead Temple, the second dungeon in The Legend of Zelda: Majora's Mask.

Characteristics

Despite its name, Goht resembles a bull more so than a goat, standing over thirty or forty feet tall at the shoulder. Its body is plated with thick blue and orange armor, with multiple thick cogs and mechanical tubes visible between the seams. Its "head" consists of a largely featureless orange wedge with two large curved horns, and a tiny face on its forehead resembling a stern, elderly man.

Biography

When Link arrives in the boss room, the gargantuan Goht is encased in a block of ice. Link must melt the ice with a Fire Arrow, thawing the ice and releasing the enraged Goht. In the original Japanese version, Goht will run past Link during the opening cut scene, while in localized versions, it knocks Link down as it charges. Upon its defeat, Link retrieves Goht's Remains and a Heart Container. The second Giant is also released. The curse of perpetual winter ends, and spring returns to Snowhead, also lifting the curse on Biggoron.

When Link was finished, we already know more about Goht.

Me: Yikes, so this beast was the one responsible for causing the curse of perpetual winter in Biggoron.

Link: That's correct, J.D. If I didn't destroy Goht, the land would've been stuck in perpetual winter for eternity.

Entrapta: Link, let me face off against Goht.

Link: Okay, Entrapta, but watch yourself around him.

Suddenly, Entrapta's eyes turned neon rose, and she was surrounded by a neon purple energy aura with gears and lightning, she unholstered her Defender of Etheria and Eternia sword from her back, and as she approached Goht, she left neon purple energy, lightning, and gears with every step. Then, Entrapta was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy with lightning and gears flying around the vortex, and there was a rose phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Entrapta had emerged, but she was changed forever.

Entrapta grew up to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she has neon rose eyes and a neon purple energy aura with gears and lightning surrounding her, she had a dragon with gears in its claws, and she had large purple angel wings with lightning and gears falling from the tips of the large feathers, she had on dragon earrings with gears in its claws, and she has on a necklace with a dragon pendant with gears in its claws, the massive, wide, double-edge blade of her Defender of Etheria sword grew to 6'5" in length, and the long black handle grew longer, she has on a sleeveless purple blouse with a rose phoenix, purple skirt with gears, and purple leather ankle-high combat boots, and a long purple sleeveless trenchcoat with gears and lightning bolts, and the symbol of Etheria on the back. Entrapta now had on her brand-new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with rose gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large rose gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a rose kanji below the symbol of Etheria and it said, "Entrapta, Princess of Dryl, Master of Technology and Lightning, Good Friend of She-Ra, and Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud."

ドライルのエントラプタプリンセス、テクノロジーとライトニングのマスター、シーラの良き友人、そしてリンカーンラウドの愛する未来の妻

Entrapta has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 LIGHTNING GEAR ANGEL OF BRAVERY!

We were amazed by Entrapta's transformation, and when Lincoln saw what happened to her, he was blushing like mad.

Me: Whoa, Entrapta has now transformed.

Nico: You said it, Colonel, and Entrapta is really going to give that overgrown bull the ride of his life.

Lincoln: Wow, Entrapta, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Entrapta: (Divine Echoing Electrical Voice of Bravery) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to give that overgrown bull the ride of his life. (To Lincoln) Would you like to join in?

Lincoln: You already know the answer.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and he transforms into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and joined Entrapta.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get that overgrown mechanical bull.

Entrapta and Lincoln went after Goht, and Entrapta had fired powerful blasts of lightning, gears, and purple energy at Goht, and Lincoln fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning, which exploded with incredible power.

Entrapta: Shall we end that overgrown bull, Lincoln?

Lincoln: Let's get him, Entrapta.

Entrapta and Lincoln: DIVINE ELECTROSTORM MEGABLAST!

Entrapta and Lincoln fired a massive of neon blue and purple energy with super lightning and gears surrounding them, and as they hit Goht, it exploded with incredible power, and he was Super Hakaied forever. We cheered for what Entrapta and Lincoln did, as they holstered their weapons and powered down, but Entrapta's new clothes, weapons, jewelry, and body were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Entrapta up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he'd wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

Sword Man: Sorry to CUT you off!

He slashed Khan and cut him bad.

I kicked Khan in his face.

Ben: FUSION POWER!

He used Ghostfreak and NRG!

Ben: (Russian Accent) NRFREAK!

Shanan: Whoa! Half Ectonurite Half Prypiatosian-B. Very interesting combination.

NRFreak: It sure is. Watch this.

He fired energy blasts and burned Khan all over.

Arbormon: This is it for you!

KROW!

Khan got punched in the stomach and Kari kicked him in the face.

Nico then punched him in the face and sent him flying into the air.

Me: Now for the grand finale!

I then punched him all the way through his chest and out his back and my fist went all the way through him!

YUCK!

I pulled my fist out and he belched up a lot of blood and then I kicked him and sent him back through the portal.

He was back in the bridge of the Reliant and he went to a console and the console was really the detonation panel for the Genesis Device.

He turned a dial and activated it.

Khan: To the last I will grapple with thee.

He activated the Genesis Device and it was armed! 5 Minutes till detonation.

Lisa Loud: Uh oh. J.D. we got an energy source on the Reliant. It's a pattern unlike anything I've seen before.

Me: Oh no! It's the Genesis Wave! He turned the Reliant into a bomb!

Nico: He's gonna blow himself up and try to take us with him! Lets get out of here and fast!

We got to the bridge and turned around and Khan saw us escaping.

Khan: No. No you can't get away. From Hell's Heart I stab at thee, For Hates sake I spit my last breath at thee.

We activated the warp drive as Khan died and the entirety of the Reliant Exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

It was over. Khan was dead and we all had won! Khan's evil spirit then appeared in the bridge and Nico held out his hand to him.

Nico: It was nice knowing you, Khan. (smirks) Actually, no, it wasn't. Hakai.

Khan was banished to the Warp forever!

Nico: Good riddance.

Laney: Guys look at this!

We saw a completely new planet form right in front of our very eyes and it was an incredible sight. The Genesis Device was a really incredible thing.

Me: WHOA! The Genesis Device made a whole new planet!

Eli: That is amazing!

Lana: I didn't know the Genesis Device could do that. That is amazing!

Lola: Yeah it sure is.

Nico: But at least we've now seen the last of Khan.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Lets go home and celebrate. We'll have to monitor this planet to see if it holds up.

Me: Good idea.

We cheered.

We went back home to Earth.

KGBeast: That was a nice air fight.

Maria: It sure was.

Avalanche: And Khan is gone for good.

May: Hey, it was all thanks to my amazing husband over here.

Man Ray: Amazing is right!

Me: And don't forget me.

Nico: That's right. We ALL did our part in taking him down for good.

Me: Yep.

Dirty Bubble: (to me) Didn't you already have a Star Trek Adventure this morning?

Me: We sure did. We went into the world of Star Trek 1 with V'Ger.

Kitty: I think Lincoln had one too.

Lincoln: Yep and that was in the world of Star Trek X.

Nico: You should've seen it. It was epic. But the biggest battle was killing Khan.

Kitty: That is awesome!

Then we heard two voices.

?: That must've been fun.

A figure came out and it was ELIZA AND ELISA STITCH - THE STITCH SISTERS!

---

The Stitch Sisters (whose names are Elisa and Eliza Stitch) are two villainesses appearing in the animated series Courage the Cowardly Dog, being the main antagonists in the episode "The Quilt Club".

They are two Siamese sisters, who run a shop with old quilts and are the leaders of the Quilt Club, which in reality is a cover for deceiving women who want to be members to sew them into the quilt and imprison their souls forever. They often speak unanimously.

They were voiced by Fran Brill.

Origins

The Stitch Sisters lived in prehistoric times. At some point in their lives, they came into possession of a magical, half-living quilt possessing the powerful power of imprisoning the souls of others.

Thanks to the power of the quilt, Elisa and Eliza managed to extend their lives for countless ages by trapping the souls of innocent women inside the quilt. They did it under the guise of the "Quilt Club". They traveled to many countries such as Egypt, China, Japan, Constantinople and early American colonies and lived through many eras where many women fell into their hands. After many centuries of collecting and sewing in countless souls, the Sisters are seen settled in an old house in the town of Nowhere in the United States, where they lived and opened their quilt store.

The Quilt Club

Muriel Bagge and her dog Courage browse through and look for the perfect materials in an old and dusty quilt store that specializes in sewing quilts. The owners of the store are a bit strange Siamese twins named Elisa and Eliza Stitch, who live and work in their quilet store. Muriel expresses their delight at their quilts and asks the owners if she could join their Quilt Club, as the inscription is at the checkout. Muriel herself admits that she loves to quilt and sew, but sewing in loneliness doesn't give her so much pleasure, so she would like to do it with others who share her passion, and then shows them her samples. However, the sisters are not pleased with her samples, telling her that they prefer to sew "new memories".

Muriel works her fingers to the bones to sew a perfect sample of the quilt, which makes her slowly forget about Eustace and Courage. Despite her best efforts, the sisters constantly refuse her membership saying that she must try harder. Muriel finally sews a football field, but she is exhausted. The sisters ask her what if she wants to belong to the club more than she belongs with Eustace, but Muriel completely forgets about him. And at this point, Elisa and Eliza know that Muriel is ready for membership, because that was their goal from the very beginning, to make Muriel forget about Eustace and Courage just to join their Quilt Club.

On the day of the initiation ceremony, the Stitch Sisters arrive at the Bagge's farm with their magic quilt. Muriel is surprised that there are no other members, but the sisters reply that the only thing she has to do to be accepted is to quilt a certain symbol that they drew on the wall, into a piece of fabric and then sew it on a quilt. Courage takes a photo of the symbol and scans it on his computer. The computer displays him the story of two sisters and terrified learns that Elisa and Eliza lived for hundreds or even thousands of years by persuading unsuspecting women to sew on their quilt the Symbol of Everlasting Life (i.e. the same symbol that Muriel is quilting on a piece of fabric), which meant that their soul was forever trapped inside the quilt, while prolonging the life of the sisters. Downstairs, Muriel has finished quilting and is happy to meet other members. Then the sisters help her sew her a piece to the quilt. At this point, Muriel learns that the whole Quilt Club is that magic quilt. Courage runs down to warn Muriel, but it's too late. The terrified dog sees his owner is being sewn by the sisters into the quilt. Elisa and Eliza tell Courage that Muriel doesn't want him anymore and nothing will remind her of her previous life while she is inside the quilt. After saying the spell, Muriel's soul gets inside the quilt where she is greeted by the souls of other women. These women are from different periods in history and have been imprisoned in exactly the same way as Muriel.

Courage hurries to rescue Muriel. He manages to surprise the sisters and tie them with a yarn. He tries to sew to the quilt a piece of cloth with baby Eustace and Muriel starts to remember her family. When he sees that it works, Courage sews his own fur to the quilt, which causes Muriel to remember him, and it frees her and other members out of the quilt. The whole quilt falls apart and transforms the Stitch Sisters into a piece of fabric with their embroidery, sealing them for eternity and bringing their threat to an end once and for all.

Francesca: Eliza and Elisa Stitch!

Eliza Stitch: Good to see you again Francesca.

Elisa Stitch: We are now part of the Masters of Evil.

Me: I've heard a lot about you two. My prehistoric Caveman self met you long ago.

Eliza Stitch: That's right. We have lived ever since 75,000 years ago.

Everyone: WOW!

Nico: That's amazing.

J.D. 3: Very coincidental that we are from the same Timeframe.

Eli: It sure is.

?: Boy no kidding.

Another figure came out and it was MS. GRITTA!

---

Miss Gritta (グリッタ嬢 Guritta Jō) is one of the generals serving the leader of the Evil Army Shadow Line. She is the only daughter of Madame Noir, who is grooming her to be the wife of the leader of the Shadow Line making her the future empress. Although she was absorbed by Z so he can obtain her light, she is still alive from within as Madame Noir, General Schwarz, and even Z himself are able to sense her. She's in love with Schwarz.

Gritta interrupted Bag Shadow's report to Madame Noir on the progress of his Dark Station, complaining to her mother that she's bored, wanting to go outside. Noir urged her to hold on a little longer, promising that she would prepare a station filled with darkness soon. Baron Nero interrupted that it was too soon to create a station for mere child's play, stating what was most important was to expand the reach of the Shadow Line so that they may greet the Emperor of Darkness on his arrival. Noir argued that maintaining Gritta's beauty was in the best interest of the court, reminding Nero that she would one day be wife to the emperor. As they argued, Gritta noticed General Schwarz as he contemplated the appearance of the ToQgers. TV STORY-Starting Station: Let's Ride the Limited Express Train

As Saber Shadow's Station spread darkness through the town at an impressive rate, Noir announced that she would craft a wedding dress for Gritta in the most alluring dark colors in preparation for the Emperor's arrival, certain that he would be pleased. Gritta noted Schwarz leaving the room as Noir worryingly noted she had lost weight. TV STORY-Station 2: We Are Here

When General Schwarz dropped a handkerchief, Miss Gritta hurried to return it however Schwarz thanked her but refused telling her it was his policy not to keep something he dropped. Gritta was allowed to keep it, much to her happiness. TV STORY-Station 3: Desperate Once Convinced

Eager to help in the fight against the Toqger's, but having no other way to, Miss Gritta anonymously advised General Schwarz to watch the Rainbow Line at the moment. Schwarz was confused as to who was helping him, but was grateful at the chance to attack the Sentai team directly. TV STORY-Station 4: Be Aware of the Things You Lose

As time passed, Miss Gritta's affection for Schwarz grew. When he was injured fighting the Toqgers, she was very concerned about his recovery. TV STORY-Station 7: Inconsolable, Unmotivatable When a portent of the Emperor's arrival was seen from the Shadow Line junction and her betrothal was mentioned, Miss Gritta realized she didn't want to marry the Emperor, much preferring General Schwarz himself. TV STORY-Station 8: Rainbow Line's Great Explosion

When Emperor Z arrives, Madame Noir takes Miss Gritta to greet him after he departed his train early to sample life on Earth. When they find him, Miss Gritta is frightened by his personality and runs away to avoid her arranged marriage. TV STORY-Station 11: The Emperor of Darkness

After traveling around for a while, Miss Gritta encountered the Emperor again as he watched Lamp Shadowbattle the ToQgers and decided to try and kill him. However, as she prepared to sneak up on him the Emperor already knew what she planned to do but complimented her on her 'sparkling' eyes, shocking Miss Gritta and causing her to drop the handkerchief. General Schwarz, who had also arrived and stopped Miss Gritta from performing her assassination attempt, found it and was surprised that she had kept something he'd disregarded. TV STORY-Station 12: The Rainbow Commuter Pass

As the Emperor continued to court Miss Gritta, she found herself confused when Schwarz gave her the handkerchief back and asked her to be patient as he would return her feelings 'in time'. TV STORY-Station 13: Run Fire Extinguisher

As time passed, Schwarz and Gritta formed a secret alliance against the Emperor and plotted in secret against him not realizing he knew all about their partnership. Miss Gritta was told by her mother that the wedding was not what it appeared to be, but this didn't ease her fears. Soon the day of the wedding approached and Gritta, desperate not to be married, arranged for Sabão Shadow to switch her body with one of the ToQgers so she could run away and meet up with Schwarz while the ToQger would be forced into marrying the Emperor. Although her plan initially worked, with Gritta being switched with Mio, what she didn't know was that people who were switched out of their bodies wouldn't survive for long. However the ToQgers defeated the Shadow monster and Gritta was restored to normal before she could die. Later, when she arrived at the meeting place she instead was approached by Z (Schwarz having chosen to reveal her location to Z as he believed it would serve them better in the long run). TV STORY-Station 21: The Runaway Bride

Soon the wedding was underway, Gritta interrupted the ceremony and attacked the Emperor. Madame Noir revealed that her plan all along was not for Gritta to marry the Emperor but for her to absorb his power and take his place. Gritta then used her power (inherited from her mother) to eat the Emperor whole. This caused a distinct change in Gritta… as well as gaining all of Z's powers her eyes turned blood red and her personality became far more adult and serious. She then took the throne as Empress Gritta, and gave Schwarz free reign to attack the ToQgers and begin the Shadow Line's invasion as he saw fit. Empress Gritta later joined the battle, even controlling her own mecha with which (alongside the captured ToQ-Oh) she defeated Diesel-Oh easily with her Darkness Fall attack. TV STORY-Station 22: The Birth of the Empress

After the fight, Gritta returns to the Shadow Line. She drops the handkerchief Schwarz gave her, and Noir ordered it to be disposed of. Gritta was reminded of her love for Schwartz and took the handkerchief back, before heading out to help Schwartz fight the Toqger. Their Kuliners are able to take on both of the ToQger mecha, until the ToQgers combine their mecha into Cho Cho ToQ-DaiOh. Gritta jumps in front of Schwarz's Kuliner to try and protect him from the final attack, but both Kuliners are destroyed. As she is dying, Schwarz goes to check on her as she is fatally wounded. She tells Schwarz she loves him and is about to return his handkerchief, when Z literally breaks out of her, and absorbed Gritta into himself so he could obtain her light. TV STORY-Station 23: United Hand in Hand

She was later freed by the combined efforts of General Schwarz and Madame Noir. However this resulted in Z transforming into Z Shin, who promptly killed them both. TV STORY-Station 41: The Christmas Battle

Gritta later teamed up with the ToQgers, not wishing to see anybody else die. While the ToQgers led an assault on the Castle Terminal, Gritta piloted Schwarz's Kuliner and moved Castle Terminal off of Subarugahama. TV STORY-Station 44: To Subarugahama

Miss Gritta was seemingly killed by Z after taking control of the Castle Terminal. TV STORY-Station 45: The Home We Left Behind

However, it is later revealed that Gritta was alive. After Z's defeat, Gritta saves him and they depart to an unknown destination. TV STORY-Final Station: The Shining Ones

Kagura: Ms. Gritta!

Ms. Gritta: Good to see you again Kagura.

Me: I remember you and I know you all too well Ms. Gritta. Kagura and you are amazing friends and she helped you and knew there was a lot of good in you. But it was shocking to see that Z absorbed you like that.

Mr. Gritta: It sure was. Very good memory.

William: I thought Schwarz was the only general that joined the Masters of Evil.

Nokama: Yeah and half of Bikini Bottom too! But we noticed that The Tortured One has numerous similarities to Starro.

Fluttershy: We sure did and it was crazy.

Tornado Bolt: Boy you're not kidding. Starro and the Tortured One are both very identical.

Stealth Elf: Boy we're used for greed and had an insatiable lust for vengeance and will to take over the world.

Dirty Bubble: That is very coincidental.

Plant Lola: You got that right!

Laney: That is very interesting.

Riley: But thank goodness we were able to stop both of them. Starro we sent back home.

Syd: Yeah thank goodness for that.

Gomez: That is true.

Ms. Gritta: They are the Destroyers of TALON

The Destroyers of TALON, they're a collection of swords with the symbol of Overwatch etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blades, angel wings for the crossguards, large gems for the hilts, longer black handles, and large sphere pommels with surrounding gems. Once in hand, they'll get a massive power and energy increase, and here's another surprise: the members of The Talon Organization who were either sent to your prison or were sent to The Warp will be Super Hakaied forever.

Me: It's how we feel about today Spock. I know your race doesn't do emotions but it's part of how we are.

Naga: (Monotonously) Looks like you and I are now part of the Emotionless Trio.

Maud: And we're glad to be called that.

Spock: (To the viewers) Remember to always be proud friends and supporters of everyone and don't be afraid to express yourself. Live Long and Prosper

We went back home to the estate and enjoyed the rest of the day and went to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Star Trek has been one of my favorite series ever since I was a kid. My dad got me into the show and it was awesome. He remembers so much of it. This whole chapter was made in honor of the great Leonard Nimoy who played Captain Spock, 2nd In Command of the Enterprise for a really long time. From 1966 to 1969 he was on the original series of Star Trek and that was where he got into his rise to fame. He was on 6 Star Trek Movies and they were from 1979 to 1991 from Star Trek I thru VI and they were awesome! He also made an appearance in the 2009 movie and that was awesome! Leonard Nimoy had many other roles than just in Star Trek. He was in the movie The Pagemaster as Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde, King Kashekim in Atlantis The Lost Empire, Sentinel Prime in Transformers: Dark of The Moon, Himself in The Simpsons and Futurama and his most awesome role was in the Kingdom Hearts Series where he voiced Xehanort. He will always be a great actor and forever live on in our hearts. He died of Pneumonia from Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease in 2015 and it was a heartbreak.

R.I.P. Leonard Nimoy: March 26, 1931 - February 27, 2015

The first 2 parts of this chapter were for Star Trek 1: The Motion Picture and that was a really awesome movie. V'Ger was the shadow of a doubt the largest ever ship made by the great Gene Roddenberry, creator of Star Trek. 321,000 long and that is unbelievable. AWESOME! And the 2nd part was for Star Trek X: Nemesis and that was a great movie! Patrick Stewart and Tom Hardy all did a great job in that one and it was terrible that Shinzon was gonna do all that and did all that with deadly radiation like Thalaron Radiation. The chapter was all for the Star Trek Movie from 1982: The Wrath of Khan and that was a great movie! One of the best ever in the series and so was the Search for Spock back in 1984. Also Garrett is Drako1234658's OC and he and his team The X-Squad are now part of the team. Welcome aboard Drako1234658. It took some thought but I decided to have him join us after intense pressure. Why fight it. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue for me is gonna be in the world of Robin Cook's Invasion. That is a strange TV Movie from 1994 that I remember from back when I was a kid and it was REALLY FREAKY! It's based on a book and it was wicked. Me, Eli, Allie and the Flareon Gene-Slammer are going to save the entire population that was infected by these weird black stones from another planet and then rescue a Succubus named Karumi and she will have a Goldeen Gene-

Slammer with her named Veronica Lexikovna and she is from Ukraine. Lincoln's rescue will be in the world of Charlie and The Chocolate Factory from 2005 and that is gonna be a sweet adventure. I hope you all have a really good sweet tooth because we're also going to be going into the world of Secret Squirrel, a great cartoon from my past that was also on the funny cartoon 2 Stupid Dogs and we're going to face an evil gingerbread man named Greg and we're going to eat him and a giant candy monster and stop him from eating the kids in a non-combat chapter.

See you all tomorrow.

The Mad Gingerbread Man

Over in Arizona, me, Eli and we saw strange green meteor showers. These meteors were unlike anything we've ever see and we watched and saw millions and millions of people coming and we saw the meteors were really strange black stones with orange spots on them and they spelled trouble.

Hailey Kerumma: Don't tell me the Dark Orbs have managed to turn into stones!

Hailey concentrated and groaned as she felt hot.

Me: WHEW! Man that is hot!

Eli: Whew! You're not kidding.

Me: But I don't think so. This is the work of extraterrestrial activity.

Hailey turned into FLAREON!

Me: YEAH!

We then saw millions of people all gathering at one place as lightning flashed all over in the skies and I saw a black stone and I used tongs to pick it up and then I saw that these were the black stones from the TV movie Robin Cook's INVASION!

---

Small rocks fall from the sky which, when touched, trigger a latent virus that has always existed in humans and begins mutating them into an alien species. Taking advantage of its hive mentality, the aliens are absolutely dedicated to transforming every human on Earth and do so with alarming swiftness. Only a small group of remaining humans have the medical knowledge to devise antibodies to reverse the effects of the virus.

---

Me: This is what happened in the book and movie for Robin Cook's Invasion. Don't touch the stones. They will transform you.

Eli: Right.

We had to be careful.

Then we saw a ship arrive and it landed and we saw that it was getting ready for something.

Me: Whoa look at that.

Allie Wilde: I remember you telling me so much about this movie back when we were in school J.D.

Me: Feels like forever ago.

We were watching from the tower we were hiding out at and we saw that Beau Stark was about to activate a machine and then the ship positioned itself over the tower and then Beau ripped his skin off and it was gross and disgusting and he looked like an alien freak and it was gross.

Me: Not yet.

Allie Wilde: I remember this.

Eli: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Hayley Flareon: Me too.

Then Beau put his hand on a pad and then the ship activated and then massive laser blasts fired all over and into the sky.

Me: WHOA! What power!

Everyone that was infected cheered wildly.

Me: We got to stop that machine! Come on!

We went for the machine and fired energy blasts and fire blasts and then a Succubus named Karumi appeared and she had a Goldeen Gene-Slammer with her from the Ukraine named Veronica

Lexikovna and then the blasts hit the ship and it was exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM! BOOOM BOOOOM BOOOM BOOOM BOOOOM BOOOM BOOOM BOOOM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! BOOM BOOM! KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The whole ship exploded in a massive fiery explosion and was destroyed in an instant and then I fired a massive wave of rainbow energy and it swept all over the people that were infected and it cured everyone in an instant. We then went back to the building we were at and Eli covered his eyes and I put on my blind man glasses and then snapped my fingers and Veronica reverted back and she was naked. Hailey reverted back too.

Hailey was human again. But naked.

Hailey: (covers herself) I'm just glad we stopped this before it reached Gotham Royal York.

Me: Yeah thank goodness. We have a massive energy barrier around the city that will destroy any and all form of disease. Even those from other planets.

Eli: Yep. That cure wave you did really worked.

Karumi: Where do you think those aliens came from that did this?

Allie Wilde: That's a really good question. But we got to find them and take them down.

Veronica: (Covers herself) Ukrainian Accent) Soon we will.

I gave Hailey and Veronica new clothes and they put them on.

Me: And we will soon.

I went over and put a black stone in a jar for safe keeping.

Me: We can use this stone and analyze it to trace it back to its roots.

Allie Wilde: Good idea.

Eli: But at least everyone is all cured.

Me: Not everyone.

We saw Beau Stark dead and gone reduced to a pile of bloody mush. I went over and Cassy Winthrope was crying hard and I comforted her. Seeing her cry hard like that over what he became was awful and it made my heart hurt. I comforted her and she cried hard into my chest and more.

Allie felt bad for her too. Eli too.

We later went back home. Whatever these black stones were, they posed a tremendous threat to every living thing in the universe and they needed to be destroyed and stopped for good.

* * *

After saving the population from the weird black stones from another planet, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, Piper Willowbrook, Garrett and The X Squad were heading to the world of the 2005 movie Charlie and The Chocolate Factory, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls sighted here, but we're also going to deal with Veruca Salt, who escaped from The Limburger Cheese Mines and wants revenge. Lincoln also brought Dark Spicer and Vypra with us, so they can also get a shot at her.

Lincoln: Wow, we're back in Willy Wonka's factory, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the ten girls located here, but we're also going to deal with Veruca Salt yet again.

Me: You said it, big guy. We got the call from the Warden who told us that Veruca Salt escaped from The Limburger Cheese Mines in Switzerland, and she's come back here to the factory to get revenge on us for ruining her plans.

Nico: What a spoiled brat, she's just like Montana Max.

Vypra: I know, Nico. But, we're keeping an eye on him, so he doesn't try anything sneaky again. Plus, I'm surprised Lincoln invited us to join in the rescue.

Lincoln: Well, I figured it'd be fitting, since she'll also want revenge on Dark Spicer for leaving her to get arrested by us years ago.

Eli: I definitely heard about that from J.D. and Nico long ago.

Me: Yep and you would not like this brat Eli.

Garrett: I don't like her either. I watched Willy Wonka and The Chocolate Factory years ago and it was a freat movie.

Nico: Yeah it was. Also when we were at the Chocolate Factory, The Masters of Evil only had Vypra and Dark Spicer when they were starting.

Vypra: I remember that.

Piper Willowbrook: So awesome.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the ten girls, but they've been cornered by Veruca Salt, and she's going to kill them.

Lincoln: Guys, I found the girls, but that spoiled brat's cornered them and she's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over to rescue the ten girls and deal with Veruca Salt.

Veruca Salt: DIE!

But, before Veruca Salt could try to kill them, Lincoln punched her hard in the face, and she was sent flying into a wall. When she got up and saw us, she screamed in rage.

Lincoln: I should've known you'd show up again, Veruca Salt.

Veruca Salt: It was because of all of you that my plans were ruined, and now, I will kill you all!

Lincoln: You brought that on yourself, you spoiled brat.

Me: But how did you escape from the Limburger Cheese Mines?

Veruca Salt: It was a genius plan if you don't mind my bragging.

She told us that she got out by going through the mail system by stuffing herself in a huge box that was full of files and she mailing herself out.

Me: Very clever.

Lincoln fired powerful blasts of water at Veruca Salt, which'd drenched her badly, and he fired a neon blue energy blast which transformed into an indestructible straitjacket and wrapped her in it, and it had chains around it, so she couldn't escape.

Me: Let's see you get out of this one, you spoiled brat!

We cheered for what Lincoln did to Veruca Salt, tying her up like the rabid dog she is. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the ten girls, and when Lincoln saw them, he immediately recognized them. The ten girls are Ami Kawamura, Jessica Kaios, Asuka Jujou, Riko Morisawa, Jasmine Alexander, Mika Mikage, and Yuno Kashima from Danball Senki, Reiko Mikami from Ghost Sweeper Mikami, Lina Davis and Vera Collins from Heroman.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Ami Kawamura, Jessica Kaios, Asuka Jujou, Riko Morisawa, Jasmine Alexander, Mika Mikage, Yuno Kashima, Reiko Mikami, Lina Davis, and Vera Collins.

Nicole: From Danball Senki, Ghost Sweeper Mikami, and Heroman, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Ami Kawamura: Yeah, we're okay, thanks for saving us.

Then, when Ami Kawamura and the other nine girls saw who it was that saved them from the spoiled brat Veruca Salt, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Ami Kawamura: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud

Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and he and the nine clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Ami Kawamura: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

Garrett: Wow, Lincoln sure is a ladies man, just like me.

Nico: And J.D., as well.

We went back home to the Estate, and Veruca Salt was returned to The Limburger Cheese Mines in Switzerland, and she was put in a cell in Solitary Confinement, where she'll be monitored by guards 24/7, so she doesn't try to escape again.

---

After throwing Veruca Salt back in The Limburger Cheese Mines, we were training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Suddenly, there was a blinding flash of light, and we had to cover our eyes. When the light faded away, we uncovered our eyes. Then, we went outside and we heard some music coming from Great Lakes City, and as soon as we arrived in Great Lakes City, we saw that it was all filled with colorful buildings and the sound of Latin music was definitely in the air. Sonic soon found out what world that was as soon as he saw it.

Sonic: Oh, no way, I know that world all too well, that's the world of Amigo.

Nicole: From Samba de Amigo, awesome, and how do you know that world, Sonic?

Sonic: Because, one of my pals is Amigo. He knows how to have fun at a fiesta, and he's an awesome maraca player.

Ronnie Anne: Sounds like he'll get along great with Abuelo, since he plays guitar and sings.

Me: You said it, Ronnie Anne. But, you also know that Sergio, Sancho, and the party birds are going to be partying non-stop.

Rosa: (Spanish Accent) So, where do we find your friend, Sonic?

Suddenly, Sonic heard the sounds of maracas in the air, and when he turned around, he saw who the maracas belonged to. It was Amigo.

Sonic: Amigo.

Sonic and Amigo hugged.

Then, when Amigo saw us, he shook his maracas happily, and Sonic translated it.

Sonic: Oh, and Amigo said, "Oh wow, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, bienvenidos, it's a pleasure to meet you."

Me: You too, Amigo. (To Sonic) And I didn't know you learned how to translate sign language through Amigo's maracas, and that you learned Spanish.

Sonic: I've been practicing translating what Amigo says when he shakes his maracas, and I've also been learning Spanish from Ronnie Anne's family.

Nico: That's so awesome.

Shadow the Hedgehog: Hmm, I don't see Sergio, Sancho, or the party birds anywhere.

Lily Loud: Yeah, those party birds would never even miss a party going on.

Suddenly, Amigo guided us to the center, and we saw Sergio, Sancho, and the party birds dancing like crazy to the Latin music.

Ronnie Anne: I knew it, I knew those party birds had to be here.

Lincoln: But, wait, didn't Sergio get grounded for three weeks for trying to take over the Estate and turn it into a personal party pad for him and the rest of those party birds?

Ronnie Anne: Yeah, but after the three weeks were up, Sergio was off his punishment and he's not under house arrest, so he's free to get back to partying. But, he got a warning from Abuela: if he does that sort of thing ever again, he won't be throwing or going to any more wild parties.

We gasped in shock at the punishment that could be handed down to Sergio, if he does that sort of stunt ever again.

Lori: (Winces) Yikes, that kind of punishment would sound like murder to a party animal like Sergio.

Nico: You're right, Lori, and that'll kill Sergio's reputation as the biggest party animal in Great Lakes City, and that's why we're going to be watching Sergio like a hawk from now on.

Me: I will say this though. Sergio does like to throw wild parties.

We had a lot of fun dancing to the Latin music, and me and my future wives, Lincoln and his future wives, Nico and May, and Lori and Bobby danced the Tango, and it ended with a fiery kiss of passion. We also invited Amigo and his friends to join the team, and they, along with Garrett and the X Squad, were made aware that on October 10th, we're going to war against Team Dark Phoenix Storm. We are projecting October 10th, 2021 which is also Naruto's Birthday for the big battle with Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

Jirachi: Can you believe they're doing reruns of that Flan commercial?

Manaphy: I know.

KABOOM!

A cannon went off and then on came the KING OF FLAN!

---

The King of Flan is the proprietor of a company that makes flan and uses hypnotism to attract customers, all of which become morbidly obese after eating too much flan. Muriel and Eustace were put under the King of Flan's hypnotic spell, and Courage was partially put under the spell as well, but he was not too obsessed with flan in order to be able to save his family, and the King of Flan was defeated by being hypnotized himself and, at the end of the episode, both he and Courage become obese from eating so much flan. The King of Flan did not make a second appearance, as he propably finally burst from all the Flan he ate.

---

King of Flan: (Spanish Accent) Got your attention. Here it is.

Jirachi and Manaphy left and so did the mascots.

Muriel and Eustace were watching.

King of Flan: A wonderful product. Oh yes. Order before midnight tonight. BOOM! (Hypnotic tone) Are you listening? Listen to me. Listen to me.

Lola came.

Lola: Wonder what's on TV.

Tentacool: Don't bother. It's just reruns of that Flan Commercial.

Lola: Oh.

Then we heard a clatter.

Me: Huh?

We went into the kitchen and we saw Muriel digging through the fridge.

Me: Muriel?

Muriel had flan on her face.

Muriel: (Laughs) Got any flan?

Me: No why?

Eustace sniffed around.

Eustace: I smell flan. I know it! There some more flan around here somewhere.

Me: Why are you hungry for flan all of a sudden?

Eustace: (Sniffs) (Grabs my neck) Where's your flan!?

Me: I don't have any!

Eustace: Stupid kid!

He threw me into the wall.

CRASH!

Me: OKAY WAS THAT REALLY NECESSARY!?

Muriel then grabbed me.

Muriel: YOU GOT FLAN?! DON'T BE HOLDING OUT ON ME!

Me: No just a bad headache.

Muriel: The kid is dry. Time for a flan run.

Eustace: I'll get the truck.

They left.

Eli: What got into Eustace and Muriel?

Manaphy: Maybe those weren't reruns after all!

Bai Tza: No they weren't! Look what's going down on the surface!

We looked on the surface and we saw everyone in Gotham Royal York going on a flan frenzy as everyone was going for millions of tons of flan!

Nico: WHOA! Everyone is after flan!

Francesca: Not him again!

Eli: This must be the work of the King of Flan!

Arrietty: Who is he?

Francesca: He is the owner of the Flan-Tasy Flan company.

Me: Right I remember you told me about him.

Garrett: Sounds like you guys have had a huge problem with this guy.

Lana: Yeah we sure have!

Lana told us what happened during the events of chapter 541 and it was fat-inducing and more and because of this guy, Francesca got her leg broken!

We gasped in shock!

Me: Right you told us about that! That was intense!

Nico: I remember that! That was nuts!

Sora: I got to heal Francesca after that.

French Narrator: (French Accent) The next morning.

---

Muriel and Eustace came back and they had thousands and thousands of containers of Flan and EVERYTHING all over the estate was an absolute mess! Flan was splattered all over the walls, floor, furniture and everything and Flan Containers were all over the place.

WHAT A MESS!

Eustace and Muriel were both as big as blimps and they fat and heavy!

Muriel crashed onto the floor and destroyed her chair.

Muriel: Flan.

Eustace: (LICKING) Found some under my nails. (SLURPS) Huh?

Muriel: (SLURPING ON EUSTACE'S NAILS) Oh.

Eustace: They're my nails!

Muriel: Flan.

Me: We got to stop this and fast or all of Gotham Royal York is gonna have one nasty heart attack epidemic on our hands.

Nico: I agree.

Francesca: I know just where to go. Follow me.

We followed Francesca and we went to the Flan-Tasy Flan company in Kansas.

We arrived at the building and we went in and we saw the media room.

King of Flan: Buy Flan-Tasy Flan. Buy Flan-Tasy Flan.

Poliwag: This must be the room he's in!

Me: Shh. Listen.

We listened and we saw The King of Flan and he was doing a commercial and we covered our eyes.

King of Flan: (Hypnosis tone) Buy Flan-Tasy Flan before midnight tonight. Buy Flan-Tasy Flan. I'm telling the world. Flan-Tasy Flan. Flan-Tasy Flan. And every time you see my face…

BOOM!

King of Flan: Boom. You'll want more flan. Want more flan.

Francesca: So that's it. He hypnotized all of Gotham Royal York and turned everyone into Flan-crazed lunatics.

Me: This is exactly like what happened in Nowhere.

Lincoln: He obviously wants everyone to have a heart attack because of flans high cholesterol level.

Bai Tza: We got to stop this overgrown tub of lard like we did before.

Courage: Mm-hmm!

Princess Celestia: But he would make a great archenemy for me and you all know how much I love sweets.

Mary K.: (Eating Flan) I like it too.

Me: Whoa Mary you like Flan and you're not hypnotized.

Mary K.: You know how much I love sweets dad.

In the media room we saw a man wanting flan.

Man: (Laughing insanely) FLAN! FLAN! GIVE ME FLAN!

The King of Flan laughed.

King of Flan: The Flan-Tasy hypnomercial is a success. We've got all of Gotham Royal York totally Flan-tafized and the new hypnomercial works even better. Tonight we go live on all the networks everywhere and turn everyone into flanatics. Then I will be the King of Flan! (Laughs)

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off as it blasted through the wall and the spirits of the Toa swirled around the explosion and a phoenix cry was heard and they converged and we appeared.

Me: So you are the King of Flan.

King of Flan: That's right and it's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Eli: We're going to pull the plug on your hypno commercial..

King of Flan: (smirks) I guarantee that in 10 minutes, you'll be so fat you won't be able to move!

Poromon: Don't count on it.

10 minutes later…

Mary was still eating the flan and not getting fat.

King of Flan: Are you kidding me?! How can you eat that much flan and not get fat?!

Mary K.: Sweet food makes me stronger.

She ate over 10,000 containers full of flan and her orange aura was like pure fire now.

Eli: She sure loves her sweet stuff.

Arrietty: Boy she has one powerful sweet tooth.

Princess Celestia: She sure does.

CLICK!

I slapped the cuffs onto the King of Flan.

King of Flan: I will say this, you have the most amazing sweet tooth I've ever seen Mary. I think I have found myself a great archenemy.

Princess Celestia: I have just as big a sweet tooth as Mary does. So I will be your archenemy.

King of Flan: I would be honored princess Celestia. All right take me away.

Horsea: Also, are you aware about a meteor that was in Nowhere?

King of Flan: No why?

Me: We found out recently that a meteor was the cause of all of Nowhere's Supernatural Activity. It was the reason why all of Nowhere had all those monsters and ghosts and all that.

King of Flan: That's amazing. No I have not heard about that.

Me: Weird story.

The King of Flan was put into the Masters of Evil prison.

Later we got the anti-hypnosis commercial done and everyone broke out of the hypnosis.

Muriel: Oh my!

Eustace: Oh. (Sees how fat Muriel is.) What happened to you woman? You look like a house!

Muriel: Look who's calling the kettle black.

We went back to the estate and cleaned everything up and then we told Muriel and Eustace everything as we were doing liposuction on both of them.

Eustace: Thanks for saving us J.D.

Me: Thank Francesca. Some of the team when Bai Tza and her group were with you guys had experiences with this.

Nico: They sure did.

Muriel: That's true.

We had a nice talk after that.

---

Later we were walking down the street of the city. We saw lots and lots of people exercising after eating so much flan and sweat was dripping down their bodies like waterfalls. The sewers were even flooding with sweat.

Snake: What's the mission this time, dudes?

Me: We haven't found one yet.

Laney: That's because it found us. Look!

We saw candy moving out of a candy store all by itself.

Me: Hmm this requires some looking into.

In the store was the Chief of the Secret Agents.

Chief: Calm yourself Granny. I know just the man for this confectionary caper.

He activated his pipe and it formed into a radio.

Chief: Calling Secret Squirrel.

A fedora hat came in and it was Super Secret Agent, Secret Squirrel.

Secret Squirrel: Agent 000 Secret Squirrel reporting for duty Chief.

A fez came in and it was Morocco Mole.

Morocco Mole: Likewise. Morocco Mole.

Chief: Terrible news Secret: Someone has stolen my box of crunchy munchy! Also with all of Granny's entire inventory.

Me: (Offscreen) Looks like we got someone with a big sweet tooth.

Chief: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

May: It's nice to meet you, Secret Squirrel.

Secret Squirrel: And to you Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Perhaps you all can be of some assistance and help us out in this candy caper.

Me: We saw all the candy somehow crawl its way out of here. What could be causing that?

Nico: No idea.

Secret Squirrel: Sounds like we got ourselves a thief with very sticky fingers. Lets take a look with my closed circuit crime detecting prerecorded camcorder.

He had a camera come out of his coat and it was spiffy.

Secret Squirrel: I just focus on the scene of the crime for an instant replay of the robbery.

We saw him play the scene and we saw the candy crawling out.

Eli: What in the world is causing that?

Secret Squirrel: I'll just fine tune the picture with my high-fidelity telephoto zoom.

He pressed a button and it zoomed in and we saw the candy being taken away by Ants!?

Me: Ants are taking the candy!

Allie Wilde: I've heard of picnic ants but this is ridiculous.

Secret Squirrel: These are sugar ants to be exact.

Electro: Ant Man, can you tell your friends to stop doing this?

Ant Man: I don't know any of these ants.

Nico: Then we need to follow them and figure out where they are going.

Secret Squirrel: And I got just the plan to do that.

We got our plan ready.

Morocco: Tell me your plan Secret.

Secret Squirrel: Simple Morocco. Start with a squirt of this Insta-hardening Candy Coating.

He sprayed Morocco.

Secret Squirrel: Add this golden cellophane wrapper.

He wrapped up Morocco.

Secret Squirrel: Voila. A luscious lure no candy culprit can resist. All set Morocco?

Morocco: (Muffled) Okay Secret.

Secret Squirrel: Good. Looks like our candy crooks are on their way.

Me: Hide.

We hid as they came and took Morocco into an anthill.

Firefly: There they go.

Secret Squirrel: Underground tunnels eh? I'll follow them with my Mobile Moroccan Mole Detector.

He called out an awesome tricycle and it had a radar attached to it which was awesome.

Me: Cool!

Rainbow Dash: Awesome!

Me: Better get ready. (Whistles)

My Rapidash came and me and Allie got on May called her Blue Flame Rapidash and got on and then we followed Secret.

Secret Squirrel saw on the radar that Morocco was heading to an abandoned factory that was shut down ages ago.

Secret Squirrel: Hmm. Seems this abandoned factory has just recently reopened for business.

We arrived and parked outside.

Starlight Glimmer: Let me handle this. I'll use my laser watch.

She fired a purple laser beam from her watch and it cut a hole into the wall and Starlight pulled the hole cut out and put it on the ground.

Me: Clever thinking Starlight.

We went in.

Shiv: First, we need to find Morocco.

Me: Shh.

We saw that in the middle of the factory by a huge conveyer belt was a massive pile of candy and a scoop was picking up all the candy and putting it into a melting vat and we saw a tiny figure.

?: MORE FIRE! MORE FIRE! TO MELT ALL THE CANDY THE FLAMES MUST BE HIGHER!

We saw the scoop pick up candy and Morocco.

Me: There he is.

He was put on the conveyer belt.

Me: Lets go!

We went and jumped and grabbed him just in time as he was about to be dropped into the vat.

Nico: You okay, Morocco?

Morocco: Yes.

?: Secret Squirrel and Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

We turned and we saw the figure and it was a Gingerbread Man!? What the!?

Maria: You're kidding me. The one behind this is a Gingerbread Man?!

Me: You look more like a Gingerbread boy.

Greg: MAN! GINGERBREAD MAN YOU DUNCE! Although I was a boy, was a boy once.

He flashed back to his youth and how he came into being.

Greg: (Narrating) A long time ago in a kitchen far away, a mother for her child did bake bake bake, a gingerbread boy with two gumdrops for eyes and suspenders of marzipan cake cake cake. The girl took the cookie and cuddled it and kissed it and sweetly she named it Greg, Greg Greg. She hugged Greg so nearly and loved Greg so dearly THAT SHE BIT OFF GREG'S GINGERBREAD LEG LEG LEG!

OUCH!

He was made in a kitchen and then a little girl bit off his leg.

Me: What do you want with all that candy?

Greg: For years upon years, I schemed and I planned. Here's the part you might find deranged deranged deranged. To melt all the sweets into a giant candy creature so now candy will eat kids for a change change change!

He pressed a button and a case mold opened and it showed a massive candy creature!

Me: UH OH!

Robo Blaze: Tronics! Help us get rid of this Candyman! And no! I'm not talking about the Horror Movie villain!

The Tronics appeared.

Greg: (Laughs Maniacally) Your newborn heart beats and your candy eyes swirl and take form, for your first full course meal have a tasty of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Dark turned into Vomitfactory.

Vomitfactory: Time for me to eat you up!

Mary K.: Lets eat!

They got to eating and they ate the entire Candy Creature and he was REALLY TASTY! He was gobbled down to nothing.

Greg: NNNNOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO! My candy creature is gobbled! What a gluttonous disgrace! There is nothing left to eat in this sweet forsaken place!

Secret Squirrel: Nothing left to eat eh?

Greg's ants came and they were not happy at all with him and were hungry.

Secret Squirrel: Your ants seem quite unhappy about your monstrous defeat but I think it's plain to see they've found one last thing to eat.

Pumbaa: And so have we right Timon?

Timon: You said it Pumbaa. CHOW TIME!

Timon and Pumbaa ate all the ants and then Candy, Nico's ex-girlfriend grabbed Greg.

William: Considering how much of a pain in the ass you are, I think you'll be a nice addition to the Masters of Evil.

Candy: That's right. As my archenemy.

Greg: I guess I could use a new line of work. And all this rhyming was getting old.

Nico: Well your comrades Queen Bea and Quark are also in the M.O.E. too.

Greg: Fair enough. Thank you.

We beamed him to the M.O.E. Headquarters.

We recovered most of the candy that was stolen and then we gave Chief's candy to him.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED.

THE END

Another awesome fanfiction done.

Secret Squirrel is one of my favorite cartoons from my past and it was so awesome. The cartoon was also on the show 2 Stupid Dogs and it was awesome too. # Video Game from The World of Dreams

Flying through space, me, Nicole, Allie, Eli and Angelia Campbell the Lugia Gene-Slammer were flying through a REALLY creepy cave.

Angelia Campbell: (Jamaican Accent) Looks like we're in space again mon.

Angelia concentrated and groaned as her shoes got tight.

Me: It looks like we're in some kind of cave. Wow! Freaky.

Nicole: This is a very familiar world to me.

Allie Wilde: Same here.

Angelia turned into LUGIA!

Me: YEAH!

Nicole: Wait a second. I remember this. We're in the world of Phalanx for SNES.

---

Me: Wow! I haven't played that game in like forever.

Nicole: I know dad.

Eli: Wow that game is so cool.

Allie Wilde: It sure is.

Me: This is the Bio Cave Level. That was one tough level.

Nicole: And a scary one too. This cave is that level.

Eli: Yeah.

We were flying through the cave and it was REALLY creepy and scary. We blasted numerous creatures and ships and blew them apart in fiery explosions all over the place and more and then we arrived at the boss part and we fired waves of energy and blew the container holding it apart and then out came a biologically infected ship and it had many globules of infected matter around it and we were blowing it apart as it was coming at us. We then met a Blue Queen Slime named Mari and her sisters Lora, Mina and Lina and she had a Tapu Balu Gene-Slammer named Kira Namashiko and they blasted the creature and we destroyed it in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We landed on the floor. I put on my blind man glasses and Eli covered his eyes and I snapped my fingers and Kira reverted back and she was naked. Angelia reverted back too.

Angelia was human again. But naked.

Angelia: (covers herself) You girls okay?

Mari: We're find thanks to all of you.

Lora: But that was so awesome how you all defeated that creature.

Allie Wilde: It sure was.

Nicole: I gave the advice on how to defeated it being the Goddess of Video Gaming.

Mina: You are REALLY good!

Lina: Yeah that was so awesome.

Kira Namashiko: (Covers herself) It sure was. Wow.

I gave Kira and Angelia new clothes and they put them on.

Eli: That was a tough one though.

Allie Wilde: It sure was.

We went back home.

After taking down the boss in the Bio-Cave in the world of Phalanx, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Crash Bandicoot, Spyro, The Skylanders, Twilight Sparkle, Rainbow Dash, Pinkie Pie, Rarity, Sunset Shimmer, Fluttershy, Applejack, Starlight Glimmer, Trixie Lulamoon, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Thunder Sparkle, Phoenix Shimmer, Storm Rainbow, Thunderbird Apple, Lightning Fritter, Emerald Shine, Topaz Flare, Little Cheese, Mirage Daffodil, Butterfly Rose, Starburst Aurora, and Fireheart Flame were heading to the world of Skylanders Swap Force, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the twenty girls located here, but we're also going to take down the evil version of Kaos and destroy Kaossandra.

* * *

Every 100 years, four creatures known as the Elementals, The Flashfin, the Terrasquid, the Frost Hound, and the Tree Spirit come together to replenish the magic in Skylands via a volcano known as Mount Cloudbreak. During the last eruption ceremony, something tragic happened. Kaos' Mother Kaossandra aimed to destroy the volcano, but a team of Skylanders defended it. After that, the volcano erupted, sending these Skylanders to Earth. The volcano's eruption gave these Skylanders the ability to swap their tops and bottoms, transforming them into the SWAP Force.

100 years passed, Flynn goes to see the eruption, when he suddenly find a girl riding on a giant bird. She explains that her home is in danger and asks Flynn to fly his ship through the mountain to lose a fleet of attacking creatures known as greebles. After losing them with the help from the Skylanders and Flynn's ship is damaged in the crash, Flynn introduces himself and the girl introduces herself as Tessa. The two of them make their way to Woodburrow, Tessa's home village and meet Rufus the village crier, where they discover that the chieftess has been captured. It is revealed that Kaos is the one leading the greebles, and decides to test out his new creation on them: The Evilizer, which uses petrified darkness to turn anything into an evil, purple crystal-covered version of itself with great power.

Flynn and Tessa make their way to where the chieftess is, and the Skylanders rescue her and bring her back to the village. However, Kaos has learned of the whereabouts of the Elementals' locations. He plans to evilize one of them, which will cause Mount Cloudbreak to turn evil and spread the darkness all across Skylands. Glumshanks begins to doubt Kaos's ability to take over, so Kaos then evilizes him and sends him to his dig site. Tessa takes the Skylanders to Mudwater Hollow, the location of the Flashfin and stop Kaos from evilizing it. They make their way to Kaos' dig site, and use a giant Stone Monkey to stop the operation before the Skylanders take care of Evil Glumshanks, turning him back to normal.

Glumshanks returns to Kaos who is disappointed in his failure, before he is greeted by his mother Kaossandra, who mocks him for his incompetence. After hearing a tip, the Skylanders attempt to find the Terrasquid and make their way toward the town of Motleyville hoping to find Sharpfin. When they arrive they instead find a servant of Kaos named Baron Von Shellshock, who evilizes Tessa's bird Whiskers and forces him to attack them. After dealing with Shellshock and turning Whiskers back to normal, Sharpfin promises to help the Skylanders find the Terrasquid and send his crew to fix Flynn's ship. They arrive at the location of the Terrasquid, but have to deal with one of Kaos's most deadly monsters, the Fire Viper. After they defeat the Fire Viper, Kaossandra shows up and decides to help her son.

Sharpfin takes Flynn and the Skylanders to a small village of elves in the tundra, where they meet Avril. After helping her deal with a cyclops problem in her village, she gives them the location of the Frost Hound, which is the Frostfest Mountains. After getting a lamp known as The Illuminator which is needed to see through the blizzard of the mountains; the Skylanders make their way to the Frost Hound and Kaossandra sends her servant Mesmerelda to stop them with her evil puppets. The Skylanders defeat Mesmerelda and rescue the Frost Hound.

Kaos then attacks Fantasm Forest, the home of the Tree Spirit, arming his trolls with evilized fire. The Skylanders make their way to the forest, and defeat the trolls while also capturing Kaos. The eruption ceremony begins as the chieftess names Tessa the new chieftess of Woodburrow and the Elementals go to begin the eruption, when Kaossandra shows up, and takes back Kaos while stealing Tessa as well. With Flynn's newly repaired ship, the Skylanders, Flynn, and Sharpfin make their way to Kaos' fortress and enter to a confrontation with Kaossandra. She attempts to stop the Skylanders by sending her evil minions to attack, but the Skylanders trap her inside a mirror prison and rescue Tessa. Kaos then reveals that while this was happening, he was filling the volcano with petrified darkness to turn it into one massive Evilizer.

Flynn, Sharpfin, and Tessa take the Skylanders into the volcano and as Kaos tells Glumshanks to finish the pile of petrified darkness, it all comes falling down on top of him, transforming him into Super Evil Kaos, a giant Evilized version of himself. The Skylanders begin to battle him and after destroying the crystals on and in his body, revert him back to normal. They escape the volcano and Kaos and Glumshanks discover they have been swapped. The volcano then erupts replenishing the magic in Skylands as everyone returns to celebrate.

Lincoln: Oh wow, we're in the world of Skylanders: Swap Force, and I know just what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the twenty girls located here, but we're also going to take down the evil version of Kaos and destroy Kaossandra.

Me: You said it, big guy.

Nico: This is definitely going to be one big battle to save the Skylands from Kaos and Kaossandra.

Crash Bandicoot: You said it, Nico. But, just wait until that little pipsqueak sees just who the hell he's truly dealing with.

Spyro: Those who'll never bow before him, and he and his minions are going to pay dearly for their crimes against The Skylands.

Me: You got that right Spyro. Also it's gonna be really cool to see an extremely rare event like this. We never saw the Cloudbreak Islands and Mount Cloudbreak erupt before like this before.

We went through the Cloudbreak Islands, and we dealt with Evil Kaos' minions, who were out to ruin the replenishing of the magic for Skylands, and we fire powerful blasts of elemental forces at them, and Lincoln and Crash Bandicoot also cut them down with their massive swords with some very powerful one-handed swings, and they destroyed them. We also did the same thing, and cut down the rest of Evil Kaos' minions. Then, we destroyed the Petrified Darkness, and that was sure to get Evil Kaos and Kaossandra pissed off big time.

Crash Bandicoot: There, we've gotten rid of Evil Kaos' minions, and that's more than enough to get that little pipsqueak and his mother really angry.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of twenty girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the twenty girls, but they've been cornered by Evil Kaos and his evil mother, Kaossandra, and they're going to kill them.

Lincoln: Guys, I found the twenty girls, but they've been cornered by Evil Kaos and Kaossandra, and they're going to kill them in a fit of blind rage.

Crash Bandicoot: They've already found out that their plans have been foiled by us, and they're going to take it out on women. Let's head over there, and I'll get Kaossandra and you get Evil Kaos, Lincoln.

Lincoln: You got it, Crash. Alright, guys, let's go.

We'd rushed on over to Evil Kaos' castle, and Lincoln punched Evil Kaos hard in the face, and Crash Bandicoot punched Kaossandra hard in her stomach. Then, Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and unholstered his massive Sword of Taranis from his wider muscular back, and then, Crash Bandicoot transformed into Super Angel 750,000,000,000 Elemental Bandicoot Angel of Bravery and he unholstered his massive Sword of The Skylanders from his wider muscular back, and Lincoln went after Evil Kaos and Crash Bandicoot went after Kaossandra.

Lincoln fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting the blue core, elemental forces, and super lightning, and did some powerful one-handed swings from his massive blade, and Evil Kaos was overwhelmed by the powerful barrage. Then, Lincoln fired a powerful blast of red energy, and as it hits Evil Kaos, Lincoln sucked out Evil Kaos' powers over the ten elemental forces, and he and the entire team made them our own. Then, he throws Evil Kaos up into the air with his immense superhuman strength, and fired a powerful neon blue energy wave at Evil Kaos, which exploded and Super Hakaied him.

Then, Crash Bandicoot attacked Kaossandra, and he fired powerful neon green energy blasts with the ten elemental forces orbiting around the green core, along with elemental blasts, and did some very powerful one-handed swings from his massive Sword of The Skylanders, then, he fires a powerful blast of neon green energy, which hits Kaossandra, exploding with incredible power, and she was Super Hakaied forever.

We cheered wildly for Lincoln and Crash Bandicoot, who holstered their massive blades, and they powered down. Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the twenty girls who were located here, and when Lincoln saw them, he immediately recognized them. They were Emi Kaidou from Infini-T Force, Rinko Kougyoku, Akari Sakura, Kanon Mizushiro, Pink Oomiya, Chiari Tsukikage, Airi Kirara, Minami Asaoka, Aoi Arisugawa, and Sara from Jewel Pet, Madoka Kaname, Homura Akemi, Felicia Mitsuki, Kyoko Sakura, Mami Tomoe, Sayaka Miki, Yachiyo Nanami, Iroha Tamaki, Tsuruno Yui, and Momoko Togame from Puella Magi Madoka Magic.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Emi Kaidou, Rinko Kougyoku, Akari Sakura, Kanon Mizushiro, Pink Oomiya, Chiari Tsukikage, Airi Kirara, Minami Asaoka, Aoi Arisugawa, Sara, Madoka Kaname, Homura Akemi, Felicia Mitsuki, Kyoko Sakura, Mami Tomoe, Sayaka Miki, Yachiyo Nanami, Iroha Tamaki, Tsuruno Yui, and Momoko Togame.

Nicole: From Infini-T Force, Jewel Pet, and Puella Magi Madoka Magic, that's awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Emi Kaidou: Yes, we're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Emi Kaidou and the other nineteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Evil Kaos and Kaossandra, their faces all lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 16-year-old 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Emi Kaitou: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made nineteen clones of himself, and he and the nineteen clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Emi Kaitou: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to the Estate after putting down Evil Kaos and Kaossandra, and stopped their evil attempts to ruin the replenishing of the magic for Skylands. We stayed long enough to see the ritual of Mount Cloudbreak and it was epic! WHOA!

---

After putting down Evil Kaos and Kaossandra, we were then training intensely in the gym doing our 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, lat pulldowns, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading down to an abandoned warehouse in Gotham Royal York, and it turns out that Reika Kirishima's old enemy, Luda, has returned from the dead, and he's wanting revenge.

Lincoln: So, Luda has returned to get his revenge on you for ruining his plans, Reika?

Reika Kirishima: That's right, Linky. But, this'll be the last time that I ever see him.

Lincoln: Don't worry, Reika, we'll put an end to him for good, and he'll never return to mess with time ever again for his selfish desires of world domination.

Me: Oh, he'll pay for his crimes.

Nico: In blood.

We got to his main hideout, the abandoned warehouse in the east of Gotham Royal York, and waiting for us there was Luda, the thief who had tried to take over the world by using the time machine he'd stolen.

Luda: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has finally arrived.

Me: That's right, Luda, and we're here for one thing: to put an end to you and your attempts to take over the world.

Luda: We'll see about that. Once I have the time machine, the world will be mine!

We transformed and went at Luda, and we fired powerful blasts of elemental forces, laser blasts, and neon colored energy blasts at Luda. Lincoln and Clyde fired two powerful time ray blasts at Luda, and it aged the thief, and he looked like he was 200 years old. Then, Lincoln slashed off Luda's arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Reika, let's use a combo and end this miserable thief once and for all.

Reika Kirishima: Let's do it, Lincoln.

Lincoln and Reika Kirishima: TIME PERIOD MEGABLAST!

Lincoln and Reika Kirishima fired powerful blasts of energy, and inside them were the many events of history ranging from 70,000,000 BC to 2021, and as they hit Luda, they exploded with incredible power, and Luda's spirit was Super Hakaied forever.

We cheered wildly, as we holstered our weapons and powered down.

Lincoln: Luda, you have failed this entire universe.

Nico: Along with the entire timeline.

Lincoln then picked Reika Kirishima up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and they shared a passionate kiss and hug, as we looked at the scene, and cheered for them. Then, we head on home to the Estate, and we're now rid of Reika Kirishima's old enemy for good.

---

Meanwhile at the Jupiter Prison, we were there for another rant session with the most hated babysitter in the universe, ICKY VICKY!

Juandissimo: (to Allie) (Spanish Accent) You're about to see one of the most evil babysitters in the world that I only heard about from Cosmo and Wanda in the past Señorita Allie.

Allie Wilde: I heard her name is Icky Vicky.

Me: Yep and she is REALLY BAD NEWS. Let me tell you all about her history and you are not gonna like what you hear.

I went over her history and when I was finished, everyone that hadn't heard about it gasped in absolute SHOCK AND HORROR AND ANGER!

Allie Wilde: WHAT A HORRIBLE WOMAN!

Nico: I know. Her parents gave birth to a Spawn of Satan.

We arrived at Icky Vicky's cell.

Yugito Nii: Sorry we haven't been here in a while. We had to recruit more friends to the team.

Prisoner 1: That's all right. Wow you guys have been busy.

Nico: We sure have haven't we?

Prisoner 2: Yeah no kidding. Wait a sec is that Lila Rossi and Cyclonis? I thought Cyclonis was dead and I thought Lila was put in the Saturn Insane Asylum?

Me: Our Lila is in Saturn and Cyclonis in our universe is stlll dead. Long story.

Garrett: These are the Lila and Cyclonis from my universe.

Prisoner 2: Wow! That's interesting.

Allie Wilde: Mind if I go first on this?

Me: Ladies first.

Allie Wilde: Such a gentleman.

Nico: Lets get ready to (ECHOING AND HAIR FLARES UP) RUMBLE!

Fire Man: Hot dogs and burgers! Get your Hot dogs and burgers here!

Prisoner 3: One burger please.

He gave one burger to the prisoner.

Allie went up to her and cleared her throat.

Allie Wilde: (Takes a deep breath) (SCREAMING AT THE TOP OF HER LUNGS) YOU MAKE ME SO SICK JUST LOOKING AT YOU, YOU UGLY RED-HAIRED FREAK OF SATAN! I WOULD RATHER PUKE ON TRINA RIFFINS HEAD THAN HAVE YOU AS MY BABYSITTER AND YOU WOULD RATHER MAKE PEOPLE PUKE THEIR GUTS OUT ON THEIR OWN FAMILIES JUST AT THE SHEER SIGHT OF YOU!

We cheered wildly for Allie!

Nico: Well said Allie!

Kai: Okay it's my turn.

Me: Knock her flat on her butt Kai!

Kai went up to her and cleared his throat.

Kai: YOU ARE THE WORST BABYSITTER IN THE ENTIRE WORLD TIMES A THOUSAND AND I WOULD RATHER VOMIT ON MY OWN FACE THAN HAVE A FUCKING PSYCHOTIC BITCH LIKE YOU AS MY BABYSITTER AND I WOULD RATHER RIP OUT MY OWN BRAIN THAN DO YOUR FUCKING CHORES AND THEN I WOULD SHOVE MY BRAIN SO FAR DOWN YOUR THROAT THAT I WOULD VOMIT BRAIN JUICE INTO YOUR STOMACH!

Everyone: EEEWWWW!

We cheered wildly!

Me: That was great!

Prisoner 1: YEAH YOU TELL THAT DOUCHEBAG BITCH!

Ang Leung: My turn.

Ang went up to Icky Vicky.

Ang: Mine is actually a prank.

He gave Vicky a box.

Icky Vicky: I wonder what's in this.

She opened it and then…

POW!

A spring-loaded boxing glove smashed into her face and sent her smashing into the wall of her cell.

We all laughed at that prank.

Me: (Laughing hysterically) THAT WAS FUNNY!

Nico: She fell for the old Boxing Glove in the Box trick. Classic!

Luan: (Laughs) She sure got her Punch! (Laughs) Get it?

We laughed some more.

Allie Wilde: (Laughs) That was a good one Luan.

Dino Tyranno: My turn.

Dino Tyranno went up to her.

Dino Tyranno: YOU ARE NOTHING BUT A SADISTIC BULLY THAT GETS PLEASURE OUT OF TORTURING OTHERS TO GET WHAT SHE WANTS AND YOU DON'T GIVE A FLYING FUCK ABOUT ANYONE BUT YOURSELF! I WOULD RATHER RIP

ANOTHER BABYSITTER'S HEAD OFF AND THEN SHOVE IT DOWN YOUR FUCKING THROAT THAN HAVE SOMEONE ELSE BE BABYSAT BY YOU FUCKY VICKY!

We cheered wildly for him!

Nico: YOU TELL HER TYRANNO!

Rena: Nice job!

Dino Tyranno: Thank you, thank you.

Overbite: Hey, Lincoln. Why don't you make one of those scumbag jokes?

Lincoln: Sure thing Overbite. Lets see here. Ooh here's one. Let me tell you about Lisa's old rival Ophelia Shroud, she and my sister have always been at each others throats for as long as anyone can remember. I said "Hey Ophelia why don't you put your stupid hands around your neck for a change and have someone else steal your own inventions?"

We laughed hysterically.

Prisoner 1: HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Allie Wilde: (LAUGHS) That was funny!

Nico: Good one Lincoln!

Eli: That was a good one.

Flip heard that joke and surprisingly he was in the cell 2 doors down from Icky Vicky.

Me: Well if it isn't Flip.

Flip: You got to let me out!

Me: Like we're going to fall for your lies anymore Flip.

Prisoner 1: YEAH! I lost $3,000,000.00 because of you and it's the reason why I'm in here!

Allie Wilde: Who is he?

Nico: That's Flip. He was the owner of Flip's Food & Fuel, it was a local gas station that lived a ways down the street from us.

Nico told Allie and everyone about Flip.

---

Phillip "Flip" Phillipini is a recurring character in The Loud House, and a minor character in The Casagrandes. He is the owner of Flip's Food & Fuel, a gas station and convenience store which is located in Royal Woods.

He first appears in "Butterfly Effect", and since then, he has made many other appearances and cameos. In "Intern for the Worse", he returns as the main antagonist.

Flip is an old man of short stature. He has gray hair, and a bald spot on his head. He has a gray mustache, and eyebrows as well. He wears a white t-shirt, brown pants, and black shoes. In Season 1, he had white eyebrows, but starting with Season 2, his eyebrows are gray.

In "Intern for the Worse", he wears a red button up shirt, rather than his usual white shirt.

In every appearance afterwards, it looks like he goes back to a shirt that resembles the one he had in the first season, but it's red instead of white.

Antagonistic Acts "Intern for the Worse": He takes advantage of Lincoln and Clyde when they become his interns.

"Snow Way Out": Flip refuses to help the Loud kids if Lana doesn't give him her winning wrapper and abandoning them when they're snowed in the Burpin Burger, but he accidentally backs his truck into the restaurant and snowed in them again. Sometime later, Flip arrives since Lana asked him for help. Lana sacrifices the winning wrapper, but she admits that she would rather care for her siblings' safety more than a silly competition. As Flip drives the Loud kids through the thick snow, they pass by Bobbie Fletcher, since her racecar's engine died out. Lana steps in to fix the engine, and Bobbie, amazed at Lana's skill, gives Lana her number so she can be a crew member (in twelve years), resulting in the siblings cheering for her. Flip, stating that he is responsible for bringing Lana to her, asks Bobbie for a reward, and she simply buries him in snow as she zooms off.

"House Flip": After Flip learns that the kids are hiding him to prevent their parents from finding out they crashed the car, Flip uses this to make the kids wait on him hand and foot.

---

When he was done everyone was shocked! Even the prisoners were horrified.

Prisoner 2: You gave Angel Dust to kids in your drinks!? That's insane!

Prisoner 3: And his organs are all jumbled up like that!? He's a total freak!

Me: I said the exact same thing.

Flip: Hey I did all for publicity!

Me: Bullshit!

I then pointed by butt at him.

Me: You don't know what the worst kind of fart smells like. FIRE IN THE HOLE!

FFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRRRTTTTTT

I farted out a massive blast of blue fire and burned Flip REALLY REALLY BAD! OUCH! His burns were so bad that all his sweat glands were completely destroyed and now he completely lost his ability to regulate his body temperature. I also cursed him with an even worse body temperature than that of Makoto Shishio. He will die in a few days.

We got back to the rants.

Turbo: My turn. Can you help me up J.D.?

Me: Sure thing.

I did so and had him held up to the cell.

Turbo: YOU MAKE ME SICK AND I WOULD RATHER HAVE J.D. FART FIRE IN YOUR FACE THAN HAVE YOU AS MY BABYSITTER!

Me: Like this.

I pointed by butt at Icky Vicky and then…

FFFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRR

I fired a blast of blue fire and burned Icky Vicky all over and she was turned to ash and then everyone laughed at her.

Icky Vicky got back up and she was really in a lot of pain.

Mal: My turn. I got something awesome for her.

Mal then went up to Icky Vicky's cell and turned into a FEROCIOUS FIRE-BREATHING DRAGON!

Icky Vicky: I'M NOT SCARED OF YOU!

Mal: You should be.

She breathed a nasty blast of green fire and burned Icky Vicky's hair off and she was as bald as a cucumber.

Icky Vicky was then shown a mirror and she screamed as she was made bald!

We cheered and laughed.

Aligned Bumblebee: My turn. I got a good prank.

Nico: Go for it.

Aligned Bumblebee fired laser blasts at her feet and made her dance like a sissy girl. Literally and it was so funny and hilarious.

Stacy Bolton: That was so funny!

Wideload: Don't worry. Otto, Reggie, and the others will get their turn to rant at Icky Vicky next time.

Stacy Bolton: We've got all the time in the world. I hope Ray and Tito are okay with them being foulmouths at Icky Vicky.

Allie Wilde: You got to admit this was a cool thing you guys do.

Me: It sure is.

We later went back home to the estate.

---

We were getting ready for our next mission.

Tae Kwon Crow: Nico, I hope you know it's your turn to lead today.

Nico: Yes I know it's my turn and Nicole has given us our next and awesome mission.

We saw Nicole playing Rayman: Legends and it was awesome

---

At the beginning of the game, Bubble Dreamer, Rayman, his best friend Globox, and a couple of Teensies friends are chilling out at Bubble Dreamer's resting grounds, the Snoring Tree. However, their snoring, with the help of a strange microphone disguised to resemble a flower, disturbs an old granny from the Land of the Livid Dead, who retaliates by sending an evil army of horrendous creatures and the Darktoons across the world. The heroes, being woken up, attempt to fight back, but are defeated and captured. Rayman escapes and finds the Darktoons have captured the Electoons that inhabit the world, imprisoned Betilla the Nymph and her sisters and plunged the Glade of Dreams into chaos. This causes Bubble Dreamer to go crazy, and as a result, have nightmares. Rayman and his friends are then tasked by the Magician to gather enough Electoons to cure Bubble Dreamer and restore the Glade. Their efforts to locate the Electoons allow them to gain access to the various lands of the Glade, and rescue the Nymphs along the way.

Eventually, they make their way to a mysterious gate, which can only be opened by rescuing the Glade Kings, who have been turned into monsters as a result of Bubble Dreamer's nightmares. Upon freeing the Glade Kings, the Nymphs are able to open the stargate, granting Rayman access to a hideout in the land of Moody Clouds. There, they discover that their supposed friend, the Magician, is the one responsible for all the chaos. He secretly admires Mr. Dark,[6] the villain of the original Rayman, and was behind the events that caused the Land of the Livid Dead forces and Nightmares to attack, preoccupying the heroes and using the Lums they had given him to power and use his diabolical machines. The Magician then sends Rayman and his friends into a pit with his mechanical monsters, but they escape and return to his office. The Magician then begins to dance and sends them into a dancing funk, using this as a good time to escape. The heroes chase after and fight the Magician in his escape airship, sending it crashing into the power source of his hideout. The resulting chain of events causes the hideout to explode, while Rayman and his friends free-fall back to the Snoring Tree, where they proceed to resume their relaxation.

If players manage to collect the ten ruby teeth throughout the game, they can gain access to the Land of the Livid Dead, where another monster, Big Mama, awaits. Once defeated, it is revealed to be the nymph of the Land of the Livid Dead, turned into a Nightmare because of the Darktoons, and then she thanks her saviours for freeing her.

---

Nicole: And it looks like we're going to the Glade of Dreams. This will be our first time there.

Laney: I've never been to the world of Rayman before.

Nico: None of us have. This will be our first time.

Inkling: It sure will be awesome.

Mimi Tachikawa: I'm looking forward to this. Who are we gonna face there?

Nicole: I got just the target. We're going after Carnivora.

Nico: Ooh! That ugly plant monster in the Jibberish Jungle. Good choice Nicole.

Allie Wilde: Awesome!

KGBeast, Avalanche, Man Ray, Dirty Bubble, Kitty, Chemistro, Tar Pit, Goliath, Moonstone and Titanium Titan then appeared.

Titanium Titan: (Spanish Accent) Can me, KGBeast, Avalanche, Man Ray, Dirty Bubble, Kitty, Chemistro, Tar Pit, Goliath, and Moonstone go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. We're going to the world of Rayman to take down one of the Nightmares. Time to call in the forces. (Pulls out Bugle and plays Reville)

Everyone came and gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

(MILITARY THEME PLAYS)

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! We're going to the world of Rayman and it's the Glade of Dreams, I'm sure that Natilee and Princess Luna know about this place.

Natilee: Yes we do Commander. Me and Princess Luna visit the Glade of Dreams several times before and it's amazing.

Princess Luna: It sure is amazing.

Nico: Good then you probably can show us around. Because we have never been there before. This is our target.

Nico pulled out a picture of the Carnivora creature.

Nico: We're going after Carnivora and it's gonna be a brtual battle with this ravenous and angry plant monster. We leave in 10 minutes. Before we leave, I have one rule for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do your job and you will be sent back here to the estate for the remainder of the mission! DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks!

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (Spartan Grunt)

Nico: At ease everyone. Now we leave in ten minutes. Take that time to get what you need and get what you need done. That'll be all! DISMISSED!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires Commander Nico.

We were off to the Glade of Dreams.

---

We arrived and it was a beautiful place.

Beekeeper: Here we are.

We arrived in the Glade of Dreams and it was a magnificent place.

---

The Glade of Dreams, also known as the Crossroads of Dreams, is the world in which the Rayman series takes place. Surrounded by the Sea of Lums, the Glade consists of a single large landmass with an Archipelago of small islands off its south-west shore. It is filled with diverse environments which range from the natural (forests, lakes, rivers, mountain ranges, caves, volcanoes) to the surreal (lands composed entirely of music, art supplies or sweets). The Glade of Dreams was created by Polokus, the Bubble Dreamer, whose power is so great that his slightest dream or desire becomes reality.

the beginning, there were only the Lums - beings of pure energy that initially came in yellow, red, purple and blue varieties, each with their own special properties. One day, the Lums focused themselves into thought, and brought forth Polokus the Bubble Dreamer, a divine being whose power was so great that his every thought or desire became a reality. With nothing but his imagination, Polokus dreamt the Glade of Dreams into existence, and populated it with a wide variety of fantastical creatures. The Glade's balance and harmony were maintained by the Heart of the World - a magical energy core consisting of the original 1,000 Yellow Lums. Polokus's dreams - and, therefore, the Glade itself - are composed of Electoons, benevolent little pink creatures.

According to legend, the Glade was originally shaped like a disc, and the gods fought for power over the Heart of the World, which was located in the disc's center.

When Polokus had completed the Glade of Dreams, one task remained: creating time. Polokus entered a deep sleep, and travelled in his dreams to the place where all the gods of all the worlds meet. Together they set about dreaming up the future.

Unfortunately, Polokus's nightmares could manifest themselves in reality just as well as his dreams. When he had his First Bad Dream, Polokus inadvertently created the monstrous Jano, who began to spawn Darktoons, the nightmarish antitheses of the Electoons. As the Darktoons multiplied, they spread discord and evil throughout the Glade. In order to stop Jano and the Darktoons, the nymphs - a family of fairies dreamt into existence by Polokus - joined forces to create a hero dedicated to preserving the balance of the world: Rayman. After stopping Jano, Rayman went on to have many more adventures, foiling the schemes of such villains as Mr Dark, Admiral Razorbeard, André and the Magician.

In Rayman 3, one of the threats made by disgruntled tortoises is 'If I were three hundred years younger…', indicating that the Glade of Dreams is at least three centuries old by the time of this game.

---

Natilee: Welcome to the Glade of Dreams everyone. This is where Rayman and his friends all live. They are the protectors and defenders of the Glade and they prevent nightmares from plaguing the world.

Princess Luna: They are very heroic at what they do.

Nico: This is amazing and incredible. Lets find them and the best place to look is where?

Nicole: The Snoring Tree up there.

We saw The Snoring Tree.

---

The Snoring Tree is a location in Rayman Origins. It is where Rayman, Globox and the Teensies begin their journey, as they along with the Bubble Dreamer find themselves caged by the Livid Dead. They quickly escape from their cages, while the Bubble Dreamer chooses to stay and meditate. Murfy then appears and informs the goal to the team that they need to collect Electoons throughout the worlds.

The Snoring Tree works as a hub stage, where sixteen bubbles can be found floating around the area. Those bubbles turn into playable characters when unlocked by reaching a certain number of Electoons indicated by Murfy, who holds a sign. The Bubble Dreamer can be found levitating in the center of the area. When a character pulls his beard, the Bubble Dreamer tells the origin, a fact, or a goofy story about said character. There are four bubbles around the Bubble Dreamer, which contain the leading characters: Rayman, Globox, the Green Teensy and the Goth Teensy.

There are two exits from the room in the center of the tree. To the left, the Magician is found next to a door guarded by Mister Death, and advises the gang to bring him skull teeth in order to gain access to the Land of the Livid Dead. In the same place, four bubbles are floating around. Those bubbles contain four skins; these skins in order from left to right are Raybox, Red Globox, Teensy Ray, and GlobTeen.

The exit to the right leads at first to the world map, but later as the game progresses, it leads to an empty room with eight floating bubbles, which contain the other playable characters. At the right end of the room, a spiral door can be seen. It sends players back to the world map.

---

We were amazed at how big the Snoring Tree was.

Me: Wow!

Nico: That is one amazing tree.

Eli: Reminds me of the Hometrees on Pandora.

Laney: That is very similar.

Nico: Lets head over there.

We went to the Snoring Tree and we saw Rayman, Globox, Teensy and Barbara there.

Dirty Bubble: Hey, there. Rayman, right?

Rayman: That's right. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Awesome to meet you all.

Nico: Same here Rayman.

Globox: It's awesome meeting you all.

Teensy: It's awesome to meet you all and awesome having you all here.

Nico: It's awesome to be here. This is amazing that you all live here in such an amazing world.

Hard Man: Your world actually reminds me of Kirby's.

Barbara: It sure does huh?

Nico: Yeah it sure does.

I then jumped on an egg-shaped plant and then…

FFFFAAAAAAAARRRRTTTTT! FFAAAARRRRRTTTTT!

Me: Oh excuse me! Must've been something I ate.

We all laughed.

Nico: Funny.

Man Ray: Have Natilee and Princess Luna really come here once in a while?

Rayman: They sure have and they have helped us many times.

Barbara: They sure have and it's amazing.

Laney: That is so cool.

Lana: It sure is.

Fisticuffs: Doesn't it feel a little weird not having your limbs on your body?

Rayman: Yeah but I'm used to it.

Me: But I think it's really cool.

Nico: I do too.

Moonstone: So, is anything going on here right now?

Rayman: Yes there is. Carnivora is terrorizing the Jibberish Jungle.

Nicole: Looks like we got here just in time.

Allie Wilde: Yeah we sure did.

Nico: Yep we sure did and it looks like we're also going to have the Nymph's join us too.

Energon Scorponok: Can you tell us who Carnivora is?

Nicole: I can do that. As you saw when I was playing Rayman, Carnivora is a plant nightmare with a really rotten attitude.

She went over his history and it was awful.

---

Carnivora is one of the Four Kings and a boss in Rayman Origins. He is fought in the last Ticklish Temples level. When he is defeated, he reverts to his original, benevolent self. He returns in Rayman Jungle Run in the Giant plant pack.

In the Moody Clouds, the heroes encounter mechanical versions of Carnivora, constructed by the Magician to aid in his conquest of the Glade of Dreams.

---

When she was done we were shocked.

Eli: His true form reminds me of Flowey from the game Undertale.

Hunter: (German Accent) I know that game series. Really unusual.

KGBeast: (to Poison Ivy) (Russian Accent) Can't you use your powers to control Carnivora?

Poison Ivy: I think he's sentient enough to resist my powers.

Laney: Carnivora is really strong too. He was able to crash through a bunch of walls like no big deal.

Rayman: That's right. Also who is Flowey?

Me: You would not like this creature Rayman.

Hunter: He's from the game Undertale und he is really bad news.

Hunter went over his history.

---

Asriel Dreemurr, later known as Flowey the Flower, is the mascot of the Undertale series, serving as the main antagonist of the original Undertale (specifically serving as the main antagonist of the Neutral and True Pacifist Routes, and the deuteragonist of the Genocide Route) and a mentioned character in Deltarune .

He is the first character to meet Frisk after the latter loses their way and falls into the Underground, and would eventually go on to become their archenemy. Flowey primarily appears as a small golden flower, hence his name.

Originally known as Asriel Dreemurr, Flowey was born the child of Asgoreand Toriel, the king and queen of the monsters. Centuries before his birth, a war against the humans forced all monsters underground, sealed away with a magical barrier, thanks to which he lived his childhood separated from humans; however, when a child fell through the barrier in the year 201X, his family adopted them as their own. He soon became fast friends with the human child, and the two of them would do anything together.

Sometime later, the child became deathly ill (from buttercup poisoning), and told Asriel of their desire to be returned to the surface and buried in their home village. Taking his sibling's soul, Asriel was able to breach the barrier and enter the human world, but when seen by the humans, he was accused of killing the child and was subsequently attacked. Despite having immense power from both a human and a monster's soul, he refused to fight back, and managed to return to the Underground before finally dying over a field of golden flowers. It later became clear that the child deliberately poisoned themself, as part of a plan devised with Asriel to gather six human souls, and wished to use their combined powers to kill the people in the village, and using the human souls break the Barrier. After their death, Asgore declared war with humanity in a fit of rage, claiming that every human that falls down into the Underground will die. Toriel, disgusted by her husband's actions, retreated into the Ruins.

Decades later, the royal scientist of the monsters, Alphys, was tasked with finding out a method of breaking the barrier without the use of a human's soul, and in doing so discovered the existence of a substance which she called Determination, which kept human souls powerful even after death. After tests on giving Determination to monsters proved to be unsuccessful, she decided to test the substance on an object without a soul; one of the golden flowers Asriel died over. As a result, with his essence absorbed in the flower, he was reborn within it, with all of his old memories, but without his soul. Due to lacking a soul, Asriel couldn't feel any positive feelings such as love or happiness.

Asriel attempted to live life with his father, and then with his separated mother, trying to regain his soul and emotions, but was ultimately unsuccessful. In the end, he ran away and attempted to kill himself, but when he changed his mind at the last minute, he found himself returned to an earlier point in time. He discovered that his Determination allowed him to undo and reset time itself, like saving and reloading a videogame, and began to experiment with his new power.

Initially attempting to befriend all of the monsters around him, he soon grew bored with being able to predict people's reactions, and turned to violence instead. Now calling himself Flowey the Flower, he slowly started killing monsters to see what would change. Sans, who knows about Flowey's powers, has confronted and killed Flowey in numerous timelines and thus caused many resets to happen. It has been said that the single thing Flowey was never able to do was taking the human souls that Asgore gained while he was dead, which means that Flowey has managed to kill both of his parents, Sans, and eventually all of monsterkind in numerous timelines. One way or another, Flowey made sure that Sans won't know anything about him in the succeeding timelines, while still having fun of his brother Papyrus, as him boring Flowey took a while. Flowey still made sure to be on positive contacts with Papyrus in the timelines.

After a certain point, however, he found he could no longer alter time. The cause, he discovered, was due to a new child falling into the Underground, someone who looked just like his sibling from the past with powers of Determination able to override his own. Flowey then decided to use this child to his own advantage, leading them down a route where they would either die and return the power to him, or allow him to attain even greater power.

Undertale

Flowey introduces himself to the player at the start of the game, pretending to be a friendly figure introducing the mechanics of the game, but quickly reveals his true nature and tries to kill them immediately, only to be stopped by Toriel. After the child leaves the ruins and travels further into the Underground, he taunts the player based on whether or not they had killed anyone, before disappearing again. He follows the player through the game, staying just out of sight.

Neutral Run

In the Neutral ending, Flowey appears after the player defeated Asgore, either killing him himself or finishing him off, destroying both his own father and his soul. He then steals for himself the six human souls that Asgore had collected in hopes of destroying the barrier, and crashes the game. Once the player opens it again, it's revealed that he has transformed into a horrific monster known as "Photoshop Flowey" with full control over time. Out of sheer pleasure, he traps the child in an endless battle, always bringing them to death or near death and then resetting time to do it all over again, while at the same time saving and loading moments in time when he can best hurt them. However, when the child calls out to the six human souls inside of him, they rebel against him and seal away his godlike powers. Now nearly dead and completely helpless, he is left to the player's choice to either be killed or spared.

If killed, Flowey will thank the player for following his philosophy ("In this world, it's kill or be killed") and killing him and turns into just a plain flower. He does not appear at the beginning if the player restarts, but still remains at the end. If spared, Flowey will be confused as to why the player decided to spare him and gives them several opportunities to make the killing blow. If the player continues granting him mercy, he then threatens to kill the player and their loved ones. If granted mercy enough times, Flowey will break down, crying and unable to comprehend the player's decision of trying to spare him before running away. Afterwards, he will return after the phone call and give the player hints on how to get the good ending, whether it be not killing a single thing (if they had killed someone), or befriending some of the characters (if they haven't hurt a soul).

Boss Fight

Photoshop Flowey has 13 basic phases, and these differ wildly in their gameplay. When he is in his starting and seventh phases, the boss can perform the following attacks:

Flowey's lower eyes shoot seven X-shaped bullets that cover a wide arc of the playable field. The bullets travel slowly for 60 seconds after Flowey's DF drops to 0. Flowey's upper eyes shoot X-shaped bullets in triplets that surround the protagonist. The bullets travel slowly for 60 seconds after Flowey's DF drops to 0. Flowey summons flamethrowers near his arms that throw three blasts of short-lasting fire. Flowey's second head shoots a large beam from its mouth across the center of the screen. When this attack is about to be used, a blue light emits from the slightly ajar mouth. This attack seems to be used when the SOUL keeps to the lower part of the screen for a period. A harmless circle appears around the SOUL that rapidly flashes from red to yellow. Afterwards, "friendliness pellets" (harmful bullets) trace this circle, close in on the middle, and fly away in their travelling directions. Flowey shoots many vines that are concentrated at the protagonist's SOUL, marked by lines that rapidly flash from red to yellow.

His third and eleventh phases have the following attacks:

Flowey grows a venus flytrap from one of his cactus hands. This venus flytrap vacuums flies that damage the player when touched. Flowey drops many bombs from the top of the screen that explodes on contact with the bottom of the playable field. These bombs have his face on their sides. The actual bomb, when touched, deals damage along with the area of the explosions. Flowey grows plant stems with finger guns at the end that shoot from the left and right of the screen. Flowey's face is seen on the ends of the fingers. Flowey fires three dentatas. The dentatas are circular, cactus-like snakes with mouths on their front, and they ricochet off the walls a few times until they fly off-screen.

In his fifth and ninth phases, Flowey uses his upper eye and vine attacks only. However, Flowey also saves to 'FILE 2' frequently before he launches the vine attack. If the protagonist dodges the attack, he loads the file to bait them into stopping in front of an unexpected incoming attack. If the protagonist dodges the attack a second time, Flowey does not load the file again.

The even numbered phases, namely the second, fourth, sixth, eighth, tenth, and penultimate phases, have the Souls attack, their initiation being a Warning Symbol. The Souls have their own attack patterns and can be freed by acting to stop the attack. Upon their liberation, the Souls will try to heal Frisk in Photoshop Flowey's future phases once in a while.

The light blue SOUL uses numerous knives that spin and travel diagonally around the screen in unison. The ACT button replaces one of the knives which when interacted with turns the other knives into green bandages that heal the protagonist for a few seconds. This attack supposedly represents the Toy Knife found on a balcony in the Ruins. This soul represents patience (as her colour is similar to the light blue attack which does not work if targets stand still) and will continue to provide bandages after she is freed. The orange SOUL uses rings of hands that move around the screen downward. The group of hands slowly spin clockwise or anti-clockwise, and all groups of hands reach outward and inward at specified intervals. The ACT button replaces one of the gloves which when interacted with turns the other gloves into green thumbs-ups that heal the protagonist for a few seconds. This attack supposedly represents the Tough Glove found in the box in Snowdin. This soul will continue to provide thumbs-up hands after he regains his free will. His color represents bravery. The dark blue SOUL uses a line of stars above the SOUL to limit Frisk's window of movement. Ballet shoes scroll in from the side and rise up and down. Frisk must dodge their soles, lest his stamina drains. The ACT button replaces one of the shoes which when interacted with raises the shoes to the top of the screen and turns the stars into musical notes that heal the protagonist for a few seconds. This attack supposedly represents the Ballet Shoes found in a piece of tall grass in Waterfall. This soul will continue to provide musical notes upon her liberation. She represents integrity. The purple SOUL uses two lines of books on the left and right side of the screen. Each book generates negative words that scroll horizontally. The ACT button replaces one of the words which when interacted with lets the books generate positive green-colored words that heal the protagonist for a few seconds. This attack supposedly represents the Torn Notebook that can be bought from Gerson in Waterfall. This soul will continue to provide the positive words after he is freed. His color symbolizes perseverance. The green SOUL uses three frying pans that flip fire below them. These frying pans do not move from their location. One of their fireballs is replaced with the ACT button which when interacted with replaces the fire with eggs that heal the protagonist for a few seconds. This attack supposedly represents the Burnt Pan found on a cliff in Hotland. This soul represents kindness with her color. She will continue to provide some more eggs after she is freed. The yellow SOUL uses a gun that shoots bullets toward the protagonist's SOUL, indicated prior by red targets. One of the bullets is replaced with the ACT button which when interacted with turns the bullets into green 4-leaf clovers that heal the protagonist for a few seconds. This attack supposedly represents the Empty Gun that can be bought from Bratty and Catty in Hotland. Once he regains his free will, this soul will join the other souls to heal Frisk in preparation for the final phase. His color represents justice.

During the thirteenth phase, which is the final phase, Photoshop Flowey repeats his attack patterns from his prior odd-numbered phases.

True Pacifist Run

In the True Pacifist ending, Flowey organizes for every monster in the Underground to gather in Asgore's castle (Including major characters Alphys, Undyne, Toriel, Papyrus and Sans, with all but Toriel coming there as Papyrus told them do, on Flowey's orders), and uses the opportunity to steal all of their souls at once. With so many combined souls, Flowey is able to finally take his true form as Asriel Dreemurr, and challenges the player head-on for the return of their souls and a "happy ending". As they battle, he expresses his true desire, to be able to play with his "best friend and sibling" for all eternity, no matter who is sacrificed in the process. He is ultimately defeated when the child reaches and frees the souls of the monsters trapped inside him, and finally frees his own soul. In a moment of pure lucidity, unaffected by emotions of rage and guilt, Asriel finally reaches peace with the child Frisk, realising he mistook them for his sibling; he acknowledges that the sibling was not a good person, and releases the souls he had taken, after using his power to destroy the barrier and let monsters return to the surface.

In the epilogue, if the player goes back to the first area of the game, they will find Asriel there, saying that he's decided to stay in the Underground, so that he will not harm anyone after he turns into Flowey again. If the player starts up the game after the True Pacifist ending, Flowey will appear to try to convince the player/Chara not to reset the game and everyone's happy ending (including Frisk's), before saying that Chara/the Player must have "already heard him say it a hundred times". He says his final farewell to the player/ Chara and leaves, referring to them with the First Human's name, that was inserted at the beginning of the game.

If the player returns after the credits, Asriel, who has transformed into Flowey once again, appears and begs the player to not reset the game and allow Frisk and the other monsters to live their lives on the surface. He then comes to the conclusion that they may have already heard out his pleas before and ignored him. Flowey apologizes and decides to leave.

Boss Fight

Asriel has four basic phases and the following attacks. He cannot kill Frisk: If his health drops to 0, Frisk will immediately revive and the text box reads, "But it refused".

Fire Magic: Copied straight from Toriel, Asriel uses this attack exclusively during the first phase, before "the true final battle" begins. He most likely uses this as a means of taunting the protagonist by testing how easily they can be killed. This phase can be skipped by simply waiting it out: it is time-based, and ends when the boss music's introduction does. Star Blazing: Large, star-shaped projectiles rain down from the top-right corner of the screen in rapid succession, each one detonating into expanding rings of smaller projectiles just above the Bullet Board followed by one final, larger star that detonates directly above with a much denser ring. The upgraded version, "Galacta Blazing", is virtually the same except the small stars spin counterclockwise. Shocker Breaker: Asriel strikes the battlefield with bolts of lightning seven times, which are forewarned by exclamation [!] boxes. The base attack simply strikes in an alternating striped pattern, first small (four times), then large (three times). The upgraded version, "Shocker Breaker II", adds a series of targeted strikes after three small lightning bolts, and finishes by sweeping the battlefield left to right with big lightning bolts. Chaos Saber: Asriel hovers directly above the protagonist and swipes the bullet board five times with summoned blades, finishing by swiping both sides, leaving slow-moving residual sparks picking up velocity and flying across the board. The upgraded version, "Chaos Slicer", is considerably more dangerous as he picks up more speed and swipes the board six times. Chaos Buster: Asriel summons a blaster and fires nine waves of bullets telegraphed by flashing lines, and finishes with a charged beam. The attack shoots in a pattern, which starts at three lines to four lines, vice versa. Dodge by moving when he fires three lines or the beam and remain still when he shoots four lines. The upgraded version, "Chaos Blaster", removes any patterns and fires randomly, and the charged laser creates a massive starburst that covers the bullet board. Hyper Goner: This is used when Asriel enters his second phase (and engulfs the entire phase), and is Asriel's final attack before he begins fighting at full power. The Bullet Board covers the entire screen before a large creature resembling a combination of the DT Extraction Machine and Sans's signature "Gaster Blaster" attack is summoned. It then proceeds to laugh evilly, and then creates a powerful vortex that attempts to draw the protagonist's SOUL into the creature's mouth along with a series of diamond-shaped objects that deal damage on contact. If the protagonist is hit during this attack, their HP drops to 1 regardless of their equipped items, and all succeeding attacks do no damage. The attack can be avoided, though it is difficult to do so. After this, Asriel starts using his full power, initiating the final phase of the fight. Angel of Death: Asriel using his full power. However, his only attack in this form is a barrage of energy-based comet projectiles launched from his fingertips that enter the Bullet Board from the sides and home in on the protagonist's SOUL in massive waves. This is used in his final two phases.

During the first phase, the protagonist is given two options in ACT:

Hope: Heals 1 HP, and reduces damage taken by 1 for the next turn. Dream: Heals 4 HP, and fills the inventory with Last Dreams, which heals 17 HP when consumed.

It is impossible to damage Asriel; any attempt to FIGHT results in a MISS. Asriel cannot be spared using the MERCY option. It is also impossible to receive a game over in this fight; if the protagonist's HP reaches 0, their soul splits in half before repairing itself. The first time this occurs, text appears reading "But it refused." The protagonist then receives full health and returns to the battle. After surviving three consecutive rounds, the dialogue resumes to advance the stages of the fight.

After enduring many of his attacks, Asriel eventually transforms into his final form. The protagonist is now only limited to ACTing, and all of his options have been replaced with Struggle, which does nothing. After several turns of struggling, the protagonist realizes that they cannot reach their SAVE file and perhaps saving the game is impossible, but with the remainder of their power, they can save something else.

The ACT button then turns into SAVE, and the protagonist must set out to save their friends, Undyne, Alphys, Papyrus, Sans, Toriel, and Asgore, who appear as Lost Souls with Papyrus and Sans as well as Toriel and Asgore being fought together. Individual Lost Souls are saved after three turns of ACTing while paired Lost SOULs are saved after four. It does not matter which ACT options are used, or which Lost Soul is ACTed on for the pairs. At the same time, each Lost Soul uses their respective attacks and SOUL Modes, save for Alphys (since she is never fought), who uses Mettaton EX's attacks. Saving a character fully heals the protagonist, as well as trying to save a person that has already been saved. Just like Asriel, trying to FIGHT the Lost Souls results in a MISS. Fighting Asriel in this form will result in a MISS and he will attack with the angel of death attack.

After saving all six, the SAVE option has "Someone else": implied to be Asriel. After selecting the name, the protagonist sees a slideshow of Asriel finding the first human, ending in a photograph of the first human, Toriel, Asgore, and Asriel. Trying to refuse the protagonist's advances, Asriel first launches a massive rapid-fire wave of energy bullets, but his second wave shoots fewer and less damaging bullets (which cannot hit the protagonist if they stay in the center). His attacks then turn into basic fire magic that deliberately avoids the protagonist's soul, much like Toriel's. He eventually launches an unavoidable beam that destroys the FIGHT, ITEM, and MERCY options, but the protagonist still survives with 0.000000001 HP (whether this is due to the protagonist's immense determination or simply Asriel being unable to bring himself to kill them at this point or both is unclear). After this attack, he loses the will to fight entirely, with the rest of the battle consisting entirely of dialogue between the protagonist and Asriel as his form fades, leaving only his head. During this phase, any option in the menu progresses the dialogue.

Afterwards

Assuming the Winter Alarm Clock dialogue is canon, Flowey is brought to the surface, presumably by one of the main monster characters as he lives with them, while Frisk seemingly left the monsters to live their lifes as they weren't mentioned. He maintains his twisted, almost scary humour, though it appears he isn't as sadistic as beforehand, as pre-Pacifist playthrough Flowey would likely have killed all of his monster companions by now. He also appears to be more rational than the others, due to him frustratedly commenting on how they are having a Christmas party in the middle of September. Sometime after being brought to the surface, Flowey acquired a ribbon, which he wears.

Genocide Run

In the Genocide route, Flowey becomes the deuteragonist. If the player keeps murdering every monster on their way, Flowey will side with them, but on New Home, he finally realizes that the child was growing more evil than him, and that he too was in danger of dying. He quickly escapes to warn Asgore of the coming danger, while the child is distracted fighting Sans. When Asgore is ultimately brought near death, Flowey reappears and deals the finishing blow, claiming to have been on the child's side all along, crying and begging for forgiveness; thus, revealing his true identity as Asriel Dreemurr. However, his pleas are ignored as he is mercilessly killed by the human (either Frisk or Chara), who slashes him repeatedly until nothing remains.

Deltarune Chapter 1

While Asriel does not appear in the first chapter of the "sequel", Deltarune, he is heavily mentioned. During the events of the game, he does not appear, as stated before, due to being at university. In the game, he is siblings with Kris, the main protagonist of the game, and he is much older than them. Although he does not appear, the game's tritagonist, Ralsei, seems to be some kind of alternate version of him. Ralsei also seems to have a similar appearance to Asriel when his face is revealed at the end of the game. The name Ralsei also seems to be an anagram of Asriel. The reason why Asriel is not Flowey in Deltarune is because the game has been confirmed to be in a separate universe.

Asriel is set to return at the end of the week, so presumably around the final chapters.

---

When he was done we were shocked!

Nico: Whoa! Yeah I've seen Flowey in action and he is horrible.

Eli: Yeah no kidding.

Mr. Boss: Note to self. Deal with Flowey in the future.

Nico: Noted. We will. But it will probably be with one of our transformations.

Eli: I have a feeling it's gonna be good.

Laney: Yeah.

Nico: Lets focus.

Tar Pit: Does Carnivora by any chance know we're here?

Rayman: No. But when we face him he's gonna be a mindless beast.

Nico: So all bite and no bark.

Barbara: Exactly.

Nico: Wow this is gonna be so awesome.

Me: I can't wait to kick that giant overgrown thistle's butt.

Allie Wilde: Me too. This is gonna be awesome.

Terrorsaur: First, let's find those Nymphs.

Nicole: They are not that hard to find. The first one Betilla is located in the Jibberish Jungle, Holly Luya the Music Nymph is in the Desert of Didjuridoos, Edith Up is in the Gourmand Land, Annetta Fish is in the Sea of Serendipity and Helena Handbasket is in the Mystical Pique.

Nico: We're gonna have to split up and search for them. Colonel, you go with Terrorsaur and Rayman to the Jibberish Jungle to find Betilla.

Me: Yes sir!

Nico: Nicole, you go with Airazor to the Desert of Didjuridoos to find Holly Luya.

Nicole: Right!

Nico: Shaggy, Scooby, Courage, Francesca, you go to Gourmand Land to find Edith Up.

Shaggy: Like you got it man!

Francesca: You can count on us!

Nico: Eli, you and Ariel will go to the Sea of Serendipity to find Annetta Fish.

Eli: Yes sir commander!

Nico: Me and May will go to the Mystical Pique to go rescue Helena Handbasket.

Laney: Awesome.

Nico: All right. Lets move!

We were off.

JIBBERISH JUNGLE

In the Jibberish Jungle, me and my group were out to find Betilla and we found her.

Kitty: Hey there. You Betilla?

Betilla: (In Pig Latin) I am. Get me outta here.

Me: She only speaks in Pig Latin.

Terrorsaur: Strange Language.

Kitty: It's a strange language made up long ago.

Me: It sure is.

Then Darktoons appeared.

Me: Looks like we're going all out on these ittle freaks.

Terrorsaur: Lets get them! TERRORIZE!

He transformed and we fired energy blasts at the Darktoons and they were obliterated all over in fiery explosions and we freed her.

DESERT OF DIDJURIDOOS

In the Desert of Didjuridoos, Nicole and her group found Holly Luya.

Seawing: (to Holly Luya) Listen, I don't know if you can understand me. But we need your help.

Holly Luya: (In Pig Latin) I will gladly help you after you free me.

Nicole: She only speaks in Pig Latin. But I understand her. Lets free her.

Airazor: This is gonna be good. MAXIMIZE!

She transformed and they fired energy waves and missiles and freed Holly Luya.

GOURMAND LAND

In Gourmand Land which was heaven to Shaggy and Scooby, they found Edith Up.

Goliath: (to Edith Up) Am I glad we found you.

Edith Up: (In Pig Latin) Thank goodness. Get me out of this monster.

Shaggy: Like lets do it!

Francesca: Yeah!

They fired waves of energy and smashed the Darktoon and freed her.

SEA OF SERENDIPITY

Underwater in the Sea of Serendipity, Eli and his group were searching and they found Annetta Fish.

Skalor: I think I see Annetta Fish!

Eli: I see her too!

They got down to the floor and they found her.

Ariel: Are you Annetta Fish?

Annetta: (In Pig Latin) I am. Now hurry and get me outta here!

Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and destroyed the Darktoon and freed her.

---

MYSTICAL PIQUE

---

Up in the mountains of Mystical Pique, Nico and May's group were looking for Helena Handbasket.

Avalanche: I think that's all of them.

Nico: Almost. We still have to find Helena.

May: And I think that's her right there.

They saw Helena in a Darktoon.

Nico: Lets get her out and fast.

May: Right!

They fired waves of energy and destroyed the Darktoon.

Helena: (In Pig Latin) Thank you all so much.

Nico: Anytime. Now that's all of the Nymphs. Lets head back to the Snoring Tree.

---

Back at the Snoring Tree we regrouped and we were ready to find and take down Carnivora. We went and found it in the Jibberish

Jungle.

Future Maria: Time to make an entrance.

Nico: Good idea. Now things are gonna be awesome.

Laney: Time to turn that overgrown weed of nightmares into mulch.

Nico: Lets go!

We went at Carnivora and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above it and a phoenix cry was heard and then fireballs rained down and hit Carnivora and it roared in pain as it was burning and then the spirits of the Toa appeared around the explosion and swirled around it and converged and then we appeared.

Nico: All right you overgrown weed! Time for you to become mulch!

Carnivora roared ferociously!

Chemistro: Get a taste of this! (shoots gun at Carnivora)

He fired his chemical ray at Carnivora and it hit him and roared in pain.

Lola: Time to burn!

Lola fired a blast of fire and it hit Carnivora and burned it.

Me: Allie!

I gave her a card and she looked at it and it was Divine Sword - Phoenix Blade.

Allie Wilde: Oh I get it! I equip myself with DIVINE SWORD - PHOENIX BLADE!

She got said sword in a vortex of fire and it was amazing.

Allie Wilde: Take this!

She swung the sword and massive blasts of fire fired from the blade and it hit Carnivora and burned him all over as he roared in pain.

Nico: YEAH!

Trumbipular, Mr. Mittens, Abomination, Yenaldooshi, Control Freak, Knightbrace, The Dark Turtles, Biowulf, Skalamander, Scorpion, Bluto, The Stitch Sisters, Torch Tiger and Ship Org then appeared.

Nico: Trumbipular, Mr. Mittens, Abomination, Yenaldooshi, Control Freak, Knightbrace, The Dark Turtles, Biowulf, Skalamander, Scorpion, Bluto, The Stitch Sisters, Torch Tiger and Ship Org.

Yenaldooshi: Glad to see you all here.

Trumbipular: It's nice to meet you, Rayman.

Rayman: Same here

Mr. Mittens: We actually have the perfect archenemy for you.

Maria: Who would that be?

Abomination: It's actually Red Herring.

May: It's about time you picked someone for him.

Me: Yeah and now Fred maybe will stop blaming him for things he didn't do.

Fred Jones: Don't count on it. Red Herring is nothing but trouble.

Me: Oh brother.

Yenaldooshi: (to me) We heard you took out a boss from Phalanx.

Me: Yep.

Control Freak: Which one was it? And can I still summon it with my remote?

Me: Yes you can still summon it with your remote and it was the boss of the 3rd level of Phalanx.

Control Freak: Good choice. And we have just the archenemy for Francesca.

Francesca: Who is it?

?: (Speaking Chinese) 那将是我。(That would be me.)

A figure came out and it was AI SHEN THE EVIL EMPRESS OF CHINA!

---

Ai Shen (also known as The Evil Empress) is the evil ruler of China in Squatting Tiger, Hidden Dog. She speaks only in Chinese and has bound feet (which could be why she floats). She has weapons such as the Hsu Quandao and the nunchucks.

In the episode, she rings the bell in her palace and her nephew Di Lung arrives. She tells Di Lung her source of power is draining away because the magic silk worm is dying and commands him to find someone truly innocent and remove their bones to get her powers back.

In the Great Wall of China, Muriel and Eustace are talking to each other. Di Lung sneaks from behind and says, "Watch where you're going, ya fool!", pushing Courage off the wall. Di Lung uses his pet frog to belch out a green bubble, trap Muriel and take her to the palace of the Evil Empress, as he himself follows. Courage uses Di Lung's frog and creates a bubble and heads to the palace as well. Muriel is seen chained and hanging from the ceiling (however, she thinks she's in a hammock), while Di Lung is ready to remove her bones (which Muriel thinks is a local tradition). Courage tells the Evil Empress that she doesn't want to remove Muriel's bones. Di Lung and the Empress banish Courage out of the palace (along with the box that had the magic silkworm, the source of the Empress' power).

Courage goes through a journey and manages to get to the palace again. He fights the Evil Empress. However, he gets his leg chained by Di Lung. The Evil Empress shoots laser at Courage and accidentally frees him. She makes another blast, but Courage grabs a mirror and the beam hits the Empress and crumble to pieces.

The Good Empress arrives to reclaim the throne and Di Lung puts all the the bones back in Muriel and laughs. The Empress shows that Courage has returned peace and harmony in the village and the silkworm is alive and well. Eustace is seen getting his legs eaten by the Tiger.

In Aqua-Farmer, Di Lung is seen with the Evil Empress watching Jojo the dolphin (who was shown to be a fish) trained by a human (shows that the trainer was a lizard). The Evil Empress is tired so she go to heaven alive (ascension).

Powers and Abilities

Like her sister, the Good Empress, the Evil Empress possesses magical powers, but she uses them only for evil and ruling all of China.

---

Bai Tza: Ai Shen! The Evil Empress of China.

Lana: Oh man!

Francesca: (Speaking Chinese) 我很惊讶你在这么长的时间里回来并成为邪恶大师的一员。(I'm amazed you managed to come back after all this time and become part of the Masters of Evil.)

Ai Shen: 姐姐在中国夺回王位后，我无处可去，所以我决定加入邪恶之主，以一场敌人和一场精彩的战斗。(After my sister reclaimed the throne in China I had nowhere else to go so I decided to join the Masters of Evil to have a frenemy and a good battle.)

Francesca: 你和我一起玩得很开心。(You're in for a fun time with me.)

Nico: Wow! I didn't know Francesca can speak Chinese.

Qin: I taught it to her. She told me that she went to China and got training from the Evil Empress' sister and she defeated her the first time. So I decided to teach her how to speak Chinese too.

Nico: Cool!

?: She's a great teacher.

A figure came out and it was DECEPTRON from episode 2 of Super Ninja Steel!

---

Deceptron was first seen in front of a gift shop-like area where Victor and Monty are buying sunglasses. His Bolt Blaster powers up as Monty lies to Victory about his "new" sunglasses. He spots the Ninja Steel Rangers and also does the same when the Yellow Ranger lies to the White Ranger, with him charging up, he encounters the Rangers and right before the Rangers could morph, Deceptron uses his Bolt Blaster to fire out a Bolt Blast at the White Ranger's Ninja Power Star, preventing her from morphing.

He escapes back to the Warrior Dome and gloats to the crowd of how Hayley can't morph. Odius complies of how he only did one Ranger, to which he says that he will wait until the Rangers does more lying so that his Bolt Blaster can power up and then steal all of the Ninja Ranger's Power Stars. He comes back and absorbs even more lies from the Yellow Ranger. After it charges up again, he encounters Brody, Calvin, Preston and Levi again. They morph and do battle with Deceptron, but he was too strong and he fires his Bolt Blast at the Blue and Gold Rangers, demorphing them and sabotaging their Ninja Power Stars. Though he ran out of energy for his Bolt Blast, he was still strong enough to attempt to steel the Ninja Power Stars. Luckily for the others, Sarah arrived on her Mega Morph Cycle and took him down with a Plasma Blast, forcing him to retreat.

However, his plan backfires when Calvin tells the truth of how he didn't give Hayley a present, causing the bolts to be removed. Deceptron then goes to a city and absorbs even more lies from Monty. Once filled up, he continues his mission to find the Rangers, though the Rangers find him and then morph, much to Deceptron's shock and confusion, to take him on and he summons an army of Basherbots to aid him in battle. As the Blue, Pink, White and Gold Rangers battle the Basherbots, the Red and Yellow Rangers battle Deceptron, to which he overpowers both. The Pink Ranger then joins in and then the Red Ranger turns into the Lion Fire Red Ranger and takes on the monster. Deceptron then hones in on the Ranger and fires his Bolt Blast in point-blank range at the Red Ranger, but right before his attack could have any effect on the Red Ranger, the Yellow Ranger used the Ninja Water Attack to shield and reflect the Bolt Blast back at Deceptron, completely stunning him and allowing the Pink Ranger to fire her Arrow Blast at the Bolt Blaster, destroying it. Deceptron is then destroyed when the Pink and Yellow Rangers used their Steel Slash as well as the Red Ranger's Lion Fire Slash Final Attack.

Deceptron is then gigantified to which the Rangers summons the newly returned Ninja Steel Megazord, Bull Rider Megazord and the Lion Fire Megazord to battle Deceptron. Equipped with the new Ninja Super Steel Mode, they overwhelm him with the Lion Fire Megazord's shurikens before hitting him with a slash from the Dragon Sword and a blast from the Rodeo Rapid Fire. However, he survived all of this so they formed the Ninja Ultrazord to use its Ninja Ultra Strike, but it wasn't enough. Deciding to up their game, Calvin summoned the new Ninja Super Steel Blaster which powered up the Ninja Ultrazord Blast Final Attack enough to destroy Deceptron once and for all.

The Monsters (also known as Death Angels or The Angels of Death ) are the main antagonists of the 2018 science-fiction horror film A Quiet Place, and its 2021 sequel A Quiet Place Part II . They are a species of super-evolved extraterrestrial predators that arrived on Earth on a number of meteors that landed on its surface, and have since begun eliminating almost all life on Earth.

They kill anything and everything that makes even the slightest noise, assisted by a sense of acute hearing far beyond anything produced on the Earth. This, combined with their indestructible armor, allowed them to massacre most sapient life on the planet, including a sizable portion of humanity, subsequently causing society to collapse.

Their vocal sound effects were provided by Justin M. Davey in the 2018 original film, and Michael Barosky in the 2021 sequel.

The Monsters are emaciated, vaguely humanoid creatures whose entire bodies are covered by many plates of chitinous armor. They are stated to be "evolutionary perfect" machines that evolved to withstand firearms and even the destruction of their own planet. They also possess arms with prehensile digits, but they are only ever observed using their limbs for locomotion. They have abnormally sharp claws that are strong enough to cut through trucks and metal, and it is their main weapon for killing their prey. They are also inhumanly fast, able to travel miles in a minute, quickly moving to locations faster than their prey can react.

Due to their lack of eyes, the Monsters hunt by sound, and are completely blind. They have sensitive plates lining the front of their faces that can extend and contract to help them gauge the direction of where a sound is coming from. The back of their heads are capable of unfolding into massive ear-like structures with pronounced, slimy eardrums. Using these, they can detect even the most subtle of changes in sounds as little as a floorboard creaking miles away. The creatures also do not need to breathe, sleep, or even eat, and are able to survive in seemingly any climate.

An ability that the Monsters also have is the ability to affect electricity. As seen multiple times in the film, electronics such as lights tend to flicker in a Monster's presence. Why and how they do this is completely unknown for this time.

Past

Although the origins of the Monsters are largely unknown, they existed for nearly a millennia before an asteroid carried them to Earth. Afterward, the destructive asteroid crash-landed in Mexico with the power of a nuke, where they began spreading across the nation and eventually the entire world. They killed anything and everything that made noise, assisted by an incredibly powerful sense of hearing far beyond anything produced on the Earth. This combined with their impenetrable armor, allowing them to fight off any resistance, including Earth's militaries, and all of the sapient life on the entire planet, which subsequently caused society to crumble and collapse.

A Quiet Place

Over the span of three months, most of Earth's human and animal populations have been wiped out by the Monsters with the US military (and presumably other armies as well) giving up on trying to fight back against them. The Abbotts family - the wife named Evelyn, the husband named Lee, a congenitally deaf daughter named Regan, and the two sons named Marcus and Beau - silently searching for supplies in a deserted town. While out in the open, the family communicates with American Sign Language (ASL). 4-year-old Beau is drawn to a battery-operated space shuttle toy, but his father takes it away. Regan returns the toy to Beau, who also takes the batteries his father removed. Beau activates the shuttle when the family is walking home through the woods, near a bridge. Its noise makes him an instant target for a nearby creature and he is swiftly killed.

Later on, as one of the children knock over a lantern, the family prepares for a potential monster attack as something lands on the roof. However, it only turned out to be some raccoons that jump off of the roof and can be seen from the window. Then, one of the monsters pounces on one of the raccoons after they move away from the house, crushing them in one swift stroke.

While fishing with his son, Lee encounters an old man in the forest whose wife was killed by the Monster. Although Lee urges the man to stay quiet, the old man was driven to suicide. He screams to draw the Monster to him, not even caring that he had placed an innocent man and his child in danger by doing so. A Monster then arrives and kills him in one swift motion, unaware that Lee and his son were nearby.

Alone at the house, Evelyn goes into labor earlier than expected. While making her way to their house basement, she steps on a large nail. In pain, she accidentally drops a glass picture frame and alerts a nearby creature. Evelyn flips a switch that changes the exterior house lights to red as a danger signal to the others, and struggles to remain silent during her contractions. Arriving at the farm and seeing the lights, Lee instructs Marcus to set off fireworks as a diversion. He finds Evelyn hiding in the bathroom with their newborn son. The baby starts crying, attracting a creature. And they narrowly avoid another attack on the way to their improvised soundproofed barn basement. Lee leaves to find the other children, after promising Evelyn he will protect them. Evelyn falls asleep, but wakes to discover that the barn basement is flooded with water from a broken pipe and that the creature is stalking her.

Regan hurries back to the farm. She and Marcus take refuge atop a grain silo, lighting a fire to alert their father to their whereabouts. However, they run out of lighter fluid and the fire dies before they can attract Lee's attention. A hatch door gives way and Marcus falls into the silo. The sound of the door falling distracts the creature stalking Evelyn which then runs towards the silo. Marcus sinks into the corn and nearly suffocates, but Regan jumps in and saves him. They avoid further danger by clinging to the fallen silo door and survive a subsequent creature attack by hiding under it. Regan's cochlear implant reacts to the proximity of the creature by emitting a piercingly loud high-frequency sound that drives the creature away. The children escape from the silo and reunite with Lee.

The creature returns, attacks and wounds Lee, while Marcus and Regan hide in a pickup truck. After seeing his father wounded, Marcus shouts impulsively, attracting the creature to the truck. Due to its unpleasant sound, Regan turns her cochlear implant off for the first time, unaware of the fact that it would have potentially driven the creature away. Lee uses sign language to tell Regan and Marcus that he has always loved them before sacrificing himself by yelling to draw the creature away from his children, so that way they can escape. The creature then slashes Lee, allowing Regan and Marcus roll the truck down a hill to escape and reunite with Evelyn and the baby at the farmhouse.

The four retreat to the house's basement, which to this point was off-limits to the children. There, Regan sees her father's notes on the creatures and his experimentation with several different implants. When the creature returns to invade the basement, Regan realizes that the sound made by the implant distresses the creature and hence she switches the device back on and places it on a nearby microphone, magnifying the feedback to ward off the creature. Painfully disoriented, the creature exposes the flesh beneath its armored head, which Evelyn shoots, killing it and avenging Lee's death. The family views a CCTV monitor, showing two creatures attracted by the noise of the shot. Now armed with the knowledge of the Monsters' weakness and a shotgun, the family arm themselves, ready to fight back.

A Quiet Place Part II

Prior to the events of the first film, during Day 1, the Abbott family are watching a baseball game for their son Marcus just as they witness the meteor arrive on Earth, ending the game abruptly. Lee went back to his pickup truck and talked to Ronnie, a local police offer to discuss on what is going on. Ronnie then replied that units are headed out to deal with the situation, but a monster began attacking his police car and landed on a store just as Lee went back on his pickup truck but won't start. Meanwhile, Evelyn, Marcus and Beau are driving back and get stuck on traffic, but a creature lands on a station wagon and they dodge it from its claw attack. As they continued to dodge the vehicles, they then encountered a driverless bus and saw that a creature had killed its driver but they drive backwards and hide in a nearby building. More creatures began attacking the town just as Lee, Regan and more townsfolk hide in a bar to avoid being killed. They went under in a table to avoid detection just as Lee silences a man while a teenage couple lose their cell reception from their mom. But the couple's phone accidentally rings, alerting the creature and killing several people just as Lee and Regan escape from the restaurant with the creature going after them. They began approaching the damaged police car where Evelyn, Marcus and Beau are hiding in. The creature tried to attack Lee and Regan but the officer from earlier began shooting at the creature to save them, though the creatures impenetrable armor dodges the shots and the officer sacrifices himself to save the family just as the creature slashes at him with Marcus covering his ears in horror.

In the present, after presumed to have killed two creatures, Evelyn, Regan, Marcus, and their newborn son begin to leave their home just as it is destroyed so they can find any living communities left, bringing a portable guitar amplifier and microphone to fend off the creatures. As they approached a train yard, Evelyn steps on a booby trap, causing bottles to cling which makes noise to signal any creature nearby. They begin to run to escape the noise but Marcus steps on a bear trap, finding himself screaming in pain just as Evelyn tries to cover his mouth in an attempt to silence him. The baby also cries as well and Regan places him on a box while Evelyn opens the bear trap clamped on Marcus' leg. But the noise attracts a nearby creature that attempts to kill them, though Regan is able to turn on the speaker, creating a high pitched frequency that weakens it and allowing Evelyn to kill the creature with a shotgun. They soon encounter Emmett, an old friend of Lee who silences them just as they notice another creature, which had been presumably alerted by Evelyn's shotgun. The creature begins to chase them by swinging over the rooftops though the debris falls on it just as Emmett and the rest of the Abbotts hide in his secret bunker. It is later revealed by Emmett that his family was also involved on the first day of the invasion, and that his children were killed by the creature while his wife died 11 weeks ago from an illness. Suddenly, Regan hears "Beyond the Sea" and believes that it is a clue to a radio tower on a nearby island for survivors to go to and against Marcus and Evelyn's wishes, decides to secretly go alone there so she can transmit the frequency to allow survivors to pick up the signal to use it against the creatures.

On the way, Regan spots an abandoned train and goes inside, but after crows fly off and make noise as well as being startled by a dead corpse while getting a medical aid, a creature begins to go inside after being alerted to its presence. The creature tries to kill Regan but she uses hear hearing device to disorient the creature and fires a shot at the creature, though it continues to be angered and Regan tries to load her gun but it gets stuck. The creature tries to kill her but Emmett arrives in time and shoots it in the head, who had just been implored by Evelyn to bring her back. The two hide in a nearby train station just as another creature is alerted. Emmett tries to convince Regan to come back to him but instead she convinces him to join her on her mission across the sea. Back at Emmett's bunker, Marcus is tasked by Evelyn to watch over the baby as she goes to the pharmacy on her own to get medical supplies. While Evelyn goes to the pharmacy, Marcus decides to go around the factory, unaware that the tank has ran out of air, while exploring the factory, Marcus stumbles upon the corpse of Emmett's wife. Startled, he knocks over some objects, alerting a nearby creature. Marcus narrowly gets into the bunker, but accidentally locks himself and the baby inside.

Meanwhile, Emmett and Regan find a marina and search for a boat. Feral humans living there ambush them. Emmett then orders Regan to dive, which she does and deliberately creates noise and attracts two creatures that slaughter the deranged inhabitants. Emmett stabs the leader with the knife to attract the creature to kill him before jumping off to avoid being killed as well. When one creature drowns, Emmett realizes the aliens cannot swim, while the other creature gets trapped on one of the boats. Regan secures a small boat and the two reach the island where a small colony of survivors are living a relatively normal existence. The colony leader reveals that when the government discovered the creatures were unable to swim, the National Guard moved as many people as possible to the islands, but only 2 boats made it out of 12 due to people panicking. Marcus and the baby remain trapped in the air-tight bunker and are are about to suffocate. Evelyn returns and witnesses the creature attacking the bunker. Using a pistol, she fires it above to attract the creatures' attention. She then fires on an explosive to set the creature on fire. Although the flames are unable to kill the alien, it does attract sprinklers on the foundry, which distracts the creature long enough so Evelyn can save her children. The three continue hiding inside the bunker as the creature resumes prowling the foundry.

The next day, Emmett finds out that a creature that boarded a yacht at the marina has drifted to the island. As Emmett tells the survivors to get inside their homes, the creature immediately begins attacking and slaughtering the survivors. The colony leader, Emmett, and Regan jump into a car and lead the creature to the radio station. On the way, the creature tries to attack them but is unable to as it tears a piece off the vehicle resulting it being left behind. As they arrive, the creature kills the colony leader while Emmett and Regan escape into the station.

The creature attacks and nearly kills Emmett when Regan transmits her hearing aid's high-frequency through the radio station's room speakers. The creature is incapacitated, allowing Regan to impale its exposed head with a metal rod, saving Emmett. Simultaneously at the foundry, the creature has discovered the bunker. Evelyn rushes back into the bunker and tries to shut the door only for the creature to open it and attack them. The creature also throws off the box the baby was being put on. It attacks Evelyn and rips a piece of her pants, but before it can kill her, Marcus picks up Regan's transmission and plays it through his portable radio, incapacitating the creature. Marcus shoots it dead with Evelyn's revolver. Regan leaves her hearing aid connected to the radio station's microphone, allowing anyone receiving the frequency to fight the creatures.

Weaknesses

Because of their superb hearing abilities, high frequencies will disorient and irritate them and can be used to immobilize the creatures or even drive them away. Prolonged exposure to extremely high frequencies can and will kill them. While the outside of their body is heavily armored, their insides are soft and not protected by armor, and a well-timed shotgun blast to a Monster's sensory organs or mouth can instantly kill it. However, doing so risks attracting the attention of even more Monsters. The best possible method for survival is to remain as silent as possible. Using highly flammable explosives as shown in the sequel will not set the creature on fire.

The Monsters are not particularly smart either, as they are shown to have predatory intelligence and exclusively attack things that make sound, as shown when one Monster was attacking the vehicle Regan and Marcus were in rather then attacking them. Due to them being completely blind, actually finding a silent target is very difficult for them. Being near naturally loud areas, such as near rivers, will help drown out other sounds. They also can be easily distracted by other noises in the area, immediately forgetting about their target and running off to go find the source of the other sound.

As shown in the sequel, they also can't swim and quickly die by drowning. During the film's climax, Regan puts the hearing aid on the radio station's microphone, allowing it to disorient the creature before killing it with a metal rod. It also transmits to Marcus Abbott's radio so he can kill a creature that attacked him, Evelyn and their newborn baby as well. Regan leaving the hearing device will allow anyone who turns to the correct transmission on their radio to use it against the creatures.

Garrett's eyes widen in fright.

Garrett: I jinxed us didn't I?

?: Basically, you motherfucking loser!

Me: (Sighs) Can't we get a break from facing these Evil Sasukes!?

An Evil Sasuke came out.

Garrett: I'll face this nutjob.

Garrett had his eyes glow blood red and his fingers turned into jersey devil claws.

Garrett: I don't know who you are and I don't know how you got here, but know this, you're not invincible and you lost it years ago, I'll make sure the devil owns your soul.

Suddenly, Sephiroth's signature wing grew out of Garrett's back, a third dragon wing grew out of Garrett's back, pink and blue bunny ears grew out of his head, his teeth grew sharp, he grew a monkey tail, pig ears and fish gills. Then, Slenderman's tendrils grew out of his back.

Me: WHOA! What a transformation!

Cyclonis (Garrett's universe): I think Garrett entered Blood Mode.

Me: Blood Mode?

Zoe Aves (Garrett's universe): Yeah, when he reaches peak bloodlust, he enters Blood Mode and will not rest until the thing that triggered it dies.

Garrett: (Staticy Voice) Yeah, anyways I have a ninja to turn into mashed corpse.

Me: Show no mercy on him.

Garrett: With pleasure.

Garrett then walked up to him.

Garrett: I don't know you, but I know your clan are monsters from hell and they all got what they deserved.

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED) I'LL KILL YOU 100 TIMES OVER FOR SAYING THAT!

Garrett: Don't hate me for speaking the truth.

His aura flared up with incredible power.

Garrett: Says the Reject Thunder God.

Evil Sasuke: WHY ARE YOU SO CALM FACING ME!? YOU ARE NOTHING COMPARED TO THE UCHIHA! WE ARE THE STRONGEST!

Garrett: Dude, were you beaten as a small child?

Evil Sasuke was enraged.

Garrett: I was just asking. And I think you and your godforsaken clan will never be powerful in over a Duodecillion number of lifetimes.

Evil Sasuke: WHO THE HELL DO YOU THINK YOU ARE YOU MOTHERFUCKING CUR!? YOU ARE NOTHING TO US YOU FREAK!

Garrett: You're either deaf, dumb, blind or capping.

RAGE NARUTO SHIPPUDEN MOVIE 2 OST-RAGE PLAYS AT 2:18

Evil Sasuke roared in an incredible amount of rage and fury and he went at Garrett and punched and kicked and brutally fought him all over and tried to smash his head in with indiscriminate fury and brutal force and he was really determined to make sure that he kills him no matter what the cost! Garrett casually blocked all his punches and kicks and he jumped back and threw numerous kunai and Garrett deflected them all with a spoon he pulled from out of his pocket and fired a powerful blast of lightning and it hit Evil Sasuke in his arm and exploded all over and burned him bad! He was screaming in pain and then he was screaming in agony. But then his screams of pain quickly turned into maniacal and insane laughter. He was laughing like an insane and totally goofed up monster that was messed up to the core six ways till Sunday and he went at Garrett again and he kicked him in the face and knocked him down and he got up and went at him again and Garrett stepped to the side and fired a blast of lightning and it hit him in the crotch and electrocuted him all over. He went at Garrett some more and he dodged his strikes and kicked him in the back and sent him smashing into a rock and he got up and fired massive blasts of lightning at Garrett and he deflected them back with BlueBlaze and he got electrocuted all over and Garrett punched him in the face and he went at him some more and Garrett was making him madder and madder and madder and he was only making Garrett stronger with all his hatred and more. Garrett then punched him in the face and he went at him and she dodged him again and dodged him again and then Garrett kicked him in the back again and sent him crashing into a rock and he got up and went at Garrett some more and fired massive blasts of fire at him and Garrett breathed waves of massive lightning blasts at him and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power! Garrett fired lightning blasts at Evil Sasuke and he was firing blasts at him and massive fiery explosions were going off all over and turning the area into a raging thunderstorm. Garrett fired off missiles in the shape of Lone Pine Mountain Devils which blew up and exploded Evil Sasuke all over the place with incredible force. Evil Sasuke got up and then went at him some more and threw paper bombs and fireballs and massive fiery explosions were decimating the area around them.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!
BOOM! BOOM! BOOOOOOOOM!
BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Entire area around them was turning into a war zone and fire burned everything all over. Evil Sasuke then fired a massive fireball.

Garrett: DOVER DEMON BLAST!

Garrett formed a ball made of blue wraith fire and he threw it and it turned into the form of the Dover Demon and it went through the fireball and destroyed it and it slammed into the Evil Sasuke and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Evil Sasuke was smashed into the ground with incredible force and Garrett kicked him in the stomach with incredible power and he belched up a huge amount of blood and then Garrett grabbed him by his shirt and threw him into the air and flew after him and kicked him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and Evil Sasuke jumped away and fired waves of fire and Garrett breathed waves of lightning and they overtook his fire and the blasts of lightning hit him all over and electrocuted him and then Garrett grew a Loch Ness Monster tail and smashed him down. When the dust settled, Evil Sasuke jumped out and fired more fire blasts at Garrett and he breathed lightning at him and they hit him and electrocuted him all over the place and then Garrett threw a Goatman Axe at him and smashed him all over the place with incredible fury. Evil Sasuke ran at him with a Chidori and Garrett casually stepped out of the way and Evil Sasuke hit a bomb and it exploded in his face.

BOOM!

Evil Sasuke went flying from the explosion and Garrett fired waves of lightning and shocked his hands and he screamed in pain as he was electrocuted all over and then Garrett kicked him in the face and smashed him into a rock! Then he popped out of the rubble and threw the rock at him and Nicole smashed it with Yeti strength and smashed him with suplexes and stomps and smashed him all over the place! Garrett then fired waves of lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Evil Sasuke got up and he was more enraged than ever before!

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) WHAT IS IT WITH YOU!? WHY ARE YOU SO STRONG!? YOU'RE NOTHING BUT A DEAD WORTHLESS WRETCHED HYBRID! IT'S NOT FAIR! THAT POWER SHOULD BE MINE!

Garrett: You will never have my power.

Evil Sasuke then raised his right arm up and then Garrett used Hidag power to slice his right arm clean off with his tongue! He screamed in excruciating pain as it was completely severed from his shoulder and he clutched the stub of his arm as blood was gushing from the stump of his arm.

Evil Sasuke: YOU MONSTER!

Garrett: Well at least you know what my powers derive from. My powers are based on the powers of cryptids from around the world.

Evil Sasuke: YOU DEMON! WHY CAN'T I KILL YOU!?

Garrett: Because my power didn't come to me by stealing it. I earned it by accident. Power is earned and never given. You didn't realise that true power comes from good things like Love, Friendship, Hope and Wisdom.

Evil Sasuke: Those are all meaningless things!

Garrett: Dude, those are things that could have helped you and you don't want any of that. You would rather make enemies and use fear to get your way. You are always gonna be forever lost. Now you will be sent somewhere worse than oblivion. And that is The Further!

Garrett fired a wave of lightning and obliterated him into nothing.

Garrett than powered down, but the monkey tail was still beside his dragon tail.

Garrett: Give the Lipstick Demon my regards, you brat.

We cheered wildly for him.

Me: AWESOME JOB GARRETT!

Garrett: Thanks guys.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Nico: I know that voice from anywhere, you can come out now, Bikini Bottom Horror Krabs.

A figure came out, and it was none other than the Bikini Bottom Horror version of Mr. Krabs, and he's out for revenge on us for destroying The Tortured One.

SpongeBob SquarePants: So, the Bikini Bottom Horror version of Mr. Krabs has finally arrived.

Squidward: This isn't exactly a coincidence, we destroyed The Tortured One during the war against Grandfather.

Nico: That's true, but at least, we've got a chance to destroy this greedy monster for good.

SpongeBob SquarePants: Then, leave him to me and Sandy. We'll make sure he pays for his crimes against his universe's Bikini Bottom.

Sandy Cheeks: Let's hogtie him, and run him out of town on a rail!

SpongeBob SquarePants and Sandy Cheeks unholstered their Swords of The Neptune Crusaders, and they went after Bikini Bottom Horror Mr. Krabs, and they attacked him with powerful blasts of water, acorn bombs, and neon blue and pink energy. Then, they slashed off his claws with their swords, and he screamed in excruciating pain.

SpongeBob SquarePants: Time to say goodbye, you crustaceous cheapskate!

Sandy Cheeks: Time to send you to straight to Oblivion, you side-winding, murderous, penny-pinching snake in the grass.

We cheered wildly for SpongeBob and Sandy, as they shared a kiss.

Mr. Krabs: Nice work, lad, you and Sandy did it.

Squidward: So, what do we do with the spilled crab meat?

Lincoln: I'm sure Dad will do us some crab cakes for dinner tonight.

Nico: Now, that I'm looking forward to, a delicious seafood dinner made from the splattered remains of a dead cheapskate. Now lets get this monster.

Jake Holling: Someone call for a weed wacker?

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Rayman is one of my favorite game series. It's so awesome and it's so funny too. The monsters were wicked cool and awesome and the songs were great too. The first 2 parts of the chapter were for my favorite games: Phalanx for SNES and Skylanders Swap Force and those two games were so fun. Awesome too. The Bikini Bottom Horror was one of the most amazing well drawn comic books I've ever seen on the internet. Again to NicoChan11 I am so sorry I showed you that comic. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescues and the chapter are gonna be in episodes of Courage the Cowardly Dog. First up for me is the episode The Uncommon Cold and me, Allie, Varie, Bai Tza, Laney and Eli are gonna be at the Bagge Farmhouse for breakfast and Muriel is gonna have one nasty cold caused by Bayou Magic and we're going to rescue some slugs and we're going to meet a Flow Kelp named Judia Kadias and she will have a Blissey Gene-Slammer that is really the Nurse Joy from New Bark Town. Shocking. Lincoln's rescue is gonna be in the episode Mission to The Sun and that is gonna be a weird one where we go on a mission to the sun as well as stop Mustafa Al Bacterius from extinguishing the sun and we're going to recharge the sun. The next chapter is gonna be for the episode Forbidden Hat of Gold and we're going to see some surprising things about Eustace's brother Horst as well as battle a secret society of vanity and greed hating monks.

See you all tomorrow.

The Forbidden Hat of Gold

In the early morning hours, at 1:23 AM, I was in bed sleeping and having a really interesting dream. I saw that I was in the battle with the Sirens and the Pillars of Equestria. I saw Star Swirl the Bearded, Rockhoof, Mage Meadowbrook, Mistmane, Flash Magnus, Somnambula and Stygian fighting the Sirens, Adagio Dazzle, Aria Blaze and Sonata Dusk. They looked more like dragons rather than sirens. The Sirens were singing and all the ponies around them were fighting with forced hatred and they were feeding off their negative energy and getting stronger.

Me: Whoa. That is brutal. Huh?

I saw a mysterious figure watching the battle from afar and it had a black cloak on so I couldn't make out who it was. But whoever was under that cloak was pure evil and it was looking at the Sirens with a malevolent smirk. I heard it talking.

Figure: Soon my slaves, you will make me all powerful.

Me: Slaves?

I knew something was up as it was referring to the Sirens. Then I saw the Pillars banish the Sirens to Earth.

Me: So that's how Adagio, Aria and Sonata wound up in our world.

I then saw the figure run away in fury and Star Swirl knew that the figure was there too and knew it had to be destroyed.

Me: I have to figure out what the connection is with that figure that I saw that watched the battle with the Pillars of Equestria and the Dazzlings.

Later at 8:13 AM, I woke up and went to eat breakfast. After finishing my breakfast, I then told Twilight about my dream and she knew something was up.

Twilight Sparkle: That is a very interesting dream J.D. and it was another vision into the past. It could very well explain as well why Adagio, Aria and Sonata became the way they were.

Me: Lets head to the Simulator so we can find out.

We did so and I went to the battle in the Battle of The Bands and me and Twilight were watching the Dazzlings.

Me: Okay girls lets see what secrets you have that you have hidden from us.

I used my memory probing powers and peered into Adagio, Aria and Sonata's pasts. I saw that eons ago, Adagio, Aria and Sonata were living normal lives when suddenly the very same figure that I saw in my dream was actually the Evil Sorceress that Clover the Clever went after to destroy the Memory Stone and she captured the 3 girls and forcibly put magical amulets on them that cursed them to become THE SIRENS! When they sang their song it caused people and ponies to fight and react harshly with anger and hatred and they feed off of Negative Energy which makes them stronger and more powerful. They were channelling that very Negative Energy into the Evil Sorceress so she could become invincible! But the intervention of the Pillars of Equestria put a huge monkey wrench in her plans when Star Swirl banished the Sirens to Earth.

When I finished seeing into the past I was shocked!

Me: WHOA! That is what I would call a fate worse than death!

Twilight Sparkle: What is it?

I told her everything and Twilight gasped in shock.

Twilight Sparkle: That's horrible! But wow! I had no idea that the very evil sorceress that had the Memory Stone was also the one that cursed the Dazzlings!

Me: I didn't either. Now I see why the Dazzlings became like they did. It's because of that evil sorceress. She cursed them and ruined their lives. And thank goodness I Hakaied her.

Twilight Sparkle: Thank goodness.

I later used the power of the Sword of Harmony to destroy their stones and made sure that they were destroyed for good. We went back and I went into Star Swirl's Study and told Star Swirl what we found out.

Star Swirl: My goodness! I had no idea it was the very same sorceress that I had my apprentice Clover the Clever go after.

Me: I was shocked myself Star Swirl. But thanks to a dream I had that showed me the battle you and the Pillars of Equestria had with the Sirens eons ago as well as detective work, we put the pieces of the puzzle together very fast.

Star Swirl: We got to tell this to Adagio and her friends.

Me: Agreed.

We went and told them what we found out and Adagio, Aria and Sonata had a memory relapse and they remembered what happened and it was horrible! It was because of that very curse that they became the evil sirens and then they broke down crying and Rainbow Dash, Pinkie Pie and Rarity comforted them.

Applejack: That's terrible! I had no idea this happened.

Me: None of us did Applejack. We were completely oblivious about it until I saw what happened in a dream and in a simulator exercise.

Nico: That's awful. I didn't know this happened to them all those years ago.

Clover the Clever: I remember that. That is so strange how the very sorceress that I pursued in my seven trials would end up becoming the very sorceress that cursed the Dazzlings.

Me: That is a huge revelation.

Nico: Looks like your dreams have told us another huge surprise J.D.

Eli: No kidding. That's amazing bro.

Me: It sure is. I've been having a lot of dreams that are visions into the past.

I looked at my watch.

Me: Oh it's time for my rescue. We are heading over to Nowhere for a rescue.

Nico: Okay. Be careful guys.

Me: Will do.

Me, Allie, Eli, Lincoln, Earth, Laney,Ekantika the Seviper Gene-Slammer, Bai Tza and Lana were off to Nowhere.

---

At the Bagge Farm, we were having breakfast with Muriel.

Ekantika Venkatanarasimharajuvaripeta: (Indian Accent) Why do I get the feeling that we're gonna be spending a lot of time in Nowhere today.

Ekantika concentrated and groaned as she lost her arms.

Me: It'll be fun Ekantika.

Muriel was making breakfast and then she sneezed the eggs she was cooking on Lana and Eustace.

Lana: Bless you.

She got the eggs off and ate them.

Ekantika turned into SEVIPER!

Lana: Good thing I don't get sick anymore.

Eustace: What you trying to do!? Get me sick!? Oh.

He ate the eggs.

Francesca: Grandma Muriel you don't look so good.

Bai Tza: Yeah you look horrible.

Me: Yeah what's wrong with you?

Muriel: (Groggy and nasally) I'm sorry guys. This is the worst cold I've ever… (Courage grabs a chair) Ah, ah, AHCHOO!

The sneeze blows her back and she lands in the chair and it broke and landed on Courage.

Muriel: Thank you Courage.

Courage whined.

Me: Bless you.

Allie Wilde: Man that cold is bad.

Lincoln: That cold is really bad.

Eli: You're not kidding.

Laney: It sure is.

Allie Wilde: Muriel maybe you should go and get some rest and let us handle things for you.

Muriel: A wee spot of tea will fix me right up.

She sneezed and then Courage made a baseball mitt out of tissues and then Muriel sneezed and a green cloud came out and an image of a slug appeared in it.

Slug: Well hey.

Me: What the!?

Courage: AAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHH!

Lana: Whoa!

Me: What the!?

Eustace: WE DON'T WANT ANY!

Muriel: Did someone say something?

Allie Wilde: I don't remember seeing a cold do that.

Eli: Me neither!

Earth: That is not an ordinary cold!

Allie Wilde: No it's not!

Francesca: What kind of cold is this?

Earth: I don't think I've ever seen a cold like that.

She sneezed again and the slug appeared again.

Muriel: Oh my!

Slug: This here urgent message has been prerecorded right into the cold and sent by magic.

Courage screamed and his eyes unscrewed out of his head like lightbulbs.

Muriel: I knew this wasn't an ordinary cold.

Lana: I wonder why he sent that cold.

Me: No idea.

Muriel sneezed and the slug appeared a third time.

Slug: We apologize for your discomfort having to send you this cold and all. But we sure need your help. We all are prisoners, Slaves in a sweatshop.

They gasped.

Me: That is completely sick!

Eli: Yeah!

Slug: We'd be obliged if y'all would come and set us all free. And that cold ain't going away till you get your sneezing self down here for the cure. Here's how to get to where we are.

He held up a map and it led to the Louisiana Bayou.

Bai Tza: Looks like we're heading off to the Louisiana Bayou guys.

Eli: Yep.

We were off to Louisiana.

---

LOUISIANA BAYOU

---

In the swamps of the Louisiana Bayou, 950 miles away from Nowhere, We were on a raft and Bai Tza was steering it and we were walking on the water. Blues music and singing were heard in the background.

Laney: This place gives me the creeps.

Lana: It's the Louisiana Bayou. It always does.

Allie Wilde: Penny told me a lot about this place and how scary it can get.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Lincoln: It can get really creepy at night.

Laney: This looks like the spot.

Eli: It sure looks like it.

We parked the raft on the shore of the river and it had stuffed snake statues.

Lana: These snake statues are weird.

Lana felt them and she was repulsed by the feel.

Lana: They're made with snakeskin!

Everyone: EW!

I felt one.

Me: Yep they are made of snakeskin.

Francesca: That is so gross!

Slug: Well hey.

They saw the slug and he was shackled to a chain.

Bai Tza: Are you the slug that sent us the cold that infected Muriel?

Slug: Yes. Glad y'all could come to free us.

Bai Tza: Same here.

Laney: Me too.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time.

Slug: Why don't y'all come on inside and we'll explain the whole mess to ya?

Francesca: Okay. Come on grandma.

Me: Hang on Muriel.

We went into the slugs cave and the slugs were shackled up and stuffing snakeskins with leaves. Muriel was coughing like mad.

Young slug: They've come to save us.

Slug: Take it easy slugs. We owe our guests some explaining.

Francesca: We got your message. But what's all this about?

Me: Yeah can you give us more details?

Slug: These snakeskins belong to a snake called Big Bayou.

He shows them a picture of a red snake with orange slit eyes and wearing a bowtie and a nice hat with a voodoo skull on it.

Laney: He sure looks like a nice snake.

Me: Looks like a snake with very luxurious tastes.

Slug: I'm afraid it's like this. Big Bayou's a very powerful snake and very vain. Loves hisself. Kept us prisoner here for years. Us making the stuffed statues of him out of the skins he sheds. It's torture.

Young slug: Yeah. (Shows he only had one tooth) And the dental coverage stinks.

Bai Tza: This is disgusting!

Me: Yeah no kidding!

Lincoln: This is completely wrong on so many levels!

Laney: This snake needs to be made into a snakeskin wallet! And I thought Orochimaru was terrible.

Lincoln: Tell me about it.

Slug: Big Bayou's magic put us here, and only Big Bayou's magic can break our shackles.

Muriel was coughing badly.

Courage: Is there a spell you can use to cure her?

Slug: Uh well we'd love to cure her, but, uh…

Young Slug: We don't know how.

Slug: We were able to steal just a smidge of magic from Big Bayou-

The young slug held up half of a page that said Catch the Uncommon Cold.

Slug: Just enough to get our message out in a microbe.

Bai Tza: May I see that?

Young Slug: Sure.

Bai Tza read the page.

Bai Tza: Fascinating spell. Big Bayou knows how to use Bayou Magic with ease.

Me: He sure does.

Eli: Very unusual spell.

Allie Wilde: Yeah.

Lincoln: I'm sure we can find the cure and free you guys from this prison.

Slug: Well all you got to is to get your hands on Big Bayou's Book of Big Bayou Magic. He's got all his secrets in there. Then you can get cured-

Young Slug: Yeah and free us.

Muriel: (Weakly) I'll… I'll try.

Francesca stopped her.

Francesca: No Grandma Muriel you are in no condition to do anything.

Bai Tza: She's right Muriel. We'll go get the book. You stay here and rest while we do so. Francesca you watch over her while we go.

Muriel: Okay.

Francesca: You can count on me.

Bai Tza: Where does Big Bayou live?

The slug pointed to a direction and we went through tall grass and they came across a house in the shape of a snakes head.

Lincoln: So this is where Big Bayou lives.

Laney: Looks like a house Orochimaru would love.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Allie Wilde: Yeah.

We then heard the door open.

Lincoln: He's coming.

Bai Tza: Quick! Hide!

We all hid in the grass.

Me: Shh.

We saw a red snake wearing a Top Hat come out.

Big Bayou: (Hiss) Hello me. Oh don't I look fine? I am s-s-s-so beautiful. I think I'll s-s-s-see how all the other mes-s-s-s are doing, but first…

He took his hat off and shed another skin.

Big Bayou: Aah.

He got his hat and put it back on. He put the skin with a bunch of others in a pile.

Big Bayou: Oh yeah. I am pretty. I love me.

He slithers through the grass somewhere.

Bai Tza: Now's our chance. Come on.

We went to the door of his house and tried to open the door but it was locked.

Laney: It's locked. (Looks up to the windows) Hold on a sec.

Laney climbs up to the right eye window and she sees the big book of magic on his bed. She used her plant powers and had vines grow and they brought the book over to her.

She pulled it through the window and it was the right one.

Laney: Big Bayou's Big Book of Magic. This is it.

She jumped down and brought the book to us.

Bai Tza: We got it. Great job Laney. Lets go.

Me: Good work Laney.

Eli: That was clever.

We went back to the cave.

---

Francesca was looking after Muriel. Muriel then sneezed and the slugs backed away.

Francesca: Hang in there grandma. They'll get the book.

Muriel sneezed again and we came back.

Bai Tza: We got it guys!

Young slug: They got it! They got the book!

Laney: All I did was use my plant powers to get the book out.

Me: The door was locked so we had to improvise.

Allie Wilde: It was clever.

Slug: Feel free to cure the lady first.

Bai Tza: Okay.

Bai Tza set the book on the table and she scrolled through it and found the other half of the torn page.

Bai Tza: Here's the other half of the torn page.

Courage looked it over and it said Curing the Uncommon Cold. It was really a series of mimic dances where the caster acts like a chicken.

Courage: This looks really simple.

Francesca: I remember this spell.

Bai Tza: Go for it Courage.

Courage acted, clucked, pecked and crowed like a chicken. Then they got a surprise when they saw Courage lay a huge egg.

Muriel: Oh my.

Francesca: What the?

Bai Tza: Funny.

Courage saw the egg and he laughed.

Allie Wilde: That's funny.

Bai Tza: But it did work when I saw him do it the last time.

He cracked the egg open and gave it to Muriel. She drank the entire yolk of the egg and she was cured in an instant.

Muriel: Oh. Oh my! I can breathe! I feel myself again.

Lincoln: That was awesome!

Earth: That was amazing!

Laney: It sure was.

Lana: That was so cool!

Francesca: It sure was.

Me: That was amazing.

The slugs were telling them to free them.

Courage scrolled through the book but they got an unexpected surprise.

Big Bayou: What the Bayou is going on here? (sees Courage with book) Were you mes-s-ssin' with my Bayou magic?

Bai Tza: What do you think?

She fires a blast of water at Big Bayou and blows him out into the swamp.

Lana: Let me see that magic.

Lana looked through the book and found an interesting spell.

Lana: Here's an interesting one. "Bayou Slave Snake Animation. To make stuffed bayou snakes your obedient slaves, use deadly venom from a real bayou snake." Cool!

Me: That's interesting.

Laney: I think I have some of that.

Laney pulled out a box with a skull and crossbones on it and it was full of containers that had different poisons from animals and plants all over the world.

Laney: Lets see. Rattlesnake venom. Sea snake venom. Funnel Web Spider Venom. Aha! Swamp Snake venom. Same thing as Bayou snakes.

Lana: Thanks Lanes.

Me: Where did you get that box full of poisons Laney?

Laney: I always carry this with me just in case I need to make antitoxins and all that.

Me: Smart thinking.

Lana took the bottle and went outside and threw the venom onto a bunch of stuffed snakes. The snakes came to life and they were roaring.

Lana: SLAVE SNAKES, OBEY!

They stood in attention.

Lana: (Points to Big Bayou) Get him guys!

We went at Big Bayou and we also helped blast and smash Big Bayou all over. We also got help from a Flowkelp named Judia and a Blissey Gene-Slammer. To our shock it was the Nurse Joy from New Bark Town.

The slave snakes went at Big Bayou and wrapped around him in a ball.

Muriel: Lana! I need a new file but I got them free!

The slugs were free and we cheered wildly.

I told the boys to cover their eyes and I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Nurse Joy reverted back and she was naked.

Ekantika reverted back too.

Ekantika was human again. But naked.

Ekantika: (covers herself) Are you okay, Nurse Joy?

Nurse Joy: (Covers Herself) Thanks to all of you. This was amazing being a Blissey.

Bai Tza: Now we have a Gene-Slammer Nurse Joy that can turn into her Pokemon of choice. What are the odds of that?

Judia: That is really cool.

I gave Nurse Joy and Ekantika new clothes and they put them on.

Allie Wilde: Francesca's knowledge of Bayou Magic really came through for us. And it has Big Bayou in the M.O.E.

Laney: It sure does. So awesome.

We went back to Nowhere.

* * *

Back in Nowhere we were having tea.

Muriel: Ahh it sure is lovely to sip tea just for the pleasure of it.

Francesca: You said it grandma.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: It sure is.

Francesca: And it was thanks to this adventure that I decided to learn all about magic.

Francesca had the book strapped to her back.

Laney: This was so much fun though.

Me: I'll say.

Lana: It sure was.

Earth: Yeah.

Courage: It was cool learning all about Bayou Magic.

Bai Tza: Yep. It was a swampy adventure.

We laughed.

Eustace came in and he coughed.

Eustace: Muriel! I caught your dern cold! AH AH AH AH AACHOO!

He sneezed out a green cloud and then in the cloud appeared the imagine of Big Bayou chained up and calling out for help.

Courage used the same method he used to cure Muriel.

---

After curing Muriel, rescuing the slugs, and putting down Big Bayou, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Chazz Princeton were heading to the rocket ship where Muriel, Eustace, Francesca, and Courage are in, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the sixteen girls there, but we're also going to stop Mustafa Al Bacterius from extinguishing the sun, and recharge the sun.

On the rocket, Courage, Muriel, Francesca and Eustace were sleeping in pods and then a rooster crow.

Computer: Okay. Nap time is over you twits.

They woke up.

Francesca: Good sleep.

Eustace was still sleeping and then he was forced to wake up.

Eustace: DOH! (CRASH) Hey what did I do!?

In the control room, Eustace was pressing buttons.

Eustace: Darn this rocket! Can't get any picture on the TV.

The General appeared.

Man: The following information is classified! Not to mention vital to the security and future of the human race! Thank you.

Eustace: Blah Blah Blah!

Muriel: I think the man with the shiny buttons has something important to tell us.

Francesca: Lets listen.

General: (Clears Throat and Speaking Gibberish)

Courage: I don't understand.

General: And God Speed. (Clicks off)

Muriel: Oh my!

Eustace: How do you change the channel on this thing?

Computer: Don't you dolts speak English? The Sun is about to go out. You have fix it. Everything you need is in that briefcase. Over there.

They safe a briefcase.

Francesca: This is a big mission.

Computer: If you don't fix the sun, it'll glow bright red and then it goes out..

Francesca and Courage gasped.

Eustace: Big deal.

Francesca: Grandpa without the sun the Earth will cease to exist!

Courage: Yeah!

Muriel: Well if someone's going to fix the sun it might as well be us I suppose.

Eustace: (Mumbling) Why won't you shut up?

Computer: So do get the sun fixed before the clock hits zero. You twits.

We were following the rocket.

Courage and Francesca were at the control room.

Courage was pressing buttons.

Computer: No no you space monkey. Press shift and then enter.

He pressed said buttons and then…

SPLAT!

Courage got a pie splattered into his face.

Computer: Ha! I get them with that every time.

Francesca: (Licks the pie) Mmm! Mixed Berry.

Courage: Okay rocket boy double click the idea that looks like a little doggy.

BEEP BEEP.

SPLAT!

Courage got tarred and feathered.

Computer: Ha. You are gullible.

2:36:40

Courage pressed a button.

DING DING!

BAP!

Courage got slugged in the face by a spring loaded boxing glove from the computer.

Later the family was having Astronaut Tube Food.

Eustace: Lousy stinkin tube food.

SLURP! GULP!

Eustace: Hey not bad.

Then Muriel started acting REALLY WEIRD! Her eyebrows were twitching all over.

Muriel: BIRDS!

Eustace: Ah you're seeing things. More Turkey in a tube.

Francesca: Grandma are you all right?

Muriel: Halifax! Wikky wikky wikky! Mombo time!

Then Muriel lost her white hair and grew a huge beard.

Eustace: HUH!?

Francesca: WHAT THE!?

Courage gasped!

Muriel regrew her hair and it was bigger.

Muriel: WAAAHAAA! WAAAAAAAA!

She was going crazy!

Eustace: HEY! What you do that fer?!

Muriel: I don't know!

Eustace: Muriel! Hear what I say!?

Muriel grabbed Eustace's ears and pulled them! Eustace screamed in pain and she pulled his nose and then she pulled out a hair from his nose and then bongoed on his head and then she smashed him into the table!

WHAM!

Eustace: (Crying)

Muriel was inflating back and forth and then she took a huge bite out of the table.

Francesca: WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU!?

Muriel: Come on! Come on! Set it off! I think I could use a wee nap.

She was walking on the ceiling.

Courage and Francesca went to the computer.

Computer: Of course Muriel is acting weird. She's locked in a tin can with you isn't she?

A soda squirter came out.

SQUIRT! SQUIRT! SQUIRT!

On the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix we were watching the rocket and then we went on board the rocket.

Lincoln: I have a feeling that this is going to be both a rescue and mission rolled up into one, not only am I going to rescue the sixteen girls, but we're also going to help Muriel, Eustace, Francesca, and Courage recharge the sun, and stop Mustafa Al Bacterius from extinguishing the sun.

Me: That's right, big guy.

Nico: Francesca told me about that little pest, he slipped inside Muriel and took over her brain, so he could sabotage the mission to repair the sun, and he and his kind liked it dark. But, what he doesn't know is that if The Sun goes out, Earth will be plunged into a new ice age without The Sun's warmth.

Lincoln: That's right, that little monster's got to go.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of sixteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the sixteen girls, along with Courage, Eustace, and Francesca, but they've been cornered by Mustafa Al Bacterius, who's inside Muriel's brain, and he's going to kill them.

Lincoln: Guys, I've found the sixteen girls, but they, along with Courage, Eustace, and Francesca have been cornered Mustafa Al

Bacterius, who's inside Muriel's brain, and he's going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over, and Lincoln bound Muriel in an indestructible neon blue energy rope, and using his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes, he found the pest we've been after: Mustafa Al Bacterius, and he's inside Muriel's brain.

Mustafa Al Bacterius: (Inside Muriel's brain) How dare you interfere with my plans, Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You will all pay for this.

Lincoln: Shut up, you little pest. What you're trying to do in sabotaging the mission to recharge The Sun is going to mean the death of Earth and mankind, and that's something I'm not going to allow.

Lincoln fired a small neon blue energy rope, and it went inside Muriel's brain, and once it'd wrapped around Mustafa Al Bacterius, he pulled the little pest out, and once he was out, the neon blue energy rope turned purple, and he'd burst into purple flames, and Mustafa Al Bacterius was Super Hakaied, and Muriel was back to normal. We arrived at the sun, and we saw that it was turning dark red.

Lincoln: Oh man, it looks like we've arrived just in time. We need to recharge The Sun before it goes out.

Francesca gave the briefcase to Lincoln, and he went out there. He arrived at the center of The Sun, and he saw the lightbulb was flickering, and was about to go out. He opened the briefcase, and he found a new lightbulb. Then, he took out the bad lightbulb, and he put the new one in, and once that happened, it was glowing brighter than ever, and The Sun returned to normal, as it returned to its normal and extremely high temperature.

The intense heat was also causing our auras to flare up, and we were getting stronger, and we were already sweating up a storm. We got back home to the Estate, and Lincoln and Nicole went up to the sixteen girls, and when Lincoln saw them, he recognized them immediately. The sixteen girls that he rescued were Houki Shinonono, Charlotte Dunois, Cecilia Alcott, Tatenashi Sarashiki, Laura Bodewig, Kanzanshi Sarashiki, Lingyin Huang, Luanyin Huang, Honne Nohotoke, Yuzu Tanimoto, Kiyoka Aikawa, Kaoruko Mayuzumi, Tina Hamilton, Velvet Hell, and Chifuyu Orimura from Infinite Stratos, and Tokine Yukimura from Kekkaishi.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Houki Shinonono, Charlotte Dunois, Cecilia Alcott, Tatenashi Sarashiki, Laura Bodewig, Kanzanshi Sarashiki, Lingyin Huang, Luanyin Huang, Honne Nohotoke, Yuzu Tanimoto, Kiyoka Aikawa, Kaoruko Mayuzumi, Tina Hamilton, Velvet Hell, Chifuyu Orimura, and Tokine Yukimura.

Nicole: From Infinite Stratos and Kekkaishi, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Houki Shinonono: Yes, we're okay, thanks for saving us.

Then, when Houki Shinonono and the fifteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Mustafa Al Bacterius, their faces all lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 16-year-old 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

The Champions of the Universe with large orange gems on his large wrists, massive deep blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and the stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts and long orange trenchcoat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts held up by his Belt of Elemental Bravery with large orange gem for the belt buckle on his waist, a pair of blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Houki Shinonono: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made fifteen clones of himself, and he and the fifteen clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Houki Shinonono: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

It was both a successful mission and rescue all in one, we've helped Courage, Muriel, Eustace, and Francesca recharge The Sun, and Lincoln rescued sixteen new future wives from that insane pest, Mustafa Al Bacterius, who took over Muriel's brain to sabotage the mission to recharge The Sun, and cause an age of eternal darkness and cold on Earth.

After recharging The Sun and stopping Mustafa Al Bacterius, we were then training intensely in the gym doing our 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, lat pulldowns, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading down to help Carole and Tuesday with a problem: the problem was Tuesday's obsessive fan, Cybelle. Her obsession of getting to Tuesday has gotten out of hand, and she needs to be stopped. We also found out that when Lincoln rescued Carole and Tuesday, their world has merged with Earth.

Lincoln: So, you've had a problem with an obsessive fan of your, right, Tuesday?

Tuesday Simmons: That's right, Lincoln. Her name is Cybelle, and she's extremely obsessive about me, and that obsession is extremely dangerous.

Carole Stanley: Cybelle needs to be stopped, or she's going to seriously hurt someone.

Me: That's exactly what needs to be done.

Nico: But, I know Lincoln's got a plan for this one, and I can't wait to see it.

We arrived in the middle of Gotham Royal York, and waiting for us was Cybelle.

Cybelle: So, the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm has arrived, along with the one who hurt me long ago.

Me: Tuesday didn't hurt you, Cybelle. It was your dangerous obsession that did this to her and to you as well.

Cybelle: I don't care, if I can't have her, then, I will kill her and all of you, as well!

We also saw that she had a gang of huge, muscular thugs with her, and they were here to kill us all. But, we saw them inject themselves with a red liquid. Lincoln saw what it was: it was Professor Milo's werewolf serum, the same one that turned Anthony Romulus into a werewolf. Then, we saw them all turn into werewolves.

Lincoln: Oh man, the thugs used Professor Milo's werewolf serum, and they'd turned themselves into werewolves.

Me: I think it's time to fight fire with fire.

I snarled, and I transformed into J.D. The Nocturnal. Then, the rest of us saw something happen to Lincoln, he let out an animalistic growl, as his canine teeth turned into fangs, light brown fur covered his abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, his nails grew into sharp claws, he now had a wolf's muzzle complete with a wolf's black nose, his ears turn into pointed werewolf ears, the black pupils of his eyes turned into slits, but he still retains the deep sapphire blue iris, his outfit, jewelry, and weapons, along with his white hair and blue lightning bolt highlights on his bangs, and the massive deep blue angel wings with super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them. Then, Lincoln sprouted out eleven long, massive, and powerful blue fur werewolf tails. Then, he'd let out a powerful howl. Lincoln has transformed into his new werewolf hero form, Lincoln The Nocturnal.

The rest of us saw it, and we were stunned, and when the girls in Lincoln's harem saw it, they were already blushing like crazy.

Nico: Whoa, looks like Lincoln's acquired his own Nocturnal Werewolf form, that's awesome.

Lincoln: (Beastly Voice) That's right, Nico.

Me: (Beastly Voice) And I did have a hand in this one, Nico. Plus, having another werewolf hero out fighting crime under the full moon isn't a bad idea.

Lincoln: You said it, now, let's get them.

Me and Lincoln went after the werewolf-turned hired thugs, and we brutally pummeled them into the dirt. Then, Lincoln used his spell from when he cured Anthony Romulus, and fired a powerful blast of silver light at them, curing them, and we tied them up with neon energy ropes. Then, Lincoln turned to Cybelle.

Lincoln: You don't understand that your dangerous obsession with my future wife has harmed her and everyone around her. But, I think it's time to cure you of that delusional obsession, Cybelle.

Lincoln fired powerful blasts of water from his massive wings, and they entombed Cybelle inside of a massive ball of water. Then, we saw something come right out of her, it was Cybelle's obsession over Tuesday Simmons, and it transformed into Dark Cybelle. He got Cybelle out of the ball of water, then, he fired a blast of light at Dark Cybelle, and it destroyed her completely. The water ball disappeared, as we went up to Cybelle. When she realized what she'd done, she broke down crying. Lincoln then comforted her by hugging her, it hurt us to see her break down like that.

She got over her obsession with Tuesday Simmons, and over time, she's continuing to get better, and she offered her congratulations to Tuesday and Lincoln, who are going to be married in the future. We returned home, and I changed back, but before Lincoln could change back, all the girls in his harem went up to him, and they cuddled with him, as he let out a small growl from the cuddling, he had a red blush on his muzzle, and his eleven long and massive wolf tails were wagging like crazy, and they even shared a kiss with Lincoln, as he hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms.

Nico: Wow, the girls in his harem are definitely loving what happened to him.

Me: You said it, dude, and if any moron tries to mess with them, he'll pummel them into the dirt.

Lincoln: (Laughs) Yeah, that's exactly what I'll do to them, alright.

After the cuddling ended, Lincoln changed back, but he now has the ability to change into his Lincoln the Nocturnal form at will, and we already know of his ability to sprout tails, but he also equips them with large suction cup proboscis to suck out information from enemies, or stingers to pierce them in their chest, arms, legs, and back, paralyzing them and sucking out their powers and abilities, and make them his own, and the same goes for the rest of us.

---

Later back at the estate we were watching TV. Then Lincoln came down and he was dressed in his fur parka and he was shivering like crazy.

Me: Lincoln are you alright?

Karai: First, Muriel get sick. And now Lincoln?!

Lincoln was shivering like a massage chair set on maximum.

Me: Man Lincoln you look really cold!

Lincoln: (Shivering) I c-c-c-can't s-s-s-s-seem to g-g-get myself warm!

I looked at the thermostat and it was 73˚Fahrenheit in the living room.

Me: Well the thermostat is working. How long has this been going on Lincoln?

Lincoln: I d-d-d-don't know. Ever since I got up this morning I j-j-j-just can't seem to get warm.

Lincoln touched my back and then I felt a massively extremely cold chill rush up my spin and then my head was enveloped in a block of ice.

Me: WHOA!

I flared up my fire and thawed out.

Me: Holy crap! I've heard of ghosts sending shivers up your spine but this takes the cake.

Eli: Yeah that is really cold.

Danny Phantom: This is very familiar

Knightmon: Lincoln was fine when he did his rescue earlier!

Me: That is unusual. Let me see here.

I looked at Lincoln with my Infrared Vision and it showed that his body temperature was pitch black in the center of his chest and it was at -430˚fahrenheit. Almost at absolute zero.

Me: WHOA! Lincoln your heart is at -430˚.

Danny Phantom: I think I know what this is. This is a new ghost power for Lincoln.

Me: A new Ghost Power?

Eli: Cool! What is it?

Danny Phantom: I definitely know this kind of power. It's what happened when I faced Undergrowth. It's Cryokinesis.

Me: He's about to develop ice powers.

Ruckus: You better not freeze the whole Estate.

Nico: Yeah I don't think our heaters are that big enough.

Lincoln: I'm t-t-trying not to.

Lola: Lets try warming him up.

Lola flared up her fire aura and heated Lincoln up as much as she could but the fire was still not enough.

Eli: Maybe watching TV will help out.

We turned on the TV and we saw a mysterious gold hat.

Me: Wow look at that.

Professor Frith: This legendary hat was made of solid gold and was kept by a secret society of monks. No one has ever seen the hat. No one, except a legendary explorer who made a map leading to the Forbidden Hat of Gold.

Bai Tza: That hat looks very familiar.

Nico: It's amazing though.

Me: I've never seen a hat made of pure gold before.

Rarity: It would make an amazing fashion accessory for my next fashion line.

Professor Frith: But the map and the hat have never been found. That explorer was this man.

We saw a picture of Eustace's brother Horst.

Francesca: That's Great Uncle Horst!

Me: Eustace, I didn't know your brother found that hat.

Eli: That's amazing.

Sureshot: I'm really proud of you for trying to heat Lincoln up, Lola.

Lola: Hey, me, Lori, and Lynn might be the Trinity of Violence but we also care about Lincoln very much!

Lynn: Yeah! I'm not like my dark self.

Me: That's good. Very good deed you are doing.

Lola: Just because I've done terrible things in the past doesn't mean I love my family.

Me: That's a relief.

Nico: Yeah. But wow. I didn't know Eustace's brother was a great explorer.

Francesca: You should see all the things he did. His money is what gave us an awesome house here at the estate.

Courage: It sure did. Also his brother ruined a goat's home.

Lincoln: I remember that. That was crazy.

Lynn Sr.: Was this around the time Muriel hurt her back really bad?

Laney: It sure was dad.

Bai Tza: Yeah that was nuts.

Crankcase: J.D., you know it's your turn to lead today, right?

Me: Yes I do and I think Professor Frith gave us our next awesome adventure.

Francesca: Yep to find the Forbidden Hat of Gold.

Lori: You guys go on the next mission. Me, Lynn, and Lola will stay with Lincoln to help make him feel better. Even if it means missing out on the chance to kick bad guy ass.

Maria: (to me) What do you think, J.D.? Should we leave Lori, Lynn, and Lola here with Lincoln or bring Lincoln on the next mission anyway?

Me: It's really thoughtful that you girls want to help Lincoln with this cold spell. But this is exactly like what happened with Luna and Dana. They suffered extreme spells of cold and they turned into Luna Frost and Dana Ice as a result.

Luna: He's right. I remember that dudes.

Dana: I do too. That was amazing.

Arrietty: I can tell. That is amazing.

Eli: It sure was.

Abomination, Trumbipular, Mr. Mittens, Yenaldooshi, Dark Turtles, Biowulf, Skalamander, Control Freak, Scorpion and Knightbrace appeared.

Abomination: Can me, Trumbipular, Mr. Mittens, Yenaldooshi, Dark Turtles, Biowulf, Skalamander, Control Freak, Scorpion and Knightbrace go with you guys on this treasure hunt?

Me: You all sure can.

Control Freak: What are we going to try and find this time?

Nicole: We're going to find a legendary Forbidden Hat of Gold that Eustace's Brother found ages ago.

Francesca: Yep. And it was a strange solid gold hat kept in a secret society of monks. Be right back.

Francesca went to her room and came back with a map.

Nicole: Whoa so this is the map. The island it's at is located in the middle of the Gulf of Mexico.

Nico: Wow that's interesting.

Mr. Mittens: This is gonna be amazing. (See's Lincoln shivering) What's wrong with Lincoln?

Skalamander: Is he cold?

Me: He's shaking like a massage chair. This is exactly like what happened when Danny Phantom was getting his ice powers.

Scorpion: Get outta here. Lincoln's getting Ice Powers?

Nico: That's what J.D. says.

We were off to Nowhere yet again.

---

NOWHERE, KANSAS

---

We arrived at the Bagge Farm.

Helga Sinclair: Here we are back in Nowhere.

Francesca: Yep we're just here to pick up some supplies before we head out to the Gulf of Mexico. Believe it or not guys, we've been on a treasure hunt like this before.

Me: Did you really Francesca?

Francesca: Yep and it was a harrowing adventure.

Nicole: Wow. Then you must know what these monks are that have this hat.

Francesca: I sure do. They are a secret society of monks that ABSOLUTELY DESPISE vanity and greed with a massive vengeance.

Me: Boy I don't blame them. Greed and Vanity or Pride are 2 of the big Cardinal Sins.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Lincoln: (Shivering) So cold!

Scorpion: Look on the bright side, Lincoln. At least you still have your powers this time.

Lincoln: (Shivering) That's true. But I'm gonna be going with you guys still.

Me: Are you sure Lincoln? You look like you're about to turn into a block of ice.

Lincoln: I'll be all right J.D.

Danny Phantom: Lincoln let me show you something.

Danny showed his ice powers and he formed a sword made of pure ice and he slashed a wall in the farmhouse.

Lincoln: WHOA! That is amazing!

Clyde: I didn't know you could do that Danny!

Me: Yeah that was awesome.

Danny Phantom: Thanks. I went to Frostbite and he helped me out when I was getting these powers too. He told me this valuable lesson. The power doesn't control me, I control the power.

Me: That would make a very good mantra.

Eli: It sure would.

Lincoln: I'll have to remember that.

Francesca went upstairs to grab some things.

Ground Man: Alright. Let's get going.

Francesca: I'm all set!

She came down with hiking clothes and gear on and she had Eustace's Laser Gun, Big Bob with her!

Me: WHOA! You look ready for action Francesca.

Francesca: I sure do.

Eli: Is that a Neutronic Laser Gun?

Francesca: It sure is. This is Great Uncle Horst's laser rifle Big Bob.

Eustace: Now you be careful with that Francesca.

Francesca: I will Grandpa Eustace. You want to come with us?

Eustace: Normally I would when it involves gold and such. But not this time. I tried my run at that hat and it wasn't pretty.

Me: Oh right Bai Tza told us about that. Okay.

Francesca: Lets go get that hat!

Daring Do: This is gonna be a great story for my next book.

Rainbow Dash: AWESOME!

Me: Lets go!

We were off to the Gulf of Mexico.

GULF OF MEXICO

We on the island in the Gulf of Mexico.

Skalamander: That was very mature of Eustace to turn down a hunt for gold like that.

Nico: Yeah it sure was. Normally he would be all greedy and money hungry like that. But I guess he learned a lesson from the hat the first time.

Eli: He sure did.

Laney: I'm glad he did.

King Dedede: Oh, man! I can't wait to find that hat of gold!

Nicole: This hat will make an amazing find.

We trekked on.

Scorpion: Bai Tza what was Horst Bagge like?

Bai Tza: I never met him myself but I heard he was a great explorer and a hunter. He was very skilled in lots of adventures.

Francesca: Yeah he was awesome. He found all kinds of amazing places and artifacts and went after all kinds of amazing creatures.

Fluttershy: Oh I would not like that.

Nico: Don't say stuff like that around Fluttershy, Francesca. She's very sensitive when it comes to hunters.

Francesca: Sorry.

Control Freak: Which video game monster should I summon for this treasure hunt?

Nicole: Good question. How about an army of Aecyto Weevil's from Chrono Trigger?

Control Freak: Great choice.

He summoned an army of said creatures.

Nicole: We're here.

We saw that we were at a temple.

Me: Wow.

Eli: Look at that.

We then saw a sign in front of the entrance.

Me: Whomever steps inside this place must vanity and greed erase, for if you're vain well that's no good. Signed all of us who wear a hood. P.S. We warned you.

Nico: That sounds like a poem warning.

Laney: Yeah it is. It means people that love themselves and money more than anything else are not welcome here at all.

Fubuki Kakuyoko: Let's keep an eye out for any traps.

Me: Noted. Francesca where was the hat the last time you were here?

Francesca: Follow me.

We followed Francesca into a cave and we went down a series of tunnels and on a head dummy in a pillar of light was THE FORBIDDEN HAT OF GOLD!

Nico: Whoa there it is!

Eli: Wow!

Me: The Forbidden Hat of Gold.

Daring Do: It's magnificent.

It was a hat that looked like Eustace's hat but it was made of 100% pure gold.

Nico: What a beautiful hat.

Laney: It's amazing that it's a hat made of solid gold.

Yenaldooshi: Let me sniff for any traps. This looks too easy.

Daring Do: It sure does look too easy.

Yenaldooshi sniffed out some traps and he found one.

Yenaldooshi: These monks are clever. They will come to the entrance if the hat is disturbed and the cave will spring a bunch of traps to smash us.

Francesca: Last time we were here, Grandpa Eustace took the hat and we went down a bunch of tunnels and got pelted by pies, smashed by spring-loaded boxing gloves, nearly fell off a cliff into lava and nearly got flattened by a giant watermelon. Then the monks tried to sacrifice grandma Muriel to their golem.

Me: That must be the target we're after.

Anastasia (Cinderella): I have a feeling that we're about find out some information about Eustace's brother here.

Me: I think so too.

Francesca then suddenly had a vision that lead into the past!

She saw what happened to Horst when he found the hat.

Trumbipular: I have a feeling there's some dark stuff about Eustace's brother that we don't know about.

Francesca gasped.

Nico: Francesca what's wrong!?

Me: By the way you gasped I can tell that it's not good.

Francesca: No it's not. I found out why Horst died. It was because that hat did him in.

We gasped in shock.

Francesca: He got the hat here and then the monks here sacrificed him in front of their Golem and he got squished.

BIG TIME SHOCK!

Daring: Oh man!

Akira Nijino: I guess this temple was his place to die.

Me: I guess so. But we're not like that.

Daring Do: The world needs to know about this hat. It belongs in a museum.

Rainbow Dash: I agree.

Me: This is turning out to be like in Indiana Jones and The Temple of Doom. After we take the hat, prepare for battle.

Francesca: Right.

Mr. Mittens: Wait. There has to be more dark stuff about Eustace's brother that we should know about!

Bai Tza: You're right. There is.

Bai Tza told us about what he did with his box full of money and even how he ruined the home of the Goats on Mount Nowhere. As well as how he was a total bully to Eustace and why he and Eustace never got along at all. When she was done we were shocked.

Eli: Now I see why Eustace became such a total jerk! Horst would always bully him.

Me: Yeah.

Bai Tza: Yes he does. But he doesn't know how his brother died.

Francesca: Grandpa Eustace said he couldn't care less. He HATES Great Uncle Horst more than life itself.

Nico: Geez. They really do hate each other's guts with a merciless vengeance.

Eli: You aren't kidding.

Arrietty: That is one deadly grudge.

Allie Wilde: Very unhealthy too.

Me: No kidding.

Thorn: Lincoln, how are you feeling?

Lincoln: (Much better) I'm much better now. Danny's words helped a lot.

Me: I can tell. Just remember that your power is part of who you are and you must work together with your powers in order for you to achieve balance.

Nico: Very spiritualistic.

Knightbrace: Wait. Something's happening to Lincoln!

We then saw Lincoln transform!

He was enveloped in a massive flash of light and then he was enveloped in a massive vortex of ice and lightning and it formed into a lightning and snowy phoenix with a dragon. When the vortex faded, Lincoln emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Lincoln looked like he was 21 years old and now had longer white hair that had yellow and blue highlights that looked like lightning and snow. Emblazoned in the middle of his forehead he had a thunderbird and it had a Yuki-Onna in front of it and she was holding the kanji for Ice in one hand and the kanji for Thunder in the other. And he had earrings in the shape of the kanji for Ice Thunder on a snowflake. He had a blue shirt with lightning and snow on it and he had blue pants with fire, lightning and snow on them and he had blue combat boots and then he had a blue sleeveless trench coat with lightning, snow and ice on it as well as a howling blizzard. He had blue angel wings made of pure ice and the feathers had lightning surging through them and on the trench coat written in lightning was the kanji for "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, Furious Master of the Ice and Cold, Tamer of The White Buffalo of Snow, Warrior of the Snow, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband."

リンカーン・ランドン・ラウド、ヒノンのチャンピオンと使者、雷雨のマスター、氷と寒さの猛烈なマスター、雪の白い水牛の調教師、雪の戦士、天気、そして十三の元素軍、計画のある男、 十六人の兄弟の黄金の心の兄弟、そして黄金の心の恋人、父、息子、そして夫。

He had transformed into his most powerful transformation ever: SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU INFINITY THUNDERSNOW BUFFALO ANGEL OF FROZEN LIGHTNING JUSTICE!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! Lincoln you look really awesome!

Lincoln's girls could not believe how hot he looked! They had blood dripping from their noses.

Disk Wars Magneto: Lincoln? How do you feel?

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Thundersnow Voice) I feel amazing Erik. This power is amazing. Now I see what J.D. was going through when he faced Xehanort. This power is incredible.

Me: You look awesome as a Super Angel-Ebonwu Infinity Lincoln.

Nico: We're very proud of you buddy.

Laney: That's our brother.

Lana: Way to go Lincoln!

Dark Don: Amazing! Your temperature isn't at freezing level anymore but you now have ice powers!

Dark Leo: But the good thing is that you're not shivering anymore.

Dark Raph: And now, you can feel warm again.

Dark Mikey: Can I see you use ice in your ghost form?

Lincoln: Never tried that with my ghost form. Lets see.

Lincoln went Ghost and he turned into SUPER LINCOLN PHANTOM! He had a black version of his entire outfit on.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: AWESOME!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of ice and it hit a cave wall and froze the entire room instantaneously!

Me: WHOA! That is awesome!

Nico: YEAH! Lets get the hat and get out of here before the cave collapses from Lincoln's power.

I then grabbed the hat and the cave rumbed.

Mai (Avatar): Looks like we just alerted the landlords.

Me: Lets blow them back with our entrance.

Nico: YEAH!

We flew out of the cave.

The monks were waiting when suddenly…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive blue fire explosion of snow, ice and lightning exploded out of the cave and blew the monks far back and a Thunderbird's cry was heard and we came out of the explosion ready for action!

Monk: What naughty people you are! You should not to have touched the golden hat!

Me: For your information you hooded crone, that hat deserves to be shared with the world so people can know that it exists.

Francesca: That's right you old buzzard!

Me: You want the hat? Come and take it! It's being shared with the world.

Roxy Rocket, Sportsmaster, Grodd, Pied Piper, White Lightning, Ben Ravencroft, The Six Gum Gang, Enchantress, Samon Shakekisutanchin, Thundermon, Bluto, Torch Tiger, The Stitch Sisters, Ship Org and Ai Shen the Evil Empress appeared.

Me: Roxy Rocket, Sportsmaster, Grodd, Pied Piper, White Lightning, Ben Ravencroft, The Six Gum Gang, Enchantress, Samon Shakekisutanchin and Thundermon.

Roxy Rocket: I take it you guys got the hat.

May: Of course we did.

Sportsmaster: That's good.

William: But now, we have these monks to deal wtih.

Me: And don't forget their golem god too.

Pied Piper: Like they're gonna be any match for you guys!

Grodd: (to me) Didn't you also go to Nowhere this morning for the rescue?

Me: We sure did. But it was the reliving of an adventure Bai Tza and her group went on.

Grodd: Muriel getting sick with an uncommon cold?

Me: Yep.

White Lightning: I think Lincoln went to Nowhere for his rescue as well.

Me: He sure did and it was a mission to the Sun.

Nico: It was a weird one. We had to change a light bulb in the sun to stop it from going out.

?: That is weird.

A figure came out and it was JASHINGER from episodes 25, 41 and 44 of Zyuohger!

---

Jashinger is the main antagonist in episode 25 of the 2016 TV series Doubutsu Sentai Zyuohger . He is one of the Players of Team Quval. His Blood Game is to create a photo album by using his Gekishutter camera to trap people in photos.

He was voiced by Yasuhiro Takato, who is well-known to voice as Yamoh in Mahou Tsukai Pretty Cure! . Also he previously voiced JJ Jetton, SS Sutatanzo, a Copy Org, Quotaian Dagonel, Sorcery Priest Meemy, Tsuneki, a Straw Banki, Fandaho of Nonsense, Daiyarl, Mushikagoloid, Debo Vaacance and later voiced Demeran Yatmis and Carantula.

History

Jashinger made his first appearance on Planet Earth where he witness everyone including Misao getting a Happy Camera just to take pictures. Well these cameras has the ability to trap its victims into photo. Reasons why they were used in Jashinger's blood game which is taking pictures and trapping one million people in the photographs to create a photo album.

A while later he appeared at a park where the ones that got the camera are looking friends and he smack one of them out of the way. Until he asked by Bangray of what he does was doing. But this kind of interrogation hasn't been notice by Quval and orders Jashinger to continue the Blood Game while he deal with Bangray for mocking it.

A while later he used his combo as he taken a picture of a scared Japanese civilian trapping him in a photograph to complete his album. So Leo transformed and battle Jashinger, but one problem if he gets in the line of sight of the camera he'll be trapped in the photo along with the other trapped civilians. So with that said Jashinger left the area to continue photo-taking more Japanese civilians.

As this goes on he manage trap more people including the Zyuohgers in his photograph completing his first volume of his photo album. However both Misao and Leo found out his weakness, because the victims has to stay still for him to take their photos well they won't. So they used their weapons on Jashinger's Gekishutter and destroyed it thus freeing the trap civilians. After that Jashinger battles the team. After that he was then placed on top of his Tripod Claw by the team then she was spun on it while being defeated by Zyuoh the Burst.

However thanks to Naria she inserted a continue medal in Jashinger's Shutter Release trigger making him grow to giant size where he battles Tousai Zyuoh and Wild Zyuoh King. However they manage to tie Jashinger up. After that they used Wild Tousai King and finished Jashinger off with Zyuoh Direct Straight.

* * *

Yamato: Jashinger!

Jashinger: Nice to see you again Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent on a blood game to create a photo album out of people you captured with your camera.

Jashinger: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Jashinger: Mind if I take a picture of you and Nudia?

Judia: You know we won't be trapped in your photos for long, right?

Jashinger: I know. But I'm just taking a picture of you two for fun.

Me: Okay.

We smiled and he took a picture of us and it came out good and we weren't trapped in a picture. We looked awesome.

Me: So cute. Lets get these battles on.

We got them on.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Link: Oh no, I was hoping I'd never see that thing ever again.

Then, we saw something appear, and it was none other than Kholdstare, the Boss of The Ice Palace, and another enemy of Link's.

Nicole: Oh man, that's Kholdstare, the boss of The Ice Palace. He has a thick layer of ice protecting it, and the only way to get at him is to melt the ice surrounding it.

Mai Shiranui: Then, leave him to me, Nicole.

Suddenly, Mai Shiranui's eyes turned neon red, and she was surrounded by a red energy aura with flames, and as she approached Kholdstone, she left behind red energy, flames, and flower petals with every step. Then, Mai Shiranui was surrounded by a massive vortex of red energy with flames around the vortex, a crimson red dragon was flying around the vortex, and inside the red vortex was a red phoenix. Then, as the vortex faded, Mai Shiranui emerged, but she was changed forever.

Mai Shiranui grew to 6'0" in height, she had the voluptuous body of a goddess, she has neon red eyes and a red energy aura with flames surrounding her, and she has large crimson red angel wings with flames coming from the tips of the large crimson red feathers, she has a crimson red dragon with the Fire Kanji in its claws emblazoned on her forehead, she has on dragon earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws, and she has on a necklace with a dragon pendant with the Fire Kanji in its claws. She has a new sword in her hands called The Fangs of The Dragon God, it's a large sword with a dragon etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blade, large red dragon heads for the crossguards, a large red gem for the hilt, a longer red handle decorated with dragon scales, and four large dragon heads with red gems in its mouths for the pommel, Mai Shiranui has on a sleeveless red kunoichi dress with a white phoenix and white flowers, her two large red white tassels with red and white orbs remained, she now has on red leather ankle-length combat boots, and a long crimson red sleeveless trenchcoat decorated with white flowers on the coattails and a dragon on the back. She has on her brand-new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with crimson red gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a white kanji below the dragon that says, "Mai Shiranui, Master of Shiranui-Ryu, Master of Fire, and Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud."

不知火舞、不知火舞、火の達人、そしてリンカーン・ラウドの愛する未来の妻

Mai Shiranui has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 FIERY INFERNOSTORM DRAGON ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were amazed by Mai Shiranui's transformation, and when Lincoln saw what happened, he had a firetruck bright red blush on his face.

Me: Whoa, Mai Shiranui has transformed.

Nico: You said it, J.D., and judging by the bright red blush on Linc's face, he's definitely stunned.

Lincoln: Wow, Mai, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Mai Shiranui: (Divine Echoing Firestorm Voice of Love) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to give that overgrown ice cube the beating of a lifetime. (To Lincoln) Would you like to join in?

Lincoln: You already know the answer.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis and joined Mai Shiranui.

Lincoln: Let's get that overgrown ice cube.

Mai Shiranui and Lincoln went after Kholdstare, and they fired powerful blasts of fire, along with neon red and neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the blue cores at him, and the combined attacks melted the thick layer of ice, and exposed Kholdstare completely.

Mai Shiranui: Shall we end this monster once and for all?

Lincoln: Let's reduce him to ashes.

Mai Shiranui and Lincoln: DRAGON FIRESTORM KAMEHAMEHA!

Mai Shiranui and Lincoln fired a massive red Kamehameha energy wave with red hot flames and a dragon inside it at Kholdstare, and when it hit him, it exploded with incredible power, killing him and it Super Hakaied Kholdstare's spirit for good. We cheered for what Mai Shiranui and Lincoln as they holstered their weapons and Mai powered down, but Mai Shiranui's new clothes, weapons, jewelry, and body were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Mai Shiranui up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he'd wrapped her in a hug, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

Garrett: I think we can take these monks, just as long as no other baddie happens to appear.

Garrett's eyes widen in fright.

Garrett: I jinxed us didn't I?

Garrett: BRING IT! Lets do it.

They put their disks in and fired a massive blast of energy and it slammed into Xandred and cut him in half.

Oddly enough, Xandred wasn't phased.

Xandred: Being trapped in that insufferable Warp made me more stronger than you can comprehend!

Garrett: Luckily, I brought some fruit for the occasion.

Garrett then pulled out a dozen Galaxy Fruit and shoved the Galaxy Fruits down Xandred's throat and the suns in them start going supernova, giving Xandred severe indigestion.

Xandred: IMPOSSIBLE! Impossible! (Grabs Garrett) Garrett Shoefstall, Descendant of Sephiroth, hear me now! You have won this battle, but our quest to rule your world will never end. You may have defeated me, but the Nighlok will rise again!

Garrett: Bring it on, concept art for Toby from Paranormal Activity.

Then Xandred glowed red and then he exploded with unbelievable power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful and so devastating that it shook the mountain and rattled it all over.

When the smoke cleared, Garrett was still standing and he was unscathed.

Garrett: Huh, must've been the suns.

Xandred's evil spirit then appeared.

Garrett: You and the Nighlok have tormented our worlds for far too long. Now you are hereby banished to The Further to be a pet to The Man Who Can't Breathe.

Garrett held out his hand.

Garrett: SKIDDY BOP MM DADA YU MO GUI GWAI FAI DI ZAO!

We tied up the monks and we regrouped.

Amora the Enchantress: So, who wants to tell Eustace about what he missed out on?

Courage: We should all tell him.

Wilbur: That's a good idea.

Me: I agree.

Dixie: Boy, is he gonna feel jealous that he missed out on all the action.

Ben Ravencroft: At least we can share the Hat with the rest of the world now.

Me: Yep that's a good thing.

Samon Shakekisutanchin: This time, it won't be kept a secret!

Thundermon: So, what do we do with the monks?

Me: Throw them in prison. They aren't worth wasting energy on.

Nico: Besides it will do them some good to sit in prison. Their own hypocritical ways did this to them.

Eli: You said it.

Francesca: Yeah they brought all this on themselves.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets go home everyone. Great job today.

Courage: (To the viewers) This was an awesome and epic treasure hunt. But just remember this: Green and Vanity can lead to very disasterous and terrible consequences if left unchecked.

Me: Amen to that.

We went back to the Bagge farm and told Eustace everything and he was shocked and then we went back home and got ready for bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

The Forbidden Hat of Gold was one adventurous episode of Courage the Cowardly Dog and it was so awesome. The moral of that episode is to never let greed and vanity control you or else there will be horrible consequences. The first 2 parts are for the episodes The Uncommon Cold and Mission to The Sun and they were great episodes. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue is gonna be in the Courage the Cowardly Dog episode Human Habitrail and we're going to face Dr. Gerbil as well as rescue Viania the Beelzebub and she is a fly girl. She will also have Acerola with her as well as a Dungeons & Dragons Black Dragon Gene-Slammer named Miora Fletchington and will also have all of Faluzure's powers as well. Lincoln's rescue will be in the world of Alice In Wonderland from 2010 and that will be cool. The next chapter is for a movie that is long overdue and that one is for Flubber and that was a great movie. We're going to meet Professor Philip Brainard and not only see his great inventions but also help him marry Sarah as well as make sure that Chester Hoenicker and his son Bennett and his cronies don't get Flubber and save the local college.

See you all tomorrow.

The Hidden Abilities of Flubber

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

A massive fiery explosion went off above the Kansas plains and then spirits of the animals of darkness swirled around the explosion as a phoenix cry was heard and then me, Francesca, Courage, Arrietty, Allie, Eli and Olga Orromov came out.

We got word that Muriel and Eustace were kidnapped again by Lincoln's old enemy, Dr. Gerbil, a mad scientist gerbil that hates all humans for turning him into a lab rat.

Olga: You guys faced this gerbil before, right?

Olga concentrated and groaned as her hair fell out.

Me: I haven't but Lincoln and Bai Tza and her group have and this guy is REALLY BAD NEWS.

Olga turned into JELZAP!

Me: YEAH!

I went over Dr. Gerbil's history.

---

Dr. Gerbil is a minor villain in Courage the Cowardly Dog. He is the main antagonist in the episode "Human Habitrail".

In the episode, he poses as a vaccuum cleaning doctor, and uses a vaccuum to suck up Muriel and Eustace. He then tells Courage that he'd been freed of his torment. He then puts them through all kinds of tests as an act of vengeance on humans for their mistreatment of animals. He later chases Courage in a waterboat, and falls off a waterfall to his apparent doom, later on it is revealed he survived.

---

When I was finished everyone was shocked.

Eli: Man this gerbil is bad news!

Allie Wilde: Yeah what a clod!

Me: And a total scumbag!

Arrietty: I'll make that gerbil pay for this!

Me: We all will.

We found a burrow and went down it and we followed Francesca and we had to put up with an extremely obnoxious song called It's Doc Gerbil's World and it was driving us nuts! But the products that Dr. Gerbil made were along the lines of toiletry products like shampoo, mouthwash, lipstick, deodorant and hair spray and stuff like that. The song was giving us a REALLY BAD HEADACHE and then we found Dr. Gerbil and he was putting Muriel and Eustace in a hamster cage and then we busted in and we saw that he had a Chromatic Black Dragon Gene-Slammer named Miora Fletchington as well as one of the Alola Elite 4 named Acerola and a Beelzebub girl named Viania and they were awesome. Miora is the first ever Chromatic Dragon Gene-Slammer we had ever seen and how the scientists of Team Rocket were able to get that kind of DNA was astounding. W got them all out of there and then Dr. Gerbil came and we hightailed it out of there and then blasted Dr. Gerbil's lair and destroyed it. Burying him alive. Then we landed and Eli and Eustace covered their eyes and I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Miora reverted back and she was naked. Olga reverted back too.

Olga was human again. But topless.

Olga: (covers her boobs) This is the first time in a while that we've met a Gene Slammer that's not Part Pokemon.

Miora: (Covers herself) No kidding but it's awesome being a Black Dragon Gene-Slammer.

Acerola: But thank you all for rescuing us. Having to listen to that obnoxious song all day was driving us crazy.

Me: You're not kidding there and Lincoln wasn't kidding when he said that song was giving everyone a headache.

Eli: I was about to rip someones head off if I had to listen to that obnoxious song for one more minute.

I gave Miora and Olga new clothes.

Allie Wilde: That song was completely annoying.

Eli: You're not kidding. I got a really awful headache.

Arrietty: At least it won't be playing ever again.

Acerola: Yeah no kidding.

We went back home.

---

After we got rid of Dr. Gerbil for good, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Seto Kaiba were heading to the world of the 2010 version of Alice in Wonderland, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eleven girls located there, but we're also going to help Alice Kingsleigh slay the Jabberwocky, give the crown back to Mirana, The White Queen, and deal with Iracebeth The Red Queen and Ilosovic Stayne, the Knave of Hearts.

Alice In Wonderland 2010

In London, 1871, troubled by a strange recurring dream and mourning the loss of her father, 19-year-old Alice Kingsleigh attends a garden party at the estate of Lord Ascot. There, she is confronted with an unwanted marriage proposal by Lord Ascot's son, Hamish, and the stifling expectations of the society in which she lives.

Unsure of how to proceed, she spots and pursues a familiar rabbit wearing a waistcoat and carrying a pocket watch, and falls into a deep rabbit hole under a tree. She enters a small door by drinking from a bottle labeled 'Drink Me' (called Pishsalver) and emerges to a forest in a magical place called Underland where she is greeted by the White Rabbit, a Dormouse, a Dodo, Talking Flowers, and identical twins Tweedledee and Tweedledum who all apparently know her.

Though Alice asserts that this is all a dream, she learns that she is destined to slay the Jabberwocky and end the tyranny of the Red Queen, as foretold by Absolem the Caterpillar. The group is then ambushed by the ravenous Bandersnatch and a squadron of Red Queen's knights, led by the Knave of Hearts. All are captured; except Alice, who escapes; and the Dormouse, who takes one of the Bandersnatch's eyes.

The Knave informs the Red Queen that Alice threatens her reign, and he is ordered to find her immediately. Meanwhile, Alice is greeted by the Cheshire Cat who guides her to the Mad Hatter, the March Hare and the Dormouse's tea party. The Hatter explains that the Red Queen took over Underland, usurping her sister the White Queen; and that he joined the resistance after she destroyed his village and killed his family. When the red knights appear, the Hatter helps Alice to avoid capture by allowing himself to be seized instead. Later, Alice is found by the Knave's Bloodhound who is actually allied with the resistance. Alice insists on being taken to the Red Queen's castle to rescue the hatter. Alice eats Upelkuchen (a cake labeled 'Eat Me') and grows tall, infiltrating the castle as a courtier named "Um."

Alice learns that the vorpal sword, the only weapon capable of killing the Jabberwocky, is locked inside the Bandersnatch's den. The Knave attempts to seduce "Um", but she rebuffs him, causing the jealous Red Queen to demand for "Um's" beheading. Alice obtains the sword and befriends the Bandersnatch by returning its eye. She then escapes on the back of the grateful Bandersnatch and delivers the sword to the White Queen; who gives Alice a potion that returns her normal size. The Cheshire Cat uses his shapeshifting powers to save the Mad Hatter from execution. The Hatter then incites rebellion amongst the Red Queen's subjects. The Red Queen attempts to quell the rebellion, but the Hatter and his group escape. Absolem finally gets Alice to remember that she has been to Underland when she was a little girl (calling it "Wonderland"), and she finally realizes that Underland is not a dream. Absolem advises her to fight the Jabberwocky, just before completing his transformation into a pupa.

The Queens gather their armies on a chessboard-like battlefield and send Alice and the Jabberwocky to decide the battle in single combat. Alice fights the Jabberwocky, as the two armies battle. Alice finally defeats the Jabberwocky by beheading it. At Alice's victory, the red knights turn against their ruler. As punishment for their crimes, the White Queen banishes her sister and the Knave into exile together.

The White Queen gives Alice a vial of the Jabberwocky's purple blood whose power will bring her whatever she wishes. She decides to return to her own world after saying farewell to her friends. Back at the party, Alice refuses Hamish's proposal and impresses Lord Ascot with her idea of establishing oceanic trade routes to Hong Kong, inspiring him to take her as his apprentice. As Alice prepares to set off on a trading ship, a blue butterfly lands on Alice's shoulder, which she recognizes as Absolem.

The White Queen apologizes to the Red Queen and the two being two lovely sisters, so she turns better due to being loved by everyone. Finally, she then realizes the meaning of family and hope.

Knave of Hearts

Ilosovic Stayne, better known as The Knave of Hearts, is the secondary antagonist of Tim Burton's Alice In Wonderland and a posthumous character in its sequel Alice Through the Looking Glass .

He is the right-hand of the Red Queen. Although feigning loyalty to her, however, the Knave is actually even more malevolent than the mad tyrant and plays upon her insecurities in order to skillfully manipulate her into doing what he wants. He is taken from the traditional English nursery rhyme, The Queen of Hearts, and is based on the Jack of Hearts playing card as well as the late Niccolò Machiavelli.

He was portrayed by Crispin Glover, who also played Grendel in Beowulf, Willy Wonka in Epic Movie, Fifi in Open Season and Thin Man in Charlie's Angels .

The Knave of Hearts is first seen obtaining the Oraculum and taking it to the Red Queen as he shows her Alice slaying the Jabberwocky. Soon after, Stayne is briefly seen talking Bayard the Bloodhound, getting him to believe that if he found Alice, his wife and pups would go free.

Stayne is next seen talking to The Mad Hatter, The March Hare and the Dormouse, unaware that the Hatter is hiding Alice in a teapot. As the Hatter attempts a random distraction, Stayne threatens that if they were hiding Alice, they'd lose their heads as he chokes the Hatter, who then remarks that they'd 'already lost them'. He releases the Hatter and then leaves as Bayard runs off, pretending to have found Alice's scent.

Later on in the film, Stayne is seen in the hallway of The Red Queen's castle, telling Alice that he likes her, but Alice immediately turns away from him. One of The Red Queen's subjects overhears this and tells the Queen. She gets infuriated with Stayne and, when he convinces her that Alice was the one obsessed with him, she screams 'off with her head'. Stayne is then seen attempting to take the Vorpal Sword away from Alice, but is interrupted by the Bandersnatch (who had become friends with Alice after she returned its missing eye). Further into the film, during the final battle, Stayne duels The Mad Hatter and would've been killed by him if Alice hadn't slayed the Jabberwocky and stopped the battle. After The White Queen declares to banish both Stayne and The Red Queen, Stayne attempts to kill The Red Queen, much to her shock due to her genuine feelings for him, but fails due to The Mad Hatter's interference.

He is then banished from Underland and sentenced to the Outlands for eternity with The Red Queen, pleading for death at the White Queen's hands rather than a life with the Red Queen, who is now infuriated at him for his treason. He is denied the mercy of death, for the White Queen owes him no kindness.

Alice Through the Looking Glass

The Knave's skeleton appears in the sequel Alice Through the Looking Glass . Time was sitting on a chair next to him and saw his skeleton, with a blade embedded in his chest, and wondered what happened to him, either the Queen killed him for trying to kill her or she hired one of her men to kill him for the very same reason. His head later falls off at one point.

---

Lincoln: Oh wow, we're in the 2010 version of Alice In Wonderland, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the eleven girls located there, but we're also going to help Alice Kingsleigh slay the Jabberwocky, give the crown back to Mirana, The White Queen, and deal with Iracebeth The Red Queen and Ilosovic Stayne, the Knave of Hearts.

Me: That's right, big guy. I saw this movie long ago, and it was awesome.

Nico: But, this one has a bit of a dark fantasy atmosphere to it, unlike the one that we know.

Eli: That's just what I was about to point out.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eleven girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the eleven girls, along with Alice Kingsleigh and her friends, and they are already battling against The Red Queen and her minions, and Alice Kingsleigh is fighting against the Jabberwocky. But, The Red Queen has ordered some of her armored card guards to kill the eleven girls.

Lincoln: That heartless witch has sent some of her guards to kill the girls sighted there, come on, let's give our friends a hand.

Me: With pleasure!

We rushed on over, and Lincoln fired a massive blast of ice at the guards, freezing them solid. Then, we saw Alice Kingsleigh high up in the air, and with The Vorpal Sword in hand, she delivers the final blow on the Jabberwocky.

Alice Kingsleigh: Off with your head!

SLASH!

Then, Alice Kingsleigh chops off the Jabberwocky's head, and it rolls down the steps and lands right in front of The Red Queen's feet. Everyone stopped fighting, as soon as Alice Kingsleigh slays the beast, and this enraged The Red Queen.

Red Queen: Kill her!

Armored Card Guard: We follow you no more, bloody big head.

Red Queen: How dare you!? Off with his head!

But, the rest of them drop their weapons, the battle was won by The White Queen's forces, and we'd seen The Red Queen's crown leave her, and it transforms and lands on The White Queen's head, and she's become the rightful ruler of Underland once again. We then bound The Red Queen and Knave of Hearts in neon energy ropes, so they couldn't try to get away. As punishment for their crimes against Underland, Iracebeth and Ilosovic Stayne were banished to The Outlands forever, and Lincoln put a curse on them, if they try to return to Underland to get revenge, the curse will claim their lives, and they'll be sent to The Further for eternity. They were imprisoned in two separate cages in The Outlands, and put into straitjackets, so they couldn't escape.

Lincoln and Nicole then went up to the eleven girls located here, and when Lincoln saw them, he then recognized them. The eleven girls were Maetel and Fraiya from Galaxy Express 999, Lenalee Lee from D-Gray Man, Yohko Mano from Devil Hunter Yohko, Kurisu Makise, Faris Nyannyan, Mayuri Shiina, and Suzuha Amane from Stein's Gate, Kaname Chidori, Melissa Mao, and Mizuki Inaba from Full Metal Panic.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Maetel, Fraiya, Lenalee Lee, Yohko Mano, Kurisu Makise, Faris Nyannyan, Mayuri Shiina, Suzuha Amane, Kaname Chidori, Melissa Mao, and Mizuki Inaba.

Nicole: From Galaxy Express 999, D-Gray Man, Devil Hunter Yohko, Stein's Gate, and Full Metal Panic, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Maetel: Yes, we're okay, thanks to you.

Then, when Maetel and the ten girls saw who it was that saved them from The Red Queen and her forces, their faces all lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 16-year-old 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, large weighted orange bands on his massive biceps and thighs, his large Cuff Bracelets of The Champions of the Universe with large orange gems on his large wrists, massive deep blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and the stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts and long orange trenchcoat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts held up by his Belt of Elemental Bravery with large orange gem for the belt buckle on his waist, a pair of blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Maetel: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made ten clones of himself, and he and the ten clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Maetel: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We merged Underland with our world, and Alice Kingsleigh and her friends became new members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and the rest of us saw Underland returned to its former glory, and it was now a beautiful place.

After exiling the Queen of Hearts (2010), Lincoln, me, Nico, Garrett, Lila Rossi (Garrett's universe), Zap (Garrett's universe), Namue, Julie Hinikawa, Sapphire Ink, Lark Cyclonis (Garrett's universe), Viridi, Princess Morbucks (Garrett's universe), Neo Politan (Garrett's universe), Muty, Axel Romano, Eli, Nicole, the PatRangers and Satsuki Kiryuin were heading to Hayesfield, Nevada. We saw that we were in the world of Willy's Wonderland.

---

When his vehicle breaks down, a quiet drifter ends up stranded in Hayesville, Nevada, where mechanic Jed Love picks him up and takes him to Willy's Wonderland, a once-successful abandoned family entertainment center. Owner Tex Macadoo offers him to work as a night-shift janitor in exchange for repairing his vehicle before he and Jed leave him locked in the building. Meanwhile, teenager Liv Hawthorne gets handcuffed by her caretaker, Hayesville's sheriff Eloise Lund, due to her previous attempts to burn the restaurant. When Lund leaves, Liv's friends Chris Muley, Kathy Barnes, Aaron Powers, Bob McDaniel, and Dan Lorraine come and release her.

As the Janitor begins his duties, the restaurant's now-withered eight animatronic mascots-Willy Weasel, Arty Alligator, Cammy Chameleon, Ozzie Ostrich, Knighty Knight, Tito Turtle, Gus Gorilla, and Siren Sara- reveal to be sentient and aggressive. Ozzie attacks the Janitor, who beats him to death with a mop. While her friends douse the perimeter with gasoline, Liv decides to enter Willy's Wonderland through the vents to get the Janitor out. Meanwhile, the Janitor is attacked by Gus in the restrooms; he kills him by stomping his face into a urinal. In the vents, Liv is chased by Arty, but she escapes into a fairy-themed room where Sara attacks her. Liv manages to fend off Sara and encounters the Janitor, who ignores her warnings about the animatronics and refuses to leave.

Outside, Liv's friends climb to the roof, which collapses, causing them to fall into the building. While the Janitor cleans the kitchen, Liv explains that Willy's Wonderland was originally owned by notorious serial killer Jerry Robert Willis and his seven psychotic cannibalisticpartners, who often murdered unsuspecting families. Eventually discovered, they committed a satanic ritual to transfer their souls into the animatronics. When she finishes, several animatronics become sentient and attack the group. In the ensuing chaos, Knighty impales Aaron with his sword, Sara and Tito devour

Dan alive, and Arty mauls Kathy and Bob to death. With Liv's help, the Janitor decapitates Knighty and breaks Arty's jaws, killing them both. Stalked by Cammy in an arcade, Chris calls Lund for help; she goes there with deputy sheriff Evan Olson upon learning that Liv is in the restaurant. On the way, Lund reveals to Evan that after Willy's Wonderland was shut down, the animatronics continued murdering people around Hayesville until she, Tex, and Jed made a deal with them. Over years, they tricked stranded drifters into cleaning up the building, offering them as sacrifices to the animatronics in order to stop their killing spree. Liv's parents were among the victims and a guilty Lund adopted her.

When the Janitor and Liv arrive at the arcade, Cammy snaps Chris' neck, killing him. They subdue her and attempt to leave before Lund and Evan stop them. Lund handcuffs the Janitor and leaves him to die as Evan takes Liv away. While driving, Evan is attacked and killed by a stowaway Tito as Liv escapes. Back at the restaurant, the Janitor subdues Sara, and twists Cammy's head, killing her. Enraged, Lund tries to lure Willy to kill the Janitor, only for Willy to tear her in half. Willy and the Janitor fight each other until the Janitor rips his head off, killing him.

The next morning, Tex and Jed return to the building and find it completely clean, with the animatronics missing. The Janitor receives his repaired vehicle and invites Liv to accompany him. While Tex and Jed discuss planning to re-open Willy's Wonderland, Sara suddenly appears and sets their car on fire with gasoline. All three are killed in a massive explosion that also destroys the entire restaurant. As the sun rises, the Janitor and Liv drive out of Hayesville, running into and killing a wandering Tito along the way.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Willy's Wonderland, and I know what I'm going to do here, I'm going to save the girls and teens and beat the animatronics.

Axel Romano: That's right, big guy. It's time to smash some robots.

Satsuki: Hayesfield sure is quite a colorful place.

Garrett: That's right, but I think someone is causing trouble.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of a girl calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He then saw thirteen girls and Liv, Kathy, Bob, Chris, Aaron, Dan, The Janitor and saw they have been cornered by Willy Weasel and his gang.

Lincoln: Oh man, guys, I found the girls, the Janitor, Liv, Kathy, Bob, Aaron, Dan and Chris, but they've been comered by Willy Weasel and his gang, and they're going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We then rushed on over to the girls, the Janitor and the teens, and Lincoln punched Willy Weasel and his gang in the stomach and sent them stumbling backwards.

Liv: Oh man, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, they're here.

Kathy: I thought we were done for.

Nicole: Willy and his gang have gone too far trying to kill you, that overgrown vermin and his goons is gonna get their just desserts,

Willy Weasel: You'll never take us alive! Pordermen, get over here so we can kill these brats!

Then, an army of Pordermen appeared from around the resturant. Oddly enough, one came out from behind a pinball machine.

Keichiiro: Porderman, I should've known you'd summon them, Willy. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Satsuki Kiryuin: Count us in, as well.

The PatRangers, Lincoln, Garrett, Lila Rossi (Garrett's universe), Zap (Garrett's universe), Namue, Julie Hinikawa, Sapphire Ink, Lark Cyclonis (Garrett's universe), Viridi, Princess Morbucks (Garrett's universe), Neo Politan (Garrett's universe), Muty, Axel Romano and

Satsuki walked up to the army of Pordermen.

PatRangers and Lincoln: KEISTASU CHANGE!

They transformed and Lincoin transformed into his new PatRanger form, but his PatRanger uniform and helmet is cyan with a white visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Keichiiro: PATREN #1!

Tsukasa: PATREN #3!

Lincoln: PATREN #4!

PatRangers and Lincoln: INTERPLANETARY TEAM OF ENFORCEMENT! PATRANGERS!

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Keichiiro: In the name of the GSPO, We're taking you down by force!

Ozzie Ostrich: I'm gonna feast on your face.

Gus Gorilla: I'll give you GORILLA GREETINGS!

Knighty Knight readied his sword.

Arty Alligator: I'll use your blood for my paint.

Cammy Chameleon: Wanna play, bitch?

Siren Sara: Wanna see my treehouse?

Tito Turtle: (Spanish Accent) Shall we dance with the devil in the blue moonlight?

Willy Weasel: We possessed these robots when the FBI came looking for us. What makes you think we won't possess you? Pordermen, Take them down!

The PatRangers, Lincoln, Garrett, Lila Rossi (Garrett's universe), Zap (Garrett's universe), Namue, Julie Hinikawa, Sapphire Ink, Lark Cyclonis (Garrett's universe), Viridi, Princess Morbucks (Garrett's universe), Neo Politan (Garrett's universe), Muty, Axel Romano and Satsuki went after the Pordermen, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed and bashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln cuts Willy Weasel and his gang down with his Sword of Taranis, and they exploded in a purple flame, and were sent crashing into the stage.

Keichiiro: Mission accomplished.

Garrett: Game, set, match.

Willy and his gang got up and off the stage, and then they fainted.

Me: Got to admire their spirit.

Lincoln: Yeah.

They got up and Roxy Rocket, Sportsmaster, Grodd, Pied Piper, White Lightning, Ben Ravencroft, The Six Gum Gang, Enchantress, Samon Shakekisutanchin and Thundermon congratulated them.

Roxy Rocket: (to Willy Weasel) You and your gang are now officially part of the Masters of Evil.

Willy Weasel: We are honored.

Me: Whew! That was hectic.

Ozzie Ostrich: I have chosen Jinx as my archenemy,

Gus Gorilla: Let's see how Sunburn likes my Gorilla Greetings.

Knighty Knight: (British Accent) I pick Flashwing.

Arty Alligator: I pick that pilot that Skylands thinks highly of, Flynn.

Cammy Chameleon: I pick Hex.

Siren Sara: Fright Rider's mine.

Tito Turtle: (Spanish Accent) I pick Ignitor.

Willy Weasel: And I think Chill is the one for me.

Satsuki Kiryuin: It would be their honor.

Me: Bad Luck, a pilot and Skylanders vs Killer Robots. I like it.

Lincoln and Nicole went up to the thirteen girls, and when Lincoln saw them, he recognized them immediately. The thirteen girls that he rescued were Strawberry Shortcake, Lemon Meringue, Raspberry Torte, Blueberry Muffin, Plum Pudding, Orange Blossom, Cherry Jam, Apple Dumplin, and Sweet and Sour Grapes from Berry Bitty Adventures, Tangle the Lemer, Whisper the Wolf and Jewel the Beetle from IDW Sonic comics.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Strawberry Shortcake, Lemon Meringue, Raspberry Torte, Blueberry Muffin, Plum Pudding, Orange Blossom, Cherry Jam, Apple Dumplin, and Sweet and Sour Grapes, Tangle the Lemer, Whisper the Wolf, and Jewel the Beetle.

Nicole: From Berry Bitty Adventures and the IDW Sonic comics, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Strawberry: Yes, we're berry okay, thanks for saving us.

Then, when Strawberry and the thirteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Willy Weasel and his gang, their faces all lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, adorable, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with eight pack abs and deep sapphire blue eyes.

Sour Grape: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made thirteen clones of himself, and he and the thirteen clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones.

Sour Grape: Same here, cutie.

We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

---

After defeating The Mascots of Willy's Wonderland and having them recruited into the Masters of Evil, we were then training intensely in the gym doing our 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, lat pulldowns, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, even doing yoga to clear our minds, and we got a shower after that.

Then, we were heading down to Acme Acres. We already know that The Looney Tunes and The Tiny Toons are also going to help us in the upcoming battle against Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and that in the future, Buster Bunny made his vow to show no mercy to the two traitorous Saiyans, Raditz and Nappa, and Lincoln threw Roderick Rat, Danforth Drake, and all the other Perfecto Prep students in prison, except for Rhubella Rat and Margot Duck, who were put into our protection, and joined us. We headed to Acme Looniversity, and met with The Looney Tunes and The Tiny Toons.

Me: Alright, guys, so you already know that our upcoming battle against Team Dark Phoenix Storm is coming up soon, right.

Bugs Bunny: That's right, doc, and we're already arming ourselves and preparing for war.

We saw that everyone was really gearing up for war, they had cannons, TNT, bombs, and high-tech weapons, along with their new weapons that they'd gotten from the two Power Rangers monsters sent by Vypra. They even had war paint on their faces, and they were dressed as soldiers with war helmets included, and they were already in battle formation.

We were both stunned and in awe of what the toons were up to.

Nico: (Laughs) Dang, you guys sure are ready for war, alright.

Me: You got that right.

Eli: Talk about being prepared.

Buster Bunny: After our huge war against Xehanort and the True Organization XIII, we've continued to train hard with you guys, now that we're now members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Babs Bunny: And we've also been getting ready for our battle against Team Dark Phoenix Storm, and we've been having combat practice drills in Acme Looniversity, which was organized by our mentors and The Loonatics.

Lexi Bunny: Babs' right, we've also been helping them out with combat training.

Ace Bunny: Those Team Dark Phoenix Storm bastards are going to pay dearly for their crimes, and here's another surprise: we're also coming with you guys to Scotland, and we're also made aware of Morag McLaughlin, who's also been helping Mr. Mind and his goons. But, we're not going to let her get away with it.

Me: Nice one, Ace.

Then, Yakko, Wakko, and Dot came in, as well.

Yakko: And we're also coming, as well.

Wakko: He's right, after what you did in helping us get rid of King Salazar and avenged our parents, we can't thank you enough for what you all did.

Dot: So, the only way to thank you guys is by having us join the team. And we'll show Morag the true meaning of being loud and chaotic.

Lincoln: The kind of chaos you bring is the one that makes us laugh so hard, our sides will split. So, when we face her and Team Dark Phoenix Storm, be sure to put on a good show.

The Warners: We will, Lincoln.

Lori: And we're also going to help as well. We'll show her just how Loud and chaotic we can truly be.

Me: Ooh, this is going to be good.

Bugs Bunny: Plus, I'm sure that the word of Frieza's demise has already reached the ears of Raditz, Nappa, Zarbon, Dodoria, Cooler, and King Cold, right?

Goku: I'm sure that might be the case, Bugs. But, we haven't heard anything about them from King Kai.

Buster Bunny: If we face them in battle, I hope we'll face them during a new Total Drama All Stars competition.

Me: We'll have to talk to Don about that one, and for this one, all of us are going.

Plucky Duck: And if those creeps hear about it, there's no doubt they'll also show up. But for only one thing: revenge on us for what we did to Frieza.

King Kai: (Telepathically) That's just what I was about to say, Plucky. (To Buster Bunny) And I hope you have something in store for Raditz and Nappa, right, Buster?

Babs Bunny: He's already made plans for that one, King Kai. Just keep your eyes on the screen in the future.

Trunks: And he'll fulfill the vow he made to Dad.

Lincoln: That's right, and Buster's not going to show those two traitorous Saiyans any mercy.

Lincoln 2: But, he'll also have help from all of the Saiyans that J.D. resurrected after the April 12th War, and Bardock, whom Buster saved from The Aparoids.

Lincoln 3: I can't wait to see the looks on their faces when they see the Saiyans brought back from the dead, and that they're fighting alongside us.

We enjoyed the rest of our visit in Acme Acres, then we, along with The Looney Tunes and Tiny Toons returned home to The Estate.

---

Later we were over at the Saturn Insane Asylum and we were there to visit Lila Rossi. With us was a new Robot Master named Comet Woman.

Maria: Thanks for joining us, Comet Woman.

Comet Woman: Anytime Maria. It's an honor to be part of the awesome Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Mega Man: We're glad you can be with us.

Nico: Yep. So we're going to the Saturn Insane Asylum to show everyone Lila Rossi.

Lila Rossi (Garrett's Universe): I heard that the version of me here is one nasty monster that tried to kill the mayor of Paris. What a heartless freak.

Marinette: Yeah even though I'm still weary of you I still think you are amazing. But I HATE the version of you here.

Lila Rossi (Garrett's Universe): Believe me you have EVERY right to be suspicious of me but I assure you I am not like your version that you know.

Garrett: And I won't let her go down that path.

Me: That's good you won't Garrett.

Nico: Yeah it sure is. Lila Rossi in our universe has given us numerous headaches in the past.

Garrett: That's what I heard.

Marinette: We're also going to see if our version of Lila Rossi is Team Dark Phoenix Storm's true boss.

Comet Woman: Oh, c'mon. You don't really think she's pulling the strings from inside her cell, do you?

May: At this point, we have to consider all possibilities.

Me: But chances are she is not the true boss of Team Dark Phoenix Storm. Even if she is, she wouldn't be able to contact them from here. The space prisons have a powerful magnetic barrier that prevents all the prisoners from contacting anyone.

Eli: Wow that is really cool.

Viania: And very geniusly well made.

Shino: That is very genius if I do say so myself.

Allie Wilde: I agree too.

We arrived at her cell and I opened it and we saw Lila Rossi sitting on her bed reading.

Me: Hello Lila.

Lila Rossi: Well well. Nice to see you all again after so long.

Popeye: Is it really that hard for you to tell the truth?

Lila Rossi: Oh, please. Telling the truth only goes so far. But lying? That gets you where you're going.

Me: No wonder everyone calls you Lie-La.

Kaz: (realizes something) Wait a minute. (checks Pyrithion's Chaotic card) You ripped that off from the text on Pyrithion's Chaotic Card!

Lila Rossi: Uh yeah I did!

Nico: Impressive.

Applejack went up to her and then…

POW!

Applejack punched her in the face so hard that she knocked out most of Lila's teeth.

Apple Bloom: YEAH! Way to punch her lights out sis!

Applejack: Thank you sis.

Me: We didn't come here however for sweet talk. We came for information.

Lila Rossi: All right. What do you want to know?

Marinette: Mr. Mind is assembling a group of villains in an attempt to take us down. You wouldn't happen to know anything about that, would you?

Lila Rossi: (chuckles) As much I'd like to join such a group, I'm afraid I'm not in contact with Mr. Mind right now. It's more fun to just sit in this cell while you guys turn on one another over your methods and your leadership.

Hotlink: I hate to say it but for once, she's telling the truth about not being in contact with Mr. Mind.

Eli: That's right. The Force is telling me that she is not in cahoots with them.

Lila Rossi: The Force? Wait are you a Jedi?

Eli: Yes. My name is Eli.

Lila Rossi of Garrett's universe went up to the Lila we took down.

Lila gasped.

Lila Rossi: You're me!

Lila Rossi (Garrett's Universe): That's right. I was like you once.

Garrett: Long story.

Nico: I can't tell you Lila how much we hate your guts because of everything you did.

Lila Rossi: If you really hate my guts, why don't you just Hakai me and get it over with?

Nico: Because you're not worth it. You never were.

Pointblank: And you're still a kid at your current age. In fact, we're going to curse you at your current age for all eternity.

Nico: That's right. You are now stuck with a fate worse than death: Eternal Life as a Young Teenage Brat.

Eli: That's right!

We then left.

---

Later we were back at the estate, watching TV.

Star Man: F.Y.I., Nico? It's your turn to lead today. Consider it a reward for keeping your cool back there.

Nico: I know and it's actually my turn to lead anyway and I have just the mission for us. We're gonna meet Professor Brainard from the awesome movie Flubber.

Eli: Ooh! I love that movie.

Allie Wilde: One of my favorites. So awesome and funny.

Me: Yep and it was awesome.

Laney: This is gonna be so awesome. Flubber was so funny.

Lynn Sr.: I love that movie Flubber. It was a remake of the 1961 movie The Absent Minded Professor.

Lola: That was a cool movie!

Lily: It sure was. One of my favorites with Robin Williams.

Roxy Rocket, Sportsmaster, Grodd, Pied Piper, White Lightning, Ben Ravencroft, The Six Gum Gang, Enchantress, Samon Shakekisutanchin and Thundermon then appeared.

Thundermon: Can me, Roxy Rocket, Sportsmaster, Grodd, Pied Piper, White Lightning, Ben Ravencroft, The Six Gum Gang, Enchantress, and Samon Shakekisutanchin go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. First we're going to watch the 1997 movie Flubber.

Sportsmaster: Ooh that is one of my favorites. Funny movie with Robin Williams.

Nico: Yep.

We got to watching the movie.

---

Professor Philip Brainard, of Medfield College, is a mad scientist who is developing a new energy source in an attempt to raise enough money to save the college from closure. His preoccupation with his research distracts him from his fiancée, Sara Jean Reynolds, who is the president of the college; he has already missed two wedding dates as a result of this, much to Sara's anger. On the day of the third attempted wedding, Brainard is approached by his former partner Wilson Croft, who has profited from ideas he has stolen from the chemist and now desires to steal Sara from Brainard and make her his wife, an intention that he declares directly to Brainard, who takes it as a joke. Before he can make it to the wedding, his latest experiment shows quick progress, forcing him to miss this latest wedding date. The resulting substance created from the experiment is a sentient green goo with enormous amounts of elasticity and kinetic energy. It increases in speed as it bounces and proves to be difficult to control, wreaking havoc on the neighborhood before the professor finally manages to capture it. Weebo, Brainard's hovering robot assistant, classifies the substance as "flying rubber", leading Brainard to christen it "Flubber".

Brainard continues to work on Flubber into the early morning, looking to stabilize the Flubber's movement as opposed to stimulation. Brainard's incorrectly set watch alarm goes off at 6:30 am, and Weebo informs him that he has missed the wedding. Brainard goes to Sara's office and unsuccessfully attempts to explain the situation to her. Although she breaks up with him afterward, he becomes all the more determined to prove the Flubber's worth and win her back. Meanwhile, Medfield College sponsor Chester Hoenicker (who is first seen in a newspaper article as the one threatening to foreclose the college) is disappointed that Brainard has failed his son Bennett in chemistry class. That night, Hoenicker sends his security guards Smith and Wesson to Brainard's house in an attempt to persuade Brainard into giving Bennett a better grade. However, Brainard is too busy experimenting with the Flubber to even notice them and unknowingly knocks them unconscious with a Flubber-coated golf ball and bowling ball. He uses Flubber to give his vintage Ford Thunderbird flight. During a test run, he discovers Wilson flirting with Sara (making a bet that she will buy him dinner if Medfield wins, or join him for a weekend in the mountains if they lose). Afterward, Weebo attempts to confess her love of Brainard, only to be shrugged off as a computer. In response, she secretly creates a holographic human version of herself named Sylvia in hopes of winning him over. Before Weebo can kiss Brainard in this form as he sleeps, Brainard awakens with another idea for Flubber. He enters the vacant basketball arena and tests the effects of Flubber on a basketball and his shoes. Right before the game, he gives Flubber-padded shoes to the unskilled Medfield basketball team to increase their abilities and beat the Rutland team.

Back in Brainard's home, looking to have some fun, Weebo unleashes Flubber from his case, allowing him to dance around the house and cause general mayhem. After the close but successful basketball game, Brainard's attempt to win Sara back into his favor fails. Upon returning home, Weebo records Brainard as he releases his emotional baggage, saying his absent-mindedness is due to his love of Sara. After this, he resignedly goes to bed after admitting Sara isn't right for him after all. Weebo, feeling guilty about failing to remind him about his wedding, shows the footage to Sara, who then reconciles with Brainard. Brainard demonstrates Flubber's abilities to Sara and they discuss how it can be used for profit. However, Hoenicker discovers Flubber's existence, and after failing to convince Brainard and Sara to sell it to him, he summons Smith and Wesson to raid Brainard's house and steal Flubber. Weebo attempts to fend off the henchmen, only to be struck down by Wesson with a baseball bat. Brainard and Sara return to find the home a wreck and find Weber (Brainard's house-robot) cleaning up, Flubber stolen, and Weebo destroyed. Later, Brainard discovers that Weebo had downloaded backup data of herself onto his computer in the event of her destruction, as well as a video recording of Weebo's hologram professing her love for him.

Brainard and Sara confront Hoenicker and attempt to save Flubber, under the guise of accepting Hoenicker's offer. While there, they discover that Wilson is allied with the millionaire who wanted to sell it for a profit. Brainard and Sara then reveal their ruse and unleash Flubber, starting a battle between the villains and them. In the end, Brainard and Sara defeat Wilson, Bennett Hoenicker, and his henchmen, retrieve Flubber, raise enough money to save the college, and finally have a successful wedding, along with Flubber and the "daughter" of Weebo, called Weebette. The film ends with the family heading to Hawaii in the Thunderbird, flying at an altitude of 30,000 feet, with Weebette insisting on not sharing a hotel room with Flubber.

When the movie was done we cheered wildly!

Nico: That movie was so funny!

Me: It sure was. Thank goodness that Brainard is not like certain mad scientists we have faced and despise.

Nico: That's a big relief. All right time to gather everyone. (Pulls out Bugle and places Reville)

We gathered around.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

(MILITARY THEME PLAYS)

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! Our mission today is to meet Professor Brainard and we're going to save the college from closing. He is making an awesome revolutionary invention to help the world and it's Flubber. It's gonna be awesome to meet him. We leave in 10 minutes. Before we leave I have one rule and it's for all you new people. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do your job you will be sent back to the estate for the remainder of the mission. DO YOU GET ME!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: At ease! Take this time to get what you need for the mission. Scans show that Medfield University is located on the north side of the city. So we're not gonna be going far for this. We leave in 10 minutes. That'll be all. DISMISSED!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires Commander.

We later were off to the north side of the city.

---

MEDFIELD UNIVERSITY, NORTHERN GOTHAM ROYAL YORK

---

We arrived at Medfield University.

Alice Gehabach: So this is Medfield Uinversity?

Hydranoid: If any of us still have thoughts about going to college, this is it.

Maria: I want to start college right now!

We laughed.

Maria: Yeah I wish.

Nico: It's a really nice college though.

Eli: Boy it sure is.

Me: I can't believe anyone would want this college closed. It's such a nice place.

Nico: It sure is. Practically anyone would want to get a degree in anything here.

Laney: They sure would. Lisa do you teach here?

Lisa Loud: Negative. I teach with my level of education at Michigan State University.

Me: More advanced than this college.

Nico: Yep. Lets find Professor Brainard. He should be right at his home.

We followed Nico and arrived at the house of Professor Brainard and it was a house FULL of robotic and technological stuff.

Nico: Wow he sure likes scientifical equipment.

We went up and Nico knocked on his door and out came Professor Brainard.

White Lightning: Hi, Professor Brainiard!

Professor Brainard: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet the famous heroes of the universe.

Nico: Same to you professor.

Eli: We heard you are doing everything you can to save the college.

Professor Brainaid: I sure am. Come on in so we can talk.

Nico: Okay.

We were walking inside when suddenly…

BONK! BINK!

I was hit right on my head with a flying bowling ball and a golf ball!

Me: OH!

I fell onto the sidewalk and I had a nasty couple of lumps on my head.

Me: OW!

Volt Luster: You okay, J.D.?

Brontes: You don't have a concussion, do you?

Me: No I'm okay. But wow! That bowling ball and golf ball were REALLY flying fast!

Eli: That was incredbie!

Allie Wilde: Yeah it sure was!

Me: Yeah! That was amazing but man that really hurt! Lana can I have a block of ice for my head.

Lana: Sure thing J.D.

Lana formed a block of ice for my head.

Me: Thanks. Wow.

Runt: Now, wonder what could've done that?

Lunk: Yeah! Those balls couldn't have hit J.D. on the head by themselves.

Goof: Maybe something in the room threw it.

Dixie: (sees something) Um… guys?

Wilbur: You see anything, Dixie?

The bowling ball and the golf ball came back and then Eli and Allie caught them both.

Allie: WHOA! That was amazing.

Eli: Yeah! Wow!

Me: Nice catch guys.

Eli: Thanks.

We went in.

Professor Brainard: Sorry about that. You okay J.D.?

Me: Yeah I'll be fine. But how did this bowling ball and golf ball do that? They flew into the air and bounced right off my head without breaking.

Professor Brainard: That's because of my invention. Flubber. Let me show you.

He went down to his lab and came back with a tank and he opened it and out came a blob of green slime that was moving around.

Lena Isis: This thing is Flubber?

Phosphos: It looks like tiny gelatin.

Professor Brainard: It sure does doesn't it?

I touched it and it was really squishy.

Me: Squishy.

Professor Brainard: But watch.

He bounced it and it was hitting the ceiling and the floor faster than a bullet fired from a gun and then he caught it.

Nico: WHOA! That is amazing!

Eli: Wow! REALLY bouncy stuff.

Laney: Incredible!

Grodd: I can sense intelligent thought from Flubber.

Eli: I do too. It's like it's alive.

Ben: It looks like it's part of Goop's species.

Nico: It sure does. But this is not acidic slime here. This is flying rubber or flubber.

Laney: What did you make with this Professor?

Professor Brainard: I made this to start.

He showed us a hand cream he made.

Me: Is this a hand cream you made?

Professor Brainard: It is. It's what I use to handle the flubber as well as put on the bowling ball and the golf ball from earlier.

Lana: That was awesome.

Lola: Yeah that explains how it was all moving so fast all over the place.

Varie: That is amazing.

Me: May I try some of that cream?

Professor Brainard: Sure.

I put some on and then I clapped my hands.

CLAP! BIFF BONK!

I accidentally knocked Vince and Loki into their faces and knocked them down.

Vince: OUCH!

Loki (Marvel): (British Accent) That hurt.

Me: Oops. Sorry guys. Wow this is very bouncy stuff.

Nico: No kidding. But wow that is cool.

Loki (Marvel): That is amazing stuff.

Vince: It sure is. Wow!

Horri Bull: Hey, little guy. Can you understand us?

It cooed in yes.

Me: What an awesome invention professor. Flubber is the wave of the future.

Nico: It sure is.

Samon Shakekisutanchin: Hey, Ben. Why don't you turn into Goop and compare him to Flubber?

Ben: Good idea.

He turned into Goop!

Ben: (Gurgling Voice) GOOP!

Courtney screamed and jumped into Duncan's arms.

Duncan: I guess you should've warned Courtney first.

Samon Shakekisutanchin: Sorry.

Goop: But what do you think?

Professor Brainard: Goop looks so much like Flubber.

Shanan: He does huh? Except Goop is what's called a Polymorph and they come from the planet Viscosia.

Goop: Yep. Watch.

He formed into a cube, then a sphere, then formed into statues of art like the Venus De Milo, Michelangelo's David, and more.

Professor Brainard: That is amazing.

Me: And another thing that Polymorphs have is Acidic Slime.

Goop: That's right.

He threw a glob of slime and it burned a hole through the wall.

Nico: Potent slime huh?

Professor Brainard: That sure is some dangerous stuff.

Ben reverted back.

Jesse Glenn: But both Goop and Flubber have the potential for acting.

Plitheon: (to Professor Brainard) Don't mind my partner. He's into Shakespeare a lot.

Laney: I like Shakespeare myself and he was great.

Jesse Glenn: I'm honored.

Nico: But that is amazing.

Professor Brainard: It sure is.

Pied Piper: Does anyone else know about Flubber?

Professor Brainard: My fiancé Sarah.

Nico: She's the Dean of the University right?

Professor Brainard: She sure is.

A figure then came out and it was Weebo.

Eli: Wow you must be Weebo.

Weebo: I sure am. It's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same here. It's awesome to meet you.

Ariel: Wow you and I have the same sounding voice.

Weebo: We sure do.

Me: That is really cool.

Weebo: I love all your adventures and they are so awesome.

Nico: We get that a lot but we don't brag about it.

Weebo: I heard about your upcoming battle with Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Yeah that's gonna be a big battle.

Battletrap: Speaking of which, I hope Chameleon hasn't been caught yet.

Eli used the Force and found that his cover hasn't been blown.

Eli: His cover is holding up. Just hold on for 2 more days.

Nico: But he's doing really well.

Eli: Yep.

Amora the Enchantress: Has there been any trouble at this university?

Professor Brainard: Yes there has been. Chester Hoenicker wants to close it down so he can build a mall.

I gasped and then my ice cube on my head shattered into ice cubes.

Me: (Stern Voice) Did you say Chester Hoenicker?

Professor Brainard: Yes I did.

Me: Oh man! I thought I had seen the last of him.

Nico: Uh oh. I know that tone. You have a really bad history with this guy don't you J.D.?

Me: Yes I do.

---

Chester Hoenicker is the main antagonist of the 1997 Disney comedy film Flubber . He is a ruthless millionaire who planned to close down Medfield College due to shortage on loan payments and steal an energy source known as Flubber to transform the energy industry for profit.

He was portrayed by Raymond J. Barry, who also played Sensei in Gotham and Caleb Warrens in the Purge film series.

Hoenicker was known for sponsoring Medfield College for years, but it turns out that he's only doing it in order to bribe the school to give his son Bennett straight As to go to Harvard Business School. However, this was not the case when the college started falling on loan payments, prompting Hoenicker to publicly announce that he is going to close down the college if the loan is not paid by the end of the school year. He is also angered to hear that Bennett is put on academic probation and thrown off the college basketball team due to failing Professor Philip Brainard's chemistry class as Brainard refused to accept Hoenicker's bribes.

Wanting to settle scores, Hoenicker sends in his two security guards Smith and Wesson in an attempt to coerce Brainard in giving Bennett a passing grade. Little did he knew that Brainard has created a new energy source known as Flubber, a living green goo that increases in speed as it bounces and flies. This was shown when Brainard applied samples of crystallized Flubber into a hand cream, which he uses to send a golf ball and bowling ball bouncing off into the sky endlessly, accidentally hitting Smith and Wesson twice. Upon returning back to Hoenicker's mansion, Smith and Wesson explained their story about the Flubber, though Hoenicker refuses to believe them as he thinks that they have gone drinking, even after they revealed the head injuries they received from the Flubber-coated balls.

During the basketball game between the Medfield Squirrels and Rutland Rangers, Hoenicker and his men witnessed the Medfield players being beaten down by the more skilled Rutland players during the first half of the game. As such, Hoenicker bets in $20,000 in favor for Rutland, much to Bennett's disapproval. But in the second half, the Medfield players turned the tables to win the game, thanks to Brainard applying Flubber-coated tacks on their shoes and the same hand cream on their hands to improve their abilities. Upon witnessing this and being annoyed over Bennett cheering for the Medfield players, Hoenicker realized that Smith and Wesson were telling the truth about the Flubber, deducing that Brainard had something to do with it. He even witnessed Brainard riding home on his flying car, eventually learning about Brainard's true plan to use the Flubber in raising enough money to pay off the loan and save Medfield College from closure.

Realizing this and deciding that he could use the Flubber to transform the energy industry for profit, Hoenicker sends in Smith and Wesson to break into Brainard's house and steal the Flubber. They manage to do so after destroying Brainard's robot assistant Weebo with a baseball bat when she tried to stop them. Upon returning home with Medfield College president Sara Reynolds, Brainard is horrified to see that the Flubber have been stolen and that Weebo is destroyed. Deciding to settle scores with Hoenicker, Brainard cooks up a plan with Sara in confronting Hoenicker under a false pretense of selling the Flubber, eventually learning that Hoenicker has hired former Rutland professor Wilson Croft to study and exploit the Flubber for profit. However, applied with Flubber-coated tacks on their shoes and the same hand-cream, Brainard and Sara defeat Croft, Smith and Wesson. After witnessing Bennett being knocked out with a glass ashtray by Brainard, a horrified Hoenicker attempts to flee. However, Sara grabs the Flubber and uses it to smack Hoenicker in the back of the head in revenge for Weebo's demise, sending him crashing on a window and falling into a fountain pond.

It is unknown what happened to Hoenicker afterwards, either he drowned to death in the pond after being knocked out, or he and his men were arrested and sent to prison. Brainard would later use his flying car to form a deal with the Ford Motor Company (since it was a vintage Ford Thunderbird), allowing him and Sara to raise enough money to save Medfield College from closure, leaving Hoenicker's plans in vain.

Catilla: What did he do that made you have a bad history with him?

Me: (Sighs) He wants to destroy all the colleges around the country so that no one can have a good education.

Everyone gasped.

Nico: What a scumbag! But wait, isn't he also the second richest man in all of Michigan next to Lord Tetherby?

Me: Yes he is. Hoenicker hates universities that are not perfect and to him ALL the universities are not perfect. His son Bennett goes to Medfield University and he vowed to make sure that he got a perfect education.

Professor Brainard: I got him kicked off the basketball team and I flunked him from chemistry and placed him on academic probation.

Me: His dad is not gonna be happy about that. Hoenicker vowed that if the college would give him a good education then no one at the college ever would. He would do anything to make sure that college dies.

Nico: What a scumbag!

Me: Yeah. Also he is bribing the college so that his son Bennett can get straight A's and go to Harvard Business School.

Professor Brainard: That's right. But thankfully I would never fall for his tricks or bribes like that. He got thrown off the basketball team and I flunked him. He's also now on Academic Probation as a result.

Me: Smart thinking professor.

Nico: Very virtuous to not give in to bribes and corruption like that.

Professor Brainard: Thank you very much.

Sportsmaster: What else has he done?

Me: A more accurate question is what HASN'T he done. He has so much power and money that he pays anyone to submit to him no matter what. Also he has a lot of corruption and hired thugs under his employ.

Nico: Geez.

Me: Yep and I got word that he once tried to destroy Fairway College.

Eli: That's your dream college isn't it Lori?

Lori was then enraged.

Lori: Yes it is! I will literally turn that golf hating monster into a human pretzel!

Me: Lori calm down. I'm not finished yet.

Lori: Oh sorry.

Me: No worries. But there was one person that stood in his way every time he tried to destroy a college big or small.

Nico: Let me guess. You?

Me: Yep. I would make sure he doesn't destroy that college either by fundraiser or charity or sporting event. Its been busy for me ever since 5 and a half years ago. Been doing it since I moved here to Michigan.

Nico: Wow.

Lync Volan: Okay, I admit that college was at a time unsafe because of school shootings. But it's still an important part of education!

Me: It's not just school shootings Lync. College is unaffordable these days. It ranges from $15,000 to $77,000.00 a year.

Lync Volan: Wow! That IS expensive.

Nico: Yeah. That's why I'm gonna do home college courses.

Lori: Me too. I decided to do online college courses when it's time.

Nico: Wise choice.

Ben Ravencroft: But college is still an important part of education. And that's why we need to stop Hoenicker!

Nico: Absolutely.

Lisa Loud: No one messes with the great system of college curriculums and gets away with it!

Nico: That's right! And I have a plan. Professor, we're going to use Flubber to help us out.

Nico's plan was to have Flubber be used to take down Hoenicker and his men and son. Also Chester and Bennett and I have a score to settle. We then set out to face Hoenicker and we were right outside of his estate.

Eye Five: Time for our entrance.

Nico: Showtime.

We flew at the Hoenicker estate.

Hoenicker: Brainard has got to have something that will slow him down.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and blasted through the ceiling and then spirits of Total Drama appeared and swirled around and converged and lightning and magic struck all over the place as a phoenix cry was heard and then we busted in.

Nico: Chester Hoenicker, you are under arrest.

Chester Hoenicker: On what charge?

Nico: Unlawful bankruptcies of colleges and corruption.

Me: Hello Chester, Bennett. Been a while.

Bennett: J.D.! (GROWLS)

He charged at me and threw a punch at me and then I blocked it and kicked him in the face and sent him crashing through the bookcase.

Nico: That was pathetic. But you have a lot of nerve wanting to destroy the colleges of the country Hoenicker!

Chester Hoenicker: Oh, c'mon! None of you aren't even considering on going to college in person anymore!

Roxy Rocket: But what about the people who DO want to attend college in person?

Me: Yeah what do you say to that!? Don't you give a flying fuck about people that DO go to college in person!?

College Hoenicker: Actually no I DON'T! I HATE COLLEGE AND I WANT THEM ALL TO BE SHUT DOWN FOREVER!

Nico: You are a monster Hoenicker.

Dark Spicer, Black Adam, Jet, Magneto, Jack O Lantern, Kite Man, Mole Man, Pinky & The Brain, The Golden Glider and Unicorn then appeared.

Nico: Dark Spicer, Black Adam, Jet, Magneto, Jack O Lantern, Kite Man, Mole Man, Pinky & The Brain, The Golden Glider and Unicorn

Magneto: Looks like the fun has just started.

Black Adam: You realize this will be the last set of usual battles before the big day, right?

William: Of course we know that.

Me: Yep we sure do.

Jet: Good. Then, let's make this one to remember.

Magneto: (to me) We heard you dealt with Dr. Gerbil again.

Me: Yep he is dead and gone.

Jack O Lantern: For God's sake, don't tell me that annoying song was played!

Me: I'm afraid so. But we made sure it was destroyed.

Jack O Lantern: Good.

Dark Spicer: (to Nico) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked! But, that should probably happen outside.

Nico: Good idea. Much too cramped in here.

We went outside to the courtyards.

?: Much better out here.

A figure came out and it was DAVE BLACK from episode 27 of Kyuranger and one of the Jark Sentai Golndaver!

Champ: Dave Black!

Dave Black: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You're one of the Jark Matter Rangers that was made to stop the Kyurangers from travelling back in time.

Dave Black: That's right. I wish my other comrades would be here with me to help out. But that's all right.

Me: That was so awesome how you five faced all the Kyurangers.

Dave Black: It sure was.

Nico: I actually think you guys made a good Sentai Parody team.

Dave Black: Of course we did. You'll see my other teammates in the future.

Me: Can't wait to face them and kick their butts.

Eli: Same here.

Dark Spicer: I have 2 new aliens for you all to see.

He turned into into his version of Ultimate Grey Matter and it looked like a Blue Version of M.O.D.O.K. but with a larger brain and had a massive number of eyes on it.

Ultimate Anti Matter: Say hello to Ultimate Anti Matter!

Shanan: An Evolved Galvan Hybrid. Very awesome.

Concrete Man: Well, in a way, we have a version of M.O.D.O.K. in our side.

Ultimate Anti Matter: I agree. This is as closest to M.O.D.O.K. as you guys are gonna get.

Ultimate Anti Matter fired a powerful energy blast from the Antitrix Symbol on his big brain at Concrete Man.

Nico deflected the blast back and it hit him and knocked him down.

Nico: Nice try though Dark.

Dark Spicer: But watch this.

He turned into a HUGE ALIEN! It was his largest one ever! It was his version of Ultimate Way Big and it was over 500 feet tall and green and blue and had lots of spikes all over its body.

Ultimate Mega Large: Meet… Ultimate Mega Large!

Shanan: HOLY CRUD! AN EVOLVED TOKUSTARR HYBRID!

Leanbow: That's probably the size of a Kaiju!

Ultimate Mega Large: Good thing we went outside, huh?

Ultimate Mega Large fired a powerful blast of cosmic energy at Leanbow.

Leanbow blocked the blast with his shield and sent it back to him and smashed him down.

Nico: Very good thing we went outside.

Dark reverted back.

Dark Spicer: Yeah sure was.

Nico: Lets get the battles underway.

We did so.

Battle 1: Eddy, Twilight Sparkle, Magic Skylanders, Star Sapphire Corps, Ben, Gwen, Kevin, Max, Star Man and Flash Man VS Dark Spicer

Dark Spicer was first.

Dark Spicer: (to Eddy) Did J.D. really meet a Black Dragon Gene Slammer this morning? And how did she get Gene Slammed?

Eddy: He sure did and her name is Miora Fletchington and in all honesty I don't have a clue how she got Gene-Slammed with Black Chromatic Dragon DNA.

Princess Luna: I agree and it is amazing that we have a different gene-slammer other than a Pokemon.

Jet was next.

Jet: (to Green Lantern) You've gotta admire Flubber's abilities. It can use various shapes like your Ring can. And it's green like you.

Green Lantern Hal Jordan: I sure do admire Flubber's abilities. Also Flubber is made of a unique chemical structure. My suit was made when I got my powers as a Green Lantern and the shapes I make from my ring come from the power of the imagination.

Rainbow Dash: But it's really awesome how Flubber can do so much.

Scootaloo: Boy it sure is. And it's really cool how Flubber can help people.

Pickle Barrel: It sure is cool. Also J.D. got hit on the head with a golf ball and a bowling ball covered in Flubber.

Barley Barrel: Yeah it was cool seeing them fly like that. But it was awful how he got hit like that.

Jack O Lantern: (to Green Arrow) I'm very proud of you guys for keeping your cool against Lila Rossi earlier. You all could've torn her apart easily.

Green Arrow: Yeah we could have ripped her apart. After everything she did, she deserved nothing short of death for her crimes. But because our code wouldn't let us kill her back then, it's best to send her to prison.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah what Lila did was absolutely horrible. She shot and nearly killed Marinette's mom and Chloe's dad in cold blood.

Cozy Glow: She's did things that are worse than anything I did.

Hex: Yeah she was a monster.

Kite Man: (to Wonder Woman) I don't think Lila Rossi would tell the truth even if you used the Lasso of Truth on her.

Wonder Woman: Actually she WOULD be able to tell the truth no matter how skilled of a liar she is. The Lasso of Truth is that powerful.

Rarity: Indeed it is darling and its power is amazing.

Sweetie Belle: It sure is. I think it's so amazing.

Indigo 1: Nok. There sure would have been.

Kairi Yano: Yeah I agree there. That would have been cool.

?: I will destroy you all for killing Lord Ganondorf!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs, and the eight large colored orbs that were orbiting around the legs of Lincoln's sisters were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Link: Oh no, I was hoping I'd never see him ever again.

Then, we saw something appear, and it was none other than Onox, The General of Darkness, and yet another follower of Ganondorf.

Nicole: Oh no, that's Onox, the General of Darkness from Oracle of Seasons.

Me: I've heard about him, he's called himself the General of Darkness, and since he bears the Crest of The Gerudo, it's a sign that he's another one of Ganondorf's cronies.

Shantae: Nicole, let me face off against this armored giant.

Nicole: Okay, Shantae.

Suddenly, Shantae's eyes turned neon purple, and she was surrounded by a neon purple energy aura with magic smoke, and as she approached Onox, she left behind magic smoke, purple energy, and purple flames with every step. Then, Shantae was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy with magic smoke and a purple genie flying around the vortex, and a red phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Shantae emerged, but she was changed forever.

Shantae grew to 6'0" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she has neon purple eyes and a neon purple energy aura with magic smoke and genies surrounding her, and she has large purple angel wings with magic smoke coming from the tips of the feathers, she has a genie with the Magic Kanji in its hands emblazoned on her forehead, she has on golden genie earrings with the Magic Kanji in its hands and a gold necklace with a genie with the Magic Kanji in its hands for the pendant. She has a new sword in her hands called The Defender of Scuttle Town, it's a large sword with a genie's lamp etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blade, large purple angel wings for the crossguard, large red gem for the hilt, longer red handle, and four dragon heads with red gems in its mouths for the pommel. Shantae has on a sleeveless red blouse with a purple phoenix, a red skirt with magic smoke, red harem pants, and red leather combat boots, and a sleeveless red trenchcoat with magic smoke on the coattails and a genie's lamp on the back. Shantae has on her brand-new Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with crimson red gems on her wrists and her new Belt of Elemental Bravery with large red gem for the belt buckle on her waist and her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. There was a gold kanji below the genie's lamp that said, "Shantae, Guardian Genie of Scuttle Town, Master of Magic and Purple Flames, Loving Future Wife of Lincoln Loud, and Brave Half-Genie Hero."

シャンティ、スカットルタウンの守護魔神、魔法と紫の炎の達人、リンカーンラウドの愛する未来の妻、そして勇敢な半魔神の英雄

Shantae has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 MAGIC FIRESTORM GENIE ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were amazed by Shantae's transformation, and when Lincoln saw what happened to her, he had a firetruck bright red blush on his face.

Me: Whoa, Shantae's transformed, and that means Onox is in big trouble.

Nico: You said it, Colonel.

Lincoln: Wow, Shantae, you look beautiful. How do you feel?

Shantae: (Divine Echoing Magical Voice of Love) I feel incredible, Linky, and now, I'm going to give that overgrown giant in armor the beating of his life. Would you like to join in?

Lincoln: You already know the answer.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his wider, muscular back, and he transforms into Super Angel-Ebonwu 750,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and joined Shantae. He's saving transforming into his Super Angel-Ebonwu Infinity form for the big battle against Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's get that overgrown piece of scrap metal.

Shantae and Lincoln went after Onox, who tried to attack them with his ball and chain, but they've dodged it, and they attacked him with a barrage of magic, neon purple energy blasts, purple flames, neon blue energy blasts with neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the blue cores, super lightning, and massive blasts of ice, which hits Onox, and explodes with incredible power and damaged him.

Shantae: Shall we end this scrap of metal for good, Linky?

Lincoln: Let's make him pay for messing with the four seasons, Shantae.

Shantae and Lincoln: MAGIC FIRESTORM MEGABLAST!

Shantae and Lincoln fired powerful blasts of magic and neon purple and neon blue energy blasts with magic smoke surrounding the blasts, and as they hit Onox, it exploded with incredible power, and it Super Hakaied Onox for good. We cheered for what Shantae and Lincoln did, as they holstered their weapons and power down, but Shantae's new clothes, weapons, jewelry, and body were permanent. Then, Lincoln picked Shantae up in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he hugged her, and the two of them kissed passionately, as we cheered for them.

We then pulverized Hoenicker, Bennett and the thugs all over the place brutally.

Ben: Time for some fusion power!

He activated Ghostfreak and Fourarms!

Ben: GHOSTARMS!

Shanan: Wow! Half Ectonurite Half Tetramand. Really awesome and interesting combination.

Ghostarms: Yes and watch this.

He punched and smashed Bennett all over with powerful punches and smashed Chester down too. Takinom blasted them all over.

Takinom: How do you like that?

I fired waves of chains and they bounded up Chester, Bennett and the thugs.

Lucky: LUCKY! That was great J.D.

Me: Thanks Lucky. Learned a lot while watching you guys on TV.

Nico: Good work Colonel. Uh oh!

We saw Wilson come at us.

Nico then threw Flubber at him and it went down his throat.

Me: Bet that won't taste good.

We saw Wilson move goofily as the Flubber was moving around inside him and then he was in a lot of pain.

Wilson: (IN PAIN) CALL MOMMY!

Then…

KRAPOP!

Flubber exploded right out of his butt with devastating force and he fainted!

Me: OOH! He's gonna be feeling that!

Nico: That is what I call Explosive Diarrhea!

We laughed at Nico's joke!

We tied him up too and Laney caught Flubber.

Kite Man: Looks like that's it for Hoenicker.

Mole Man: Don't forget his son as well.

Me: And all his family.

Kaiba: Maybe we should put some college courses in the prison he's going to.

Brain: That's actually a good idea.

Me: Not a bad idea.

Golden Glider: (to Flubber) Nice job today, Flubber!

Flubber was happy.

Unicorn: How would you like to join the team?

Flubber puffed himself out and he was excited!

Kaiba: (To the viewers) Inventions are great but you should know how to use them all right for the right purposes.

Nico: That's right. Great job today everyone. Awesome job. Lets go home.

We went back to the estate and we donated enough money to save the college. Hoenicker and his cronies and family were all arrested and sent to the Jupiter Prison for life without parole. They were also forced to pay $92,324,345,344,999,999,999,999,999,999,999.00 in restitution and ordered to reopen all the colleges they forcefully closed or were going to close. We had a great dinner and went to sleep. Professor Brainard and Sarah got married shortly after and Brainard's flying Flubber car was a huge hit and deal. Flubber is now the awesome new wave of the future.

THE END

Another fanfiction complete.

Flubber is one of my all time favorite movies from my childhood and it was really funny! Robin Williams did a fun movie there back then and it was awesome! The way those two thugs get hit with a flying bowling ball and a golf ball always cracks me up. The first part of the chapter was for the episode of Courage the Cowardly Dog called Human Habitrail and that song in that episode was stupid and obnoxious. But that gerbil paid for his crimes in the end. The second part was for 2010's Alice In Wonderland and that was an awesome movie! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next rescue is gonna be in the world of the movie Waterworld from 1995 and me, The Vaporeon Gene-Slammer, Allie Wilde, Eli and Varie are gonna rescue a Medusa named Shiana and she will have a Tiamat Gene-Slammer named Morgan Vladimir and she will be the first ever Tiamat Gene-Slammer we've ever met. Lincoln's rescue is gonna be in the world of Death Race and that is a great movie. The next chapter is gonna be a non-combat chapter and that one is gonna be for the awesome Loud House Episode, Camped. This is gonna be a precursor to the epic war with Team Dark Phoenix Storm coming up on the 10th and we're going to see more of Lynn Sr.'s camp he went to as a child as well as find an awesome treasure from a fisherman that disappeared in the Great Lakes Storm of 1913. That is gonna be awesome!

See you all tomorrow.

Camped

THE CALM BEFORE THE STORM - October 9th

---

Over a vast and endless ocean on another version of Earth, me, Allie, Eli, Varie and Marina Kerumma the Vaporeon Gene-Slammer were flying over a huge ocean.

Marina Kerumma: Good thing I'm helping you on the rescue.

Marina concentrated and groaned as something grew in her butt.

Me: That is a good thing.

She turned into VAPOREON!

Me: YEAH!

We were flying over a massive and vast ocean that looked like it stretched on forever.

Me: Wow! Not a single spec of land in sight.

Allie Wilde: What happened to everything?

Me: It's very familiar. Wait a second. This is the world of the 1995 movie Waterworld!

---

In 2500, as a result of the sea levels rising over 8,200 metres (26,900 ft), every continent on Earth is now underwater. The remains of human civilization live on ramshackle floating communities known as atolls, having long forgotten about living on land. People believe that there is a mythological "Dryland" somewhere in the endless ocean.

The Mariner, a lone drifter, arrives on his trimaran to trade dirt, a rare commodity, for other supplies. The atoll's residents see that the Mariner is a mutant with gills and webbed feet and decide to drown him in the atoll's recycling pit, a kind of liquid compost facility. Just then, the atoll is attacked by the Smokers, a gang of pirates seeking a girl named Enola who, according to their leader the Deacon, has a map to Dryland tattooed on her back. Enola's guardian Helen attempts to escape with Enola on a gas balloon with Gregor, an inventor, but the balloon is released too early. Helen instead frees the Mariner and insists that he take the two of them with him.

The three escape to open sea aboard the trimaran, pursued by the Smokers. They escape, but Helen's naïve actions result in damage to the Mariner's boat. He angrily cuts her hair, and then Enola's. Helen explains that she believes humans once lived on land and demands to know where the Mariner collected his dirt. He provides her with a diving bell and dives with her underwater, showing the remains of a city and the dirt on the ocean's floor, affirming Helen's belief. When they surface, they find that the Smokers have caught up to them, threatening to kill them if they do not reveal Enola, who is hiding aboard the boat. The Smokers abduct Enola and try to kill Helen and the Mariner. The Mariner takes Helen, and they dive underwater to avoid capture, with the gilled Mariner helping Helen breathe. When they surface, they find that his boat has been destroyed. Gregor manages to catch up to and rescue them, and he takes them to a new makeshift atoll inhabited by the survivors of the first attack.

The Mariner takes a captured Smoker's jet ski to chase down the Deacon aboard the hulk of the Exxon Valdez. With most of the Smokers below deck to row the tanker, the Mariner confronts the Deacon, threatening to ignite the reserves of oil still on the tanker unless he returns Enola. The Deacon calls the Mariner's bluff, knowing that would destroy the ship, but, to his surprise, the Mariner drops a flare into the oil. The ship's lower decks are engulfed in fire, and the ship starts to sink. The Mariner rescues Enola and escapes via a rope from Gregor's balloon with Helen and the Atoll Enforcer aboard. As the Mariner brings Enola to Helen, the Deacon manages to grab the rope to escape the sinking ship. He is kicked off into the water, but climbs aboard a jet ski. He fires upon the balloon, shaking Enola from the balloon and into the ocean. As The Deacon and some of his men converge on Enola to capture her, the Mariner makes an impromptu bungee jump from the balloon to grab Enola right before the Deacon and his men collide and die in the explosion.

Sometime later, Gregor has been able to identify the tattoo on Enola's back as coordinates with reversed directions. Following the map, Gregor, the Mariner, the Atoll Enforcer, Helen, and Enola discover Dryland, the top of Mount Everest, filled with vegetation and wildlife. They also find a crude hut with the remains of Enola's parents. The Mariner, feeling that he does not belong on Dryland, decides that he cannot stay as the sea calls to him: he builds a new wooden trimaran and departs as Helen and Enola bid him farewell.

Allie Wilde: Wow I remember that movie! That was intense.

Marina Vaporeon: Yeah it sure was. That was one of my favorites.

I pulled up a map of the world of Waterworld and what it revealed was horrifying. It was a Post-Apocalyptic World where all the continents were completely underwater. 99.8% of the entire planet was totally underwater! The only spec of land left on the planet was the Himalayan Mountains and they were covered in plants and forests and everything and they are the only part of land that stuck out like a sore thumb.

Me: Whoa!

Eli: Wow! This is a world of an endless ocean!

Varie: This is scary.

Allie Wilde: It sure is.

We then set out to find the Smokers and they were in for a rude awakening. We found their lair on the old oil tanker, the Exxon Valdez.

Me: I got this.

I confornted the Smokers on the ship.

Me: I'm gonna give you 5 seconds to let Enola go.

Deacon: And why would I do that?

Me: Because I said so.

Deacon: You're not in any position to give me orders.

Me: (Smirks) Oh no?

Deacon: What makes you think someone like you is gonna get her?

I formed a fireball in my hand and I went over to an oil well shaft.

Me: Let her go or I drop this down here and you burn. You all burn.

Deacon: Wait wait wait wait. Lets not do anything rash here. I mean you sure she's worth all this? And who the hell are you anyway?

Me: Someone you don't want to fuck around with.

Deacon: The girl never stops talking. She never shuts up.

Me: So I have heard. But she is worth more than that in terms of talking.

Deacon: What is it? Huh? It's the map.

Me: It's not the map. She's a good kid as well as a good friend. To me in terms of spirit and to this planet.

Deacon: (Sarcastically) Aw gee. Single tear rolls down my cheek. You're gonna die for your friend.

Me: Nobody likes that kind of sarcasm asshole. And no I'm not gonna die. You and your Smoker douchebags are the ones that will. Everyone else on this whole planet including Enola will live. Everyone but you guys.

I had it ready.

Deacon: I don't think you're gonna drop that fireball are you?

Me: Why not?

Deacon: Because you're not crazy.

Me: Hm. Want to try me? I've been called many things over the years and crazy is one of them.

I dropped it.

Deacon: NO!

The fireball went down the shaft and into a well of oil and then it ignited and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The entire ship went up in a massive fiery explosion!

Allie Wilde: WHOA!

Eli: WHEW! HOT!

Marina Vaporeon: That was awesome! Lets get them!

We got into an awesome battle as the Exxon Valdez was going up in flames and I teleported and took Enola and then a Tiamat Gene-Slammer, first ever one like that I've seen appeared and her name was Morgan Vladimir and she blasted the Smokers with fire, lightning, poison gas, ice and darkness and killed them all over and also with her was a Medusa named Shiana and we killed all the Smokers in an instant. Some were even turned to stone by Shiana's glare and we went back to the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix and I put on my blind man glasses and Eli covered his eyes and I snapped my fingers and Morgan reverted back and she was naked. Marina reverted back too.

Marina was human again. But naked.

Marina: (covers herself) I don't think there's anything we can do for this planet.

Morgan Vladimir: (Covers herself) You're not kidding. This entire planet has been made completely uninhabitable.

Eli: The least we can do is help the survivors by getting them back to Our Earth and helping them start a new life.

Varie: That's a good idea.

I gave Marina and Morgan new clothes and they put them on.

Allie Wilde: But it's awful that all this happened here on this planet. I can't believe that everything would be underwater like this.

Me: I know. It's truly a tragedy.

Eli: Yeah.

Me: Lets round up the survivors and get them back to our world.

We did so and we took the people still on what's left of the world of Waterworld back to our Earth so they can start new lives anew.

After dealing with The Deacon, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, and Red She-Hulk are heading to the world of the 2008 movie Death Race, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the nineteen girls located here, but we're also going to deal with Claire Hennessey, Joseph Mason A.K.A. Machine Gun Joe, Coach, Case, Slovo Pachenko, Mr. T. Ulrich, Lists, Gunner, Hector Grimm A.K.A. the Grim Reaper, 14K, and Niles York A.K.A Frankenstein.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 2008 movie Death Race, and I know what we're going to do here, not only am I going to rescue the nineteen girls located here, but we're also going to deal with Claire Hennessey, Joseph Mason A.K.A. Machine Gun Joe, Coach, Case, Slovo Pachenko, Mr. T. Ulrich, Lists, Gunner, Hector Grimm A.K.A. the Grim Reaper, 14K, and Niles York A.K.A Frankenstein.

Me: That's right, big guy. I saw this movie long ago, and it was awesome.

Nico: But, what makes me mad is that some of the prison officials were the ones who organized these Death Races, and they enjoy seeing inmates kill each other for their own sick amusements.

Red She-Hulk: There's no way they're getting out of this alive.

Lincoln: You said it, Betty. We're going to end this Death Race madness for good.

?: HELP!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of nineteen girls calling for help. With his deep sapphire blue cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, along with sensing energy signals, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw the nineteen girls, along with Jensen Garner Ames and Case, but they've been cornered by Claire Hennessey, Joseph Mason A.K.A. Machine Gun Joe, Coach, Slovo Pachenko, Mr. T. Ulrich, Lists, Gunner, Hector Grimm A.K.A. the Grim Reaper, 14K, and Niles York A.K.A Frankenstein, and they're going to kill them.

Lincoln: Guys, I've found the nineteen girls, along with falsely-accused convicted prisoner, Jensen Garner Ames and Case, but but they've been cornered by Claire Hennessey, Joseph Mason A.K.A. Machine Gun Joe, Coach, Slovo Pachenko, Mr. T. Ulrich, Lists, Gunner, Hector Grimm A.K.A. the Grim Reaper, 14K, and Niles York A.K.A Frankenstein, and they're going to kill them. Come on, let's go.

We rushed on over, and we brutally attacked the villains. Then, Lincoln sprouted out his eleven long, massive, indestructible, and powerful neon blue tails, and they had stingers at the ends. Then, he'd sent nine of them at the villains, and they pierced them on their chests. Then, Lincoln began sucking out and absorbing their energy, as the nine villains were screaming in agonizing pain.

Me: Uh oh, I suspected that this was one of Cell's powers, the one from Garrett's universe and the one from our universe.

Nico: I actually knew that one, remember when we went after Yuki Terumi?

Me: Oh, right.

Suddenly, we saw the nine villains beginning to shrivel and dry up, and when Lincoln was done and he retracted his tails, the nine villains looked like they were mummified. Then, Lincoln fired ten neon blue energy blasts with elemental forces orbiting around the cores, destroying them all, and Super Hakaied their spirits. Then, the tails went back into Lincoln, and he and Nicole then went up to the nineteen girls who were located here, and when Lincoln saw them, he recognized them. The nineteen girls were Yoko from Team Galaxy, Diana Lombard, Jenni Anderson, Caitlin, and Darla Simmons from Martin Mystery, Jinja from Monsuno, Ayaka Kagari, Touko Hio, Kasumi Takamiya, Kanae Hozuki, Seito Kaichou, Rin Kazari, and Mai from Witch Craft Works, Kukuru Misakino and Fuka Miyazawa from Aquatope on White Sand, Hayase Nagatoro from Don't Toy With Me, Miss Nagatoro, Fena Houtman from Fena: Pirate Princess, Aqua from Konosuba, and Machiko Mai from Miss Machiko.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Yoko, Diana Lombard, Jenni Anderson, Caitlin, Darla Simmons, Jinja, Ayaka Kagari, Touko Hio, Kasumi Takamiya, Kanae Hozuki, Seito Kaichou, Rin Kazari, Mai, Kukuru Misakino, Fuka Miyazawa, Hayase Nagatoro, Fena Houtman, Aqua, and Machiko Mai.

Nicole: From Team Galaxy, Martin Mystery, Monsuno, Witch Craft Works, Aquatope on White Sand, Don't Toy With Me, Miss Nagatoro, Fena: Pirate Princess, Konosuba, and Miss Machiko, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Diana Lombard: Yes, we're okay, thanks for saving us.

Then, when Diana Lombard and the eighteen girls saw who it was that saved them from Claire Hennessey, Joseph Mason A.K.A. Machine Gun Joe, Coach, Case, Slovo Pachenko, Mr. T. Ulrich, Lists, Gunner, Hector Grimm A.K.A. the Grim Reaper, 14K, and Niles York A.K.A Frankenstein, their faces all lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 16-year-old 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful upper and lower body muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his massive right pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle were the marks of the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said, "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion and Emissary of Hinon, Master of Lightning Storms, The Weather, and the Thirteen Elemental Forces, Man With A Plan, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, Son, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Diana Lombard: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made eighteen clones of himself, and he and the eighteen clones went up to the girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrap their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered wildly over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem welcomed the new members of their future husband's harem.

Yoko: (Seductively and rubs her right hand on Lincoln's massive right pec) You too, big, tall, muscular, and handsome.

We went back home to the Estate, and Jensen and Case were now able to get a new start in Gotham Royal York, now that false evidence that led to Jensen's false conviction was found, and Case was also able to start fresh again after what happened.

---

In the briefing room, we were having another meeting and Chameleon called us.

Chameleon: Hey, guys! I have a much better report then the last one!

Lynn: Wait. Are you in the bathroom right now?

Chameleon: Not so loud! You want me to get caught?

Lynn: Sorry.

Me: Go ahead Chameleon. What did you find out?

He told us about Team Dark Phoenix Storm's plan. After Morag traps the Loud's in the castle, Mr. Mind is going to launch powerful nuclear missiles from 23 points around the planet with each member at each missile and Mr. Mind will be in Scotland. He went over which Member will be where:

---

Mr. Mind - The Leader: Scotland

Goche - Marshall Islands,

Baron Nero - Bikini Atoll, French Polynesia

SaberLeomon - Papua New Guinea,

Meltdown - Chernobyl, Ukraine,

Spyder - Novaya Zemlya, Russia

TTG Slade - Bolivia

Metallo - Lesotho

Scarecrow - Sri Lanka

Two-Face - Comoros Islands

Man Bat - Aleutian Islands, Alaska

Reverse Flash - Tajikistan

Ocean Master - Augusta, Maine

Deadshot - Three Mile Island, Pennsylvania

Airachnia - Tokyo, Japan

Chameleon - Nevada Nuclear Test Sight

Eyezoa - Philippines

Tommy (Legend of the Dragon) - Maldives

Bangray - Iraq

Eradicus - Uzbekistan

Eriedrone - Kazakhstan

Chur - Iceland

Omar - Solomon Islands

Maurice - Turkmenistan

---

We were shocked yet amazed that they woud choose very specific locations around the planet.

Chameleon: I also found out that Mr. Mind has the most powerful nuke of all for the Loud's in Scotland. It's a Spacefall mission and it packs 723,234,211,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,0 gigatons of TNT. UNBELIEVABLE!

We gasped in shock!

Me: That missile is enough to destroy the entire planet 100 times!

Nico: That's insane!

Eli: This is gonna be a huge battle.

Allie Wilde: Oh man. If we don't stop those missiles, we have no future.

Nico: Yeah.

Lola: Can you send us the data about what you told us?

Chameleon: Good thing I have a device for just that.

He pressed a button and showed us a world map and it had the entirety of the plan of Team Dark Phoenix Storm down to the last detail written on it.

Me: This is an amazing well thought out and very elaborate plan.

Allie Wilde: It sure is. Mr. Mind and the team really thought everything out.

Vypra: He sure did. Well done Chameleon.

We printed it.

Lori: We literally appreciate the risks you're taking to tell us all this, Chameleon.

Chameleon: Thank you.

Chameleon then heard knocking on the bathroom door.

Deadshot: Hey, Chameleon. Are you done in there? Some of us need to use the bathroom too!

Chameleon: (to Deadshot) Hold on a minute! (to us) Gotta go! You guys better make 24 groups for the big day!

He clicked off.

Me: This is gonna be really huge guys.

Nico: Yeah.

Eli: We got to warn everyone.

Me: No Eli. If we do that, Team Dark Phoenix Storm will know that we're on to them. We have to strike when they put their plan into action.

Lincoln: So in otherwords when they attack.

Me: Right.

Nico: Then we have to be ready for anything. October 10th is tomorrow.

Me: It sure is. We're gonna be in for one helluva battle tomorrow.

We were in for one epic battle.

---

Later we were having breakfast. We were eating up our rather soggy breakfast.]

Luan: [disgusted] "Blegh."

Me: Why is my breakfast all soggy?

[Lincoln sits next to Lola, both noticing this rather peculiar breakfast situation.]

Lincoln: "Do these eggs seem… blegh!"

Lola: "Soggy?"

Lana: "I kinda like them."

[Lana squeezes both of her eggs, causing the yolks to fly into the air; she eats them. Lynn and Lisa are disgusted, the latter shielding herself with the plate which also once housed her eggs.]

Lynn and Lisa: "Blegh."

Me: Okay that was awesome.

Nico: Very clever.

[We all then hear a whimper off-screen. In the kitchen, the kids peek in to see a tearful Lynn Sr. working on a messy counter, distractedly pouring too much salt into a mixing bowl. Lori gasps as Lynn Sr. cries his eyes out and uses a piece of toast to blow his nose; the kids enter.]

Me: Mr. Lynn?

Lori: "Uh, Dad?"

Lynn Sr.: [sobbing] "Sorry, kids…" [wiping a tear from his eye] "I just got the email that every adult dreads." [The kids but Lucy gasp.]

Me: Uh oh!

Lori: "What happened?"

Lucy: "When's the funeral?"

Me: Is it a huge family emergency?

Lynn Sr.: [his voice breaking] "Camp Mastodon, my old family camp…" [bursts into fountains of tears] "… is closing!" [continues to cry, banging his hand on the floor as the puddle of tears grows]

Me: Uh oh.

Lola: [avoiding the puddle of tears] "Yeah, that sounds like an after-breakfast problem." [is met by unimpressed glares from the other kids] "What? You know I'm more sympathetic on a full stomach."

Me: Lets hear this out.

Lynn Sr.: [reminiscing] "Me and my Dad - y-your Gramps Samuel - used to go every year when I was a kid. We made so many memories at Camp Mastodon…"

[Flashback to a younger Lynn Sr. and his father doing activities at Camp Mastodon. The first flashback depicts Lynn Sr. and his father doing a three-legged race.]

Lynn Sr.: "It's where I learned to run…"

[Lynn Sr.'s father dashes off and quick, leaving Lynn Sr. at the starting line. He is dragged away as Lynn Sr.'s father finishes the race. Lynn Sr.'s father lets out a triumphant laugh.]

Samuel: "We did it!"

Younger Lynn Sr.: [laughing too] "Yeah!" [Flashback two depicts Lynn Sr.'s father and Lynn Sr. about to bungee off a tree.]

Lynn Sr.: "It's where I learned to swim…"

[Lynn Sr.'s father cartwheels into the lake below, while Lynn Sr. just falls in. Splash! Lynn Sr's father resurfaces, spitting out some water, though Lynn Sr. resurfaces later; when he does, he is wearing a snorkel and some floaters (including a duck floatee).]

[Flashback three depicts Lynn Sr.'s father and Lynn Sr. ziplining.]

Lynn Sr.: "It's where I learned to fly!"

[Lynn Sr.'s father lets out a triumphant roar as Lynn Sr. doesn't watch out for the tree that's just ahead of him.]

Younger Lynn Sr.: "Whoo!"

CRASH!

[He collides with the tree; end flashback as Lynn Sr. begins to tear up once again.]

Lynn Sr.: "(Crying) NOW I WON'T BE ABLE TO TELL MY DAD BECAUSE HE'S DEAD! (CRYING HARD)

Nico pat his back.

Applejack: Oh there there Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: [tearing up again, while Lisa gleams; another subset of her skills to be used] "Another skill I learned at…" [tears stream down his face as he begins to cry again] "… camp!"

Shiv: (to Lynn Sr) Dude, we're about to go to war tomorrow and you want to spend the free time before that going to a camp?!

Me: Shiv be nice. Besides, this camp holds a lot of childhood memories that are very dear to Mr. Lynn. It's the camp he went to before his dad got the bucket forcefully kicked.

Twilight Sparkle: What does that mean?

Me: Oh right some of you guys haven't heard about this. Mr. Lynn's dad was murdered in cold blood on Halloween.

I went over everything and when I was finished, everyone that hadn't heard it was shocked and horrified!

Shiv: Oh man! Mr. Lynn, I'm so sorry!

Vypra: We had no idea that this was the reason you got so scared of Halloween.

Nico: Yeah that was awful.

Luna: "Aw… poor Pops. Wish there was something we could do to cheer him up."

Lola: "Daddy mani-pedi day? Ooh, I'll call Gayle. She's the cuticle whisperer, heh heh."

Lincoln: "Or… we can take him to Camp Mastodon. He can make one more family memory before it closes."

Me: Not a bad idea Lincoln.

[The other kids agree to this idea; Lola sees this.]

Eli: Yeah that's a great idea.

Lola: [seeing the change of plans] "Sorry, Gayle, false alarm." [chatter] "Of course I'm still keeping MY appointment."

Electro: Well, might as well spend our day going to that camp.

Me: Yeah it's the least we can do to help Mr. Lynn relive some of the good days he had. Also it'll be awesome to see what it was like back then.

Lincoln: I can't wait to see it.

Nico: Also didn't Mr. Lynn mention that Flip was at Camp Mastodon too?

Me: As a matter of fact yes he did. When we arrested Flip he said he was a camper there. This will be the first time we see Camp Mastodon and maybe the last.

Nico: Wow that's interesting.

Laney: At least that cheapskate Flip won't be there to ruin it.

Me: Yep. Lets go to Camp Mastodon.

We were off.

---

[We all arrived at Camp Mastodon. Quick panover of the beautiful surroundings, with people having fun.]

Luna: "Sweet."

Me: Wow what a camp!

Lincoln: "This is awesome!"

Firefly: Look at this camp! It's the perfect place to spend our last day alive!

Lola: Garfield don't say that!

Firefly: Sorry.

Me: Wow Mr. Lynn your camp that you went to is incredible.

Lynn Sr.: It sure is. You guys would have loved it here.

Lazlo: It's just as amazing as Camp Kidney and Acorn Flats.

Slinkman: It sure is Lazlo.

Robo Blaze: Is it even still open?

We saw lots of kids playing and having a great time and having fun.

Me: Yep it's still open. But not for long. Lets go walk around.

We saw Nico with a sad look on his face.

Eddy: You okay, Nico?

Nico: (with a fake smile) I'm fine. Just thinking about the big battle tomorrow.

Poromon: Nico, you know I'm allergic to bullshit, right?

Leni: Are you allergic to bull droppings?

Lisa: Leni that means that Poromon is detecting a lie.

Leni: Oh right.

May: Nico what's wrong? You can tell us.

Me: Yeah buddy you can tell us anything.

Nico: This picture will explain everything. (shows everyone said picture)

It was a picture of Nico, Qin and a girl we don't know. She had brown hair and was beautiful.

Me: I know that's you in the middle and that's Qin on the left. But who's the other girl with you?

Nico: That's Missy. Missy Rodgers. She's another friend of mine from school.

Qin: I haven't seen Missy in a long time.

Nico: She had a really strong dream to become a really amazing scientist. But I got word recently that she disappeared and I hadn't heard from her in a long time.

Me: Weird. I hope she's okay.

Eli: Yeah. But don't worry Nico. You'll find her.

Lincoln: Why don't you tell us your favorite memory about Missy?

Poliwag: I can tell you my favorite memory about her.

Me: Lay it on us.

Poliwag: She would always do these amazing experiments. She is really smart.

---

Poliwag: (Voiceover) I saw her in an amazing laboratory and she made this awesome snake made of pure lightning that had incredible power.

Young Missy: There it is Poliwag. I made an atomic lightning powered Electro Snake.

Poliwag: Wow! That is so cool!

Young Missy: Yep and all it took was making the electrons and protons on the atomic conversion form into a snake.

Poliwag: Wow! Missy that is incredible!

Poliwag: (Voiceover) Missy is really smart. She was born with a really powerful IQ at 320. She won a junior Nobel Prize in Physics and like Lisa is also a professor at an amazing college.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Lisa Loud: Wow that is a most impressive achievement.

Me: It sure is. Wow! Making a snake entirely out of pure lightning. Very awesome!

Snake: I gotta say dudes. This camp is actually very peaceful.

Me: Boy it sure is. And no lunatic scoutmaster to take away all the fun.

We laughed.

Lynn Sr.: "That's where Gramps and I did our father-son talent show routine…

We saw an amazing auditorium.

Me: Wow! Just like the auditorium at Camp Wawanakwa.

Naruto: Sure is awesome.

Eli: Yep.

Lynn Sr.: O-ooh, that's where we tag-teamed campfire stories." [getting emotional] "And that's where we - that's where we… accidentally wiped with poison ivy!"

Laney: Wow. But that must've hurt.

Lynn Sr.: [tearing up] "I'm itchy just remembering it… So many great memories -"

Me: A lot of amazing memories here.

[I was interrupted by a Tarzan-like call off-screen; someone is on the cliff where Samuel and Lynn Sr. learned to swim. This someone bungees into Lynn Sr., knocking him off-screen.]

Me: WHOA! Nice entrance.

Lynn Sr.: [seeing a familiar face] "Mr. Rinsler!"

Mr. Rinsler: "Welcome back, Lynnie!" [tears off his white shirt to reveal a blue one underneath, then dons a hat]

Lynn Sr.: [overjoyed] "Guys, this is the camp owner, Mr. Rinsler!"

Mr. Rinsler: "Heh heh… Nice to meet you, Louds. And wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to have you all here." [tips his hat] "Happy to have you here one final time."

[The other Louds greet him.]

Me: Pleasure to meet you Mr. Rinsler.

Nico: Same here. This is a really nice camp.

Lincoln: "This place is so cool!"

Luna: "Thanks for havin' us, man."

Eli: Yeah it's awesome.

Lynn Sr.: "Oh, it's a ding-dang shame this place is closing down…"

Mr. Rinsler: "Yeah, I hate to see it go, but I can't afford the upkeep anymore." [sighs, wiping away some of the sweat] "Well, I should get back to packing up the office…"

Lynn Sr.: "Do you need any help? We'd be happy to pitch in. Right, everybody?"

Me: I'll gladly help out.

Eli: Same here.

Nico: Me too.

Allie Wilde: Yep.

Varie: Same with me.

Rachnera: Me too.

Laney: Count me in.

Lily: Same here.

[That's a nope for some of the Louds. Everyone else zooms away, leaving a curious Lincoln reading a pamphlet.]

Lincoln: "Ooh, there's a s'more station!"

Me: Wow.

Mr. Rinsler: "Excellent news."

[He launches Lynn Sr. and Lincoln into the air… ]

Lynn Sr.: "Oh boy!"

Mr. Rinsler: "To the office!"

Me: Lets go!

[… and they land on Mr. Rinsler's very tough back.]

Lincoln: "Whoa!"

[Mr. Rinsler runs off to the office.]

We follow him.

Maria: (to me) Is this why you said our visit to this camp might be our last?

Me: Nope. And it's just to help Mr. Lynn reminisce on some fun times before it closes down. This camp is all his childhood memories.

Eli: Yeah and it's the calm before the storm.

Maria: Oh I get it.

Dark Spicer: Okay. First of all, we ARE going to stop Team Dark Phoenix Storm. And second, we're going to keep this camp open! Even if I have to go Furi on someone!

Me: Dark we will keep this camp open and I do have the money to do so.

[At the office, packing has commenced. Lincoln digs into some drawers to find curious stuff; first a Mastodon-branded roll of toilet paper, then a calendar which opens up to reveal Mr. Rinsler in a suggestive pose, both of which he tosses away (the latter with a disgusted face). He is about to search for another item, when Lynn Sr. comes in with a frame.]

Lynn Sr.: "Oh, would you look at this, son?" [the picture is of younger Leonard and Lynn Sr. at Mastodon] "Here's your Gramps and me on our first camp treasure hunt."

Me: Ooh that's cool Mr. Lynn.

Lincoln: [intrigued] "Treasure hunt?"

Nicole: (Comes in) Did someone say treasure hunt?

Mr. Rinsler: [off-screen] "Yep." [stacking a box] "For the treasure of Captain Kit. You ever heard of the Great Lakes Storm of 1913?"

[Lincoln shakes his head no.]

Me: I have. That was a huge storm that happened back 108 years ago.

Mr. Rinsler: "Yep. It was a monstrous blizzard that hit the very spot we're standing on." [The lights flicker and cold wind blows, scaring Lincoln; this is Lynn Sr. adding his own flare to the tale.]

Lynn Sr.: "Settin' the mood."

Nico: Good dramatic effect.

[Mr. Rinsler pops into frame with a book, which he blows the dust into Lincoln's face; he then opens the book.]

Mr. Rinsler: "That's Captain Kit."

[Captain Kit is a sailor with a parrot which looks like Sergio. Begin flashback: Captain Kit's ship veers amidst a major storm.]

Mr. Rinsler: "He was en route home after making a huge radish trade when he got caught in the storm."

[Flashback Captain Kit proudly opens a chest of golden doubloons.]

Mr. Rinsler: "He had to abandon ship." [jumps the plank] "Legend has it he took all the gold he'd earned with him and buried it somewhere around him…" [Captain Kit has reached the land. A stray bolt of lightning strikes his ship, which goes up in flames and sinks in a blaze of glory.]

[End flashback as Lincoln is gushing over the implications: gold, in this very camp.]

Lincoln: "Whoa…" [gets a bit too close to the book and is slapped by Mr. Rinsler closing it; he rubs his nose] "Did anyone ever find it?" [continues to swoon as he does big eyes]

Mr. Rinsler: [laughs] "No."

[Lincoln's big eyes disappear in a blink.]

Mr. Rinsler: "Who knows if it was even real? I just send campers out on the treasure hunt as a fun activity." [laughs as he walks up to a particular plank of wood] "I have, however, been told that this hunk of wood is from the good captain's ship."

[Lincoln gasps as he continues to swoon. Then he looks to Mr. Rinsler and grabs the wood. He struggles to carry the heavy weight of it, eventually dropping it on Lynn Sr.'s foot.]

CRUNCH!

[It landed and it was causing him to jump around in pain off-screen]

Mr. Rinsler: "Oh, geez… H… hang tight, camper. I'll go get some ice."

Lynn Sr. "Ow, ow, ow, ow, ow, ow, ow!"

[He leaves the scene as Lynn Sr. continues to limp around. Lincoln sits his dad on a nearby chair, then looks back at the piece of wood… ]

Lincoln: "Huh?" [the piece of wood has a peculiar opening, which Lincoln opens to find a map. Lincoln unrolls and studies the map]

Lynn Sr.: "Whatcha got there, kiddo?"

Lincoln: "I think it's a map."

Me: Lets see.

[Lynn Sr. joins his son in studying the map.]

Lynn Sr.: "Wait." [indeed it is a map which once belonged to a particular sea captain] "If this map was hidden in the piece of wood from the captain's ship…"

[Zoom into "YE OLDE CAMP SITE"… ]

Lincoln: "And here's Camp Mastodon!"

Me: That's it all right.

Lynn Sr.: "It must be…"

[Father and son connect the dots… ]

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: "Captain Kit's treasure map!"

Nico: WHOA!

Nicole: AWESOME! You found his treasure map!

Lincoln: "Which means the treasure really IS somewhere around here!"

Lynn Sr.: [excitedly] "Son, if we can find that treasure, we can give it to Mr. Rinsler and save the camp!" [Lincoln beams] "You up for a little adventure?"

Lincoln: "Heck yes, I am!" [high-fives his dad, so hard that his dad veers off-screen into a wall as the chair is actually one with wheels.]

Lynn Sr.: [hurt, off-screen] "I'm gonna need that ice now…"

Nicole: Lets get to finding that treasure!

---

[The beachside. The other Louds are relaxing.]

Lori: [relaxing on the beach; sighing in content] "This is the life, huh? This place is literally amazing." [tries to call Bobby, but the connection is lost] "Ugh, I just wish there was better service."

Leni: [getting fanned by a male attendant] "I think the service is just fine."

Lynn: [by the cliff where Lynn Sr. learned to jump] "Cann-Lynn ball! Woo!"

[She jumps off a rock and into the lake, splashing Lori, Leni and the attendant. Rita and Lily ride on a zipline as Lana builds Lola a sand castle.]

Lily: WEEEE!

Lola: "Lana, you'd better not be filling my sand castle with hermit crabs!"

[Lana is indeed about to do just that, and sheepishly hides the crab behind her back. Lucy is digging a grave while Luna and Luan are doing a three-legged race.]

Luan: "Let's pick it up, Lunes! Everyone's got a leg up on us."

[Just nearby, Lisa rests on her grave.]

Lisa: "This is not my optimal idea of resting. Or peace."

May: (to Larry Loud) I think it's time you get your own archenemy.

Larry Loud: OOH! I hope it's a great one!

May: They will be.

Lincoln: "Guys, guys! We found a…" [pants] "… a treasure map!" [the others aren't encouraged; Lola blinks in confusion; encouraging voice, doing the goat horns] "It leads to gold~!"

[The others gasp with excitement.]

Lola: "Gold IS my signature color!"

Leni: "Totes!"

Lincoln: "No, no, no! If we can find it, we can help Dad save the camp."

[Lynn Sr. nods in the affirmative. The others cheer in agreement.]

Lola: "Alright, Linky!"

Leni: "Totes!"

Me: This is not just any ordinary treasure map. This is the map to Captain Kit's treasure. It's a treasure from the Great Lakes Storm of 1913.

Nico: It sure is. This is gonna be so cool to find it.

Lisa Loud: This is gonna be a most amazing.

---

[At the picnic area, Lincoln and the others study the map and we were with him]

Lincoln: "Captain Kit marked the starting point with an X, which is where we're all standing!"

Me: This is gonna be an awesome treasure hunt.

Nicole: I'm excited for this one. This is one of the treasure hunts I've never been on or heard about.

Brittney: It'll be awesome.

Lola: "Where do we go from here?"

Lincoln: [reading the map] "Begin your journey with a starting clue, let this animal be a guide to you. Does anyone see any animals?"

Lana: "Found some!" [she has procured a hornet's nest]

Lynn Sr.: [worried] "Lana, put… the hornet's nest… down!"

Me: Oh no.

[Lana realizes and puts the nest down, which breaks. The swarm of hornets escape and fly up in the air.]

Lana: "Uh-oh…"

[As the others hide underneath the table, the hornets chase a screaming Lana across the area. Eventually she runs head first into a tree, one with a clue.]

Luan: [Runs to said tree, along with the rest] "Hey, Linc, look! I don't think the clue's an animal." [examines it; the clue is a picture of a alligator holding a compass.] "It's a pun! It's a navi-gator! Get it?"

We laughed at her joke.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one. But that does make sense.

[The others have found similar navigational alligators.]

Luna: [finding one on a rock] "Look, there's another one over here!"

Luan: [finding one on a tree] "I found another one!"

Lincoln: "They're trail markers!"

Lynn Sr.: "I'll bet if we follow them…"

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: "They'll lead us to the treasure!"

Lincoln: "Captain Kit, here we come!"

Laney: This is gonna be awesome!

Nicole: Lets go!

---

[The Louds continue to hike, and eventually find themselves in front of a giant log covered in dirt.]

Lincoln: "Uh, it doesn't look like there's a way around it."

Lynn: "I say we climb it. A little thigh chafing never hurt anyone."

Lynn Sr.: "I have very sensitive thighs."

Me: We'll just fly over it. We've done that many times before.

We did so.

[On the other side… ]

Lynn Sr.: "What's the next clue, son?"

Lincoln: "Hmm. This is weird. It says, "Butts will lead you to your mark, where you'll head into the dark." Butts?"

[Nearby… ]

Lynn: "WHOO! This is my kind of par-tay!" [dances, shaking her rump all the way, and hits Lola with her rump. Lily giggles at Lola's misfortune, while Lucy covers her baby sister's eyes to shield her from Lola's wrath.]

Lisa: [clears throat] "If I may. Not butts, buttes. The geomorphological term for isolated rock hills with steep slides." [points at something off-screen] "That's a butte."

[The butte is revealed; it's very tall, to Lincoln and Lynn Sr.'s dismay.]

Me: (Whistles) And I thought the cliff at Camp Wawanakwa was huge.

Gwen (Total Drama): You took the words right out of my mouth J.D.

Nicole: That is high.

Lynn Sr.: "Ugh. How in the ding-dang world are we supposed to climb up that thing?!"

Me: We'll just fly up.

We flew up to the top.

Manaphy: Mama, are we getting close to the treasure?

May: Not yet. We should be able to find it soon.

Lori: [is being dragged up while looking at her cell phone] "Ooh, got service! Ugh, lost it. Ooh, got service! Ugh, lost it."

[Lori notices someone at the base of the butte. She takes a photo of their silhouette, then is yanked upwards. Lynn Sr. has finally reached the summit; seeing an opportunity, he goes to the edge of the butte… ]

Lynn Sr.: "I AM THE STRONGEST MAN ALIVE!" [echoes]

Me: Wow that is a really good echo. Let me try. YOU HAVE A REALLY GIANT BUTT! [Echoes]

Nico: (LAUGHS) That is funny.

Lori: "Um, I hate to rain on your victory parade, Dad, but we're being followed."

[She shows the picture, tagged "#PINECONEVIBES", of the silhouette while Lori does a goofy pose. She scrolls to a pic of herself in a comic book filter, then another of the silhouette, this time a close-up. The others gasp.]

Lincoln: "Maybe it's the ghost of Captain Kit."

Me: I don't think so.

Lisa: "Mm… negative. It's Flip; I saw him lurking in the lake while we were discussing the treasure."

Me: That can't be right. Flip is all the way over in prison.

Lynn Sr.: "If it is Flip he must be after the gold. Let's pick up the pace!" [to Lincoln] "What's next, son?"

[All eyes are on Lincoln, expecting a new move. Lincoln unfurls the map.]

Lincoln: "The clue said we are supposed to 'head into the dark.'"

Lucy: [pointing at something off-screen] "HEAD… into the dark."

Lincoln: [stepping forward] "Whoa…"

[She was pointing at a skull-shaped cave entrance. The others are terrified, with scary music playing in the background.]

Me: (GULP!)

Lucy: [nudges Luan] "Ha-ha. Because it's a skull. Get it?"

[The others gulp.]

Me: That cave really gives me the creeps.

Eli: Scary.

Shaggy and Scooby were shaking like leaves.

Tentacool: Isn't Flip dead by now?

Me: Hmm.

I pulled up the cameras in the Jupiter Prison and then we saw Flip burst into flames and he screamed in pain and died in an instant!

Nico: WHOA! Flip is toast!

Me: That's what happens when you mess with farts made of blue fire. I'll have to thank Chief Wiggum for his awesome chili that did him in.

Jirachi: If Flip isn't following us, who is?

Me: I don't know. But we better keep our heads up just to be on the safe side.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets go into the cave to get that treasure.

Shaggy: Go in there!? Like not on your life! No way!

Scooby Doo: Forget it!

Me: Shaggy there are no monsters this time.

Shaggy: Like no way are we going!

Allie then grabbed Shaggy and Scooby and picked them up. We went into the cave.

Rita: "Okay, everyone. Let's stick together- and don't touch anything."

Nicole: Be careful everyone.

[-The camera pans to Lana, who is about to touch a sleeping bat. The moment Lana hears the 'don't touch anything,' she stops and grumbles, then re-joins her family. The lantern Lynn Sr.'s holding turns on.]

Lynn Sr.: "Ha-ha! There we go; let's see now."

[He looks directly at a lavishly-dressed skeleton. Startled, he stumbles back, holding the lantern high.]

Leni: [looking at the skeleton's fashion choices] "OMGosh!"

Lynn Sr.: "Leni, what are you doing?!"

Leni: "That necklace is SO vintage." [addressing the necklace on the skeleton; a spider crawls in and she notices] "Eugh! I'll trade him my sunglasses to hide those dark circles!"

Me: Leni that's a skeleton.

Leni: Oh.

Just as she was about to scream, Nico covered her mouth and shushed her.

Me: Wow looks like he was here for a really long time.

[Leni pulls out another pair of sunglasses off her head and places it on the skeleton's eyes; then she takes the necklace, which triggers a booby trap. The "throne" the skeleton is sitting glows purple due to the sunglasses. Everyone screams while the cave starts buckling.]

Me: Whoa.

[The throne is pushed into the wall]

[This reveals a deep chasm where the skeleton's foot falls into. The other Louds peek into the chasm.]

Me: Wow the skeleton triggered a door to open.

Lynn Sr.: "You did good, Leni!" [lowers the lantern - attached to a rope - down the chasm.]

Me: Lets fly down everyone.

[In the new cave, Lola lands with a grunt.]

Me: Wow.

Lincoln: "Listen closely and you shall hear, a sea song ringing in your ear."

Me: Hmm.

[Lola runs up and grabs Lincoln's cheeks.]

Lola: "Maybe we're supposed to do something with that weird guitar."

[The guitar is revealed with a glow from above lighting it. Luna is surprised.]

Me: Hmm.

Luna: "Whoa…" ["C. Kit" is written on the guitar's back. Lincoln, Lisa and Luna take a closer look.]

Lincoln: "It's Captain Kit's! Luna, can you play a sea song on it?"

Luna: "Okay, but, uh…" [strapping the guitar and taking the stage] "I only know one, so I hope it works."

Me: Go for it Luna.

[She starts to strum "Row, Row, Row Your Boat".]

Luna:

Row, row, row your boat

Gently down the stream

Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily

Life is but a dream.

[Nothing happens. The rest of the Louds look at each other in silence.]

Luna: "Hmm, that jam usually slays. Let me see the map." [Lincoln hands her the map] "Oh, now I get it. SEA song!"

Leni: [gasps] "Ooh, like, with your eyes? I don't see songs anywhere."

Luna: "No, silly. The letter C! I was playing in the wrong key."

Me: Oh I get it!

[She tunes the captain's acoustic, then starts to jam, the other Louds bopping their heads to the tune… ]

Luna:

Row, row, row your boat

Gently down the stream

Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily

Life is but a dream!

[The power of the C chord is able to open something up in the cave; two more strums, and Luna is bathed in light, which lights up the next part of the cave.]

Everyone but Luna: "Whoa…"

Luna: "Huh?" [Now she notices.] "Whoa…"

[The others, mouths agape, move closer to the lit area.]

Lincoln: "Whoa…"

Me: OH MY!

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: "We did it! We found Captain Kit's treasure!"

[The treasure the captain left behind is a large collection of shiny coins and gems.]

CHA-CHING!

[Act Two begins on the treasure.]

Lincoln: "We found the treasure!"

Me: WOW!

All Louds: "Yay!"

Lynn Sr.: "We can save Camp Mastodon!"

Me: YEAH!

[The others run into the treasure, save Lana.]

Lana: "Ya hear that, Flip? You can stop followin' us now!"

Me: He's dead Lana.

Lana: Oh.

[She joins her family, who is now basking in victory by cuddling the gold (Lynn Sr.), taking selfies with it (Lori), staying in a gold-encrusted coffin (Lucy) and looking through a gold-encrusted spyglass (Lisa)… it is a beautiful sight.]

Lynn: [on Luna] "Gold fight!"

[Lincoln, who is on Luan, engages in a gold fight with Lynn, who is on Luna.]

Rita: "Lynn, stop throwing priceless treasure at your siblings."

[Lola pops out a jar filled with gold with a doubloon.]

Lola: "Hmm, priceless?" [bites it; it crumbles, she tosses it out] "More like WORTHless. This stuff is bogus!"

Me: Lets see.

I bit it and it was made of hard plastic.

Me: She's right.

Lynn Sr.: "What?! But it's so bright and shiny! And I'm so tired…" [covers his eyes]

Luan: "So if this isn't the treasure, then what is it?"

Rita: "I don't know, but for now, everybody stop- touching things!"

Lily: Hmm.

[-Lily doesn't heed her mother's request as she, with a sneaky giggle, touches the gem that's just next to her, triggering another booby trap. However, Lana heeds the request, with a pouty grumble. The cave starts crumbling.]

Lana: "Whoa!"

Lily: [who has obtained the gem] "Pretty." [notices the cave situation] "Uh-oh…"

Lynn: "IT'S A TRAP! RUNNNNNNN!"

[The cave gives in just after the Louds run out and make it, covering the fake treasure.]

Lincoln: [sighing] "I think we're safe now."

Luna: "And also lost, bro… !"

Me: No we are never lost.

Luan: "We really brought the house down." [laughs weakly] "Get it…?" [is glared by Lincoln, Lisa, Lori, and Luna.]

[The cave starts to buckle once again, but only for a brief period. It turns out to be Lynn's stomach.]

Lynn: "Relax, that was just my stomach." [sighing in relief; glared on by the parents, Lily, Leni, and the twins, who all groan in annoyance and move forward; she notices] "Hey, wait up!" [She catches up with them.]

[The tired Louds and us are traversing the cave as two animal silhouettes make themselves known. This time Lori is leading the others. Two sets of growls are heard, causing the Louds to gasp. Lori steps forward and activates her phone's flashlight, allowing her to see a set of animal tracks.]

Lana: "Check it out - animal tracks!" [She nabs Lori's phone.]

Lori: "Hey!"

[Lana inspects the trail.]

Lana: "Maybe they'll lead us outta here!"

Me: These are Wolverine Tracks.

[She points upwards using Lori's phone; the trails stop there. Just then, a vicious wolverine pops out the small cave and roars, causing everyone else to gasp in fear. However, Lana is not fazed in the slightest, holding Lori's phone with the flashlight turned on for everyone to see.]

Lana: "Whoa - a wolverine!"

Wolverine: My brethren.

[The wolverine's cubs pop up behind their parent. Lori runs back to her family while Lana continues to be unfazed.]

Lana: "You guys… Don't be afraid; it's just trying to protect its babies!"

Me: Yep they are very territorial.

Fluttershy: Let me do this. (To the wolverines) It's okay. Can you lead us to the exit of the cave?

The Wolverines did so.

[Once again, the Louds are traversing the cave, with Lori in front trying to get a signal. However, she doesn't look where she's going and collides with a wall.]

Lori: "Oof!" [drops her phone]

Lucy: "It's a dead end." [Lori gets up] "The best kind of end." [Lori is in dismay]

Lynn Sr.: "That's it - we're stuck. We're tunnel people now… Let's just start building our new forever home." [losing it as he points towards various areas]"Here's the kitchen. And here's the den. And this'll be my man cave. Oh, who are you kidding Lynn?! The whole ding-dang thing's a cave!"

[Lincoln notices something just next to him.]

Lincoln: "Huh…? [Excitedly] Look, it's Captain Kit's hat! I saw it in Mr. Rinsler's book!"

Me: Well I'll be.

Nico: Cool.

[Luan takes the hat and wears it.]

Luan: "Don't worry, Dad. We'll find a way out of here…" [points at the hat, accidentally triggering another booby trap] "… and hat's no lie."

[A mechanism has just finished activating off-screen. The floor the Louds are stepping on crackles and breaks, causing them all to fall down and scream. The family are sent down a long slide, screaming for dear life - except for Lily and Pinkie Pie, who are seen screaming with joy. The camera cuts to Lynn Sr.'s view-point. He dodges an incoming rock while sliding.]

[We all are eventually sent flying into another cave and land with a groan. Lincoln in particular lands close to the screen.]

Lynn: "Oh, my butt… I think I added a crack."

Lana: "Anyone have any idea where we are?"

Leni: "Ooh, I know. A dark scary place."

Lincoln: "Hey, check this out."

[He has gotten up and is pointing towards a strange symbol, one which Leni's necklace seems to share.]

Lincoln: "It's the same symbol that's on the map." [pockets the map] "Hmm…"

Me: Looks like a puzzle.

Luna: [to Leni] "Dude, the top part looks like your necklace." [tugs on Leni's necklace]

Me: Yeah it sure does.

Leni: "Careful! The bone man gave me that!"

Lisa: "I think the word you're looking for is, uh, skeleton."

Lucy: "And a fine specimen it was."

Lori: "What's that bottom part of the symbol? It looks like a gemstone."

Lola: "Yeah, but we haven't seen any gems since the fake treasure room! And those are long gone."

Lily: Hmm.

[The Louds quickly get to thinking, and Lily presents the red gem she nabbed earlier.]

Lily: "Tada!"

Rita: "I know Mommy said no touching, but good girl."

[The smug Lily holds the gem high.]

Lincoln: "Let me see both pieces." [is handed the necklace and the gem, which he combines to form the symbol identical to the cut-out next to it.] "Here goes nothing…"

[He places the necklace+gem combo in the cut-out; after a brief pause, the necklace glows red.]

[The cave buckles once again, this time to open a huge door in the cave which leads them to the actual treasure. Lincoln and the others all gasp as a bright light shines in front of them. Ahead of the door is the real treasure.]

Me: WHOA!

Leni: "Are we allowed to celebrate?"

[Lola inspects a gold doubloon.]

Lola: "Hm, proper weight… good luster…" [bites into it; no crumbling this time] "It's real, all right."

Nicole: IT'S THE REAL TREASURE!

Nico: SO AWESOME!

Lana: "Let's get this party STARTED!"

[The others cheer and run towards the treasure! Lincoln and Lynn Sr. stay back for a bit, then join the others.]

Lynn: [popping out a treasure chest] "Everybody load up!"

[The others load up with all the riches they could ever dream of. Meanwhile, Lincoln and Lynn Sr. are doing a victory dance.]

Nico: YEAH!

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.:

We're gonna save Mastodon!

We're gonna save Mastodon!

[Lynn Sr.'s rump accidentally hits a button that's just next to him, triggering another booby trap.]

Me: Uh oh!

Lynn Sr.: [realizes the trap is about to trigger] "Oh… no."

[The cave starts to quake.]

Lincoln: "Heh-heh, I'm sure that's nothing…"

[A wall quickly approaches the Louds and the treasure. Lori yelps in panic.]

Lori: "Why does every wall in this place move?!"

[Everyone screams as the wall pushes the gold, and the family, off the cliff.]

Lincoln: "We're gonna drop!"

[All the gold drops, but the family doesn't, thanks to Lynn holding on with her one hand. The other Louds are holding onto Lynn's leg.]

We were flying.

Lynn: "Good thing I never skip Leg Day!" [tries to pull them up, but fails; her leg stretches further; struggling] "You guys are… egh… heavier… than I… thought… !"

[continues trying to pull them up]

Lynn Sr.: "It's not us! All this gold is weighing us down! Everyone, drop your packs!"

Lincoln: "Dad, what about the camp?"

Lynn Sr.: "What?! You guys are way more important to me than any treasure!"

Lynn: "Listen to the man!" [tries to pull up again]

[No way out; the family drops their duffels, save for one.]

Lynn Sr.: "Lola, you too."

Lola: [disgruntledly] "Ugh, okay…"

[Lola hesitantly takes out a big chest of treasure and drops it. Coincidentally, a fishing boat zooms into the lake to collect all the fallen treasure. The duffels and the chest land on the boat. The Louds gasp in horror, thinking they've given away the treasure.]

Horsea: Alright, buddy! Why are you following us?!

Lola: "Seriously?! Did we just give our treasure to FLIP?!"

Rita: [recognizing the boat] "That's not Flip. That's…"

[The man standing atop the boat taking off the hood of his coat is revealed to be SAMUEL LOUD, who opens his hood and he is alive and well.]

Samuel Loud: "Hang on, little minnows!"

Louds: "(GASPS IN SHOCK) Gramps?!"

Lynn Sr.: DAD!? YOU"RE ALIVE!

We flew down to the boat.

Me: Samuel Loud!? Wow! You're all right!

Samuel Loud: "Welcome aboard, kiddos! And it's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

[Lynn Sr. suddenly envelopes his father in a bear hug for the first time in years. He then cried hard.]

Lynn Sr.: (Crying hard) Dad I thought you were dead!

[Mr. Rinsler is packing up marshmallows when he notices all the Louds.]

Mr. Rinsler: "Oh, hey there, Louds. I was about to see how many marshmallows I can fit into my mouth! Watch!" [stuffs them all; muffled] "Thirty-two." [Lynn Sr. and Samuel thumbs him up]

Lynn Sr.: "We have amazing news!"

Samuel Loud: "You're not gonna believe this!"

Me: Yep.

Mr. Rinsler: [recognizing Samuel's face] "Is that you, Samuel Loud? You're alive! And hairier than I remember." [Samuel looks to Lynn Sr.]

Samuel Loud: "And you're older than I remember." [Mr. Rinsler grins]

Lynn Sr.: "We found Captain Kit's treasure! There were moving walls, and holes in the floor! And we rode a slide, and there was a wolverine and a bone man!"

Me: Yeah it was an awesome adventure.

[Lincoln lugs in Lola's chest of gold, which spills gold into a heap on the ground.]

Lincoln: "The point is…" [drops the chest, revealing all its treasures.] "Now you can save the camp."

Mr. Rinsler: [impressed] "Wow, that sure is a lot of gold. Thanks!"

[The Louds cheer, having finally saved Lynn Sr.'s childhood camp from closure.]

Mr. Rinsler: "But, uh, no thanks."

[The celebration is swiftly muted by this declaration.]

Lynn Sr.: "I'm sorry, what now?"

Mr. Rinsler: "Well, as great as they were, I'm afraid my Mastodon days are over."

Lynn: "Buddy, I dangled off a CLIFF for that gold!"

Me: Lynn calm down.

Mr. Rinsler: "Well, gosh. That sounds exciting, but I'm out of here next week. I bought a condo in Florida."

Louds: "Florida?!"

Mr. Rinsler: "Yep. The whole state is one giant summer camp for retirees."

Me: Oh you're retiring.

[Lynn Sr. starts to cry again; has this entire adventure been for nothing?]

Lynn Sr.: "That's it? There-there's no more camp?"

[The Louds move in to console their dad.]

Lori: "Sorry, Dad…"

Lynn Sr.: [sniffs] "I'll be okay. If this is my last time at Mastodon, it's fine, 'cause you guys gave me the best memory I'll ever have of this place."

Me: That's awesome.

[His wife and children give him a big group hug as Leonard watches.]

Samuel Loud: "Hmm, uh, a crazy thought, but, uh, what if it didn't have to be the last time?"

[Lisa pulls away and gasps.]

Lisa: "Of course! I'll rip a hole in the space-time continuum, construct a time machine out of Gramps' boat, and send us back 30 years to enjoy Camp Mastodon in days of yore."

Me: That's a crazy idea.

Samuel: "I was thinking maybe I'd just take over the camp."

Lisa: [crosses her arms] "Oh, sure. If you want to do it the easy way."

Me: Hey that's not a bad idea.

Lynn Sr.: "Wait, wh-what are you talking about, Dad? You've been a fisherman your whole life. I thought you loved it."

Samuel Loud: "I do, but, uh, I think it's time for this salty dog to, uh, to drop anchor. I've always loved Mastodon. Plus, I'll get to spend more time with the family I've been missing all these years ever since I died…"

[Samuel Loud starts to tear up, and so does his son; they hug, both sobbing their hearts out.]

Luna: "Yeah, those dudes are most definitely related."

Me: They sure are. Wait that reminds me. Samuel how did you come back after all these years even after I got justice for you after having Derick Daniel Monroe executed?

Samuel Loud: Lets just say that God gave me a second chance.

Me: Wow!

Mr. Rinsler: [laughing in joy] "Well, this is perfect. It would be my honor to turn the camp over to you, Samuel."

Samuel Loud: "And it would be my honor to carry on your legacy, Rinsler. But I am gonna need that treasure."

[Lola is perusing the treasure for her's to keep; Rita clears her throat off-screen. Lola notices Rita and Lily scowling at her.]

Lola: [rolling her eyes in annoyance] "Fine!" [flicks away a coin]

[Samuel and Lynn Sr. do the Mastodon handshake.]

Samuel and Lynn Sr.: "Yeah, heh-heh-heh, mm-mm-mm, ooh!"

[This time they fall to the floor instead of being hip-checked. Lincoln looks at the joyous father-and-son duo, and to the map which made it all possible… ]

Lincoln: "Thanks, Captain Kit."

Me: This was one awesome treasure hunt.

---

[The camp, now under Samuel, is bustling with activity once again. the camera cuts to a close-up of Lynn Sr. and Samuel, standing side-by-side close together and putting their arms around each other.]

Lynn Sr.: "Look at us running the ol' three-legged race again…"

Samuel: "Yep, and it's even better with 24 legs! Right, my little minnows?"

[The camera zooms out, revealing that all the Louds are taking part in the race. Mr. Rinsler blows the whistle, and the Louds get to running. Leonard and Lynn Sr. are noticeably faster then the others and finish first, but tumble into a bush.]

Samuel and Lynn Sr.: "Oof!" [they emerge]

Me: You two all right?

Samuel: "Poison ivy?"

Lynn Sr.: [tearing up] "It itches just like I remember…"

[They tearfully hug each other.]

Lynn Sr.: "I love you so much, Dad!"

Samuel: "I love you so much, Lynn!"

Lynn: [deadpan] "Yup, definitely related."

William: This has been the best day before a war ever.

Me: It sure has William. Samuel, thank goodness you are all right. Mr. Lynn was absolutely devastated when he thought you were dead. Ever since that day over 30 years ago he was ABSOLUTELY terrified of Halloween. But we've been helping him get over his fear.

Eli: Yeah no kidding. But thank goodness you're back.

Samuel Loud: And it's great that you all were helping Lynn. I'm so happy that he achieved his dream of being a great restaurant owner.

Nico: He makes some of the best food we've ever had.

Eli: Boy he sure does.

Laney: Yeah grandpa. We have so much to tell you.

Samuel Loud: I can't wait to hear it.

Nico: You will love it.

We got to telling him everything.

I later looked out over the horizon as the sun was setting.

Me: Team Dark Phoenix Storm, you better be ready. (EYES GLOW RED) TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM IS COMING FOR YOU AND WE'RE GOING TO MAKE SURE YOU PAY FOR YOUR CRIMES! WE ARE READY FOR YOU! HIT US WITH YOUR BEST SHOT!

Camped from The Loud House was a really cool episode! The episode aired on May 31st, 2021 and it was awesome! I thought it was so awesome how the Loud's all went on a great treasure hunt to save Lynn Sr.'s camp and it was great! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Get ready everyone for the moment you've all been waiting for. Tomorrow we go into war against Team Dark Phoenix Storm lead by Mr. Mind and his evil group. It's gonna be both a combination of The Loud House Movie and a battle that will decide the ultimate fate of the planet. No rescues during that chapter. It's all about the safety of the world.

See you all tomorrow. I got this chapter done already because I woke up early. But send me additional scenes for this chapter just to be on the safe side.

THE LOUD HOUSE REVAMPED THE MOVIE: SCOTTISH CASTLE & TLPS VS TDPS

---

[The movie begins with a shot above the clouds; the camera phases through them to reveal the town of Royal Woods, Michigan, 22 Years Ago*, before it was turned into Gotham Royal York and before Team Loud Phoenix Storm was born, to which the camera pans over. A younger Lynn Sr. is dancing out of a movie theater as a song starts to play. As he goes, he finger-guns at a younger Kotaro, who is painting; he thumbs Lynn Sr. up. Lynn Sr. continues to dance in front of Flip's Fruit and Freeze cart; Flip gives him a snow cone.]*

Woke up just like any morning

New day, same sunlight pouring down

[After eating said snow cone, Lynn Sr. dances past a younger Mr. Grouse, who is reading a newspaper. Mr. Grouse takes his eyes off the paper, and his eyes widen.]

Danced on to the beat I'm drumming

High hopes pulled my feet off the ground

[Lynn Sr. continues to dance. Meanwhile, a younger Rita, as a crossing guard, is busy allowing children and one teacher to cross. She looks over and covers her face with the "stop" sign, but takes a quick peek at the dancing Lynn Sr., who is now dancing in front of the school's entrance. It is love at first sight for Rita.]

Heart stopped, didn't see you coming

Felt like you took my breath away

[As Lynn Sr. shimmies over to her, Rita turns around and pulls out her compact and lipstick, putting the latter on and swishing her ponytail.]

I knew this was the start of something

And I think I knew you felt the same

[Lynn Sr. pulls Rita into a twirl. The moment he sees Rita, he too is imbued with love at first sight. The two lock each other in the eyes.]

Time frozen, eyes open

Spun my world around in motion

Just a step away

Just a slip of fate

[The school bell rings, and a lot of children pass, taking Rita with them. Rita collects herself and takes one last look at Lynn Sr., who is touched; he realizes she slipped a love letter into his pocket. The scene changes to their first date at Banger's & Mosh, laughing. The camera spins to Lynn Sr. proposing to Rita in a meadow, and spins again to them getting married before fading to them in front of the recently-sold Loud House.]

Oh, you'd never know how one simple interaction

Could lead you down a road where anything can always happen

The picture in our mind changes all the time

Bigger than what we'd imagined

We wouldn't change a thing about it now

Life is better loud

[Cut to inside the Loud House. Lynn Sr. notices Rita is pregnant and is embracing the bump. Camera flashes show baby Lori being embraced by the parents, baby Leni's sunglasses falling over her eyes after toddling to Rita and hugging her, baby Luna playing with Lynn Sr.'s cowbell, baby Luan playing with sock puppets, baby Lynn playing soccer with her sisters and parents before kicking the ball out the window, and the parents introducing baby Lincoln to his sisters. The sisters all awe at Lincoln and look at each other excitedly. The next few shots show Leni and Lori giving Lincoln a makeover, Luna showing him a rock pose before he taps her nose, Luan performing to the other sisters while using him as a ventriloquist's dummy, Lynn beating him at a game of four-in-a-row, and him about to cry and getting cheered up when his sisters embrace him.]

Ain't no stopping now

Life is better loud

[The photo zooms out to reveal a photo album. The next few photos show baby Lucy with her bangs grown out, baby Laney painting beautiful pictures and little Lincoln and Lucy loving them, the parents bringing baby Lola and Lana into the house, baby Lisa helping Lori with her homework, and Lily posing happily. The final shot shows the parents in front of the Loud House, followed by their 11 kids. The camera zooms in on Lily toddling by before cutting to her walking past the logo of the original show.]

Oh, it feels like home no matter where we are together

Wish we'd always known the bigger crowd was always better

We wouldn't change a thing about it now

Life is better loud (In the Loud House! In the Loud House!)

Life is better loud (In the Loud House! In the Loud House!)

OCTOBER 10th, 2021

---

[Present day. It is an early morning at the Loud House. Lily is heard laughing, followed by Lincoln. Cut to Lincoln's room, where the two mentioned siblings are sitting on the latter's bed.]

Lily: Morning Linky.

Lincoln: "Morning, Lily, I didn't wake you up at six in the morning just to play." [Lily laughs again.] "It's time for another lesson on how to survive in a big family."

Lily: [determined] "I'm ready!."

Lincoln: "Lesson #374." [turns on a projector; the first slide shows Lynn Sr. with a platter of burritos] "Breakfast Burrito Saturday."

Lily: [gasps] "Dad's burritos!"

Lincoln: "Yep and we have to be ready for anything…" [The next slide shows an image of Lily; an arrow pointing at her one tooth.] "You'll want one of Dad's famous breakfast burritos all to yourself."

[The next slide shows Lily at the dining room table with a burrito in front of her.]

Lily: [reacting to the slide] "Hey that's me when I was a baby. I forgot how cute I was before I got my powers!"

Lincoln: "Just like your sisters."

[The next slide after that shows all nine other sisters reaching out to take Lily's burrito.]

Lily: "There's everyone! Wow I can't believe how much we all like dad's burritos."

Lincoln: "Which means it's you against them at the table."

Lily: Yep.

[The next slide shows a fight cloud from all 11 sisters.]

Lily: [gasps] "This is gonna be good."

Lincoln: "Don't worry, because your big brother is the Man with the Plan. Patent pending."

[The next two slides read LINCOLN LOUD: MAN WITH THE PLAN, with a "Patent Pending" sticker at the bottom left corner on one of the slides.]

Lily: I'm ready for anything big bro.

Lincoln: "And today's plan…" [turns off the projector and the room's lights are now turned on] "… is to get to those burritos before our sisters wake up." [sniffs the air] "I can smell 'em now. Okay, Lily, it's go time!"

Lily: Lets do it!

[Lincoln tears away his pajamas to reveal his usual every day clothing. Lily follows suit by tearing off her pajamas to reveal her casual clothes and she was ready for action.]

Lincoln: "Now all you need to do is just watch and learn. Because around here, no one outsmarts Lincoln…" [He opens the bathroom door, only to meet something… or a couple someone's… unexpected.] "… Loud."

[The rest of Lincoln's sisters just happen to be standing in the hallway.]

Lori: [smirks] "Nice try, Lincoln, but you're not the only one who remembered it's Breakfast Burrito Saturday."

Me: Same with me buddy and we need all the time we can get if we're going to be ready for the war today.

Nico: Yep.

Sisters: "Yay! Burritos!"

[The sisters rush downstairs in burrito-induced excitement, though the Man with the Plan isn't letting a wrench in his plan ruin it. He takes the carpet and waves it, creating a fabric wave that sends the sisters wayward and into the open front door, which Lily closes.]

Lori: " Lincoln! "

[Lincoln, who had just taken the banister downstairs, high-fives his baby sister, who laughs triumphantly.]

Lily: Woohoo!

Lincoln: "The key to having a plan is to always have a backup plan."

Lily: "And I'm ready for that!"

[At the dining room, Lynn Sr. enters from the kitchen, dancing with a plate of burritos]

Lynn Sr.: " Hot, burritos, hot, hot burritos, hey! Do a little dance and move your feet-os! " [notices Lincoln and Lily at the table] "Hey! Morning, Lincoln." [rubs Lily's nose] "Hello, Lily."

Lily: "Morning daddy."

Laney: Hi dad.

Me: Morning Mr. Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: "Morning guys. You sure love my burritos huh guys." [kisses Lily cheek and Lily giggles; to Lincoln] "Hey, where's the rest of your sisters? I thought I heard them coming down."

Lincoln: "Did you?" [slyly] "Huh…"

Me: You make awesome burritos Mr. Lynn.

Laney: You sure do.

[He prepares to take a bite, but the front door opens, and the other sisters storm in and glare at the 5 of us.]

Lincoln: [about to become toast] "Uh-oh."

Me: I got this!

[The girls all jump on us and fight for the burritos, causing a fight

cloud to ensue. Lincoln, Laney, Me, Nico and Lily are revealed to have hidden under the table, safe from the fight.]

Lincoln: [sighs] "Sorry, Lily. So much for watching and learning."

Lily: That's all right. I came prepared.

[Lily reveals she has a burrito in a pocket.]

Lily: "Backup plan!"

Laney: Nice job Lily.

Lincoln: [impressed] "Oh-ho-ho! The student has become the master!"

Nico: Nice job Lily.

Laney: That's my sister.

Me: Way to go.

[Master and apprentice split the burrito, toast with their halves, and dig in. Meanwhile, the other sisters are still fighting for the rest of the burritos; Luan, Lynn, Lori, Luna and the twins are engaged in a tug-of-war, Leni uses her superior height to keep her burrito away from Lisa's little arms, and Lucy is unharmed, eating her burrito. Suddenly, a whistle is blown off-screen, ceasing the burrito brawl. Rita appears, holding the whistle.]

Rita: "Lola, we need to go if you want to make it to your recital on time."

Lisa: "Don't forget my science fair!"

Lucy: "I have the Junior Morticians' Death Match."

Lana: "I'm working pit crew at the race track!"

Laney: Ballet recital!

[The rest of the girls (sans Leni) all ramble, saying they have an activity to attend to as well… ]

Lynn: "Soccer playoffs!"

Luan: "Joke-A-Palooza!"

Luna: "Don't forget my shred-off!"

Rita: [screams in shock] "You all have activities today?!"

Leni: "Not me." [Rita sighs in relief] "I just have my fashion show."

Rita: [shocked] "That's an activity, honey!"

[A frazzled Lynn Sr. enters, seeing the unprepared state of his wife.]

Lynn Sr.: "We're not prepared for this. This is a ding-dang disaster! What do we do?!" [runs around, freaking out] "Don't panic! Don't panic!" [screams] "DON'T PANIC!"

[Rita and the girls are freaking out as well, with Lynn Sr. gnawing on the doorway to the kitchen. Lincoln and Lily pull up the tablecloth.]

I honked an air horn and I had my wings plugging my ears. It got everyone's attention.

Me: Sorry.

Lincoln: "Relax, everybody." [They crawl out from the table, walking toward the living room] "We got this."

[Everyone relaxes, and smiles, knowing he does got this.]

Me: We can help out.

Lincoln: "Another lesson, Lily. It's always more important to help your family than to outsmart 'em."

Lily: Got it. (Takes notes) I also have a photography contest today. Can you guys help me out too?

Me: Absolutely and we all can be there because it's great having your friends to be there for you whenever.

[After placing headphones on the infant, he pulls out a megaphone.]

Lincoln: "Alright Louds, let's go, go, go!" [puts away the megaphone and holds up Lori's golf clubs] "Lori, golf clubs."

Lori: [takes them and heads out the door] "Thanks, Linc!"

Me: And I have extra golf balls just in case.

I held up a package of sky blue golf balls for her.

Lori: Thanks J.D.

Lincoln: [holds up some measuring tape] "Leni, measuring tape."

Leni: [takes it and heads out] "Thanks, Lincoln!"

Lincoln: [holds up Luna's guitar, and a microphone] "Luna, guitar."

Luna: [takes them and heads out] "Thanks, bro!"

Me: Don't forget your extra lucky pick!

I held up a guitar pick that was purple and teal green and it had a rainbow flag for gay and lesbian pride on it and it said SaLuna 4Ever on it.

Luna: Thanks dude!

We high five!

Lincoln: [holds up a soccer ball] "Lynn, soccer ball." [tosses it to Lynn]

Lynn: [has the ball bouncing on her head as she heads out] "Yeah-yuh!"

Lightning: Kiss for good luck babe?

Lynn and Lightning kissed.

THUNDERCLAP!

Lightning and Lynn were a match made in heaven.

Lincoln: [holds up a rubber chicken] "Luan, rubber chicken."

[Luan takes the rubber chicken and laughs.]

Eddy: (Laughs) We're ready!

[Cut to outside the World Tree Estate where the girls are heading to Vanzilla 2 at the base of the ginormous tree as Lincoln continues to hand his sisters their belongings.]

Lincoln: "Lucy, black veil."

Lucy: "Thanks." [heads to the van, putting on the veil]

Rocky Spokes: Ready for another funeral.

Lucy Loud: Same here Rocky.

Lincoln: Laney, your tutu and flowers. [Hands Laney her green tutu and it had beautiful flowers all over it.]

Laney: Thanks Lincoln.

Me: (To the viewers) Laney's ballet play is for The Firebird Suite by Igor Stravinsky. That's one of my favorites.

Nico: Awesome.

Lincoln: "Lola, flaming baton."

Lola: "Thanks, Lincoln!" [heads to the van, twirling her baton]

Nico: Careful Lola.

Lincoln: "Lana…" [grunts] "Wrench set."

Lana: "Thanks, Linc!" [heads to the van, carrying her wrench set]

[Lincoln and Lisa walk out of the house next, with Lincoln holding a beaker of some colored liquid.]

Lincoln: "Lisa, ammonium di…"

Lisa: "Dichromate. Thank you, male sibling."

[Lisa takes the beaker and heads to the van; the parents as well.]

Me: Here's your camera Lily.

Lily: Thanks J.D.

I gave it to her.

Rita: "Alright, we got everything?" [rubs Lincoln's head as she passes him]

Lynn Sr.: "Yup, we're good to go!"

Me: We're off!

---

[On the road.]

Lynn Sr.: "Okay, where to first?"

Lucy: [in unison] "Cemetery."

Lana: [in unison] "Race track!"

Lynn: [in unison] "Soccer field!"

Lincoln: [quiets them] "Dad, Lori's first." [points toward] "Take a right!"

[Lynn Sr. floors it. At the golf course, a putt shoots the golf ball toward the hole, done by Lori. She manages to sink it in, and the crowd of people politely applaud. Leonard the Pig Kig and some of his army was there too to cheer her on as well. The Loud family on the other hand, certainly have their own way of "applause". Lincoln takes a picture on his phone and Lori is given a trophy for coming in first place.]

Leonard the Pig King: WAY TO GO LORI!

Me: Way to go Lori!

Roxanne Santiago: That's my awesome mom!

Lori: "Can someone please hold this for a minute?"

Lincoln: [drives a golf cart up to her] "I got it!" [Lori gives him the trophy and then takes a selfie] "Leni's next!"

Me: I got that buddy.

I snapped my fingers and beamed the trophy into the Trophy Case.

Lincoln: Thanks J.D.

[Lynn Sr. inserts the keys in to start the van and drives out of the course.]

Lincoln: "Go left! I know a shortcut!"

[Vanzilla jerks left as the smoke transitions to Leni sliding a sewing needle into a lime green dress. The model presents it and gets applause from the audience. Leni beams and walks out, squealing excitedly. King Hiss was there for Leni to cheer her on as well. The family cheer for her as Lincoln takes another picture. Leni holds up her trophy and gives it to Lincoln as he runs across.]

King Hiss: Great job Leni.

Me: What a most amazing dress.

Rarity: Oh Leni darling that dress was simply amazing!

Leni: Thanks guys.

Ed: That's my amazing girlfriend guys.

Lincoln: "Gotta go!"

I beamed Leni's trophy into the trophy case.

[Back in the van… ]

Lynn Sr.: "Who's next?"

Lincoln: "It's Luna time!"

Me: LETS ROCK ON FOR LUNA!

[Lynn Sr. spins the steering wheel around, having Vanzilla turn another direction. Cut to Luna, on stage, performing a wicked solo on her trusty guitar. The family, including Sam, all cheer for her. Even Hydro Man too.]

Sam S.L.: ROCK ON DUDETTE!

Hydro Man was there too!

Hydro Man: GO LUNA! YEAH! ROCK ON!

Lincoln: "Go, Luna!" [wolf-whistles]

Me: WOOHOO! YEAH!

Nico: ROCK ON LUNA!

Eli: YEAH!

[Luna continues to rock out, letting out one final note, literally blowing the audience away. The family cheer for her once again as Lincoln takes another picture. Luna holds up her trophy happily. Cut to outside.]

Luna: [gives him her trophy] "Thanks, bro!"

I beamed the trophy for Luna into the trophy case.

Lincoln: [on the megaphone] "Go, go, go!"

[The Louds head inside the van while Lincoln tosses the megaphone away into the trunk, followed by one of Luna's amps, and closes the trunk. Vanzilla pulls up at the Chortle Portal next.]

Luan: [doing her stand-up routine] "Why did the chicken cross the playground?

Me: I don't know!

Eli: Why did the chicken cross the playground?

Luan: To get to the other slide !" [squeezes the rubber chicken and laughs]

WE LAUGHED HYSTERICALLY! Even Vypra thought it was really funny! Some of us even had MILK BLOWING OUT OF OUR NOSES!

[One of the judges spits out her water onto another judge, having him fall out of his seat all the while laughter can be heard. The judges all give Luan a ten. Luan holds up her trophy and the family cheers.]

Vypra: That was awesome!

Eli: Yeah it sure was!

Eddy: (LAUGHING) That was funny!

Luan: [calling out] "Hey, Lincoln!"

[Lincoln runs up and Luan gives him the trophy.]

Lincoln: "I got it."

I beamed it to the trophy case.

[Vanzilla drives up to the soccer field. Lynn kicks the soccer ball.]

Lynn: "She shoots…"

[The family gasps in suspense. Lynn manages to make the winning goal.]

Lynn: "She scores!"

Me: WAY TO GO LYNN AND LIGHTNING!

Shiv: YEAH! GO GUYS!

Sportsmaster: Way to go guys!

Lightning: SHA-BLAM! YEAH! LIGHTNING AND LYNN! THE VOLCANIC LIGHTNING DUO DOES IT AGAIN!

[Lynn and Lightning are both given the MVP trophy and they both are held up in the air by their teammates as the family cheers] "Lincoln, catch!"

[Lynn tosses the trophies Lincoln's way. The trophies hits Lincoln in the face but he manages to catch them.]

Lincoln: "Oof! Got it!" [falls over] "Dang it."

Me: You'll be all right buddy.

Varie looked him over and healed him and I beamed the trophies to the Trophy case.

[Vanzilla drives past the cemetery, where the Junior Morticians' Death Match is taking place at.]

SCARY BUT COOL.

[Webstor, the Goths of Darkness and the Dark Signers are watching and Bertrand is given third, Haiku is given second, and Lucy is given the trophy for first as she stands up from the grave. Lucy holds it up while the two competitors applaud, as well as Lincoln.]

Webstor: That was a perfect performance.

Carly Atlas: You guys were great!

Roman: I'll say. Good job.

Misty Tredwell: You guys were awesome and you gave it your all.

Lucy: "Lincoln."

[Lincoln walks over and grabs the trophy from her. Once he did, Lucy lets herself fall back into the grave, smiling. Lincoln takes notice of this, circles back, and drags her away.]

Brittney: Congratulations Lucy.

Me: That's our little vampire. But the Goths all did good too.

Haiku: Thanks J.D.

Rocky kissed Lucy and she blushed.

Lincoln: Laney is next!

Vanzilla pulled up to the Gotham Royal York Theater and Bane was with us as we were watching the Firebird Suite and Laney was dressed up as the Sprite of Spring and she used her plant powers to add awesome special effects and it was great! We watched the whole performance and it was one that Mother Nature would absolutely love. Some of us even used our powers to make awesome special effects with fire and volcanic eruptions and more. When it was done we cheered wildly and even Bane bursted into tears for Laney as she was given a VERY Beautiful green flower and nature crystal trophy and it was awesome.

Laney: Thanks for coming to support me guys.

Me: You're welcome Laney.

Fluttershy: You were so amazing Laney.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) I thought you were most amazing Laney.

Joey: (British Accent) That was most amazing Laney.

Laney got kissed on the cheek and she blushed.

Me: Aww.

Nico: So awesome.

Vince: That was awesome.

Laney: Mind putting this into the trophy case J.D.?

Me: Not at all Laney.

I snapped my fingers and beamed it there.

Lincoln: "You're next, Lola!"

[Vanzilla pulls up at the Gotham Royal York Park Towers Hotel. Lola performs her flaming-baton twirling for the talent portion at the pageant, and is crowned the winner. Winston, Firefly and Lindsey Sweetwater cheered for her. As she waves to the crowd, she notices Lincoln taking the crown off her head.]

Firefly: Way to go Lola!

Me: That's our awesome beauty queen.

Lola: "Uh-uh!" [slaps Lincoln's hand and takes it back]

Lincoln: "Ow!"

Lola: "Sorry Linky."

[Lincoln rubs his hand for a second, and shakes it off.]

Lincoln: "Come on!" [heads inside the van] "We gotta get to Lana's race!"

Me: Lets go!

[The family follows suit, and Vanzilla then pulls up at the race track, coincidentally being next to the hotel. Lana, and the rest of the pit crew, just finished repairing Bobbie Fletcher's car, and the race goes underway. Later on, all the cars pass the checkered flag, and Lincoln cheers. Vexen and Skippy cheer wildly for them as Lana and the crew seemingly pose for a photo as a woman, holding a wreath, walks up to them.]

Me: ALL RIGHT LANA!

Vexen: That's our little Mechanic!

Skippy: Way to go!

Lana: [points to her brother] "Lincoln will hold it."

[The woman places the wreath around Lincoln's neck. I beamed the wreath to the trophy case. Vanzilla's last stop is at the institute.]

Lincoln: "Lisa, you're up!"

[Her focus at its highest, Lisa drops a chemical into a beaker, causing a chemical reaction. Later, she solves an equation on a chalkboard, clapping the erasers. The scientists applaud and my head was sparking and smoke came out of my ears as well as my eyes having a red crash screen in them, upon noticing the family's erupts of cheer. I shake my head to REBOOT myself as me and Professor Calamitous cheer for her and Lisa holds up her ribbon, and gives it to Lincoln; both staring confidently.]

Me: That's our little genius!

Calamitous: She is simply an amazing archenemy.

Lincoln: Last up is Lily!

We went to a meadow in Eastern Michigan on Lake Huron near the Canadian Border and Lily snapped a photo of a beautiful picture of all of Gotham Royal York with the World Tree Estate in it and it was a magnificent and beautiful picture! Lily won the best picture ever trophy and it was selling all over the world like mad! Me, Ebon and Carlitos cheered for her.

Me: Way to go Lily!

Ebon: Yeah! Awesome photo! It's gonna be perfect on the wall for M.O.E. HQ.

Lily: Thanks guys.

[Vanzilla pulls up at Lynn Sr.'s restaurant: Lynn's Table.]

Sisters: [chanting and getting out of the van] "We are the Louds! Loud and proud! We are the Louds! Loud and proud! We are the Louds… !"

We had a great time with our favorite meals and it was great!

[The van door shuts while Lincoln, Lily, Laney, Rita, and Lynn Sr.

stay behind. Exhausted, the parents let out a breather. We managed to get everything the Loud's do done in over 4 hours. Record setting time!]

Rita: [exhausted] "Oh! We did it. Thank you, Lincoln."

Lynn Sr.: "You sure know how to keep the old Loud fam' running smoothly, kiddo."

Lincoln: Thanks guys.

Me: You're welcome buddy. You are an awesome friend and a great brother.

[Lincoln smiles at the compliment as gentle music plays in the background. Meanwhile, inside the restaurant, the sisters are all sat at a booth, still chanting. Lincoln, Lily, and their parents enter the scene, smiling.

Lynn Sr.: [to Rita] "Honey, let's get a pic of the kids for our Loud Wall of Fame."

Me: Great idea!

Rita: "Oh, great idea!" [pulls out her phone] "Everyone, hold up your trophies!"

[The girls start to pull out their trophies after I beamed them to them.]

Leni: "Get my good side."

Lola: "I only have good sides."

Lynn: [holds her trophy up] "Yeah!"

Lucy: [holds hers up next] "Not sure I'll show up, but…"

Luan: "Get my funny side."

Lincoln: [dodges a few trophies practically thrown his way] "Whoa!

Hey! Watch out!"

I gave Lincoln his own trophy and it was for me and him. It was Lincoln Loud, AWESOME BEST FRIEND AND LOVER OF AMAZING GIRLS AND AN AWESOME FAMILY!

Rita: "Okay, everyone, squeeze in."

Sisters: "Sisters!"

Me, Nico, Eli, and Lincoln: BROTHERS!

[Rita takes the photo, and we were all in it!]

Me: Awesome photo!

Nico: YEAH!

Eli: Yeah! Great picture!

Later it was a great time for all of us.

Lynn Sr.: [wiping a tear in pride] "You're ding-dang darn tootin'!"

Rita: "They are very special."

Me: All your kids are awesome.

[The parents embrace Lily, who giggles, and Lincoln has been watching all that as his face slowly adapts to a sad, yet depressive expression.]

Lincoln sighed.

[Lincoln looks down. The sisters are basking in it now.]

Lynn: "Guess what?! I'm gonna be in the newspaper!"

Lola: "That lady wants to interview us on TV!"

Lori: "Most 'likes' ever!"

Lola: "Me too!"

[An electric guitar starts to play an introduction in the background as Lincoln continues to watch through the window.]

Lynn Sr.: "How cool is that?!"

Sisters: [shouting] "YEAH!" [cheering]

Lynn Sr.: "Let's go home and put these trophies on display!"

Luan: "Yeah!"

Lincoln: [sighs in despondence] "I wish everyone thought I was special…" [starts singing]

They say it doesn't matter

How you look or where you've been

So why do I need a thousand likes

To feel like I fit in?

[Lincoln walks away from the window, and out into the town of Royal Woods on a starry night. A flyer blocks Lincoln's face. He takes it off him and stares at it. The flyer displays his sisters with "LOUD SISTERS!" as the header. He moves his thumb away to show he's in the photo too, but is being pushed away by Lola.]

I'd probably have it easy

If I were the only kid

But when you live with ten superstars

It's hard for you to win

[Lincoln lies down onto the pavement outside the old abandoned Flip's Food and Fuel. After Flip died it was left to rot like an open wound and there was even condemned signs on it all over the place.]

I wish I could be

Someone extraordinary

But I'm just me

And that's too ordinary

Is there ever gonna be

A place in the spotlight just for me?

[The display televisions in front of the store's window behind Lincoln are apparently broadcasting his as well as his sisters' talents.]

When the world can finally see

I'm special like my family

Will there be a time

When I really shine?

[During the chorus, Lincoln spins around onto a street lamp, then runs to another one. Its light casting on him goes out.]

Am I always gonna be

Plain old ordinary me? (Ah-ah-ah)

[Lincoln walks to another street lamp, and that one goes out too. Then two lights above shine onto a billboard, which displays his sisters. The scene fades to Lincoln as he finishes the song… ]

Plain old ordinary me?

Am I always gonna be

Plain old, regular, boring

Unremarkable, ordinary me?

[Lincoln puts his head down onto a counter. The spotlight silhouette fades away and shows that he is now at the McBride house. Clyde stares at him, looking concerned.]

Clyde: "Ordinary? You're talking crazy."

Lincoln: [adjusts his posture] "You're just saying that because you're my best friend. Name one thing that makes me special."

Clyde: "How about three? You've read every single Ace Savvy comic twice…" [Lincoln is suddenly in his Ace Savvy cosplay, and sports a heroic grin] "You're the fifth best junior magician in Royal Woods…" [Another Lincoln is in his magician attire; cards spew out from inside his hat] "And that history report you wrote? It was like I was at the signing of the Declaration of Independence!"

Me: Yeah buddy you are also a great member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. And you're also one of the founding fathers of the team. Hence the L for Loud.

[That last statement proves just that, and Clyde smiles. Poof transition back to Clyde's kitchen.]

Clyde: "Oh! And you can sing. That's five !"

Lincoln: "Oh yeah. Anyone can do those things." [groans] "Admit it, Clyde. I'm always going to be stuck in my sisters' shadows!" [buries his face into the counter]

Me: Lincoln don't say that. You'll never be stuck in Laney, Lily or my shadow. You are great.

Clyde: "I know exactly what'll cheer you up." [dives behind the counter; seconds later, he re-emerges with… ] "My homemade cream puffs. Or as I like to call them…" [sets them down] "'dream puffs'."

Me: Ooh those look yummy.

[Lincoln takes one of the puffs, and eats it, savoring the taste. It is at this moment, his emotional dam finally breaks, breaking into tears and banging the counter.]

Me: Oh Lincoln.

Clyde: "What?! What is it?! Too much cinnamon?! Not enough cinnamon?! Actually, the recipe doesn't call for cinnamon, but I can add it in -"

Lincoln: "No, no, no, Clyde, it's the best!" [eats another, then sobs a bit; his voice wavering] "It's just that you, my sisters…" [takes another puff] "Everyone is good at something. Except me…" [continues to cry]

[The camera zooms into Clyde's worried face.]

Clyde's Thoughts: " Nice one, Clyde. You just made it worse ! "

Clyde: "Well, I'm not that good at baking."

Me: No Clyde you ARE great at baking! You can even work for Pinkie Pie at Sugarcube Corner. But it's just that Lincoln is feeling down because he thinks he doesn't have any talent.

Clyde: Oh.

[Hearing that, Lincoln puts down his cream puff, gets off his stool, and walks off.]

Lincoln: "Then how do you explain this ?"

[Lincoln waves a hand at all the different trophies, ribbons, and other various awards Clyde has received in baking, and there are a lot of them.]

Clyde: "I'm just lucky." [walks toward the awards] "Baking runs in my family."

Lincoln: "What do you mean?"

[Flashback to Clyde and his Nana Gayle heading up the steps of a plane, waving goodbye to Clyde's dads, Howard and Harold.]

Clyde: "Remember when I took that trip to France with Nana Gayle?"

[The plane flies overhead, then the camera pans down to a bakery. An elderly dark-skinned woman is standing in front of it, holding a basket of bread in one hand, and a recipe book in the other.]

Clyde: "That's where I met my great Nana May, who owns a bakery in Paris."

Nana May: "Bonjour."

Clyde: "She told me about my great-great Nana Collette, who ran a crepe shop in Calais."

[Cuts to his Nana Collette outside her bakery, holding two crepes, and her recipe book]

Nana Collette: "Bonjour."

Clyde: "And my great-great-great-great-great Nana Helene, who baked for the French royal family."

[Another cut to his Nana Helene, standing inside her bakery, holding a desert, and her recipe book.]

Nana Helene: "Enchanté."

[Another flashback takes its place. Gayle holds up the recipe books.]

Clyde: "When I got home, Nana Gayle showed me their recipe books, and I made cream puffs."

[Cuts to Clyde and Gayle making the cream puffs.]

Clyde: "She said baking was in my genes, just like Nana May, Nana Collette, and Nana Helene."

[The flashback ends. Lincoln gasps excitingly.]

Clyde: "Sorry, was that confusing? It was a lot of nanas."

Me: Boy I didn't know you had so many nanas Clyde. That's amazing.

Lincoln: "No. You just gave me an awesome idea!" [heads off] "You're the best, best friend ever!" [shuts the front door and leaves]

Me: Whoa wait for me! See you later Clyde!

Laney: See ya.

[The slight impact of the door shutting seemed to have made one of the awards tilt, and Clyde adjusts it back to its correct angle. Just then, the door opens, Lincoln runs back in, then walks back out carrying the cream puffs, and then the door closes again. The award tilts, and Clyde adjusts it once more.]

---

[Meanwhile, it is night time at the Loud House… ]

Rita: "Hey, kiddos, it's late. Time to get ready for bed." [Lori is texting, and Leni is painting her nails, in their rooms] "Last one has to take out the garbage!" [Luan is reading a joke book, and Luna is strumming her guitar on her bed. Lynn and Lucy are in their rooms… ] "For the rest of the month!"

[Hearing this sends the siblings into a rush-induced frenzy; Lynn and Lucy cat-fight each other, the twins are stuck at their doorway as they wrestle for firsties, Lily is chewing on her rattle as Lisa, who had heard the announcement, drops the chemical she's working on without looking, starting to cause an explosion. She notices and starts her own rush.]

Lisa: "Uh-oh! A suburb time to evacuate the premises!"

Lily: Lets go!

[She rushes out her door, with Lily in tow, as the others exit to the bathroom… ]

Lori: "I get the mirror first!"

Luna: "Not happenin', dude!"

[Leni just exits.]

Luan: "You can't brush me off!" [laughs]

[Lynn and Lucy are still cat-fighting each other, and the twins have finally exited their room as Lisa and Lily run towards the bathroom.]

Lisa: "Quickly! Let's skedaddle!"

[All four are able to make it as the chemical explodes.]

---

[Later, everyone is in the bathroom brushing their teeth, except for Leni, who is brushing her hair, Luan, who is flossing her teeth, Lily, who is gargling mouthwash, Laney who is brushing her hair, and Lynn Sr., who is trying to pluck out nose hairs.]

Maria: Thanks for joining us, Trinitro Man.

Trinitro Man: Not a problem Maria. It's an honor to be part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: And your arrival couldn't be more perfect in terms of timing. We're going into battle against Team Dark Phoenix Storm and we're going to face 24 of the most dangerous enemies we've ever faced.

Me: But with you with us we're ready for anything.

Eli: That's right.

Allie Wilde: If we make it out of this guys, I want me and my fellow co-wives to wed J.D. afterwards.

Celica: That's right.

We laughed.

Varie: That will be awesome.

Me: Yes it would. But I promised I wouldn't wed you all till 7 more years from now. Till I'm 25.

Nico: Very noble promise.

Lori: [angrily to Leni] "Um, I'm literally trying to brush my teeth here."

Rita: "We all are, honey."

Leni: "Shh, I'm trying to brush my hair and you keep making me lose count."

Lynn Sr.: "Yeah, well, I'm plucking nose hairs and I lost count too!"

[Everyone else starts arguing. Lincoln pops up from behind.]

Lincoln: "Mom! Dad!"

Luan: [laughs] "Lincoln has to take out the trash for a month!"

Lincoln: [to Luan] "I don't care." [turns to his parents, grunting] "What part of the world are we from?"

Me: Lincoln be nice!

Lynn: [seeing toothpaste on her sleeve] "Who spit toothpaste on my arm?"

Lincoln: "Clyde's family's from France!"

Me: It's true guys!

Rita: "Well, my family is from right here in Royal Woods, honey. Before it was Gotham Royal York"

Lynn Sr.: "I'm not sure where my family is from originally. Why?"

Lincoln: "Because if we knew, we could take a vacation, and meet our relatives."

Me: That's an interesting idea.

[That gets the family's attention, and the girls ramble amongst themselves, mostly to their parents.]

Lana: "Vacation!"

Eddy: Lincoln, I don't know where your mind was yesterday. But we're about to go to war with Mr. Mind and his goons. Now's not the time for a vacation!

Trinitro Man: Can't you reschedule the vacation to Scotland for another day?

Lincoln: I wish I could but me and my family are very curious as to learning all about our family's roots.

Nico: And that's perfect fine Lincoln. As long as it's part of our counter plan to destroy Team Dark Phoenix Storm.

Me: I too am fascinated with wanting to learn more about the Loud Family's roots. Its been very interesting ever since I moved here in 2016.

Eli: Same with me. It's awesome and cool.

Nunnally: That is very interesting.

Eclair: I love learning all about family histories and it's awesome.

Nico: You're right about that. But just be careful guys.

Lincoln: We still need to find out where we are from and then we'll know.

Lola: "Five star hotel, please."

Lincoln: "All we need to do is find out where Dad's family is from."

[The girls join Lincoln in convincing their parents into finding out.]

Rita: "Okay, let's just slow down, everyone."

Lynn Sr.: "Well, can't hurt to find out."

Lisa: "All I will need, Father, is a DNA sample."

Lynn Sr.: "No needles." [shivers] "I hate needles!"

Lisa: "Pshaw. Oh, Father." [shines a light onto her face, which changes to a wicked grin] "Needles are for amateurs."

Me: Uh oh. this is gonna hurt.

---

[In Lisa's room, Lisa pushes a few buttons and flips a switch on for a centrifuge machine. Said machine is connected to a rotator at a capsule going practically at hyperspeed with Lynn Sr. inside as the family looks on. He screams as his head is squished back into the seat he is sitting in. Later, Lisa pushes buttons on a different device; this one repeatedly dunking Lynn Sr. into a tank of water.]

Lynn Sr.: "I shoulda… picked the… needles!"

Me: Well at least it's better than a needle!

Rita: [wincing at everything her husband is enduring] "Boy, I'm glad I know where I'm from."

[Lisa activates a third device. Lynn Sr. is strapped on a table as six fingers repeatedly tickle him, having him laugh uncontrollably.]

Lynn Sr.: [as he's laughing] "Please don't!"

[Lisa pulls a switch, shutting down the machine. A dazed Lynn Sr. collapses on the ground and drools, which Lisa collects.]

Lincoln: "You couldn't have just made him spit in a cup?"

Lisa: "There's a scientific word for that: Boring."

Me: Lisa likes to take things to extremes.

Nico: That's true.

---

[In the living room, from Lynn Sr.'s point of view, he starts to regain consciousness with the girls all staring at him. Lincoln then comes into view.]

Lincoln: "Dad!"

[Scene switches to normal POV]

Lynn Sr.: [fully awake] "Dahhh, no more tickles!" [flails around a bit, prompting Lincoln to run off]

Rita: [walks up to her husband and consoles him] "Oh, there, there."

Lynn Sr.: [scared] "Is it over?!"

Me: Yep.

Lisa: "Indeed." [tosses a circular-looking device onto the floor] "My test has determined that we hail from a land of the Romans called…"

[The device pops out its legs, and the flaps open up to portray a grid-enhanced holographic image of… ]

Lisa: "Caledonia."

[The siblings are confused.]

Lincoln: "Uh, just give us the street name, Lis."

Lisa: [walks through the hologram] "Street name:…" [presses a button on a remote, switching the name "Caledonia" to… ] "Scotland."

[Now they are fascinated.]

Me: Wow! I didn't know you guys had Scottish in your blood too!

Girl Jordan: That's amazing!

Me: Caledonia is what they used to call Scotland over 2,000 years ago.

Maria: That's cool!

Lincoln: "Whoa! Scotland?"

Luna: "We have family in Scotland?"

Lana: "Cool!"

Leni: "So exotic."

Laney: And beautiful. I love the kilts and the dancing.

Lola: "So international."

Rita: "So expensive . Thirteen of us traveling all that way?"

[The hologram disappears.]

Me: Lets not forget that Scotland is also where Mr. Mind and his team have set up a trap for you guys.

Lincoln: I know and we'll be ready for them no matter what it takes.

Nico: Awesome.

Lola: Relax, guys. We'll be fine in Scotland. Trust me.

Me: Be careful guys.

Laney: We will. It'll be awesome to learn all about Scotland.

Merida: (Scottish Accent) You will love it there. It's loaded with history laddies.

Scotsman: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Loads of amazing food too. Eat plenty of haggis now.

Lana: Oh we will.

Thunderblast: Please make sure to come back to us, ok, guys? That's all we ask.

Rita: We will Thunderblast.

We saw them head out to Scotland. It was gonna be a good vacation/history run and war for us and them.

Loki Loud: I miss them already.

Jaime: You guys still have me and my friends with you all.

Me: That's true. That's true.

Nico: Even if we're continents apart we'll always be together in heart and spirit.

Crosshairs: Well, we might as well have one last meal before our final hours.

Nico: Yep. But I'm not worried. We're ready for them.

Me: Also Commander it's your turn to lead today anyway.

Nico: I know man. I know.

Vypra and all the Masters of Evil appeared.

Vypra: Mind if we join you guys?

Nico: Not at all Vypra. We're gonna need all the help we can get if we're going to take down Team Dark Phoenix Storm. Lets head to Lynn's Table.

We did so.

The Loud Family arrived in Scotland and it was beautiful!

Lincoln: "Whoa."

Leni: "Wow."

Lana: "Yeah!"

Lynn: "You did it, Stinkin'."

Laney: So beautiful.

Lana: "Way to go, bro."

Luan: "Lincoln, you're the man."

Leni: "Totes awesome."

Rita: "Good job, Lincoln."

Lynn Sr.: "This is great, Lincoln."

Lori: "We're in Scotland!"

Lola: "It's like something out of a fairy tale."

They arrived in Loch Loud.

Lincoln: "I can't wait to meet our relatives."

Lynn: "Whoo!"

Luan: "Amazing."

Laney: It's beautiful.

Leni: "I don't see a mall, but it's still totes pretty."

Lucy: "It's so wonderful, I don't even mind seeing it in the sunshine."

[Lori spots something, gasps, and takes a photo.]

Lynn Sr.: [in a Scottish accent] "Time for a wee dauber doon yonder!"

Luan: "An accent already, Dad? Really?"

Lola: "At least he's not wearing a kilt."

Lynn Sr.: "Oh, yeah? Check it out!"

[Lynn Sr. takes off his khakis, revealing that he does have a kilt. The family (sans Lana) is taken aback.]

Lana: "Sweet knees, Pops."

Lori: "Ooh! Bobby's not gonna believe I'm here." [prepares to call him]

Lincoln: "Okay, everyone, so what do you say we meet some Louds?" [The family cheers] "Hmmm…" [spots someone] "Hey, let's ask that fisherman where we can find them."

[The others agree. The Louds advance on the fisherman, who is shocked and holds up a fish.]

Lincoln: "Excuse me? We traveled halfway around the world to meet our relatives. We're the Louds. Do you know where we can-"

Fisherman: "Louds? Louds ?! LOUDS!" [bolts out of the harbor and into town] "LOUDS! LOUDS! LOUDS!"

[The Louds watch the fisherman flee in confusion.]

Lynn: "Think he's coming back?"

Laney: That was weird.

Lincoln: "Don't worry, everyone. I bet there are Louds this way. Follow me."

[The Louds head into town.]

Lynn: "Let's do this!"

[They enter the town, which is dotted with imagery of dragons.]

Lana: "Whoa, cool!"

Lola: Beautiful and awesome.

Lily: I didn't know the Scottish like dragons.

[A flock of sheep stampede in front of them.]

Lola: "What the sheep?"

Lisa: "Hmmm. Quaint, yet illogical. Just like that door over there."

[She's pointing to a red door placed meters above the sidewalk. A dark-skinned woman exits the house.]

Mrs. Turnberry: (Scottish Accent) "Have a lovely day, my dear."

[The Louds gasp (complete with Lucy saying "gasp") as the woman is about to fall into the sidewalk, but a man comes up with a ladder and places it on her doorstep. She walks down the ladder.]

Angus: (Scottish Accent) "Watch your step, Mrs. Turnberry."

Mrs. Turnberry: "Thank you, Angus. Someday, someone will help us fix this silly town."

Angus: "One can only hope, ma'am."

Lisa: "Looks like someone failed Door Making 101."

Lily: It's all right though.

Lincoln: [notices a sign] "Hey, I bet those signs will tell us where to look."

[They head over to a list of signs, but they're all jumbled… ]

Lynn: "Or not."

Lisa: "Someone failed Sign Making 101, too."

[… and due to this obvious oversight, a woman, driving a car, is looping around the roundabout.]

Car Driver: "How do I get out of here?!"

Luna: [notices something] "Dudes, look at that!"

[At the bell tower, the big bell has been made into a nesting grounds for birds, and the town crier is using a little bell instead.]

Bell Ringer: "It's nine o'clock and all is WELLLL!" [gets attacked by the bird]

[Lori, Luan, Lynn, and the twins laugh at that.]

Lincoln: "Never seen that before."

Lynn Sr.: "Rita, they have a fish shop, and a chip shop!"

[Both shops' owners are arguing with each other.]

Fish Shoppe Owner: "The fish goes on the chips!"

Chip Shoppe Owner: "No, the chips go on the fish!"

Fish Shoppe Owner: "Nobody likes cold fish!"

Chip Shoppe Owner: " You're a cold fish."

Fish Shoppe Owner: "Well, you married me, didn't ya?"

Luna: "This place is crazy town."

[The Louds start walking.]

Lynn: "Heh, talk about bonkers."

Lola: "Who's running this show?"

Leni: [to random citizens] "Have a nice day, Scott! Hi, Scott! Hey, Scott!"

OH LENI!

Lori: "Why are you calling everyone Scott?"

Leni: "Um, we're in Scott- land . Duh." [keeps greeting citizens] "What's up, Scott? You must be-" [bumps into a young man carrying cloth. She looks into his eyes] "Scott…"

Scott: (Scottish Accent) "Yeah. How did you know that?"

[Both blush at each other.]

Lori: [offscreen] "Leni!"

Leni: "Uh, bye, Scott from Scott Land…" [Scott stares at her as she returns to her family] "That was Scott!"

[Meanwhile, other citizens are apparently in awe at the Loud family. The fisherman meets up with Angus.]

Fisherman: "Hey, Angus. You're not gonna believe who's here!" [points at the Louds] "Look!"

Villager: "Are those the Louds?"

Angus: [gasps] "Well, blow my bagpipes!"

[The citizens are now crowding around the Louds.]

Lori: "Oh, hi!"

Lola: "Hello!"

Lori: "Everyone is so friendly."

Angus: [pushes through the crowd] "Pardon me. Are you really Louds?"

[A sheep bleats. The Louds pause for a second, before clamoring they are.]

Lynn Sr.: "Yeah, we sure are!"

Angus: [laughs] "Then welcome to Loch Loud!"

[The crowd parts, revealing the name on various cars, trucks, and buildings as Scottish music starts to play.]

Lincoln: "Loch Loud?"

Angus: "That's right, lad. This town was founded by your ancestors!"

[The Louds are fascinated. Angus starts singing.]

You see, about 400 years ago

Our village rose to fame

By a family who founded all

I believe you know the name

But we lost our leaders, lost our way

We've never been the same

[The Louds get excited and follow Angus.]

That family's name was Loud

And now you've come home again!

Angus and Louds:

This town is named for you, yes

This town is named for you

[A few citizens jump into a river, from what was supposed to be a bridge, and Scott is moving a woman along, who is in the river, by pole, and then sees Angus and the Louds run by. Leni waves to him, and he waves back, not noticing a man is being dragged away in the river.]

This town is named for you, yes

This town is named for you

This town is named for you, yes

This town is named for you

It's hard to believe, it's crazy but true

This town is named for you!

[Angus leads the Louds out of town.]

Angus:

And 400 years we've waited

With a hope as strong as stone

For the Louds to come back home again

We've yearned

[A huge, yet ornate castle comes into view. Angus waves a hand to it, and the Louds are fascinated.]

In this glorious castle on the hill

We've been awaiting you

My Louds, at last, you've returned

Come on!

[Inside the castle, the castle stewardess, Morag, is bathing in a bathtub. She hears the commotion before getting annoyed. With a towel wrapped around her, she grabs binoculars, spots the portcullis drop, and is shocked to find the Louds on the castle territory.]

Angus and Louds:

This town is named for you, yes

This town is named for you

This town is named for you, yes

This town is named for you

[Morag gets nervous, and backs away from the window.]

This town is named for you, yes

This town is named for you

It's hard to believe, it's crazy but true

This town is named for you!

[The Louds run up to the entrance and take in their surroundings, admiring the scenery of the castle. Angus runs up to the entry doors as the song ends.]

Angus:

This town is named for you!

Leni: "'For You' is a weird name for a town."

Rita: "Uh, I-I'm sorry, but who are you?"

Angus: "Oh, ha! Forgive me. I'm Angus, the groundskeeper here at Loud Castle, and I welcome you to your ancestral home."

[Angus opens the doors to the castle to reveal a beautiful sight. The castle interiors are as royal as it is majestic. The Louds clamor in awe, and enter the Castle of Loud, taking in the sights around them. They can't believe their ancestors lived here, in a castle .]

Lana: "Sweet!"

Laney: Wow! What a castle! We never saw a castle like this before.

Rita: "So fancy…"

Lola: " This is more like it."

Lynn: "Wowie… wow ."

Lincoln: "I can't believe Louds lived here."

Lily: This is amazing!

Rita: "We could fit a hundred of our houses in here."

[Upstairs, Morag bolts out of the bathroom wearing a towel, and enters another door. She exits, wearing her usual wear. Morag, in despair, sees the new visitors, then puts on a friendly face… ]

Morag: "(Scottish Accent) Oh me, oh my!" [traversing down the stairs] "Do my eyes deceive me? Why, you're, um…"

Angus: "Louds!"

Morag: "Yes, I heard the song, Angus. Everyone in Scotland heard the song."

[Angus bolts over to her and grips her in a bone-crushing hug.]

Angus: "Our dreams have come true, Morag! Louds are back after 400 years!"

[Angus beams, stars in his eyes.]

Morag: "Ho-oh, my!" [close-up] " Put. Me. Down. "

Angus: "Oh, sorry! Sorry." [puts her down] "Loud family, may I introduce Morag, the castle caretaker."

[Enter Lola with her bag.]

Lola: "Oh! Would you care to take my bag?"

Rita: [pulls Lola away, leaving the bag there] "Lola! Heh heh, sorry."

[As Lola is dragged away, she points to her bag.]

Angus: "I can barely believe Louds have returned to their rightful place!"

Rita: "Well, for a week."

Angus: "A week ? Not forevermore?-"

Morag: [covering Angus' mouth] "Oh, let's not pry, Angus. The family is only here on holiday. Yes, well I do hope you enjoy your visit. You'll find lovely accommodations in the village."

Angus: " Or they can stay here! It's their family's castle after all."

[Morag is not pleased; the Loud kids pull off their convincing eyes.]

Lana: "You mean it?"

Lynn Sr.: "We can stay?"

[Some of the kids ramble.]

Lynn: "Yes, yes, yes!"

Morag: [holding back her anger] "Mmph… what a…" [fake smiles] "… marvelous idea."

[The kids rush on over and hug her.]

Lucy: "I've never been so excited."

Leni: "Can we call you 'Aunty Morag'?"

[Morag pulls her head out of the hug.]

Morag: "Oi! Hands off the antiques!"

[Which Lynn Sr. is tinkering with… ]

Lynn Sr.: "Oh."

[… and thus causing a stand of armor to fall apart… ]

Morag: "Oh my."

Lynn Sr.: "It was like that already."

[… and the battleaxe falls and knocks a piece off-screen, accompanied with a cat screech. Morag turns to Lynn Sr.]

Lynn Sr.: [chuckles] "That one's on me."

Lincoln: [walks up to Angus] "Uh, Mr. Angus, sir, what can you tell us about our ancestors?"

Angus: "Oh. A grander clan this land has never seen!"

[Angus withdraws the curtains to reveal a painting of the Louds' ancestors, who are literally identical to them, but in royal Scottish attire. The Louds are in awe.]

It was an amazing picture of the Loud's from back in 1621. Really amazing!

Luna: "Whoa."

Lynn: "Whoa-ho!"

Lana: "No… way!"

Laney: Wow! That is amazing!

Lisa: "Am I experiencing double vision?"

Lynn Sr.: "It's old-timey us!"

Leni: "When did we pose for this?"

Lori: "11 girls and one boy. Literally just like us."

Lucy: "That's amazing."

Luna: [giggles] "Yes!"

Lincoln: "Yeah. How about that…?" [sports a worried expression afterward]

[Morag, meanwhile, is picking up the parts of the armor while the Louds are still commenting on the painting.]

Morag: "Just a week. Only for a week."

Angus: "Would you fancy a look at the rest of the castle?"

Louds: "Yes!"

[The Louds all run upstairs, except for Lincoln.]

Luan: "Last one to their room is a Scotch egg!" [Morag yelps, upon noticing this] "Get it?"

Leni: "No, I don't!"

Morag: [runs after them] "No touching!" [slips on an armor part and falls]

Lola: [sighs and takes her bag] "It's just impossible to find good help these days." [leaves]

Luan: [offscreen] "Woo-hoo!"

Morag: [stands up] "Oh!" [runs upstairs] "No roughhousing. Hey, you! Hey, hands off the tapestries. Tapestries!"

[Angus walks up and stops a few feet behind Lincoln, who continues to stare at the painting. He looks at it too.]

Lincoln: "So, let me guess. The sisters were all special, right?"

Angus: "Oh, aye. All were exceptional. Our loch has never seen anything quite like the Loud lassies."

Lincoln: [despondent] "Of course…"

Angus: [notices Lincoln's expression and smiles] "But, there was also-"

Lynn: "Oh, Stinkin'!"

Luan: [offscreen] "Lincoln!"

[Lynn, Lana, and Luna appear at the balcony.]

Lola: [offscreen] "Lincoln!"

Luna: "Come here!"

Lana: "Hurry!"

[They run off.]

Lisa: [offscreen] "Chop, chop!"

Lincoln: "Sorry, Angus, I gotta go." [runs upstairs] "What? What is it?!"

Lori: [offscreen] "You have to see this!"

[Angus smiles warmly. Up in a hallway, Lincoln finds Lily, who giggles, and picks her up, then notices something.]

Lincoln: "Wow! Look at this!"

[The camera zooms out to show four doors lined up on both sides of the hallway. The sisters simultaneously open theirs.]

Lori: "We all get our own rooms!"

Sisters: "Lincoln, come look!"

[Luan, Lynn, Lola, and Lana grab Lincoln and drag him away. His first stop is a violet-shaded room, where Luna is on a stage with her axe and amp.]

Luna: "I can jam in peace!" [plays a power chord on her axe]

Lincoln: "Cool!"

Laney: Look at my room!

Laney's room was a beautiful library and art studio!

Laney: Awesome books and an art studio!

Lincoln: Amazing!

[He heads into a black-shaded room, where Lucy is resting in a coffin.]

Lucy: "I can rest in peace."

Lincoln: "Spooky."

Lily: Look at my room!

Lily's room was a photo room!

[Lincoln jumps down into a pink-shaded room, where Lola is having a tea party.]

Lola: "No more tea parties ruined by Lana's burping!"

[Lana's own blue-shaded room comes in.]

Lana: "Wanna bet?" [burps]

[The three other siblings all flinch from Lana's burping. Lincoln laughs as he and Lily go to Lori's gold-shaded room, where Lori is bathing in a large bathtub.]

Lori: "My room has a hot tub." [takes Lily from Lincoln's hands]

Lincoln: [surfaces from the tub] "Yeah, I noticed."

[He falls into a green-shaded room, where Lisa is working on an experiment. Lily joins him.]

Lisa: "I've found my happy place!"

KRABOOM!

[A chemical explosion happens, sending Lincoln and Lily to Leni's teal-shaded room.]

Lily: "WOW!"

Leni: [wearing a green boa] "Mine has a fashion runway!"

[She wraps Lincoln and Lily in the boa, sending them flying to a dark room.]

Lincoln: "Styling."

[A yellow spotlight shines, revealing Luan.]

Luan: "Mine is big enough to be a comedy club!"

[Lynn opens Luan's door, revealing a red-shaded room.]

Lynn: "Haha! We each have our own bathroom!"

Siblings: "What?!"

Lynn: "I'm gonna take, like, a hundred leaks a day!"

[Lynn flushes the toilet, sending Lincoln back in front of Angus.]

Angus: "Ah, there you are, lad!" [catches Lily and tosses her; Lily giggles] "Now before you were whisked away, I tried to tell you that the most special of all your ancestors was the Duke."

Lincoln: "The 'Duke'?"

Angus: "Aye. And don't you know, you'll be staying in his room."

[Lincoln opens the door to the Duke's room, and is completely stunned at what he sees. His ancestral double's visage adorns nearly every corner of his room.]

Lincoln: "Whoa… Wait. The boy in the painting was the Duke?"

Angus: "Aye."

Lincoln: "Hang on. The boy in the painting with the white hair was the Duke?"

Angus: "Aye."

Lincoln: "The boy in the painting with the white hair that had ten sisters and looked just like ME…" [gets sparkly eyed] "… was the Duke?!"

Angus: "The one and only! He was the most special Loud there ever was."

Lincoln: "Yes!" [slaps himself to give himself a blush]

Angus: "Far and wide, people knew his name. His deeds were noble. His heart was stout."

[As Angus speaks, Lincoln gets near paintings of his ancestral double and imitates his various poses. Just then, Lynn and Lana barge into his room.]

Lynn and Lana: [looking around the room] "Whoa."

Lynn: [gives Lincoln a thumbs-up] "Sweet digs, Stinkin'."

Lincoln: [giddy] "The boy was the Duke!"

Lana: "Whatever tugs your tonsils, bro." [to Angus] "Hey, Angus, what's the deal with all the dragon stuff?"

Angus: "Ah, so you noticed! If it's dragons you fancy, there's something you should see."

[As he leaves, Lynn and Lana follow, the latter laughing merrily.]

Angus: "Come with me."

[As soon as they left the room, Lincoln looks somewhere else and gasps. What stands in front of him is the Duke's crown on a pedestal. He is in amazement as he walks over to it. The second he sees his reflection in the crown, his smile grows wide and gets beady eyed.]

[Angus, Lynn, Lana, and Lily take a walk outside the castle. Lynn and Lana are looking at the dragon statues.]

Angus: "The reason why dragons are celebrated here is that they are a part of our history."

Lana: "I knew it! Dragons are for reals."

Lola: Awesome! Equestria has amazing dragons like Spike and we also know lots of dragons!

Angus: "In fact, your ancestors had their very own dragon. And when the family left, so did she."

[They enter the castle's courtyard, venturing behind a waterfall. Lynn glides her hand across it as they now enter a cave.]

Lana: "Whoa, a dragon cave!"

Lynn: "Keep dreamin'."

Angus: "If it's proof you need, take a gander at what your ancestors' dragon left behind."

[A green-bluish egg with purple spots comes into view. There is an actual dragon egg.]

Lynn: [surprised] "Whoa!"

Lynn: "This is whack-a-doodle! I didn't know we had OUR own dragon."

Angus: "Miss Lynn, if you wouldn't mind taking Miss Lily for a moment." [Lynn takes Lily off his hands and he marches over to the egg] "Just as we hoped that someday Louds would return…" [Lana gasps] "… we hoped a dragon would too ."

[Angus pats the egg, before finding something that shocks him. Behind him, part of the egg has been cracked open.]

Angus: [gasps] "It's hatched!"

Lana: [excited] "You mean there's a dragon on the loose in here?"

Lily: "Uh-oh."

Angus: "No sudden movements." [backs away] "Easy does it. Remain-"

[All of a sudden, a turquoise looking blur tackles Angus to the ground as he yelps.]

Lynn and Lana: "Angus!"

[A fight cloud now ensues.]

Angus: "Ah! Run for your lives!"

[The cloud disappears, only to show a small dragon licking Angus' face as he now laughs. The dragon looks over, panting; the three Louds are awestruck by its adorable little face.]

Lana: "Awww…"

Lily: [clapping] "What a cute dragon!"

Lana: "So cute!"

Lynn: "Look at that little face!"

[The dragon hops off of Angus, who chuckles. It now lies on its back, and the three girls run over.]

Lana: "We gotta name this little pup!"

Lily: [toddles over to the dragon] "Lela!" [kisses her]

Laney: That's an awesome name for a dragon.

---

[Back at Loud Castle, the dragon, now named Lela, is being petted by the Loud sisters and Rita.]

Lana: "Lela."

Luan: "I love her so much."

Lucy: "She's so cute."

Laney: She sure is.

Lisa: "Biologically improbable, yet…" [beady-eyed] "so adorable."

Lana: [to Rita] "Can we keep her? Can we keep her?"

Rita: "Okay. But I am not changing her diaper."

[The girls exclaim in excitement.]

Lori: "Thanks, Mom!"

[Just then, they hear a trumpet sounding off-screen. Problem is, it is very off-key. The girls cover their ears as the trumpet screeches away.]

Luna: "Dude, pick a key! "

[The trumpet stops, and out comes Lincoln, decked out in the Duke's wear. With some music fit for royalty playing in the background, he poses… to the look of ten confused girls and Rita.]

Rita: "Uh, what are you doing, honey?"

Lincoln: "Duke-ing."

Lana: "Right in front of us?"

Lola: "You know we have our own bathrooms now."
